Chapter 1: Unemployment Intro

At the house of Edmund Sims...

"Life, is it really worth it?" Edmund asked, "I need a job. College sure is short. I should have thought of a job when I graduated a year ago." Edmund picked up the classified section,

"Hmmm, business man. Ah, what's this? Burger cook needed, ha fu-- that. I'm sure not doin' that. This sucks. I'll never find a job." The phone interrupted. Edmund answered, "Speak to me."

"Edmund?" a voice answered, "this is Pooh."

"Pooh, how ya doin'?" Edmund asked.

"Fine, fine. How about you?"

"Oh, I'm makin' it. I just need a job." ☹️

"Seriously?!" Pook answered

"Yeah, no lie."

"What a coincidence. There's an opening where I work. We need an agent."

"Oh a business job," Edmund replied.

"It's worth a try," Pook explained.

"So what do you say?"

"Well alright, if it's good enough for you, it's good enough for me," Edmund reasoned.

Pook ordered, "I'll meet you outside of your house at 2:00. We'll take your car."

"Oh man," Edmund ended, "see ya then."

At 2:00...

Pook walked to Edmund's house. Edmund drove a B.M.W. M3 or theoretically a race car. They wasted no time in going to the work place. Pook gave excellent directions. They were there in a flash.

Chapter 2: Showin' the ropes at a secretive place...

Pook explained, "If you're gonna work here, you must be sworn to secrecy."

Edmund replied, "Woah, woah, woah. What the fu-- is this? What have you gotten me into?"

Pook explained, "I signed you into a lifetime contract with the C. I. A."

Edmund froze.

Pook ordered, "Come meet the guys. Welcome to the Central Intelligence Agency. These 2 are Jason and Mason. As you can see, they are twins."

"Well how can I tell them apart?" Edmund asked.

"That's easy," Pook explained, "Jason always wears his hat to his left. Mason is the exact opposite."

"Hello," another voice said, "My name is Mark Shields. I'm the Captain here."

Another person walked up. "This is Case Jerrico. He's second in command at the rank of commander. What is your name?"

"My name is Edmund Sims. Are there more of you guys?"

Case answered, "Of course."

Mark resumed, "You see, we're an independent organization. We have many enemies. The U. S. & the government are jealous of us. They are jealous because of our independence. They've been trying to shut us down for a long time.

The U. S. & are a terrorist organization who employ soldiers and the mob. The mob is lead by the Mercenaries. The big boss of this country and Russia is the K. G. B. The K. G. B. is lead by the ingenious Vladimir Griminski, the Russian Ambassador to the U. S. He employs a crazed doctor who does Bizarre experiments on humans. There's a rumor that Dr. Mindtrasher took a deformed barely skinned arm from a dead man and connected it to the spinal column of a brainedwashed woman.

We've been tryin' to bust Ambassador Grimski for years. He's real slick."

"Well you can count on me to do my best," Edmund explained.

"That's all we can ask of you," Pook replied.

"How 'bout if we take a ride in the ships to show Edmund the ropes?"

"That'd work," Edmund agreed.

"Then let's go," Mark ordered. "Pair up."

Jason and Mason took a ship. Mark and Eace took another. Pook and Edmund took the last.

In the last ship...

"What do you call these," Edmund asked.

"These are Northway Ships. You're the pilot. I'm the co-pilot. This is the 71 work of a genius."

"Who designed it?"

Pook answered, "Remember our old friend U.S.?"

"No way! Jerry Ferruson works with the C.I.A. also?"

"Yep. He was Hospital Based."

"How do you start'er up."

"First lock the four doors. Input your voice code in."

Edmund tried, "Computer this is..."

The computer finished, "Edmund Sims C.I.A. C.O.P.S. operative. Ready for commands."

Edmund ordered, "Shields on, shields at maximum."

Pook explained, "On your side you have piloting and targeting controls. I have sensory equipment. I'll type the code until you memorize it."

"I think I'm gonna like this job," Edmund explained. "Let's go."

They all took off flying at mach. Soon they entered uncharted territory. Pook spotted blips on the radar. There 81 were 5 migs following far behind the fast Northway ships.

"This is the Mig leader, you are deep in Russian territory. About your mission. I repeat, about your mission."

Mark Shields answered back, "This is uncharted unknown territory."

The mig leader replied, "Suck yourself."

Jason said, "Come on, fu-- these commies."

"Yeah lick all over these twinkie wusses," Mason added.

The Northway ships easily destroyed the Migs but did not get away from the ack-ack fire of the anti-aircraft guns. Jason and Mason were just barely singed. Edmund and Pooh were not touched. They all screamed in unison, "Mark! Ease!"

The ship containing Mark and Ease was going down quickly.

Edmund yelled, "We've gotta do something!"

"There's a jet pack in the back,"
Pooh explained.

Edmund ordered, "Try to make contact with them!"

Pooh called, "This is N.W. 3 calling
N.W. 1."

"Yeah Pooh! This is Ease. I'm alright.
Just some minor burns and whiplash.
Mark is trapped under some metal.
I can't get to him, there's fire."

Edmund got on the communicator,
"Get the jetpack and get out."

"I can't leave Mark."

"Do it da--it, I've got a plan."

Edmund flew down into the glumming ship. He jumped through the fire, "Mark, Mark! Where are you?"
Edmund heard moaning. He pushed the metal out of the way. Mark had a humongous gnash in his head, massive smoke inhalation, burns, and cuts. Edmund pulled him from the rubble.

Pooh piloted the Northway ship with grace next to the burning 101 ship. They rescued Mark in the nick of time.

The C.O.P.s. got back to Basel. An ambulance came for them. At Hospital Base 2 Edmund met Jerry with a hug. After all, they haven't seen each other since childhood.

"How's Mark?" Jason asked.

"Is he going to be alright," Mason also asked.

"He'll be fine," Jerry explained, "You guys had a pretty wild night, huh."

"More than you'll know Jerry," Pooh said.

"Oh uh Mark wants to see all of you and afterwards I do." Jerry ordered.

Chapter 3: The malt shop setup

In Mark's hospital room...

"I was expecting you all," Mark explained. "I thank you all, but from the reports, I mostly thank Edmund. I feel that you Edmund deserve a promotion. Does everybody feel this way?"

"Yeah!" everybody replied in unison.

Mark continued, "I hereby promote you to the rank of commander or 2nd in command. The ranks go as following; me, Edmund, Ease, and so forth.

Edmund stunned said, "Thanks. Well let's go celebrate. I found this brochure in my mailbox. It's for a malt shop on 73."

"Let's go!" Ease replied.

As they walked out of Mark's room, Jerry caught them, "You might want to take your new vehicles. For Edmund, your B.M.W. M3. For Jason, a racecar. Mason, you get the helicopter. Ease, take the van."

"What are these for?" Mason asked.

"You'll see," Jerry said with a grin.

Jason explained, "We're going to stay. You go without Mason and me."

"Oh, we'll give you a doggy bag when we come back," Edmund replied.

Ease and Edmund took their vehicles and took off. Edmund noticed a man with a black hat, in a jeep, and trailing closely. "He must be going to the same place," Edmund thought. "Nah, couldn't be. I'll keep my eye on him."

The two C.O.P.s. pulled into the parking lot. The man in the jeep pulled up slowly. Ease noticed a rather large truck with no markings on it. The two C.O.P.s. walked casually 131 quietly telling each other the situation.

Ease deduced, "You ever notice the large number of the same looking people."

"About how many," Edmund asked.

"'Bout 20 black suited soldiers with hair over their right eyes," Ease told.

"Our friend in the black hat left."

Ease explained, "He sounds familiar."

"I'll go after him."

"Be careful Edmund."

Just as Edmund left, a shot rang out. The leader of the army ordered, "Get down! Don't fu-- around like this waitress. Open the cash register now! Quickly. Don't stand there, open it you stupid fu--!"

The clerk opened it.

"Thanks," the leader said before he shot the clerk in the head.

"Uh oh, U.S.'s," Ease said as he ducked down and crawled out of the shop.

At the same time, Edmund caught the man, "who are you?"

"My name is Ranger Smith, C.I.A. I'm on your side, Commander Sims."

"Edmund, Edmund!" Ease came running out screaming. "It's V.I.'s they're killing everyone in there."

"Is everybody armed?"

"Of course," Edmund replied, "Don't leave home without it."

"It's 3 against 20. Great odds, huh?" Ease asked.

"Get to the side of the building," Edmund ordered. "They're comin' out."

The leader of the V.I.'s asked, "We know you're out here C.I.A. men. Come and get what's comin' to ya. In case you're wonderin' we put a brochure into your mailboxes at the hospital. We have many informants."

Ranger said, "We need a barricade. Get the garbage cans."

"I have a better idea," Ease explained. "We have to get to the cars. Cover me."

"Ease, that's a long shot. We're pretty well pinned down," Edmund said. "Wait till reinforcements come."

"Sorry, we'll be dead by then," Ease contradicted.

The Ranger used his communicator, "I'm sorry guys. They came prepared. They're jammin' the signal."

Ease ran off, "Ease wait!" Edmund ordered. Ease did not listen. Ease's wgi was cocked as he took out part of the frontline of V.I.'s. Ease ran so hard that he tripped."

"Ease!" The Ranger and Edmund screamed. It was a brutal blood bath.

"Do you see him Ranger?" Edmund asked.

"I only see blood splattered."

"Where are all of them coming from?" Edmund asked again.

"I gotta get Ease," Ranger said.

"Oh no you don't, not without me," Edmund ordered.

Ludily they did not get shot.

"Carry Ease over here."

They got to the jeep.

Ranger deduced, "They're comin' from that weird truck over there. There's 'bout a hundred of them now."

"Oh great, this makes my day," Edmund said dully. "Is Ease alright?"

"Just barely," the Ranger replied. "What's that?"

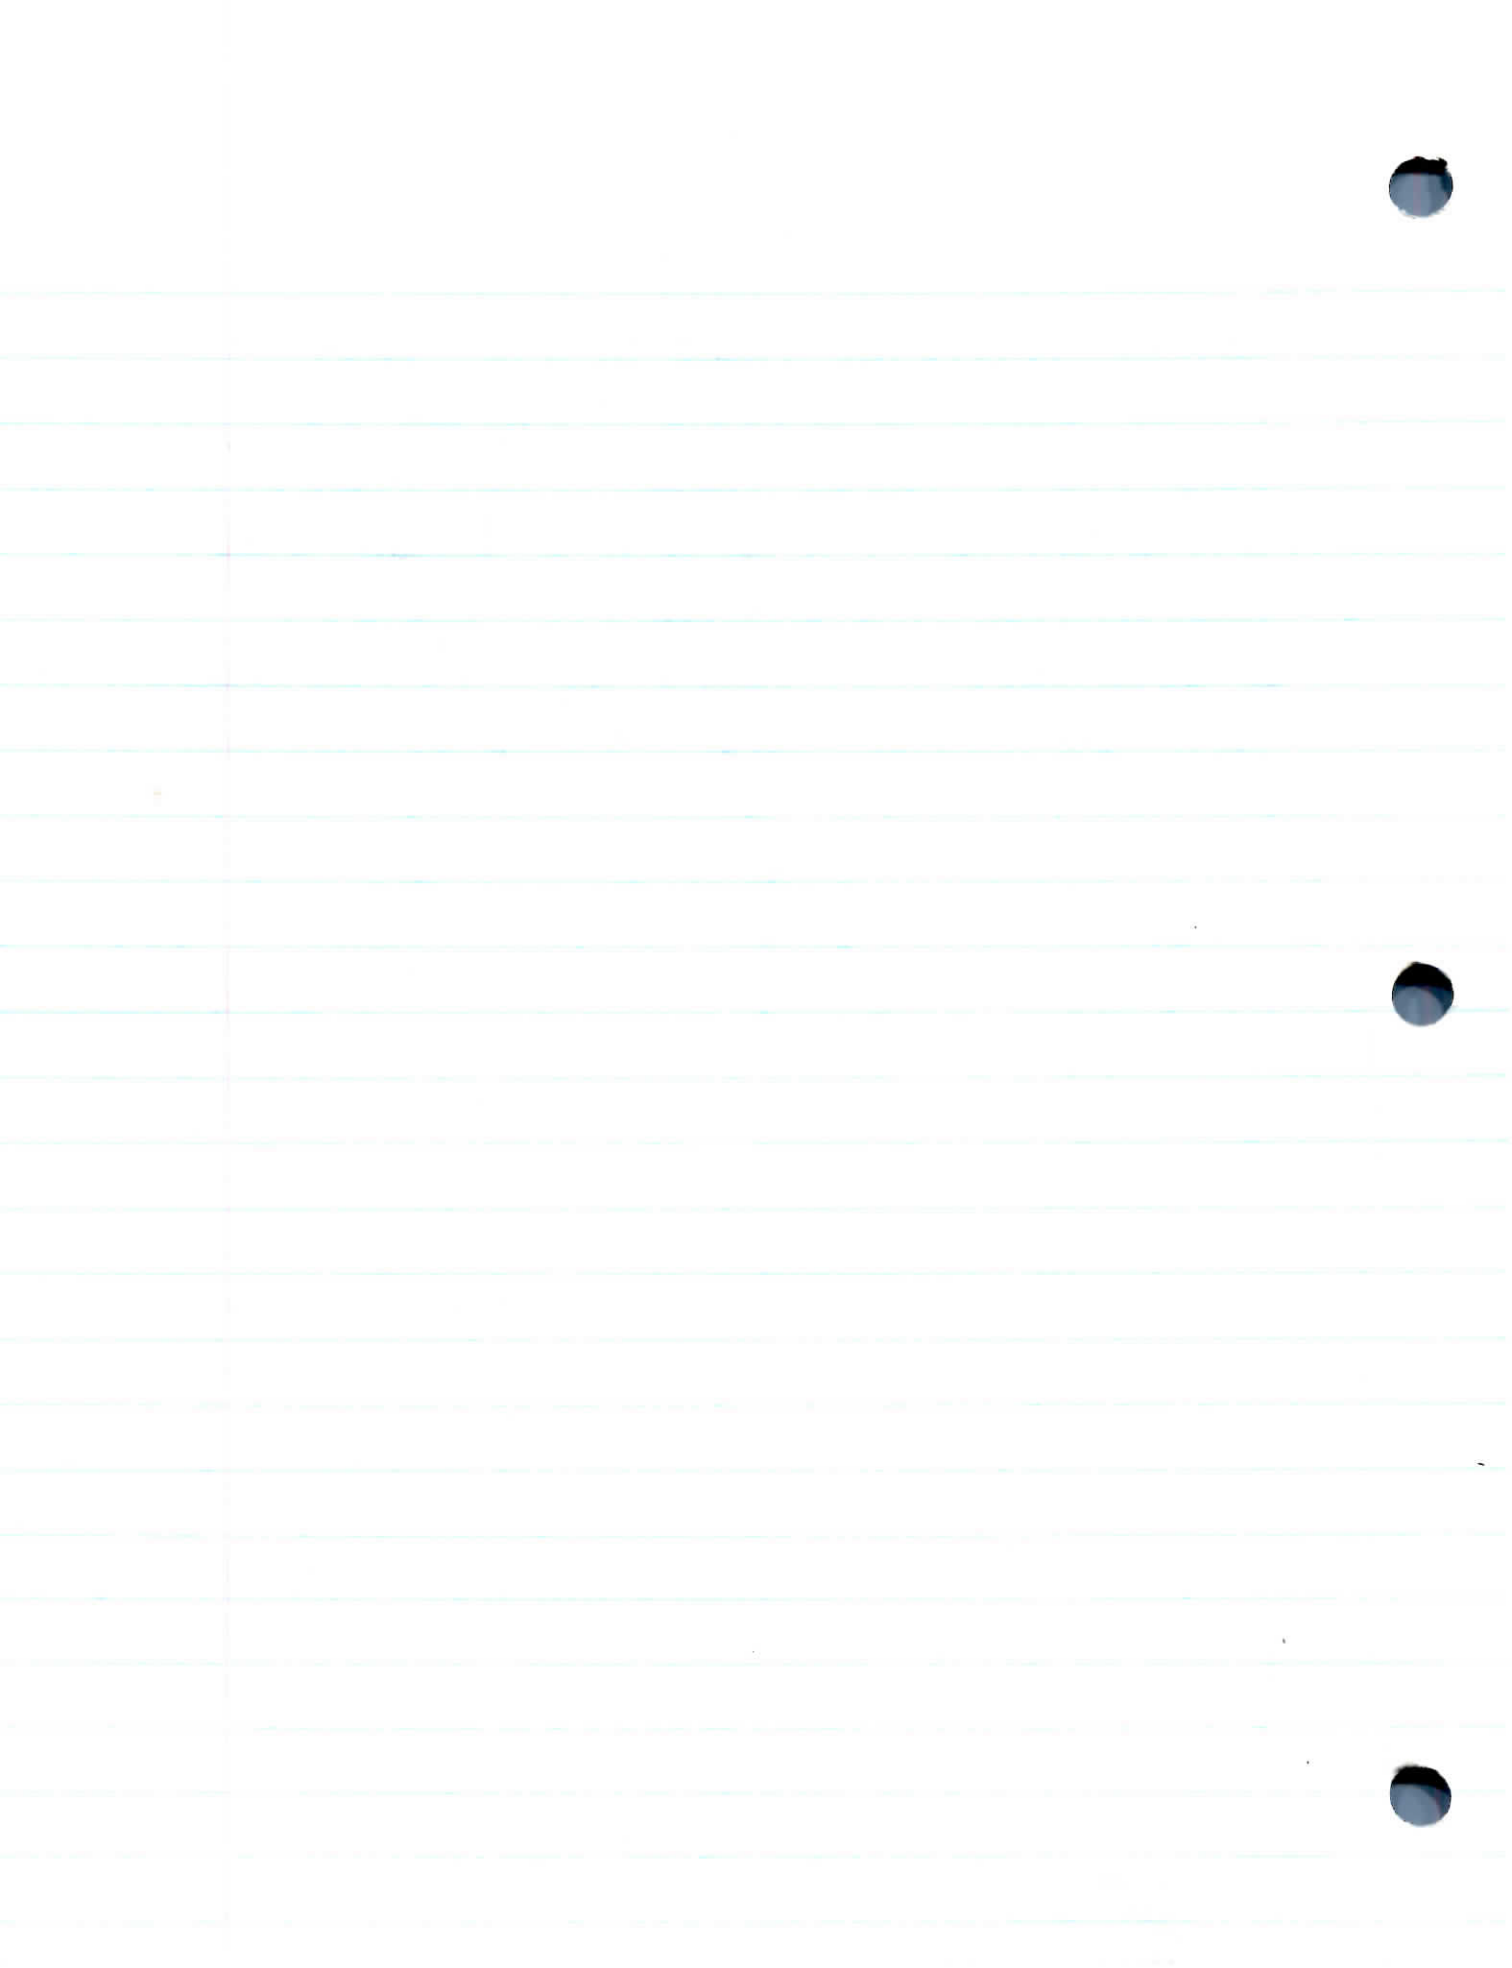

Suddenly a racecar came rumbling down the street. A helicopter came soaring through the air.

"Ranger, do you see what I see?" Edmund asked.

"Yeah, reinforcements." The Ranger said hopefully.

The car and copter were fully armed. They blocked the path of the A.F.'s so the other C.O.P.s could get to the jeep and Mr. The van was left behind. An ambulance rambled down the street. Ease was placed inside. 171

Gerry drove it, "and I transform into battle mode." There were 2 agents inside. One operated the guns. The other took the motorcycle and loaded into Easel's van. He drove the van. The ambulance, M3, Jeep, Racecar, Helicopter, and van raced toward Hospital Base 2.

Chapter 4: Take Out the V.I.'s

At Hospital Based...

The C.O.P.s rushed case to emergency. Gerry went somewhere else though. Moments later, the hospital was rumbling, "Now we have battle mode." Gerry explained.

The V.I.'s resorted to jets and tanks. It was like a sight of the 4th of July. Battle ambulances and other C.I.D. agents on foot battled V.I. soldiers and artillery.

"I guess I'm in charge." Edmund said. "Scramble the Northway ships and the coptors."

Gerry explained, "Those aren't ordinary (19) coptors. They have hi-power. That means that they have optimum speed, and fuel efficiency."

"So you're sayin' they kick as-?" Jason asked.

"I think that's what he said," Mason explained.

Pook ran out, "Our forces are being battered. We must not let them overtake the base."

Edmund ordered, "Get the big guns and go to the windows. We can take out their ground forces."

Pook screamed, "Did you see that black flash."

"Yeah," Edmund answered back. "Pook, look at all of those exploding V.I.D. planes." Edmund got his communicator.

"All air forces take out the V.I.D. ground forces. Pook use the 2,200 Blaster, Bomber, Boomer guns to finish the job." Edmund once again used the communicator, "Regroup and come home. Congratulations."

at the roof hanger...

The sleek, black, and sturdy jet landed. A person in a black suit emerged from the cockpit. The person took off the helmet.

"So whom do I owe this pleasure?" The Ranger asked.

"My name is Anny Belle, C.I.A."

"Woah, woah, woah?" Edmund sarcastically asked, "Are there any more of you C.I.A. agents that I don't know about?"

Everybody said in unison, "May--be."

Gerry came over, "Who's gonna clean up this base?"

"Edmund?" Mason called.

"What?" Edmund answered.

Jason explained, "I found this bit-runnin' out. He won't talk."

"Are there laws against ---?" Ranger asked.

"No, no, not that," Edmund begged.

Ann pulled her 9mm, "If you don't talk, we'll blow off a part of your body one by one." She put the informant's penis.

U "Well - w, well, since you put it that way, the President put us up to it."

"Who is us?" Edmund questioned.

The informant told the names of all the informants in the hospital, "You don't have it on tape, so you still lose, ya!" He used a karate move to grab Ann's gun. All of the C.O.P.s. pulled their weapons. Ann showed karate of her own. She kicked the gun out of the informant's hand. Then she flipped ^{him} over onto his back. Next she rolled him over onto his front digging his face in the floor. She cuffed him and knocked him unconscious with a chop to the neck.

The rest of the C.O.P.s. said in unison and astonished, "Got da-m!"

Edmund explained, "After we get rid of the informants, we'll fix up the base. Pooh you're in charge of your own select force. Call 'em the Disney Woods. Await further orders. Ranger, Ann, Jason, and Mason, we have a job to do. Jerry, repair the stuff. Work 22) on the Si-power. And take care of Ease and Mark.

"No sweat Edmund." Gerry explained Edmund ordered, "Let's get to the bottom of this."

Ann asked, "How are we going to get to Washington D.C.?"

Edmund explained, "We'll take a plane."

Ranger asked, "Why can't we use our stuff?"

"I think. Where are we supposed to land them and hide them?" Edmund replied, "Let's get some rest."

Chapter 5: The Bribe, the Blackmail, and the Grooming

At the hospital ...

The next day Edmund went to see Mark,
"When are you comin' back?"

"Why do you ask Commander Sims?"

"Is it just me or am I pushin' the force? I don't know if I'm really fit for this type of pressure. Am I comin' off too hard?"

"You're doing fine. I had the jitters when the admiral put me in charge. And, he was when the general put him in charge. Don't worry. If they rebel send 'em to me. I'll handle the situation."

"Thanks," Edmund replied.

Mark asked, "Now update me on the situation. What's your status?"

Edmund answered, "We're goin' to D.C. to have a little talk with the President. He sent the V.I.'s after us. He may get the F.B.I. on us to."

Mark explained, "You must be strapped. What do you have?"

"We have laser watches. They provide accurate time and a deflection shield."

"Make sure that you be aggressive. If you have the evidence, you'll be in the driver seat. Who's going with you?" Mark asked.

"Well I thought everyone but during my sleep I thought I should take a select force."

"Take Ease," Mark ordered.

"I'm afraid that's not possible," Edmund said, "the V.I.'s wasted him. I talked to Jerry and Ease is in critical condition."

"Oh man, I didn't know. So who would you take?" Mark asked.

"I think I'll only take Ann."

"Why not anybody else?"

"Both you and Case are out of action."

Jason and Mason are a-wall. They are off the wall. They'll just get in the way. I would take Ranger but we need someone to hold down the fort."

"Great deduction Edmund," Mark praised. "You'll be a great leader."

"Thanks, Well I'll be checkin' out. I'll see Case before we leave."

"Good luck!" Mark replied.

At the basement debriefing room...

Ranger, Mason, Jason, and Ann entered.

"Welcome," Edmund explained, "I have selected a few of you for the job. Ranger, Mason, and Jason, stay here and hold the fort. Ann you will come with me."

Mason replied, "Su-- that."

Jason continued, "That ain't no few."

"Listen, if you don't agree then you can resign," Ranger explained.

"Yeah," Ann followed up, "Mark put him in charge and we have to follow him."

Edmund gave a sigh of relief, "Ann take your laser watch and pack some clothes. I've gotta see Case."

"Don't worry," Ann explained, "I'm already packed. I'll come with you"

"O.k.," Edmund replied.

"Besides I've never seen him," Ann said.

At Case's room...

"How you doin' Case?" Edmund asked

Case explained, "I-I'm m-m-makin' it."

"You sound terrible," Ann said as she walked in.

Case jumped still hurting from the mutilation of his body, "Who's the fox? Do-m, you're beautiful."

"This, is C-Case?" Ann asked. They were both frozen in love. It was love at first sight.

"Where are you 2i-going?"

"Were goin' to D.C." Edmund explained (27)

"You comin' or not."

Gerry walked in, "I don't know about that. Ease is still suffering from shock. The stress he puts on his body could make a major rejection in his major organs and tissues. His whole body would reject and just stop. But this wouldn't happen before he felt enormous pain."

"Oh great I can go," Ease replied.

At the airport...

Ann and Ease sat talking about each other's life while Edmund got the tickets.

Edmund walked over to Ann and Ease, "I got the tickets. The plane leaves in 12 minutes."

"Well then," Ann said, "let's go."

The plain had a smooth takeoff. Lunch was served. Luckily there were 3 seats to a row so the C.O.P.s could sit together. Since Edmund awoke early he fell asleep first pulling down the window shade 281 to keep the sun out. Ann was next to fall asleep laying her head on Ease's shoulders. Ease was the last to fall asleep feeling that he hit the jackpot with Ann.

In the nation's capital at the White House...

The President said, "Nice to meet you sir."

"Let's cut to the chase. I could make it worth your while to get the C.I.A. out of the way. My A.I.'s almost had them. We need more recruits. Give me some from your armies."

"But I can't do that. I've helped you enough."

"Ah Mr. President, do you forget who helped you win the election? I did with funds and set up promises. You made them, we made them come true. Don't forget, I own the country. I am in charge of the country Mr. President. I pay you to be my little actor."

"Alright, you get 20% more of the army," the President said.

"I've bought you Mr. President. And I've bought your army. Don't even think about trying to stop me. I am unstoppable." The man said as he walked. "Oh and don't try anything, I will find out. You and your army are not my only informants. Here's $10 million."

Just outside of the White House. Ann asked, "Who's coming out?" Ease answered, "That looks like Grimski. How do we get in Edmund?"

"That's easy Ease," Edmund explained, "Let's take their tour. It happens once a week on Wednesdays so this's great."

While on the tour the two hid behind a statue. They ran up to the door of the Oval Office and were stopped by Secret Service Men, "Where are you goin'?"

"In." Ease said sarcastically.

Edmund mumbled, "Set your watch to stun. Ann, go."

She walked up to one and spun him 80 degrees. Ease shot. The other man was (30) slow and got shot by Edmund.

Ann explained, "Everyone's face gets reduced with that hug trick, V.I.'s, now S.I. men."

Edmund ordered, "Let's go in."

They heard a voice from inside, "What's goin' on out there?" The C.O.P.'s were in position and ready to fire. "I don't shoot. Vladimir told me that someone else would be coming by to discuss the business."

The three C.O.P.'s looked at each other. Ease explained, "Yeah that's right."

Edmund continued, "Uh refresh my memory please."

"Oh," the President said, "Vladimir and I decided to pay me 10 million if I gave him 20% of our army."

"Why so much money?" Ease asked.

"Well I have to pull a lot of strings to do this. Any more questions before we do it?"

"Do what?" Ann asked.

"The payoff, remember, uh is this 50 questions?"

"No but we got our evidence," Ann explained, "on tape."

"What the fu--! You tricked me!"

"Da-m right," Edmund replied, "now let's do a little business of our own. We have 2 incriminating pieces of evidence against you."

"What's the second one?" The President asked.

"You don't need to know," Ease explained, "so sit down and shut up. Edmund, continue."

"Well, in order to keep this from the press and, or courts, do something for us."

"I-like what?"

"For starters, we'll take that $10 million check. We want support -."

"Uh Edmund?" Ann asked.

"Yeah."

"This check isn't signed. We have nothing on Griminski."

"What," the President said, "that, that basta-- didn't trust me."

Ease said, "Well we still have one piece of evidence against you."

"We'll keep in touch," Edmund said, " 30)

Don't tell anyone we were here. From now on you do what we say. Bye."

The C.O.P.'s. walked out. Ann noticed that the Secret Service men were awakening. She kicked one in the face with her high heeled shoes. The other Secret Service man had already notified reinforcements. Ease took him out with a strong punch.

Edmund ordered, "Grab the guns."

"What about you?" Ann asked. "There are only 2 guns."

"Don't worry, I brought my own."

"But how?" Ease asked.

"I'll tell you later," Edmund replied. "Come on, we've got to get to the C.D.A. building. It's a few blocks down."

"How would you know?" Ease asked again.

"I did research last night."

The C.O.P.'s. heard foot steps. They got out safely. The President had another visitor, "Who are you Baldy?"

The visitor said, "The money, or your life."

"B-but why?" The President stuttered.

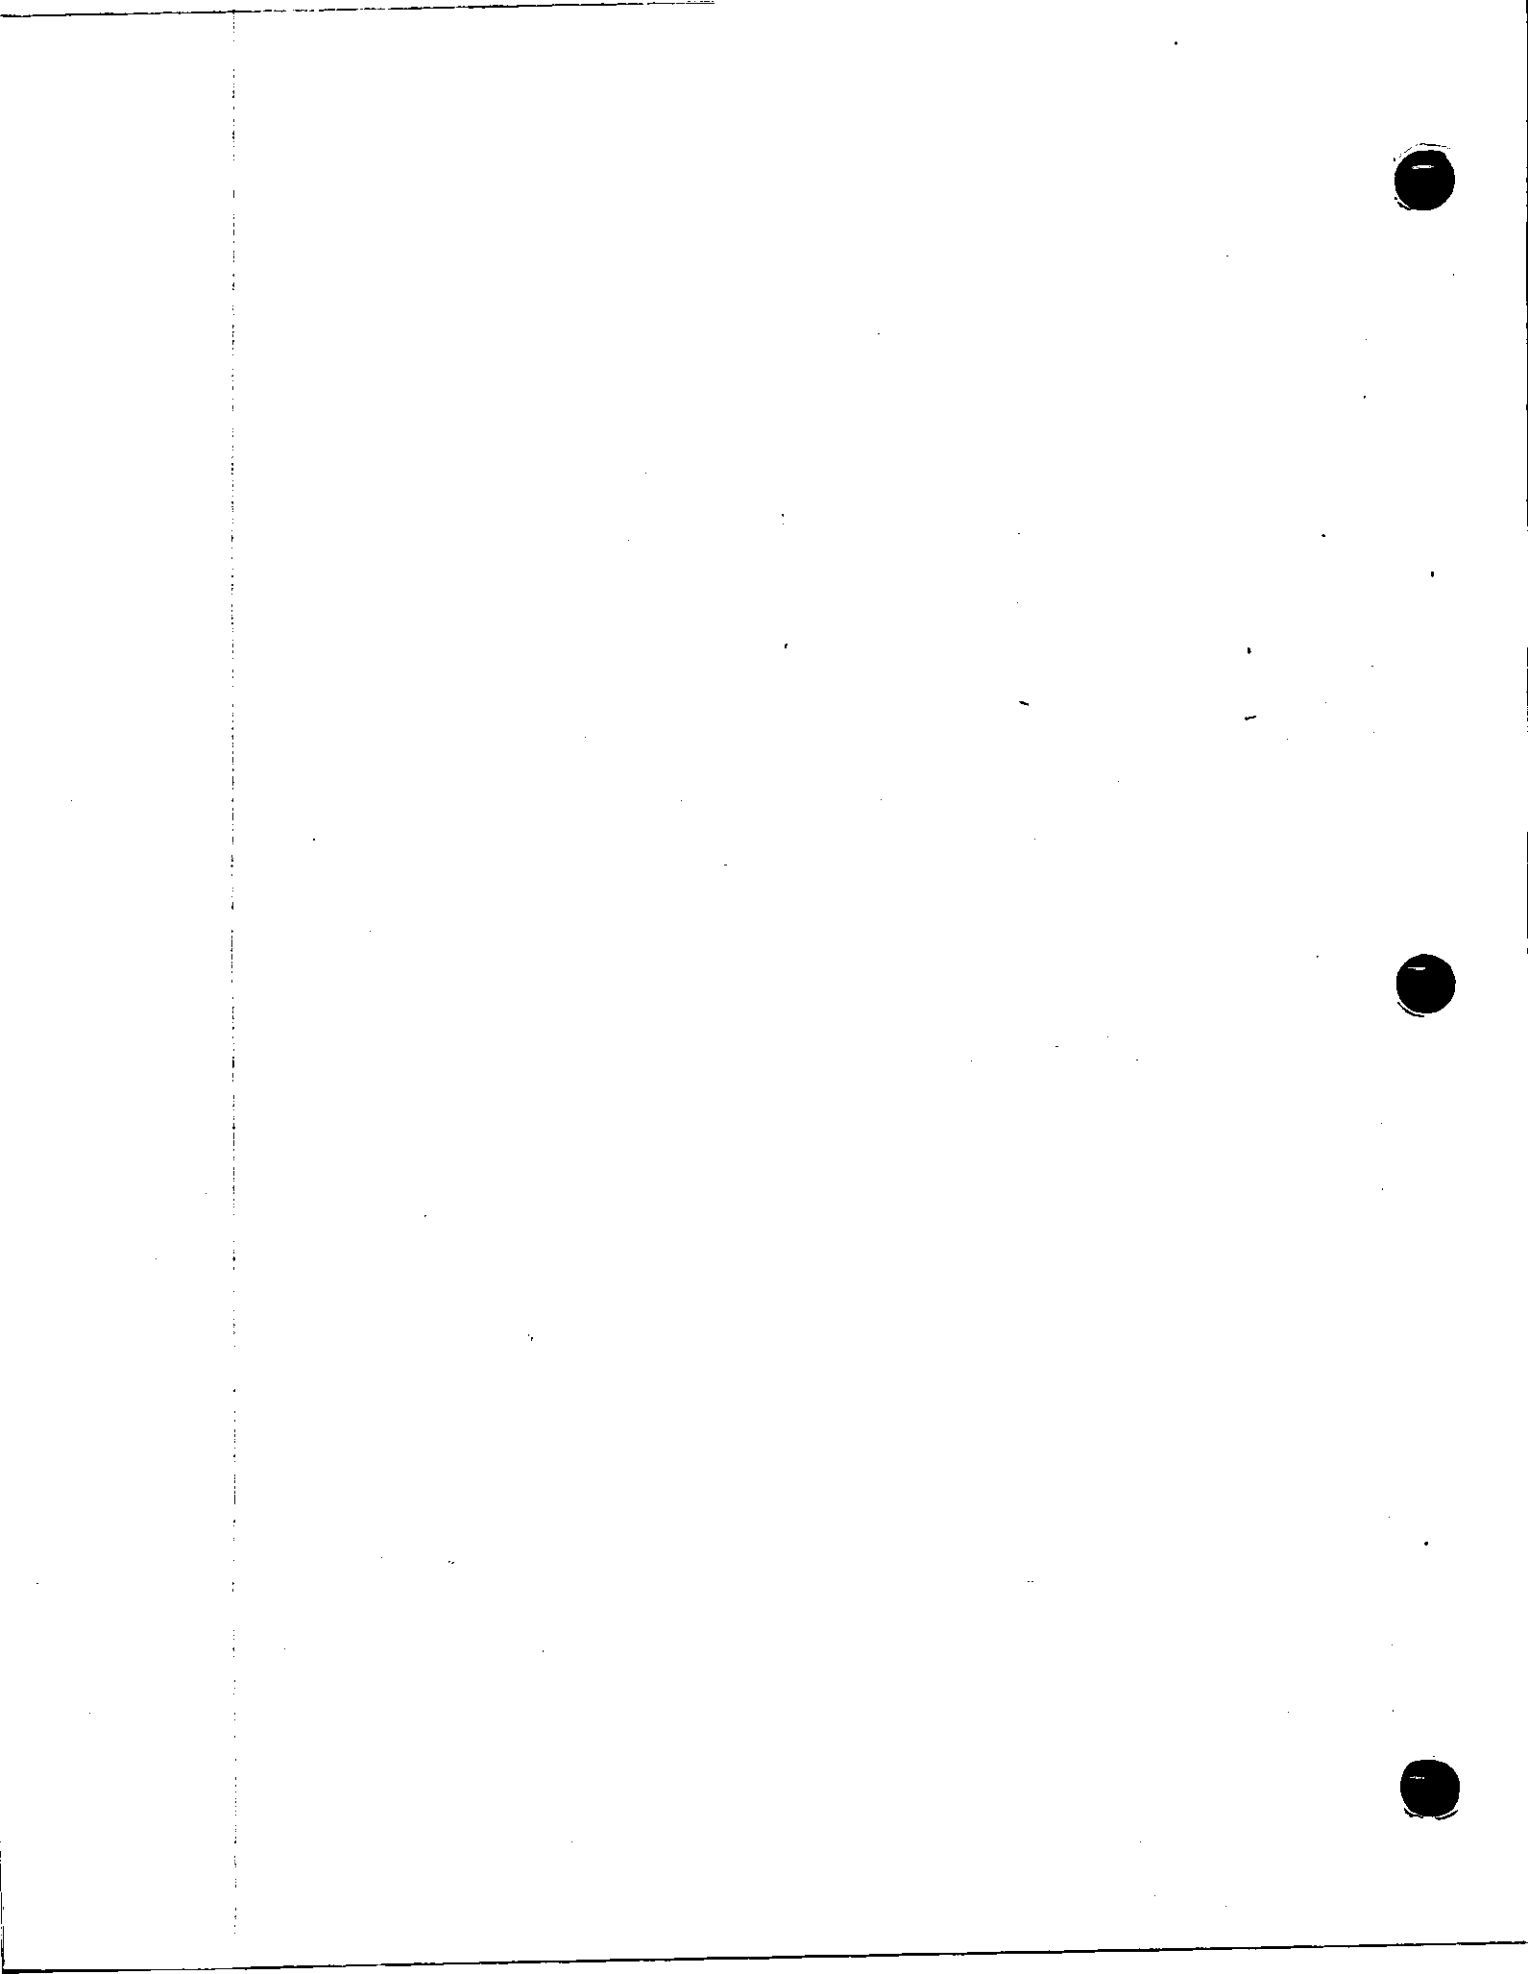

"You sold us out. No matter. You are not loyal. With your death, the C.I.A. will be blamed. The G.Y.B. will be safe with the whole country not against them. Vladimir set you up perfectly with the blank check and all. Once you play with the G.Y.B., you can not cheat. The game is over by forfeit. You forfeit your life."

"No, please," The President begged.

The visitor put a silencer on his 9mm.

"No, ah, nooooo... fu-- , you shi-, uh."

The Secret Service men were outside the locked door. The visitor through a chain out of the window. Then the visitor put a grenade in the dead President's mouth. Next the visitor jumped parachute and all. The impact of the grenade blew the whole top half of the White House up.

Chapter 6: The Files

Just outside of the C.I.A. building...

"Here we go," Edmund said.

Ease explained, "I've heard that this place has the most accurate files in the world."

Ann asked, "Everybody get their badges?"

"Woah, woah, woah. You guys can't go in like that." Edmund explained. "You can get in the front but I have to clear you in."

Ease opened his badge and placed the code key in the door. He retracted the key and the door opened automatically. Edmund then placed his code key in the computer on the next door. It, too, opened. The Admiral and General greeted them inside.

The Admiral asked, "What are you doing here?"

Edmund explained, "I need to look at your files."

"But why?" The General asked.

Ease explained, "Were onto a hot case."

"Oh ok, go right ahead," the General agreed.

"Hey guys, look," Ann called.

"What, oh my God," Edmund sighed.

"We were just at the White House,"

Ease said.

"Yeah, we're gonna get blamed for it," Edmund replied. "Get to the files."

"What about we look under?" Ann asked.

Ease answered, "C.I.A. enemies."

Ann replied, "There's no file for the F.B.I. or the V.I.'s or Vladimir Driminobi."

"These guys are that good, huh?" Edmund asked.

"Apparently," Ann said, "I'm a computer specialist. If I can't get their file, no one can. Although, there is a file on the mercenaries. It starts with the Willy's."

"Oh no," Ease replied.

"What's wrong Ease?" Edmund inquired.

"I can give you a complete file on that," Ease said, "they're my cousins."

Ann and Edmund were stunned.

Ease continued, "They're a bunch of psychos. Some did experiments on each other and then they changed drastically physically. There's not much we can do about their mentalities."

Ease was interrupted by the Admiral, "The police have us surrounded. They think we killed the President and 10 Secret Service men."

"I figured as well," Edmund said.

The General explained, "They've got 30% of the army out there setting bombs. The whole armed forces of this country will be outside of this building in a matter of minutes."

"Is there another way out?" Edmund (37)

asked.

"Yeah," the Admiral replied, "through the underground base. I'll give you transportation."

"What about you?" Ease asked.

"Don't worry we'll be right in back of you as soon as we get some more supplies in the buildings," the General said. "We can't let them get these important files. Now go! Good luck Commander."

As soon as the C.O.P.'s got to their transportation, they heard gun play. There was a fight up there. The Admiral, the General, and 5 agents came running down the corridor.

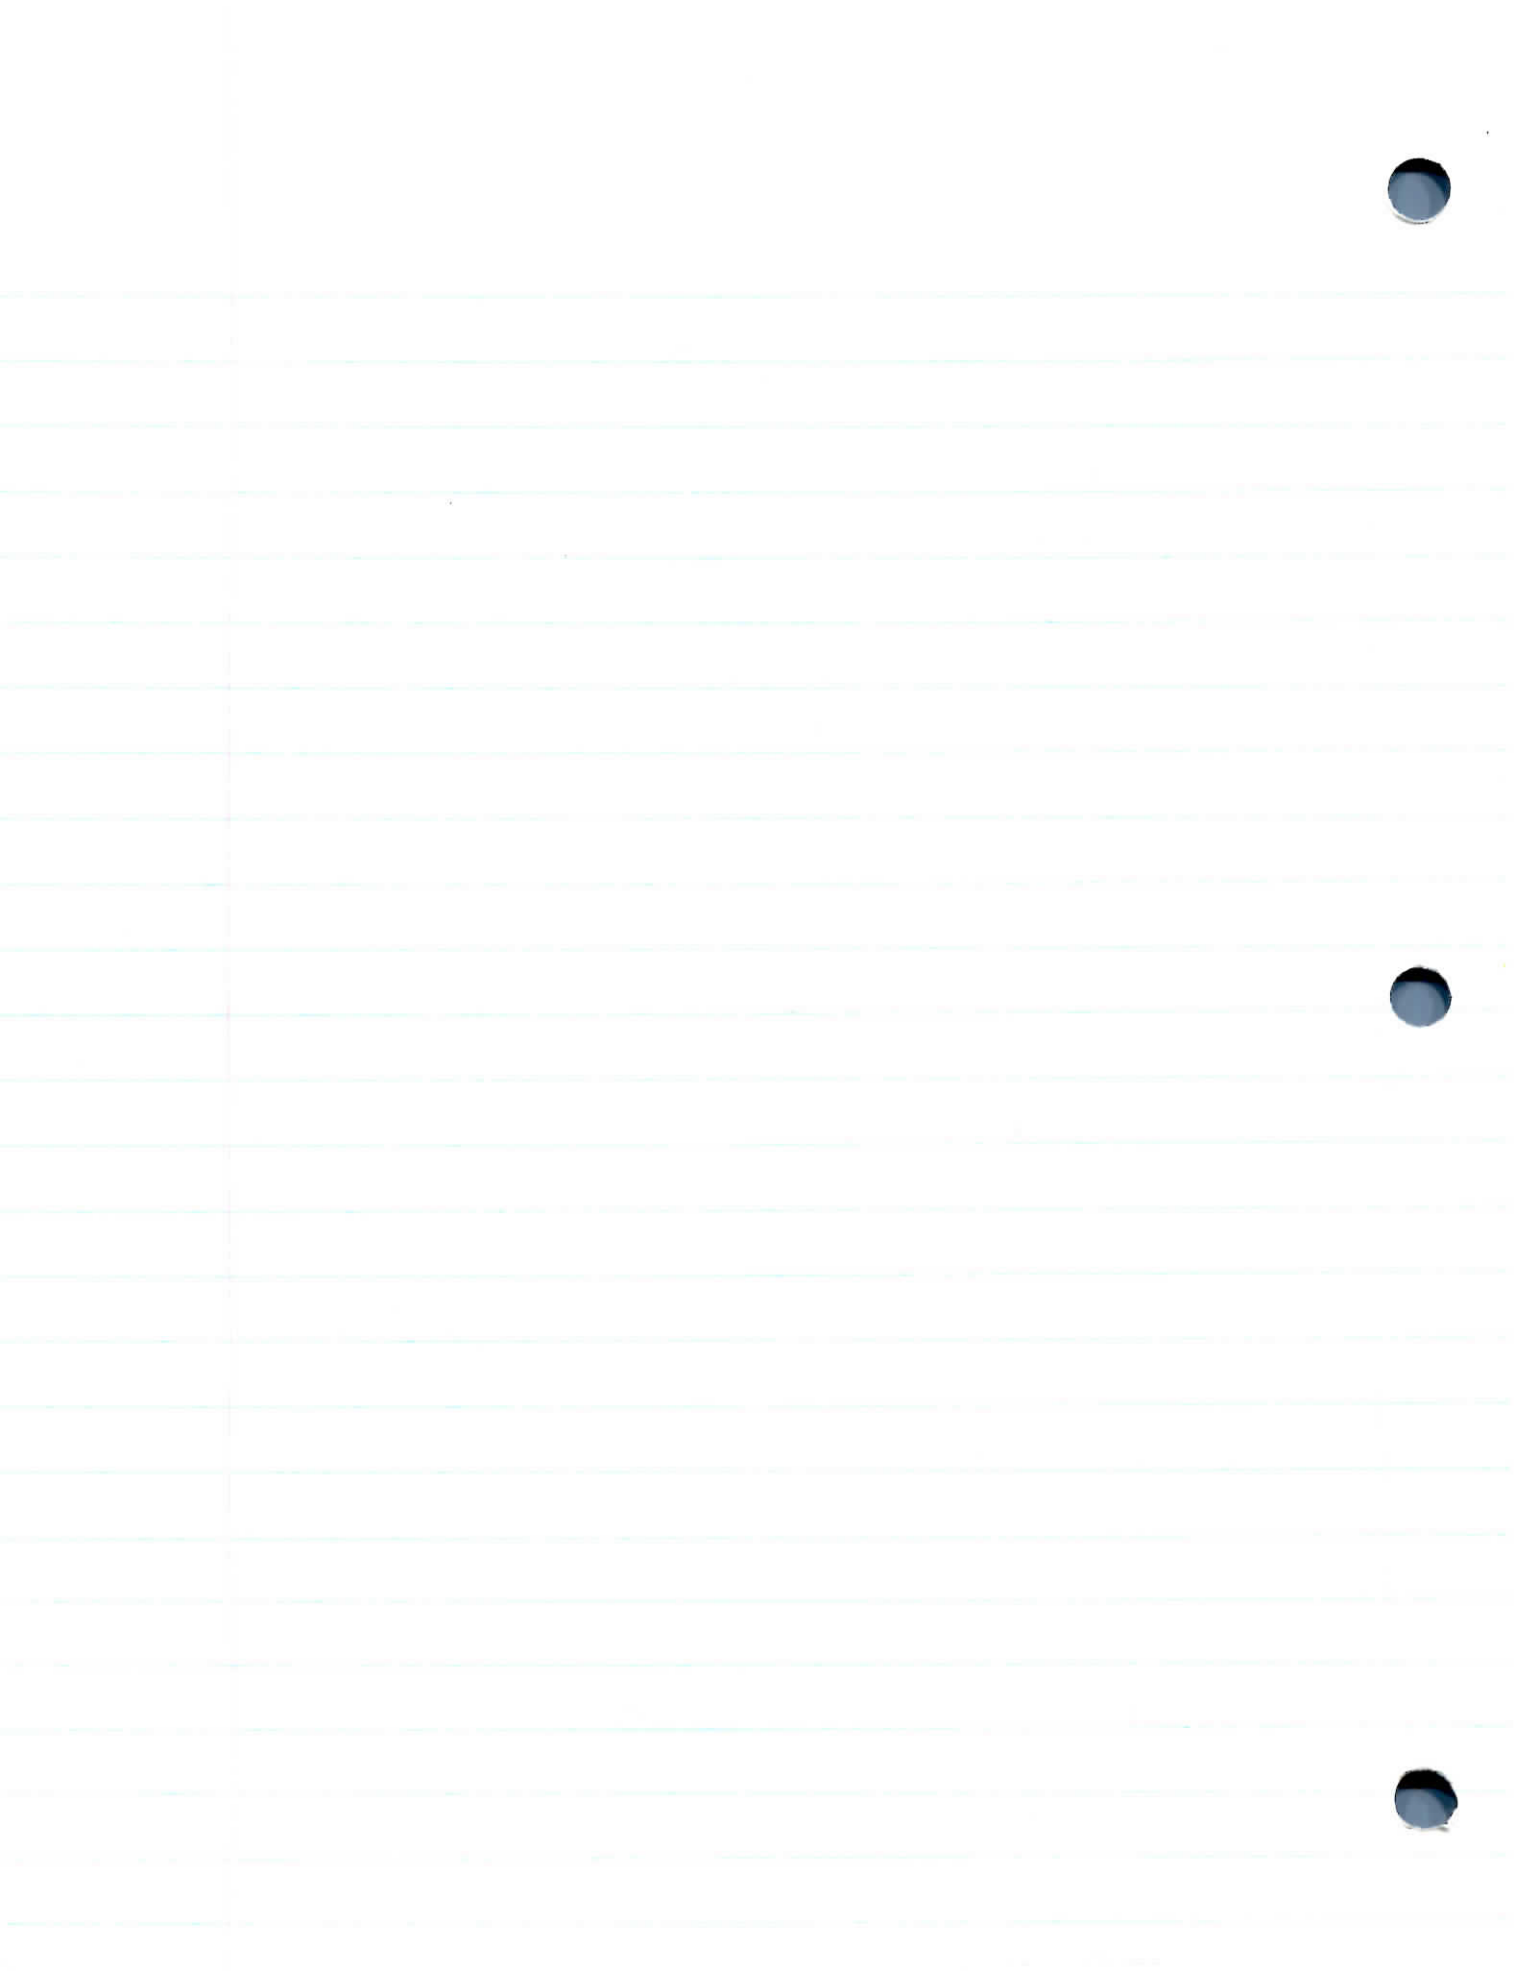

Edmund asked, "Where's everybody else?"

The General out of breath said, "They were all wounded and captured or killed by the bombs and rockets. They're coming after us, go on!"

The small C.I.A. force made it out alive and they went their separate ways. The C.I.A. would be on the run for a long time as the C.I.A. building was destroyed by VLADIMIR's army.

Edmund thinking to himself explained, "You're smart, real smart, but I'll get you."

Chapter 7: The Missions

On the long road home...

Ease was in the driver seat. They were nearing the last turnoff, "Where we goin' anyway?"

Edmund answered, "Base 1."

Ann explained, "The General slipped me this when we were underground."

"What is it?" Edmund asked.

Ann replied, "It's a computer disk with every file in the building. Hey look! There's a note in here."

"What does it say?" Ease asked.

"It says," Ann read, "If you need any further assistance, we'll be at Robo Base 3. At least we'll know they're safe."

at Base 1...

"Welcome back guys," Mark explained.

"Thanks," Edmund replied.

"You probably heard what happened, huh?" Eaze asked.

"Yeah man," Jason said.

"That's real fu--ed up," Mason replied.

Mark continued, "You don't have to fill us in. The Admiral already did. I take it that you completed your mission."

"It was a lost attempt," Edmund said, "we played right into Griminshi's hands. We have no sticking evidence and the C.I.A. is up shi-- creek."

Mark replied, "Don't worry, I've got a plan. We're gonna be at that press conference next week along with the reception. Edmund, Eaze, and Anna, you will be there. I'll direct things with Ranger, Jason, and Mason outside. But, before that, I'll lead a force to the embassy to bug it. But then again, how would we get in. How 'bout this?"

While the party is on, we'll have one 411 person go to his mansion and gather evidence. Do we have a volunteer?"

"I'll do it," Edmund volunteered.

"Ok. Here's the complete plan. Ann and Ease go to the party. Edmund, after you accomplish your evidence hunt, meet them at the party. This is our chance to bust all of our enemies. You three that came back, get some rest."

"Sorry," Ann explained, "We've gotta use this file disk."

Mark ordered, "Edmund, and Ann stay. The rest of you get your sleep, I have a feeling you'll need it."

At Vladimir's mansion...

Vladimir explained, "The C.I.A. is in a lot of trouble. We are in the clear. I need to be sure. Willy, take your family and get rid of Ease and Ann."

Willy Willy asked, "Ease Ferrico?"

"That was the name on the recording," Vladimir replied, "Why?"

Willy answered, "He's my 2nd cousin. I never liked him. He's as good as dead. He was such a goodie-goodie. One of us'll die and it aint me. I'll see you later with the good news." Willy left the mansion.

"V. & I," Vladimir called, "Report to me the Willys' progress. I have a feeling they will fail. I always cover my tracks."

"Yes sir," the V. & said firmly.

"Secretary," Vladimir once again called, "send in Safari and Mr. Nigma."

"What do you want of our services Ambassador Gruminski?" Safari Jack asked.

"I want you to hunt down and eliminate Edmund Sims. He's been in my hair for a while."

"He's as good as dead," Mr. Nigma grinned. "The 2 mercenaries walked out."

As soon as they were gone, a girl stepped out, "What about me?" 437

"Edmund is tricky," Vladimir said, "Safari and Mr. Nigma will probably screw up. Cover up for them Madame K."

"Yes Vladimir," the Russian lady said as she left.

Vladimir had another visitor, "I know you won't fail me."

"You can count on me," the visitor said, the visitor exited like all of the others.

"It's great to know you can count on at least one," someone said.

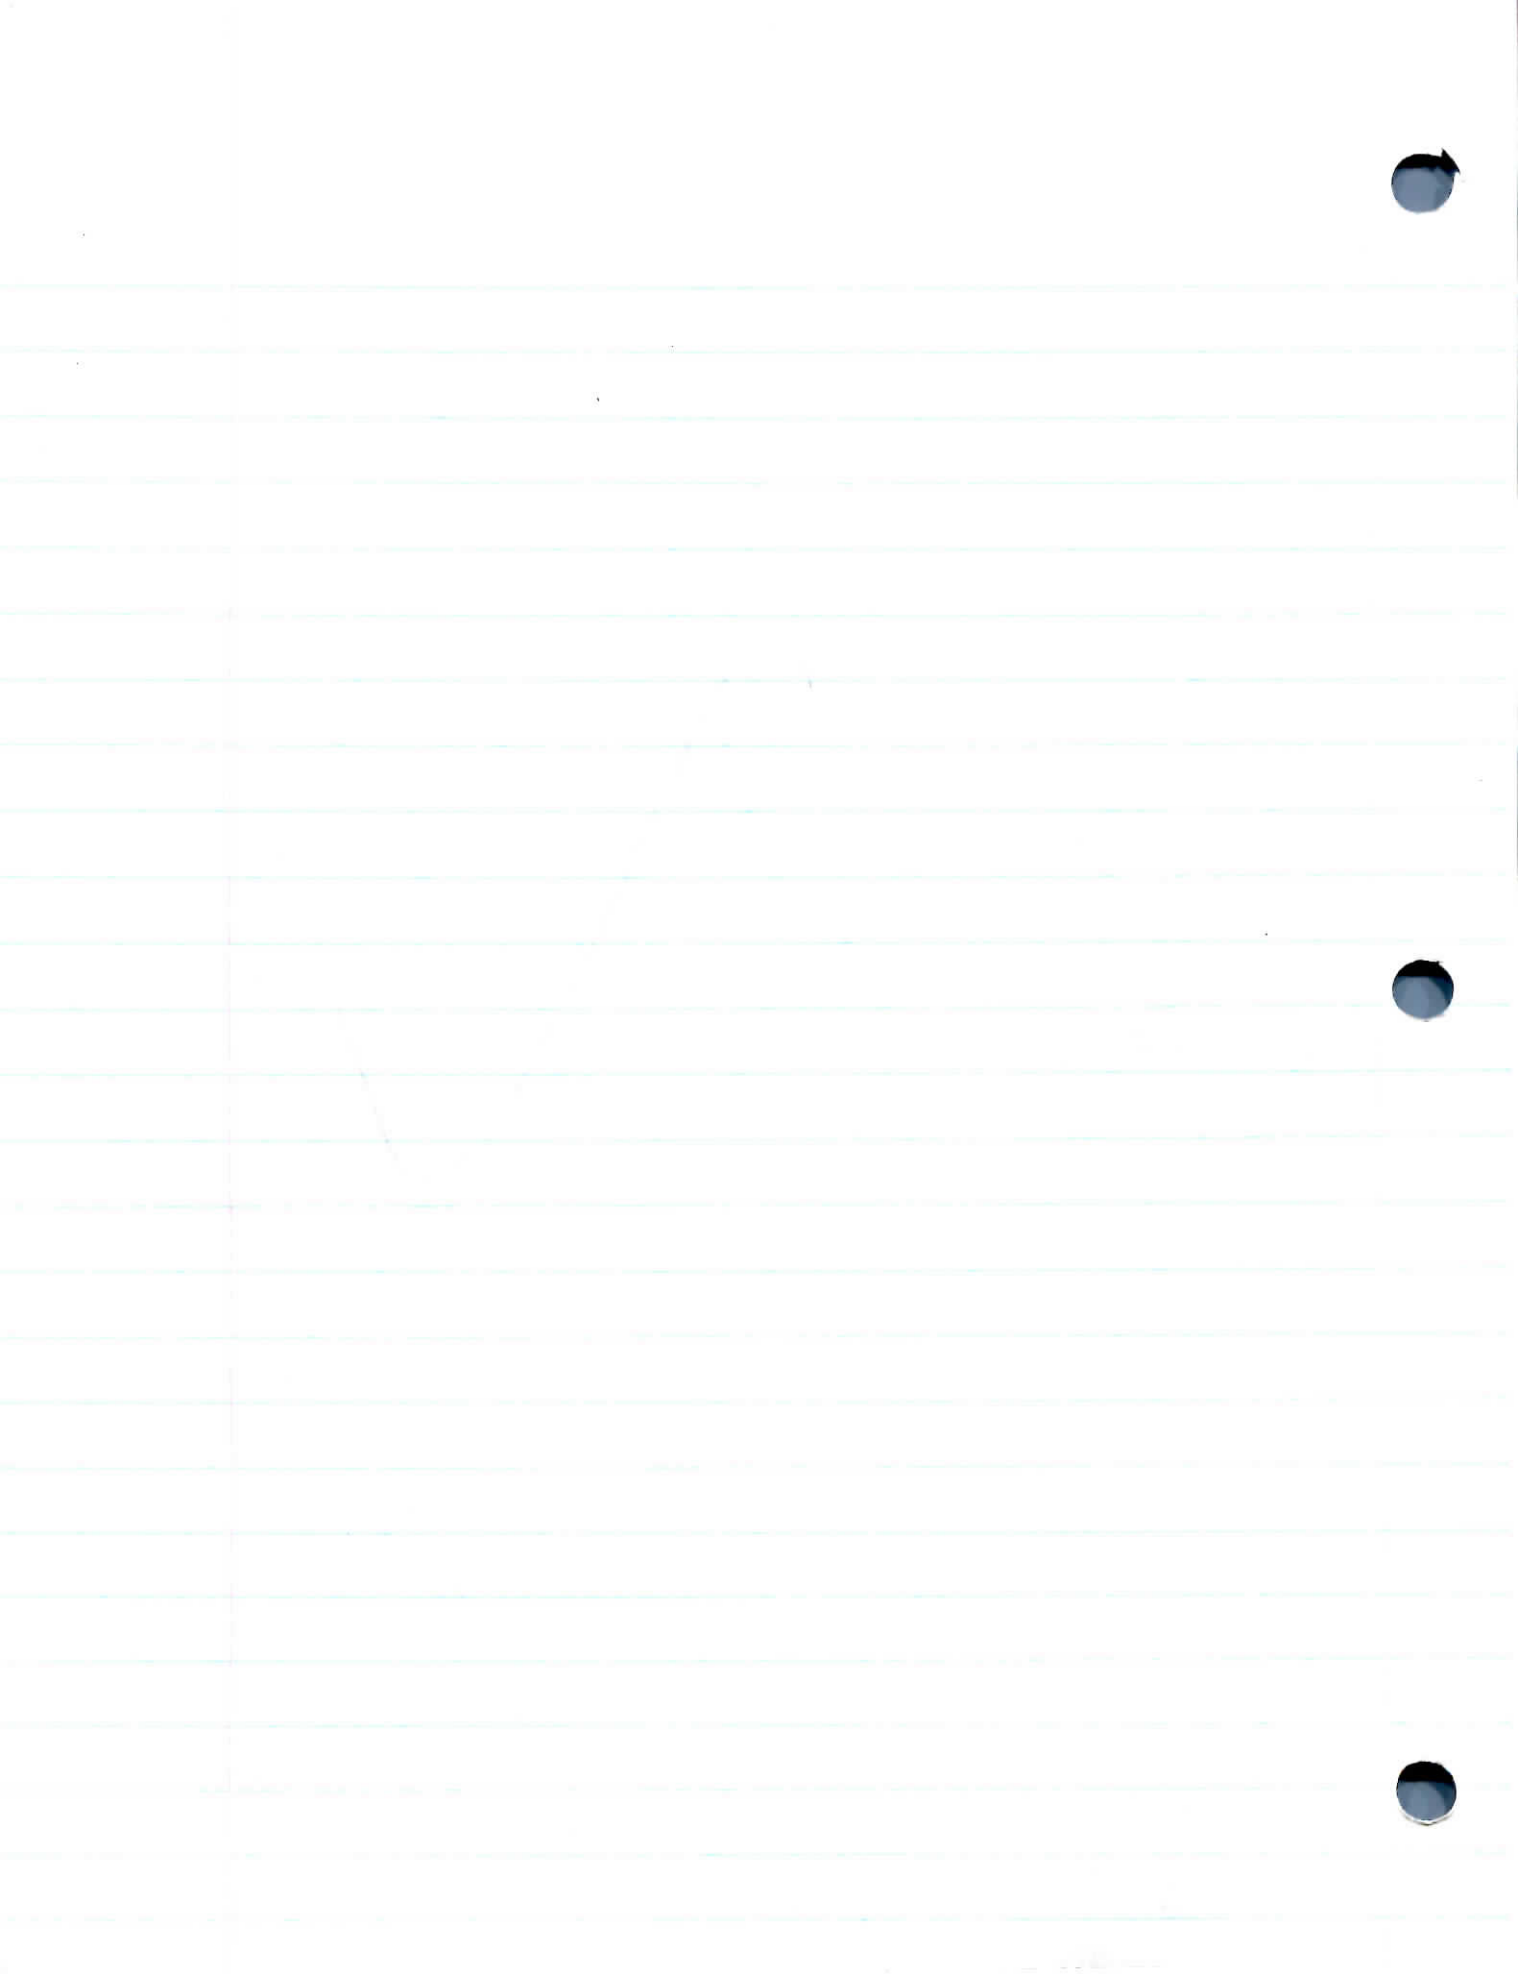

"Who was that - oh I did not notice you doctor," Vladimir explained.

"They never do. You've given me a chance to make myself known. Just give the chance of breaking your enemies mentally once they are captured and detained."

"I'm afraid you might not get that chance," Vladimir explained, "They may be dead before you get the chance. But my last K. H. B. agent will probably give you the chance. That agent never fails me.

Chapter 8: The Willies

At C.D.A. Base 1...

The next morning, the C.O.P.'s, awoke from a great sleep. Ranger was up first. Jason, Mason, and Mark went back to sleep. Ease and Ann had slept in the same room. They were going steady. Edmund got up and immediately got dressed.

"Where ya goin'?" Ranger asked.

"I gotta get home. I haven't been there in about 2 weeks," Edmund answered.

"Don't leave yet," Ann replied.

"Yeah, go there after we get some breakfast," Ease said, "I think we deserve it."

"Well I guess I can wait 'till afterwords."

Ann asked, "You comin' Ranger?"

"Sure why not. I got nuttin' else to do this mornin'," the Ranger answered.

The 4 C.O.P.s. went off on foot. Another group walked on foot. Fortunately for the C.O.P.s., they did not see the secret opening to Base 1. The C.O.P.s. seem to have been going to Burger King. The other group stayed a little ways behind the C.O.P.s.

"You ever get the feelin' your bein' followed?" Edmund asked.

Ease told Ranger, "Don't turn around."

Ann got her compact and looked into the mirror.

"Who is it?" Ranger asked.

Ann answered, "Mercenaries alert. It's the Willlys."

"Is everybody strapped?" Edmund 47)

asked.

"Don't leave without it," Ranger explained, "you never know when you'll need it."

Willy Willy ordered, "Billy, Dilly, and Zilly, get the cowboy, Jill, Silly, and Milly take the bits - Jilly, Pilly, and Gilly, get that black one. Tilly and Dilly, come with me. We're gonna kick Essee's ass."

The first confrontation was between Ranger, Billy, Dilly, and Zilly. Billy was smaller than Ranger. Billy used his smallness and speed to his advantage. Dilly knicked in back of Ranger. Billy rushed him. The Ranger tripped.

Billy ordered, "Sit on him Zilly! Squash him."

Zilly used his enormous blubber to try to squish Ranger. Ranger took his knife out of his boot and stuck it straight up. Ranger rolled out of the way. Zilly leaped and landed in sitting position on the 481 knife. There was a large bellow as blood ran all around. Ranger punched out Billy who was only a 15 year old teen. Billy came after Ranger with a gun. Ranger took his lasso from his belt and pulled the gun out of Billy's hands. Next, Ranger tied Billy up. He had beaten his batch without a single death.

Ann took on Jill, Silly, and Milly. Jill gave a kick but Ann easily blocked it. While Jill was off balance, Ann took her by the hair and flipped her over. Ann punched Jill knocking her unconscious. Silly and Milly were armed. Ann aimed her laser watch. She fired disintegrating Silly's bullet. She stunned Silly and ducked to get out of the way of Milly's bullet. Ann rolled dodging gun shots. Milly ran up and kicked Ann in the stomach. Ann blasted Milly with the laser watch. Ann was weak. She saw Milly disintegrate. She felt that she was done then she noticed Lilly going for Jill's gun. Ann shot Lilly in the arm with Milo's gun. Lilly raised her other arm ready to fire. Ann used her good eyes and good reflexes to shoot Lilly in the chest. Lilly fired missing by a mile. Ann kept firing blasting Lilly's face and chest. Ann exhaled as she sat upright against a tree.

Edmund took on Illy, Pilly, and Oilly. Illy was choking a little. He was too weak to fight. He fell out unconscious.

"Aww that wasn't so hard," Edmund explained.

"It won't be that easy," Oilly replied. Oilly took an oil gun slipping up the road. Edmund slipped. Pilly came over with a gun that had a needle.

"Uh what's that?" Edmund asked.

Pilly explained, "This drug knocks you unconscious then reduces your brain to Swiss cheese you'll be a zombie."

"Oh I will," Edmund said.

Edmund took the gun injecting it into Pilly. Edmund then elbowed Pilly in the face. He finished Pilly off with a strong right to the face, "This was easier than I thought. You stupid kids, you shouldn't play with drugs. When will these juveniles learn?"

Ease took on Killy, Willy, and Silly. All three rushed Ease. Ease pulled his knife driving it right in Silly. It was instant death. Killy and Willy got a hold of Ease, Killy put Ease in the full Nelson.

Willy asked, "Still wish you shoulda joined us?"

Ease simply replied, "Su -- you." He spit in Willy's face. Willy started punching Ease in the face, chest, and stomach. Ease put a strong elbow in Killy then flipped him over into Willy. Ease kicked Willy in the face. Ease punched him and did major damage. Ease had turned his back on Killy. Killy pulled a knife jabbing at 511

Ease, Ease dodged the knife. He grabbed and kicked Willy in the stomach. Ease turned, "Where's Willy?"

Willy was running frantically. Willy explained, "You're not leaving me!" Willy pulled a gun. He shot down Willy with 3 shots to the head and 3 shots to the back. Ease kicked the gun out of Willy's hand.

"Why'd you do that?" Ease asked

"I like doin' things like that," Willy replied, "He's not gonna go off and leave me. Besides, I'm more of a leader than he is."

Ease shook his head in disgust then punched Willy out.

At Vladimir's mansion.

V.I. walked in Vladimir's office room, "The Willy's blew it."

"Report," Vladimir ordered, "Explain."

"Well sir Willy, Billy, Silly, Milly, and Lilly are dead. Billy, Dilly, Zilly, Lilly, Jill, Killy, and Pilly were arrested. What if they talk sir?"

"Don't worry V. & I," Vladimir said, "I pay them enough. I always cover my tracks. I love these mirad games. Let's just hope Safari Jack can do better."

"Yes sir," V. & I said firmly as he left.

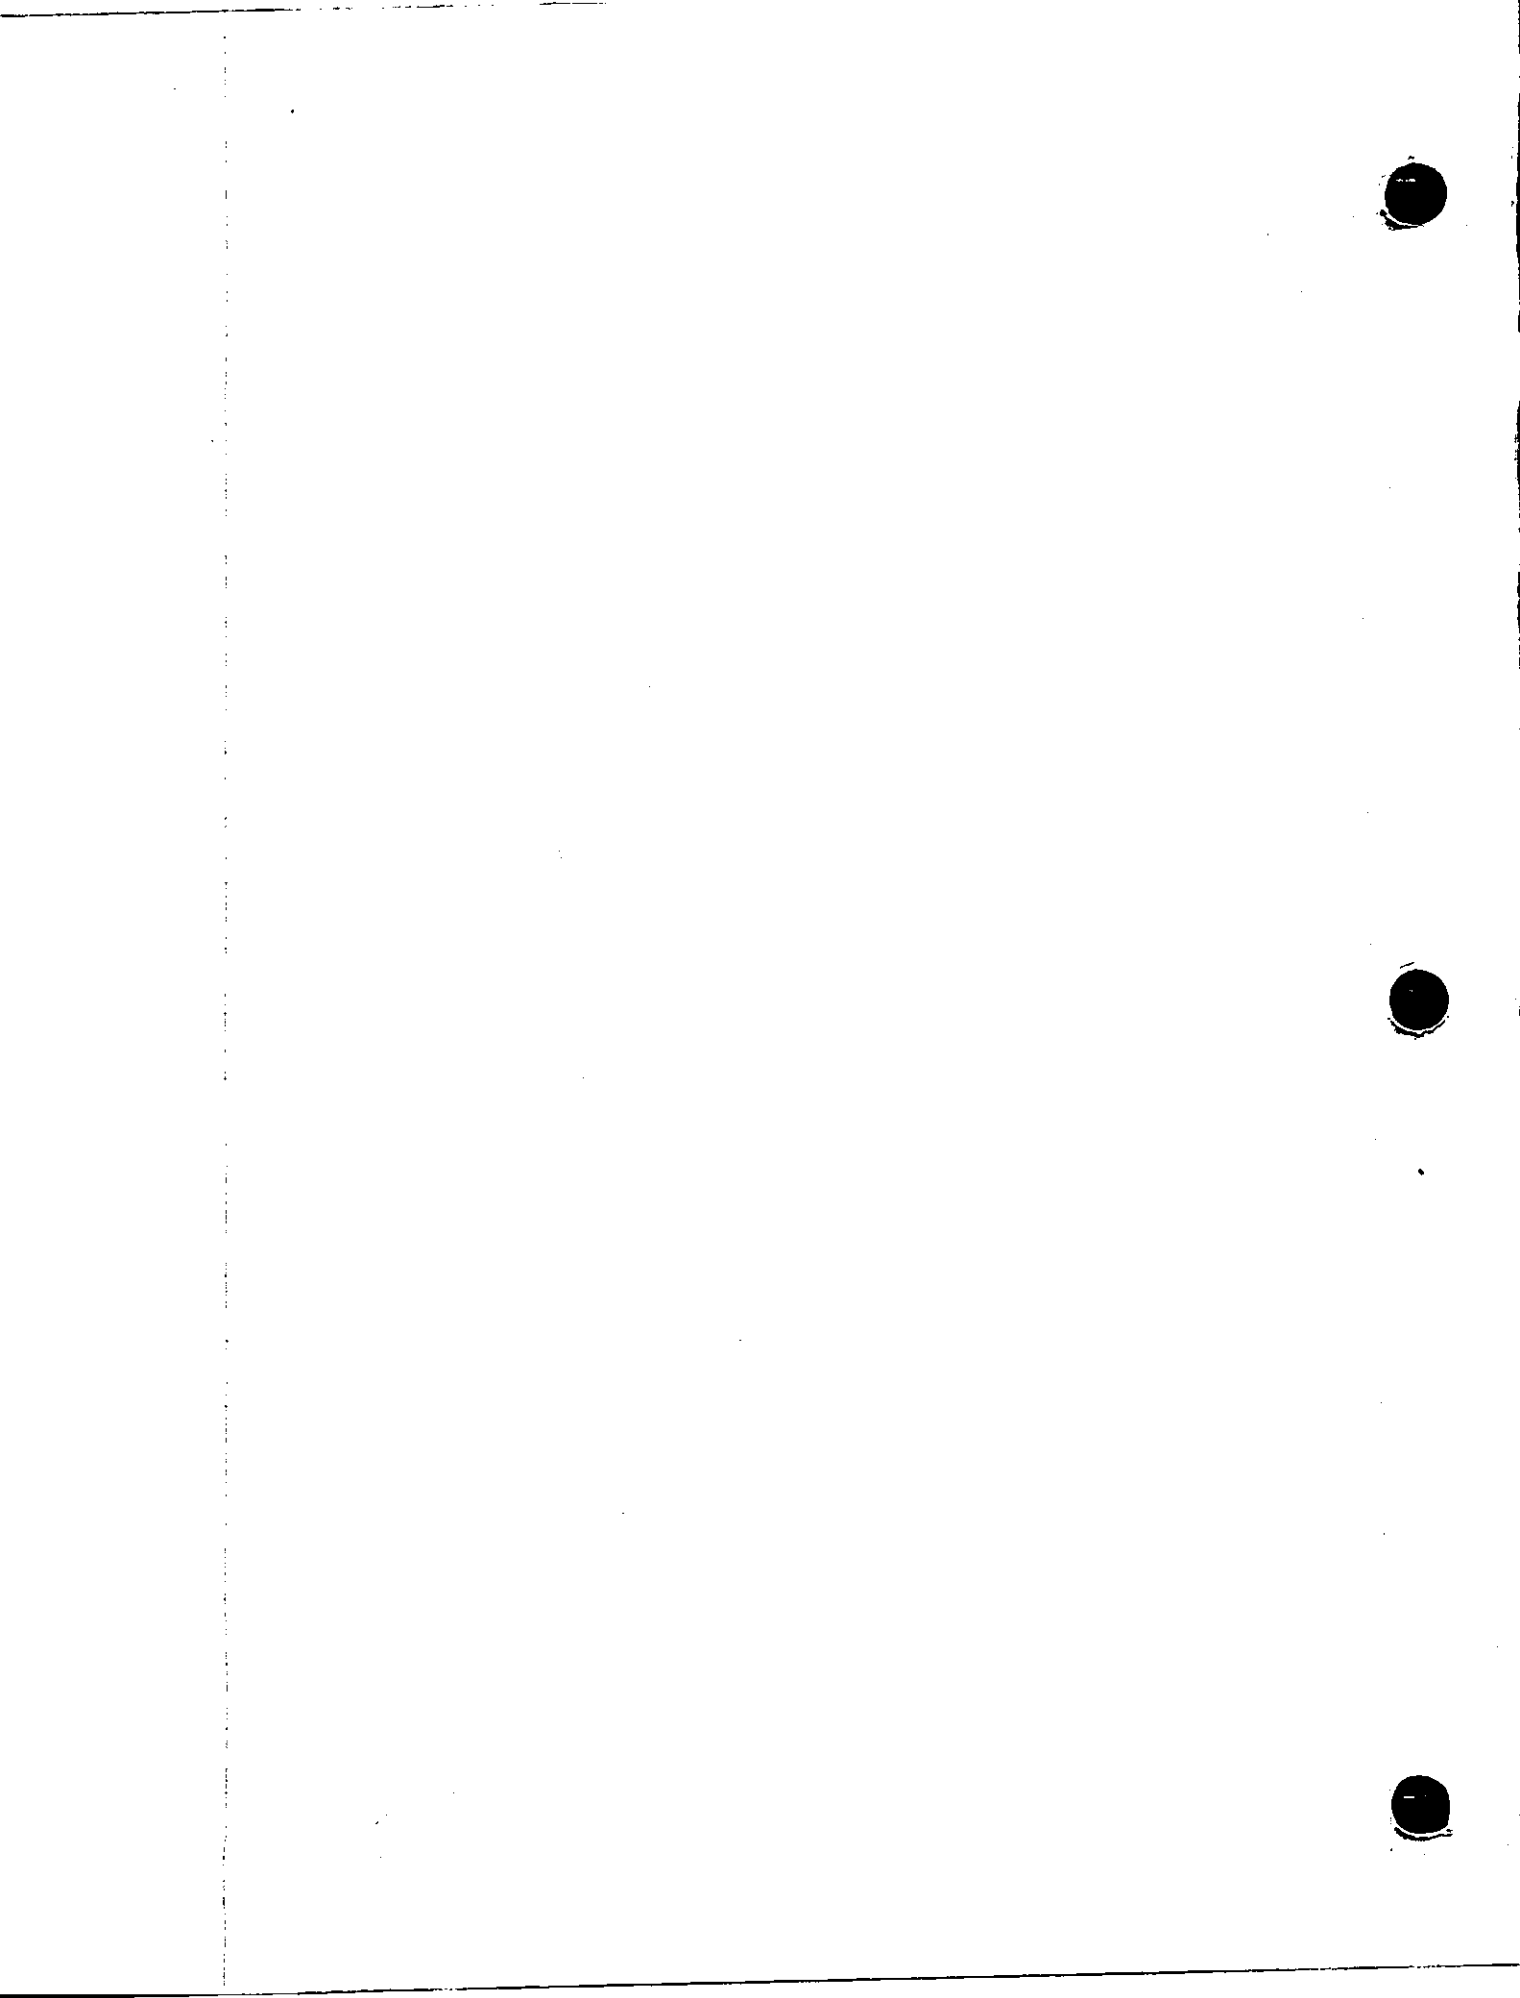

"Madame V.," Vladimir called.

"Yes Ambassador." She answered

"Watch Safari Jack and report back to me."

"Yes Ambassador."

Chapter 9: Safari Jack's Hunt

At the County Jail...

Edmund, Ease, Ranger, and Ann walked in exhausted. Edmund deduced, "I think we missed breakfast."

Mark, Jason, and Mason walked in. "Great job!" Mark exclaimed.

Mason said, "You guys must have had a blast."

Jason continued, "Too bad we weren't there. We would've kicked ass."

Edmund was all greased on his back. Ease was beat up. Ranger was a little dizzy. Ann was holding her stomach. Suddenly Ease felt disoriented. He was falling to his knees. Ease was in a lot of pain.

"What's wrong with him?" Mason asked.

"His body is rejecting his neural commands," Ann answered.

"His body is stopping," Edmund continued.

"Who's got the fastest car?" Mark asked.

"Well Mason and I come in the racecar?" Jason said.

Edmund and Ranger carried Ease to the trunk and placed him in. Ranger explained, "He's got no pulse, hurry!"

Jason and Mason sped off to Hospital Base 1. Ann and Ranger went with Mark. Ann asked, "Are you coming Edmund?"

Edmund explained, "Jerry'll take good care of him. I really have to get back to my house. I promise, I'll see him after I get settled."

Ranger replied, "Ok man, see ya there."

Edmund walked back to Base 1 to get his car. Edmund had a nice easy drive home. He found his door had been pried open. Edmund reached for his gun and put a fresh new clip in it. Edmund ran upstairs with stealth and precision. His door leading to the deck was wide opened. Suddenly he heard gunshot. Edmund ducked. The bullet just barely missed his head landing in the wall. Edmund ran out onto the patio. One of the 2 men came out. Edmund shot and missed. The man reached his eye outside of the door. He sprayed the whole patio missing Edmund because Edmund jumped in back of the air conditioner. Edmund shot again and then made a break for his tree. Edmund climbed high up so his predators could not see him. The 2 men walked out. One was bald with an eyepiece in his left eye. He was wearing safari clothing. The other man was wearing blue jeans and a red shirt. He had an afro. They were mercenaries. Edmund knew it was Safari Jack and Mr. Nigma.

Safari Jack explained, "He probably made a break for it. He's probably hiding in that field."

"Yeah, let's get 'im," Mr. Nigma said.

The 2 mercenaries ran out to the end of the field. Edmund was upset, "Damn, I lost sight of them." Edmund too ran into the field. Safari, Mr. Nigma, and Edmund saw each other. Edmund shot at them but they lurked behind trees. Edmund didn't have another clip. He was unarmed. Safari knew it.

"Mr. Nigma, put your gun away," Jack explained, "I'll give him a sporting chance." Safari pulled out his pump-shotgun.

Edmund thought to himself, "you can't fire it so fast. He'll never hit me if I run in zig-zag formation." Safari pumped the gun and Edmund ran to the right as Safari fired. Edmund ran the pattern until he got close to Safari. Mr. Nigma punched at Edmund. Edmund knew his territory and leapt up to a nearby branch. He swung and came down into Mr. Nigma. Mr. Nigma fell back knocking his head into a tree. Mr. Nigma was instantly unconscious. Edmund next jump kicked Safari. Then he punched Safari getting him off balance. Safari fell to his knees, Edmund kicked him in the penis. Safari fell to the ground. He was out cold. Mr. Nigma came too.

"I better get outta here," Edmund said, "before he kicks my as-."

"What did you do to Jack?" Mr. Nigma asked, "Come back here, I'm gonna kick your little as-!"

They ran toward some condominiums hopping the 4 foot gates. Mr. Nigma was after Edmund and he was serious about it too. He & of them almost ran around the neighborhood. They were getting pooped. Edmund needed one more fence to be safe. He was too tired to climb. Mr. Nigma 58 fell to his knees. He was the most tired. Edmund gave him a right to the jaw dislocating it and fracturing his hand. He reached his watch up to his mouth and radised his position to C.D.O. Hospital Base 2. He laid against the fence and rested.

At Vladimir's mansion...

Madame K. walked in, "Safari Jack and Mr. Nigma were arrested Ambassador."

"I figured as much. Do better Madame. Do not fail me."

"Yes Ambassador."

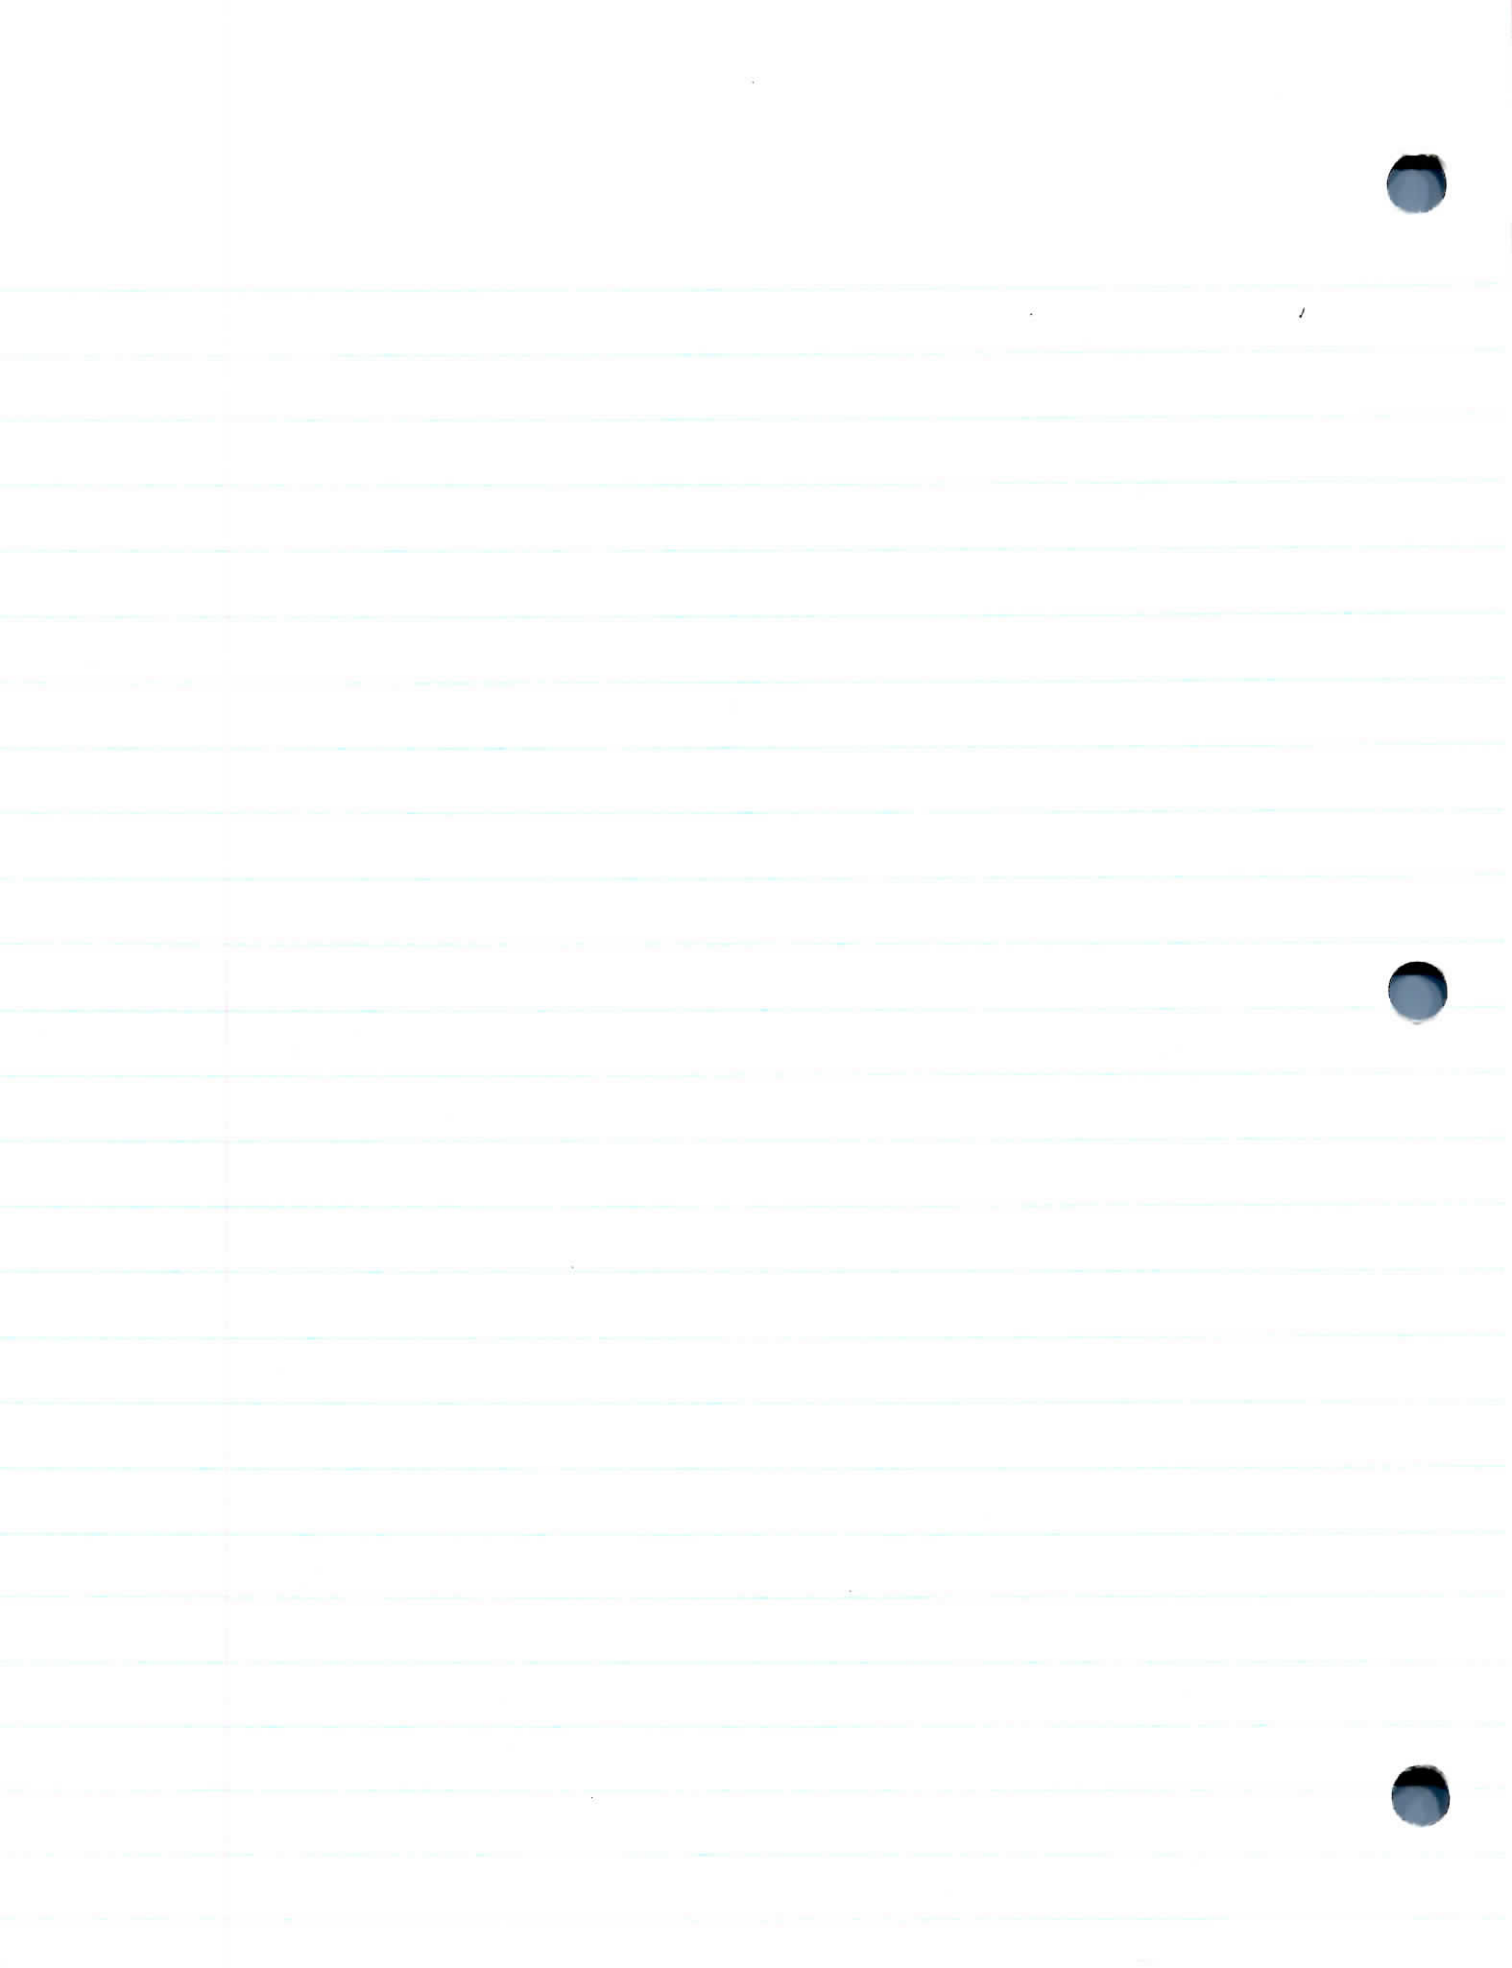

After Madame K. left, the visitor came in, "I'll keep an I on her. If she fails which she probably will, I will cover it. Edmund is as good as yours."

"Excellent," Vladimir said, "You never fail me."

"Yes sir," the visitor left.

"I'm always covered," Vladimir brogged.

Chapter 10: Madame Killer's Rampage

At Hospital Base 2...

Edmund was in Jerry's office, "It'll be fine, Edmund. Try to use it as less as possible."

"Yeh, I'll do that. Thanks a lot Jerry," Edmund replied.

Mark, Ann, and Ranger walked in. Mark explained, "I heard you had quite an afternoon."

"Yeah. I busted Safari Jack, Mr. Nigma, and my right hand," Edmund said, "How's Case?"

Ann answered, "Case is ok. Jerry stabilized his condition. Jerry also gave him medicine to prevent this from (60) happenin' again."

Ranger called, "Look at the 2.95."

"What's goin' on?" Mark asked.

Ann was astonished, "Look at all of those gun clips on the ground."

"Where is it?" Edmund asked.

Ranger explained, "It's at City Hall."

"Let's get there quick," Mark said.

Mark and Edmund went in the B.M.W. Ann went with Ranger in the jeep. When they arrived, they saw protesters. The banners said: "No more C.I.A. or murderers!"

"But how could they blame us for it?" Edmund asked.

Mark bent down, "This is why."

Mark found papers from the C.I.A., "It's from one of our spies in the N.S.B. Harri."

Ann explained, "Who ever did this job was ingenious. Kill the Governor and all of the people he works with."

Ranger said, "We're up shi-creek but how."

Edmund said, "I gotta get home. I really need a rest. I'll also soak this hand."

"Oh," Mark explained, "You deserve it. We'll finish up here."

At Edmund's house...

Edmund found his garage wide open, "What the fu-- is goin' on? I can never get rest time." Edmund slouched down in his seat and loaded his gun."

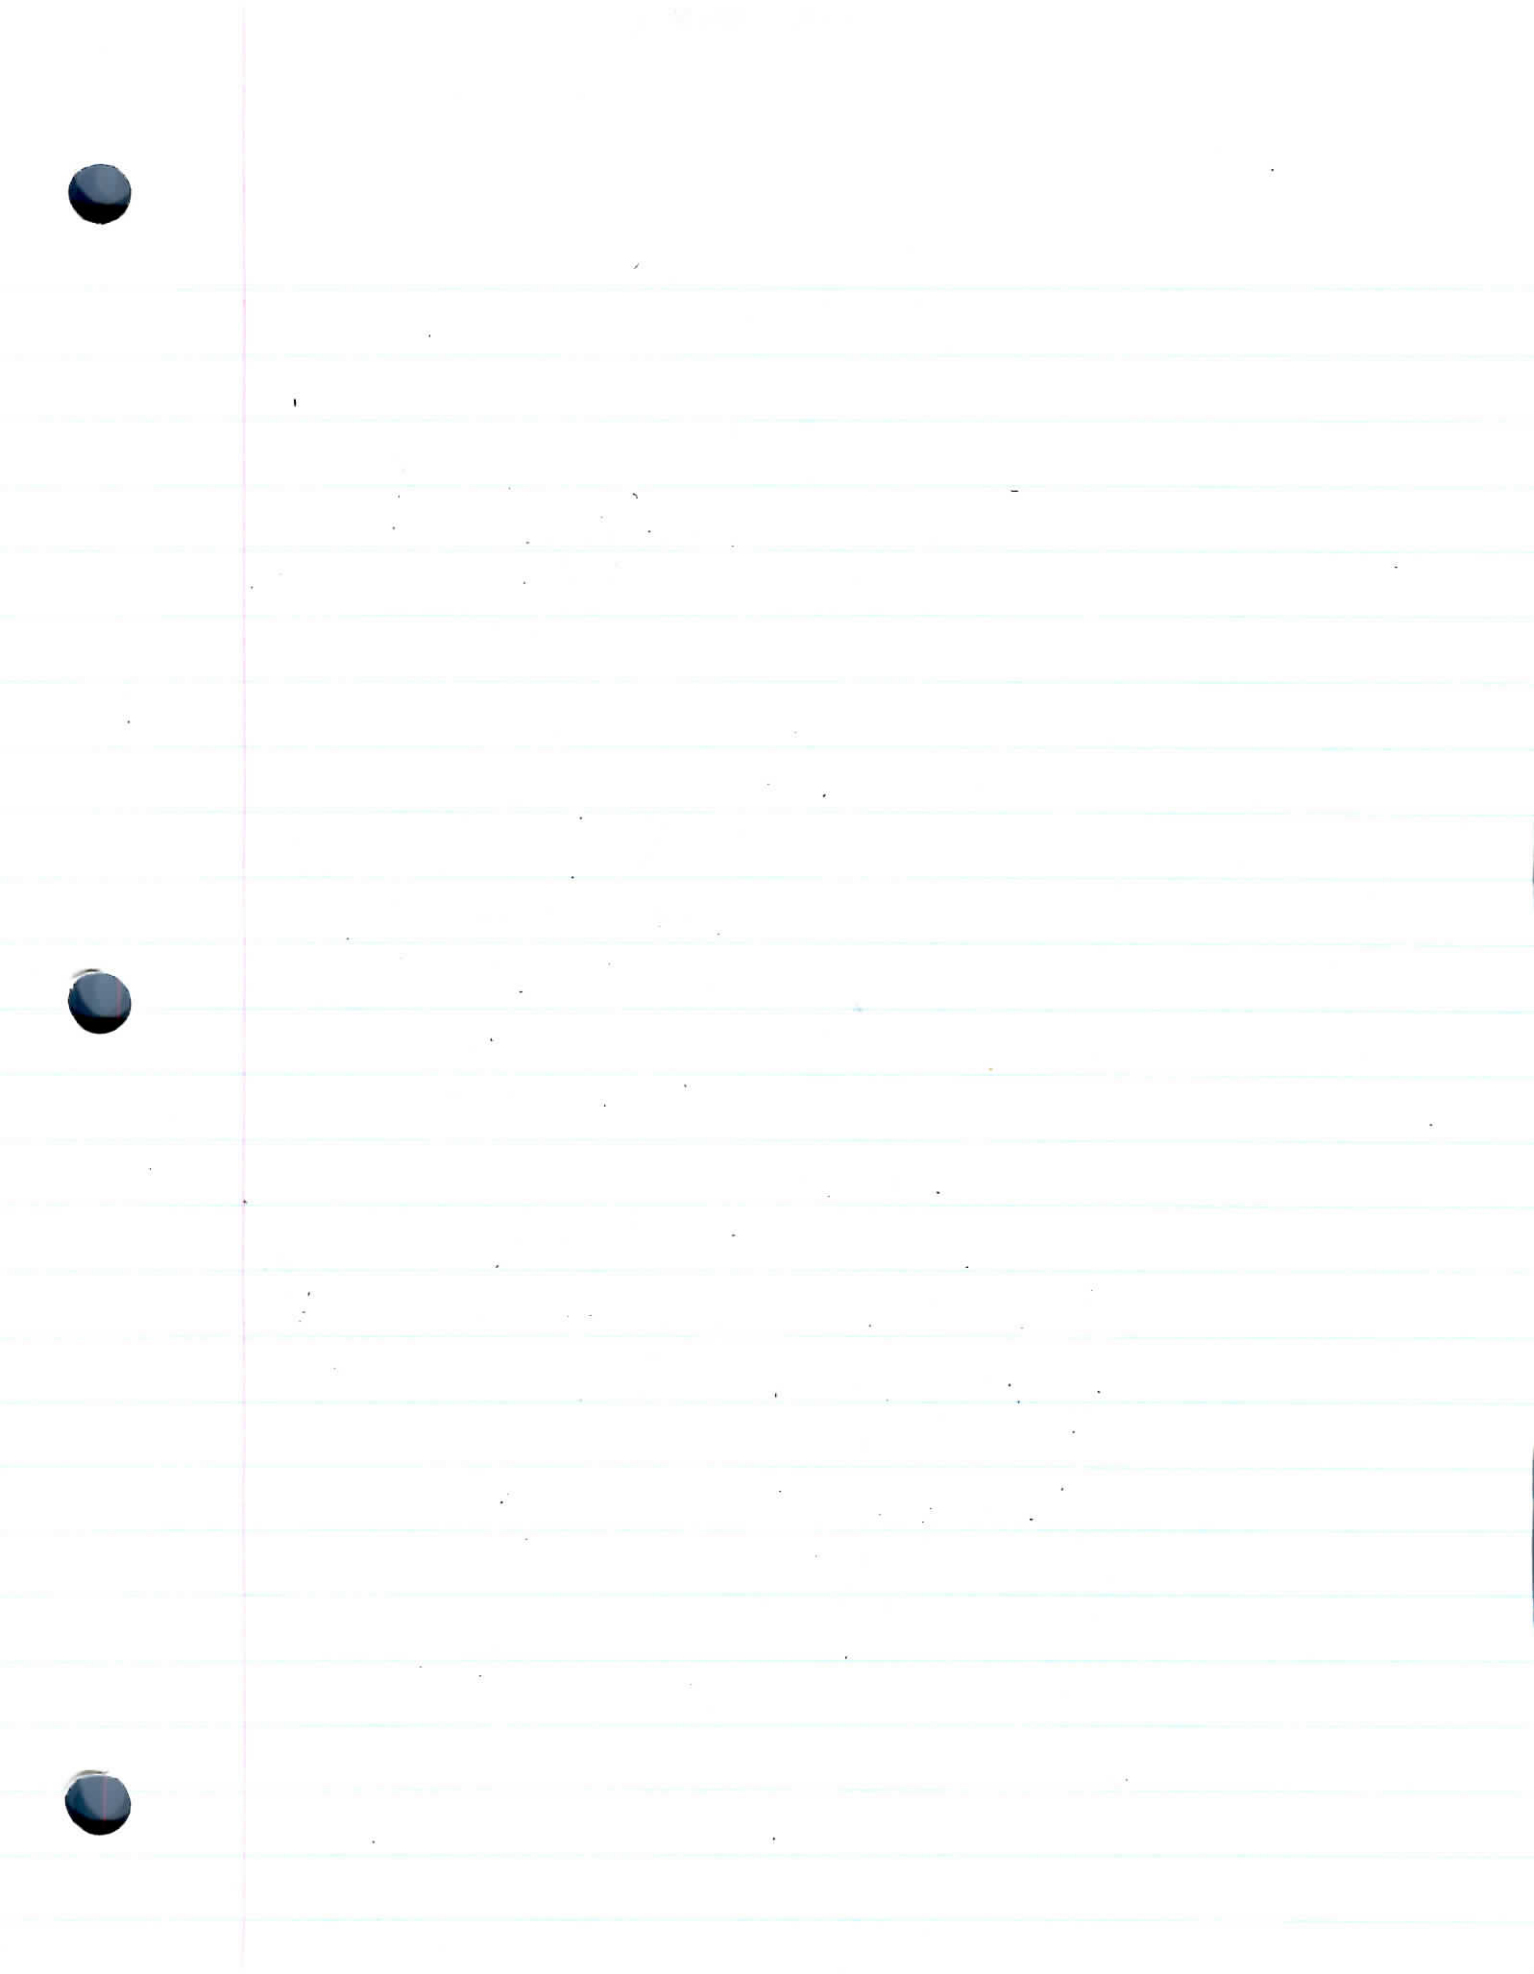

"That won't be needed," a voice said.

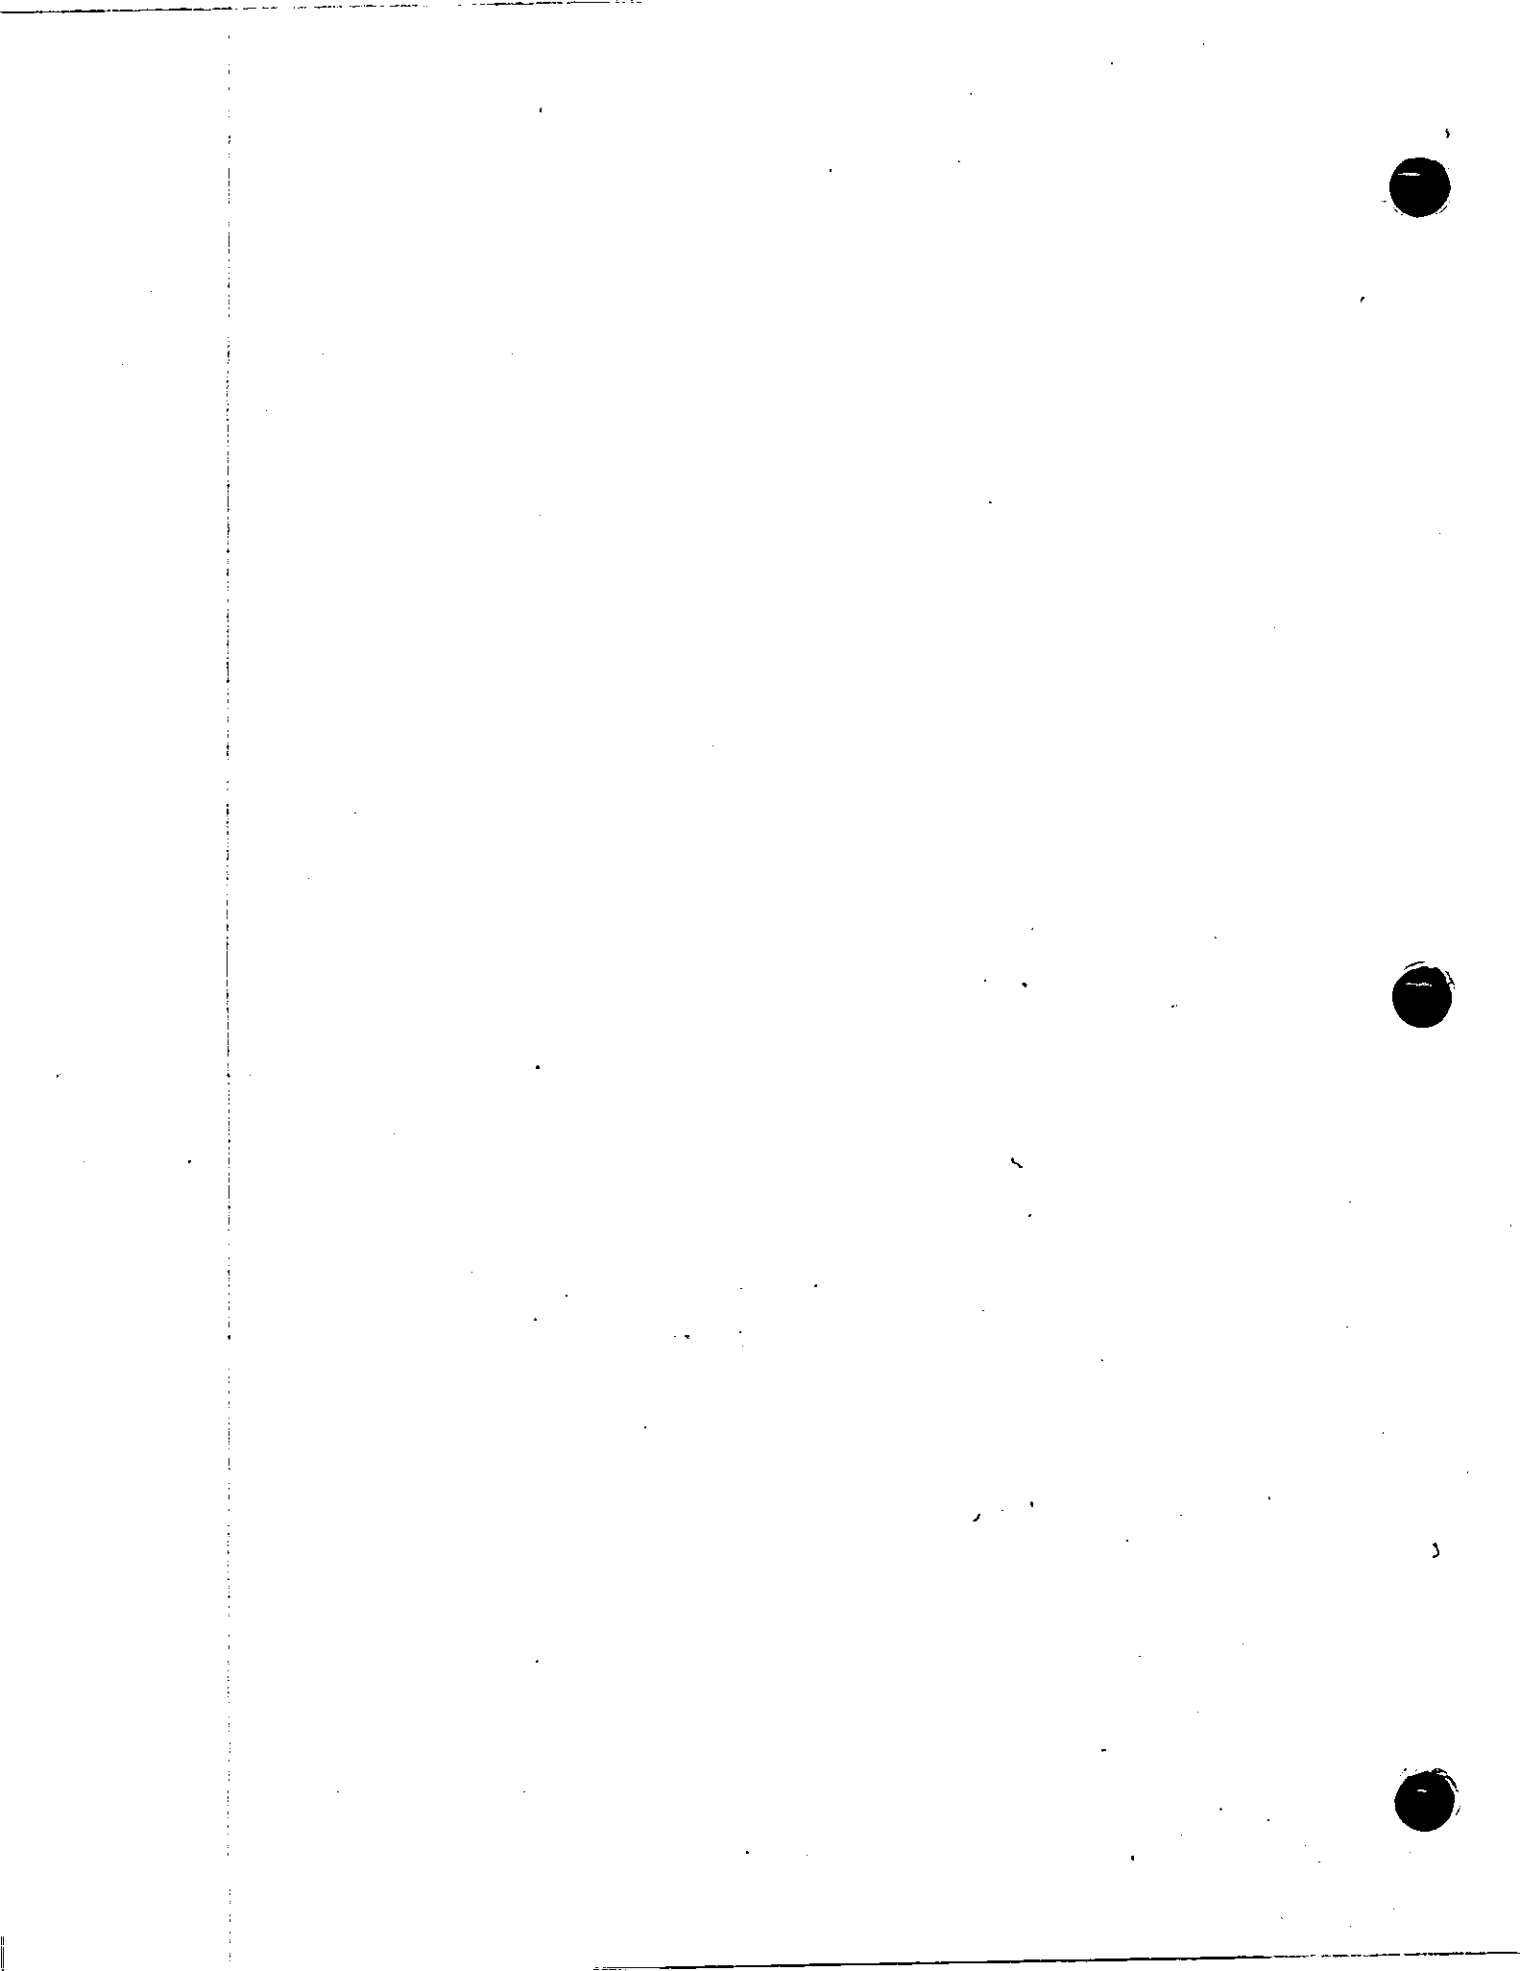

"Madame K., I should have known. All those gun clips. You're the only person in the world that uses single-shot clips," Edmund explained.

"Get out slowly. No funny business." Madame K. ordered.

Edmund rammed the door into her, "Awe shi-, a dent." Edmund ran down the street. Edmund knew that Madame K. was an excellent shot. Edmund turned to see Madame K. pointing her gun at his head. Edmund aimed but she shot the gun out of his hand. Edmund ran at her as she was reloading. As soon as she was loaded, Edmund ran behind a tree. He picked up a rock and threw it. Madame K. shot the rock. Edmund got closer and kicked the gun out of her hand. As long as she was unarmed she wasn't dangerous. She put her hands up as she was under arrest. In all of the excitement, Edmund forgot about his hand. When Madame K. shot the gun out of his hand, the kickback fractured it more. Now it really hurt. Edmund got his gun and went into his house to supposedly get rest. The C.I.A. picked up another of Edmund's victims.

Chapter 11: Meet the Ambassador

Still at Edmund's house...

Edmund ran upstairs to go to his room. All of the curtains and blinds were closed so it was dark. Edmund went to his room and sat on the bed. There was a shuffle. Edmund gripped his gun. Edmund had a visitor. The visitor kicked the gun out of Edmund's hand once again hurting it. The visitor punched Edmund in his stomach. Then the visitor kicked Edmund. Edmund flew over the bed into the wall. He was dizzy. He got up but was immediately flipped into the wall by the visitor.

The visitor said, "Why don't you give up. 641

"You're good but I'm better."

Edmund got up and tried to punch the visitor. The visitor grabbed his hand doing more damage to it. The visitor elbowed Edmund and flipped him to floor, front down.

"It is time to end this charade," the visitor explained. The visitor raised Edmund up with his back to the visitor's chest. The visitor reached a towel around and placed it on Edmund's face. He was being chloroformed, Edmund noticed that his predator was not flat chested. This was the last thing he noticed before he blacked out.

Edmund awoke in some sort of cell. He was not alone. A small 5 foot man was in there.

"Who are you?" Edmund asked.

"My name is Yarrif. Who are you?"

"I'm Edmund Sims."

"I've heard of you, you're ---."

"Shhh," Edmund said, "the room may be bugged."

"How true," a man said.

"Gruminski," Edmund said.

"Yes, and you must be Edmund Sims. You've been causing me a lot of trouble lately. Now you are my prisoner."

"How did I get here? Who was that girl that captured me?" Edmund asked.

"What girl?" Vladimir asked puzzled.

Edmund was more puzzled, "What do you want with me?"

"Nothing much," Vladimir said, "Join me. Join the K.G.B. With you as a mercenary, we could run this country."

"Are you fu--in' nuts, No way." Edmund replied.

"Suit yourself prisoner." A guard grabbed Edmund from behind. Vladimir punched him in the face.

"Oh and Vlad.," Edmund said, "I'll get you."

"What a laugh," Vladimir said. Edmund ran after Vladimir in disgust. The guard caught him and kneed him in the stomach.

Outside of the cell Vladimir ordered, "Don't open the door for anything or else. Edmund and Yarry must not escape. If they do, you will never see the world again. That is a promise."

Edmund told Yarry, "We're gettin' out of here."

"But how?" Yarry asked.

"Ah man!" they must have searched me."

"What do you mean?"

"They took my watch and my gun."

"What's so special about your watch?"

"It's a laser watch," Edmund explained.

"Yarry, look under the door."

"Yeah so."

Edmund continued, "It's a 1 1/2 inch gap. I could get the key."

"But how?" Yarry asked.

"Watch and learn. I found this towel in my pocket. I was chloroformed with it." Edmund put the towel on the bars of the door.

The guard outside smelled something. The first guard turned and fell unconscious. The second one bent down (67) to access the situation. Edmund reached out of the 1 1/2 inch gap getting the key, Edmund opened the door slamming it into the 2nd guard knocking him out.

The alarm sounded. "Gosh they're fast," Yarry explained.

"Do you know the way out of here?" Edmund asked.

"No, not really," Yarry said, "What's that beeping?"

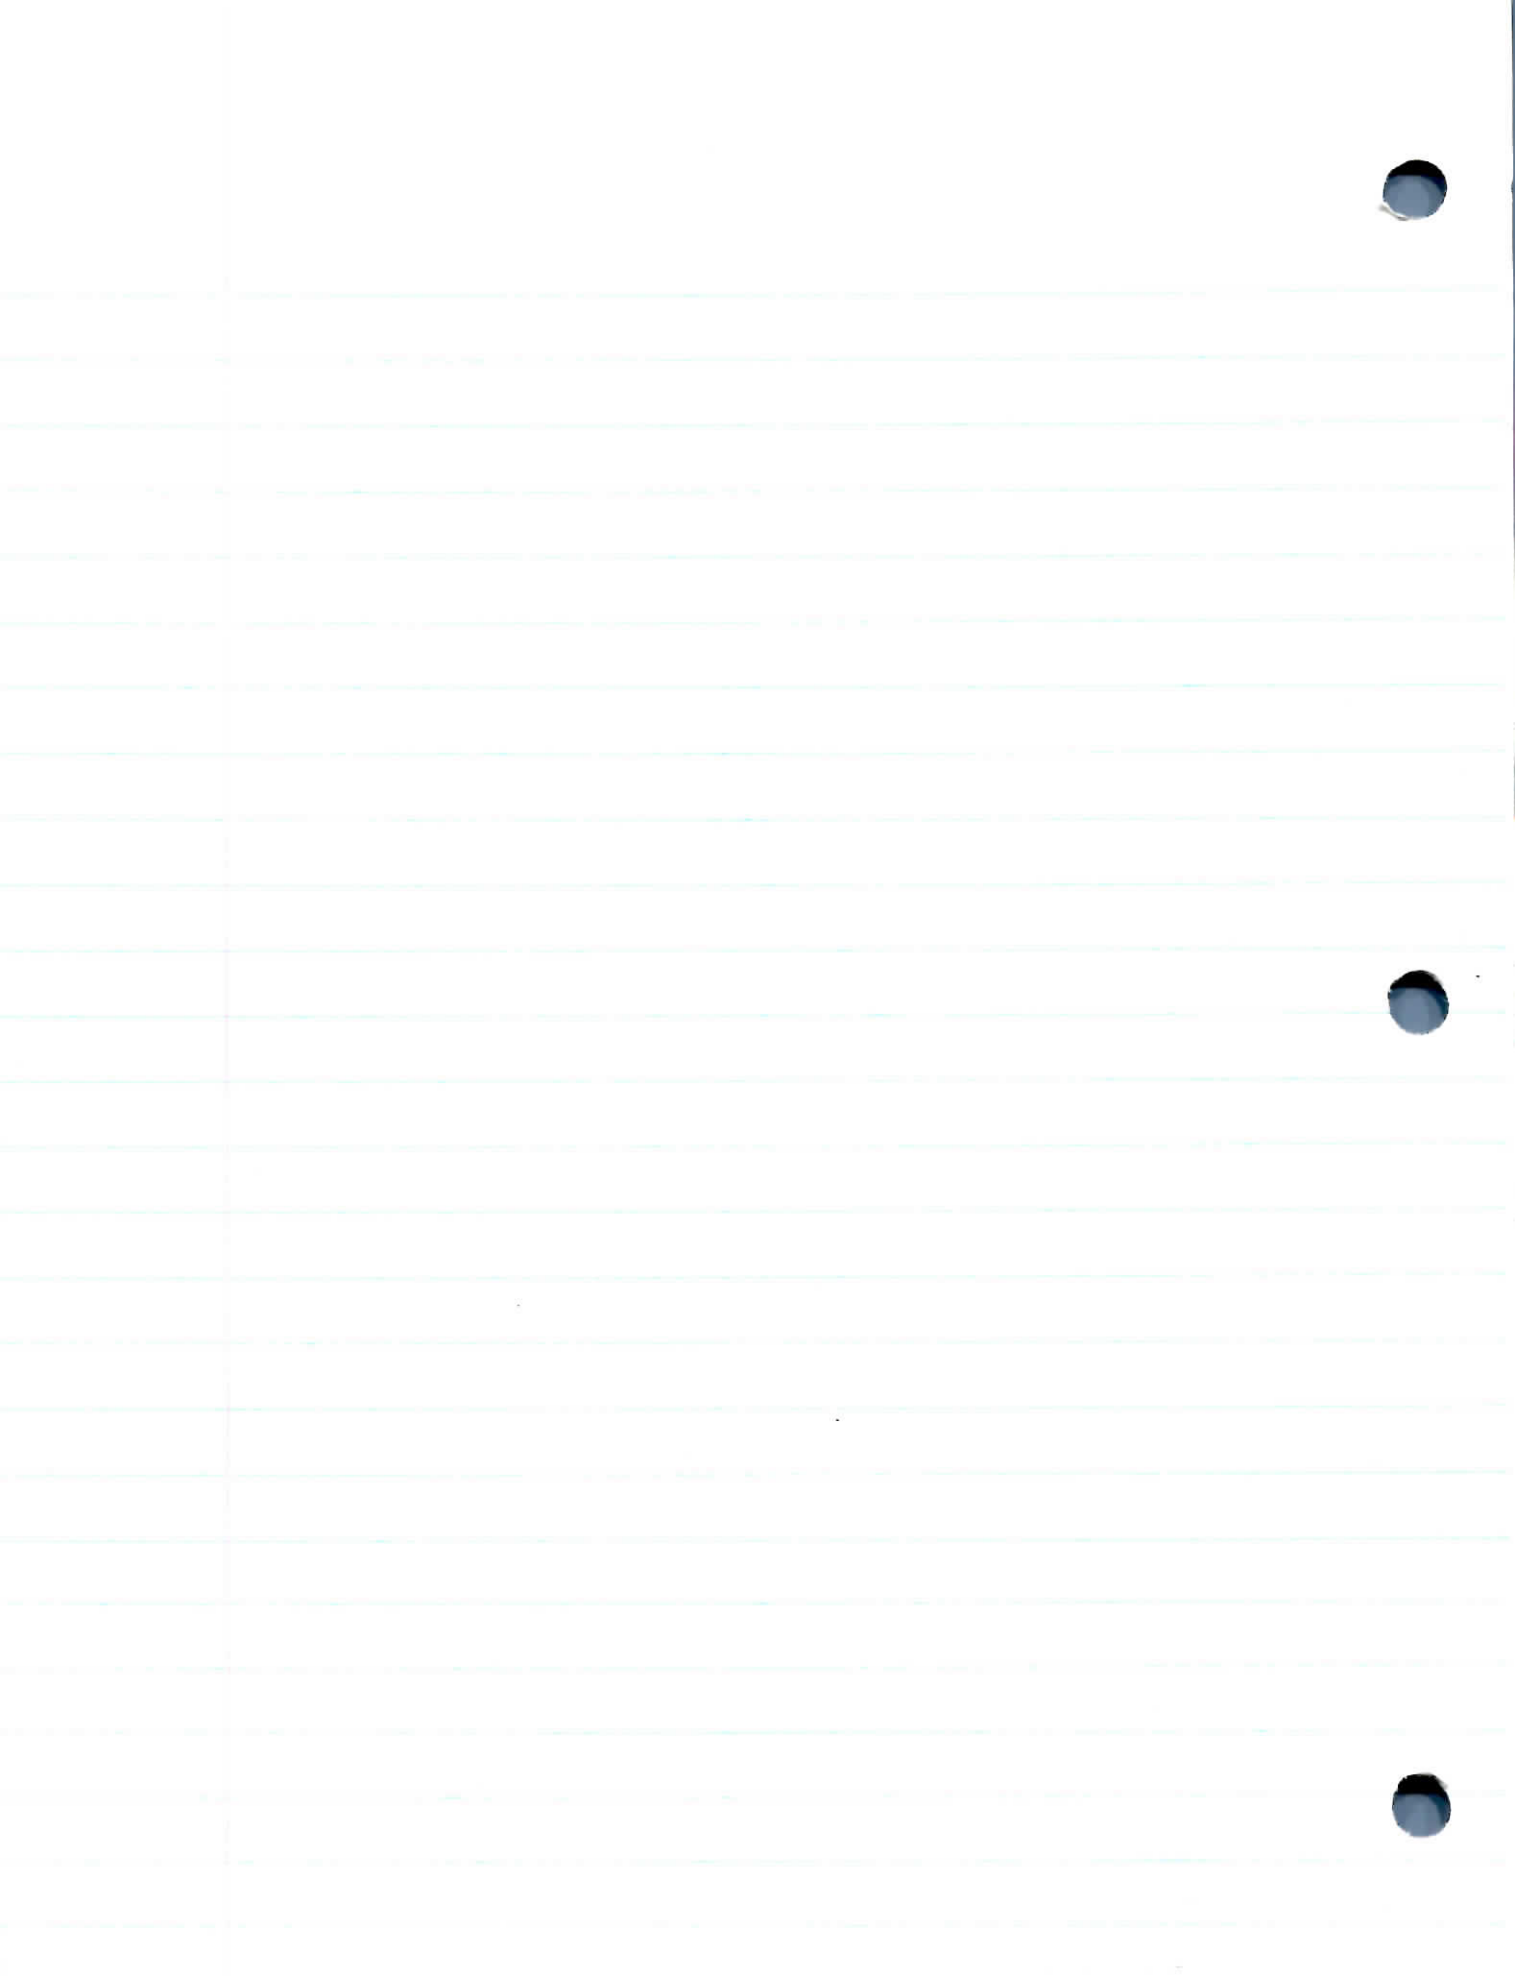

"It's a bomb Yarry. Here's the door." Edmund jumped as the bomb went off. Yarry was slow and did not make it. "Yarry," Edmund called. Edmund noticed that it was some sort of minny base. He pulled Yarry's legless, and armless body from the rubble. "I got to get to a phone."

In a remote area...

"How could he escape the base?" said Vladimir. "He must have had some sort of help. All he had was a

handberchief. 9. 10mm. 11

Chapter 12: Goin' After the Ambassador

Once again, Edmund went to Hospital Base 2, "Is Yarry going to live. He's pretty badly banged up."

"I'll do what I can," Yarry said, "I can't promise you anything."

Edmund walked over to Mark, Ease, Ann, Ranger, Jason, and Mason. Mark asked, "What happened?"

"I don't really know. I was knocked around so much that I forgot," Edmund explained.

"How's the hand?" Ranger asked.

"It bills," Edmund said.

Mark said, "If you can't go on the mission, I can get a replacement."

"No, I can do it," Edmund replied.

"Well then," Mark explained, "Let me show you your tools. You have a flashlight, wire cutters, screwdriver, and bery. The bery fit any lock. Our spy, Yarry, gave us a map of Griminaki's local apartment. You must get to the hidden room wherever that is. Are you having second thoughts?"

"No," Edmund said, "I've got a score to settle with Griminaki."

Ease continued the conversation, "Remember to meet us at the party. We'll keep you on this beeper if Griminaki leaves for home so you can get outa there."

Ann explained, "Remember, you're breaking and entering. Be careful."

Edmund put on his black clothes and packed his tools. He loaded his gun and brought extra clips. Edmund saw more spy equipment and packed that too. He was ready."

At the apartment...

There was a heavy wooden door with an alarm system. Edmund put on his gloves and disarmed it. Then he used the skeleton key to open the gate.

Edmund entered the foyer. He noticed a sheet of paper on a table. It was the phone bill, "Gosh, this guy calls all over the place." Suddenly Edmund heard something. It was a Doberman guard dog. Edmund pushed the table at the dog giving him enough time to get some sleep spray out. The dog charged and leaped at Edmund. Edmund sprayed the dog and the dog fell helplessly at Edmund's feet.

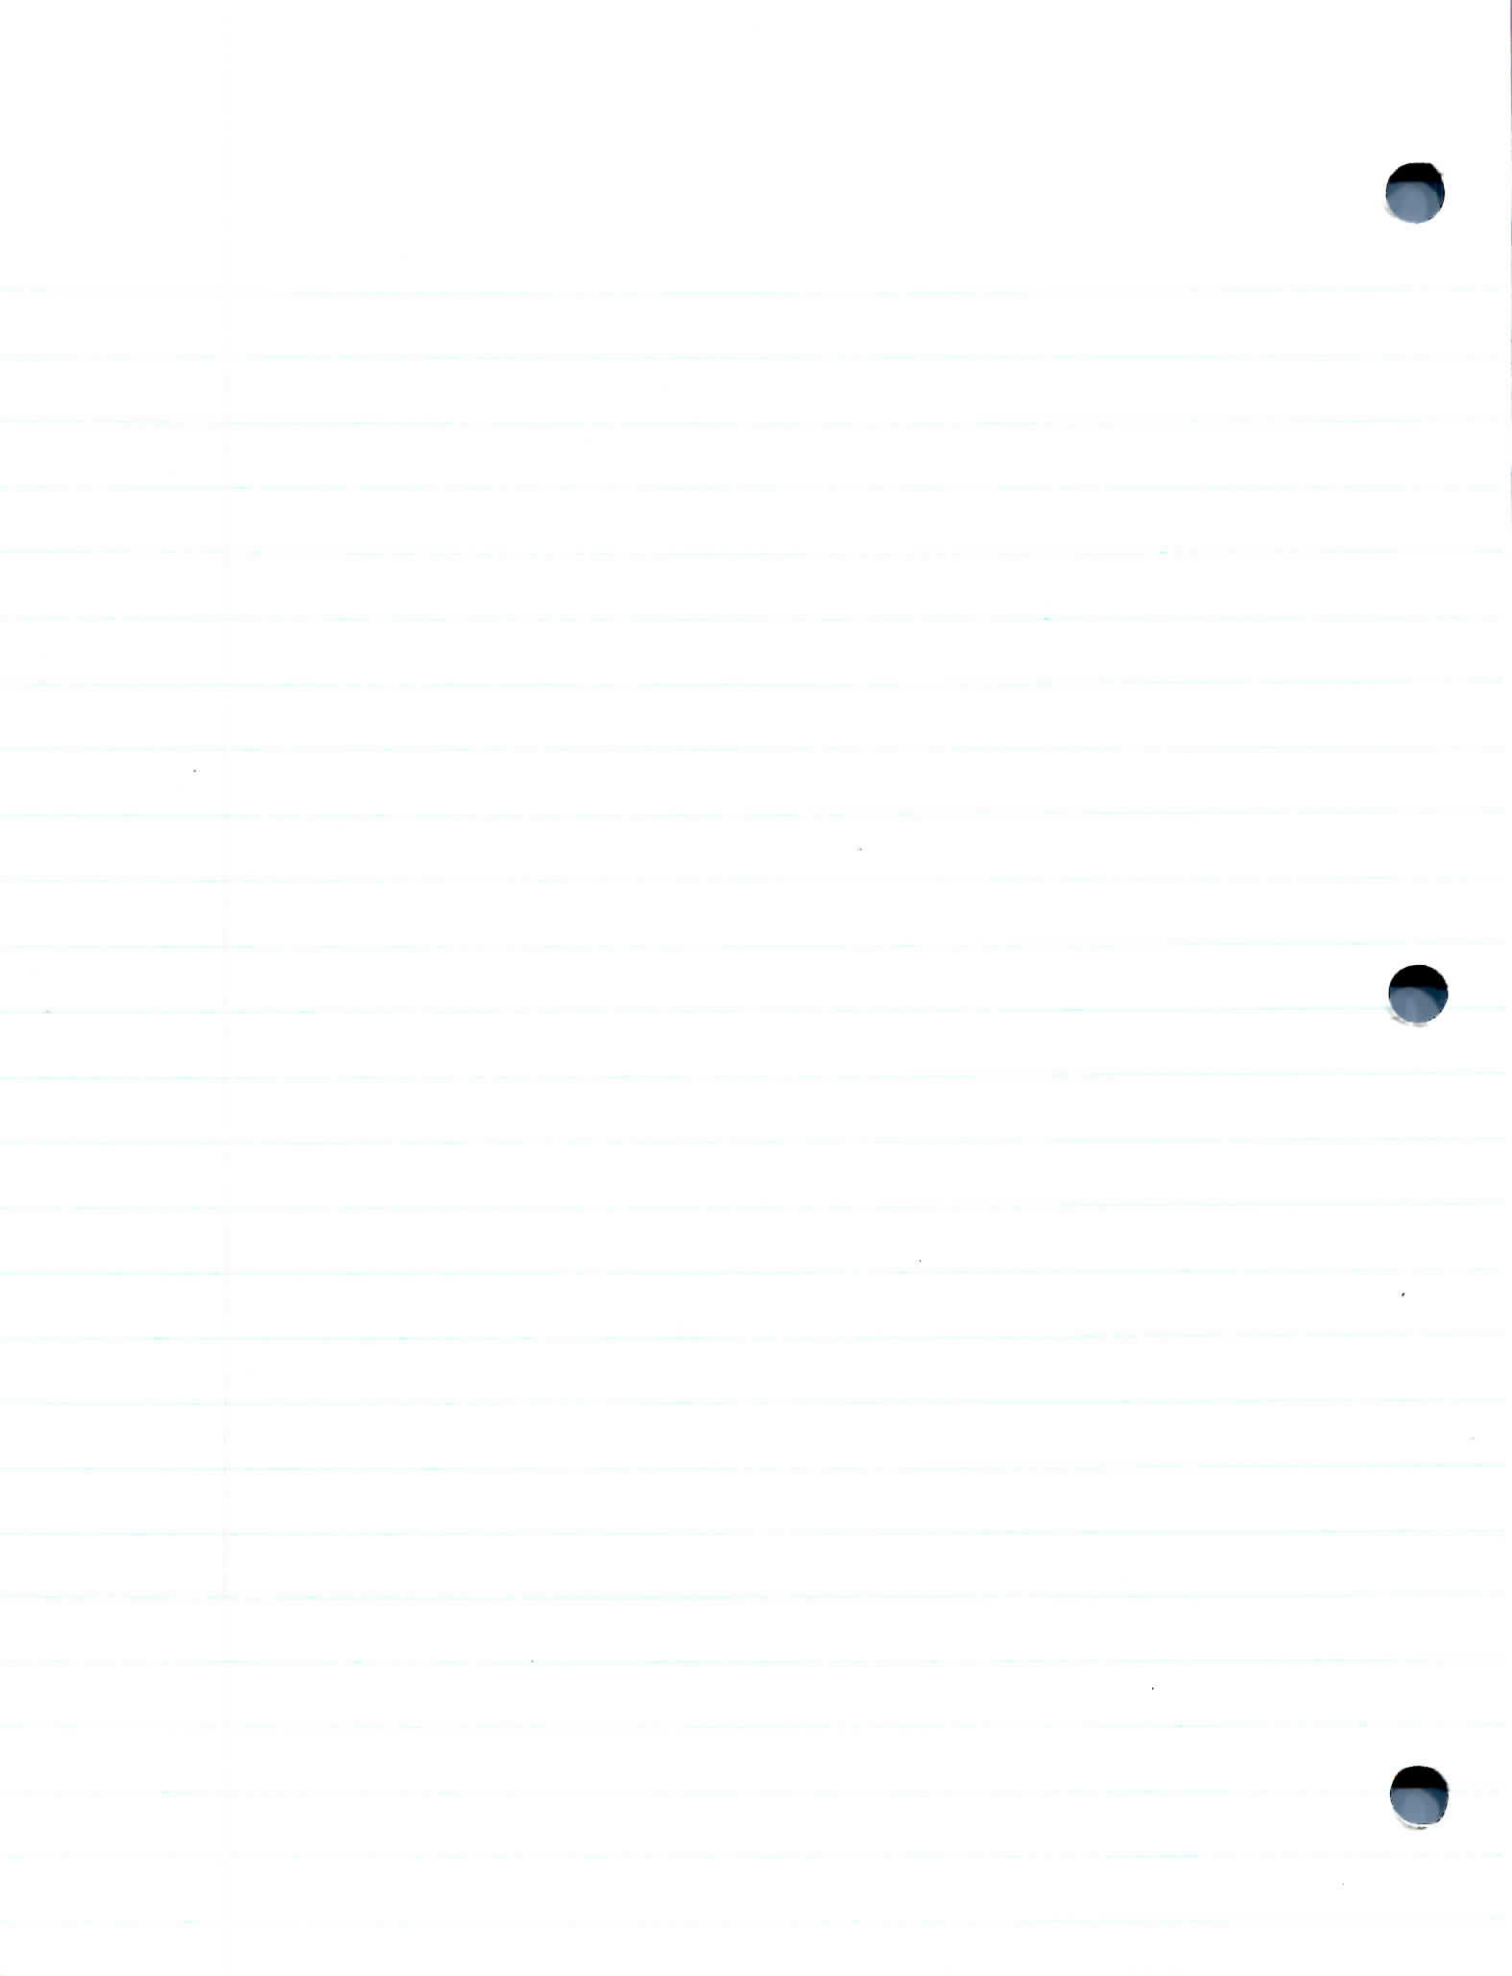

Edmund noticed a closet, "I'm not goin' in there. A bomb is probably in there. I'll check out the living room." Edmund searched the room for evidence. There was a pad with a password on it. Edmund collected it. He sat on the sofa and then fell through the wall. He found the hidden room Gary mentioned. Edmund picked up anything and everything, "Alright I'm gonna bust you now. Edmund found a safe and picked the lock. He gathered tons of evidence but he heard ticking. He exited the apartment quickly as it exploded. Edmund came out victoriously.

At C. & A. Base 1...

Edmund examined the evidence, "Da-m!, this only busts the G. & S. Vladimir you're a genius, I'll admit that. But I'm better. I'll get you... set me up again!

Chapter 13: The Party and Another Chase

At the party...

A man walked over to Vladimir Griminski, "You were right about someone infiltrating your apartment."

"Good, & planned as well," Vladimir said, "It was probably Edmund. He couldn't have gotten out of that house alive."

"Yes, sir. If he did he only got evidence against the 'F.B.I.," the man went away.

Edmund walked in to find Ann and Easo at the door. "You made it," Ann hugged Edmund.

"It was all for none," Edmund said, "We only got evidence against the 'F.B.I., woah."

"What Edmund?" Ease asked.

"It's her," Edmund said as he left, "Excuse me."

"It's who, what?" Ease was confused.

"Don't worry, Ease," Ann explained, "Gae's in love."

"It's you," Edmund said as he walked up to a female.

"What are you talking about?" she asked.

Edmund grabbed her wrist and said excuse us to who she was talking to.

"You're the one who chloroformed me," Edmund said as they sat down.

"How could you tell?" she asked.

"I'd know that chest anywhere," Edmund replied.

"What are you getting at?" she questioned.

"You have nice breast," Edmund answered.

"Let me ask questions now. Who are you?"

"My name is Carla Jane Lowry."

"And why are you working for the G.B.? You're American."

"I am but I'm not. I'm a spy. Or a triple agent," she explained, "I had to capture you to elude Vladimir's suspicion of me. I really didn't mean to hurt you. But I could have killed you."

"No way, Carla," Edmund explained, "were both good agents. You caught me off guard. You are smart though. You did damage to my hurt hand."

"Yes, I know," she said.

"Carla, you should have at least told me you were gonna kick my ass."

"I couldn't get a hold of you," Carla said, "Your house is completely bugged. Mark Shields and I set all of this up. We have the one piece of incriminating evidence against Guminiski, me. All we have to do is get him tonight. Afterwords, I'd like to see you at your house."

"I know what to do," Edmund said.

"Are you armed?" Carla asked, "We took your weapons. Don't worry Commander, I made it up to you by giving you that towel."

"Thanks, Carla. See ya later." Edmund said nearly drooping.

"Oh and Edmund," she said as she reached in her purse, "here's your watch and gun, fully loaded. Carla walked off wearing a dress that was tight down to her knees. It had ruffles. Her top was red and strapless with ruffles on the top. She had nice jewelry.

Edmund said to himself, "I hit the jackpot. Oh shi." He got up and walked over to Vladimir, "Hello Ambassador."

"Hello Edmund," Vladimir said, "What are you doing here."

"Oh nothin' much," Edmund explained, "Just putting you under arrest."

"On what charge?" Vladimir asked.

"Almost everything in the book, what do you think?"

Vladimir ordered, "Guards escort him to the door."

The guards came over and pulled out their weapons. Ease yelled, "Grease!"

Ann ordered, "Drop your weapons. 77)

Get against the wall. You too Vladimir.
Where is he."

Edmund noticed Carla was gone too, "Outside, let's go."

Vladimir and Carla went one way.
V. & I and Dr. Mindtrasher went another way. Edmund met Mark outside, "What's up Edmund?"

"Griminshi made a break for it. Ease, Ann, and I are trailin' them."

"Mason, Jason, and I will give you support," Mark said.

Edmund saw V. & I and Dr. Mindtrasher.
They went toward the forest and swamp.
Dr. Mindtrasher tripped. V. & I tackled
Edmund. Edmund flipped him off throwing him into a tree knocking him unconscious. Dr. Mindtrasher escaped.

Ann and Ease trailed Vladimir and Carla. They all stopped to face each other. Carla went against Ann. Carla kicked and Ann blocked. Ann punched but Carla caught her hand and flipped her over. Ann was dizzy. Carla had some sort of gun that she pulled from her purse. 78)

she put it on Ann's neck. A quick needle was injected into her. She fell unconscious. Ease put his gun down and hands up as he saw the V.I. army.

"You're not getting off that easily" Carla said. She kicked Ease in the penis. Ease fell to his knees in writhing pain. Carla punched him in the face. Ease fell to the ground. Carla kicked Ease in the face with her red high heels making sure he was out.

Suddenly there was a shot. Carla fell to the ground. Vladimir ordered, "Take the prisoners and let's get out of here. Leave her, she's probably dead anyway. You were a good soldier that never failed me."

As soon as Vladimir and the V.I. army left. Carla got up, "Good fake Edmund."

"Thanks," Edmund replied, "Where's Ease and Ann?"

"They were captured. We'll get 'em out. Don't worry Edmund."

"Yeah, but Ease needs his pills. 96 791 has a condition."

"You work too hard. Let's go to my place for a little r & r."

"I don't know," Edmund said.

"C'mon it'll be fun." Carla said
Edmund asked, "do I have a choice?"

"Not really. If you don't come willingly I'll kick your ar - an' make you come."

"Well since you it that way...."

Edmund agreed. The two of them hugged and kissed once.

Mark came over, "We arrested all of them. The C. & A. is doin' pretty good. We've gotten the mercenaries, most of the V.I.'s, some of the G.I.B., and well get the G.B. & W. Where's Case and Ann."

"They got 'em before I got here," Edmund explained.

Ranger rode up in the jeep, "The C. & A.'s name is almost cleared. All we need is the G.B. & W. and Griminski."

"Uh, Mark," Edmund called.

"Yeah Edmund," Mark responded.

"Can we have a day off?"

"Sure you guys deserve it," Mark said, "you deserve more than a day, but let's keep it at a day 'till we get Ann and ease back."

"Thanks Mark," Carla said.

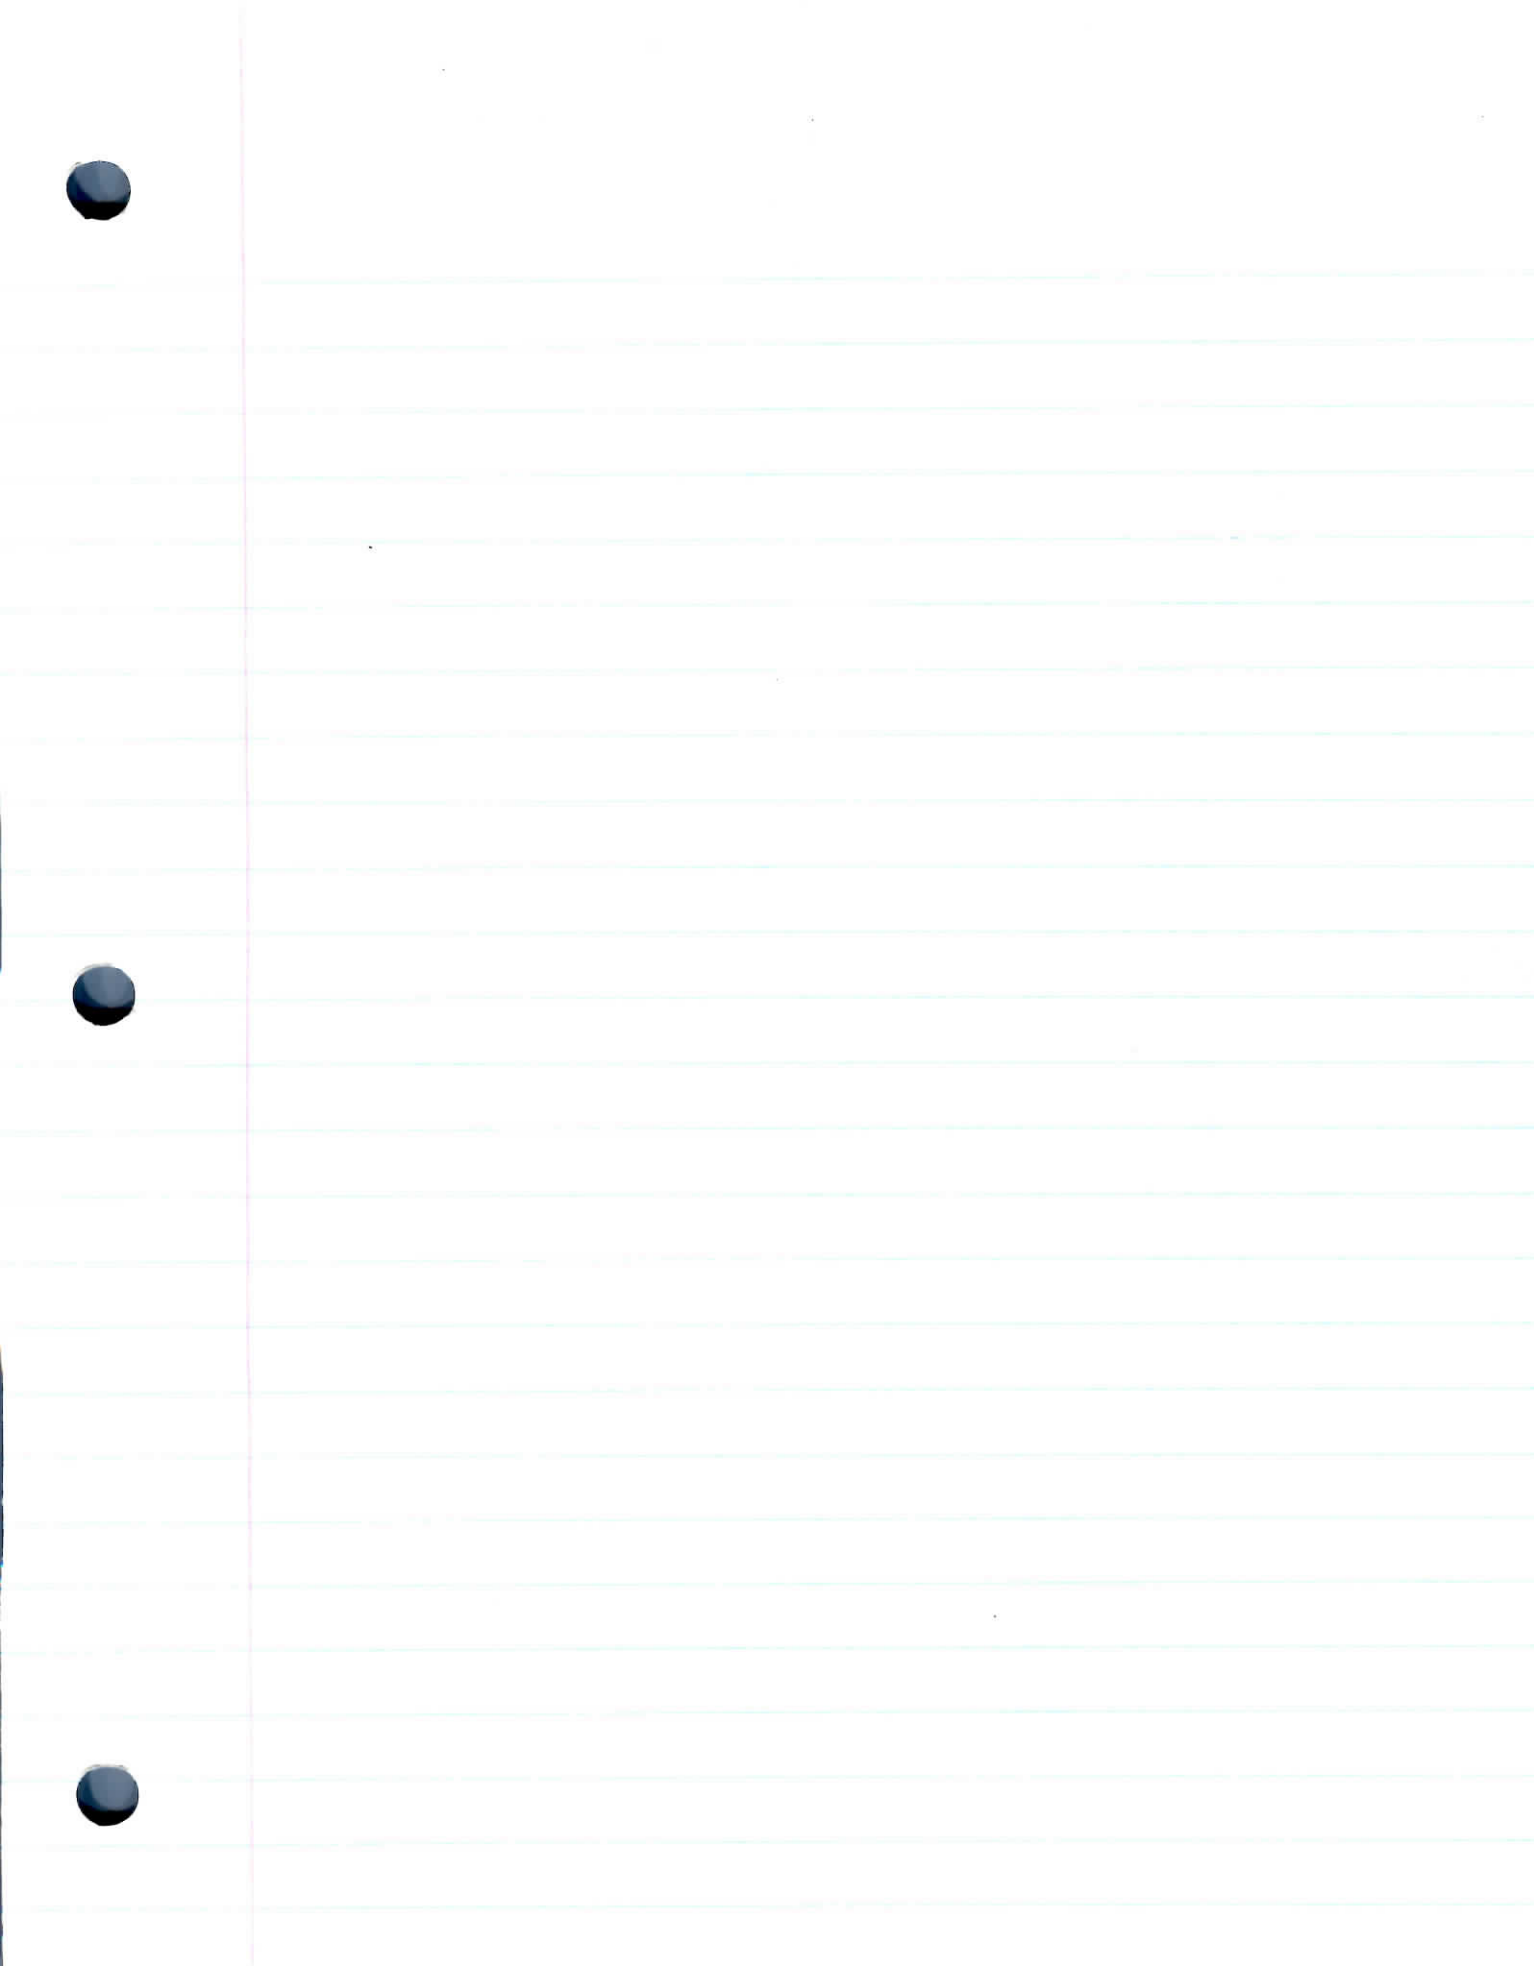

"Uh, Mark," Mason called.

"What?" Mark answered.

"Can we have a day off," Jason asked.

"You-- you," Mark responded.

"You guys never do anything but fight in the C.I.A. army and repair vehicles," Ranger explained, "We risk our lives."

Chapter 14: The Homefront

Edmund and Carla walked to the parking lot. "Who's car are we taken?"

"I didn't bring one," Carla said, "Let's take yours."

The two of them drove with Carla giving directions. When they arrived at the house, Edmund looked the place over. Carla opened the front door, "Please come in."

"Your house is nice."

"Thanks Edmund. Take off your coat. Get comfortable."

Edmund sat on the sofa. She sat next to him, "Are you hungry?"

"No, thank you," Edmund said, "What are we going to do tonight."

Carla laid down over Edmund's lap, "What ever you want."

Edmund explained, "I really, and usually don't have playtime on a first date. But in your case, I'll make an exception."

The two of them went to the bed room. Edmund laid back down and Carla moved in over him. They held each other. Then they laid next to each other. It began.

Edmund explained, "When I finish with you, you'll be yellin' Daddy."

"Oh yeah," Carla said, "I'll break you in half."

It went on all night for an hour or two and the Edmund got on top of Carla. They switched off a lot. They did it for about 6 hours straight almost wearing each other out. Then they got in bed and went to sleep.

Carla asked, "Are you protected?"

"Oh yeah, of course," Edmund said, "Don't leave home with out it. You'll never know when you need it."

They resumed after their little time out. Edmund needed more time to rest. Carla wore him out. Edmund was on the bottom. Edmund was too weak to fight back. Carla wore herself out. Edmund was waiting for this. He flipped sides and took the offense. They called it a draw. They were both hard on each other for 12 hours straight with 1 10 second break. They went to sleep hugged and snuggled together.

They woke up the next day at 12:43. They got up and immediately got dressed. Edmund went to his car and got a new set of clothes. Edmund went into the house, "Carla, where are you?"

He ran up the stairs and looked into the bedroom to see Carla on the bed. He felt her pulse and then opened her eyes, "She's alive, just unconscious. Timm, I smell chlora - - -."

Suddenly Edmund was hit on the back of the head with some hard object. Carla and Edmund were dragged off and both place in an air tight trunk of a car with an open bottle of chloroform in it.

"They'll be out for a long time," a man said.

Chapter 15: We slipped

In a laboratory...

There were 2 men and 2 women on a large couch coming too.

"What hit me?" Edmund asked.

"Edmund?" Carla asked.

"Yeah." Edmund answered.

2 more people got up. They Ease and Ann. "Where are we?" Ann asked.

"Edmund," Ease noticed, "Who's that with you."

"Oh yeah, that's the girl that lobbed us," Ann said.

"Oh that's Carla," Edmund explained.

"What the fu-- is that?" Ease asked.

Edmund said, "Mark was write about..." 86

"About what," a bald man turned around, "they call me Dr. Mindtraster. This is my creation." There was a girl with a mutated arm extending out of her back.

"What did you do to her?" Carla asked.

"Shut up traitor!" Vladimir walked in. He slapped her. Everyone was cuffed except for Edmund, "You're probably wondering why you're not cuffed. You'll be the first one to die."

"Don't touch her Vladimir," Edmund ordered.

"What, you have feelings for her. I found your weakness." Vladimir teased, "Knock him up."

2 guards came and locked Edmund onto a table like apparatus.

"Explain doctor," Vladimir ordered.

"You see this laser canon. It is filled with negative energy. Regular energy will make you strong. This will drain you until you haven't enough energy to live. It's something I made in my 871 spare time."

"I never you," Vladimir explained, "This, you'll die and be out of my hair. It really has not been nice knowin you. You broke into my house you captured and beat up my agents. And now you turn my main agent, Carla, against me. I'd love to watch you die but I have business to tend to. Hope you get a charge out of it."

Edmund replied, "Zu-- you!" The beam started. Edmund felt weak.

"Ten minutes should be sufficient to drain him," Dr. Mindrasher explained. The straps were the only thing holding Edmund up.

"Ease," Carla called.

"What."

"Give me your watch."

"I see what you're getting at Carla," Ann said.

"And now for your viewing enjoyment, you will see an operation," Dr. Mindrasher explained.

"This guy is nuts," Ease said.

The doctor ripped the arm out of the girl. Blood was squirting all over the lab.

Ease got the watch off. Carla ordered, "Ann, aim and shoot Mindcrasher." Ann stunned Mindcrasher.

"We might not need your watch Ease. I think I turned it off." Carla explained.

Ann ran to get Edmund down.

Carla and Ease yelled, "No, not yet." The beam went back on. Ann was in it too. Carla put the watch in the beam deflecting it. Ease got Ann and Edmund out of the beam. Carla held Edmund. Ease held Ann. They were going to be alright. Ann came too first. Edmund came ~~too~~ a little later.

"I'll feel numb. What's gain on?" Edmund asked.

"We gotta get outta here," Ease said.

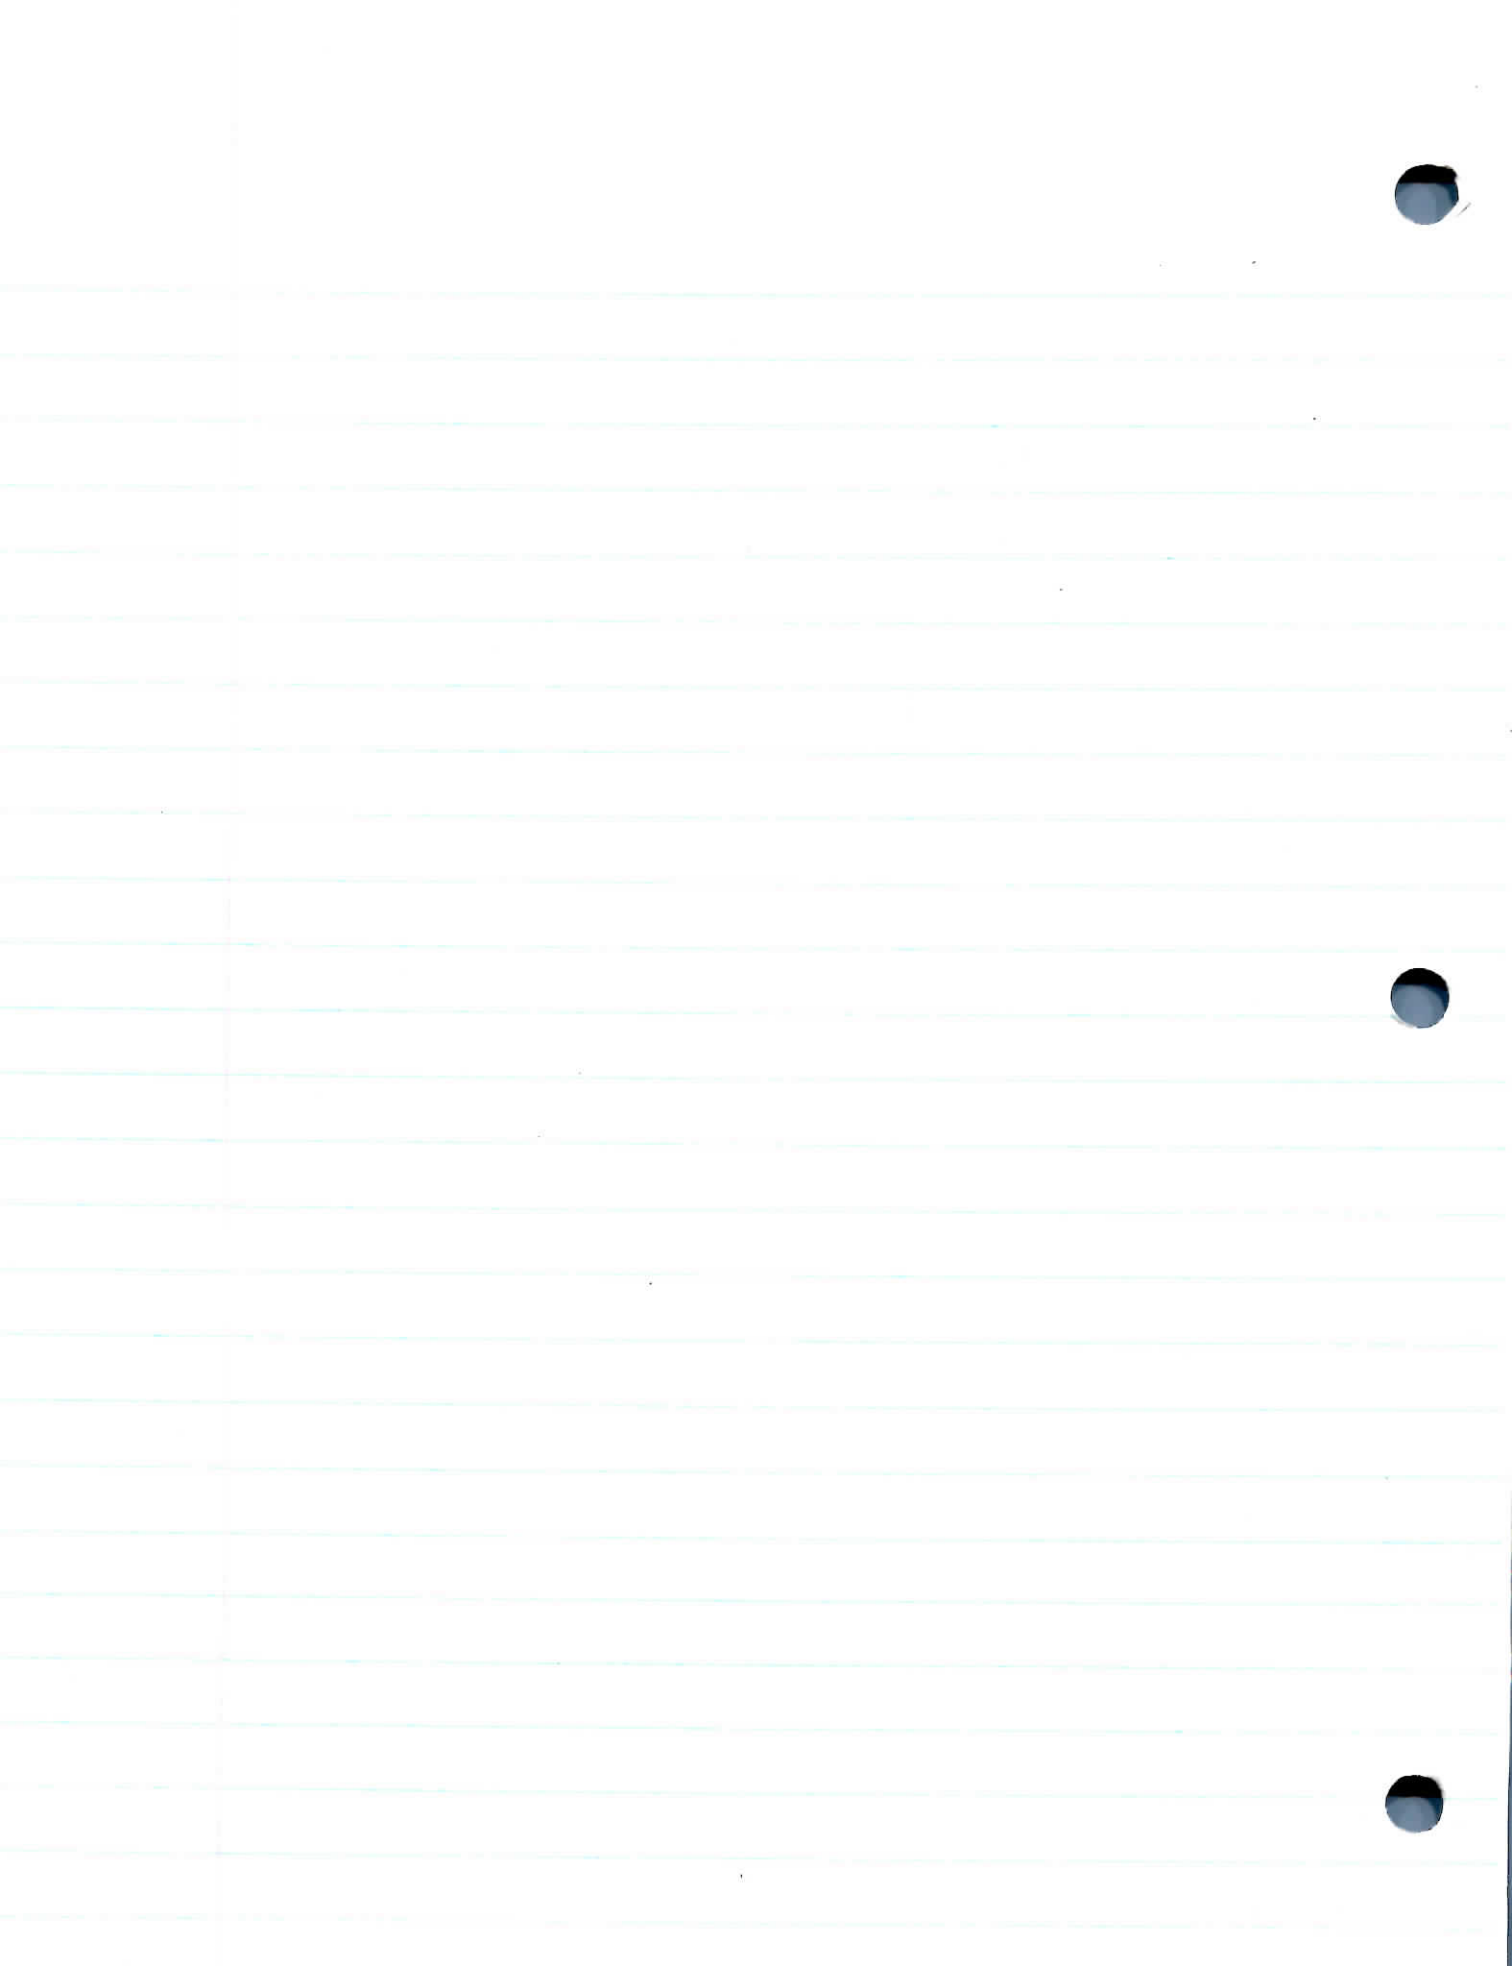

The 4 C.O.P.'s ran out and saw an astonishing sign.

"We're in a hotel?" Edmund asked.

"I here music," Ann said.

"It's one floor down in this 20 floor hotel," Carla explained.

Edmund explained, "They're probably gonna be looking for us. Split up. You 2, us 2. Mingle in the crowd. Meet at the school a block away. I know this neighborhood."

Chapter 16: The Evil Converter

At the 19th floor of the Marriott...
Ease and Ann went through the crowd to look for the stairwell. Suspicious looking people guarded the elevator. Carlo and Edmund stayed hidden in the crowd. There was a stage with performers. A voice came over the P.A. system. It was Dr. Mindtrasher.

"Here's a little present to you nice people from the boys at the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I call it a converter."

"Can you see it Carla?" Edmund asked.
"No," she said, "but I know that was Mindtrasher. He's been workin on something. Now 911

I remember. It was some sort of robot."

The robot marched on the stage. It was huge. It had skinny legs. The body looked like some sort of jet. The head was also weird. The robot grabbed a man and squashed his face.

Edmund yelled, "Get down!"

The robot transformed into some sort of jet. Mindtrasher got in the cockpit. The guns extended from beneath the wings. The guns started firing. People were falling out dead all over the floor.

"Follow me," Edmund ordered. A line of people followed Edmund to the elevator crawling on hands and knees.

"We can't have that," Dr. Mindtrasher explained. The converter flew over to the elevator and transformed into robot mode. It extended an arm. A tube on its arm lengthened.

Edmund looked straight up, "Oh my God." He raised his left arm and looked the other way. The robot fired. Everybody heard a clicking sound. "Am 92 & dead?" Edmund asked.

"No!" Carla exclaimed, "Your deflection shield on your watch deflected all of those bullets. Try blasting the robot."

Edmund aimed and fired. His laser blasts bounced off of the robot.

Dr. Mindtrasher explained, "You forgot about my force shield."

Suddenly the robot was blasted across the room. The people turned. It was Jason and Mason using the 2,200 Boomer Bomber Blaster guns. The robot sat upright.

Ranger ran over to Edmund and Carla, "Here are your guns. Ease and Ann got word to us."

"You have to get these people out of here," Carla explained.

Jason and Mason moved in.

"This mutha is history," Mason said.

"Yeah he's toast," Jason replied.

The robot stood up and pulled a gun out of his holster on his left hand.

It shot lasers at Jason and Mason's gun disintegrating them. The brothers pulled out their ujis. They only made the robot mad. It disintegrated the Ujis. Jason and Mason pulled out their 9mm.

"Fall back!" Mason yelled.

"No biddin'." Jason said sarcastically.

"Ranger, lead the people down the stairs," Edmund ordered.

"We'll cover you," Carla said.

The two cops cocked their ujis. Mason and Jason ran down the stairs with the people. Edmund and Carla brought up the rear. Edmund's watch beeped, "Hello?"

"Edmund, this is Mark. Sure the robot outside. We got a surprise for it."

The people got out safely. The C.I.O. was armed with air support. Edmund and Carla did not make it out. They were greeted by V. I.'s. Edmund elbowed his copler and threw him down the stairwell. Carla did the same. (94)

Outside, Ann got in her flight suit and boarded her Si-Ship. Mark and Case boarded the Northwayship. Jason and Mason got in their custom made Si-Copter. The C.O.P.'s blasted the robot with everything. Ranger had the ground troops all armed with 2,200 3b guns. The robot was taking a beating. It transformed into jet mode. It was met by the Si-Copter first. The copter could not penetrate the jet's force shield. The jet got the Si-Copter unarmed and chased it. The Si-Copter was no match for the jet. Ann had the jet in range as she fired her heat seekers. Dr. Mindtrasher was smart and had the missile fly toward the people. Ranger and his foot troops destroyed the rockets saving the people. Mark and Case lured the jet to the mountainous area of the city. Ann used Si-Power and hooked onto the Northwayship. The (95) combined speed was enormous. The jet followed. All of the vehicles were headed straight for a mountain. The jet was going at topspeed. It shot a missile at the hooked planes. The planes seperated. The missile hit the mountain causing an avalanch. The jet couldn't slow down. It crashed into the mountain causing a larger avalanch. The jet was crushed with Dr. Mindcrasher inside.

The planes landed. The three pilots hopped out with glee. Case, Ann, Ranger, Jason, Mason, and Mark destroyed the evil converter.

Mark asked, "Where are Edmund and Carla?"

"We came down with them," Mason explained.

"When we didn't see'm no more," Jason continued.

Ranger said, "That place is swarin' with V.I.'s."

At Vladimir's mansion...

96

A V.I. walked in, "Dr. Mindtrasher struck out sir."

"Gmm, this presents a problem. What are the V.I.'s doing?" Vladimir asked.

"They've trapped Edmund and the train in the building." the V.I. answered.

"Tell the V.I.'s that if they kill them both, they'll get a raise of a $1,000."

"Anything else sir?" the V.I. asked.

"Yes, send in the G.B.I. I want the C.I.A. gone. I'm always covered."

The V.I. left. Vladimir said to himself, "I won't be covered if the V.I.'s and the G.B.I. lose. I must think of a plan."

Back inside the hotel...

The C.O.P.'s made it to the basement. "There's gotta be a way out," Edmund said.

V.I.'s came running down, "Greep!"

Carla sprayed all 14 of them, "Were low on ammo. We only have one clip each." Both C.O.P.'s ducked dodging enemy fire.

Edmund grabbed Carla's hand. They ran down the corridor.

V.I. Leader ran down the stairs, "You men go that way. You men come with to circle around. The V.I.'s found an open door. They walked out. Carla had a massacre of V.I.'s.

Edmund took V.I. leader's group. He tripped V.I. leader and eliminated all of his troops. V.I. leader rolled out of the way and stood up he cocked his gun, "Prepare to die."

Edmund said, "Look in back of you." He was unarmed.

V.I. Leader asked, "Who do you think I am?"

"Unconscious and stupid," Carla replied as she cracked him over the head.

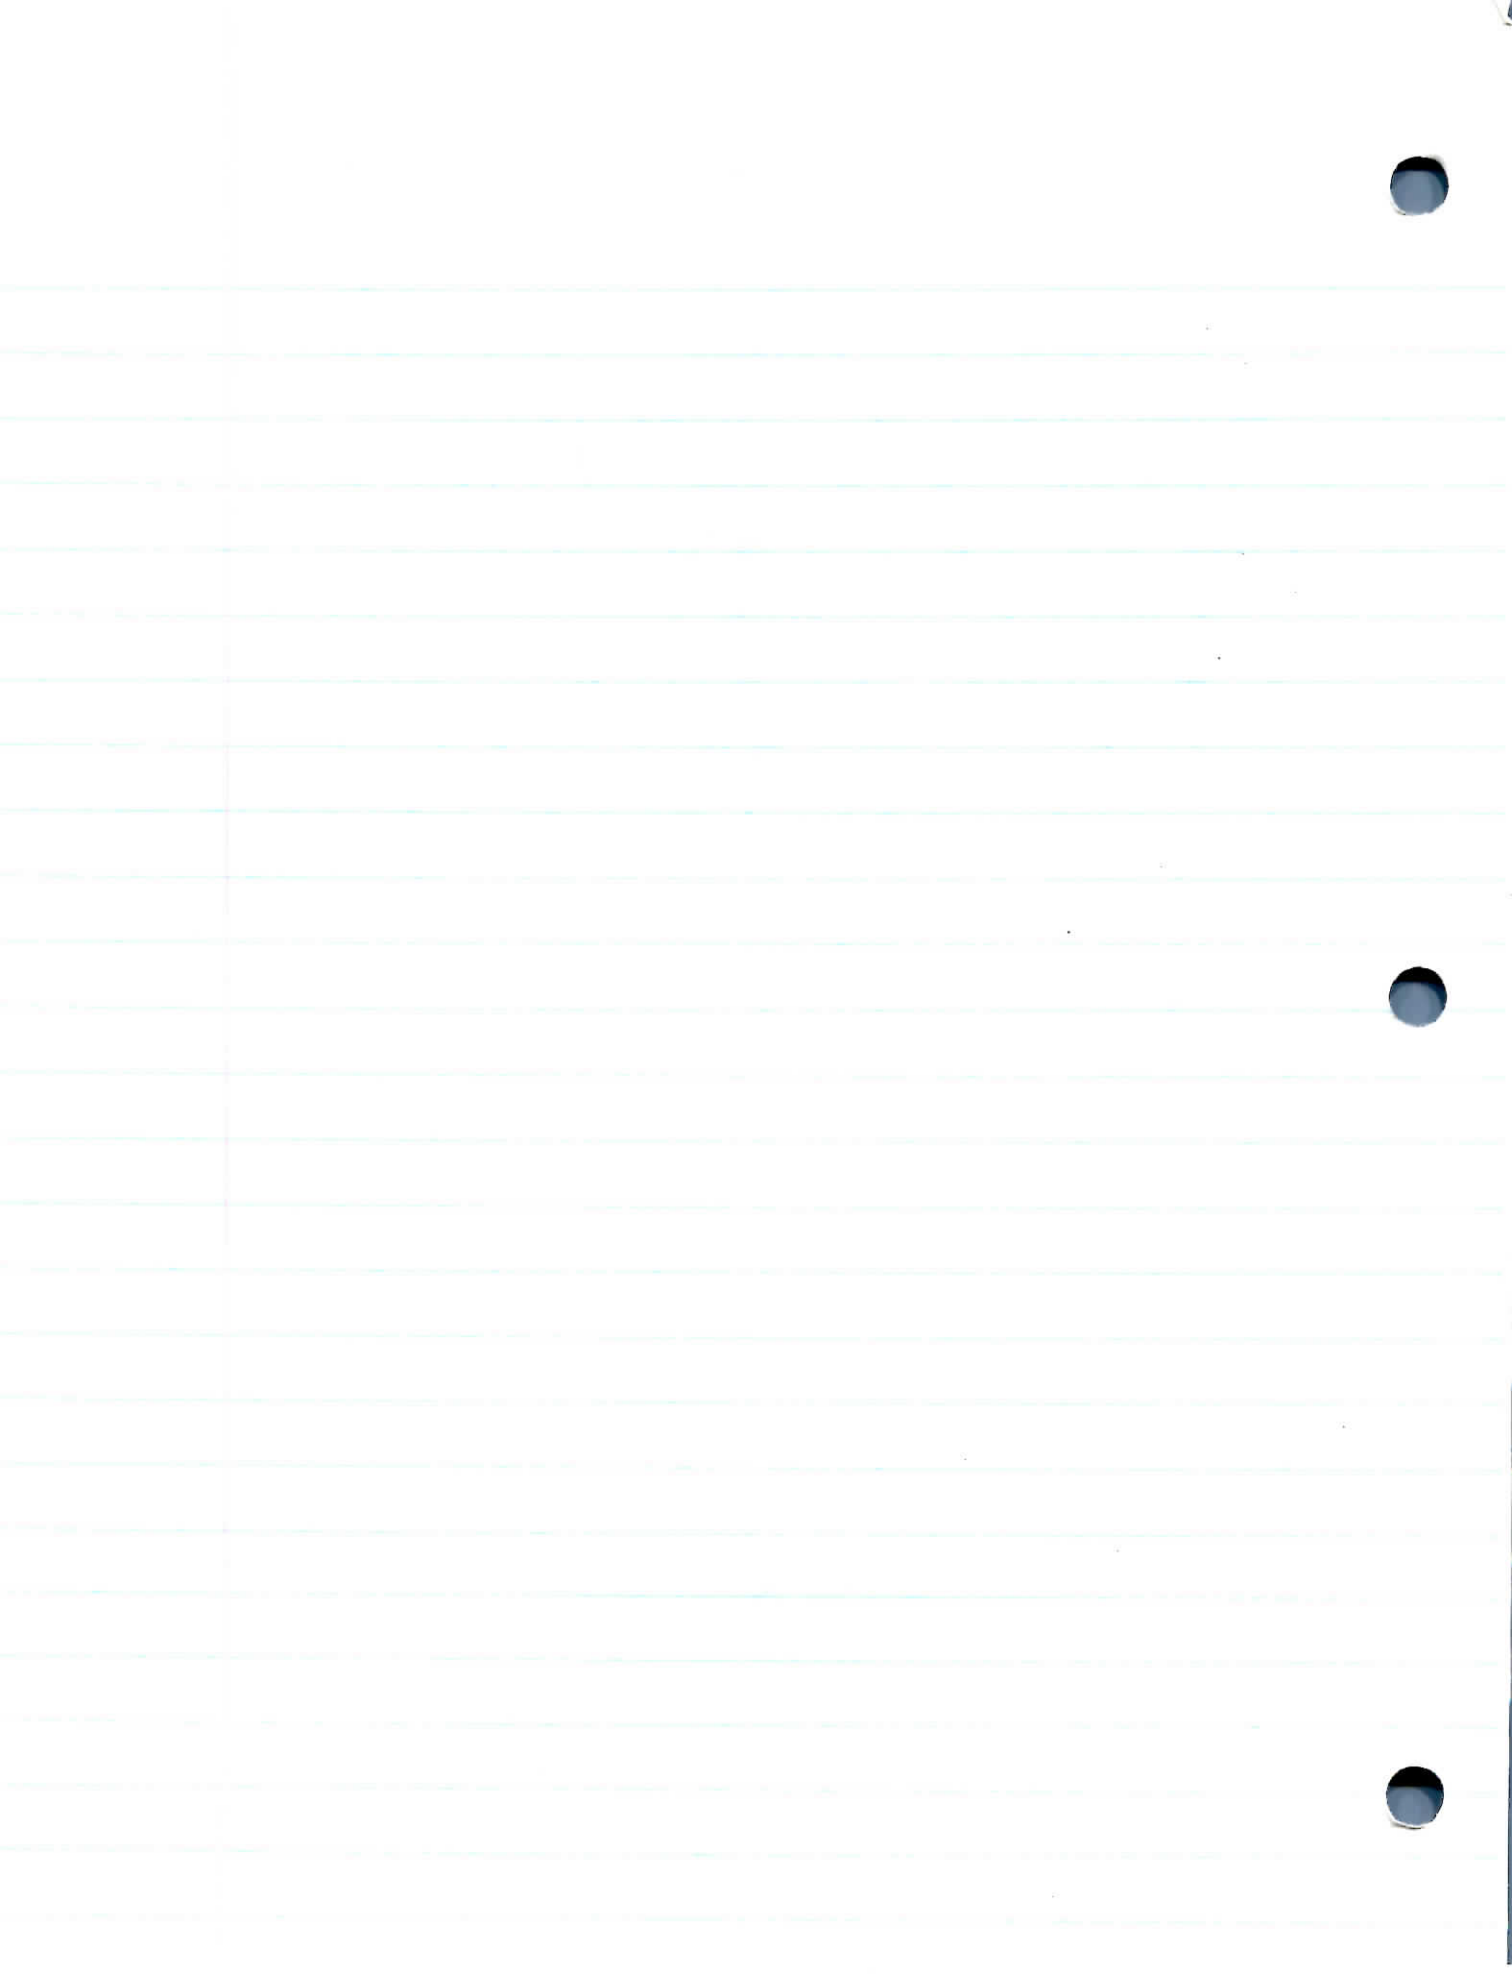

"Cimon," Edmund explained, "We've gotta meet at the school down the street."

"Don't worry about him," Carla said.

"Why not?" Edmund asked.

"We won't be comin' too for another day or so," Carla answered.

They smiled at each other and went off down the street to be met at the school by the other C.O.P.'s. Their day wasn't over yet. Not by a long shot.

Chapter 17: Take out the G.B.S.

At the school...

Case and Edmund smiled and shook hands loosely.

Mark asked, "What happened to you?"

Carla responded, "We had a run in with the V.D.'s. V.D. leader was captured."

"What about you?" Edmund asked.

"We kicked that robot ass," Mason said.

"Yeah man, that robot is toast on the rocks," Jason continued.

"The C.O.P. is awesome!" Ann explained, "We got all of the Mercenaries, the V.D.'s, Dr. Mindtrasher, and most of the G.B.S."

The C.O.P.'s walked back to Base 1. when they were stopped by a group of soldiers.

The leader explained, "Don't think about getting to your vehicles."

"Why?" Mark asked.

"We trashed 'em."

"Even the B.M.W.?" Edmund asked.

"Yup," the leader said, "Now drop your weapons. Where gonna use you guys for a little job we have."

"What job?" Carla asked.

"You'll find out. Now shut up and march."

The soldiers collected the weapons. The C.O.P.'s followed the leader of the soldiers.

Edmund said to Mark, "These are G.B.D. men."

"No talking!" the leader yelled.

Carla ordered, "Down, use the watches!"

Everybody but Carla had a watch. She didn't need. She took 10 or 12 people with her fighting know how.

Mark radioed to Rose 2, "Jerry, we need assistance. Please in on this signal."

A minute later ambulances came rolling down the street. They converted into battle mode. The C.O.P.'s all got inside one ambulance and rode toward Base 2.

Gerry ran to meet Mark, "Are guys are takin' a beating."

"What's the situation?" Mark asked.

"Would you believe the whole armed forces are against us?" Gerry asked.

"Awc man," Edmund said, "We're in for a heck of night."

"Should the base go to battlemode?" Gerry asked, "We've got important cargo here, like Yarry."

"We might as well," Mark said, "We have no other choice. We've got no weapons or vehicles."

"You've got weapons," Gerry replied, "I just need time to repair him. For all of them, I need help."

"Keep our technicians Mason and Jason," Edmund explained, "They could help."

"Good thinking, Edmund," Ease praised. 102

"Where do we retreat to?" Carla asked.

"Space Base 4," Mark said.

"What about this base?" Ann asked.

Mark said, "I'm staying, the rest of you go."

Gerry ordered, "Take the Northway ships. Come back when things cool down."

Edmund and Carla took one. Ease, Ann, and Ranger took the last one.

Edmund reasoned, "Why just go there."

"What are you getting at?" Ranger asked.

"I see," Ease explained, "We can help take out the Air Force."

"You ever ask why are they doing this," Ann asked.

"For money Ann," Carla answered. "Rodimir bought them."

The Air Force was no match for the Northway ships. The Air Force brought in their stealth fighters.

Ann said, "I wish I had my di-ship." The Northway ships went space-ward eluding the stealth fighters.

Mark took a 2,200 30 gun and went down to the ground. He saw a band of soldiers that weren't part of the Armed Force. It was the Disney Boods. Pooh ran over to Mark taking cover, "Thanks for the help Pooh."

"No prob. Meet Mike, S.A., 24, and the rest of our soldiers. We're gonna help you out."

It looked like a small war. The canons on the hospital were blown off. The hospital had major damage.

"Jerry called Mark on the wrist communicator, "We're gonna retreat to Base 3. The power here is almost gone."

"You got it," Mark said, "We'll cover you."

The army came at full force. The Air Force was almost gone but so was the C.I.A. air force. The C.I.A. retreated.

At Vladimir's mansion...

"We have them on the ropes sir," the G.B.S. leader explained.

"Good," Vladimir shook his head, "Push TO 41" them back and destroy them. I want no witnesses or survivors."

"Yes sir," the G. B. & man walked out. Vladimir bragged, "I'm always covered!" The V. & elite force walked in.

Vladimir ordered, "Bust our gump out of the can. Drop this badge at the scene of the crime."

Chapter 18: The Jail Break.

At the County Jail...

The W.D. Elzie force easily overwhelmed the inexperienced guards. Every single person the C.D.A. arrested was set free. After they left a guard awoke from his dozing and found a badge.

"Damn, Garry of the C.D.A."

After this the C.D.A. was public enemy 1. The whole world, literally was against them.

At the battle site...

"Mark, were outta omms," Posh said.

"We'll have to go to hand to hand," Mark said, "We've gotta give 'em enough time to retreat."

"They keep comin'," K.R. screamed.

"Fall back," Mark ordered. "You're real smart Vladimir."

"Give me a status report 24," Pook ordered.

24 explained, "Our armies are nearly depleted, we're unarmed, and running for dear life."

"Thanks a lot," Mike asked, "Now would you like to tell us that it's early in the morning."

"Cmon guys," Mark ordered, "Don't fight each other."

"Let's get to Base 3," Pook said.

At Vladimir's mansion...

"We've got them on the run sir," V.D. explained, "The Mercenaries are being sent in."

"Tell the F.B.I. to take out the C.I.A satellite," Vladimir said, "The V.D.'s and the Mercenaries will handle the ones 1071 here."

V.I. explained, "The United Nations wanted me to tell you that you have their full support against the C.I.A."

"Excellent," Vladimir said, "The K.G.B. will soon run this country."

At the battlesight...

Mark, Mike, Pook, 24, and O.P. were surrounded by mercenaries. Mark mumbled, "Pook, use your laser watch."

Pook stunned Mr. Nigma, Madame T., and Safari Jack. The Willy's jumped and tackled the C.O.P.'s. They were mad. Mark picked up Billy Willy and nearly threw him across the street.

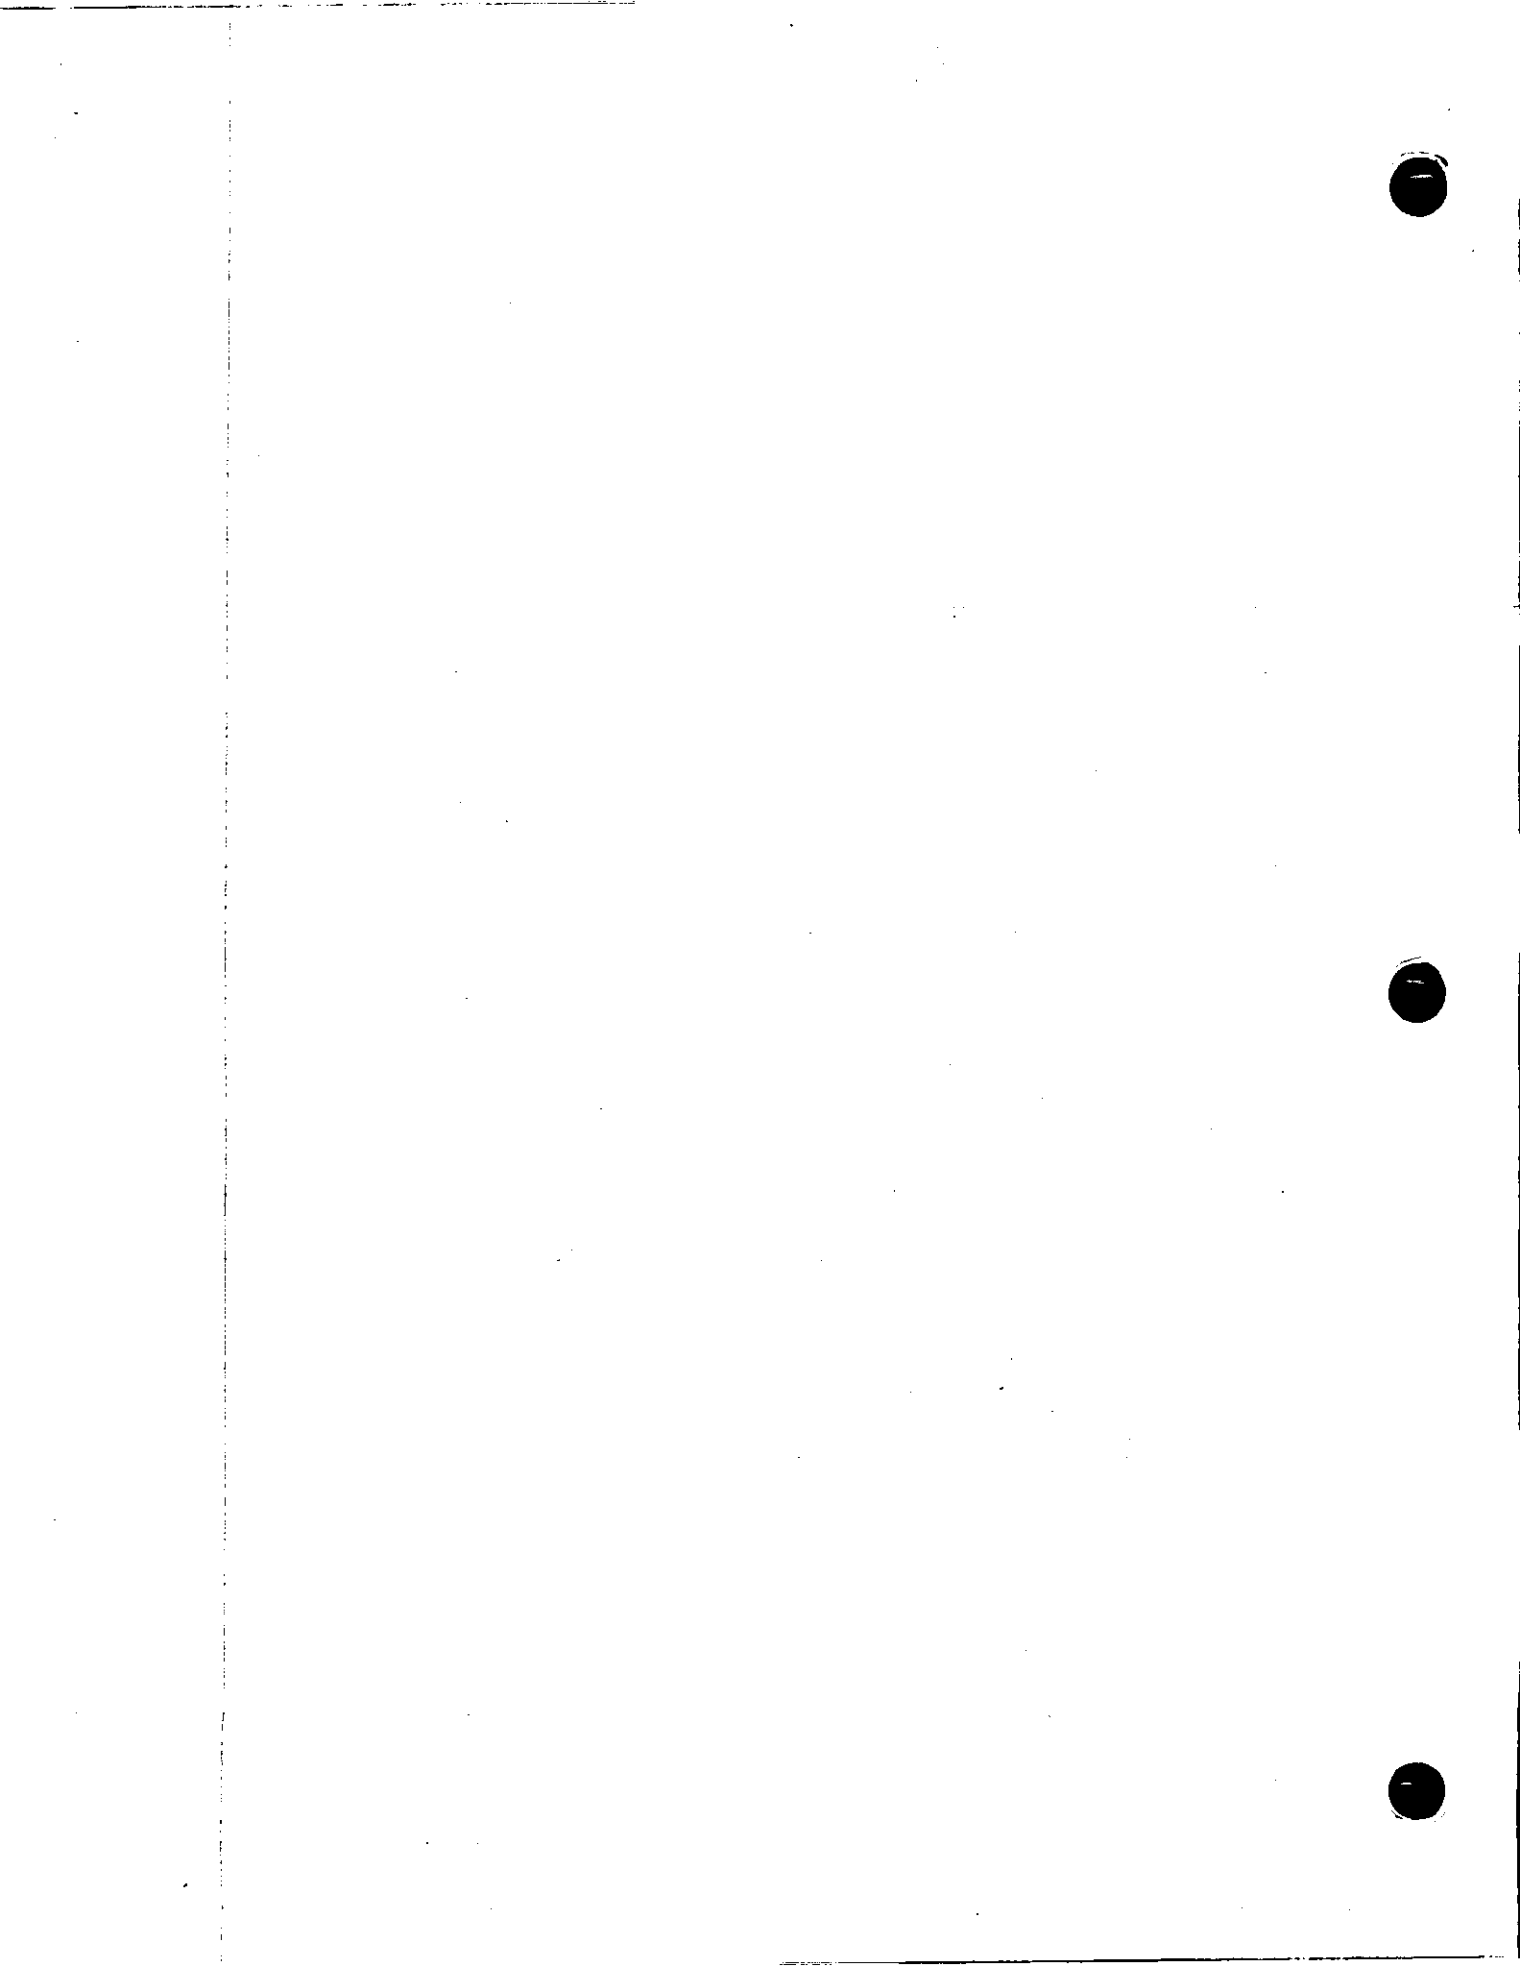

Billy yelled, "I'm sick of this shi-. I quit. I never have any fun." He walked off into the sunset.

The C.O.P.'s were all armed as they got the Willy's off of them. They ran all the way to Base 3.

The base was completely surrounded by V.I.'s and mercenaries. The people 1081 at Base 3 had only one hope, the people at Base 4.

Chapter 19: The Delta Satellite Versus the G.B.S.

At the Delta Satellite...

"This place is neat," Ease said.

"Yeah," Ranger replied.

Edmund was staring out of a window. Carla came and sat next to him,

"What's wrong, you seem disturbed?"

"I am," Edmund answered, "I wonder how the guys down on Earth are doing."

"If it'll make you better we can call," Carla explained.

Ranger said, "Base 2 is gone. I radioed in to Base 3. They're surrounded. They need help 'cause they're taken a beating."

Suddenly there were harsh crashes.

"What's goin' on?" Ease asked.

"We're under attack," Ann said.

"Can't we fight back?" Edmund asked.

"We need the code to arm the base."

Ann answered, "I could sneak in and arm it."

"Do it," Edmund ordered. "Ease and Ranger, get in the Northway ship and take 'em down."

"Edmund," Ann called.

"What," Edmund answered.

She continued, "They've broken into Section 4. If you're gonna shoot set your laser watch low enough not to blow up the section but high enough to get your enemy."

"C'mon Carla, let's go," Edmund ordered. They ran down the corridor to be met by space soldiers of the G.B.A. The soldiers were armed with laser guns.

"Edmund, hold onto something," Carla ordered. She shut off the Anti-Gravity making the soldiers easy targets. She turned it back on.

"We gotta get to the other Northway (11) ships," Edmund said. The C.O.P.'s launched joining Ease and Ranger. Space was swarming with spaceships.

"How many are there?" Carla asked.

Ranger answered, "30 bogies."

Ease said, "Ann I wish you'd hurry up."

"I'm hurrying, I have half of the code." Ann replied.

The C.O.P.'s flew together then split up drawing 15 fighters each. Edmund flew straight up and came down in back of his bogies. 5 bit the dust. The fighters regrouped and came after one ship. Ease was running from 25 ships. Edmund once again got in back of the ships taking out 7 more ships. Ann got the firing system working. All of the ships were in her sights.

"Uh guys, you might want to move out of the way."

Carla explained, "If we do, they'll split up again. We'll wait the last."

minute."

"Suit yourself," Ann replied. She fired a huge blast of light that the Solar Converters contributed. Edmund and Ease flew up immediately and noticed the ships going up in balls of fire. One hurled to the Earth crashing into part of the army surrounding Base 3.

"C'mon down and pick me up Ease," Ann ordered.

"I love that girl!!!" Ease screamed.

The C.O.P.'s received a transmission from Mark, "Thanks for the help guys!"

Ann explained while they flew to Base 3, "I rigged up this box. We can use the satellite to do the firing."

"Great job," Edmund said.

At Vladimir's mansion...

V. & I explained, "They're using that satellite against us. The F.B.I. is gone. What should we do?"

"Don't worry," Vladimir coaxed, "I know 113) the code to the Sagon computer of the satellite. Informants are wonderful, aren't they?"

"Yes sir."

"Tell the army to move in. I want no prisoners. I want them dead," Vladimir ordered, "that small force should be coming home. Be ready for them."

"Yes sir," V.I. 1 said as he walked out.

"If they fail," Vladimir said, "I still have the United Nations. There is no way they can escape the World. I'm always covered. Ka ha ha"

Chapter 20: An Inoperative Base and the Good Converters

At the battle site...

The Northway ships took out the last of the airforce. The Army had a clear shot at Case's ship. They took the initiative.

"Edmund, I'm hit," Case explained, "I'm gonna do a kamikaze."

"Be careful," Edmund replied.

Case brought the ship around to the last of the army. Case, Ann, and Ranger ejected as the ship crashed into the Army finishing it off. Only the Mercenaries remained. They met the 3 grounded C.O.P.'s. The Mercenaries surrounded the C.O.P.'s. Edmund and Carla landed safely and got into Base 3.

Outside Ann got out her control box. The 3 C.O.P.'s went back to back. The V.I. Elite Force marched over. Ann fired the satellite weapon. The beam came straight for the 3 C.O.P.'s.

Mark got on Ann's wrist com, "Don't use it! The V.I.'s overrid your signal."

"You're gonna get billed out there. What are we gonna do?" Edmund asked.

"I have the answer," Jerry explained. "Get in your B.M.W. Mason, get in your helicopter. Mark get in your van."

"What's goin' on?" Mark asked.

"Just drive out there," Jerry ordered. "The Jeep will follow. You're fully armed."

The cars and copter went outside of Base 3 and attacked. All 4 of the vehicles stopped. The B.M.W. said, "Face the fury of Compound."

The Jeep said, "Face Heartbeats' fury."

"and mine," the Bi-Copter said, "I 110 am Si-Blade."

"Don't forget me, Van-Go," the van said.

"What the fu-- is goin' on?" Edmund asked.

All of the vehicles transformed into robots. Compound blasted some soldiers with his laser knuckles. Heartbeat used his guns taking out more soldiers. Si-Blade used his blades as swords cutting and slicing V.I.'s. Van-Go pounded heads together. The mercenaries were smart, they dropped their weapons and surrendered. The V.I.'s kept coming.

"Now for my second trick," Gerry said, "This whole base is a robot." Something went wrong nothing converted, "Oops, I miscalculated."

"No you didn't," Pook said, "They're destroying the base." A man walked out. It was Gerry in some sort of robo-suit. "What happened to him," Pook asked.

Gerry answered, "That suit keeps 1171 him alive but it also merges the robots."

"I gotta see this," Jason said.

Compound's arms retracted. His legs also moved in. Bi-Blade's tail folded over. An arm came out.

Heartbeat and Von-Go became the legs. Yarry became the left arm.

This was too much for the V.D.'s to handle. They retreated.

Gerry said, "Meet Beemer-W." The robot took out more and more V.D.'s. Beemer-W. Deconverted back into the vehicles. The C.O.P.'s were astonished. They pulled it off.

Suddenly the satellite blasted at the ground blowing the cars over.

"Sorry about that guys," Gerry said, "I forgot to override Vladimir's override."

Edmund said dignily, "Yeah right sure."

At Vladimire mansion...

"Send in the United Nations V.D. 1!"

Vladimir said angrily, "I'm tired of 1187

this charade!"

"Yes sir," v. d. I said as he walked out.

Chapter 21: The Confrontation or World War 3.

At Edmund's house...

Edmund was throwing a party for C.I.A. operatives. Edmund and Carla locked the den door and were on the couch together.

"This is great," Edmund said.

"I'd say," Carla replied.

The music was loud. The party was lively. Every was having a great time. The party was soon crashed by a voice on a megaphone.

"Who the fu-- is that?" Mason asked.

"Yeah who?" Jason continued.

"This is the leader of the United Nations. DD Come out with your hands up. The armies of the world are outside of this house ready to act if you do not submit."

Edmund and Carla came out. Mark ordered, "Let's go out of the back."

"No way," Edmund said, "I've gotta guard this house."

"Suit yourself," ease replied.

When the C.O.P.'s got outside they were met by a huge army. "Is everybody scrapped?" Ranger asked.

"Yeah Ann," said.

Mark ordered, "Set up the barricade."

Nobody was aware of the V.D.'s moving in the house. Carla and Edmund moved the couch out. They cocked their upis, bussed and went to battle.

The battle started outside also. It was a huge display. C.D.A. troops got wasted. The C.O.P.'s were outnumbered 35,000,000,000 to 7. Jerry drove up in an ambulance with extra ammo. The army had tanks and battle equipments. The C.O.P.'s needed some assistance. They got 1211 some. They got Disney Good help but that's about it. Inside the house. Edmund ran to another safe.

"Cover me."

Carla agreed Edmund rolled across the floor making it to the large G.V. Carla put a table down. The G.V. & walked right into spray fire.

"I'll guard the house," Carla said, "They need you out there."

"Are you sure?" Edmund asked.

"Go!" Carla ordered.

Edmund ran out the back and ran to the street to meet the other C.O.P.'s, "What's the situation?"

Mark said, "We need some help."

"Cover me," Edmund ordered.

Mark nodded. Edmund ran and rolled in front of the frontline taking them out. He got in front of a tank throwing the log to Ranger. He reloaded his regular gun. The battle went on for hours.

Mark explained, "We've gotta wear their ammo out. Use your grenades."

make good throws."

These were not ordinary grenades. They were supercharged courtesy of Gerry.

Carla came running out to the C.O.P.'s front line, "The v.d.'s are wiped out."

An hour later Mark said, "I've got an idea. Come with me Edmund. Drop your weapon." Mark and Edmund came out unarmed.

The leader of the United Nations ordered, "Hold your fire."

Mark asked, "Why are you fighting us?"

"Why because you killed the President, his men, more Government people, and innocent people."

"How many we cleared are name yet?" Edmund asked. "We've got evidence to prove our innocence."

"You just have to work with us," Mark said.

"You guys are good," the leader said.

"We're the best," Carla said walking up. Soon after all of the C.O.P.'s walked up.

"Well?" Mark asked looking directly at the leader.

"Oh," the leader said, "you guys win."

At Vladimir's mansion a day later...

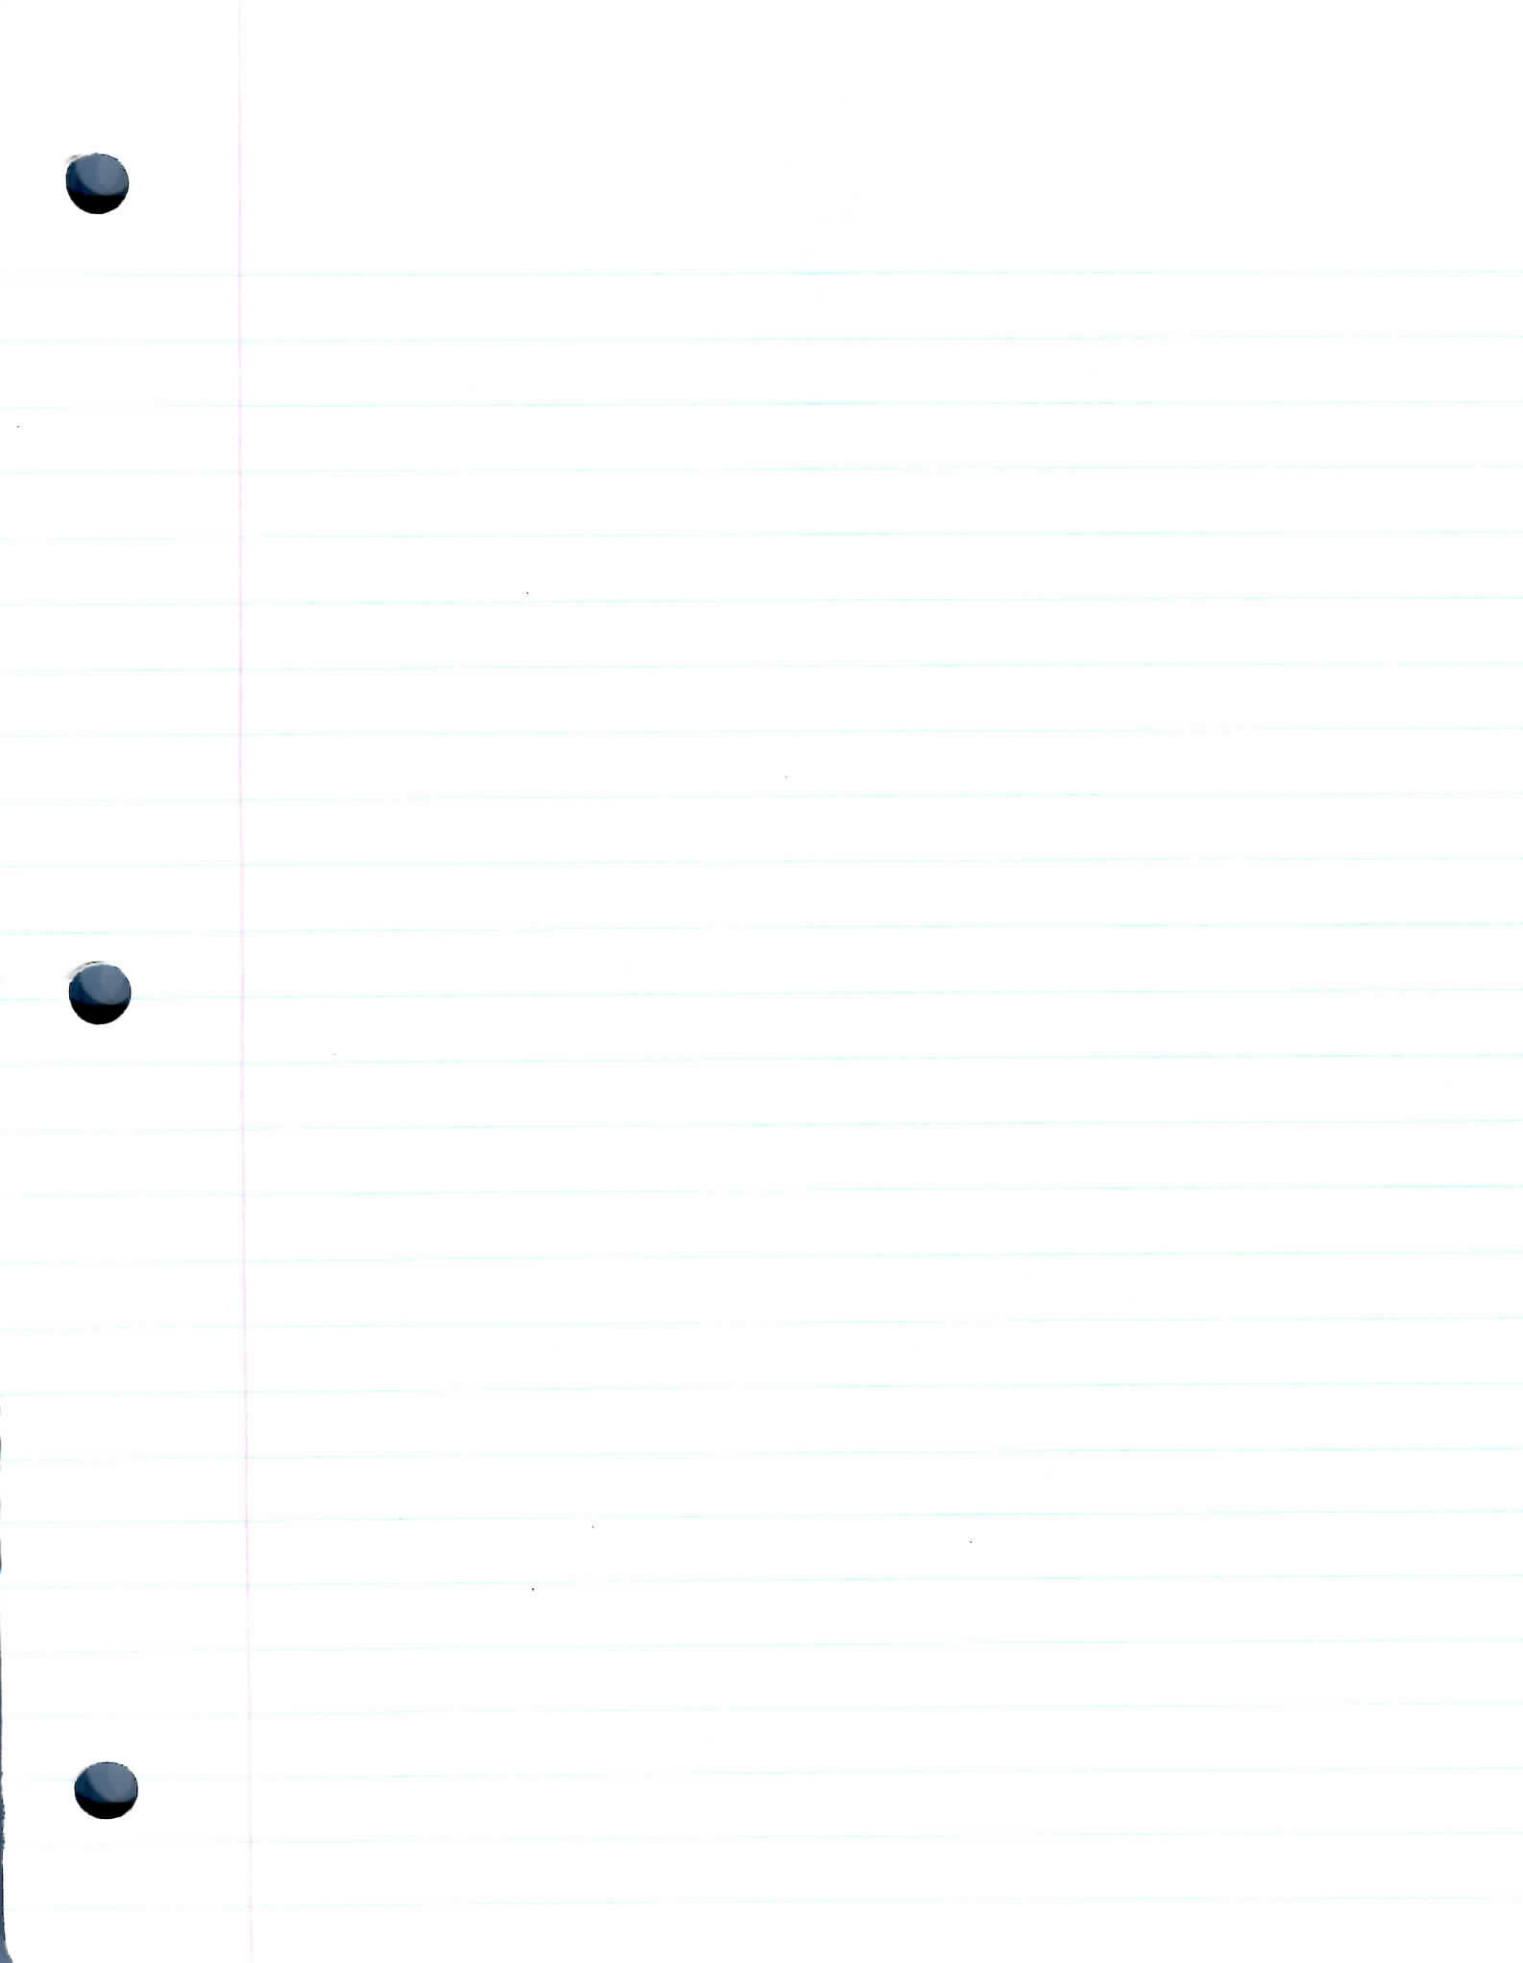

V. & I walked up, "The United Nations blew it sir. They're comin' after us now."

Edmund and Carla walked in smiling. "I got you Vladimir," Edmund said, "I outsmarted you."

"Who's coverin' you now?" Carla asked, "Not so cocky huh."

Edmund and Carla held each other smiling from ear to ear. The United Nations Elite Guard catted Vladimir and all of his associates away. Vladimir was outsmarted, bewildered, and uncovered. He could not believe his eyes. He was so close to ruling the United States but 1241

he was uncovered and outsmarted
by the C.O.P.'s.

Chapter 22: Settling Down

Later that day at Base 1...

The leader of the United Nations explained, "All of the nations voted unanimously to give you these medals of honor."

"That's it?!" Mason said.

"We risked our lives for medals," Jason continued.

"That is true," Ann continued.

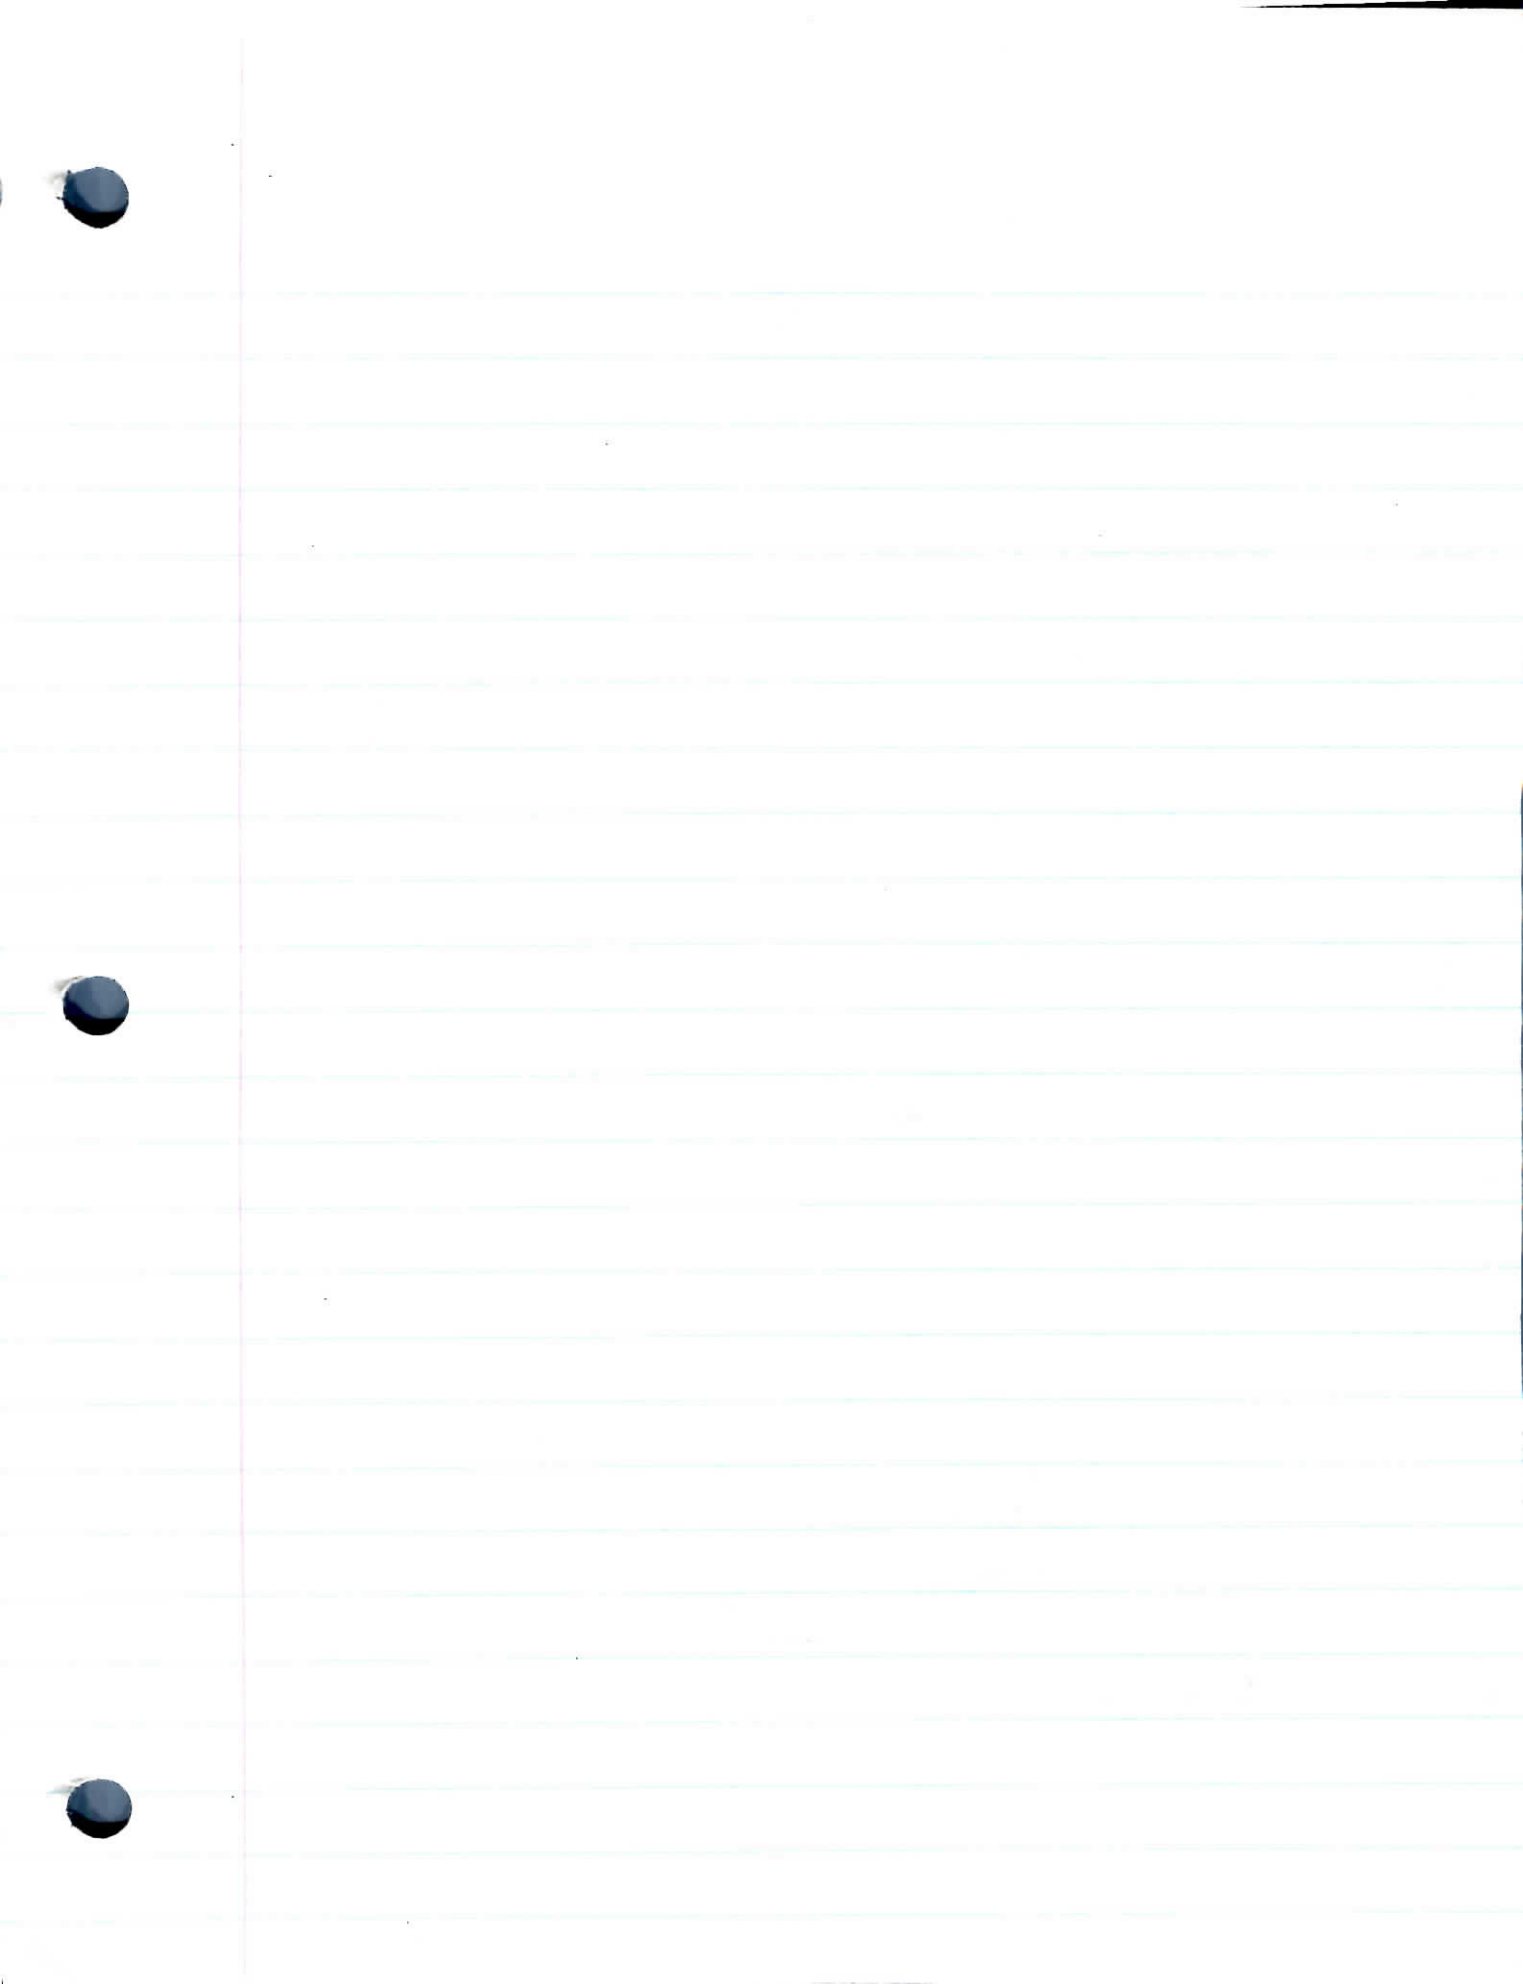

The leader continued, "All I can offer is these and our apologies. We can also offer a promise that it'll never happen again. Thank you to Mark Shilde - Captain, Edmund Sims - Commander, Euse Jerrico - Strategist, Ann

Ann Sells - computer technician, Carla Jane Lowry - 3rd in command and super agent spy, Ranger Smith - Battle
Specialist, Mason Smith and Jason Smith
- Mechanics and Soldiers, Jerry
Garrison - science officer, Yarry - spy, and Winnie the Pooh Bear and his Disney Doods - backup, heavy muscle.
Sharke guys."

"All" of the C.O.P.'s cheered loudly.
"I got somethin' to say," Mark said, "This is the best bunch of agents I've ever known and I'll see ya later."

The Smith brothers went off. Edmund and Carla went off. Ease and Ann went off. Pooh and the Disney Doods went off. Jerry and Mark went off. It was a happy day to remember. Everyone was happy. They all deserve to be happy after what they've been through.

Edmund exclaimed, "I love this job!"

Chapter 23: Special Thanks:

God, my family, my friends, some associates, Susan Drake Lipscomb, Margaret Ann, Guannich, Eric Killian, and all of the good people in the world and beyond.

More thanks to Burger King, Disney, Empire, Mead, metal companies, and all who helped put this project together.

Watch out for other Dope and Smie/K.P.C books and stuff.

This is Edmund's best and longest book. Read about the trials and tribulations of a small group of the C.I.A. called C.O.P.s

- Eric Tullian. It was awesome.

This is Edmund at his best. Not too hard, not too soft, it's just right.

This book goes up there with most of the best books.
