This book is dedicated to my family,
the almighty, all Choose Your Own Adventure inventors, almost all rap and jazz groups that aren't prejudiced, almost all book writers, almost all sports and T.V. stars, almost all cartoon stars, my really friends, my associates, and my teddybears (every single one of them).
In other words this book is dedicated to almost everyone (you know what I mean (shit)).

Chapter 1: The Invasion

"This is your on the scene reporter for WFLD-TV. We are live at the scene where alien aircraft have devastated half of country killing billions of people. Survivors have fled from the south to a place where they call it Rebellion. It is north of where the so called Dorodans have set up their base. Spys call this place Dorado.

It seems that the fifty-two states have become the four Ununited States.

We have just gotten word in that the 59th president has been obliterated. Vice president Deem has taken over the position of president.

The Doradans have completely immobilized the armed forces. The last bit of rebels are trying to get to the safety of Yurtalia. The Doradans can not penetrate the force field over the large state. David S. Majewski is the leader and acting Governor of Yurtalia. We have heard that he is trying to pull everyone in charge together."

As David Majewski explained, "I have gathered all of you together for a very important meeting. Deem, Captain Ricardo, G. Gerrison, D. J. Jerne, Commander, Matt, and Mimla do you have any suggestions?"

The Deem stood up, "I do, G. Gerrison has been really working on a spacestation that would fight off the so called Doradans and help detect invasions miles away. Mr. Gerrison, please rise."

Mr. Gerrison acknowledged, "This spacestation would house hundreds of people and ships. It has fierce fire-power. I speculate that we could construct it in a little less than a year. In the mean time Matt and Mimla can join up with the Rebellion if they make it over to Gurtalia. They would team up against the Dorodans, I have elected Captain Ricardo as captain of the Space Force. Second in command will be Dr. J. Jerne. He has elected to select more agents.

If you walk with me through the corridor I will show the already constructed planes the force will fly."

As G. Garrison shows the council the planes the Rebels struggle to get over the Gurtalian border. Their leader, Sellers, tries to comfort them, "We're almost there. We can make it. Just one more mile and we'll be safe."

There is still one more spot where people have forgotten all about. California, a neutral state under the control of the Corporation, is being overrun by evil. There really is no way to describe the Corporation but mafia.

The Rebels are one minute away from their goal. Suddenly, out of nowhere comes the Dorodans! The Ranger Force counter attacks with the new air craft made by G. Garrison. The Rangers easily overcome the Dorodan 51 attack with two m. & a.'s. Matt and Mimla have been captured.

Chapter 2: The Draft

At the council:

D. J. Ferris proposes, "I say that we fight back! I have made up a list of agents to be drafted."

I chose Edmund Sims; Mike Speed; Sheriff Pook of San Fran, California; Erica Smith; Acro; Gant; and Marilena. Edmund is an expert con and a good leader. Mike Speed has a very interesting story. He was about to compete for the U.S.A. in the Olympics when he was shot by an Uzi and almost cut clean in half on the third lap of the race. G. Ferrison gave him synthetic bones and made his nerves longer so they'd reach his brain. G. Ferrison made Mike Speed into the one and only Bionic Sprinter. We caught Sheriff Pook trying to take out the Corporation. The two Depities were trying to help him save his wife. He has one son. Erica Smith is Edmund's girlfriend and the co-mechanic of the Spacstation. Acro is a master of Kung Fu. He won all of his tournaments. On a scale of three I'd say he is 2.9 behind Bruce Lee, the best. Yart is a perverted homosexual that has ties with the Corporation. He knows how to make bombs and make guns into new more deadly weapons. He is a formidable enemy but he is on our side, luckily, Marileva is a girl who can fly, use, or destroy anything. She is almost exactly like Edmund except she is feminine, luckily. These are who I hope will help us against the Dorodans. The only problem is how do we find Edmund, Yart, and Marileva. Since Mimba and Matt are missing Marileva will lead the Ranger Force. As you heard before the Ranger Force will team up with Sellers's Rebels. Ah, Sellers you made it."

"Yeah man, it's hell out their!

My people need food and water. Our supplies are meager. We lost half of the Rebels and three fourths of our supplies."

S. J. Jevre explained, "We'll take 81 care of you guys right now. We were just discussing how to get to the agents we're drafting. Once again I ask are there any ideas?"

"I have one," Sheriff Pook announced. "We could throw a blitz raid on the Corporation and try to get info on the agents."

Sheriff Pook led a force to San Francisco. In this force he took the two deputies, Acro, Mike Speed, and Erica Smith.

They stormed into the Corporation's base. Pook tapped on someone's shoulder, "Pook, what the fag are you doin' here!" Acro explained, "I guess you know him."

Edmund explained, "Know him, I grew up him. What are you doin' here? I have Marilva and Gary setting bombs. We've got to get out of here. The patrols are coming! Erica lookout!"

"Grease!" a patrolman said as Erica went down.

"Noo!" Edmund screamed as he pulled out an Uzi.

Acro jumpbucked a few of them. Mike used his bionics to fire a spread of bullets. Pook and his Lepities used their Betsy ropes to unarm the patrolers. The patrolmen were gone as soon as Marilena and Fart came.

Marilena asked, "Come on Edmund. Oh my God! I'm so sorry! I didn't know."

"It's okay," Edmund said.

"Come on Edmund, let her go. We'll all die if we don't get out of here! Who are all of these people anyway?"

"Come on Fart," Marilena tugged him.

They escaped from San Francisco and made it to Turtalia. They made it away from near death only to have to face Captain Ricardo, "You three are goin' to jail. You're a bunch freakin' vigilantes. One of our drafts was murdered because of you."

"Can I say something?" Edmund asked.

Ricardo answered, "Shut up! Just shut your con artist, short anatomy, freakin, no good, dirty rotten, B.S. up until I tell you to announce yourself, got that!"

"But, I gotta go take a piss," Edmund squeezed out those words.

Ricardo continued, "Shut up Dick wad, you're goin' to jail on counts of 101!"

Chapter 3: The Trial

Mike Speed asked, "Where's Fart, Pook?"

"I heard he was in solitary confinement. The Deem is really pissed. I really don't think they have a chance. They've got Ricardo and Commander on the prosecuting side. I'm in charge of guarding them on the third hour."

Acro replied, "I really can't blame the Deem for bein' mad. Sims, Fart, and Marileva have records. Matt and Mimba have been captured. Half of the Rebellion is dead. Erica Smith is dead. What else could go wrong?"

"Gurp, get over here!" Mike explained. "Aumor says the Deem is gonna be the judge. If the three go to jail, Jurtalia might be doomed. We can't do III it on our own."

"I got an idea," Pook reasoned. "We can bust in and save 'em. Deputy Pinky, and Deputy Bill will get us a ship. I can call in my old friend Willy G. He's a sharpshooter from my grade school years. We can also kidnap G. Garrison."

Mibe complied, "Why should we call kidnap Garrison?"

Pook answered, "He's an old buddy of mine and so is G. J. Jerne."

Later in San Francisco:

"A corporation guard entered, "Someone to see you boss."

A tall man with blond hair and glasses walked in, "Hello, Mr. Osprey."

"What do you want," Osprey asked.

"Let me get right to the point."

"I should hope you do."

"My name is Haven. I have heard a lot about you. I'd like to strike a deal. Come with me."

"Why?"

"I'll give you information if you can get me into Gurtalia."

"What kind of information?"

"Information on defense systems" 121 of the world. All I want is the plans to the new space station the Jurtalians are going to put up."

"How would you know about that?"

"One of the Jurtalians is an informer."

"Hum, what's the name of your group?"

"We are called the Crystal People but you can call us the Dorodans."

"Guards!"

The guards pulled out their Uzis.

"Guns are totally useless against us, I will show you Mr. Osprey. Haven raised his hand and a crimson circle showed on a guard's shirt over his heart as he fell to the ground dead."

Osprey clicked his fingers and the guards put their guns down, "What can I do for you?"

"You heard what I want Osprey."

"But why would you want that?"

"I need a place for my people to live where we can watch and take over your world. As I said before follow me."

Back at the trial:

Captain Ricardo, "These three are [5] guilty of 3 counts of treason each, 3 counts of murder each, 1 count of grossness, 1 count of vigilantism, 2 counts of insulting a junior and senior officer, 1 count of belching on a junior and senior officer, and 1 count of using explicit language.

Edmund stood up, "Can I say something?"

The Deem acknowledged, "Yes."

Edmund screamed, "Freeze! Mibe, get the Deem, Ricardo, Yerrison, Jerne and let's get the heck out of here. Acro, take out the guards! Where's the ship?"

"Over here," Pook explained. "We planned everything out. Here's the NorthWay space cruiser."

Back at the court, "The Deem has been captured. I'm Commander, and in control. I order the Ranger Force to attack."

Sellers steps up, "Commander, let him go. He's innocent. I've dealt with him before. He knows what he's doing. Please tend to my rebels."

"I guess we could do that, but I still want the Ranger Force after them."

On the Northway Ship:

Edmund ordered, "Pook, set a course for San Francisco. We're going to drop off the depities. Jeremy is already takin' care of your son and his best friend."

Acro asked, "Who's Jeremy?"

Edmund replied, "He's a rebel. I've helped the rebels before so they're on our side. Marilena, patch me in with Commander. Hello Commander?"

"What do you want you juvenile?"

"I want the Ranger force and the Rebellion to search the whole area for Matt and Mimla. I speculate if the Dorodans are high-tech they are able to get information out of them easily. Put Sellers on."

"Dime," Sellers answered, "Is that all you need?"

"I'm gonna drop the Depities off and try to get to Sam Osprey of the Corporation."

"Where are you taking everyone else?"

"I can't tell you that. The line might be tapped. See ya!"

"Hold on!" Commander tried to add before the communication was ended.

"Where are you taking us?" Picardo asked.

"Sit down and shut up, dickwad," Edmund answered.

"You do realize that you are guilty of 12 counts. This is enough for a death sentence." The Deem added.

"Edmund replied, "Trust me Deem, I know what I'm doing!"

Marileva came in, "We're here. We're in Corporation territory."

"Tell Pook to land 'er." Edmund ordered. "Yerrison, feed the coordinates of Spacestation into the computer. Fart, Marileva, Acro, Pook, and Mike, come with me. It's payback time. Osprey, your balls are mine!"

Chapter 4: Countdown to Destruction

In Corporation territory:

"Edmund, come with me," ordered Marileva.

"Gladly," answered Edmund.

Back at the Northway ship:

D.J. Jerve said, "Sit down Ricardo."

Ricardo answered, "You're in this to? I promise, all of you are going to jail! Put the gun down. I am higher authority so you must listen to me."

"Hello everyone," a voice sounded. "I am Haven and you are my prisoners."

Jerve pointed the gun at Haven and fired. Haven's force field protected him,

"Everyone out the back exit!"
yelled Ferrison.
"Stop them!" Haven ordered.

Back at the main building of the Corporation.

"Help!" the runaways yelled.

"This is no faggin' fair!"
Edmund screamed. "I never will ever get to Sam without interruptions."

"Horodans!" Jerone yelled. "They're after us! Run!"

"Oh no! Guards" screamed marileva.

"Shh, this way." a voice said.

"Jeremy, do you have a ship?"
Pooh asked.

"Yeah, come on, next stop
Space Station Colt. We're goin' underwater!"

"Just get us out of here,"
D. J. added.

"Here she is," Jeremy explained.
"Five years of work was put into this baby. The S.D.C. 204122124780."

"Uh, uh, I'm in total control and I say you're all fired!" added Ricardo. 181

D. J. submitted, "I'm afraid he's right. The Deem and he are in total control. We are officially untitled, undrafted, vigilantes. We are now rebels."

The Deem replied, "Captain Ricardo, can't you just shut up for a change. D.J., forget what he said. We need you. Jeremy and Jerry Ferrison, that is your name isn't it?"

"Yes sir," Jerry announced.

"Well then, I want you two to show us the ship."

"You can start Jeremy," Jerry reasoned.

"O.K., This ship is as big as a half of the U.S. That is why we built it underwater. This secret mission gave a lot of willing poor people jobs. This ship is measured in sixths. One sixth has the bottom engine thrusters. Another part is the cell compartment for criminals. Another part is the docking bay for ships to blast off and land in. Another part is the housing department. Another is the thrusters for the front part of the ship. The last part is the place where it disconnects and it can travel one seventh times faster. The ship has light speed, warp 171 speed, and a thousand day warranty.

Take it away Jerry."

"The ship also comes with accessories. For the Space Cops they have Speed Cycles. For you agents we have a large space cruiser. I know you'll love these Edmund."

"Wow!" Edmund exclaimed.

"Yeah it's the mini ship that is the most maneuverable, heavily armed, ship you'll ever fly next to the Speed Cycles. And last but not least the Horse Ship. It has trillions of horse power and this is the oldest fighter next to the Northway Ship." Gervison explained

A Space Cop came in the room, "We're under attack! It looks like Dorodian cruisers. Should I order Officer Spitty to blast off?"

Everyone yelled, "Yeah!"

Edmund added, "I guess we're going to be able to blast Space Station Colt off for the first time and test all this artillery on those Dorodians."

Everyone else replied, "Yeah! Alright! Let's get them muthas! Ha ha!"

Chapter 5: Orientation

Down at San Francisco:

"Haven, you lost them!" Osprey exclaimed.

"Fear not, give me a few of your men and I will take you to where I've stored the captives."

"Stored them?"

"Yes, I have stored them in my crystal cages where I will learn all of their information. They will be brainwashed and turned into crystal people like me. How do you think we found out about the underwater base? Now on to the ship. My men are already trying to overcome the S.D.C."

Back at the S.D.C.:

Acro explained, "We better get 211

some fighters up or we're doomed."

"Any volunteers?" Garrison asked.

"Edmund, Marileva, Pook, and Speed. Follow me and I'll show you your suits. See the insignia. Pull it and you can easily bail out of your ship quick and effectively. Jeremy, help me get them in the ship. Here's your headset Marileva."

"Thanks, this seems easy enough," she boasted.

"Just push the thrust button," Jeremy explained.

"Remember I can work anything," Marileva said.

"Good luck guys and oneals," Aero wished.

The four ships flew out in a formation with Edmund as their leader, "Pook and Mike, stay in wing position. Marileva, cover the back. D.D.C. we need back up with that heavy artillery you shot off your mouths about."

Aero answered, "Yen four buddy."

Edmund asked, "What's the situation Marileva?"

She replied, "We've got ten bogies and one cruiser. Watch it Edmund."

Edmund answered, "Thanks a lot." 22

Edmund, Pooh, Mike, and Marileva flew swiftly taking out all the bogies. It was time for the cruiser.

Pooh reported it's too powerful for our ships. I request permission to return to the S.S.C."

Edmund answered, "Let's return before we're out of range and can't get back."

Mike screamed, "Marileva, watch your tail!"

"Aw!" she screamed

"Marileva!" Edmund shouted.

"I can make it back. Don't worry. They only took out one of my thrusters."

"S.S.C. open bay doors," Edmund ordered. "Garrison, hurry!"

"Edmund, someone destroyed our auxiliary power circuits. And we've lost total p-----."

"Jeremy," Mike blurted out.

"Help! They're pulling me in with a tractor beam," Marileva said in despair.

"I've gotta save her!" Edmund explained as he flew into the cruiser without being detected.

"Hello, Mike," Jeremy explained, "We got our power back."

The two ships flew in.

Pook asked, "What happened here? Edmund and Marilera are gone cause of you so called technicians!"

"How are we gonna tell the Deem?" Mike asked.

"Hey guys," said Mr. Spitty. "Is there something wrong? Did I do something?"

"You sure did," Mike explained. "Two of our men have been probably captured because of you. How are we gonna tell Captain Ricardo?"

"Don't," Pook said. "We could throw him in the brig and get Yart. Let's take a seven day leave of absence. Let's go get one from D.J."

At the Dorodan cruiser:

"Get me go!" exclaimed Marilera. "I won't tell you a thing."

"I am Haven. Nice to meet you to. Get the needle to prep her for the crystal cage. This won't hurt too much my dear."

"One, uh," Marilera said as she fell out.

"Put her in the cage," Haven ordered.

In another part of the cruiser:

Edmund stood wearily, "I've got to save her."

"Grease intruder!" a guard said.

Edmund fell to the floor and tripped a guard. He pulled out his laser and shot another.

A voice sounded, "I've been expecting you." A body materialized in front of Edmund. He raised his gun and fired. The blast ricocheted off the entity and brocked Edmund down.

"Ohhh," Edmund moaned.

"Welcome. I am Haven. You might have heard of me. This is my ship. Look at the monitor. This is Sofan. He is what I use to get information out of my captives. Over here is the Crystal cage where you humans are brainwashed and turned into us Dorodans."

"Why are you taking over the earth?"

"We have used up all of our resources and we need more people so that we can generate fetuses so that there will be more and more of us. Your female humans are perfect for breeding more fetuses. Your males are 251 easily changed into mature soldiers that are completely under my control."

"It figures," Edmund added.

"We already have three of your humans. Two female and one male. I believe their names are Matt, Mimla, and Marileva. Marileva sure is a lively one. I like that in a wife."

"Are you married yet, is she one of you yet." Edmund said still in pain.

"He answered to both of your questions is no. Marileva is being prepped for the crystal cage. Matt and Mimla are already in my power. They will start breeding in a month. In the meantime I will have them setup your friends so they will be Crystal People. Then no one can stop us ever!"

"Why are you telling me this?"

"Your memory will be blanked anyway and we've got the time."

"That's what you think, you white bread, chicken shit, mutha-freakin', son of a ----!"

Chapter 6: The Big Setup

Back in the Monitor Room:

Edmund, still stunned from the laser, tripped Flavena and limped for his life.

Back at the D.S.C.

The three were flying back to earth in search of help. They landed in Jurtalian Airport.

"You guys stay here," said Mike. "I'm gonna run to Denver Central (D.C.)."

"Good luck," Fart explained.

Pooh asked, "Why do they call you Fart?"

"Well ever since I was small, how can I describe this I was born in a toxic waste zone, I wasn't deformed or 27 mettin'. My I.Q. was like reduced by about one hundred points. I had to go to all kinds of mental centers. When I was eighteen I joined the Corporation as an informer for the C.I.A. where I met Edmund and Marilva. It was the only thing I knew how to do. Those two really helped me through tough times. Now they're gone."

"They still might not be gone. Edmund's tough. He can handle himself." Pook explained.

Back at D.C.

Mike explained, "Dave, I need your help. Edmund and Marilva have been captured. Our little force is in trouble with law."

Commander came in, "Rangers, arrest him."

Mike easily fought them off with his bionics. Commander brought out her gun and shot Mike. He started sparking up.

"Put him in the laser cell where he can't escape," Commander ordered.

"Dave please, you were his best friend! Pleeeeaassse!" Mike said as he was dragged away.

"Why'd you do that Commander. You may be of higher authority but I have the last word around here." David explained.

"Word just in sir. The Ranger force found Matt and Mimla." a man said.

David explained, "I'll talk about this later. Sellers, get a few of your rebels and let's go."

Back where Pooh and Sartore:

"What about you, Pooh?" Sart asked.

"Well I grew up with Edmund so we were really good friends. When I was older I became a sheriff. I met Billy another master of Kung Fu. He left to pursue his roots and go to college. I met this other deputy. His name is Pirby but his friends call him Acro. He's a double identity superhero. I got married to a girl named Pussy. She was kidnapped by the Corporation and I haven't seen her since. She left me a son and a daughter to take care of us. My best friend's brother is taking care of her and Jeremy or sometimes Edmund is taking care of P.J."

"I feel sorry for you, Pook."
Gart said.

"No you're not."

"Yes I am."

"No you're not."

"Yes I am."

"Shut up!"

"Awe right."

Back at the space cruiser:

Edmund ran through hundreds of halls pursued by armed Dorodans. He had finally regained his strength. Luckily he had passed a weapons depot. He was now armed with high-tech ammunition.

He had finally lost the guards. Edmund was now in a house of mirrors. To his surprise he was in the room of the Crystal cage.

"I knew I'd find you here sooner or later," Haven reasoned. "You'll never get her back. You have to get past me first. Ha, ha, ha!"

"I've got to time this just right," Edmund mumbled. He aimed it.

Haven raised his arm. He was trying to paralyze Edmund! Luckily Edmund got a shot off that bounced off Haven knocking him unconscious and breaking open the cage. He had freed his girlfriend," are you alright, Marilena? Speak to me. Did they hurt you? Come on, my especially ship's ready to go." He carried her to her ship. His ship followed by soldiers. He was ten miles away from Space Station Colt. Edmund used his turboast to jet right past the Dorodan patrolers. "Don't worry, we're almost there."

Back on earth:

"Mimla, Matt, are you okay," David asked.

"We are but you're not. Dorodans, attack!"

"Oh yeah," David replied. "Space cops, take 'em out! Thanks for the info Edmund. I'll have Mike out in a day. Commander, put that gun down!"

She shot and killed Matt and Mimla, "Dorodans capture Sellers and Majewski!" She aimed at David.

"Not so fast, Commander!" Fart said flying a mini-ship. "Come on guys. We're goin' to Space Station Colt. Just in case you're worryin' we busted Mike out of the joint."

Back at the D.S.C. emergency center;
"How is she 'erry?" Edmund asked.

"We were able to revive her. The drug the Dorodans gave her really put her out. You're lucky you got her here soon. She might have become a Crystal person or she might have died. I have some good and bad news. The bad news is that you didn't get her away from that Crystal cage fast enough.
She's half Dorodan and half human.
But she's more human. The good news is that she knows who the informer is. David Majewski said you told him about Commander. Are you ready for the other good news?"

"Yeah." Edmund said.

"She's, how can I say this? She's pregnant with your child."

Edmund fainted, "Holy shet!"

In the council room of the D.S.C.
She Steem explains, "I have called all of you here together because I say we should blitz the Dorodan cruiser. That way we will take care of Heaven for good. But another problem has been brought to my attention.
I have heard that someone really close to no but so very away is an informer. It is none other than Mrs Spitty.

Mr. Spitty stood up, "So you found me out!" He underwent an awesome transformation. He was now a clown, "Everyone freeze! or the old geezer gets it! Dorodane!"

"God dog, it! Who the hell in this world aint a Dorodan!" Edmund exclaimed "Oh crap, we're under attack again!"

"You're mine, Edmund!" exclaimed Sam.

"Sam, don't do it they want all humans dead! They don't give a crap about the Corporation! They set your anatomy up! I thought you would understand about usin' people since you've done it so many times." Pooh explained.

"Never mind, you always gave me trouble Sims," said Captain Ricardo as he too underwent an awesome transformation. "I am the glove! You are my prey Sims!"

"Wh oh," Edmund gulped. "Marilwa, what are you doing here?"

She answered, "Catch!" She through blasters down for us to use.

Glove easily blasted Edmund toward the wall. Edmund fought back valiantly but the Glove was too strong. Glove's partner Claw was about to end it for Edmund when Marileva used her alien strength to make Claw stab himself. He disintegrated. Mike tried to stop Glove but he was too strong. Edmund got into a spaceship. Glove rashly jumped on the ship. Edmund pushed the turbo boost button. It was too much for Glove to stand. He flew off somewhere deep in space.

"Goodbye you sorry anatomy, weak anatomy, son of a b ----! Dickwad!" Edmund exclaimed happily. "Glove's the situation D.S.C.? I'm comin' home. You!"

Back at D.S.C.

"We're still got to take care of the cruiser," explained the Deem, "Put her in warp speed."

They were in range of the cruiser in no time. "We're under attack Edmund," said the Deem.

Edmund answered, "Get the planes in the air. You to Marileva."

Edmund, Marileva, and Yart set bombs inside right under Haven's nose. The planes devastated the base and all in it fairly easily, but was the end of the Dorodans? Did Haven escape with Commander? Were the the Dorodans able to breed more Fetuses?

NO!

THE END

NO!

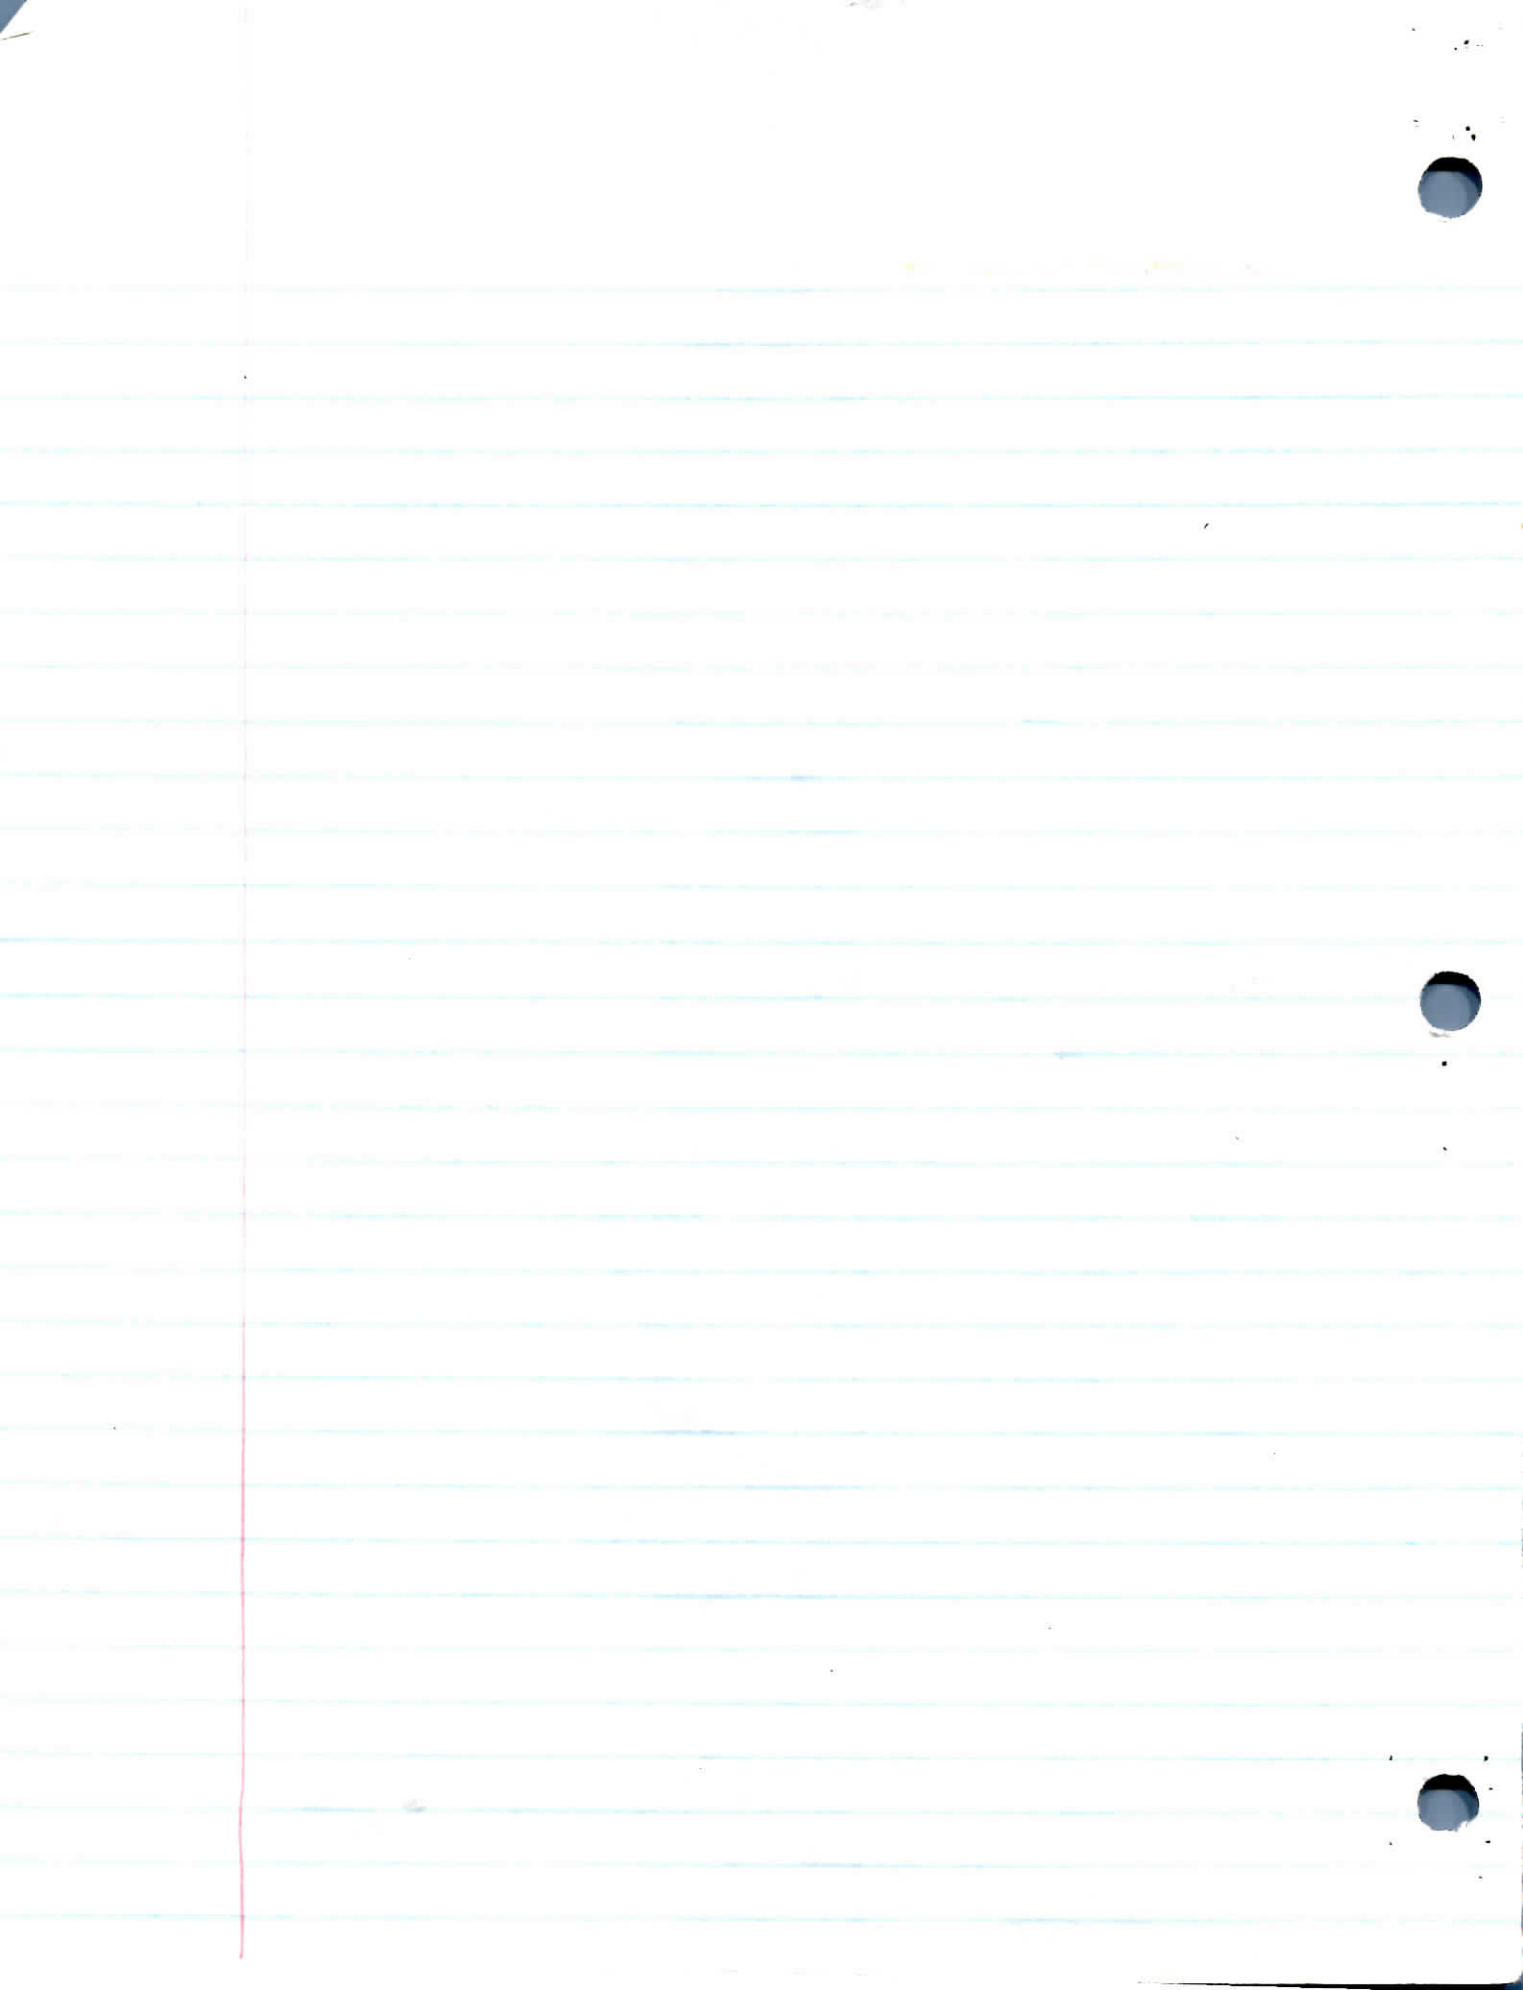

Chapter 7: Thanks

In the Honor Room

"I the Deem give out the medals of honor to Edmund Sims, Mike Speed, Sheriff Pook, the Depities, Gerry Ferrison, Gart, D.J. Jevne, Sam Aprey, David Majewski, Mr. Sellers, Marileva "Sims", and last but not least Jeremy. You saved the earth from the Corporation, destruction, devastation, and Dorodans. Give them a hand!"

They were all congratulated and got a standing ovation.

Thanks What!!

Chapter 8: Epilogue: What Has Become of Our Heroes?

A few years later:

Edmund married Marilena: and had a son that was just like his parents. His name is E. J. Sims.

Orbie Speed became a counselor for handicapped children but he is still a pilot.

Sheriff Pook now lives with his 10 children and his son's best friend, Pussy, his wife had already escaped from the Corporation, this is when they started making mistakes.

The Deem has been finally swam in as the fifty-six "United States".

Both of Depities have joined the Ninja clan to become absolute masters of the art.

Gerry Gervison has solved most of the puzzling scientific questions. Example: quasars. He is now a teacher of college kids majoring in any science. He also tutors.

Willy G. never came in the story because he was one of the spies that was captured by the Dorodans. He was released after the final remaining Dorodans were driven out. He finally answered Pook's call and is now an ace pilot like Edmund.

Erica Smith, Matt, and Mimla were buried in the Garden of War. It is a cemetery in Denver, the capital of Gurtalia.

Gart has gone to college and received his diploma. He is almost as smart as Gerry Gervison. He made it through with the help of Pook's money and Gerry's tutoring. 38

D. J. Jevre has been promoted to Captain of the Space Force since the blow is gone somewhere out there. He is a very effective leader.

Dam Osprey has become leader of Gurtalia since the Corporation has been totally destroyed.

David Majewski has become Vice President of the United States because of his quick thinking and wits.

Sellers has buckled down to become a sharp shooter pilot for Space Station Colt.

Marileva, as you know is happily married to Edmund. She has become leader of the Ranger Force and has buckled down to be an effective mother.

Jeremy has become second in command of the Ranger Force. His spy days are over. Vigilantism is over. He is now an official leader.

Space Station 101

This is Edmund's largest ever novel.

Can our heroes save the Russians and reunite the 56 Ununited States? Beade'er to find out. Can they also find out about the one informer? It's one foggingly mysterious mystery. Can you solve it? It's also a little humorous

SOLO

This was one of Edmund's best novels next to My Football Carrier.
- Mrs. Kajiwara

This was one electrifying book. I liked it. - Winnie the Pooh Bear.
