Chapter 56: The Sims's Cabin

Aboard the S.S.C. in the Sims's Cabin...

"That's enough television for tonight," Marileva said. "It's two in the morning and you're supposed to be in bed by one."

"Aw Mom," E.J. argued.

"Don't worry," Edmund stepped in, "my dad was the same way."

E.J. thought to himself as he walked out into his room, "they just wanna love each other again."

Marileva tapped into E.J.'s thought waves, "I heard that." Marileva went into the room and sucked E.J. in. Edmund went in the other room and checked on M.J.

Marileva came back into the room and 300 on the bed. Edmund came in and sat on the bed, "It's time to tell you how I feel."

"What do you mean?" Marilena asked.

"Have I ever told you how much I love you?" Edmund replied. "You've always been there for me."

"You've always been there for me," Marilena stepped in.

"I just can't get over how lucky we are," Edmund explained. "When Erica died, I was going to kill myself. It was the same day I proposed to her. What I want to know is, why, why did you help me then?"

"Edmund," Marilena explained, "I did it because someone should have done it. I couldn't let you go out like that. A few days after her death, I started to have feelings for you. I personally didn't want to be her replacement. I sense that you still have that trauma inside of you. You have to learn to accept the loss. Like your father used to say, what's done is done and you can't change it. You've got to live in the present." 333 not the past."

"I just feel I take you for granted," Edmund replied.

"I don't think so." Marileva explained, "If you took me for granted, would you have gotten me out of that crystal cage? Would you have rescued me from that space vampire? It seems you need a little sexual healing."

Edmund grabbed Marileva and hugged her. Next they kissed. Then Edmund laid Marileva down. He removed all of his clothes and then all of hers. Edmund and Marileva started fu--ing. They were rubbing each other up and down. Edmund was squeezing and grasping all parts of Marileva. She did the same. The two lovers were keeping it at a slow pace. Suddenly Marileva started touching all over Edmund as Edmund caressed her curly brunette hair. Suddenly, Edmund started licking all over his spouse. Marileva laid back and enjoyed it. They were feeling very sexual that night. Marileva then started licking all over Edmund's chest. Edmund too, sat back and enjoyed the ride. They sat up as Edmund grabbed Marileva's left leg. He began kissing all over it. Marileva started caressing her spouse's head. She then laid a whopper of a kiss on Edmund's lips.

Edmund, after that kiss, was completely relieved of his body. He was in some sort of charmed state. Marileva seemed to be in complete control. Edmund was relaxed. They both knew that it worked. Marileva hoped that this would help Edmund cope with all of his trauma.

"Thanks Marileva," Edmund said still under the influence.

"Sure, Edmund," Marileva said as she pulled up the covers. She used what the Dorodans called sexual influence.

Marileva stayed on top of Edmund, chest to chest, all huggled together as they both fell asleep. Marileva and Edmund truly were a promising <sup>25</sup> couple.

Chapter 57: The S. S. C. Send Off

In the Sims's cabin that following morning...

Marilva awoke as she heard the doorbell. She quickly got dressed and tried to get Edmund out of bed, "Come on Edmund."

"What did you say honey?" Edmund asked still under sexual influence.

"Shi-, I made it so strong," Marilva said leaving Edmund in the bed. "Who's at the door?"

"Me," the person said.

"Mr. Sims?" Marilva was excited as she opened the door.

"Please, call me Ceston," Ceston replied. "How did you know it was me? Where's my son? Who are you?"

"Oh sorry," Marikwa answered, "I'm Marikwa. Your son, my uh husband is in the bed."

"Oh Shi-", Cestron said happily, "he never told me he was married. Of course, I've been in the mental hospital the past few years. He's really hit the jackpot this time. Listen if he, ever, causes you trouble, let me know."

"Oh, he wouldn't do that," Marikwa said. "Oh, he's in that room."

Cestron walked into the bedroom, "Hi son."

"Hi, Shi-, I'm on the moon," Edmund said. "Oh hi Cestron."

"Uh, uh," Cestron disagreed, "you call me Dad."

"I'm sorry about his behavior," Marikwa apologized. "He's just under the influence. & - & mean, well it's a long story." Marikwa snapped her fingers and Edmund snapped out of the ~~322~~ sexual influence.

"Oh hi Dad," Edmund said.

"Don't pull that hi Dad shi-.
What the fu-- is going on? Where's Erica?"

"Erica's dead," Edmund answered. "The Corporation blew her away." Marileva was proud of Edmund.

"The name, Marileva, rings a bell,"
Cestron replied. "Are you Marileva Dibe?"

"Yes, I am," Marileva said. "How do you know?"

"You were that girl with that pink hair," Cestron answered.

"That was you?" Edmund asked.

"Yup," Marileva replied. "My hair then turned golden red. Then I became a bunnette."

"I used to talk to you when we were younger," Edmund remembered.

"So what's down with Mary D.?"
Cestron asked.

"On one of my past missions," Marileva explained, "aliens, called Dorodans captured me and altered my <sup>329</sup>" molecular structure turning me into one of them. Luckily, your son rescued me in time, before I fully became a Dorodan. Soon after the space force defeated the Dorodans we got married."

"Since she's part Dorodan she has Dorodan powers," Edmund said.

"Call me crazy," Cestron ordered, "but I think I believe you guys."

"Can I get you anything?" Marilva asked.

"Some coffee would be fine," Cestron said, "thank you."

Edmund got dressed and joined them as soon as he woke the beds.

"Hi Grandpa," E.J. said, "I'm E.J."

"I'm a grandfather," Cestron said astonished.

"Don't forget M.J., your baby granddaughter," Edmund held M.J. He let Cestron hold her. "So Dad, why were you sent to the mental hospital. I thought you pardoned from that stuff." 330

"They sure as fu-- didn't think so," Cestron replied.

"Would you like a tour of the new S.D.C.?" Marileva asked.

"Sure," Cestron answered.

"I'll get the bids ready and meet you wherever," Edmund said.

"See you then," Marileva said as she pecked Edmund on the cheek. Edmund looked dizzy and then fell into Marileva's arms. "I gotta stop doin' that."

When Edmund came too, Cestron and Marileva left.

On the main section...

Jerry walked up to D.J., "She's fixed."

"Excellent work Jerry," D.J. said pleased. D.J. walked over to the intercom. "We'll be taking off soon so whoever's leavin' better get off now."

Marileva and Cestron walked, "are you getting off Cestron?"

"Nah," Cestron replied, "I'd rather stay."

"Sure," Marilena agreed.

Captain Neff radioed, "All of our technicians are back on Perya. You're ready for take off."

"Let's do it," E.J. said to a panel man.

The panel man spoke, "Sir, a large unidentified object is approaching at high speeds."

"Shields up," E.J. ordered.

In the Sims's cabin...

"Dad," E.J. called.

"Yeah," Edmund replied.

"I sense something terribly wrong," E.J. explained. "It smells like some perfume."

"That's not your mom's sciter," Edmund said.

A cloudy glass floated in the air. Edmund knew what it was, "E.J., get M.J. and get outta here."

"There's no escape," Commander said as she materialized. Edmund grabbed his laser. Commander raised 332 her hand. The gun flew out of Edmund's hand into Commander's. She held Edmund at gun point. "You're coming with me." She placed her hand on Edmund's chest. There was a sound of something sizzling. Edmund fell helplessly to the floor unconscious.

"You -- those kids," Commander said while dragging Edmund out of the cabin. Guards ran up with guns ready. Commander simply raised her hand. Crimson circles formed on each of their shirts directly over their hearts. They fell out dead.

"Leave him alone!" Marileva exclaimed.

Commander smiled, "I can't wait to have his kids."

Marileva lunged for Commander but Cestron pulled her down as Commander fired Edmund's laser.

"Let me go!" Marileva ordered.

"No, you won't get past that laser, -- without this," Cestron said holding a laser. "Come on."

They ran after Commander but found know one. Marileva said, "She probably de-materialized."

"You're right," Commander materialized behind Ceston. She hit him over the head knocking him unconscious. Commander grabbed Edmund and took him to a fighter. "You know the routine Marileva. I will kill him if you approach."

"Da-m you Commander," Marileva said. "Why don't you leave us alone?"

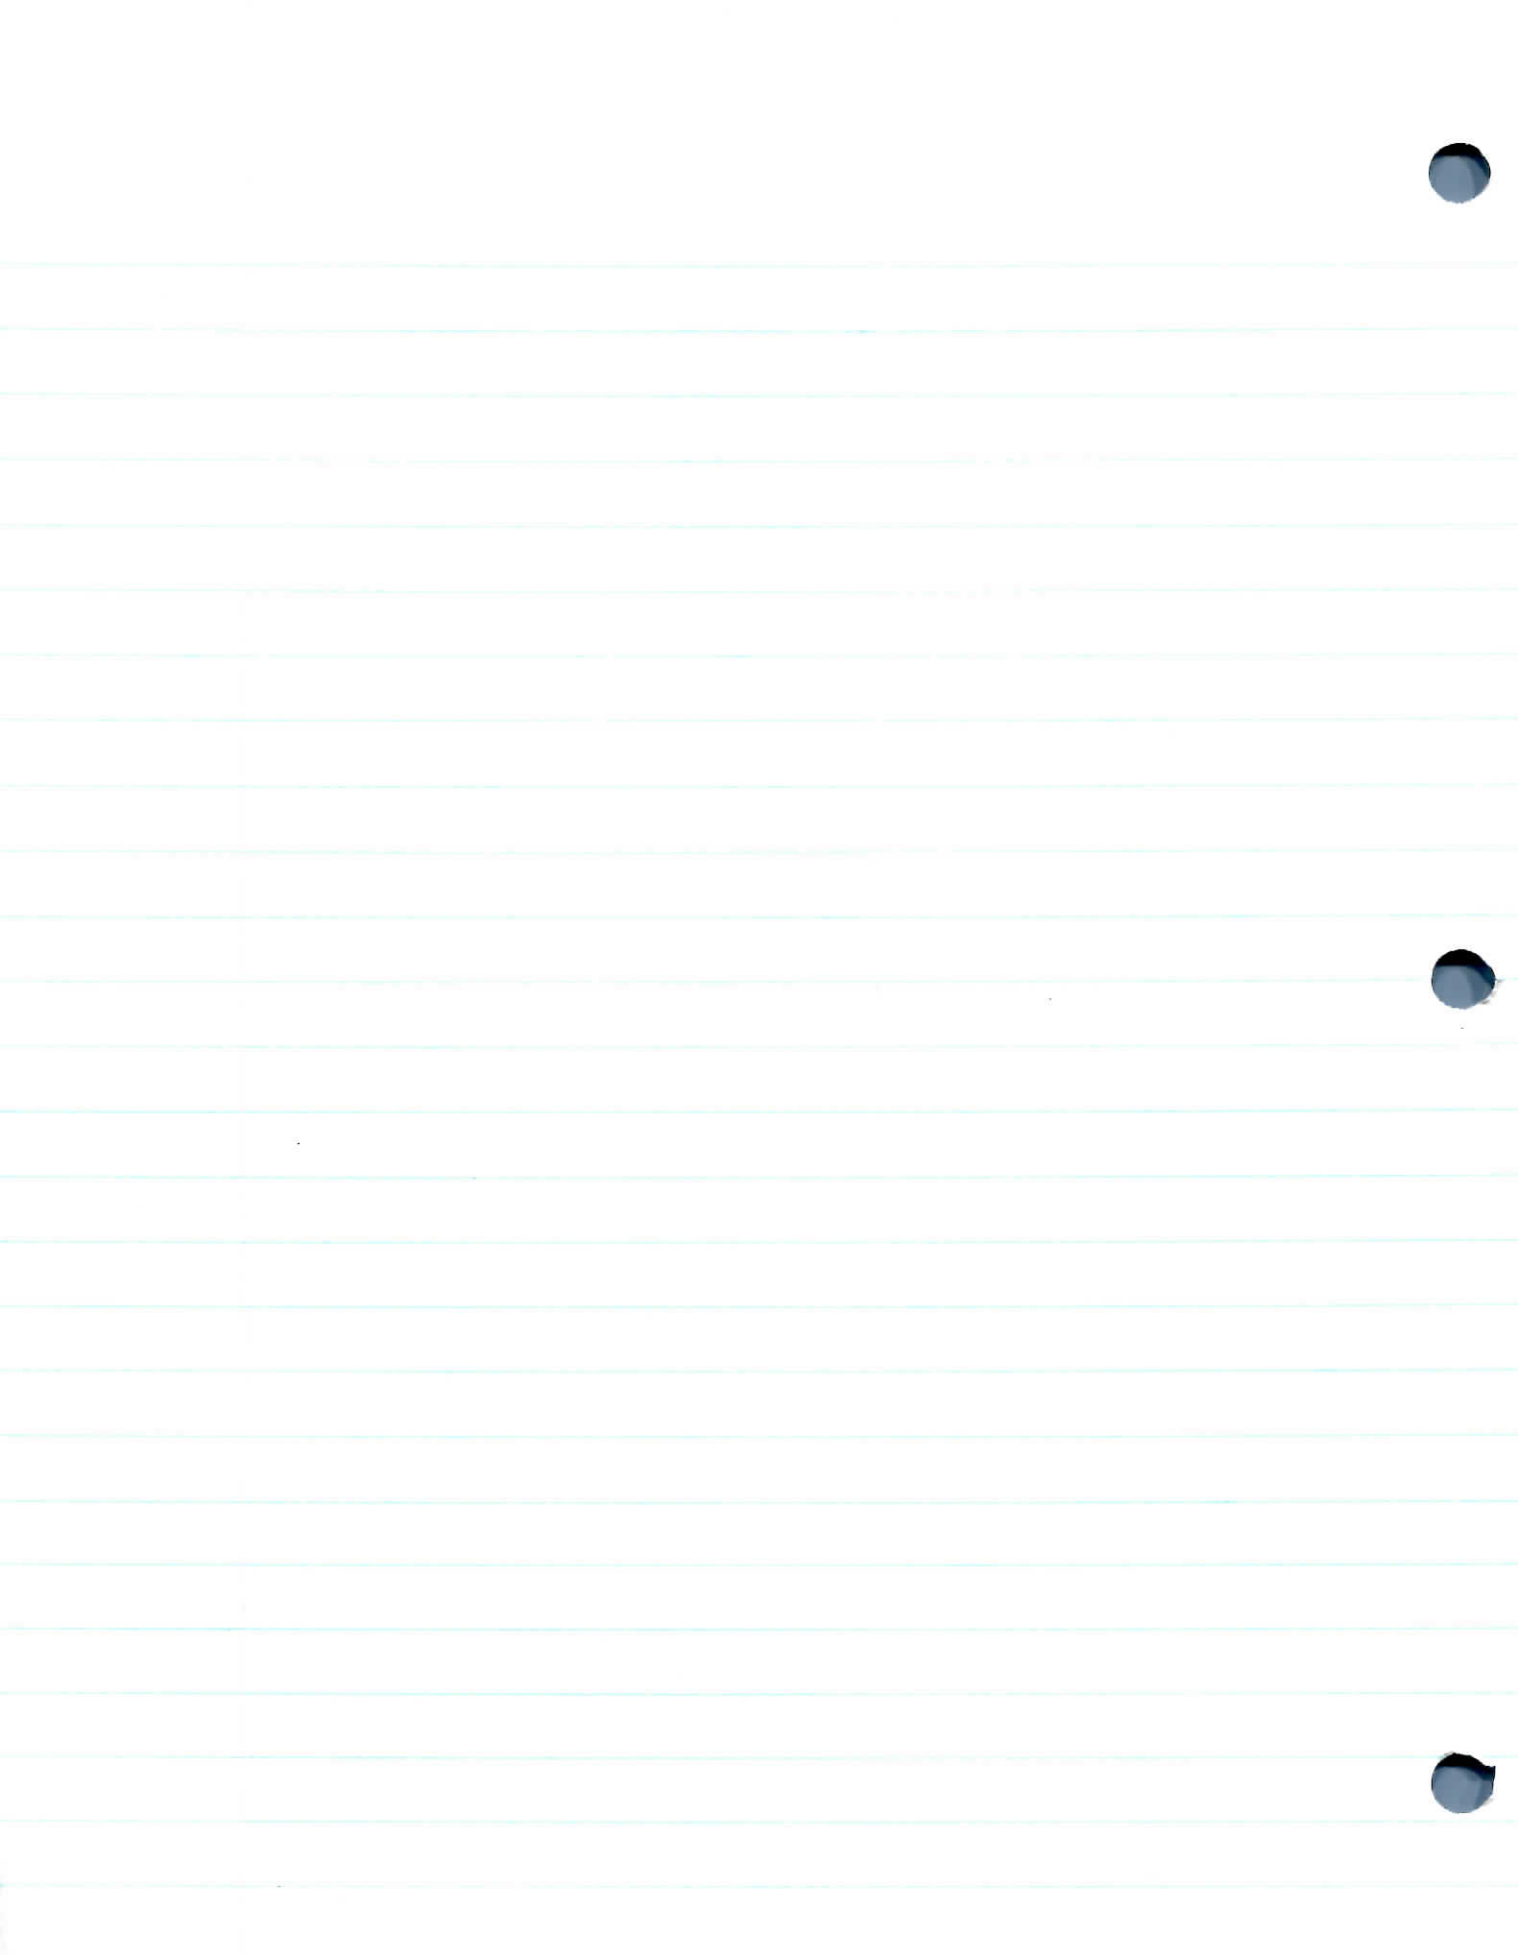

"I want Edmund," she said as she took off.

Marileva fell to her knees, "I've gotta get my man back. I just have too. I love you Edmund."

On the fighter...

"We're gonna have some good times together," Commander told the unconscious Edmund. "The fighter boarded the Doradan mothership. The mothership flew off toward the quasar and then it went through.

Chapter 58: Commander's Bad Side Manner.

In the Main Building of the Crystal Planet...

"When can I see him?" Commander asked Haven.

"When we are finished with the tests," Haven answered.

"What tests?"

"We're going to make him tell us everything. Then we'll mind probe him and re-program him. After that, he's yours."

"Why can't I have him for a little while, now?" Commander asked.

"Oh, alright," Haven said. "He's in the freezer."

"Thank you Haven."

Commander removed Edmund from one of the freezer tubes, "How do you feel?"

"C-cold," Edmund's teeth chattered.

"Follow me," Commander held Edmund's hand and led him to her quarters, "This is my room."

"Cool," Edmund said sarcastically.

Commander put Edmund on the bed, "I'll make you want me." She gave Edmund a whopper of a kiss on the lips. He was placed in the sexual influence. "Now do you love me."

"No, not really," Edmund said drunkenly. "I'm happily married."

"Forget that bit - ! of yours!!!" Commander exclaimed.

"Fu - you too," Edmund replied, "at least Marileva knows how to pick up a man the right way."

"Shi -," Commander said, "you're smart Marileva, real smart. You programmed him for such an occasion. He should be reprogrammed." 337

Commander took Edmund to Haven,"
We meet again Edmund."

"We sure do Baldy," Edmund
said.

"Ha," Haven continued, "you'll be kissin' my ass when we're done with you." Two guards came and strapped Edmund to a chair.

Commander brought two needles to Haven. Haven took the first needle and injected it into one of Edmund's veins. Haven was withdrawing blood. After he withdrew the blood, he put his hand on the spot and it automatically healed.

"Nice job. What's the other one for?" Edmund asked.

"That depends," Commander said.

"On what?" Edmund replied.

"If you're going to tell the truth or not," Haven explained.

"I guess you're going to have to make me then," Edmund said.

"With pleasure," Commander replied.

"You will soon lose your cockiness," Haven said.

Commander injected the needle below Edmund's penis. Edmund was in pain for a while and then he was nullified. Edmund had to helplessly answer the questions.

Haven and Commander asked an hour worth of questions and Edmund answered them clearly and completely. After the truth serum wore off, Commander and Haven placed a clear glasslike bell over Edmund's head.

"You're going to be reprogrammed," Commander said, "you will serve the Dorodan cause."

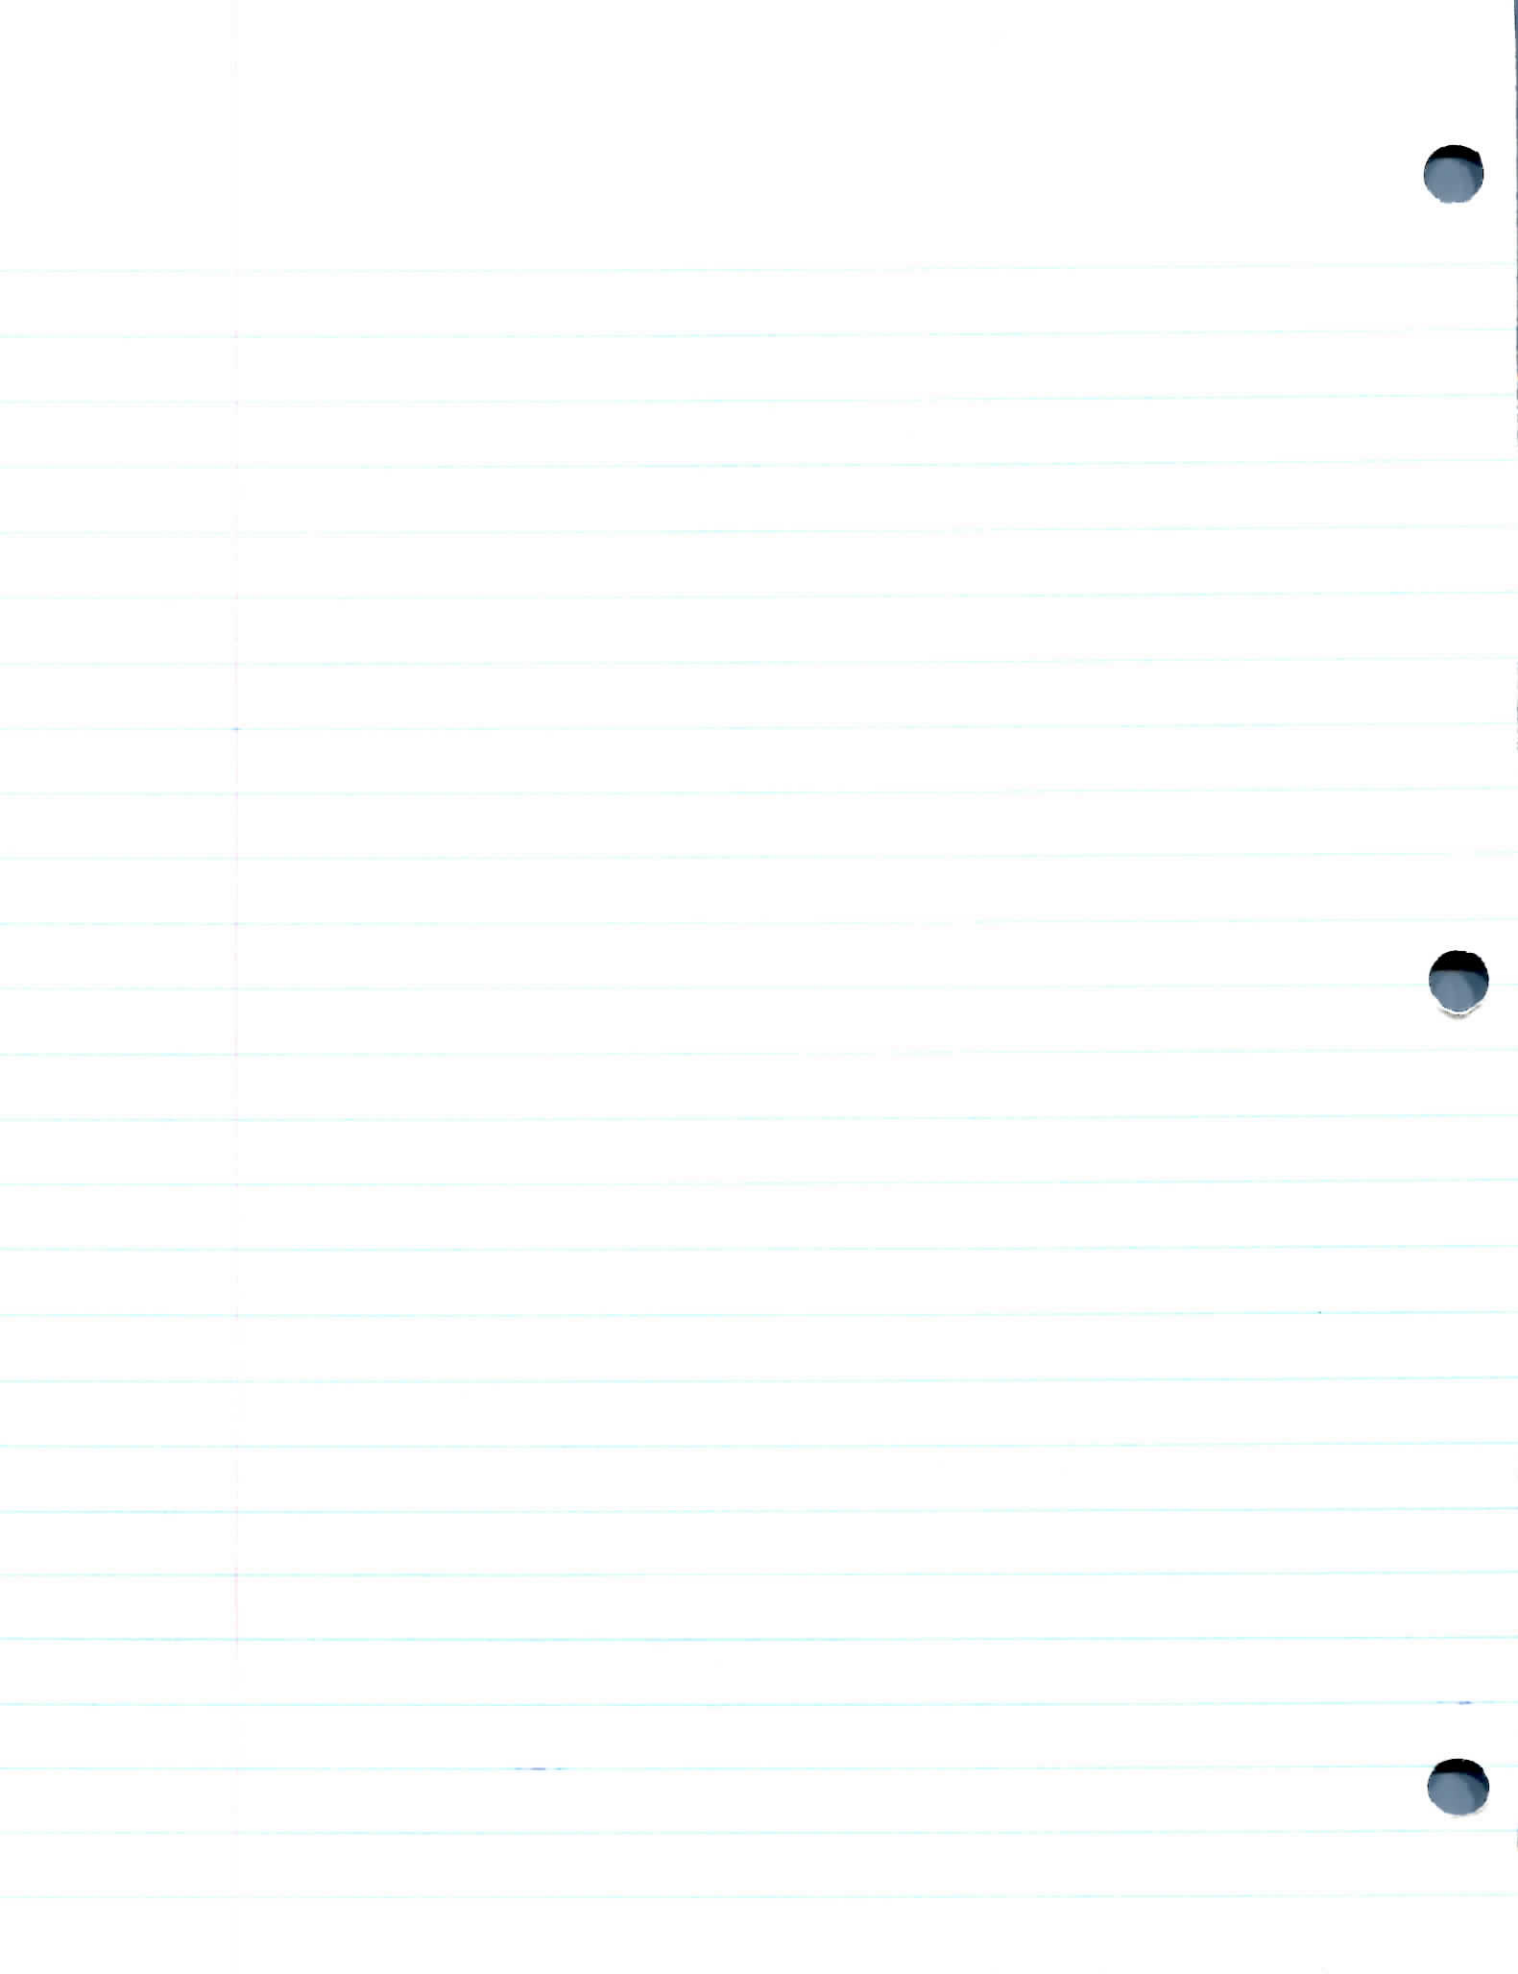

Suddenly lights and sounds filled the glass helmet. Edmund tried to fight it but it was too strong. His memory was completely blanked. Years of his life was gone forever. He was now being re-programmed.

"He used to be married," Commander 3391 said to Haven, "consider it an annulment maritima."

The apparatus was removed and Edmund was unstrapped, "Commander, my wife. What happened?"

"Oh nothing," Commander answered,
nothing at all.

Chapter 59: The Rescue Mission

In D.J.'s office...

Manleva, Willy G., G. Garrison, E.J., M.D., K.A.G., and D.J. were disraught.

"You've been there," Gerry asked, "what could happen."

"They could reprogram him, or turn him into a Doodan, or kill him, or freeze him, or almost anything. We've got to get to him," Manleva explained.

"That could be a good strategy," Kat replied, "we could park the space station next to the quasar and then fly a force in."

Cestron walked in, "I'm gone! He's my son."

"I'm going," Marilwa said.

"Whoever's going through that quasar has to be crazy," D.J. said.

"By those odds," Gerry explained, "he's probably gone already."

"You can't lose hope with Edmund," Willy said, "he's got more lives than a fu-- in' cat."

"I know Commander," Marilwa said, "she wants Edmund to marry her."

"No slut marries my son," Astron replied.

"Count me in," Willy said, "he's helped us many times."

On the Crystal Planet...

"How's the cloning process?" Haven asked Commander.

"We simply place a sample in the crystal cage and it forms an exact in every way replica. The clone serves the Dorodans though. I used Edmund's blood as a test. It was successful."

"But where is he?" Haven asked. 342

"I destroyed it," Commander answered, "I want the real Edmund."

Haven let out a puff. Commander walked out, "I'm going to see my husband to be."

In Commander's room...

"Hello Edmund," Commander said, "I love you."

"Awwwwe!" Edmund grasped his head.

"No, no!" Commander exclaimed, "Marilena has a few precautions to keep you as you are, she is smart."

"Why don't you just let me go?" Edmund asked, "Marilena is the only one who messes with my mind."

"Why don't you just stay and love me Edmund?"

"I don't love you Commander. I'm married, happily, with two kids. I don't like what you stand for. I don't like what you do and how you do it."

Years come to Commander's eyes, "Am I 345"

not beautiful?"

"You are," Edmund answered, "but you have a bit of attitude."

"Just fu-- me once," Commander ordered.

"Why do you want me?" Edmund asked.

"I love you da-- it!" Commander exclaimed. She got on top of Edmund in bed.

"I don't love you," Edmund said. Edmund grabbed Commander and held her laser to her neck. "I'm getting out of here. It hasn't been fun." Edmund exited.

"Oh Edmund," Commander called, "I may not have you but I will have my revenge."

"Oh fu-- you," Edmund called back, "I'm tired of your bullshi--."

"Come back here!" Commander ran after Edmund. Edmund turned and shot Commander with a stun beam. Commander was instantly unconscious.

Edmund knelt down by her side, 3411

What a fu-- in' waste of woman."

Edmund removed Commander's gunbelt and holster. He put his laser in the holster and ran off down the corridor.

A minute later Commander sat up, "I'll get you Edmund. Good thing I still have a blood sample."

On the S.S.C....

S.J. announced, "We are directly in front of the quasar. Deploy our mini-fleet."

Manilva boarded her ship, "E.J. stay here with M.J. on this mission. No mini ship has ever gone through. See you later."

"By Mother, by Grandpa," E.J. said.

"By E.J.," Astron said. "I flew one of these ships, years ago. It's still the same classis."

"Let's do it," Willy said.

"For you Edmund," Manilva said to herself.

On the Crystal Planet...

"Maileva?" Edmund heard his wife's thoughts. Suddenly guards came down the corridor. Edmund easily took them out.

Suddenly Haven materialized in back of Edmund, "I grow tired of you."

Edmund dropped on his back and fired at Haven. Haven immediately crystallized. Edmund got up and ran.

Over the intercom, "Sir Edmund clone has met the mini Space Force fleet, Haven sir."

"What?" Edmund asked.

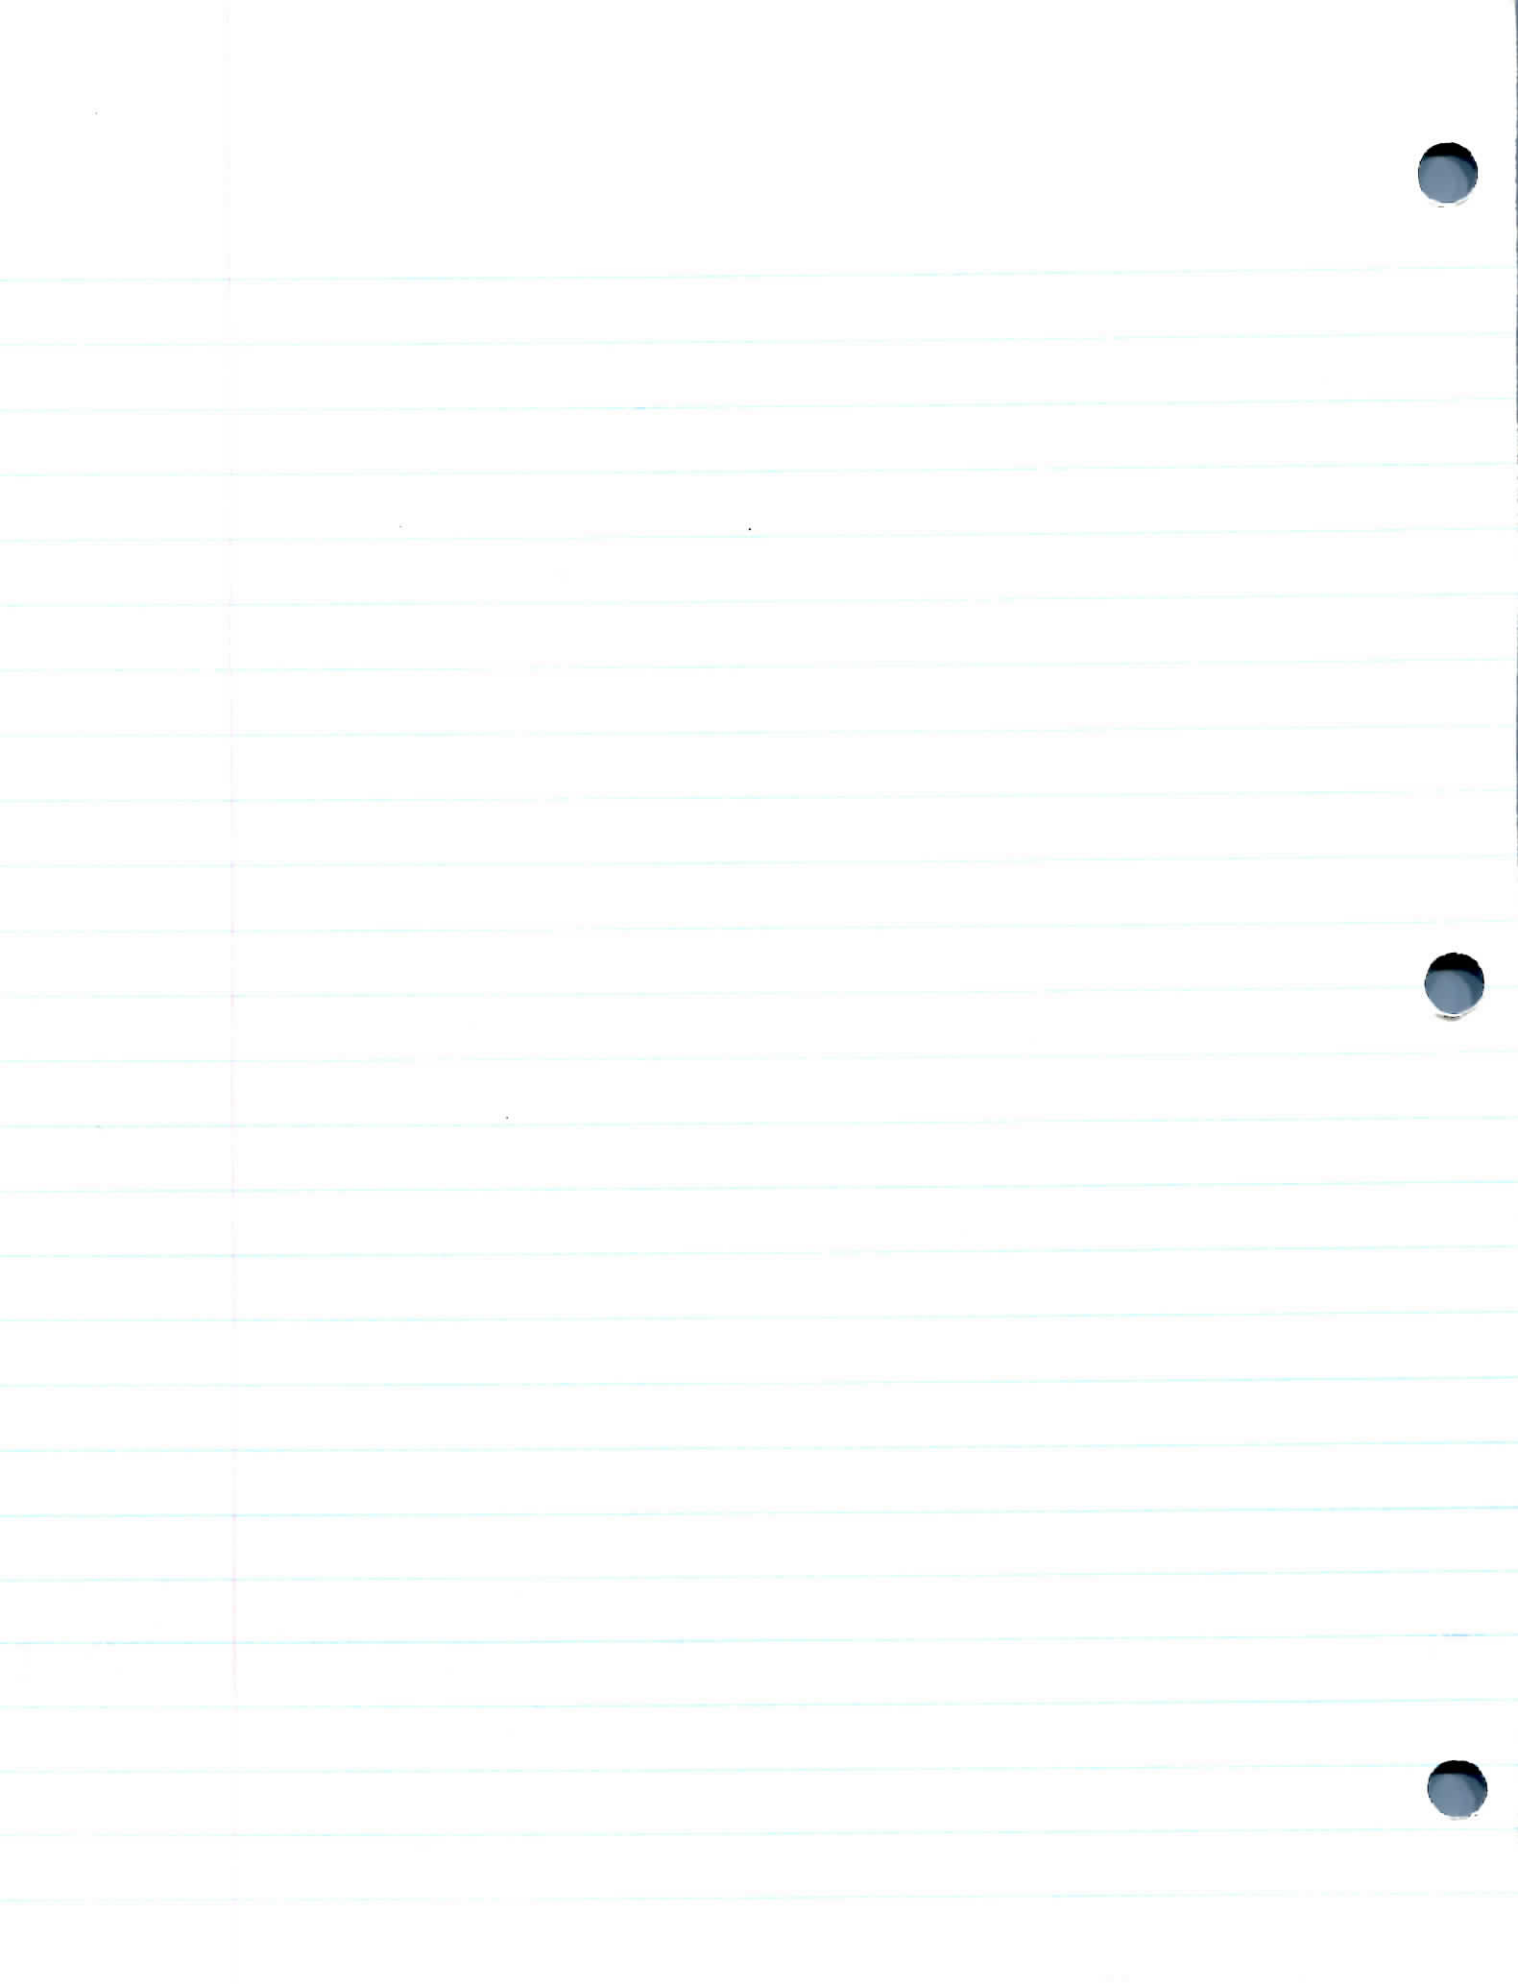

"You see Edmund," Haven explained, "we sent you Dodam clone to meet them."

"They'll no it's not me," Edmund stood up.

"But it is you," Haven said, "Exactly."

Edmund knew he was trapped on the Crystal Planet.

Chapter 60: Edmund Versus Marikva

In front of the quasar...

"Let's get out of here," Edmund said.

"How did you escape?" Marikva asked.

"It was hard, real hard," Edmund said.

"Edmund," Cestron called. "are you alright."

"Of course," Edmund replied.

Marikva thought to Willy and Cestron, "That's not Edmund. I sense a different brain wave pattern. It's not of his. This is some Dowdram."

Willy thought back, "When we get on the ship, we'll interrogate him."

"Well let's get back to the ship," Cestron said.

Edmund got out of his ship to be met by his son, "Hello Edmund Junior."

"What?" E.J. asked.

"That's your name isn't it?"

"So Ed," Cestron walked up.

"Yes," Edmund replied.

"Arrest him!" Marileva ordered.

"Yeah," Willy stepped in, "the real Edmund hates the name Ed."

Edmund grabbed his laser and fired at Willy. Willy ducked and grabbed his laser. Cestron jumped Edmund from behind. Edmund elbowed Cestron and threw him off.

"Take this mother fu--er!"

Edmund aimed his gun. Marileva jumped back Edmund. Edmund lost his gun. He went for it but Cestron shot the weapon and destroyed. "I'll bill you bitc-!"

Edmund went for Marileva and threw her to the ground. She pulled Edmund down. They both got up. Edmund punched at Marileva but she dodged it.

"Gu-- this human fighting shi," Edmund raised his hand. Lasers shot out at Marileva. Marileva raised her laser watch and deflected the beams. Edmund ran and jumped on Marileva. Marileva kicked him off. Marileva got some good punches in Edmund's abdomen. Edmund ran and grabbed Marileva. He started to put her in a full-nelson. Marileva tripped Edmund and then put her right hand on Edmund's chest.

"You're not gonna get me with that," Edmund said as he grabbed Marileva and threw her to the ground. Edmund got on top of Marileva, "I wanna see your chest." Edmund pulled out a needle gun. Marileva grabbed his hands. Edmund was stronger than Marileva but she got a good punch in. Edmund flew off.

Marileva ripped Edmund's shirt and 349 injected the needle, "What does this do."

Edmund was nullified, "It's a truth serum."

"What are your orders?" Willy asked Edmund.

"I was to be defeated by Marilva and to give a message."

"What's the message?" Marilva asked.

"Commander said she will marry Edmund by the end of today."

"But he's already married," Ceston said.

"No he's not. When Commander was in charge of the S. I. C. she played with Scott Gipsword. They made a law that you cannot marry an alien-being."

"I married Edmund a few days after I was turned into a Dorodan. Scott was on the legislative branch."

"I think he made that to keep the Dorodans from reproducing," Willy said.

"I'm still Marilva Dibe," Marilva said plunging the needle into Edmund's 350 penis.

"Cestron," Marileva called. "Give me your laser." Cestron handed it to her. She blew Edmund's head clear off.

"I've been living with the man I love," Marileva said, for fu--in' three years. Commander has planned all this shi- out. Husband or not, I won't let you take my man. She's trying to ruin my life. She's using Edmund to do it." Cestron walked over and held Marileva.

"Don't worry," Willy said, "I have a plan to make it work."

Chapter 61: Back to the Crystal Planet

Back with Haven and Edmund...

"Do you see Edmund," Haven explained, "there is no escape."

Guards armed and ready filled the room. Edmund dropped his laser. One guard came and cuffed him, "Where do you want him, sir?"

"Take him to Commander," Haven ordered. "Stand guard. If he escapes again, put him in the freezer." The guards carried off Edmund.

At Commander's room...

The doorbell sounded. Commander raised her hand and the door automatically opened. The guard pushed Edmund over to the bed. Commander placed her hand on Edmund's shackles. They fell off.

"Who's bidding who?" Commander asked. "Cut the bullshit - Edmund. You have feelings for me. You could've killed me a few minutes ago. Why didn't you?"

"It's not my style," Edmund answered. "I can't marry you. I don't want to marry you. How hard is it to penetrate tight as - of yours. I have no feelings for you. I'm married and I devote my life to Marikva only."

"Who?" Commander asked. "Fu--, you're not even married."

"Shut the fu-- up sick-," Edmund ordered.

"You've been living with Marikva for three years and you're not even married," Commander replied. "That, makes me eligible."

"How am I supposed to believe that shi-?" Edmund asked as Commander handed him a law book. Edmund read the passage. " 353

So what makes you think you can have me? Forget it. It's probably a law."

"You're correct. A Dowdan of my stature can have any man she pleases."

"Commander, why are you doing this?"

"I just want to be your wife."

"You dumb bitch-. Do you know what you're doing to my wife? She's worried sick. Does she know we're not married? What about that clone thing?"

"I sent the clone to tell her," Commander said.

"This is unreal. This is so fu--in' unreal. Am I gonna be able to go home?" Edmund asked

"No. You're mine now Edmund," Commander replied. "I always get what I want." Commander told Edmund.

"I'm not layin' on that bed," Edmund said. Commander forced him down and she got on top of him.

"I'm gonna fu--you well Edmund," Commander said as she put him under the sexual influence.

"But I don't want to fu--," Edmund said under the influence.

"The way I see it," Commander explained, "will get married tomorrow."

"I don't wanna, he he," Edmund said drunkenly.

"But--," Commander was cut off.

"He said he didn't want to," Marikva said as she stepped in.

"How did you get here?"

Commander. "Don't even try for Edmund, Marikva, he's mine now."

"Oh is he?" Cestron walked in. "I'm the only one that owns him, bitc--."

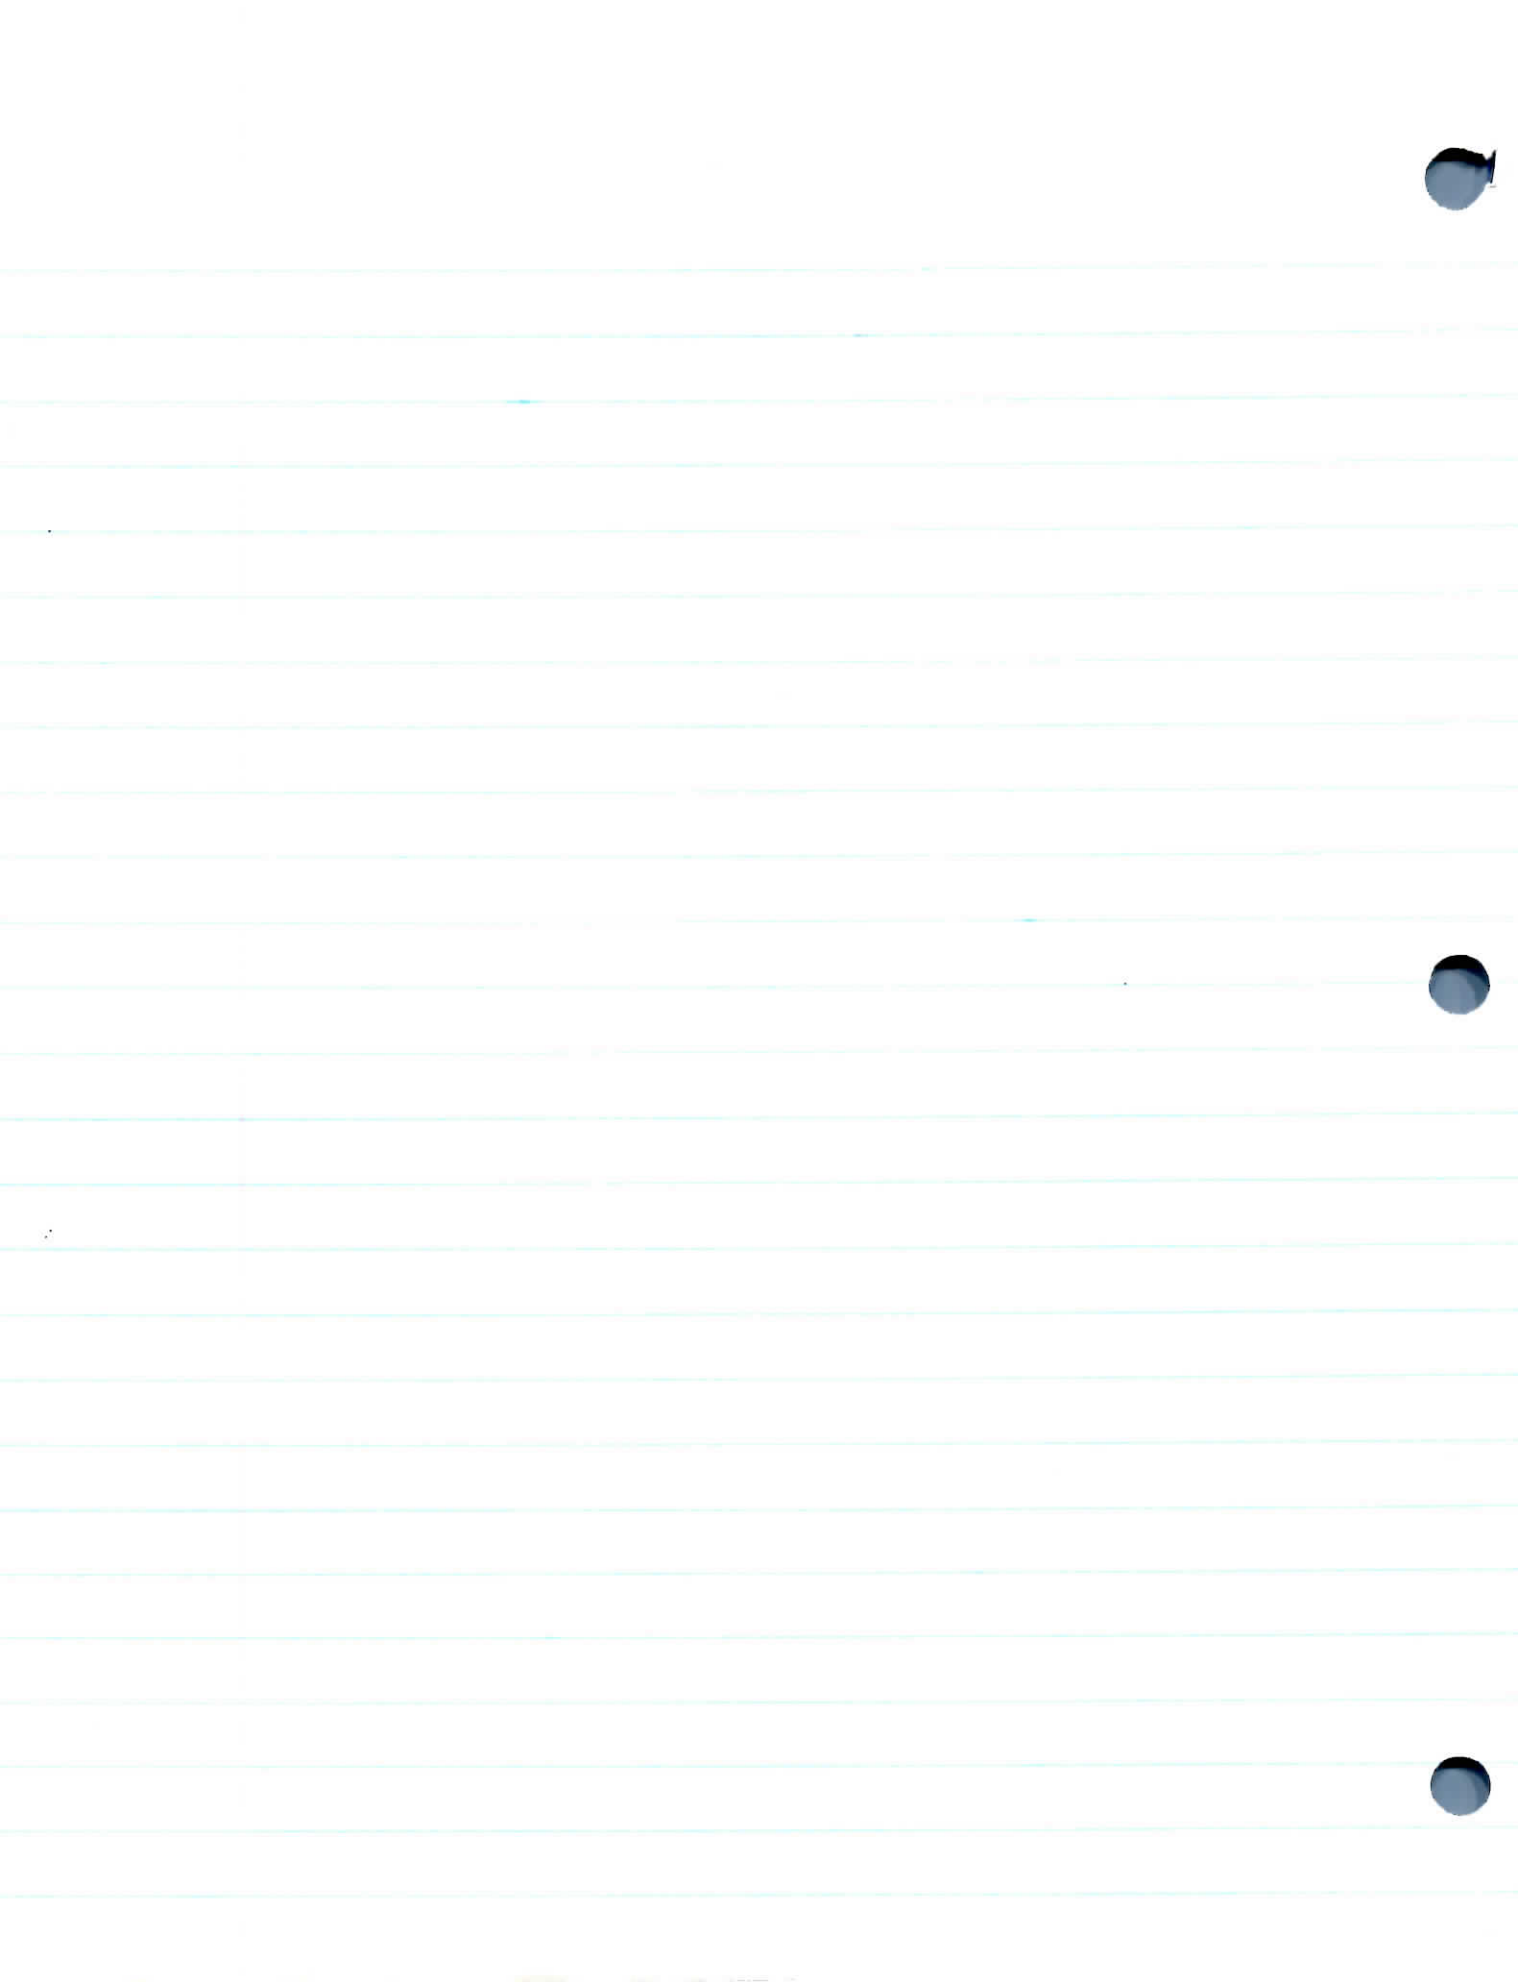

Willy ran in, "Kat and E.J. have them pinned down. The S.D.C. is taking out the surface troops."

"Aye-- you flew the space station through, - wow he-he," Edmund said.

"You put my boyfriend in sexual influence," Marikva stunned Commander.

"Why didn't you tell that fu-- in' bitc--?" Cestron asked.

"It's not my style," Manileva
said.

Chapter 52: Liberation of the Greeyes.

In Haven's office...

"I want them stopped, da--it!"
Haven exclaimed. "Send them and shoot their fu--in' as--es!"

"Yes sir," a guard said while running out.

In Commander's room...

"Oh Edmund," Marileva said. "What the fu-- did they do to you?"

Marileva snapped her fingers and Edmund snapped out of the sexual influence.

"Marileva," Edmund hugged his girlfriend.

Edmund was weak so Willy and Ceston helped him, "Marileva, I thought I'd never see you again."

"What happened?" Willy asked.

"They made me tell them everything," Edmund answered. "D.J. has to change all of the space force codes. They tried to reprogram me but Marileva made me reprogram proof."

"I can take him from here," Marileva said holding up Edmund. She handed him a laser.

The four met up with Kat and E.J.

"Can we bust through now?" Kat asked. Kat got his bayonets.

"Wait," Edmund said, "while the D.S.C. is here we can free the freezer."

"You know where it is?" Willy asked.

"Yeah, follow me," Edmund said.

"Woah. How do we know that you're straight Ed?"

"Dad, why the fu-- did you call me (358)"

Ed for. You know I hate it."

"That's my dad," E.J. said. When he said that Marileva and Edmund looked at each other. They nodded.

Kat shot the wall open, "Willy, E.J., let's get backup." Guards came running down the dead end corridor. Willy pulled a grenade off of Kat's belt. He blasted the wall open on the side giving them a barricade. Kat and Willy used their lasers taking out the guards. E.J. used his grenades all up. The Jordanian guards went flying. The three got to the ships.

At the freezer...

"Here it is," Edmund said.

"No shi-," Cestron replied. "This thing goes on for for-- in miles."

"Where's the power switch," Marileva asked.

"On the wall over there," Edmund pointed. Marileva shaved everyone out at once. Ten guards came in with with guns posed." & fire with these la-m guards." Marilva raised her hand. The guards all looked down to find a crimson circle over their heads.

"There are probably more guards,"
Cestron said, "I'll scout ahead."

Edmund nodded. Marilva and Edmund waited for two minutes. They then led the thawed out humans to safety. They met up with Cestron to find dead Dorodans all over the corridor.

"How the fu - - did you do that?"

"They don't make enemies the way they used to," Cestron said.

"Your father is great," Marilva told Edmund. All of the people got to the surface. At S.I.C. compartment was on the surface the people all loaded in.

Cestron got in his fighter. Edmund sat in Marilva's, "Come on up."

"Sure," she said as she sat on Edmund's lap. Edmund held Marilva as if they had been apart for years. 360

Everybody boarded the S.B.C. as it took off at highspeeds through the quasar.

"Let them go," Raven said, "I have a feeling they'll be back." Raven held Commander.

"I promise you Edmund," Commander replied, "you pay for this. You to Maribeva.

Chapter 63: The Return of Erica Smith

Later that night in the Sims's cabin...

Edmund and Marileva sat on the bed. Marileva was upset, "Who the fu-- can we stay together now? We can never marry and you know our jobs are gonna separate us."

"Don't worry Marileva," Edmund said, "nothing, can keep us apart."

Edmund kissed Marileva and lowered her back on the bed. The doorbell rang.

"Who the fu-- can be at this hour?" Marileva asked.

"I'll get it," Edmund agreed, "get things ready. Edmund opened the door. What he saw took his breath for two minutes.

"E-Erica Smith," Edmund said stunned.

"Hello Edmund," Erica replied, "long time no see."

"It's not possible," Edmund debated, "I saw you cut clear in half by an upi. You died right in front of my eyes."

"I set the t-," Marileva said as she walked in.

Everybody knew the Erica Smith story. Edmund proposed to her on the same day she was murdered. Erica was Edmund's first. Edmund was now torn between the girl he promised he would marry and the girl he has lived with and had kids by. Edmund and Erica were the closest. Edmund is torn between the one he has to marry and the one he can't marry.

Marileva knows it's over. She knows Commander won, "Hello Miss Smith."

"Hello Miss Dike," Erica really wanted to know why Marileva was with her fiancée.

"Marileva," Edmund said, "please excuse 363" us."

"Sure Edmund," Marileva went to the room. She started crying. The only person she ever loved was gone for good. She hoped for the best but knew it was hopeless.

Erica and Edmund walked out, "Erica I,"

"you what Edmund?" Erica asked.

"I can't go back to you."

"Why not Edmund?"

"I have two kids."

"You're married?"

"No m-", Edmund was cut off.

"You're not married?"

"No, it's not what you think Erica."

"Then what is it?" Erica asked, "Never mind, I don't want to know. On the day the Dorodans captured me you proposed to me. I never had a chance to say anything. But now I do. I accept."

"No, it's not that simple," Edmund said. "I have an obligation." 364

"Go who Edmund, her or me?"

"Go both of you. Fu--. Alright, give me time to think," Edmund left. Erica grinned as she left.

Edmund walked out into the long corridor thinking, "Why is this happening to me? I've been good, real good. I saw her gunned down. What if this is a Dorodan trick. I know Commander told me I can't remember. What should I do? I can't go back to either one until I know what to do."

Edmund slept in Cestron's quarters that night.

That following morning...

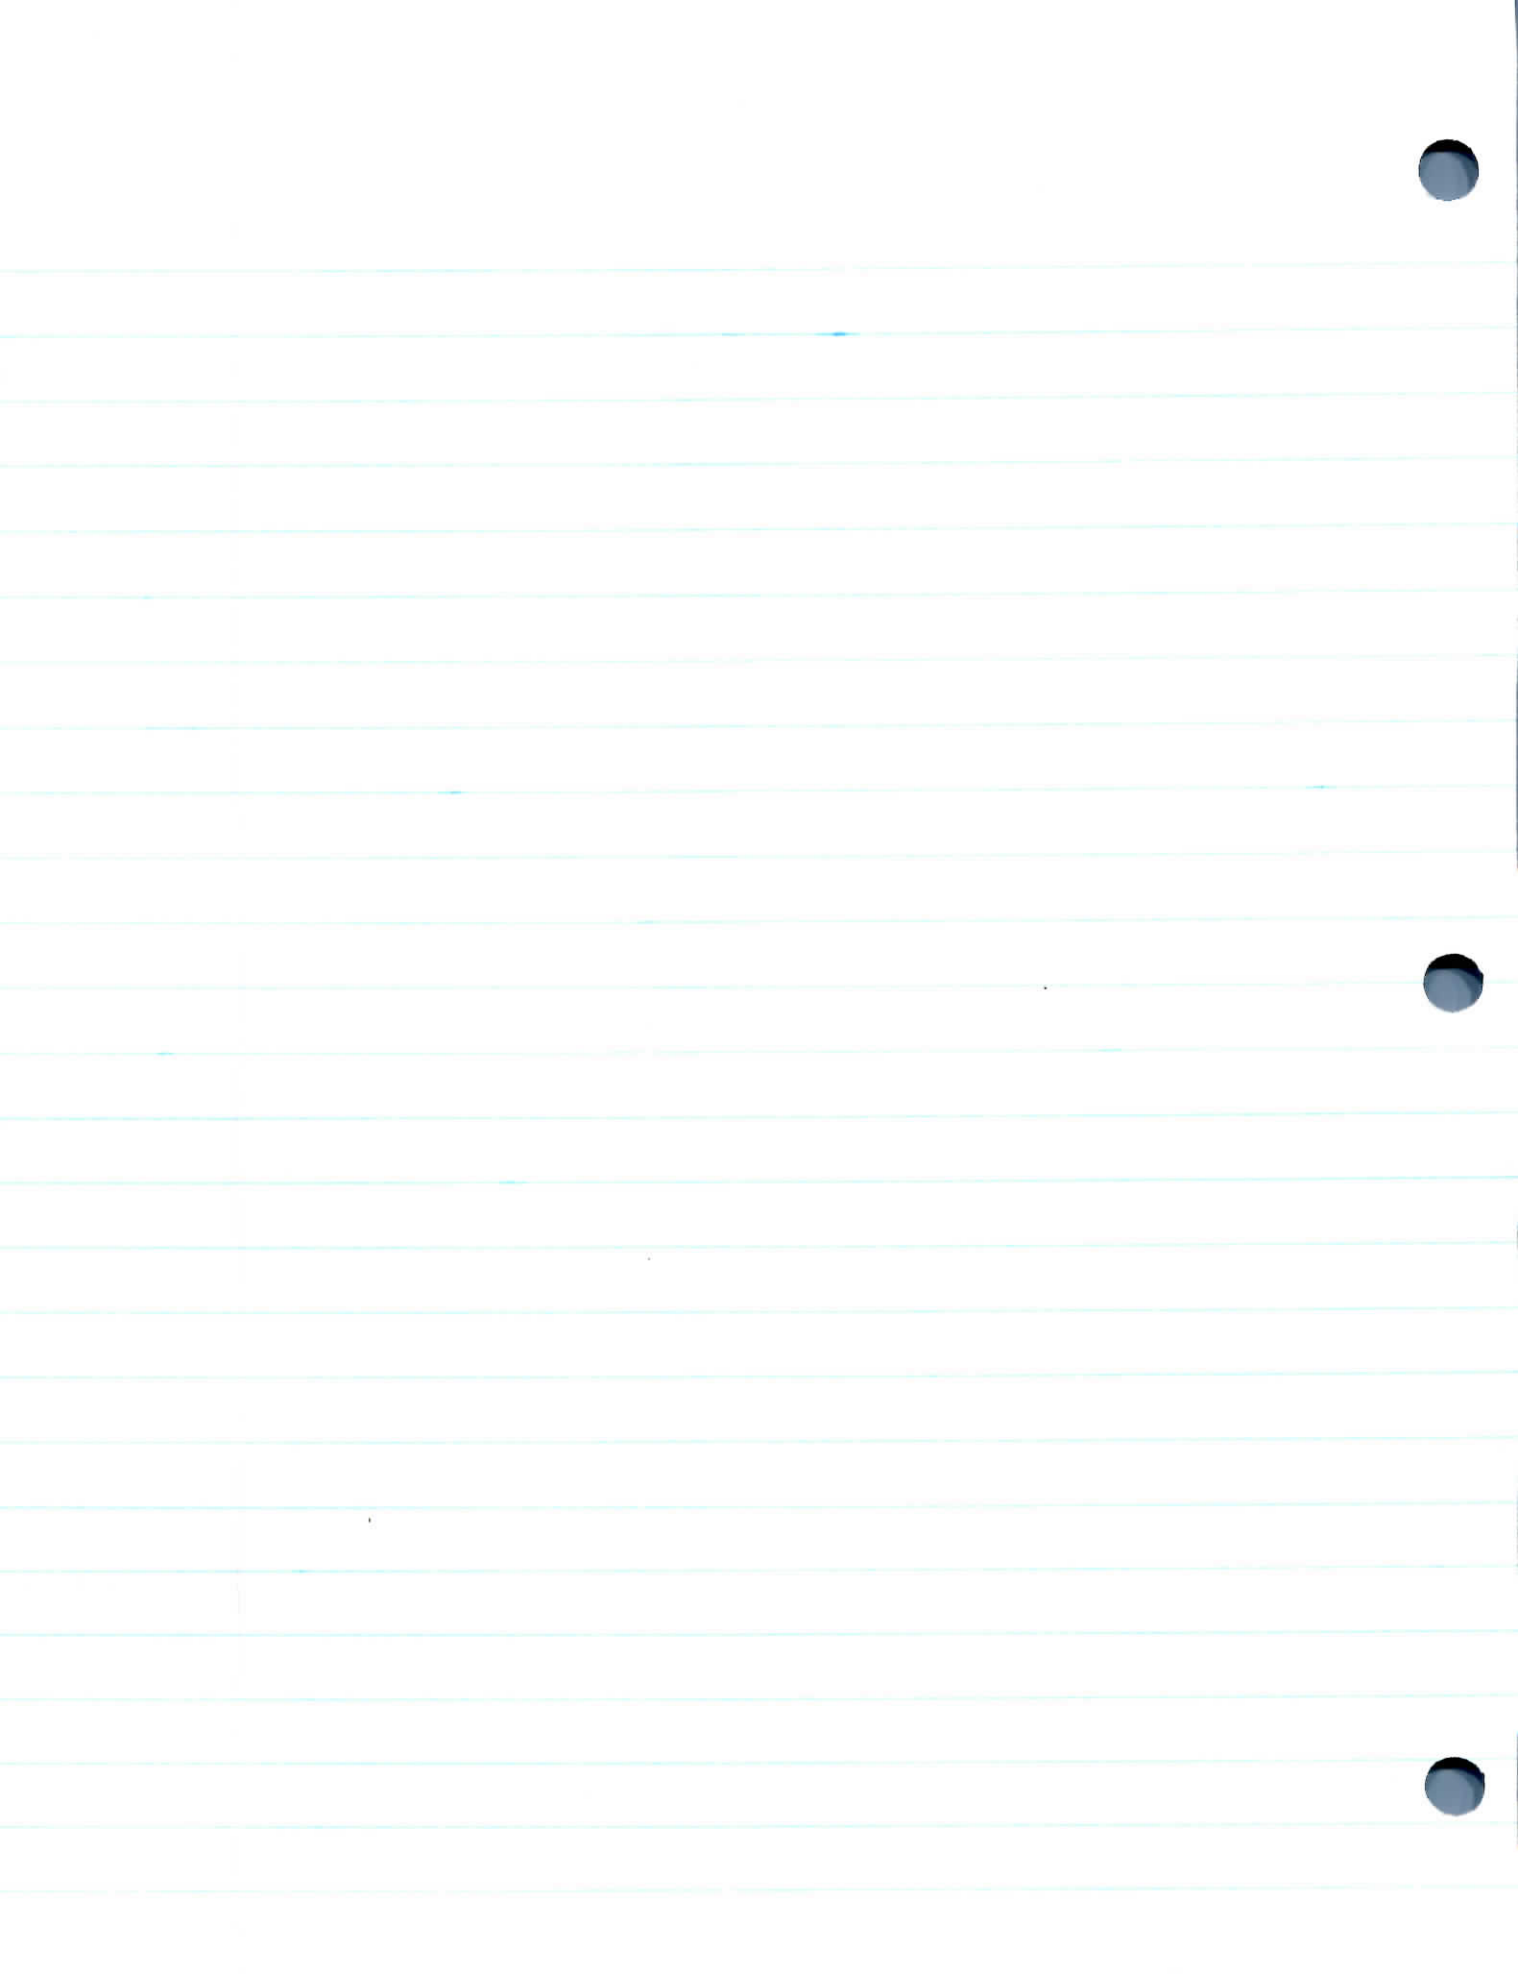

"You gettin' up son?" Cestron asked.

"No, not yet Dad," Edmund replied. "I need time to think."

In the Sims's cabin...

"Are you alright Mom," E.J. asked manileva.

"No E.J.," Marilou replied. "I'm not feeling that well. Not yet."

Chapter 64: ~~Formerly~~ The Earth, Now C.P.2

On the bridge...

Erica walked over to D.J., "How does this thing work?"

"Erica Smith," D.J. said, "I thought you were dead."

Gerry walked up, "She said the doordome captured her."

"And that's the truth," Erica replied.

"Gerry, get her reinstated," D.J. ordered, "I'm going on my breakfast break. You ever notice how it same like we have new panel operators?"

"Lucky for us," Gerry explained, "23671 have the papers in my briefcase. All you have to do is sign it. You've already read it."

Erica signed with ease, "when do I get my weapon?"

"Follow me," Jerry said while putting the contract in his briefcase.

They took the elevator to the armory. Erica picked out a laser. As soon as Jerry turned his back, Erica knocked him unconscious by hitting him on the back of the neck with his weapon, "Sweet dreams Jerry."

At the Sims's cabin...

Marilva opened the door, "who the fu-- are you."

"He's one of us," Erica walked up."

Everybody who was rescued was a Dodan. This ship is now landed on the Crystal Planet. And Haven wants to see you."

"I knew you weren't Erica," Marilva said.

"Oh I am Erica," Erica said. "I'm Erica in every way, except one. I'm a Dorodan clone. Now come quietly."

Marileva, E. J., M. J., Kat, Gerry, Willy, and D. J. were taken off of the ship. Marileva was sent to Haven. The rest were put in the freezer.

In Cestron's cabin...

Edmund opened the door, "Erica, what are you doing here?"

"You're coming with me," Erica said. She hugged Edmund and kissed Edmund.

Edmund pushed her off, "Erica, stop, I'm not in the mood."

Erica frowned and then pulled her laser, "You're coming whether you like it or not."

"What's going on Erica?" Edmund walked out.

"Come here," Erica turned Edmund around, "I love you. Now get the fu--off of the ship."

Edmund marched off to be carried off (369) to Erica's room in the Dorodans main building.

On Earth at the White House...

Dorodans dragged off Dean and David. Kitty gave up a good fight, "Let me go mother fu--a's. Shu-uh-." She was stunned. Those three and many more leaders were taken to the Crystal Planet and put in the freezer.

Haven was on every television in the world, "Your country is now under martial law. Your Space Force is completely discharged. You have lost. I Haven am your new leader. Report in the morning for reprogramming and crystallization."

Chapter 64: Life as a Sex Slave

In Haven's cabin...

Haven walked in to see Marikva sitting in a chair, "What do you want with me Haven?"

"I want your hand in marriage Marikva, as always."

"Fu--you."

"Fiercy as ever. As I told you before, I like that in a woman. I created you and I can destroy you. Don't even think about using your powers. They are useless against me."

"W-what are you doing?"

Haven raised Marikva to her feet and placed her on his bed, "You'll be sucking my dick when I'm done with you."

"Never," Marileva used her laser power but Raven crystallized. The beam ricocheted off Raven back into Marileva. She was knocked unconscious.

When she awoke, the room was dark. She was weak but able to rise. Raven walked over to her. "I'm going to reprogram you myself."

"Never," Marileva struggled but Raven threw her down on the bed. She kicked Raven off. She tried to make a move for the door but Raven grabbed her and put his hand on her forehead. Marileva struggled but was soon unconscious again. She awoke.

"You're too strong for your own good," Raven placed Marileva on the bed. Raven then got on top of her. "you need a good fu--ing."

"I won't let you," Marileva said weakly.

"You see Marileva, one of my powers is to drain life. Every minute <sup>372</sup>

I'm near you, you get weaker. Soon you will be dead. I can not change you into a Dorodan since you already are one but I can clone you when you're dead."

"I won't let you win," Marileva said half conscious.

In Erica's quarters...

"Erica," Edmund asked, "what's gonna happen to Marileva?"

"Oh Haven's just going to kill her and then clone her," Erica said.

"Erica, I know you respect me even though you're a Dorodan. You must let me save Marileva. I have to get out of here."

"That won't happen Edmund. You're mine."

"Erica please. Help the Space Force."

"You know Haven would kill me Edmund."

"Please, I - I love Marileva."

"What about me you fu--er."

"I'm gonna stop living in the past (373) and start living in the future. No matter how much you are Erica, you're not. Marikva needs me, and I need her. My children, M.J. and E.J., need us, the parents.

"You're smart in how you get your point across. Just go, I guess the marriage is off, huh."

"Yeah, but come with us."

"No, like you said, I must live in the future. I'm a doctor now. It would just hurt all of us if I came. Here's a laser." Edmund went to the door. He came back, held Erica, and kissed her.

"I owe you that," Edmund ran out of the door and toward Raven's room.

Erica let out a large puff, "I love you Edmund."

Commander stopped Edmund, "Good luck. I'm sorry."

Edmund nodded and ran the rest of the way to Raven's room. He remembered the layout well. Edmund (374) shot Haven's door open. He only saw Marileva laying still on the bed. Edmund raised Marileva and hugged, "What has Haven done to you?"

"I've drained all of her energy," Haven walked in, "She's dead."

"Not today Haven," Edmund grabbed his laser but did not fire. Haven un-crystallized and then Edmund fired. He hit Haven dead on. Marileva awoke, "Marileva, you're alive!"

Haven was down begging for his life. Commander froze Edmund in his tracks, "I thought -."

"I am, but you won't get Haven," Commander said.

"Wanna bet," Marileva grabbed Edmund's laser and blew Haven away.

"Nooooo!" Commander went for Marileva. Marileva unfroze Edmund. Edmund accidentally tripped Commander.

"This one's for me," Marileva blasted Commander straight on killing her. Marileva handed Edmund his laser. "Hi Edmund".

"Hello Marileva," they both hugged each other and closed their eyes.

"I love you," they said in unison.

"Now let's get the fu~ outta here," Edmund said.

"Way ahead of you," Cestron replied come on.

After the three got out of the main building Heaven and Commander walked over to their dead clones.

"It worked Commander."

"Yes I know Heaven."

With the three...

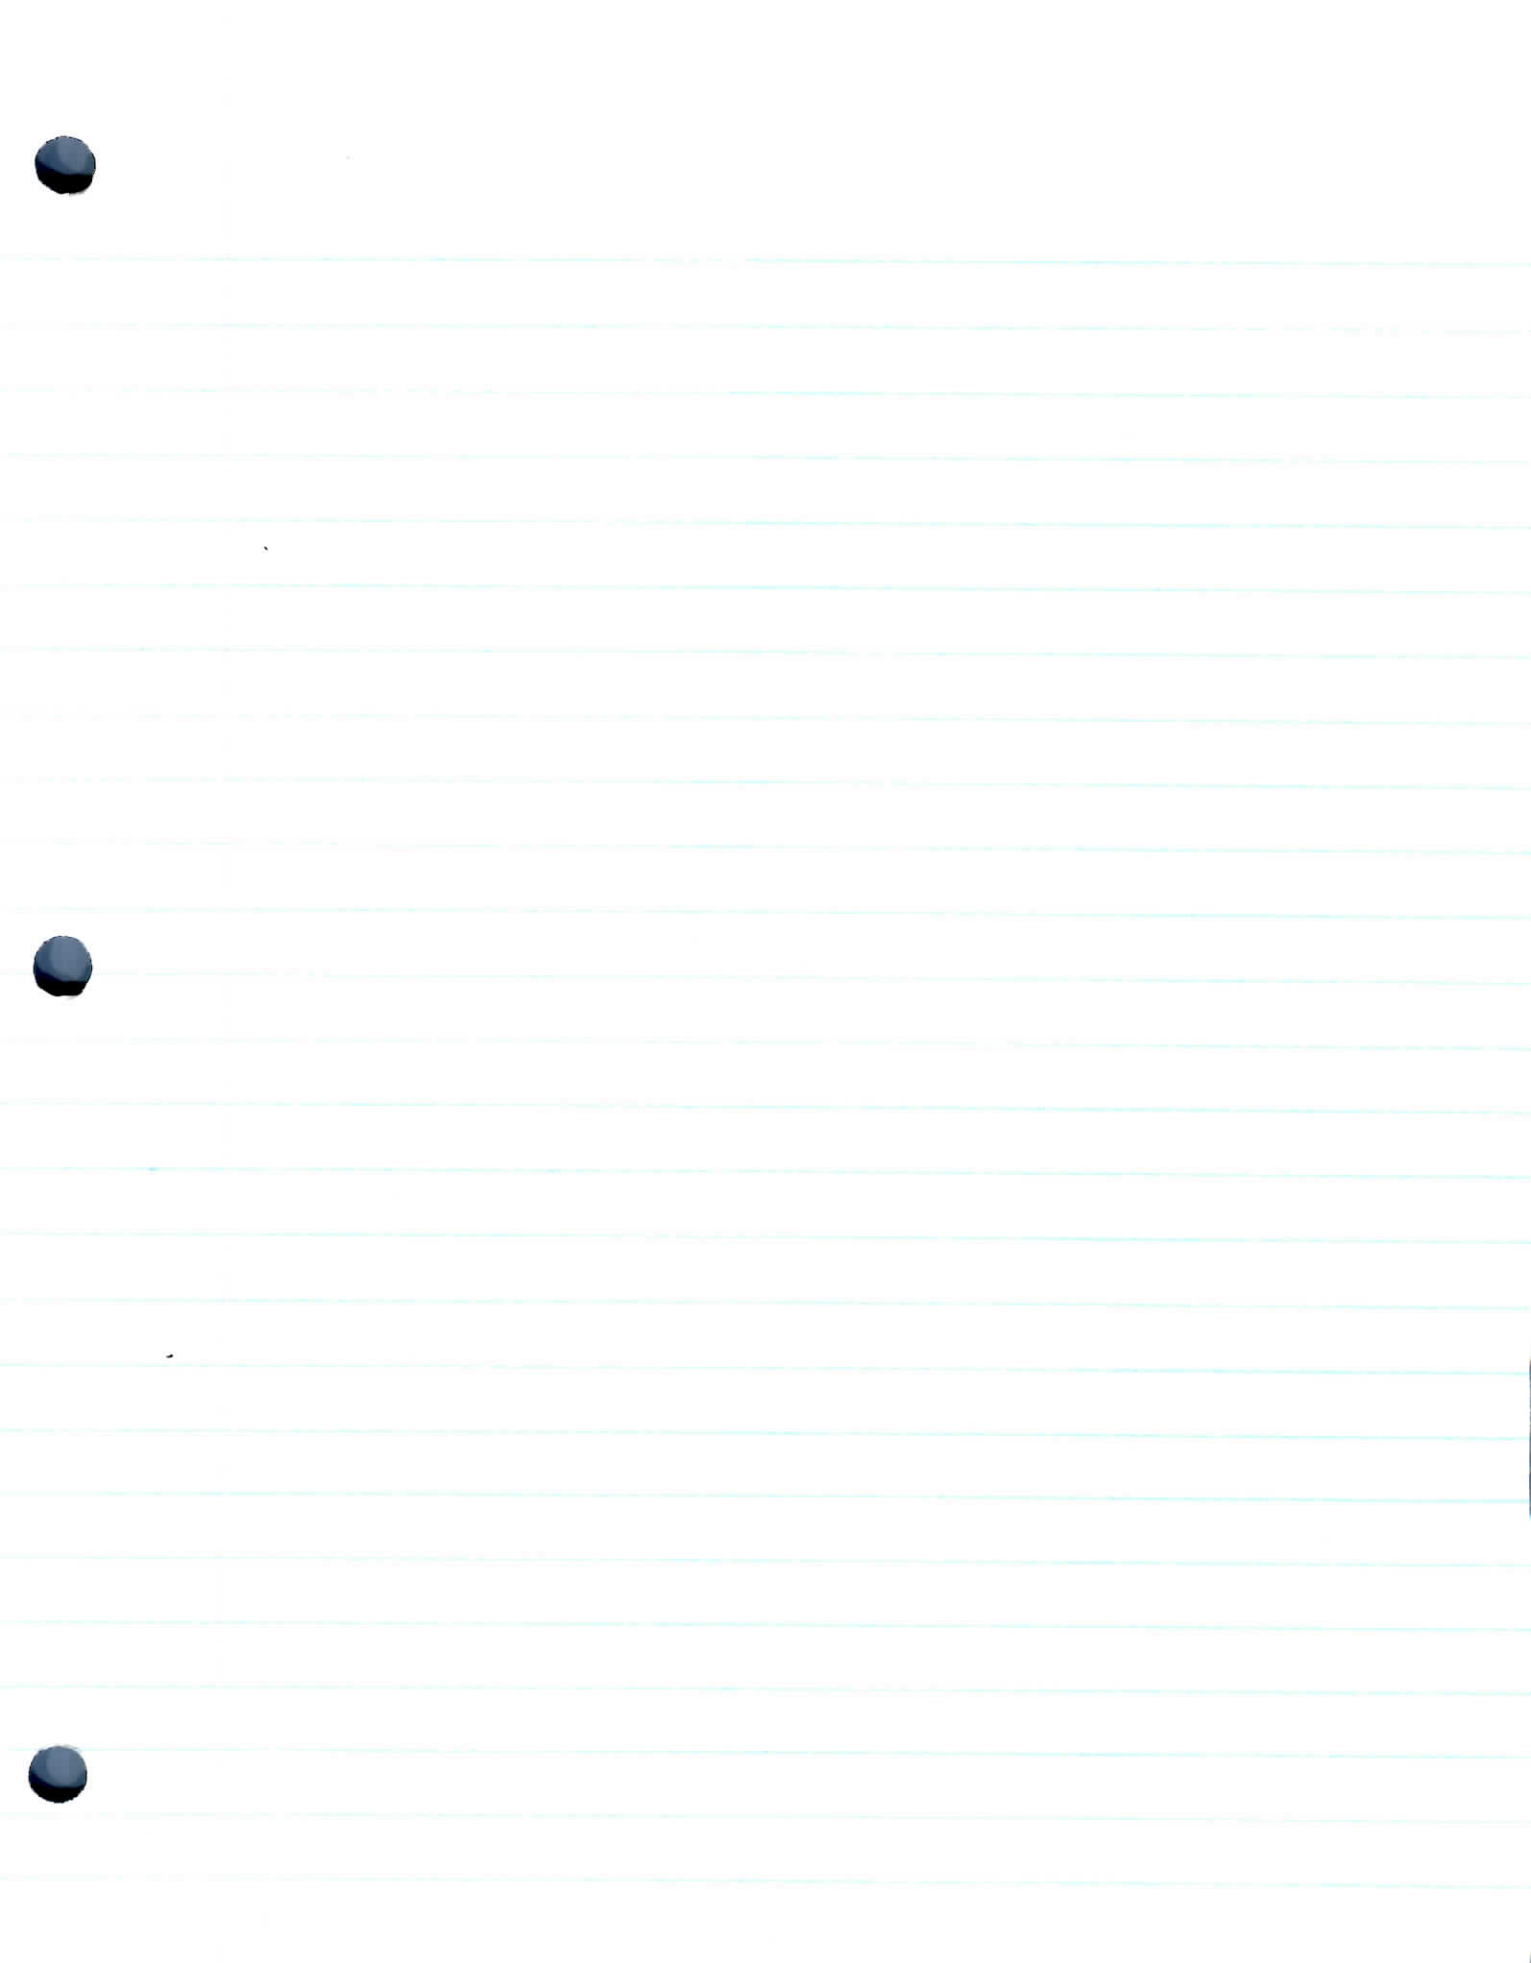

"Wait Edmund," Marileva said. "those weren't them. I know Heaven and Commander. If they had wanted me dead, I'd be dead by now. I sense some evil presence."

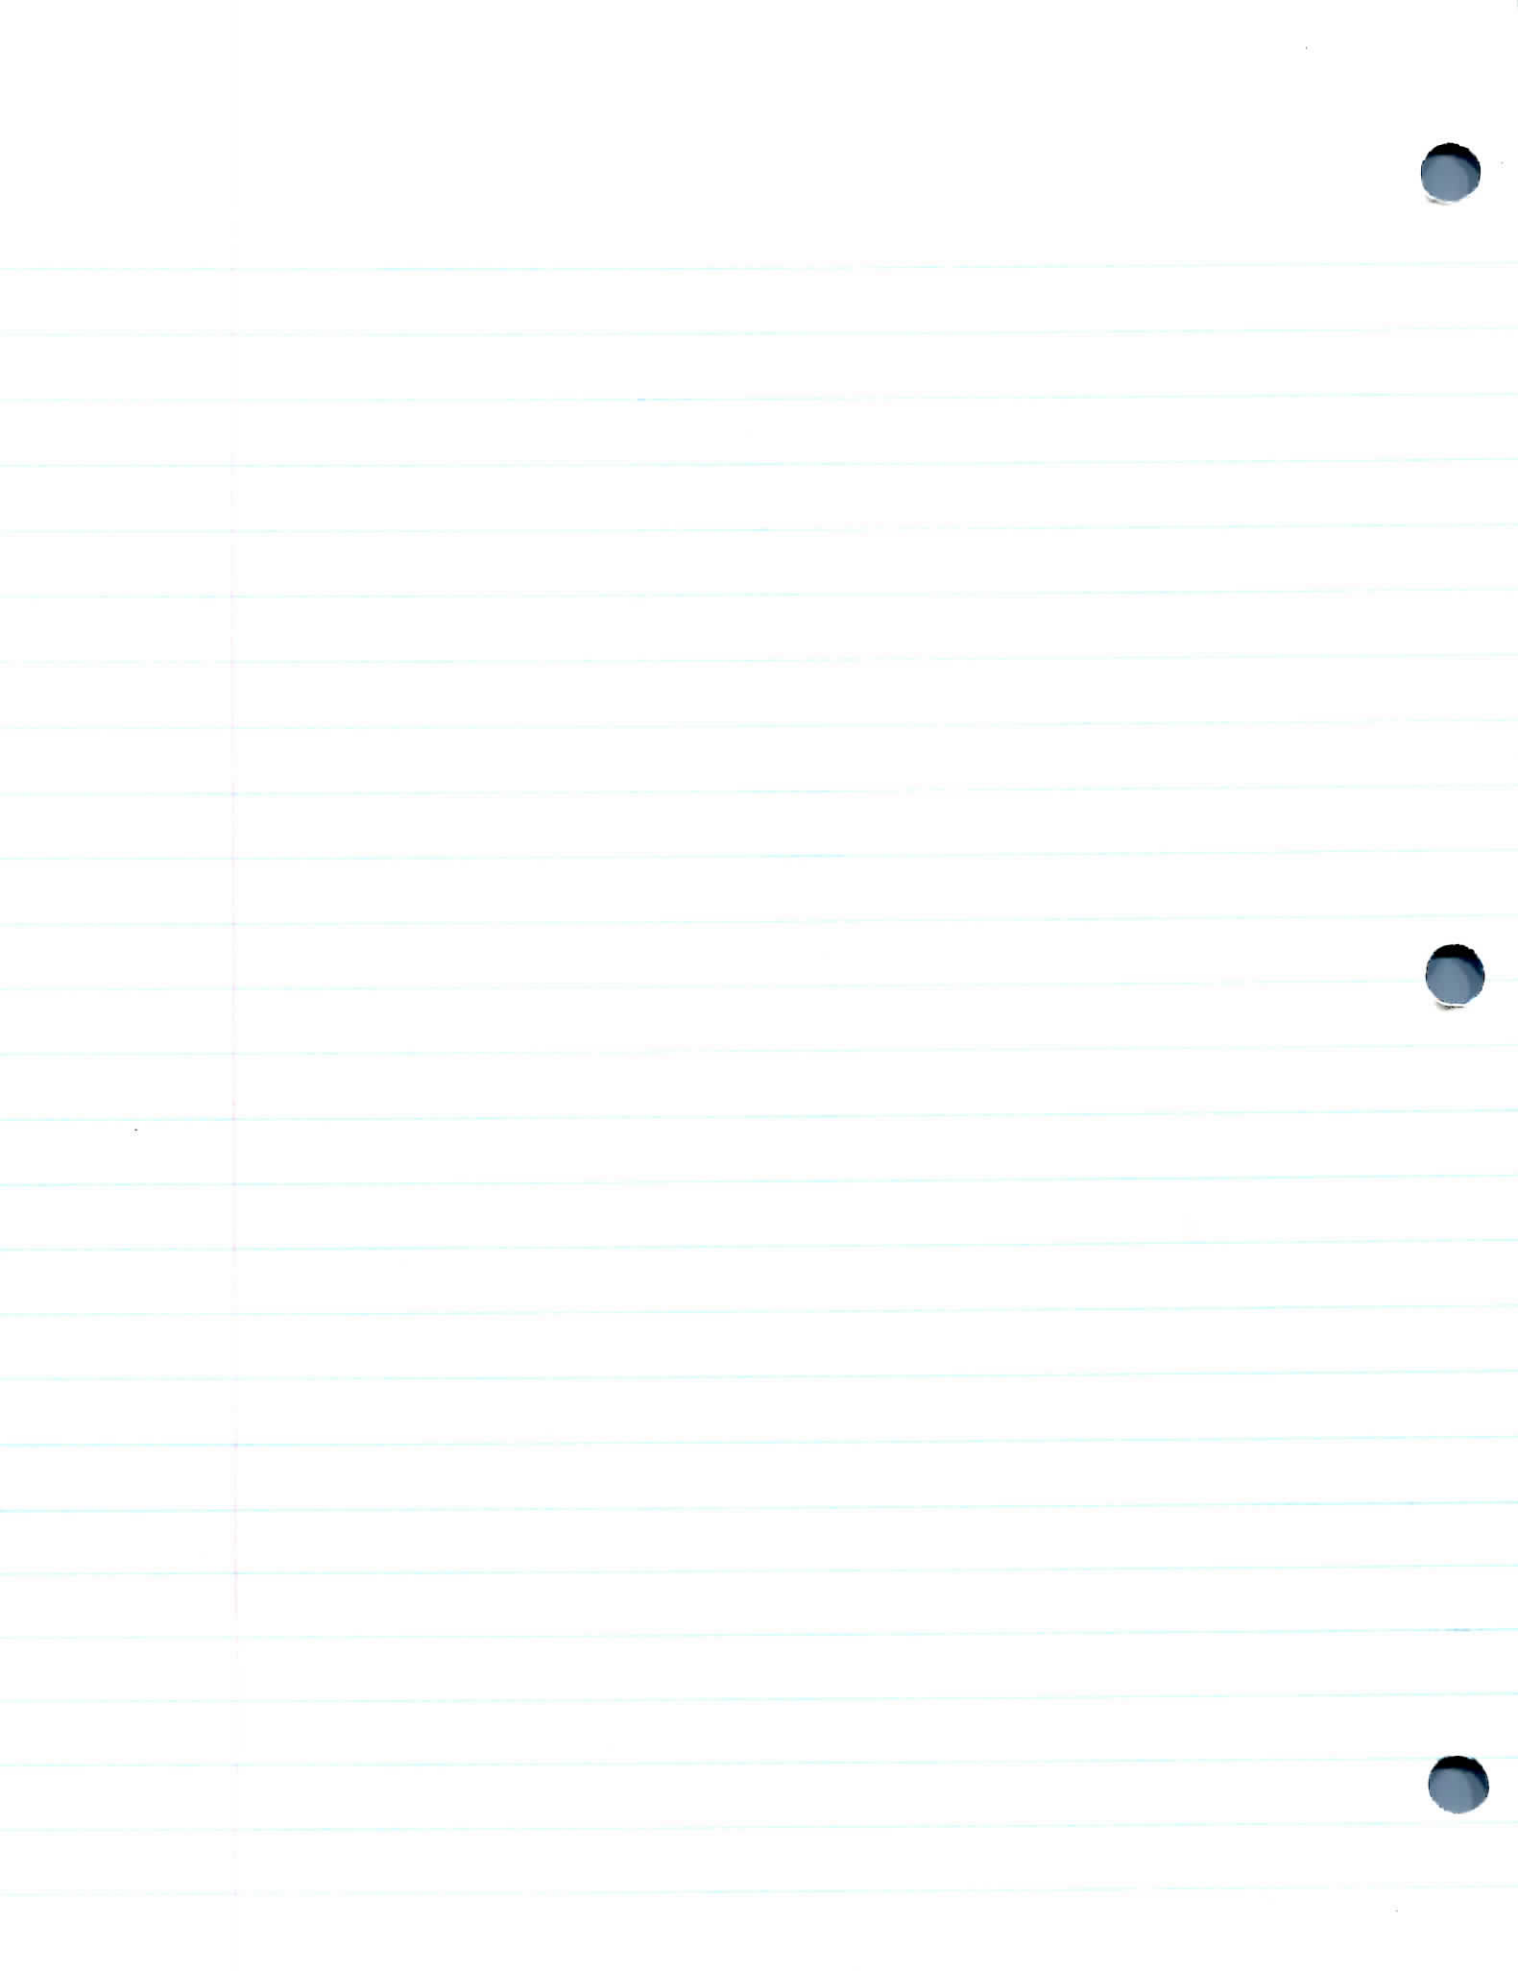

"You're da-m right Marileva..."

"Finish off those lovers!" Commander ordered.

"Good thing the cloning process works on Doodlane," Heaven said.

Chapter 65: Return of the Glow

"I knew those fu--ers weren't dead!"
Edmund exclaimed.

"We have to get to the freezer,"
Marilva said.

"We need some mother fu--in'
backup," Cestron replied.

The three nanas Dorodans fired their lasers. Marilva shot open the door. Edmund kicked it in. Cestron covered them.

"We're gonna need transportation," Cestron said, "I'll take care of it."

Cestron hit the deck and rolled while firing, taking out the Dorodan front line. Cestron got to his feet and ran to 377 ammunitions depot. The Dorodans surrounded it.

Cestron picked out a rocket launcher, "I hope this shi- is loaded." Cestron got some grenades, two wigs, a rocket launcher, and a bazooka. He cracked the window of the depot and fired his laser. More Dorodans went down. Cestron then fired his rocket launcher. This cleared a line of Dorodans. Since the launcher was all unloaded, Cestron threw it down and shot a hole in the wall with his bazooka. Cestron ran out victorious.

In the freezer...

Marileva threw the switch freeing everybody. They were all still cold and tired.

"What the fu-- happened?" Willy asked.

"Don't ask, just come on," Edmund said. He was tapped on his back and he aimed his laser and turned. "Don't ever do that!"

"Quiet," Erica ordered, "here's the code to arm the space station. Give it to your father."

"Thanks Erica," Edmund held her hand.

"I'll work as a Space Force spy," Erica decided, "but when my cover is blown, I'll cut off everything."

"Thanks Erica," Marileva replied. Everyone was about to walk off.

"Oh Marileva," Erica called, "take good care of Edmund." The two women smiled at each other.

"Don't worry," Marileva replied, "I will."

Marileva got M. J. and Edmund got E. J. The kids almost did not withstand the cold temperatures. Erica ducked out of sight.

Gerry ran ahead to scout. He was met by Glove, "Gerry, Gerry, Gerry, nice to see you again." Glove smacked Gerry into the wall. He was unconscious.

D. J. ran up to see what was going on. Commander shot D. J. three times <sup>379</sup>

"We can't go that way," David said.
"You're right," Haven materialized in front of David. Haven put a crimson circle over David's heart. David fell out dead.

Edmund pulled Willy and Deen down. Marileva pulled Kit down.

"We sure can't go out that way," Kit said.

"We're trapped," Deen replied.

Haven, Steve, and Commander walked up to the escapees. Commander was about to fire her laser when the wall disintegrated. Cestron had back-mapped the space station.

"You won't escape!" Haven exclaimed as he materialized in front of Marileva.

"Wanna bet?" Marileva said as she shot Haven as soon as he moved.

Commander went for Edmund but was cut off by Kitty, "You killed my husband. Now you'll pay."

"You're gonna stop me?"

Kat snuck up behind Commander and grabbed her. Commander easily got out of Kat's hold with her alien strength. She picked Kat up by his neck and shot him in the stomach three times. She threw Kat to the ground. Glove grabbed Kitty and slit her throat. Raven grabbed Marileva. Commander grabbed Edmund. E.J. grabbed Edmund's laser and hit Commander with it. Commander kicked E.J. out of the way. Commander put her hand on Edmund's chest. A suppling sound occurred. Edmund fell unconscious. Raven did the same to Marileva.

"Now for the bids," Glove said approaching M.J. and E.J.

Cestron jumped out of the D.I.C. with his uzi, "I billed your shi--ng as-father. Now it's your fu--in' turn. You're such a fu--m' wimp, picking on some helpless as-bids."

"Wait," Glove said, "it was you!" Glove came up hard and fast.

Cestron rammed the gun into Glove's 3811 penis and hit him over the head with the uni. E.J. took Edmund's laser and blew ~~Edmund~~ away.

"Shi-, your father let's you do that?" Cestron asked E.J.

"Yes Grandpa," E.J. said.

"Kill that old man!" Heaven ordered the guards.

Commander pulled two guards out of the line, "Take Marilwa and Edmund to the crystal cages for cloning and crystallization."

The guards did as they were told.

"Can you fire a gun?" Cestron asked M.J. as the guards came hard and fast.

"She just a baby grandpa," E.J. told Cestron.

"Fu-- I could fire a gun," Cestron said, "shi- she better learn quick." Cestron handed E.J. Marilwa's weapon.

Willy got to the ship, "Shi-, what was that code Erica gave Edmund?"

"You mean this?" Erica walked up. 382

She gave Willy the code.

Willy typed it in, "Thanks Erica."
"Sure," Erica replied, "I thought you might need it since Edmund got his as-captured. This is the last help I'll give you guys. You fu-- this up and that's it, I can't risk blowing my cover." Erica once again slipped away.

In the cloning room...

Edmund and Marikva woke up in the reprogramming chairs. Haven had already re-cloned Glove, "If you let your feelings get in the way, I'll bill you myself."

"Yes Haven," agreed Glove.

With Cestron...

E.J., M.J., and Cestron held off the guards for a long time. Then Willy had his turn. Willy used the S.S.C. lasers completely mutilating the guards.

"Get your asses on board before more guards come," Willy ordered.

"No shi-!" Cestron replied helping E.J. 383 and m.j. aboard.

With Haven...

Commander walked in, "Those Space Force fu--ers we caught are back in the freezer. Cestron, the Sims bids, and Willy's escaped."

"Shi-", Haven pounded his fist against the wall.

"How would you like Edmund and Marilwa to be reprogrammed?" Commander asked.

"I want Marilwa to be my sex slave," Haven answered, "I want her to do whatever I want. Make her have feelings for me. Make her feel sexual toward me. I want her to be willing, supportive, and compliant."

"And Edmund?" Commander asked.

"Do whatever you want with him," Haven said. "Oh and have Steve complete his mission."

On Earth at the Space Force Jail...

Steve walked right in since the Dowdams 3831 were in charge of the planet.

In a jail cell...

"I can't believe we fu--ed up like that," Gant said.

"I've lost my powers," Mike said.

"Fu-- that shi--," Mr. Sellers said, "I'm in jail da--it."

"I should be smarter than that," Gant said.

"Gant, shut the fu-- up!" Mike ordered.

"At least we got a few more weeks to go," Mr. Sellers replied.

"You'll be out sooner than that," Glove walked up.

"Glove," Mike replied, "what are you loin' here?"

"Just say this," Glove said, "I'm gonna bail you out. Dorodan guards opened the cell and cuffed the three,

"This isn't right," Gant explained.

"Gant, fu-- off!!" Sellers exclaimed.

"You are so fu--in' stupid," Mike<sup>384</sup>

replied.

"Will you three shut the fu-- up!!!
!!!!" glove ordered. "Shi-, I've never seen so much bickerin' and bit'-in'."

Chapter 66: The Unconditional Information Session

In the reprogramming room...

The effects of the unconsciousness were taking its toll on Mariboa and Edmund.

"I see you're completely awake," Commander walked in.

"Let us go," Mariboa ordered.

"I don't think so," Commander replied. "We're gonna reprogram your as-es."

"Su-- that," Edmund said. "Let us go if you love me, you'll do it."

"Su-- you Edmund," Commander replied, "once you're reprogrammed you'll do what ever I want to make me happy."

Mariboa sent out a mental message to 386

Willy.

On the I.B.C....

"There in that building," Willy pointed.

"How do you know?" Cestron asked.

"I just do," Willy replied, "take out that roof."

In the reprogramming room.

"Oh and Marileva," Commander said, "Haven wants to fu-- you afterwards."

"She's not gonna touch her," Edmund stood up for Marileva.

"I'll smash his balls," Marileva replied.

"In a minute Edmund," Commander explained, "you won't give two fu--s about Marileva."

"Wanna bet," Marileva said as the roof caved in on Commander. She was still alive though.

Cestron was about to leave the space station, "E.J. help M.J. pilot the ship."

"But -," E.J. was cut off.

"Just follow these instructions," Cestron handed E.J. a 5,000 page instruction manual, small print.

E.J. could hardly hold it, "Yeah right."

Willy hopped off and handed Marilva an uzi and laser, "I got your message."

"I knew you would," Marilva said happily. E.J. and M.J. took the S.S.C. up into orbit.

"Thanks Dad," Edmund hugged Cestron.

"Two things," Cestron held his fingers up, "that's what fathers are for, and don't get so fu-- in' mushy, da-m!" Cestron handed Edmund a laser and an uzi.

Marilva came over and held Edmund, "Let's get our guys and kick some as-."

"Heavens right," Edmund explained, "I like my women fiery." Edmund kissed Marilva.

Guards came running while firing their lasers. Willy dropped to the floor 388) and took all of the guards out, "Let's get the fu-- outta here."

After the four left, Commander awoke. She was weak. Glove, some guards, and their three prisoners came in.

"What would like done Commander?" Glove asked.

"Get me out of this da-m rubble, you shi - for brains," Commander ordered. "We never got that president. I want him found. We need a spy. Crystallize David Majewski."

"What about Kit and Kat and Jerry and ~~and~~ <sup>and</sup> three fu-- ups?" Glove asked.

"Look who's talking," Commander replied. "I want them to tell us all of their information. Then reprogram them to serve the Dorodans. Hold it, I know your next question. What about Edmund? Fu-- him. I'm sick of wastin' my time. I do want them captured though. And repair this da-m roof."

"What the fu-- is goin' on?" Yart 389 asked.

"How the fu-- should I know?"
Mike replied.

"Look, I'm sick this shi-. All you mutka fu--ers do is argue and bitch," Sellers stepped in.

"Oh, go fu-- yourself," Mike
said.

"Yeah, shi-head," Gart told Sellers.

"Who you callin' shi-head, bitch?"

"You!" Gart and Mike said in unison.

"Everybody, shut the fu-- up!" Commander exclaimed. "I see what you mean Glove.
I change my mind. Take Kit and Kat out of the freezer to die. Kill Gerry and then these three. We'll only use D.J. and Dave."

"Why D.J.?" Glove asked.

"D.J. is the only one that knows how to fly Space Station Colt. Besides, he's my ex husband. We were never married anyway. You can't marry Dorodans.

The guards strapped Mr. Sellers in 3901

reprogramming chair. Commander injected the drug underneath Mr. Sellers's penis, "Ow that fu--in' hu--" Mr. Sellers fell into a trance.

"A what the fu-- did you do to him?" Fart asked.

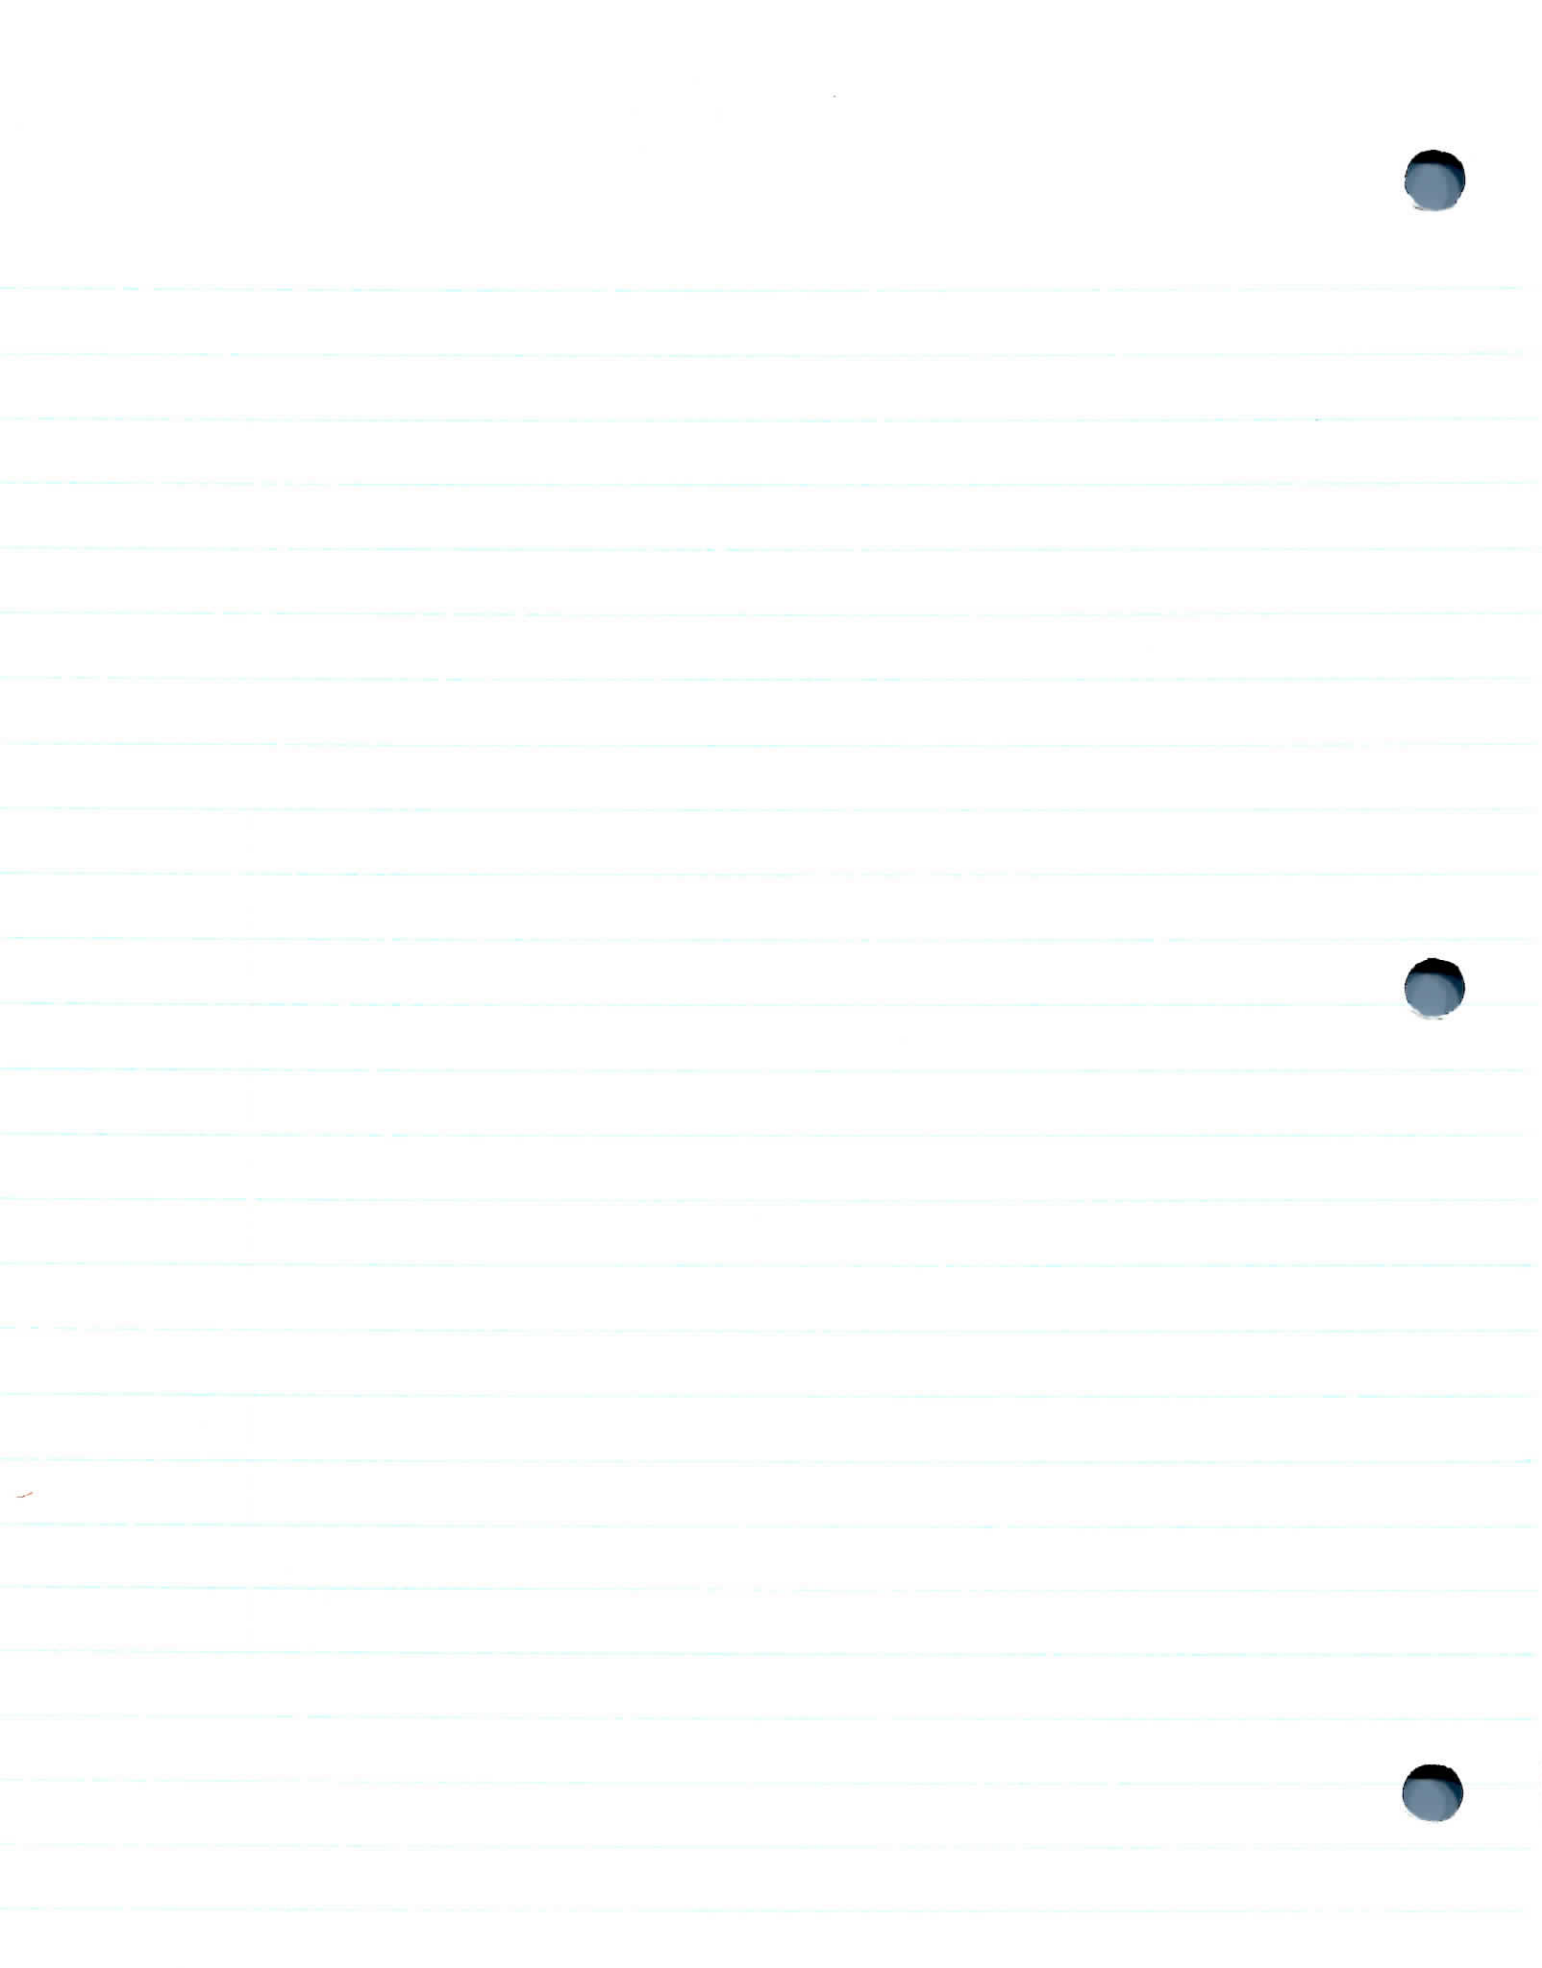

"Yeah, what the fu-- is goin' on?" Mike asked.

"Guards, take these two fu--ups outside and shoot their as-es!" Commander ordered. "I have a feeling we'll only need Sellers."

"With pleasure," one guard said. He was sick of the bickering also.

"Now Mr. Sellers," Commander asked all of her questions. Mr. Seller answered completely

Chapter 67: Execution Day

In the freezer...

Glove was busy hooking up two crystal cages to the freezer power source. He would have to get D.J. and David into the cages quickly before they die. Glove forgot about Jerry and opened his cell. Jerry was not dead. Glove opened Kit and Kat's cells as they fell out dead. Kit died of gunshot wounds and Kat died of a slit throat. Jerry regained consciousness but stayed on the ground to assess the situation. Glove threw D.J. and Dave in the cages. He closed the doors and started them up.

Gerry saw Deen off in the distance. Deen held a laser and aimed it for Glove. Deen fired hitting Glove in the head. Glove was dead again. Deen ran and helped Gerry up.

"Can you save them in there?" Deen asked.

"I don't know," Gerry replied. Suddenly a huge flash of light occurred. D.J. and David's bodies were completely made of crystal. They started moving and then were both returned to human mode.

"I think it's too late for that now," Deen said, "Our vice-president and Captain of the S.D.C. are both Dorodans."

"Give me your laser," Gerry set the laser on maximum stun, the force needed to knock a Dorodan unconscious. As soon as D.J. and David walked out, Gerry blasted them. "Sorry guys."

"What are you doing now?" Deen asked.

"I'm gonna try to clone Kit and Kat. Good thing we have two cages. 3931

Gerry worked frantically as he crossed wires and changed the hookups, "Help me with Kat. I took out the crystallization of the clone process. They'll be regular old Kat and Kit."

"I hope it works," Deen said.

"Me too," Gerry replied, "we're gonna need help outta here."

In no time at all Kat was cloned. Then Kit was cloned.

"Where the fu-- am I," Kit asked.

"I cloned you guys," Gerry replied.

"You mean, we were fu-- in' dead?" Kat asked.

"Afraid so," Deen answered.

"Why are these two lyin' around?" Kit asked.

"They were crystallized," Gerry answered.

"Well we sure as fu-- can't have them blurring out our secrets. Gimme your lover," Kat ordered.

"You're not gonna bill 'em are you?" Kit asked.

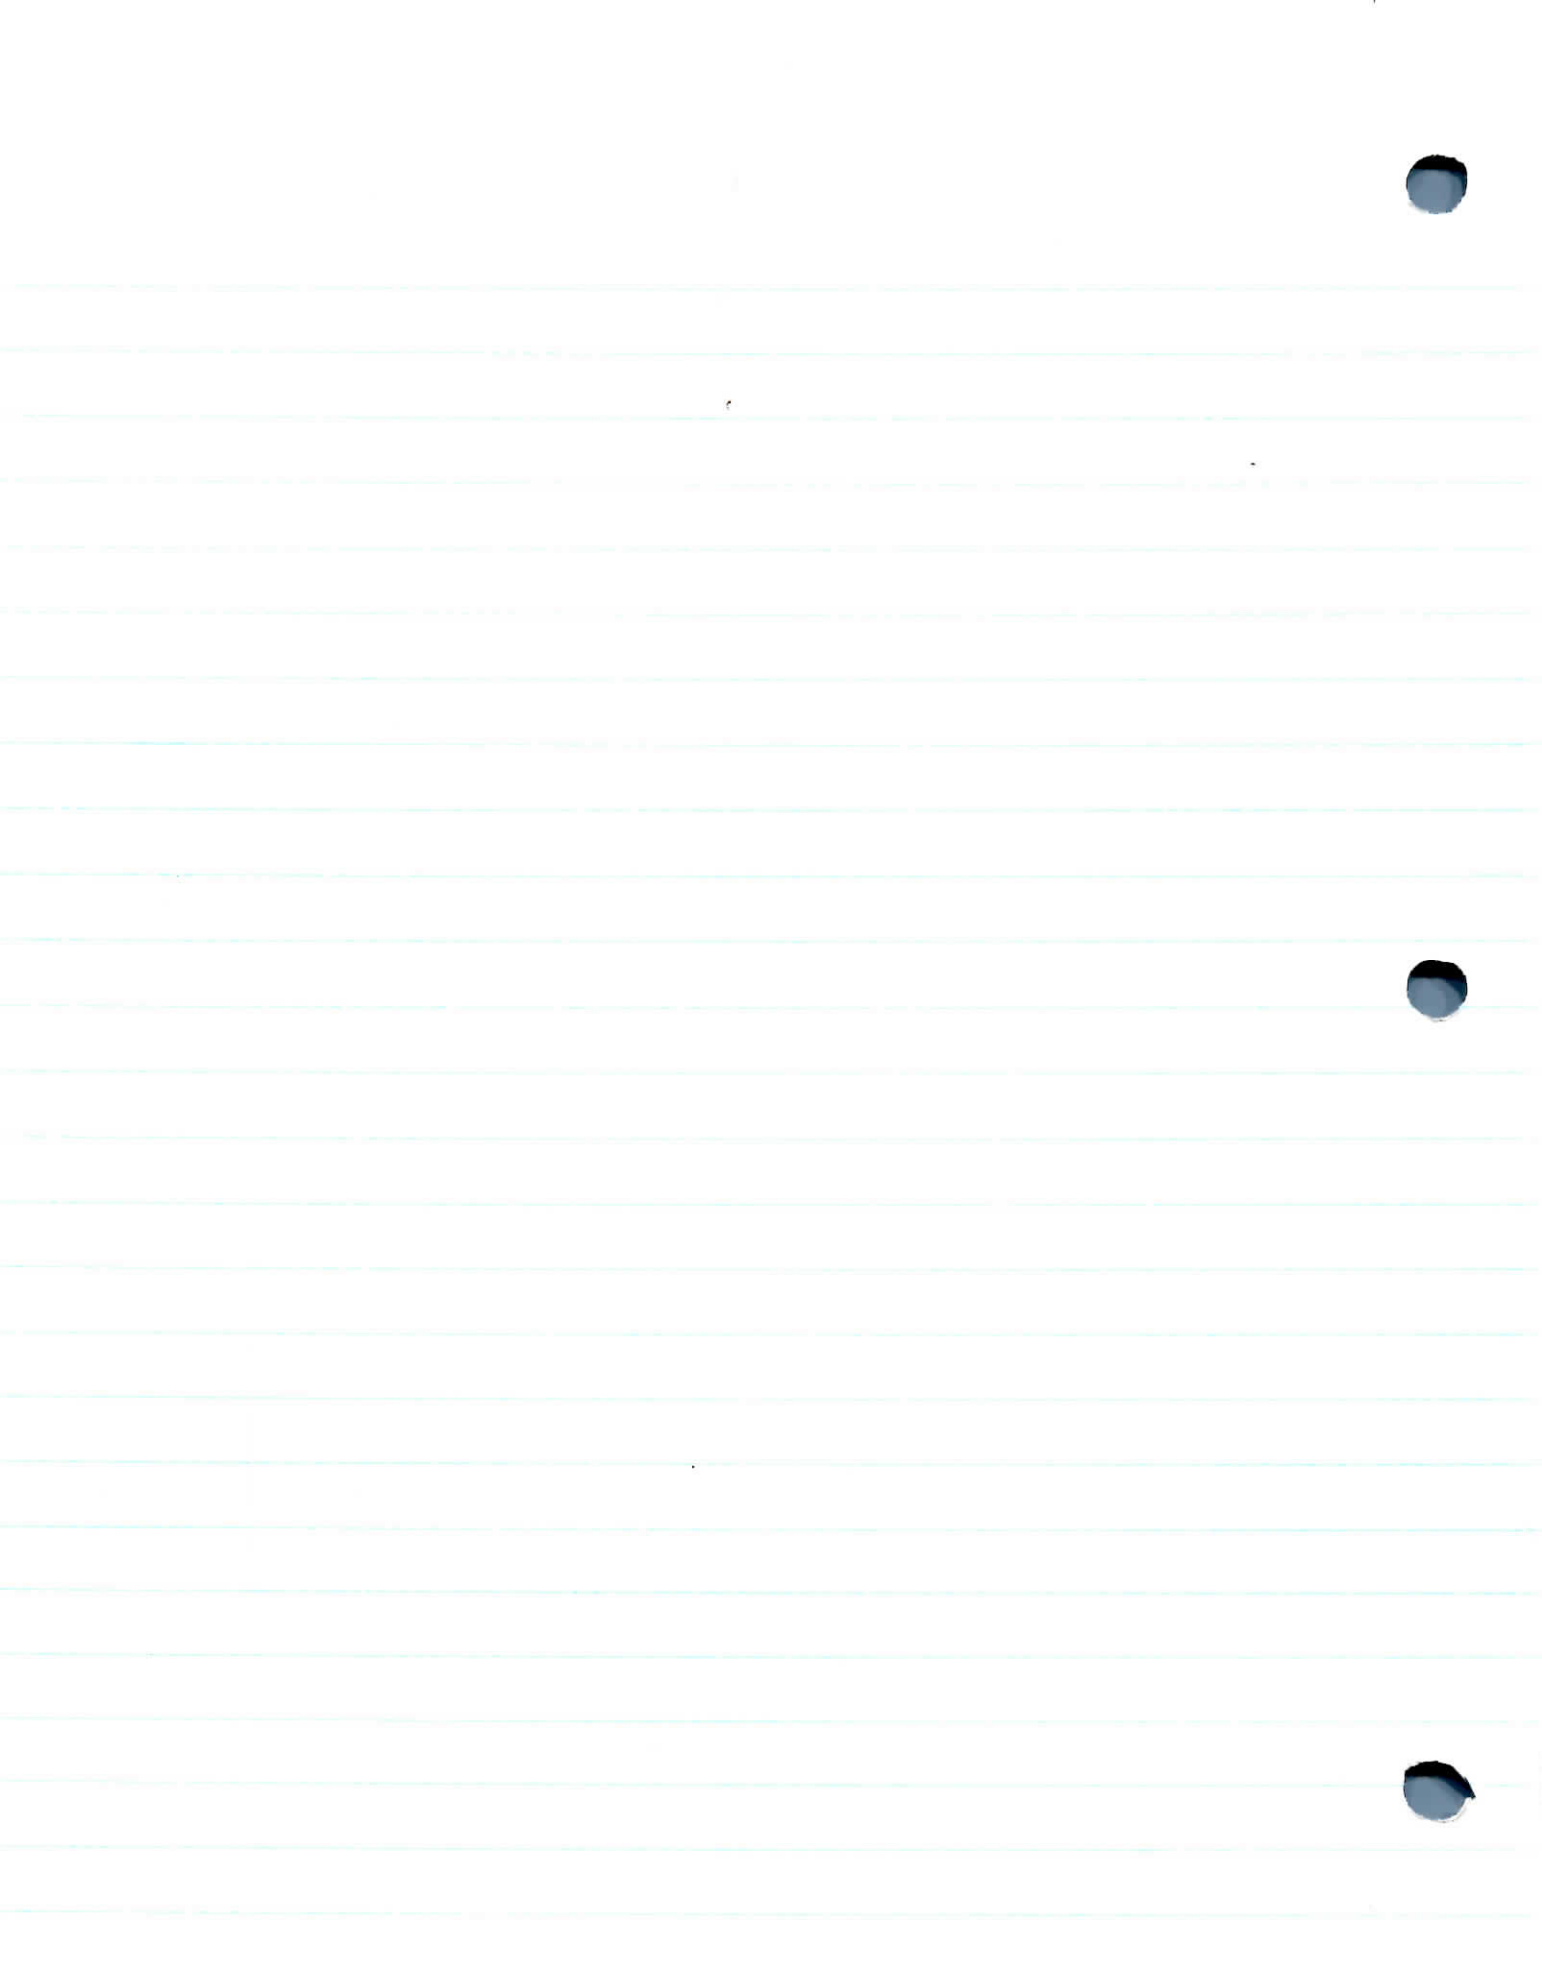

"Of course not," Kat explained, "I'm just gonna give 'em a little brain damage." Kat slammed the laser against each of their heads.

"Ooh," Deen replied, "I know they're gonna have headaches if they wake up."

"Fu-- , I know that's gotta hurt," Jerry said.

"Shi-brother," Kat asked, "why are you so da-m brutal?" Kat just grinned.

Chapter 69: Like Father, Like Son, Like His Wife, and Their Best Friend

Commander was still getting Mr. Seller's information, "I ordered you guards to take their as- outside and shoot them."

"We're trying," one guard explained, "they won't stand still."

"Why don't you knock them out?" Commander asked.

"We already tried that," the guard replied, "they can't be knocked out."

"If you don't get them out of here, I'll kick your as-es!" Commander threatened.

"Get me outta these cuffs matha fu--er!" Mike ordered.

"Let me go da--it!" Gant exclaimed.
The twelve guards managed to get
Mike and Gant out of the room.
Eight guards held the two prisoners
while the rest cocked their weapons.

Cestron, Marikwa, Willy, and Edmund took out the four with blazing bullets piercing the guards' bodies.
The eight guards dropped the prisoners and went for the four escapees.
Willy used the spread mechanism on his laser easily blowing the eight guards away.

"I love my gun," Willy said
as he ran in the room.

"One move and Sellers dies," Commander held a laser to Sellers's head. Sellers came back to his usual self and kicked Commander in her shin. Willy fired and shot the gun out of Commander's hand.

At that moment D.J. came in, "
I'll get you for messin' with my wife!"

"D.J.," Willy replied, "it's me, Willy." 397

"I don't give a fu-- who you are," D.J. aimed his laser at Willy.

Willy dodged the fire. Cestron came in with an upi and sprayed the room, "Take that fu--ers!"

Commander and D.J. ducked. David Majewski accidentally walked in to get instructions and was shot in the head by Cestron. D.J. stood up to take a few shots but was gunned down dead in the head by Willy.

"Go!!" Commander grabbed D.J.'s gun and shot Cestron and Willy ran out of the door.

Edmund and Marilva freed Mike and Zart. Gerry, Deen, Kit, and Kat ran up.

"Shi-, it's hard gettin' back here," Kit replied.

"Marilva," Gerry called, "I found a way to reverse the Crystal cage effects."

"You're serious?" Marilva asked.

"Dead serious," Gerry answered, "2 398" tried it on Dave and D.J. They were still programmed by the Dorodane, but it worked."

"Then we gotta get over there," Edmund said.

"Get me outta here!" Someone ordered, "Get me the fu-- outta here!"

"We forgot about Sellers," Zait said.

"You did, I didn't," Mike replied.

"Fu-- you!" Zait exclaimed.

"Guys!" Cestron screamed. "Shut the fu-- up la--it!" Cestron freed Sellers. Commander was no where to be found.

"Let's go to the cage," Kat suggested.

"Not yet," Marilva replied, "I've got a score to settle with Raven."

In Raven's quarters.

"Oh Raven," Marilva walked in.

"Ah Marilva," Raven replied, "are you ready to fu--?"

"Of course dear," Marilva said, "get 3991 yourself undressed and I'll be waiting."

Marileva laid across the bed.

"Why aren't you undressed," Haven walked in a minute later but makes.

"Because I'm leavin'," Marileva reached down her shirt and shot
Haven dead on in the chest.

Haven grabbed his chest, "B-but."

"But what," Edmund and Willy grabbed Haven and put their guns to his head.

"You can't crystallize that quickly," Willy replied.

"Goodnight Haven," Marileva put her laser right at Haven's forehead. A guard shot the gun out of her hand.
Edmund, Willy, and Marileva hit the deck. Cestron snuck up behind the guard and shot him in the back of his head.

"Where's that as-hole, Haven?"
Cestron asked.

"Shi-!" Marileva replied, "He turned into a gas."

"Let's get to the cages," Gerry replied. "We haven't much time."

Marilva, Cestron, Edmund, Willy, Deen, Gerry, Mr. Sellers, Mike, Fart, Kit, and Kat ran down to the corridor.

Guards stood between them and the cages. Gerry took Deen to a safer place. Mike walked over to Gerry, "Come on Gerry, give me my powers back."

"I guess we need now," Gerry said.

"We sure as fu-- do," Fart replied.

Gerry pushed a button on his watch. A beam engulfed Mike. Mike felt stronger and then ran into the action, "Mike Speed is back mother fu-- as !!!" Mike disarmed most of the guards and tossed guns to Mr. Sellers, Fart, Kit, and Kat.

Edmund ordered, "Cover us." Edmund and Marilva ran out dodging the enemy fire and entering the room.

"No sweat," Cestron took his bayonets and cleared a nice line for Marileva and Edmund to follow.

Willy used his spreads taking out even more. Mr. Sellers and Fart became ground troops or suicide troops. They ran right in the line of fire and beat some more guards up.

"It's too quiet," Marileva said.

Glove was about to jump right on top Edmund when Marileva shot him out of the sky. Glove was ok but missing a penis.

"Shi - Marileva," Edmund replied, "once again I say thank goodness you're on our side."

Marileva smiled as they were right in front of the cages. Suddenly a laser landed in Edmund's right arm. He dropped his weapon and fell into Marileva's arms.

"So Marileva," Commander stepped in the picture, "I give you a choice. Edmund or <sup>402</sup> or the cages, he'll surely bleed to death unless you heal him or you could be changed back to your human self.

"You know there's no contest," Marilva explained, "Edmund comes first." Commander set a bomb to the cages. Marilva put her hands over Edmund's wound.

"But why?" Edmund asked.

Marilva covered Edmund as the bomb went off, "Erica told me to take care of you, and that's what I'm gonna do." The last cages blew up.

"Have a nice marriage," Commander gloated.

"Oh I will," Marilva aimed her laser at Commander as she walked away. Marilva fired hitting Commander in the head and all over her body. Commander fell to the ground in a coma.

Marilva helped Edmund up as he once again said, "Shi-!"

Chapter 70: Evacuate the Planet

Marileva and Edmund returned to the sight of a hundred mutilated Dorodan bodies. They once again held each other.

"Any luck?" Deen asked.

"No," Edmund answered.

"Let's get the fu -- outta here," Selbre said.

"Yeah," Yart continued, "I hate this fu -- in' planet."

Marileva called E.J. with her telepathy. In no time E.J. had landed the S.D.C. unprotected. The Dorodans were too afraid to show themselves. Everyone boarded.

"What's our destination?" E.J. asked.

"Earth & I," Cestron said.

"Cestron," Deen walked over to Cestron, "they called you Crazy - Castor Oil, huh?"

"Yeah," Cestron agreed, "but how the fu-- would you know?"

"I'll tell you later," Deen walked away, "I need time to rest."

"We were so fu-- in close," Edmund said.

"Don't worry about it," Gerry replied.

"Yeah," Marileva stepped in, "like I said, 'live in the future.'"

"But we can't get married," Edmund said.

"They didn't say anything about dating," Mike replied.

"Don't you think someone should notify Erica's parents?" Zart asked.

"You say the worst fu-- in' shi-- at the worst fu-- in' time every fu-- in' day!!" Mr. Sellers exclaimed.

"Don't worry about it Sellers," Marileva stood up for Zart.

"Yeah," Edmund continued, "live in the future."

"Does anybody remember that we have to liberate a whole planet of Dorodans and slaves?" Jerry asked.

"I feel bad about all those people," Mike replied.

"I say we fly the front section down and pick up the humans," Cestron explained, "after that, we could blow all those Dorodan mother fu--ers away."

"That would work," Mrs. Sellers agreed.

"Then let's do it," Edmund rallied everyone.

"We still have to get past their sensors though," Mike replied, "I saw where they were."

"They want Dorodans so I'll fly the ship down with E.D. and get the humans," Marileva suggested, "If there's a problem, Edmund, Cestron and Willy can take the fighters and cover us."

"That'd work," Cestron agreed.

"We're here," E.D. called.

"Showtime," Mr. Sellers said.

Marilena and E.J. boarded the front section and everybody else exited. Jerry held M.J. and kept her in the timer when Marilena would be gone.

Edmund, Willy, and Astron boarded their fighters. They took off.

All of them received a radio transmission, "You are entering Dorodan airspace. Enter the code or be terminated."

"Quick what's the code?" Edmund asked.

"Shi- I don't know," Astron answered.

"Su--you!" Willy flew straight in destroying a convoy of Dorodan fighters.

"I must hand it to you," Astron explained, "he loves his work."

"Go shi-," Edmund said as he flew down to the Earth's airspace.

Marilena and E.J. flew down to the military installation. E.J. stayed on.

Marilena got off. A guard scanned her with a small device for Dorodan readings, "You're clean. Nail Raven!"

"Yu -- Raven," Maribva said as she pulled her laser and blew the guard away. She ran and ducked behind the ship. Cestron flew down and took out the mob of guards. Maribva waved for thanks. Cestron nodded.

The Dorodan spy patrol was about to takeoff when Edmund took them out before they got off of the ground. Maribva took the dead guard's scan device.

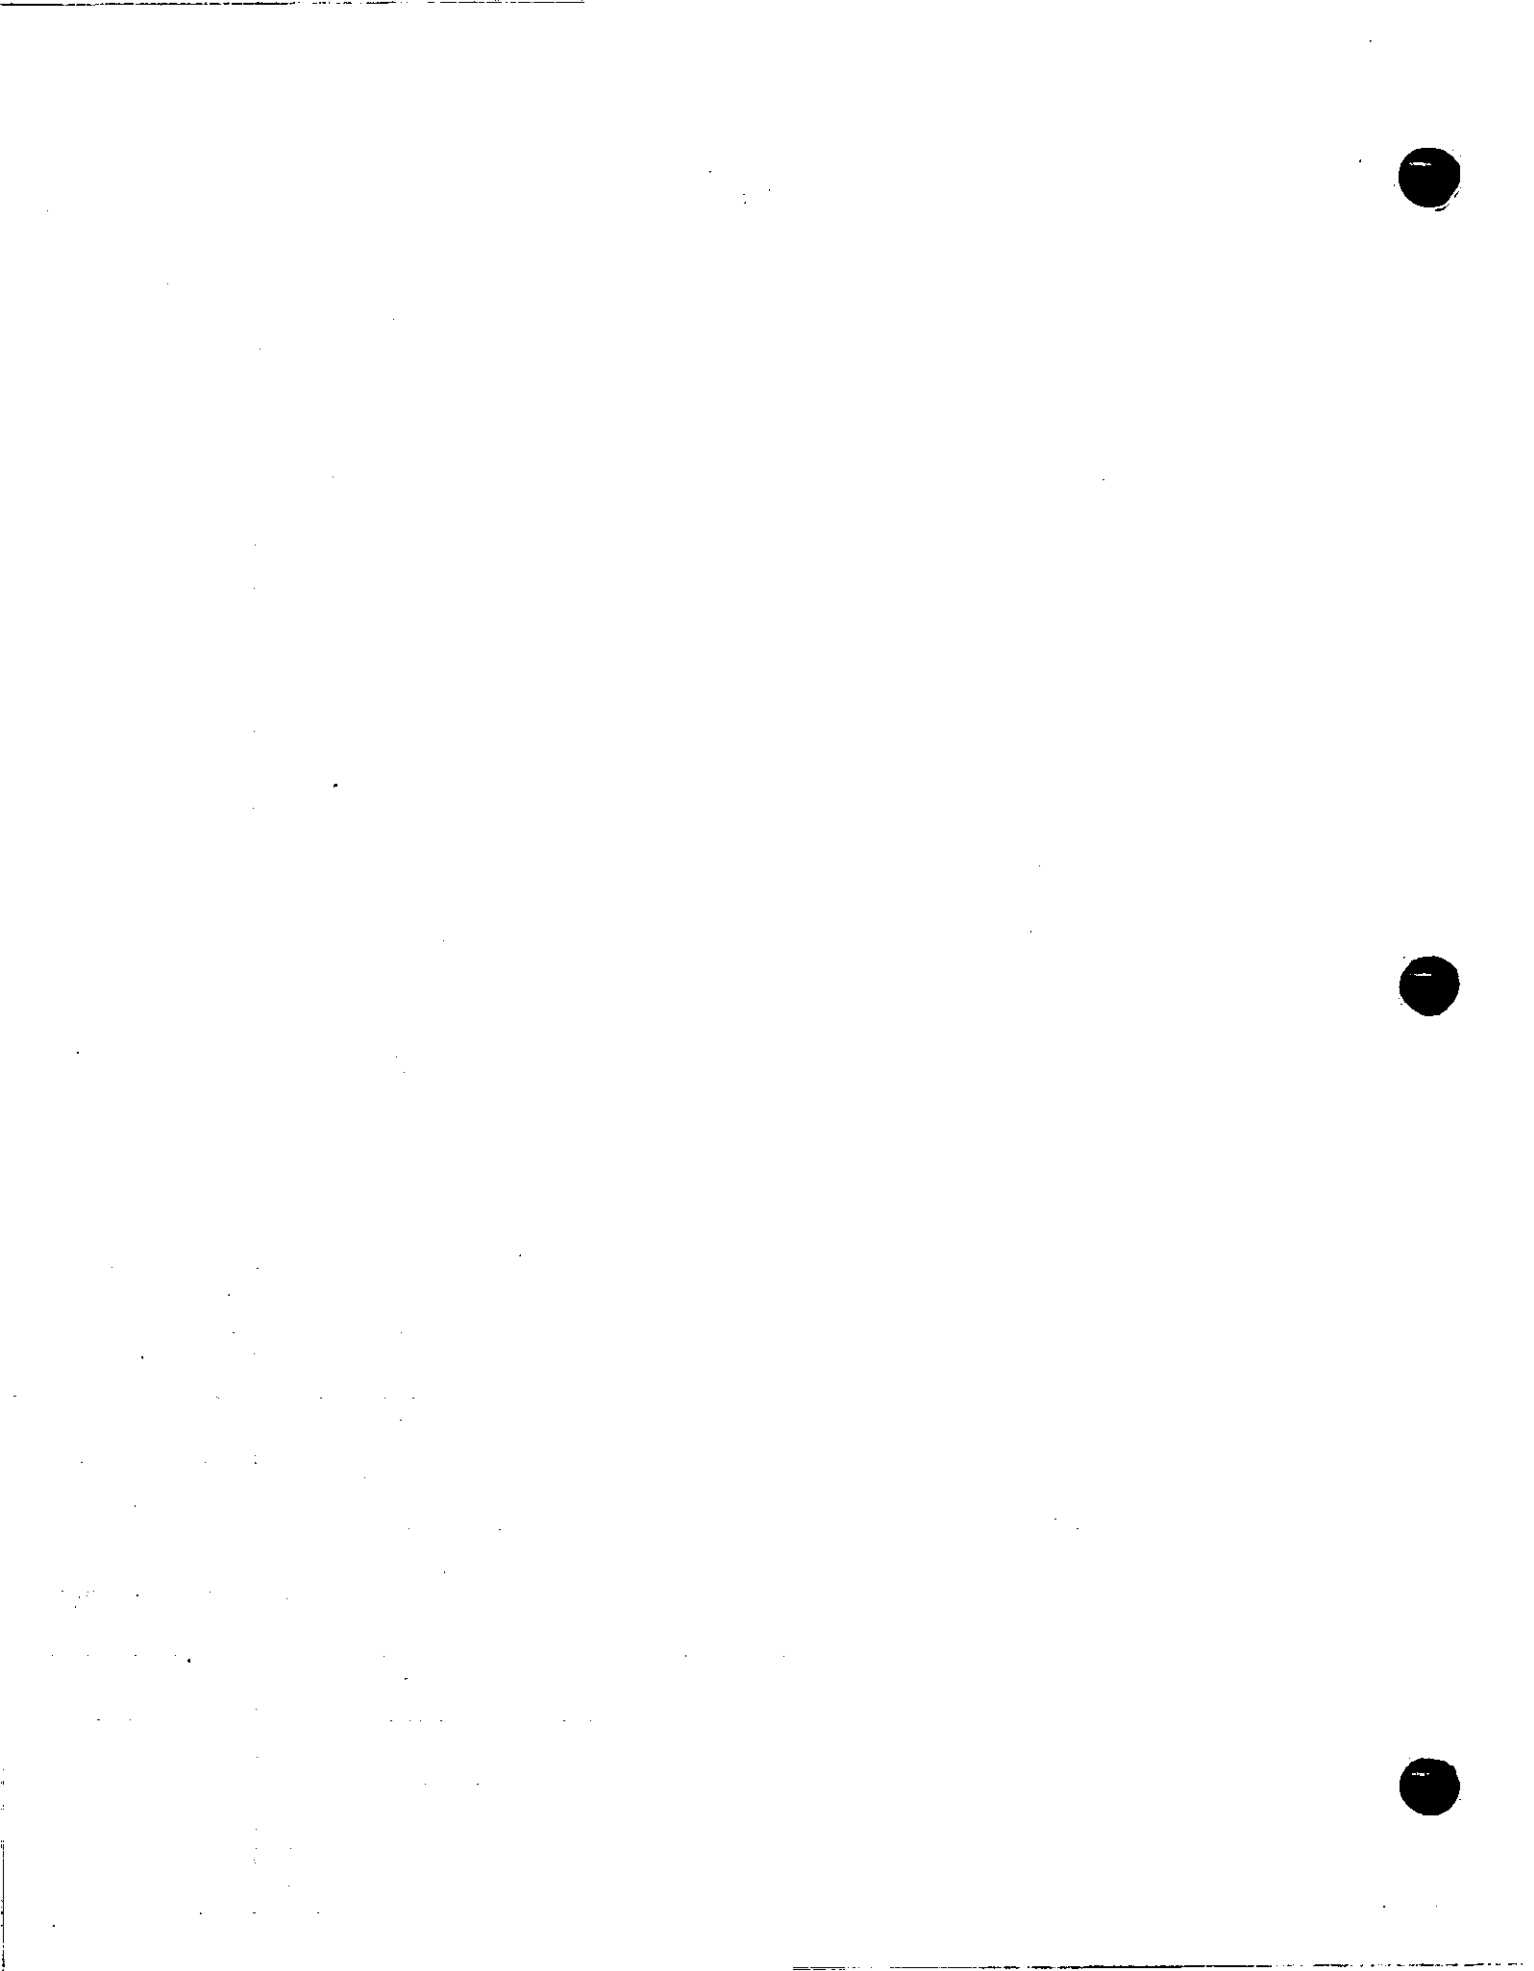

"When they get to E.J. scan 'em," Maribva tossed the scanner to E.J. Maribva opened up all of their cells and ordered them to board the S.S.C. E.J. scanned them all. They were all clear. Edmund, Cestron, and Willy got aboard the rest of the S.S.C. Maribva and E.J. piloted the front section brilliantly until it connected to the rest of the ship. Jerry let M.J. turn the ship and put it in position. Dan pushed 408) the button.

"Good bye -- as-holes," Deen cursed and everybody laughed. They didn't think he was that kind of person.

The S.D.C. used its lasers to blow away all of the Droids. It was over. The Earth was liberated. The Space Force did not fail. They had won, again. But this time, it seemed harder.

Chapter 71: Citations and Recognition and Legislation.

In the oval office...

Deen spoke, "I would like to, once again, recognize Marilva, Edmund, Jerry, E. J. and M. J., Bart, Kit and Kat, Mr. Sellers, Mike, Willy, and Bart for another job well done.

"What about me?" Cestron asked.

"Awe Cestron," Deen explained, "my father, Sam, and you were good friends. I would like to offer you a chance to re-estate."

"Can I be a free agent?" Cestron replied.

"Sure," Deen continued, "I see no problem with it. What about you three?" 410

Deen looked at Gert, Mr. Sellers, and Mike.

"I'm in," Mike answered.

"Me too," Gert agreed.

"If they are, I am," Mr. Sellers replied.

"Excellent then," Deen said. "Oh and Marilena and Edmund, I didn't forget about you. I got congress to pass a bill to let you get married. I signed it. It passed unanimously by the way."

E.J. and M.J. were all smiles.

"You, you mean?" Edmund asked happily.

"We can get married?" Marilena continued happily.

"Come on Edmund," Jerry urged.

"Yeah Edmund," Ceston told, "do this shi-right."

Everything was silent. Edmund reached in his pocket, "I've been saving this for an occasion like this. In case you're wondering, this was Eric's."

"Come on," Gert ordered, "get on with it."

Everybody but Edmund, Marilena, M.J., 4/11

and E. J. exclaimed, "Shut the f-u--up!!"

Edmund got on one knee and continued, "Marileva Dike, w- would you marry me."

Marileva paused and smiled, "Sure." Edmund placed the engagement ring on her finger. They hugged and kissed. They got a standing ovation.

Edmund walked over to Willy, "Would you be my best man."

"No doubt," Willy agreed. He shook.

Marileva walked over to Kit, "Would you."

"Yeah, of course," Kit agreed.

"Thanks Kit," Marileva thanked Kit.

"Oh Marileva," Edmund called, "I'll sleep at Willy's tonight. You know tradition."

"Alright," Marileva said happily, "see you tomorrow."

Chapter 72: A Family Affair

In Willy's house...

Edmund awoke as Willy shook him, "Wake the fu--up Edmund."

"Leave me alone," Edmund said not knowing what was going on.

"Today is your wedding!" Willy exclaimed.

"Wedding?" Edmund asked himself, "Shi-, I almost forget." Edmund hopped out of bed, bathed and got dressed in a half an hour. He wore his blue, yellow, black, and white uniform since this was the proper dress for his occupation and wedding. Willy did the same.

"Who's car we takin'?" Willy asked, (413)

"Let's take my Ferrari," Edmund suggested.

"Alright, let's go," Willy replied. "One question, can I drive."

"Fu-- you man," Edmund said, "I've seen what you drive."

"Ah shut up," Willy stuck up for his car, "my tracker could bill that beautiful piece of shi-."

They drove to the Space Force base where they then boarded a shuttle to the S.D.C.

"You nervous?" Willy asked Edmund.

"Nah," Edmund answered, "I've done this before you know."

"Yeah," Willy replied, "that's true."

They boarded the S.D.C. went to the bridge. Edmund peered in, "ah just in time."

"Who's gonna marry you guys anyway?" Willy asked.

"Captain Sellers," Edmund answered.

"No shi-! He got promoted?" Willy replied.

"Yeah," Edmund said. Edmund peered in and saw Mr. Bellere, Gerry Garrison, Bart Senior, Bart Junior, Captain Neff since the Petya returned, Mrs. Dike, the whole Space Force, Kat, M. J., E. J., Cestron, and Mike Speed.

"Aye, too bad Pook couldn't be here," Willy told Edmund.

"Yeah, along with Billy, Acro, Pussy, and P. J.," Edmund replied.

"It's starting," Kit walked up in a beautiful dress. The music sounded.

"Shi -," Edmund said to himself, "I've gotta see what the Gude looks like." Edmund and Kit locked arms as they walked down the aisle slowly.

Willy waited for Maikva as Edmund and Kit reached the end. Willy locked arms with Maikva as they preceded down the aisle.

Edmund's mouth flung wide open. He saw his wife-to-be in a pink and white dress. Her body fit the dress beautifully. She wore white high heels. Her dress was long with a long veil being dragged by E.J.'s friend C.J. Marikwa did not wear a veil over her face but she did have a head piece. The dress had beads and was strapless. It showed a little chest to Edmund was almost to the point of drooling. Everybody was soon in position. The music stopped.

"Friends, family, and associates," Captain Sellers began, "we are gathered here to join this man and this woman in holy matrimony. If anybody objects, please speak now or forever hold his or her peace. "nobody said anything.

Captain Sellers continued, "very well. Edmund, the ring." Willy pulled the ring out of his pocket and gave it to Edmund.

Edmund knew the routine so he took Marikwa's hand and spoke, "With 416)

this ring, I be wed, to hold and to cherish, in sickness and in health, forever and ever, until death do us part."

"Now Marileva, your ring," Mrs. Sellers told her."

Kit handed Marileva the ring. She too knew the routine, "With this ring I be wed, to hold and to cherish, in sickness and in health, forever and ever, until death do us part."

"By the power 'vested in me by President Deen," Mrs. Sellers said, "I pronounce you man and wife. You may now -- kiss the bride." Mrs. Sellers meant to say, fu -- the bride.

Marileva and Edmund held each other and gave each other a one minute kiss. When they finished, they got a standing ovation. Marileva looked into Edmund's eyes and Edmund into hers.

"One thing I want to know," Edmund asked, "where did you get my ring?" 417

"The same place you got mine," Marileva answered, "the Crystal Planet." Both of their rings were rare if not extinct crystals.

"Wanna go?" Edmund asked.

"But first," Marileva said, "we can't forget the reception."

At the reception it was time for the tossing of the garter and bouquet. Edmund removed the garter from Marileva's sexy legs and sniffed it. He then hurled it. The garter landed right in Willy Genovio's lap. Marileva bombed the bouquet and it landed in Kit's lap.

Kit and Willy looked at each other. "So you wanna dance?" Willy asked.

"Sure," Kit replied.

"Now let's get the fu-- outta here. Oh Willy," Marileva called, "take good care of the kids."

Marileva walked up to her mom, "You looked beautiful out there. You 418) keep him under raps. His father seems a little crazy. I wonder if that's hereditary."

"Yes mother," Marilva said upset.

"Take care," Mrs. Dike said.

"Oh, mother," Marilva replied as she walked off.

"That girl is so da-m fristy," Mrs. Dike said, "much like her father."

Cestron talked to his son, "You know what to do. Make it last."

"No doubt," Edmund said happily. They deviously grinned at each other, "I'll make you proud."

"There's your wife," Cestron pointed out, "go get her."

"Thanks Dad," Edmund said as he hugged his father.

Edmund and Marilva held each other as they walked out.

"So where are we goin'?" Marilva asked.

"Where ever you want," Edmund answered.

"How 'bout a trip to every romantic place there is?" Marilena suggested.

"Sounds good, as a matter of fact that sounds great to me," Edmund grabbed his wife and pulled her to him, he kissed her and then picked her up and carried her."

"Oh Edmund," Marilena said to her husband.

Back at the reception . . .

"Aye baby, wanna dance?" Cestron asked Mrs. Dike.

"With you, forget it," Mrs. Dike explained, "I certainly hope my daughter hasn't made a big mistake she'll regret with your son." Mrs. Dike walked off.

"What a bix -," Cestron said aloud.

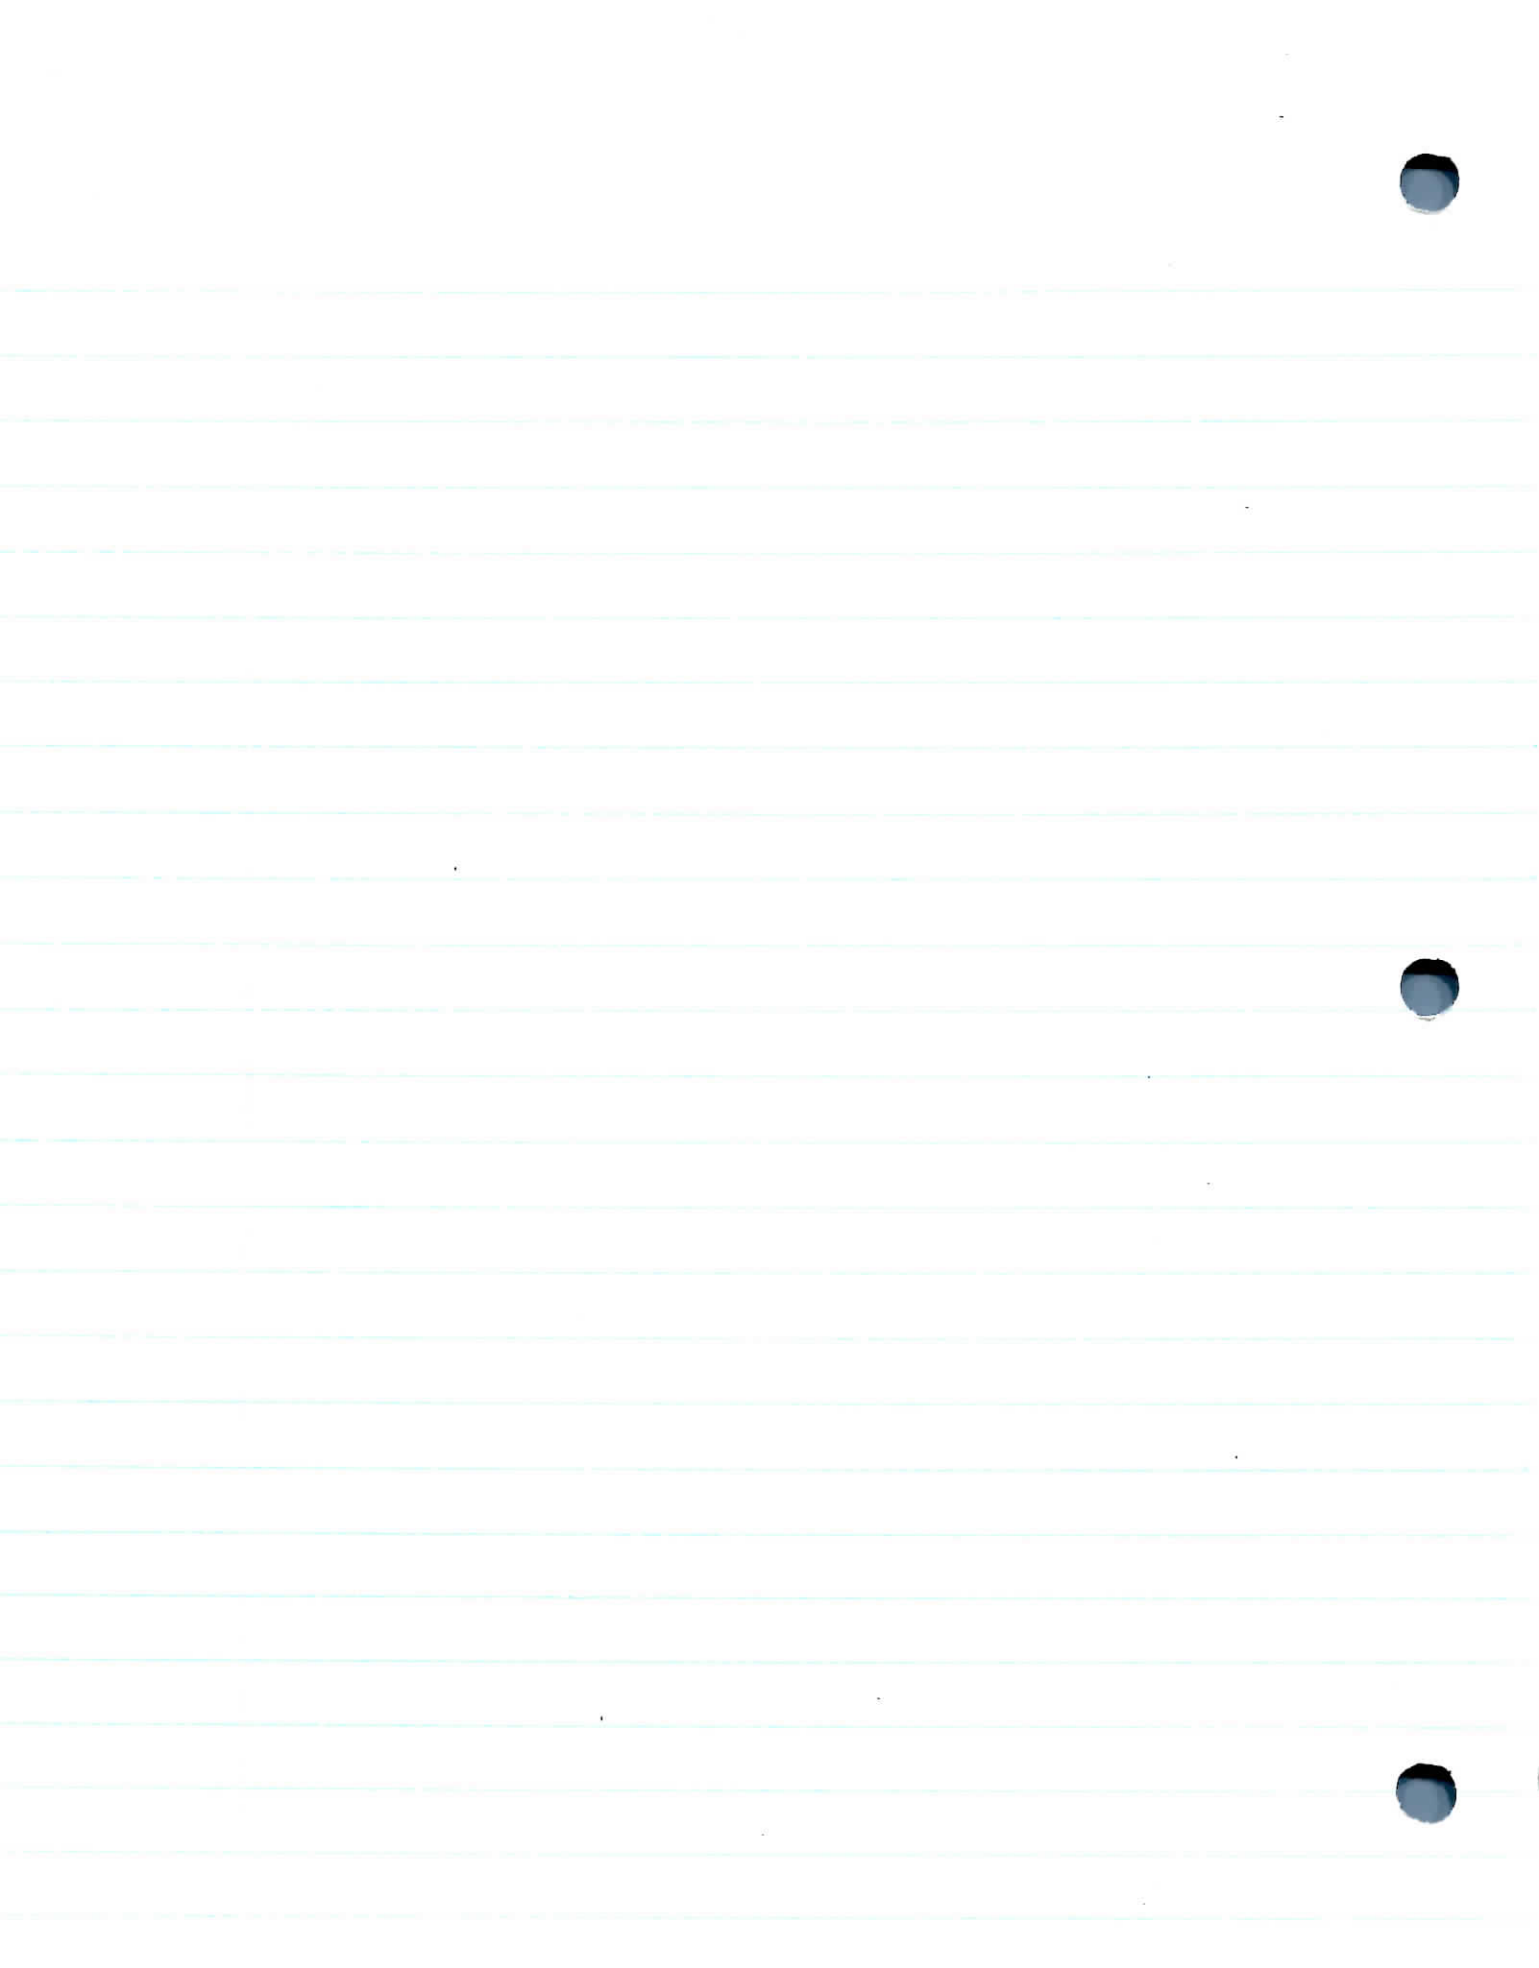

"Well, I never," Mrs. Dike walked out as everybody laughed at her. She was disgraced. She left.

Marilva thought back to Cestron,
"Thanks Cestron."

"Sure Marilva," Cestron answered.

On Earth...

When Edmund and Marilva landed they took the Terari to the house. Edmund opened the door and carried Marilva over the threshold. They packed their suitcases and got redressed. Marilva wore tight blue jeans and a white button down shirt. Edmund wore blue jeans a white shirt and his S.I.C. uniform jacket. They loaded the Terari and locked the house. The two lovers sped off down the road honking the horn and holding the gear shift together.

Chapter 73: What Happened Later

Edmund and Marileva Sims went on their honeymoon as planned and will not probably be in the next episode.

E.J. and M.J. are living with Willy Genovis and Kit. Yes Willy and Kit are now dating.

Deen has sworn Mr. Sellers in as captain of Space Station Colt.

Mike Speed has returned to work on the S.S.C. along with Kat, and Yart.

Cestron Sims is now Commander Sims.
He is Commander of Space Station
Colt.

Gerry Garrison is working on the mystery of the Crystal Cages. He finds Dorodans very interesting.

David S. Magowski had his brain repaired as well as reprogrammed.
He has told the Dorodans everything.
He also obeys the Dorodans completely and unquestionably. He is a slave.

D. J. Jevon remarried Commander but is not reprogrammed. D. J. is working as a spy because Erica Smith gave D. J. back his regular memory.

Erica Smith is also working as a space force spy. She looks at a picture of Edmund every night. She wants him but knows she can't have him.

And yes, Beavy Beave, is coming back to the series.

Chapter 74: Special Thanks to:

God, my family, my true friends (and I know who you are), as well as the usual (and I again know who you are).

S.S.C.: Space Station Colt 7: True Love

This is the longest and best Space Station Colt as well as one of Edmund's best total books.

In this book Edmund goes deeper into the Drama and Comedy Scene with this triumph.

It is action packed and has a great ending. Reader to see.
