Chapter 102

At the Sims household...

"Why not, Edmund?" Commander asked.

"It's just not right," Edmund said honestly.

"Bull shi-! Angelica is not comin' back. You know you want me,"

Commander pulled up a chair at the kitchen table, "I don't know why I never use this ring."

She sat on Edmund's lap in her red and black outfit. She was wearing a black gloves. She had straightened her hair. She took off her black highheels and put her arms around Edmund.

"Step off mother," Angelica walked in.

"No, it's not possible!" Edmund pushed the stunned commander on the floor. She ran into her room and checked her test tube. There was a crack. "Shi-! Oh well." She went back in the room and hugged her daughter.

"Ahh," Edmund replied.

Commander and Angelica held hands. Commander slipped a golden ring on her daughter's finger. It was exactly the same as her golden ring and the ones she put on Edmund and Billy.

"Why'd you do that?" Angelica asked.

"I won't let my family go again. If you two ever do get hitched. Seeing as though you're the only family I've got, might as well stick together, you have terrible timing Angel."

Cestron came down with Mrs. Dike on his arm, "What the fu-- is goin' on down here?"

E.J. and M.J. came down the stairs, "Angel's back!" They ran and hugged Angelica.

"Did you see Haven's tube out there?" Cestron asked.

"Yeah, but what happened to my other half mother?" Angelica saw Mrs. Dike still on Cestron's arms, horny as fu--.

"One big happy family?" E.J. was confused. Commander had a grin on her face.

"You did that didn't you mother?" Angelica knew her mom's style.

"You're not mad are you?" Commander asked Angelica.

"No, I always knew she needed to loosen up, but not this loose," Angelica was honest. She thought to her mom, "Thanks for taking care of Edmund while I was gone."

"It was my utmost pleasure,"

Commander grinned.

"Wait don't leave us out," Cestron suggested.

"Speakin' of almost leavin' you out," Commander raised her hand and Mrs. Dibe fell out unconscious. She turned her palm up and pointed to Cestron. She signaled for him to come over.
He willingly walked over to her.
She raised ~~his~~ left hand and put a crystal ring on his wedding finger. She put her arms around Cestron and kissed him.

"Yo, what about Mrs. Dibe?" Edmund asked. "Why is she so da-n horny, she's squirming."

"I injected the pink dust into her blood stream. I decided against crystallizing her," Commander explained.

"So when's dinner?" Angelica asked.

"That's why we came in," E.J. announced, "dinner, is served."

"Your children are extraordinary," GM Commander praised them.

Angelica put M.J. in her baby high chair. Edmund and Cestron carried Mrs. Dike (literally) to her chair. Commander snapped Mrs. Dike out of the horny trance with the click of her fingers.

"What the he-- is goin' on?"

Mrs. Dike asked, "Where am I?"

"Oh great, we now have lil' miss bitc-, " Cestron announced.

"How dare you!" Mrs. Dike was angry. S.J. served the dinner.

"One more year," Commander replied.

"Yill what mother?" Angelica asked.

"I can't wait to teach M.J. about woman hood. I'll even give her her own golden ring when she finds a boyfriend."

"But she's human," Edmund said.

"Doesn't matter for the rings," Angelica looked at her gold ring.

"When do I get one of those rings?" Mrs. Dike asked.

"No, you don't," Commander said.

"When you stop bein' a bitc-," Cestron was already mad at her.

"You have no right to say that when you invite these nasty crystal things into my house," Mrs. Dike was mad.

"First of all this isn't your house, Angelica stood up but Edmund held her back. Commander raised her first finger and fired a beam between Mrs. Dike's eyes.
She fell out unconscious.

"What'd you do to my grandma?"
E.J. asked.

"Yeah, we love it," Cestron continued.
He shook Commander's hand.

Chapter 103: Work to do

Gerry walked into his father's office at the Space Force. "Do you think Xaver is finished?"

"Oh high son, not really. I say Commander exiled him. After all, he's the father of her children."

"So that's why we're working on these space stations?" Gerry was a little moey.

"Listen Gerry, I really suggest Dean is wrong. He says the reason for all of the high taxes is our crashing of the space stations. If this goes wrong and I can't do anything about it," Gideon whispered 6131 something very important into his son's ear.

At the White House...

"Are you sure this is right?"
Deen asked his son.

"Yeah I suppose. My advisor Mike Mason -," Deen was interrupted.

"Said it was a good idea," Mike Mason walked in. "We need a specification that is faster and more powerful than the S.S.C. When it's completely computerized, we won't lose human life. Nothing can reprogram the computer, except us of course.
It's impermeable. It's near perfection."

"Are you really sure about this?" Scott asked. "You've seen those S.S. programs where shialways goes wrong. What's the difference here?"

"Mr. D.J. Jones, Mr. Sellers, Jason Neff, and Ricardo are here," a Secret Service man announced.

"I'm sure they agree," Scott boasted.

"We sure do!" Neff pounded his fist on the furniture, "Why aren't we gonna have Petya?"

"You're going to be captain of an even better ship," Deen replied.

"The Atlantis," Mike Mason clarified.

"This is bullshi-!" Mr. Sellers exclaimed, "Since I'm gonna be Commander on the S.S.A., what do we do?"

"At least Jevne and Ricardo don't have to worry," Deen got off the subject.

"Your crew is as follows Neff," Scott listed, "Beavy Berve, Fart Jr., K.A.G., K.D.G., Mike Speed, and Jerry Garrison."

"We expect you to be gone by lunch," Deen ordered.

"Make your goodbyes short," Mike Mason ordered. The officers walked out.

"They probably think you're an as-hole, Mike," Scott announced.

"I hate that fu--in' as-hole!" Neff stomped toward his car.

Deep in space...

Graven's tube crashed on the alien planet that had Claw, Glove, and Sofon. Claw slashed open the lock.

"That bitc! Where the fu-- am I?!"

Graven was distraught.

"Calm down Graven," Claw ordered.

"I take my fu--in' orders from no one!" Graven exclaimed, "I give them!"

"We shall see," Claw said to himself. "Since you're the leader, what's the plan?"

"I don't know," Graven was still upset. "Let's try getting off this fu--ed up planet."

"Do you have a communicator on you?" Sofon asked.

"How could that reach the Crystal 667 Planet?" Glove asked as Haven connected his communicator to Sofon.

In the Atlantic Ocean...

<sup>Mike</sup> Brovy, Gart, R.A.G., R.D.G., and Jerry boarded the S.S.A. after saying their goodbyes. The last ones to come aboard were C. Neff and Mr. Sellers.

The whole crew stood at attention, "What are your orders sir?!"

"Well shi-, start 'er up," C. Neff ordered.

"I prefer to be referred to as Atlantis, super computer -44," the space station announced.

"Who the fu-- said that?" Gart asked.

"That's the computer <sup>Mike</sup> Mason wanted to run this whole thing," Jerry <sup>to</sup> announced.

"I hate smart as-computers," Mike replied.

"For your information," the computer spoke again, "I am much smarter than you and much more powerful. I am the best there ever was or ever will be."

"Awe fu--you, G.A.S. said.

"This is gonna be a long long trip," G.D.S. announced.

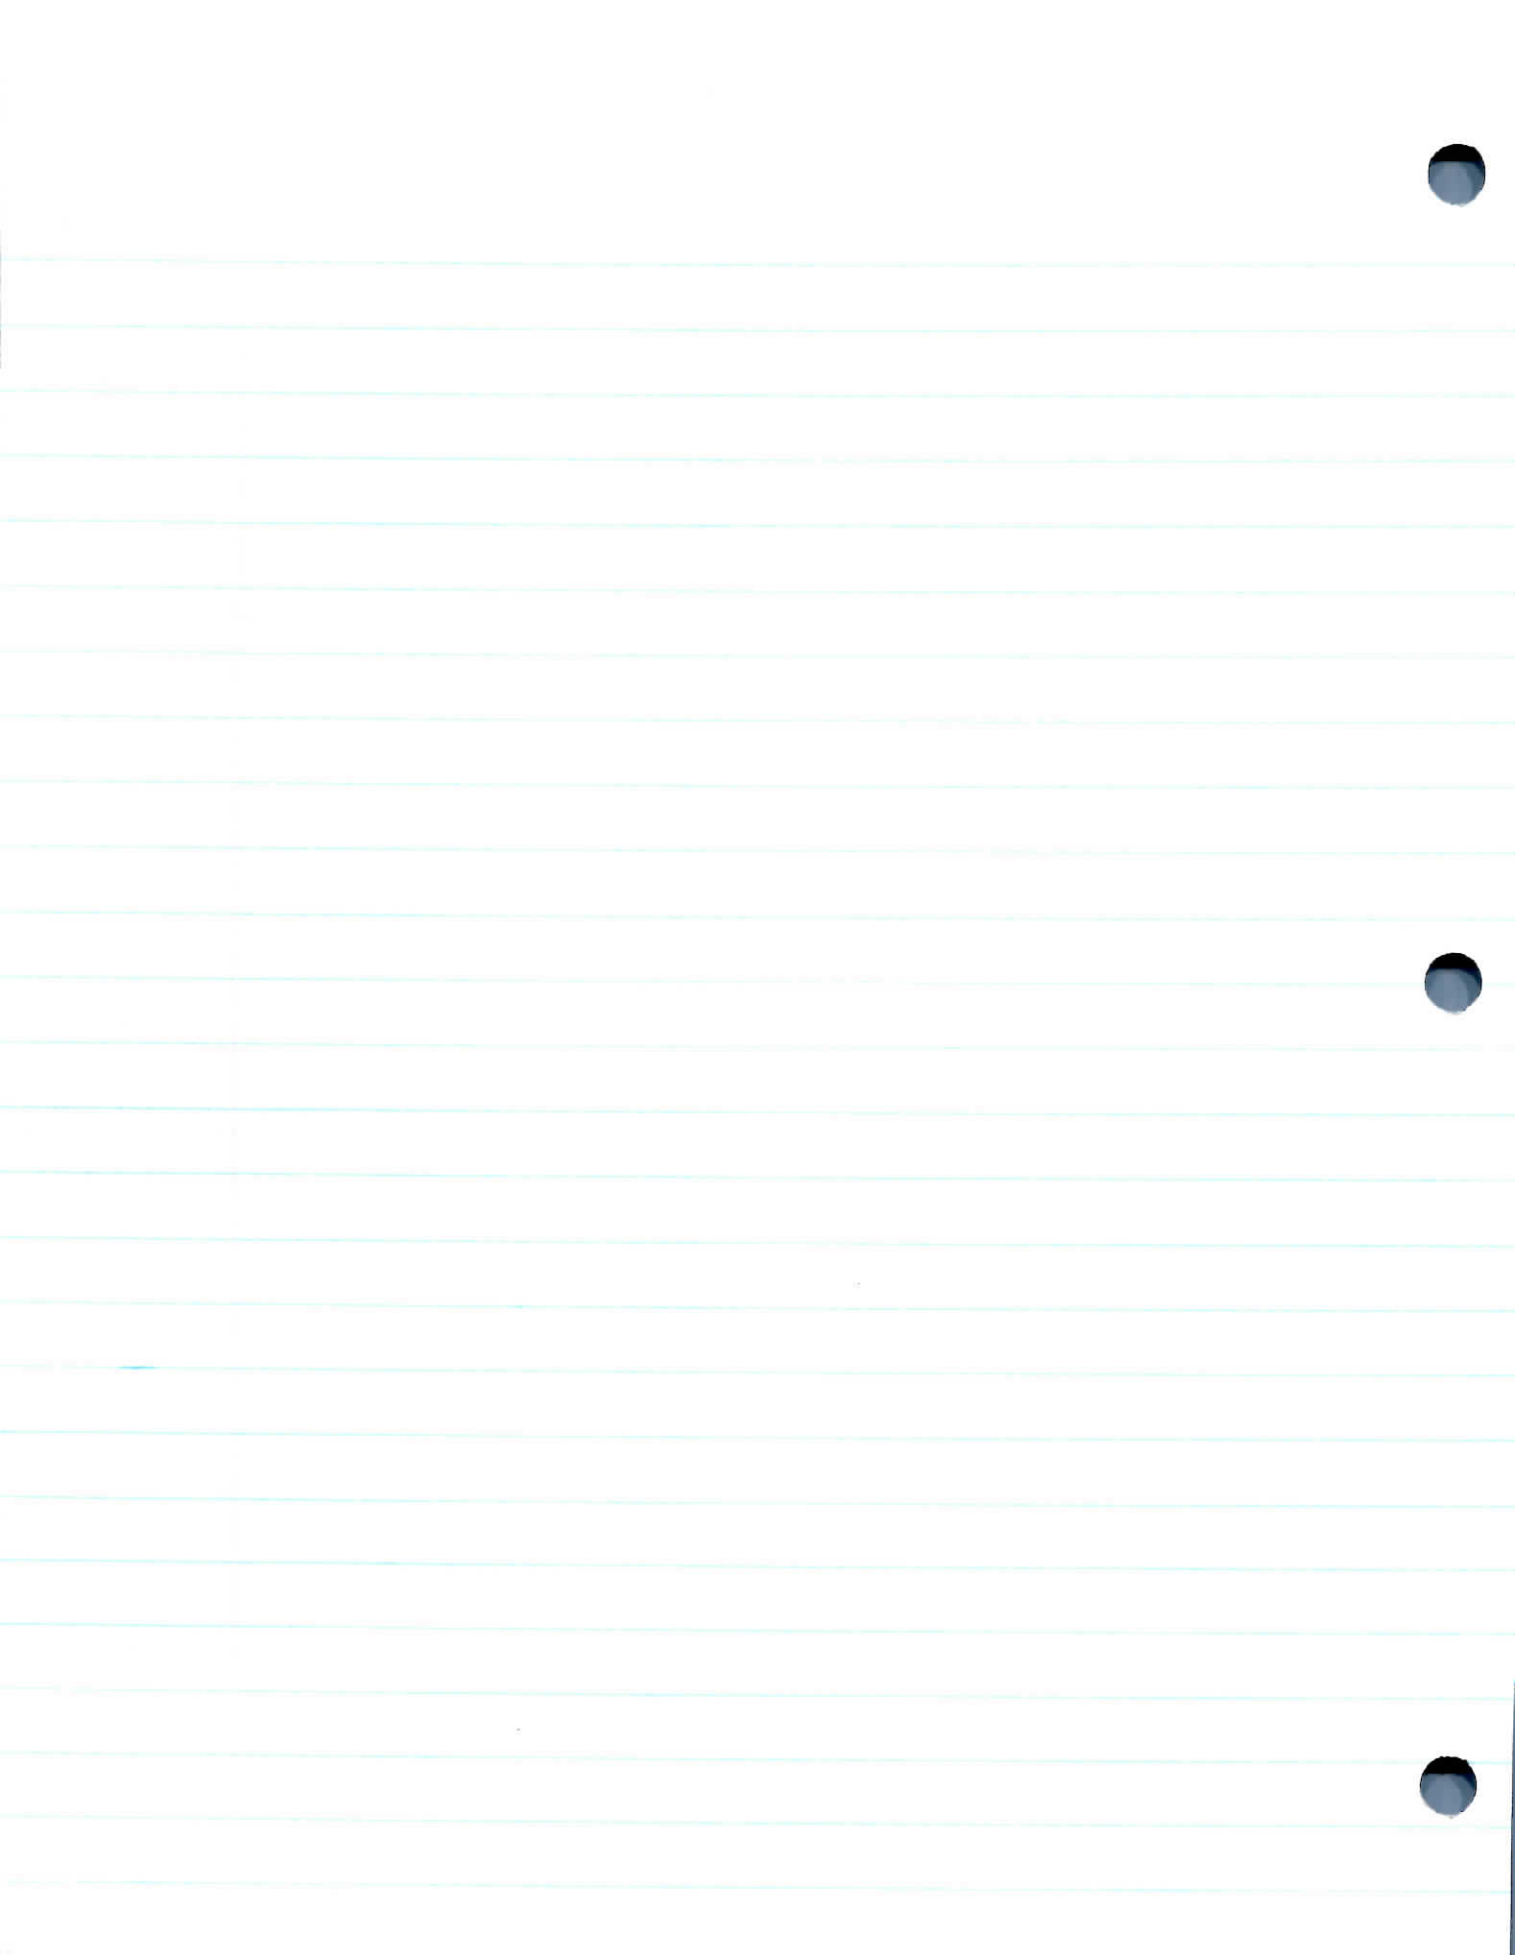

"C. Neff and Mr. Sellers," Gerry called them over, "I'm picking up a magnified transmission from the sector in which the alien planet is."

"Let's investigate," Mr. Sellers suggested.

"I agree," C. Neff said.

The space station's thrusters started up and the ship started moving. It had a runway of up to Hawaii. The ship took off from Hawaii, literally.

Chapter 104: Lovers Forever

"You miss Marileva don't you?"
Angelica sat next to Edmund on on a couch in his house.

"I guess I miss her fiery attitude," Edmund was honest, "after all, she had my kids."

"I'm sorry," Angelica was feeling guilty.

"It's not your fault," Edmund replied, "I guess it's my fault in a way. I rushed so much of this shi-marriage, sex, kids, in our first year."

"You didn't rush anything," Angelica reassured her boyfriend.

"I feel like I've let so many people down," Edmund was also feeling guilty, "Erica and me."

"That was out of your hands Edmund. You need to let go, but I'm not gonna force you like Marileva's clone did. It's behind you. She's moved on and so have we. What I wanna know is do you love my real mother?"

Edmund smiled, "So were you really close to her?"

"Don't answer a question with a question. Just tryin' to change the subject. Come on. Be honest," Angelica pleaded.

"Alright, I don't think I'd have a choice."

"I didn't ask that," Angelica stated.

"I felt sorry for her, and -."

"I know," Angelica read his mind, "I felt the same way."

"I guess I've had four girl-friends. You're two up on everyone. Good"

With Marleva's mind and all." Angelica smiled, "I'll be back, stay there. I'll check on the bids."

"Don't take to long Angel," Edmund called.

In Cestron's room...

"Where's your wife?" Commander asked a very personal question.

"Dead, slain by Standon," Cestron never lost his straight forward composure, "at least we got to Charlene in time. Claw killed all of our parents except Mr. Smith and Mrs. Smith. In labor, Glove ripped his way out. Mr. Smith, as you know is still alive."

"Do you ever show emotion?"
Commander was stunned that Cestron didn't show a sign of remorse.

"What good would it do? It won't bring emr back. What's done is done, and you can't change it."

"Are you crazy?" Commander asked.

Cestron looked at her, "Shut up and fu--."

"I'm not hovin' anymore kids," Commander announced.

"Oh neither," Cestron got on top.

"Where's your condom?" Commander asked.

"What condom, do you have an S.T.D.*?" Cestron replied.

"Of course not, doctors don't get diseased," Commander kissed Cestron, "I feel weird. I almost fu--ed Edmund. Now on screwin' his father."

"That's life," Cestron made love to her.

Back downstairs on the couch.

"What took so long," Edmund took Angelica's hand as she sat down.

"You know," Angelica replied.

*S.T.D. - sexually transmitted disease.

"So Billy's your brother?" Edmund asked.

"Yeah," Angelica answered as if she wasn't interested, "I love you Edmund."

"I love you too Angel," Edmund saw Angelica coming on to him, "So how are the bids?"

"Fine, fine," she put her hand over Edmund's penis. All of a sudden Edmund was excessively horny. Angelica put her free arm around Edmund and pressed up against him.

"Oh MY God!!" Ms. Dike came down the stairs. She saw Angelica and Edmund kissing madly. Then they slowed it down. Ms. Dike was distraught.

"Grandma," E.J. called.

"Yes," Ms. Dike said still stunned.

"Could you tuck me in?" E.J. asked.

"Again?" Ms. Dike replied.

"I had to go to the bathroom," E.J. led Ms. Dike up.

"Thanks E.J.," Angelica thought back to him.

"That's a great bid. I hate that bitc-y attitude! That's where Marilena 623 got it."

"Uh huh," Angelica agreed.

"She acts like sex is fu-- in' crime," Edmund was sick of Ms. Dike. "Really, do parents seem like the type to actually love you? Our parents?"

"Our parents -," Angelica paused.

"Yes!" the two lovers said together. They resumed the intercourse.

Chapter 105: Interception

"How fast would you like to go?" the space station asked.

"Aren't you already goin' at this high speed. Is it not your highest?" Benny asked.

"This is my slowest speed," the computer boasted.

"I hate this computer," K.A.G. replied.

"Believe me, the feeling is mutual," the computer said. As soon as it said it K.A.G. pulled her laser.

"K.A.G. stopped her from firing,"
"Don't do it sis. It's not worth it." 6257

"I am worth a lot more than you," the computer said to R.A.S.

"Blow that fu--er away," R.A.S. pulled his laser but C. Neff and Mr. Sells stopped them from firing.

"Cool it," C. Neff firmly ordered.

"C. Neff," Gerry announced.

"We are now at the alien planet," the computer stepped in.

On the planet's surface...

"A space station has just entered the atmosphere," Sofar replied.

"That doesn't look like Colt or Petya," Glove patted the humongous rubble that "was" the S.S.P.

"They picked up your signal," Claw told Haven.

"That's exactly what I wanted," Haven grinned as he entered the cave, "those fu--in' space force shi--s. They're so fu--in' stupid."

"So you've got the bodies of three beautiful women. Who gives to you a fu--?"

"You have Sadonjia's body and Marileva's," Claw deduced, "who's the other?"

"That's Virginia Kim," Haven explained, "a supermodel before we first invaded the Earth. I have big plans for these women." Haven hooked Sofan up to the freezer tubes.

"What do you plan to do Haven?" Claw asked.

"My greatest experiment. Is Virginia brainwashed yet?"

"Yes, she is," Sofan answered.

Haven continued, "This small starlike object, if placed on a human's forehead places them completely under these females' power. I call them the 'gems.' They are the most powerful Dorodans. I've given them a bunch of new, more powerful powers. I took your claw idea further. These claws have a venom (27) that when released into the bloodstream, completely nullifies the person's senses and body.

On board the S.S.A....

"So what's the plan?" Beavy asked.

"The only 'logical' thing to do is go down to the surface," the computer spoke.

"You know, you talk too much," Gert replied.

"Ruh, look who's talking," the computer got back at Gert.

"Don't worry about it," Mike patted Gert on the back.

"Who's goin' down?" Mr. Sellers asked.

"I'll go," Gerry said.

"Me too," Mike agreed.

"Count me in, I don't wanna hang around this da-m computer," Gert replied.

"The feeling is perfectly mutual," <sup>628</sup>

the computer got back at Zart again.

The three flew down in fighters armed with hand lasers. They split up.

"I only want Virginia rested for now," Raven freed Virginia.

Five minutes later...

Zart turned around to find a beautiful girl in a black catsuit*, "Who are you?"

"Help me, I need you," she said.

Zart dropped his weapon to the side and walked over to her, "How did you get here? You're a babe."

"Are you alone?" she asked.

"Why do you ask?" Zart was brave in putting his gun up again.

She ran up to him and hugged (629)

*A tight outfit him, "My hero. You're mine."

"What?" Zart asked as Virginia pushed him off. Zart opened fire and Virginia dodged the lasers.

"Who was that?" Jerry ran to where he heard the fire.

"Get off of me bitc-!" Zart was screaming.

"Don't worry, you won't feel a thing. As a matter of fact you won't feel a thing ever again," Virginia grabbed Zart's leg and pulled him toward herself. She raised her hand and a baby blue shot into Zart's back. It disappeared for a second and then a blue orb engulfed Zart and disappeared for good. Virginia turned him over, "How do you feel?"

"Relaxed," Zart was charmed. Virginia opened his mouth and proceeded to French Kiss him. (630)

A sticky latex film went down Gort's throat until all of his insides was completely coated. She then sprayed all of Gort's outsides. He was in a now hardened latex cocoon. He was unaware of anything. He was basically dead.

"Sleep well dear," Virginia left.

"Gort, oh my God!" Gerry was dumbfounded, "What the fu-- is goin' o- uh." His face scrunched up. He fell to his knees, completely null.

"You're the brain of the posse. Tell me the secrets to your space station," Virginia ordered while removing her claw.

"You-- - you," Gerry was to weak to use any emphasis.

"Very well then," Virginia injected her first finger claw 6311 into Gerry's forehead. His eyes closed immediately, "So that's your secret. I'll have to pay a little visit to your father." She was sucking a fluid out of his forehead. She laid Gerry down and removed her claw. She licked the remaining fluid off of one of the knives. She stored him in a latex cocoon also. She disappeared again.

"What's that sweet smeller' fragrance," Mike turned around to see Virginia in her cat suit with pink high heels and a pink claw. She touched him as he proceeded to run. He fell to the ground.

She got on top of him when he was struggling, "Don't fight me, you won't win." She held the star over his forehead. Mike was completely powerless as long as Virginia touched him. The star emitted an 632A electronic beam, placing Mike under Virginia's control.

Haven's freezer tube crash landed to Earth, "What a dream!"

On the alien planet...

"Fu--Haven," Claw replied, "I'm in charge now. I only need to hijack that space station."

On Earth...

"Fu--Claw! And his stupid ass-son too. I'm free to conquer this planet now. I only need an army."

Chapter 106: Piracy Diplomacy

Where Haven landed...

"Freeze as-hole!" Matt ordered.
"What the fu--?!" Haven was confused.

"We gotcha," Mimla smiled.
Mimla, Matt, and 1/3 of the Ranger Force stood around Haven with weapons posed and ready to fire.

"You can't dematerialize that fast," Matt announced.

"Shi-", Haven shook his head.
"We been waitin' for you," Mimla said. "We've got a nice gas tight cell for you. Oh and Commander said 'fu--off and die.'

At the alien planet...

"We have entered the atmosphere," the computer announced.

"We could see that," C. Neff replied.

"What are your orders?" the computer asked.

"Standby until further notice," Mr. Sellers ordered.

"We picked up the transmission," Jerry said, "I think you oughta hear this.

"I got another transmission!" K. & G. said. "It's priority two from the Space Force. They say they've captured Haven."

"Which Haven?" he materialized.

"Why didn't this fu--in' computer do anything?" Fort asked.

"I was told to stand by until further notice," the computer said. "I will take evasive action now." Fighters filled the space.

"Who are they?" C. Neff asked.

"Space Pirates," a feminine voice said as the door burned down.

G.A.Z. went for his uni but stopped as soon as he saw human Space Pirates boarding the ship.

Gerry turned to type in something but the female leader blasted him in the back with her laser, "You're not calling for help."

"Now come quietly."

Fart reached in his leather jacket for his mini uni. Claw threw a Chinese star hitting Fart in the chest.

"Hook up Sofan to the computer," Claw ordered.

"Make a run for it!" G.A.Z. ordered. Mike sped for the door but was blasted by a disrupter (36) beam. His circuits went crazy and he fell out in a sparked mess, "Awe my fu-- in' legs."

Mr. Sellers pulled an upi and sprayed the front line of the pirates. The female, Haven, and Claw took cover.

Beavy walked to the corner of the corridor for he was not in the cockpit, "Oh my God, I've gotta get help."

"You're not goin anywhere," a pirate stood in front of Beavy. He went for his weapon and Beavy punched him in his penis. The guard fell to the ground in pain. Beavy took the guard's weapon and ran to the docking bay.

Mr. Sellers, C. Neff, R.D.G., and R.D.G. escaped the cockpit. They were greeted by another mob of pirates. Death would be inevitable if they fought so they all dropped their weapons and surrendered.

"That was very wise of you," the female walked up in black highheeled boots, grey pants, a black belt, and a red and black top.

"Who the fu -- are you?" G.T.G. asked.

"They call me Serena," she announced.

"What's that computer doin' now?" G.T.G. asked.

"You see, the computer was created and drawn up by our spy," Claw explained. Mike Mason. Now Soban is in complete control of the station."

"Where'd you hook up with these pumped up fu -- ers?" Mr. Sellers asked.

"They're mercenaries," Serena said, "I pay them crystal, give 'em weapons, and they're happy."

"Enough talk," Claw interrupted (638) and Raven frowned, "I want Garrison, Speed, and Bart put in my shuttle and taken to the crystal planet."

"Wait a minute," Raven held Claw's right arm. Claw looked at him, "I'm - in charge."

"Oh sorry, I know that," Claw frowned.

"See that it doesn't happen again," Raven ordered.

"What about the rest?" Sereena asked.

"Do what you want," Raven agreed. "Just don't let them go."

Sereena clicked her fingers and the pirates shackled the rest of the prisoners, "Take them to the Plunder. Get them ready for interrogation. We will soon make our move."

"Sereena," a pirate panelman called, "transmission coming in from the Space Force."

Sereena flicked a switch on her sofa that said voice.

"How are things with the ship?" Deen asked.

"Perfectly fine, thank you," Serena said in C. Neff's voice, talking through a microphone.

At the Space Force base...

"Well check you later," Deen said goodbye. "What do you want Scott!?!?"

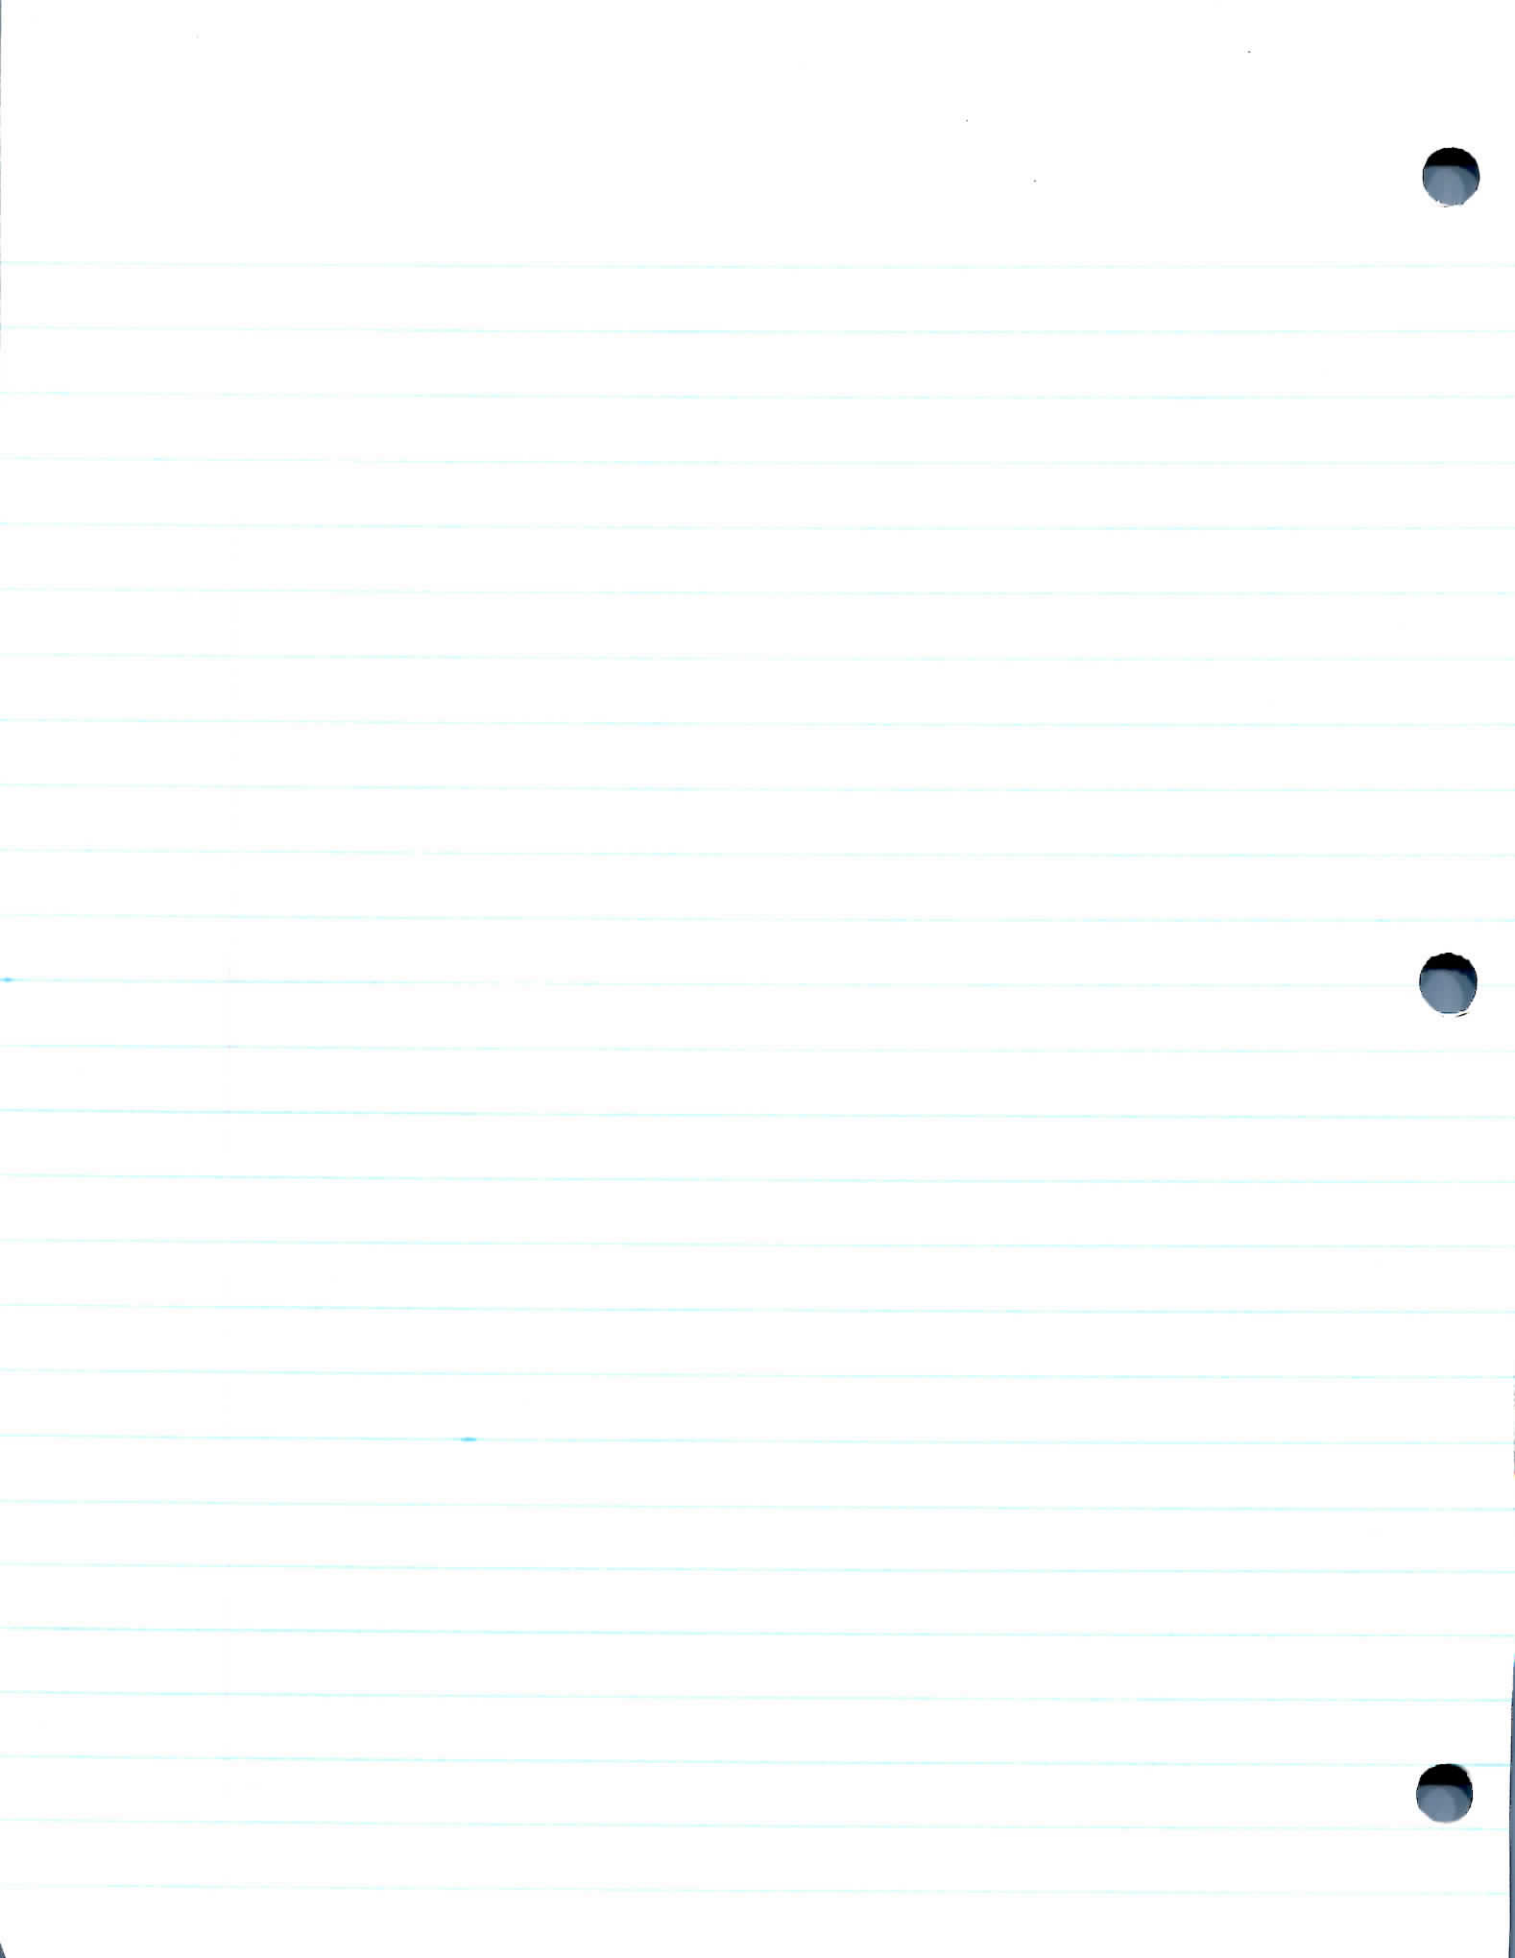

"Sorry for buggin' you -," Scott apologized.

"So am I," Mike walked in.

"Su-- you Mike," Scott continued, "that can't be Neff. Why would he not say anything about how he hates the ship?"

"Why would he have to?" Mike asked, "The ship is fine."

"The ship may be fine," Deen walked in, "but what about the crew?"

Chapter 107: Traitorous

"What do you want with these three?" a pirate asked.

"I said put them in my ship," Claw was firm.

"I take my orders from Heaven, not YOU," the pirate explained, "and he told me not to have them put in your ship."

"I'm giving you one more chance," Claw pulled out his claw.

"Maybe if you gave me a reason," the pirate said.

"Perhaps," Claw said as he grabbed the pirate's collar and jabbed the claw into his stomach. 6417

"Awe, fu-- , uh gu-guards!" Claw turned the claw a whole 180 until the claw was palm up. Claw then ripped the claw up the pirate's chest. He took the claw out and slit the pirate's throat.

"No one crosses the Claw," Claw dropped the pirate to the ground and left for his ship.

"Holy cow," Beavy crawled out from under Claw's bed, "Claw and I never hate each other. I've gotta get to Willy."

"You're not goin' anywhere," another pirate held Beavy at gunpoint.

"Can we talk this over?" Beavy asked. The pirate shook his head no, "Look in back of you."

"I know that trick. There's probably no one there. But it's the forties," the pirate reasoned as he turned. Beavy blasted the pirate and ran for the docking bay.

Sereena had K.A.Z. strapped into a chair with needles to either sides of his head, an inch away. If he moved he would get stuck in the head, "Tell me everything you know."

"What if I don't?" K.A.Z. was tough.

"Then this," Sereena pressed a button. A searing pain went up and down K.A.Z. He was being electrocuted, "Are you ready to talk?"

"Yu - - off ahhh!"

"Good job Sereena," Haver walked in.

"What will I receive payment for my good job?" She asked.

"Oh, I almost forgot. Follow me," Haver opened a door and led Sereena to his room. She went in. Haver closed and locked the door.

What are you doing, why are we (43) here?" Serena asked, "Get back!!"

Serena pulled her laser and fired. Raven crystallized and the lasers hit Serena knocking her onto Raven's bed. Raven decrystallized.

"Now I can complete my experiments," Raven got on top of Serena.

"What experiments?" Serena was weak.

Raven raised his hand above her face. A purple gas came out and was absorbed by Serena's skin. Her face turned purple and she looked charmed.
She was horny in a way.

"Here we go, now I will need your life force," Raven put his hand on her forehead. He absorbed her orange orb and placed it in a test tube. Raven corked it.

"I'll take that," a voice said. All of a sudden, Raven felt a searing pain in his neck. He could not breathe.

"Wa-da fu-?" Raven had been taken completely by surprise by Claw.

Claw finished Raven off by thrusting his claw into Raven's back. Raven was "Finally" dead.

Chapter 108: Again

The next day...

"Edmund," Angelica called.

"Yes?" Edmund sat down next to her at the kitchen table.

She got up and sat on his lap. She put her arms around him, "I'm pregnant."

"You lie," Edmund was freaked out.

"Of course not," she kissed him.

Edmund felt her stomach, "You Dorodans do a great job of coverin' it up."

"Dorodans don't show it," Angelica was sat onto chair.

Edmund stood up, "Excuse me." He (646) fainted. A "thud" sounded.

"Edmund!" Angelica knelt down and held her boyfriend, you never could take that kind of news."

Cestron walked in and opened the fridge, "Are you pregnant?"

"How'd you guess?" Angelica was stunned.

"My son can be shot at, hurt, tortured and anything else. When he hears about having a kid, he can't take it. It's too overwhelming," Cestron explained.

"That's his only weakness?" Angelica asked.

"Yep," Cestron walked out with a snarl.

Angelica knew Edmund did not want to get married. Theoretically, this was his fault. Now they were related, whether he wanted it or not.

"Where's my mom?" Angelica asked Ms. Dibe.

"How am I supposed to know?" Ms. (M)

Dike answered.

"Help me get Edmund up," Angelica got one side and Ms. Dike got the other. They put him on a sofa.

At the Space Force base...

"Where's Paver?" Commander asked.

"He's in that air tight cell," Mimla pointed.

"Where'd you find him?" Commander was curious.

"We found him in that tube," Matt pointed.

"Did he put up a struggle?" Commander was doing a little interrogation.

"As a matter of fact, he didn't," Mimla answered.

"Fu--," Commander was upset, "that's not him. I feared this would happen."

"They cloned him?" Matt asked.

"Yeah, that As-hole," Commander was upset.

"At least we can get his information," (6/18)

Mimma shined light on the subject.

Deep in space...

"Claw," a pirate in a fighter radioed to his leader, "we've spotted the runaway."

"Good," Claw praised, "blow him as-away. Our plans will be completely ~~shot~~ if he escapes."

"Yes sir," the pirate fired at Beary.

"Damn-it," Beary took evasive action, "I have to get outta here."

"You can't escape. Move in," the lead pirate ordered to a squadron of fighters.

"Now what would Willy do in a situation like this?" Beary put on his blue and yellow pressure suit. He engaged the thrusters and armed the lasers. The pirates were so much for the inexperienced Beary.

"Adios you little punk!" the leader 649 unloaded and blew away Beary's shuttle.

At the White House...

"I've been thinking son," Deem said.

"Yes Dad," Deem acknowledged.

"We should throw a party - a Thanksgiving party for the Space Force. How does that sound?" Deem asked.

"Sounds great to me," Mike said to himself. <sup>90</sup> He grinned deviously.

Scott saw Mike but Mike did not see him. "What the fu... is he up to?" Scott asked himself.

At Edmund's house...

"You finally woke up," Angelica sat up with Edmund laying on her lap.

"I don't say this often," Edmund announced, "I love you Angel. I won't let you slip away like Marilewa and Erica did. I need you, you're like a part of me. You're the greatest. E.J. and M.J. even love you."

'So what are you saying?' Angelica asked.

"When are you gonna have this - uh?" Edmund was scared. He feared for Angelica. He thought that if he got married, enemies would use marriage against him. As Claw did with the original Space Force, as the Corporation did with Pook, and as the Dorodans did with him and Marikva.

"She's a she, and you're changing the subject," Angelica replied.

"How'd you know?" Edmund asked.

"It's pretty obvious," she smiled.

"Well -," Edmund was interrupted.

"I don't believe this bull shi-!"

Commander walked, well actually stomped in, "We never got Raven."

"Excuse me, I'm tryin' to propose to your daughter," Edmund slipped.

"What did you say?" Angelica was trying to get Edmund to come right out and say it. She 6511 knew exactly what she was doing.

Cestron and the kids came down the stairs.

"Shi-, 'Edmund' was nervous, 'I'll do this shi - my way. Well it's not shi - Angelica, the mutba fu--in' girl of my dreams, with Marilwa's brain, would you spend the rest of your days with me?'"

"Talk about marrying a girl for her mind. How's this for a yes?" she put her arms around Edmund and laid the biggest kiss on him he had ever gotten. Edmund was dazed for a few "Angie," M.J. said in first word, 'ma-ma.' Everyone chuckled.

"That's beautiful," E.J. said with tears in his eyes.

"Don't get too hyped about it," Cestron gave advice, "it hasn't happened yet."

"That is true," Edmund agreed, "my dad always speaks the truth."

"Might as well make this a jam session," Cestron said. "Will you 652" marry me Commander?"

"How's that possible?" Commander asked.

"I know," E.J. explained, "Angelica has Maulwa's mind with her, so she could be Angelica Dike. Commander would be able to marry Grandpa."

"How'd you ever figure that out?" Edmund asked sarcastically.

"He's a fu--in' genius like me," Cestron boasted.

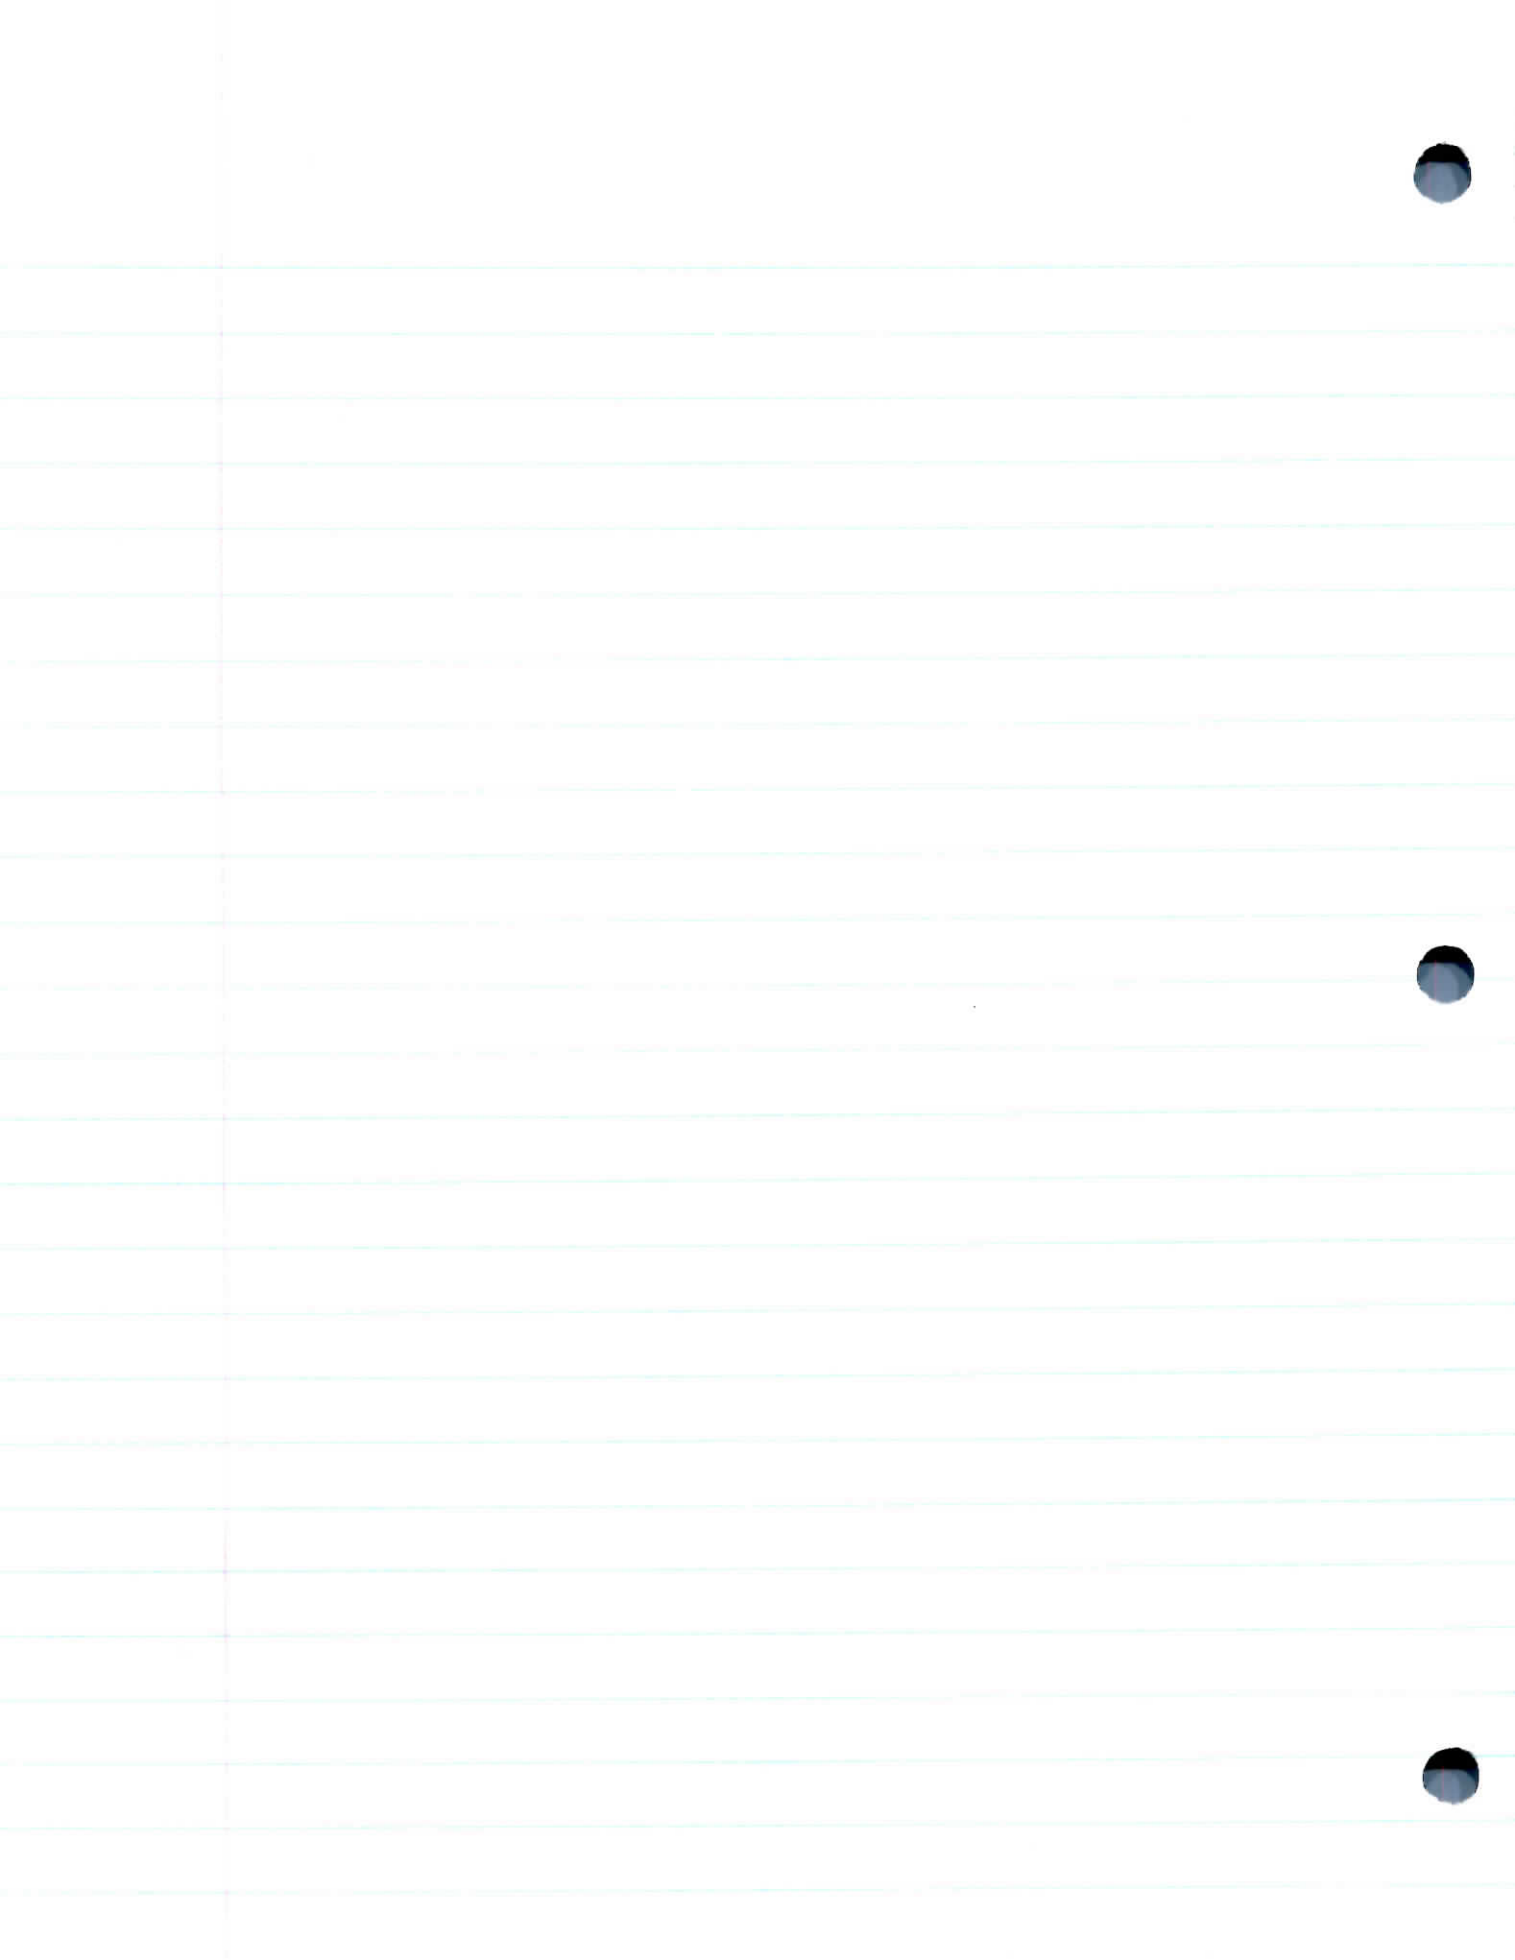

"I accept," Commander had a grin on his face. She would finally marry who she wanted.

"Does this mean we'll be related to Gower?" Mrs. Dike came down the stairs.

"Disown his fu--in' as-," Commander said.

Chapter 109: Claw's Little Experiment

Claw walked into the torture room, "K.A.G., K.D.G., Mr. Sellers, Mr. Neff, I presume." They were strapped in.

"What the fu-- do you want with us?" K.D.G. asked.

"I don't give two "fu--s" about you four," Claw announced, "I got who I want."

"What?" K.A.G. asked.

"We don't understand," Neff was honest.

"Tell me, Mr. Neff, do you watch Y.G.?" Claw asked.

"Of course," Neff said.

"Do you ever notice how the 6541 enemy always tells his or her plan to the good guys, and the good guys escape? I won't take either chance, so believe what you will. I will tell you this, our friend Haven has left me these great inventions."

"You killed Haven, didn't you!" Mr. Sellers was stunned.

"As I was saying before you interrupted, Claw pulled out two identical guns, "here we call this the brainducer." Claw fired the needles into Mr. Sellers and Neff's foreheads. Their eyes shut immediately and their foreheads seemed to suck in the thick yellow fluid.

K.A.G. whispered to her brother, "It's just rope, flex now."

"It's your turn, hope you don't mind about sharing needles," Claw fingered the triggers.

K.A.G. broke his bonds and dodged his needle and grabbed the tube that the fluid flows through (655) before it gets into the needle.

K.A.G. went to free his sister,
"Look behind you!" K.D.G. screamed. K.A.G. flipped out of the way. When Claw missed, he cut off K.D.G.'s braw," you fu--er pervert!" She kicked Claw, point blank in the penis with the leg K.A.G. freed. K.A.G. unstrapped his sister and they escaped. Along the way K.D.G. took off her braw and put on her brother's
S.D.C. blue and yellow jacket.
She only ripped it up so you could see the top of her breast.

Claw stood up in pain holding his penis, "Shi-!!" He hobbled over to Mr. Sellers and Jeff. They freed them and they helped him over to a control panel, "Two murba fu--ers have escaped. & r-repeat, catch them or you'll (656) have to deal with m-me. Uhhh...!"

Claw pulled out the test tube and found a crack in it. The life force and soul had escaped.
There was no more Serena. She was not a Dorodon so her gaseous form became one with the heavens and the atmosphere.
Claw could now, not bring back his son. No one other than Commander "Brew" how to work the crystal cages.

"How the fu-- do we get outta here?" G.A.G. asked as they sprinted down the corridor

"We need weapons," G.A.G. explained, "the docking bay will be heavily guarded."

"Where they are," some pirates came into sight, "shoot those fu--ers!" The pirates unloaded and the two sibs jumped through a door (literally).

"What luck," G.A.G. deduced, "657" weapons."

"Just pick something!" K.A.Y. got a 9mm and unloaded frequently. It didn't do much good for pirates came from the opposite side of the corridor also.

"Step aside sis," K.A.Y. stepped into the picture. He hoisted up a piece of artillery that used two people to operate. He fired a rocket with a high impact velocity. After the explosion a rage of blood slid down the corridor. Bodies and blood were splatter against the walls, ceiling, and floor. "You want some o' this!" The pirates ran, K.A.Y. dropped the launcher and got an uzi from K.D.Y. The pirates turned around and come after the sibs when the rocket launcher was dropped.

"Shi!" K.D.Y. exclaimed, "I knew we couldn't trust those (658)

"as-" holes. "They ran while firing backwards and reloading.

Deep in space...

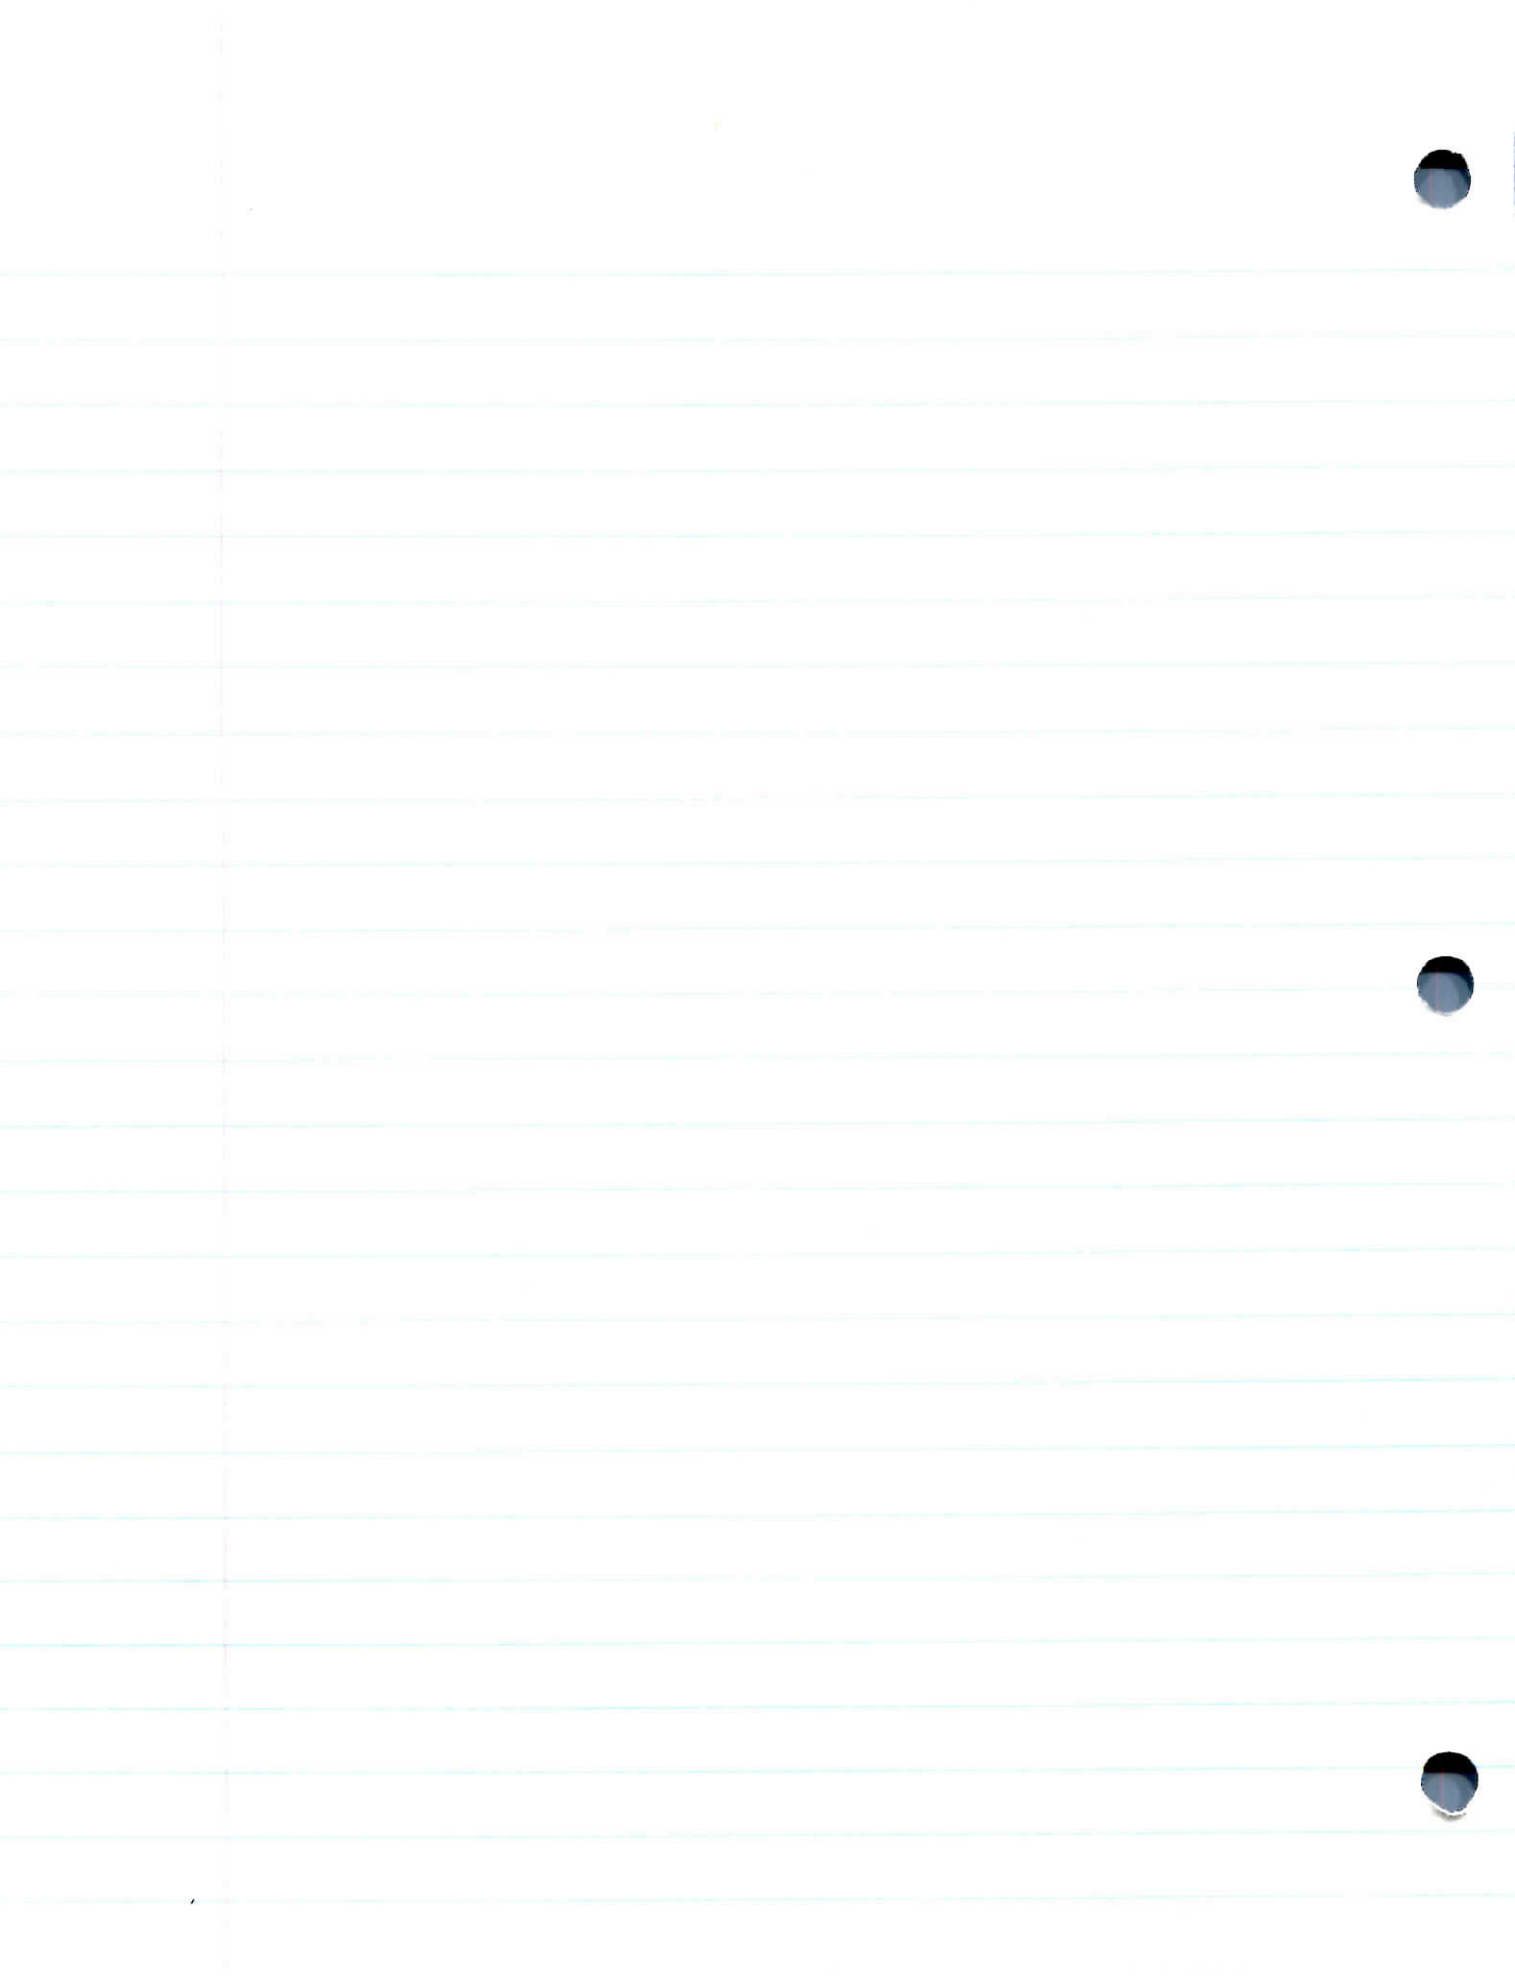

"Uh, uh, what happened?" Beavy asked, "Good thing for ejector suits. Bad thing for ejector suits. Where's the freakin' compass?"

Or the S.D.A.

"I'll get you fu--ers!!!!" Claw was very angry.

Chapter 110: Grand Gift - Aero

"Thanks for lettin' us stay in your house," Aero thanked Willy.

"Really," Grease Monkey agreed.

"Sure," Willy was honest, "it gets kinda lonely around here without Kitty and Beavy."

"Have you heard from them?"

Jim asked.

"Nope, although," Willy replied, "we could visit them."

"You mean take a fighter?"

Aero asked.

"What if they say no?" Jim replied.

"Improvise," Willy grinned.

At the Space Force base...

"Hault," a ranger walked up, "I've always wanted to say that. You're the three that-."

"Yeah that's us, we'll need three fighters," Willy requested.

"My adviser, Mike Mason," the ranger explained, "no fighters are to be taken."

"We were told that, by Mike Mason, that wh we were supposed to go on a patrol," Jim lied.

"I'll have to check that, wait here," the guard ordered. The guard walked into his booth.

"Su-- that," Willy made a motion for them to move in.

"Aye where are you goin'!?!!" the guard ran after them.

"Ah man, I gotta take a mega-pi--," Jim booped.

"Are you sure about this?" Auro asked.

"Almost positive," Willy led them to the bargar. They boarded on their own personal planes.

"Aye what the fu--?! Stop!!"
the guard ran onto the runway.
Jim waved to the guard, "Shi-!!
!" The guard ducked as the fighter planes took off above him. He ran to his booth, "This is the main outpost, we have three stolen fighter planes."

At the White House...

"Okay, do nothing," Mike Mason ordered, "I've got a plan. Report directly to me at all times. I'll relay it to the Drams. Mike-out. Puh, fu-- the president." Mike pulled out his communicator, "Claw, get ready."

Deep in space...

"Those look like S.G. fighters, aye wait!!!" Beavy switched on his jet pack and trailed the fighters, "Turn on your radios." 602

"Willy," Acro announced, "there's something in back of you."

Willy put on his exo suit and ejected from his fighter, "Beavy?"

"Yes," Beavy and Willy got into the fighter and pressurized it. Beavy explained everything along the way to the S.S.A.

On the S.S.A....

"There it is K.D.G.," K.A.G. pointed at the docking bay.

"So bad you won't get-uhh," K.D.G. blew the pirate away. A swarm of guards entered.

"Shi-," K.D.G. was upset. The sibs dropped their weapons.

Suddenly, three planes came flying in at high speeds. They fired their lasers and all of the pirates were burned to crisps.

Q. I. G. and Q. A. G. picked up their weapons and took out more pirates.

"Stop them!" Claw pointed. The pirates broke down and fired.

Acro got out of his fighter and ran for Jim. Q. I. G. and Q. A. G. got in Acro's.

"Gimme that," Claw grabbed a pirate's bayonet. Acro did flips to dodge the bullets. Claw made a path where Acro would land. Acro fell in and Claw fired again. Acro very hurt and weak.

"Noo!" Jim screamed.

"Take off!" Q. I. G. ordered logically.

"Get your gang if you can," Claw taunted Jim.

"Fu--you Claw!" Jim was distraught. The plane took off.

Claw got on a communitator, "Oh please monkey, I have 2vts 664"

Gibson's and Speed Strong's sons too. Now sweat revenge is." Claw got off and ordered, "Blow those fu--ers away, or wait, Mike will deal with them. Ha, four sons down. I need the rest of their offspring and they'll come for them and I'll get them!"

At the space base base...
"Arrest All of them," Mike ordered.

"What the fu-- is this shi-?" G.A.S. asked.

"What's the charge?" G.S.S. asked.

"Treason, grand theft, and deserting and I'll dig up more, believe me," Mike grinned.

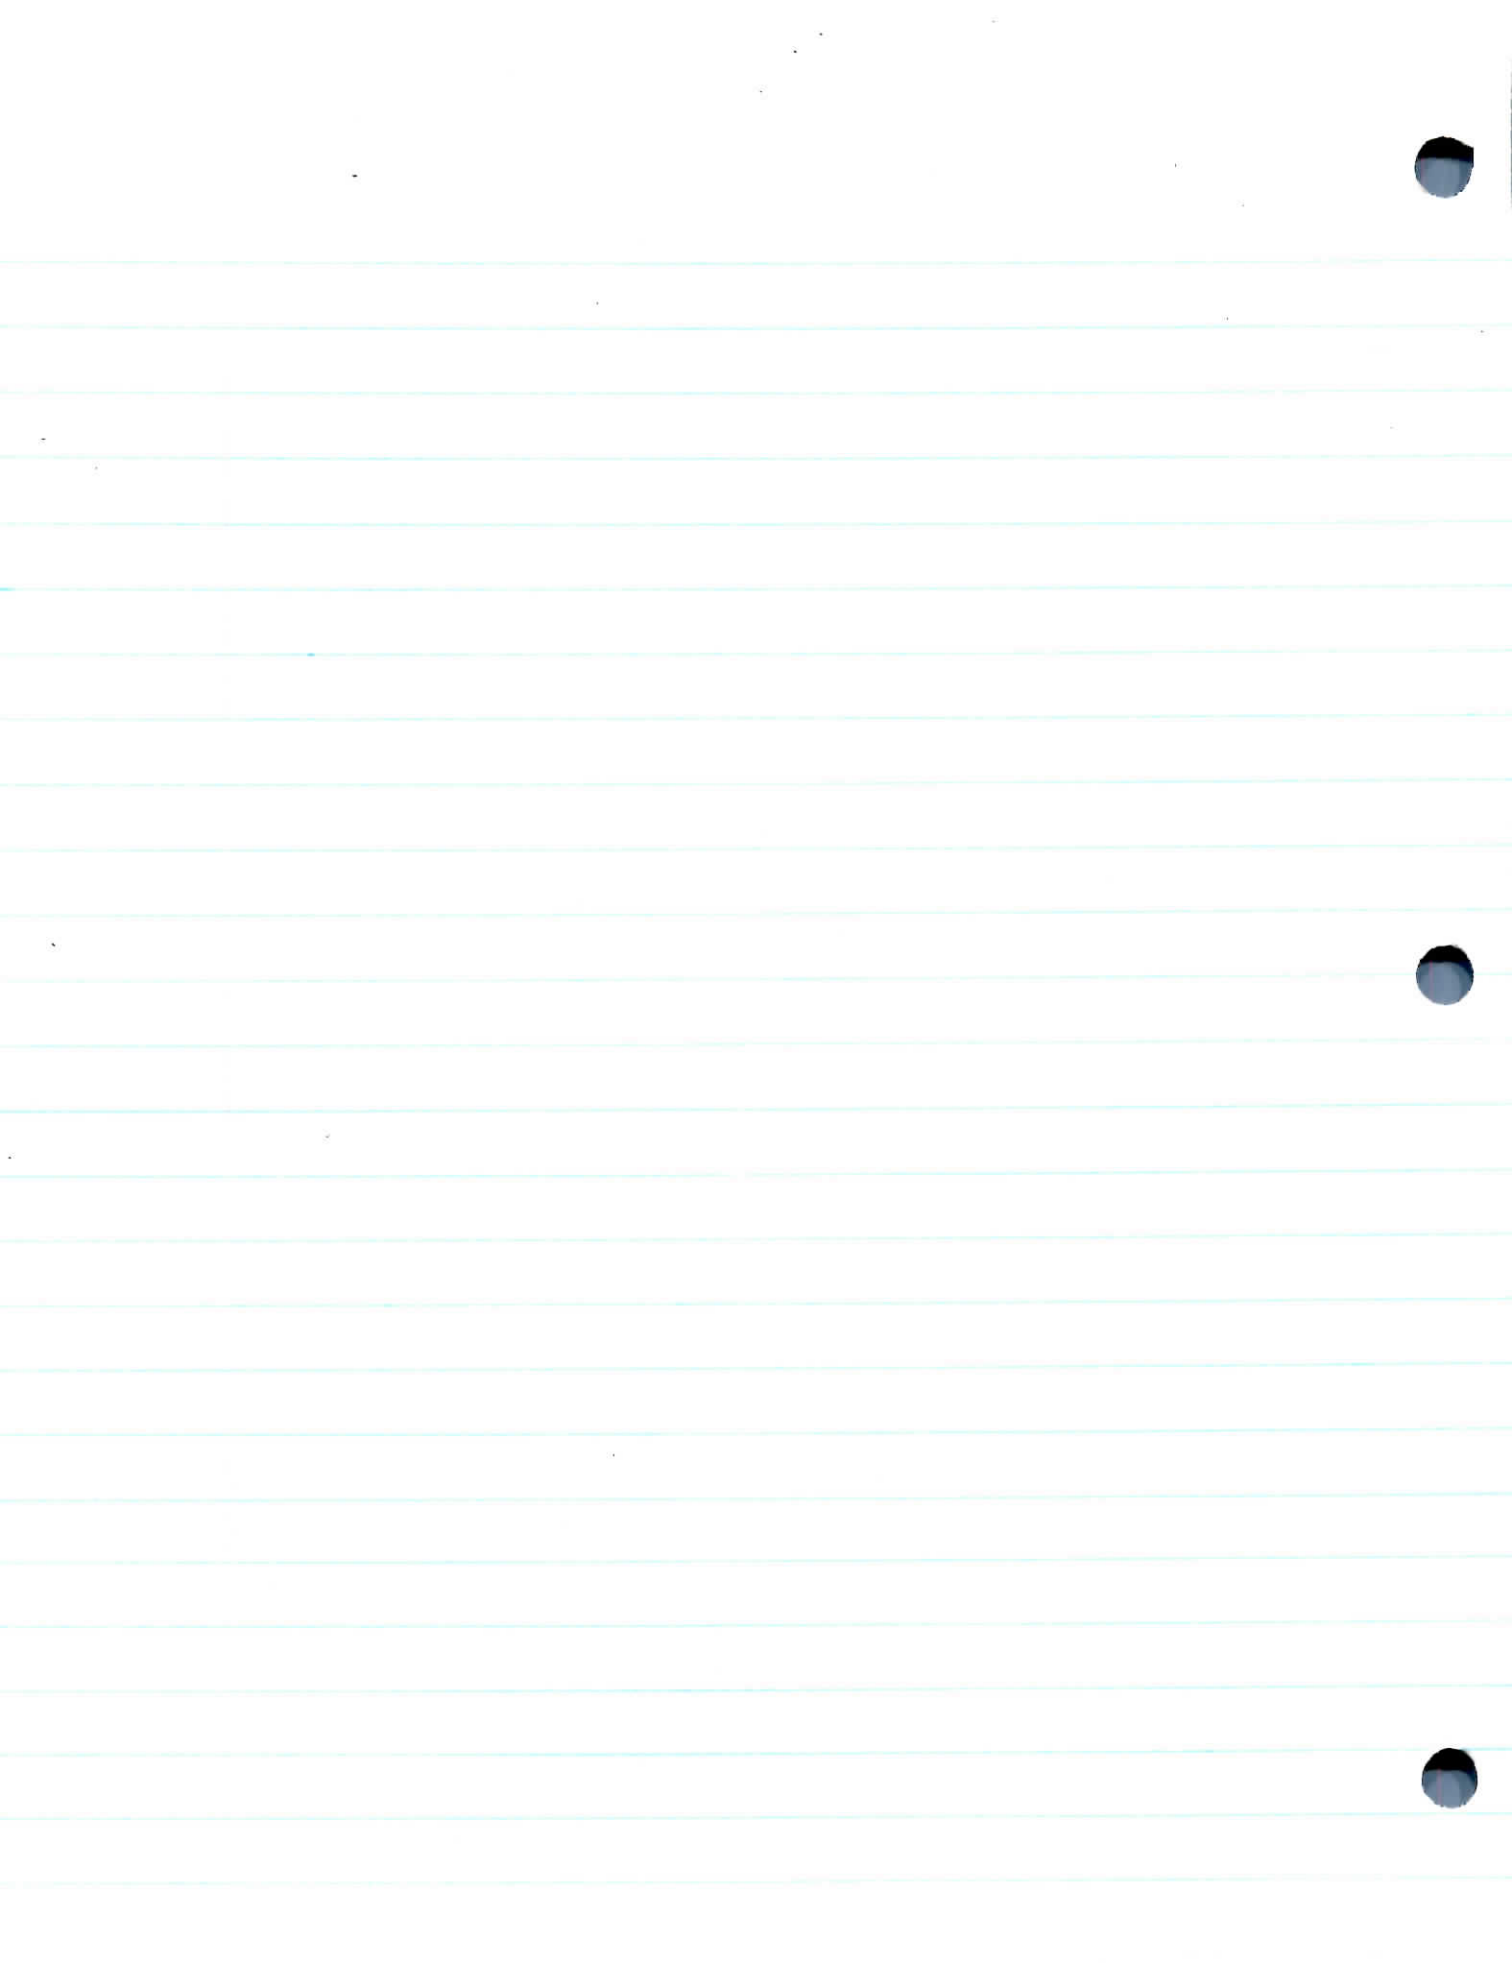

"You're the fu-- in' traitor," Willy said to the fu-- dragged off "as hole!"

"I'm too young to go to jail," Beary was worried. (665)

"Where's our fu--in' lawyer?"
Jim asked.

"What lawyer?" Mike asked.
He picked up his communicator.
"They're under heavy guard, Claw. They don't even know they're missin'. They 'won't' find out."

Chapter III: The Fiest

At Edmund's house...

"Have you ever witnessed a Dorodan pregnancy?" Angelica asked.

"No, I don't think so," Edmund said.

"Well g-get r-ready," Angelica looked rather disoriented as she collapsed to the floor.

"Dad!" Edmund called. He knew Garrison was on the S.D.A., "We need Mr. Garrison."

"What happened?" Mrs. Dike came down the stairs.

"I think she's in Dorodan labor, 607

Edmund said.

"Oh my God," Ms. Dike fell down the stairs unconscious.

"What the fu-- is goin' on down here," Commander ran past Ms. Dike.

"Gitson's on his way," Cestron came downstairs with E.J. and Mr. J.

5 minutes later...

"Where is she?" Gitson asked.

"On the couch," Cestron pointed.

Gitson broke off some smelling salts and put it to Angelica's nose. She awoke screaming, "Take it out! Oh this fu-- in hurts. Shi-, shi-, shi-!!"

5 minutes later...

Gitson removed a pink crystal, "Congrats, you're the father of a Dowdan girl."

"How can you tell?" Cestron (669)

asked.

"The pink orb," Gitson walked toward the door.

"Thanks a lot sir," Edmund shook his hand.

"Sure, almost anytime," Gitson closed the door as he walked out.

"No wonder she was in so much pain," Edmund deduced, "my daughter is sharp as a razor."

"Come on Cestron," Commander was getting everyone out of the room, "come on kids. Help me with your grandma."

"What did I miss?" Mrs. Diko was dizzy as she was helped up the stairs. Everyone was gone except for Edmund and Angelica.

"Do what now?" Edmund asked.

"Come here," Angelica ordered, "you have a human daughter, a half 'n half son, and now a Dorian daughter. She must be transformed." Angelica pulled Edmund down onto the couch.

"What are you doing?" Edmund saw Angelica's pink orb. Then his blue orb showed. She held his hands. Edmund's orb faded, he felt weaker, then it disappeared he felt nothing. Angelica seemed to have absorbed his orb. Edmund's eyes closed. Angelica let go of his hands and picked up the crystal. She cast it decriptulipal into a beautiful baby girl. She was sleeping though.

Commander came downstairs and took the baby (she needed to gain her strength) up to her crib.

"Thanks mother," Angelica said softly.

"Sure," Commander was happy to do it.

Angelica kissed Edmund on the cheek. He awoke, "Brothers, mar."

"So, what are we gonna name her?" Angelica asked. I don't like a.j. "6701

"Shi-, that complicates things," Edmund replied, "I'll let you name her."

"Thanks," Angelica was honored. She thought for a moment, "How's about Yonya -?"

"Sounds good to me," Edmund agreed, "Yonya - -."

"Yonya Alexandria Sims," Angelica liked that name. So did Edmund.

"You know, I didn't used to like kids," Edmund announced.

"Why not?" Angelica asked surprised.

"Younger kids I knew were a "big" nuisance. I was never like that. My generation was mature," Edmund explained.

"Oh my God, that's hard to believe," Angelica saw the different side of Edmund.

"If not for my father and Erica, and even a few friends, I would've fu--in' bill myself. Days like Thanksgiving proved that theory. I grew up hating weab, crybaby, snotty nosed, loud as - , little kids. If my kids that I had were not refined like they are I don't know what I would've done. I hate bad kids."

"What about your mother?"
Angelica asked, "You never talk about her."

"We could never get close to each other. Always disagreements. She's a thing of the past. She was such a bitc-. I was a fu--in' son of a bitc-!"

Angelica smiled, "Hey, it's almost poetic justice."

"How?" Edmund asked.

"You have children you love as well as two mothers," Angelica picked up everything.

"I never thought of it that way," Edmund was honest.

"I know," she smiled again.

"Once again I ask how?"

"We shared lifeforce," Angelica explained, "I'm part of you and you're part of me."

"Then how come I can't read your thoughts?" Edmund asked.

"You haven't developed your power yet," Angelica felt for Edmund.

"Oh thanks," Edmund said sarcastically.

At the White House...

"Did you send out the invitations?" Deer asked.

"Yes I did," Scott replied, "look, you know why."

"But what?" Deer asked.

"You have a line of leaders in your family, why are you breaking the chain?"

"You don't know what the - you're talking about," Deer said.

"Sorry Deer, but you don't know what the fu - you're doing," Scott (673)

"Don't worry about that asshole Dan," Mike walked in, "the party'll make up for everything."

The next day...

"Happy Thanks giving," Mike Mason walked into the maximum security cells.

"Su-off," K.D.G. said.

"This shi-aint right," Willy replied.

"Don't worry," Mike reassured, "you won't be alone for long."

"What's that supposed to mean?" Beavy asked.

"None of your got-da-m business," Mike smiled and left.

"I think our guys are fu--ed," Jim said.

"No shi-," K.D.G. was worried.

At the Smith household...

074

Johnny dialed Cestron's number, "Hello, can I speak with Cestron. Thanks."

"Aye - Johnny?" Cestron asked, "yeah man, you goin' to that party?"

"Sure Johnny, why not?"

"I haven't heard from Jim man," Johnny sounded worried.

"Isn't he at Willy's house?" Cestron asked Edmund.

"Who?" Edmund asked.

"Isn't Jim at Willy's?" Cestron covered the receiver.

"I could check," Edmund agreed, "I got a key." He left.

"Are we goin' to that party?" Commander asked.

"I'll check you later," Cestron said to Johnny.

"Okay," Johnny agreed, "but I bet I know what you're thinkin'. I'll get the rest of the gang together at Hitson's and Arisio's place. I'm out."

Edmund came back five minutes later, "No one's there. His tracker's there. All his weapons are there. That's not like Willy. He's always strapped."

"I gotta go Edmund, somethin' real shi--y is goin' on. I'll be at Gitsori's. I'll meet you at the party," Cestron got "his" D.S.C. jacket and the keys to the Corvette.

Angelica and E.J. come in the door as Cestron pulled off, "What's up Edmund?" They bussed.

"Some of our guys are missin'," Edmund announced. "Nobody knows what's up."

"We got Grandma's medicine," Vanessa "walked" in.

"Da-n, givin' her vitamins?" Edmund was astonished. Ganya had grown to the size of her brother E.J.

"Will we be goin' to the party?" E.J. asked.

"As a world renowned strategist," Commander boasted, "I say no. We need you bids to monitor things from the outside."

"Obviously, bids can't do that," Ms. Dike held an ice pack to her forehead, "there just bids. Hold on now, weren't, who is this?"

"Our daughter," Angelica got closer to Edmund.

"Wouldn't sh - she b - be a baby?" she fell out unconscious.

"I don't think she's goin' to the party," Billy and Erica walked in the wide open door.

"Aye, wassup," Edmund hugged Erica and Angelica hugged her half brother.

"You got invitations?" Angelica asked.

"I really don't know why coy," the two hugged.

"Amr, that seems weird," Edmund said to himself.

At the party that night...

Angelica, Billy, Commander, Stem, President Dien, Gert Senior, Gestrin, Edmund, Charlene, Erica, John, Johnny,
Mike Mason, Sped Strong, Arison, Grisson, and Scott Zipwood were all inside.

But outside...

"What bullshi-", "E.J. replied while looking through his binoculars.

"Yeah, we weren't even invited," Mimla replied.

"This sucks dick twice over to the west," Matt said.

"Shut the fu-- up," Ricardo raised his hand, "Don't let the whole world know we're on look out."

They were on a hill with trees and plenty of cover.

"Who's on the roof?" E.J. pointed.

"Gonyo got his binoculars," Grisson what our parents told us, that's Claw."

Inside the party...

"Would you like some wine sir?" a waiter asked.

"Nah, I don't drink," Edmund turned him down.

"When do we get the fu--in' main course?" Zart asked.

"You seen my bribe Johnny?" Charlene asked.

"How's this?" Claw flashed his weapon.

"We missin' the party?" Arison asked.

"Oh shi-!" Arison saw Claw.

Suddenly a moan went throughout as people fell out unconscious. Arison was too late for the anti-toxin pills.

"Good thing for knock out liquid," Mike Mason grinned, "completely colorless and tasteless."

"Excellent job, Mike," Claw praised.

"You mother fu--er," Scott fell to the floor unconscious.

"Z-Yipsword was right," Dean fell unconscious. He was humiliated.

Commander and Angelica were not affected. They caught their fiancées.

"Love Arison and Gisson," Claw turned, "Garrison keeps me company."

"You crazy mother-", Arison pulled his eye but heard a cock of a few hundred weapons.
He dropped his weapon and the brothers put up their hands.

"Get up Ce-", Commander put him upright.

"Don't even try to use your special powers," Claw said, "you get me everyone gets it."

Commander and Angelica knew that Sonya and E.D. were near. They materialized.

"What the fu--?" Claw asked.
Arison threw the guard off of him and grabbed his gun. He unloaded. Gisson ran and gave all the unconscious an anti-680 toxin pill. Angelica and Commander revived their fiancées.

The four Dorodans put their hands together. They froze all of the pirates.

"Get everyone out!" Angelica said while concentrating hard.

Edmund, Cestron, and Dixon hauled the woosy people out.

"Move in!" Ricardo ordered to the Ranger Zone.

Chapter 112: On the Run Again

Claw flew down and grabbed Commander. The pirates were freed of the spell.

"Get off her," Cestron jumped Claw.

Claw punched him on the face with the metal on the knuckles. Cestron fell into Commander's lap.

The Ranger zone moved in and the battle started. Many were killed, others were severely wounded against the ruthless, merciless pirates.

Claw and Mike Master ran to (68a)

the door. Claw was one first Mickey used his speed and cut Mike Mason off. Mike punched at Mickey. Mickey used his speed to grab Mike's arm and twist it behind Mike's back.

"Awe fu-- let go!" Mike ordered.

"Arison!" Cestron called.

Arison tossed Cestron an eye.

The pirates took Deem, Deen, and Scott hostage.

Cestron and Arison shot up the guards that were guarding Jim's cell.

"Come on mutha fu-- as!" Arison ordered, "Get out. Get the fu-- out!"

"Freedom, how sweet it is," Willy sniffed the air.

"We're not free yet," Cestron announced.

"You're right," a bunch of pirates filled the hall. Arison and Cestron unloaded. The sound of snapping bones and raw meat be smooched occurred. The five escaped through 683.

the pool of mutilated bodies.

"Where's R. D. G. and G. A. G.?" Jim asked.

Outside of the busted party...

"What do you want we these people?" the pirate leader asked.

"Awe who's this?" Claw asked.

"I believe it's Cestron's granddaughter and her grandmother. We caught 'em snoopin' around. We've got Galt Jr., Gison's son, Sped Strong's son, the Pres, Vice-Pres, Deem, and these two."

"Great job, withdraw the troops," Claw ordered.

"But sir," the leader disagreed.

"Do it!" Claw heard some weeping.

"Don't hurt me," a beautiful waitress pleaded.

"Yabe her," Claw grinned.

"Wooo!" she said as she was being dragged off.

Ten minutes later...

"This is fu--ed," G.A.G. entered the ball room.

"No shi-," G.D.G. agreed.

"Da-m!!!" D.J. kicked a chair across the room.

"We got our as-es kicked," Ricardo helped Edmund up.

"I knew this was a fu--in' setup," Mickey brought Mike Mason over.

"I don't wanna hear what this as-hole has to say," John picked up a gun and shot Mike Mason in the head.

"He probably wouldn't talk anyway," John agreed with his father's actions.

"Nooo!!!" Angelica was screaming, "Oh God noo!" She was also crying.

Edmund brealt down next to her, "What's wrong."

"Claw got M.J. and Ms. Dibe," Angelica wiped her tears but more come.

Edmund held her and kissed her on her forehead, "Don't worry about it. Don't cry, it'll be alright."

"I hate to say it, but our guys are fu--ed," Gary announced.

"I hate Claw," Arison sat down.

"We can still fight back," John said.

"He's right - the S.D.C.," Charlene agreed.

"That shi- is fu--in' not operational," Arison said.

"We've gotta get up there," Commander replied.

"Claw's got the advantage," Q.T.G. made a fist, "he's got more people and hostages."

"There's nothin' we can do for them," Cestron said, "besides, I thought I told Mrs. Dike to stay home. That 'bit-!'"

"Freeze mutba fu--a's!" a police squadron came in.

"What's the fu--in' charge?" Commander said with an attitude. (1086)

"President Deen and Vice President Zipword have declared you, national enemies," the leader said.

"How-uh!" the police blew R.A.S. away since we walked toward them.

"Don't shoot," Sierson got to R.A.S.'s side and took his pulse, "he's still alive."

"Nobody move," the policeman had his gun out and ready for anything, "no more shi-. You guys murdered Mike Mason and Deem."

R.S.S. knew there was only one way out, "Grab some v-- for me and my bro and all our guys." R.S.S. raised her ugi and unloaded. The police frontline was knocked out but they took out R.S.S. easily.

"Gitty noo!!" Willy screamed as the last people of the Space Force escaped.

"Take these two to Claw," the police chief ordered.

At the football stadium base in San Francisco...

"Jerry - gone, Mike - gone, Scott - gone, Killer Intuition Grooper - gone, Rick A - Grooper - gone, Fart - gone, Dean - gone, Deem - gone, Ms. Dike - gone, M.J. - gone, my mentor, Acro - gone," Billy announced.

"We're fu--in' fugitives," Arison replied.

"So what do you guys need?" Pooh asked.

"We need a new Ranger Force and a crew for the S.D.C.," John said, "I figure I'll lead the Ranger Force with you, the Pe--'s Angels, Billy, and Erica. The rest can take the S.D.C."

"What about us?" Russy held P.D.

"You can be with the Ranger Force, honey," Pooh hugged her, "I'm not gonna let you outta my sight."

"Edmund, I can't take this shi-," Angelica said.

"Angel - Don't," Edmund held her.

"M.J.'s probably dead already!"
Angelica was distraught.

"What good does moping do?"
Edmund asked, "We'll get claw.
We don't need sadness, we need motivation. I love M.J. too.

Give me back the Angel I know.
You can't end your life over this. I need you, and you need me. See, this earring you gave me. You've got the matching.
You've got me, E.J., Gonya. I'll do whatever I can to get M.J. back. But if that's not to come, you just gotta move on. This is the least of our fu--in' worries. The whole world is out to kill us."

"Knowing claw," Johnny said.

"Don't forget us," Matt walked in.

"It's fu--ed up in Zurtalia," Mimla put the car keys in her purse, "even the Corporation is 689

after us. I heard on the news that the corporation will get a freakin' pardon if they catch us."

"Oh great," Pool shook his head.

"This's bullshi-," Erica said, "put me down for the Ranger zone."

"Us too," Matt and Mimla agreed.

"But how are we gonna get Colt?" Beavy asked.

"I gotta fu-- someone up bad," Willy loaded and unloaded his 9mm.

"Me too man," Sant agreed, "I got bick some a--. Claw's an a-- hub."

"I gotta get some pu--y," Arison said, "I haven't gotten laid in fu--in' weeks. Well well, who's this?"

Zonya walked in. She had completed her cycle of rapid growth. She was a beautiful, 690

Drop-dead, 21 year old knockout even though she was a few days old.

"That's my granddaughter," Commander announced.

"Shi-!" Arison was astonished,
"I'm gettin' wit' her."

"Keep your mind on your work bro," Bitson said.

"How are we gonna get to the D.D.C.?" Astron asked.

"We've got the powers," Jim announced.

"We can't risk you and Mickey," Charlene said.

"This shi- is personal," Mickey replied.

"Who says they have to go in alone?" D.J. asked.

"Yeah we got Dorodan advantage," Ricardo replied.

"Besides Arison, you wouldn't know what to do with Sonya if you had the chance," Yari announced, "you'd be standin' (over) around with your mouth open.

You'd be sayin' uhkkh."

"Zart, Arison came back," wrap your big a-- mouth around by big a-- cock and suck it till your lips fall off."

"Obay," Zart knelt down and opened his mouth.

"Oh my God!" Arison screamed,
"You're bu-- in' gay."

"We've known that for years," Johnny replied.

"Oh yeah, that's right," Arison remembered.

Edmund gave Angelica a shoulder massage, "You're rather tense Angel. Loosen up."

"Where'd you learn how to give such great massages?" Angelica asked.

"I guess I get it in my genetics," Edmund was modest.

"There's a lot of logic in what 692 you said. I've never really been there before. You've been there many times. Let's do this massage thing up right." She removed her shirt.

"You know, you've got some "big" tits," Edmund told her.

"Is that good or bad?" she asked.

"That's great," Edmund said as Angelica put her breast over his face. He fondled her breast and her hair. Edmund put Angelica on the bottom and kissed her all over. Edmund rubbed her stomach and chest over again. He then kissed her naval. Angelica turned him over and caressed his penis. Edmund removed the bra and sucked her nipples. Angelica removed Edmund's shirt and kissed and rubbed all over his chest.

"You jolly nice -," Edmund said hornily.

"You horny mother fu--er," Angelica said happily.

"You got some g-r-reat breast milk," Edmund was completely oversexual since he drank Angelica's breast milk.

"Was it good?" Angelica asked while carrying Edmund's head,
"Oh, Edmund." Edmund had ungripped her designer jeans, pulled down her underwear and licked and bised and sucked in and out and all around her virgine.

"Back for some more Edmund?"
Angelica sat back and let Edmund take charge. Edmund came up for more breastmilk. He sucked her breasts gently. He made sure his teeth did not get in the way. His will power was completely drained away.
Angelica's fluids worked their magic on Edmund. He was weak and horny - a child. Angelica was the mother.

Edmund laid across Angelica's lap, "Fu--me mommy, fu--me."

"Sure baby," Angelica did just that.

Chapter 113: More Experiments

"Let me go da--it!" the waitress struggled.

"Do you really think that's possible?" Claw asked, "You're on a space station. Just tell me your name."

"Ciba," she said shivering from fear.

"Pretty name, pretty body," Claw looked at the side of her neck. He moved it so it was in front of her. He took his first finger Claw and thrust it into the side of her neck. He removed it and blood splurt out, "Take her to sofa, quickly."

The pirates strapped Ciba to Sofan. They connected the chest empuiter, "She's on life support."

Claw ripped off her shirt, "This won't hurt - too much, but it'll hurt alright. I want all of her veins replaced with the artificial wires. Get the brain computer or half of her mind."

Claw picked up a brainducer weapon but filled it with a carbohydrate solution. <sup>He</sup> shot the needle into Ciba's forehead.

<sup>Her</sup> forehead curled around the needle and seemed to be sucking the fluid in.

"This shi- is fu-- in' sick!" PI said.

"If you have a weak stomach," Claw said, "you can leave."

"Thank you sir," PI upchucked as soon as he got outside. There was a lot of blood inside. It came underneath the bottom of the door and mixed with his up- 6972 chuck, "Shi - that's sick ch...."

"Put Sofan's life force and powers with her," Claw helped close her up and easily used his claws to cut the veins. They had maid Ciba into a cyborg, "I like the name Zemborg. Clean her off and activate her." All of the Pirate scientists as well as Claw were coked in blood.

Claw walked out to see the blood and puke mixture. He put some carbohydrate mixture on it, "Pirate Scientist, come here."

"Yes sir," P.S.1 walked out.

"Does Ciba use blood anymore?"

Claw asked.

"No sir, the carbohydrate solution sustains her system,"

P.S.1 explained.

"Crystallize her and fuse her with 6997

this," Claw pointed to the floor.

Five minutes later...

"Ciba, I presume," Claw turned to see the ever more beautiful Ciba.

"Yes Claw?" she asked.

"W-we f-found out w-what it does," P.S.I said, "she's irresistible to men. Normal men that is."

Claw was feeling rather horny, "Can you make an antidote?"

"I can try," P.S.I said as he fell out unconscious.

"What do you want me to do in the mean time Claw?"

Ciba asked.

"Monitor the Earth baby," Claw said under the influence, "you can be an excellent weapon." He kissed her.

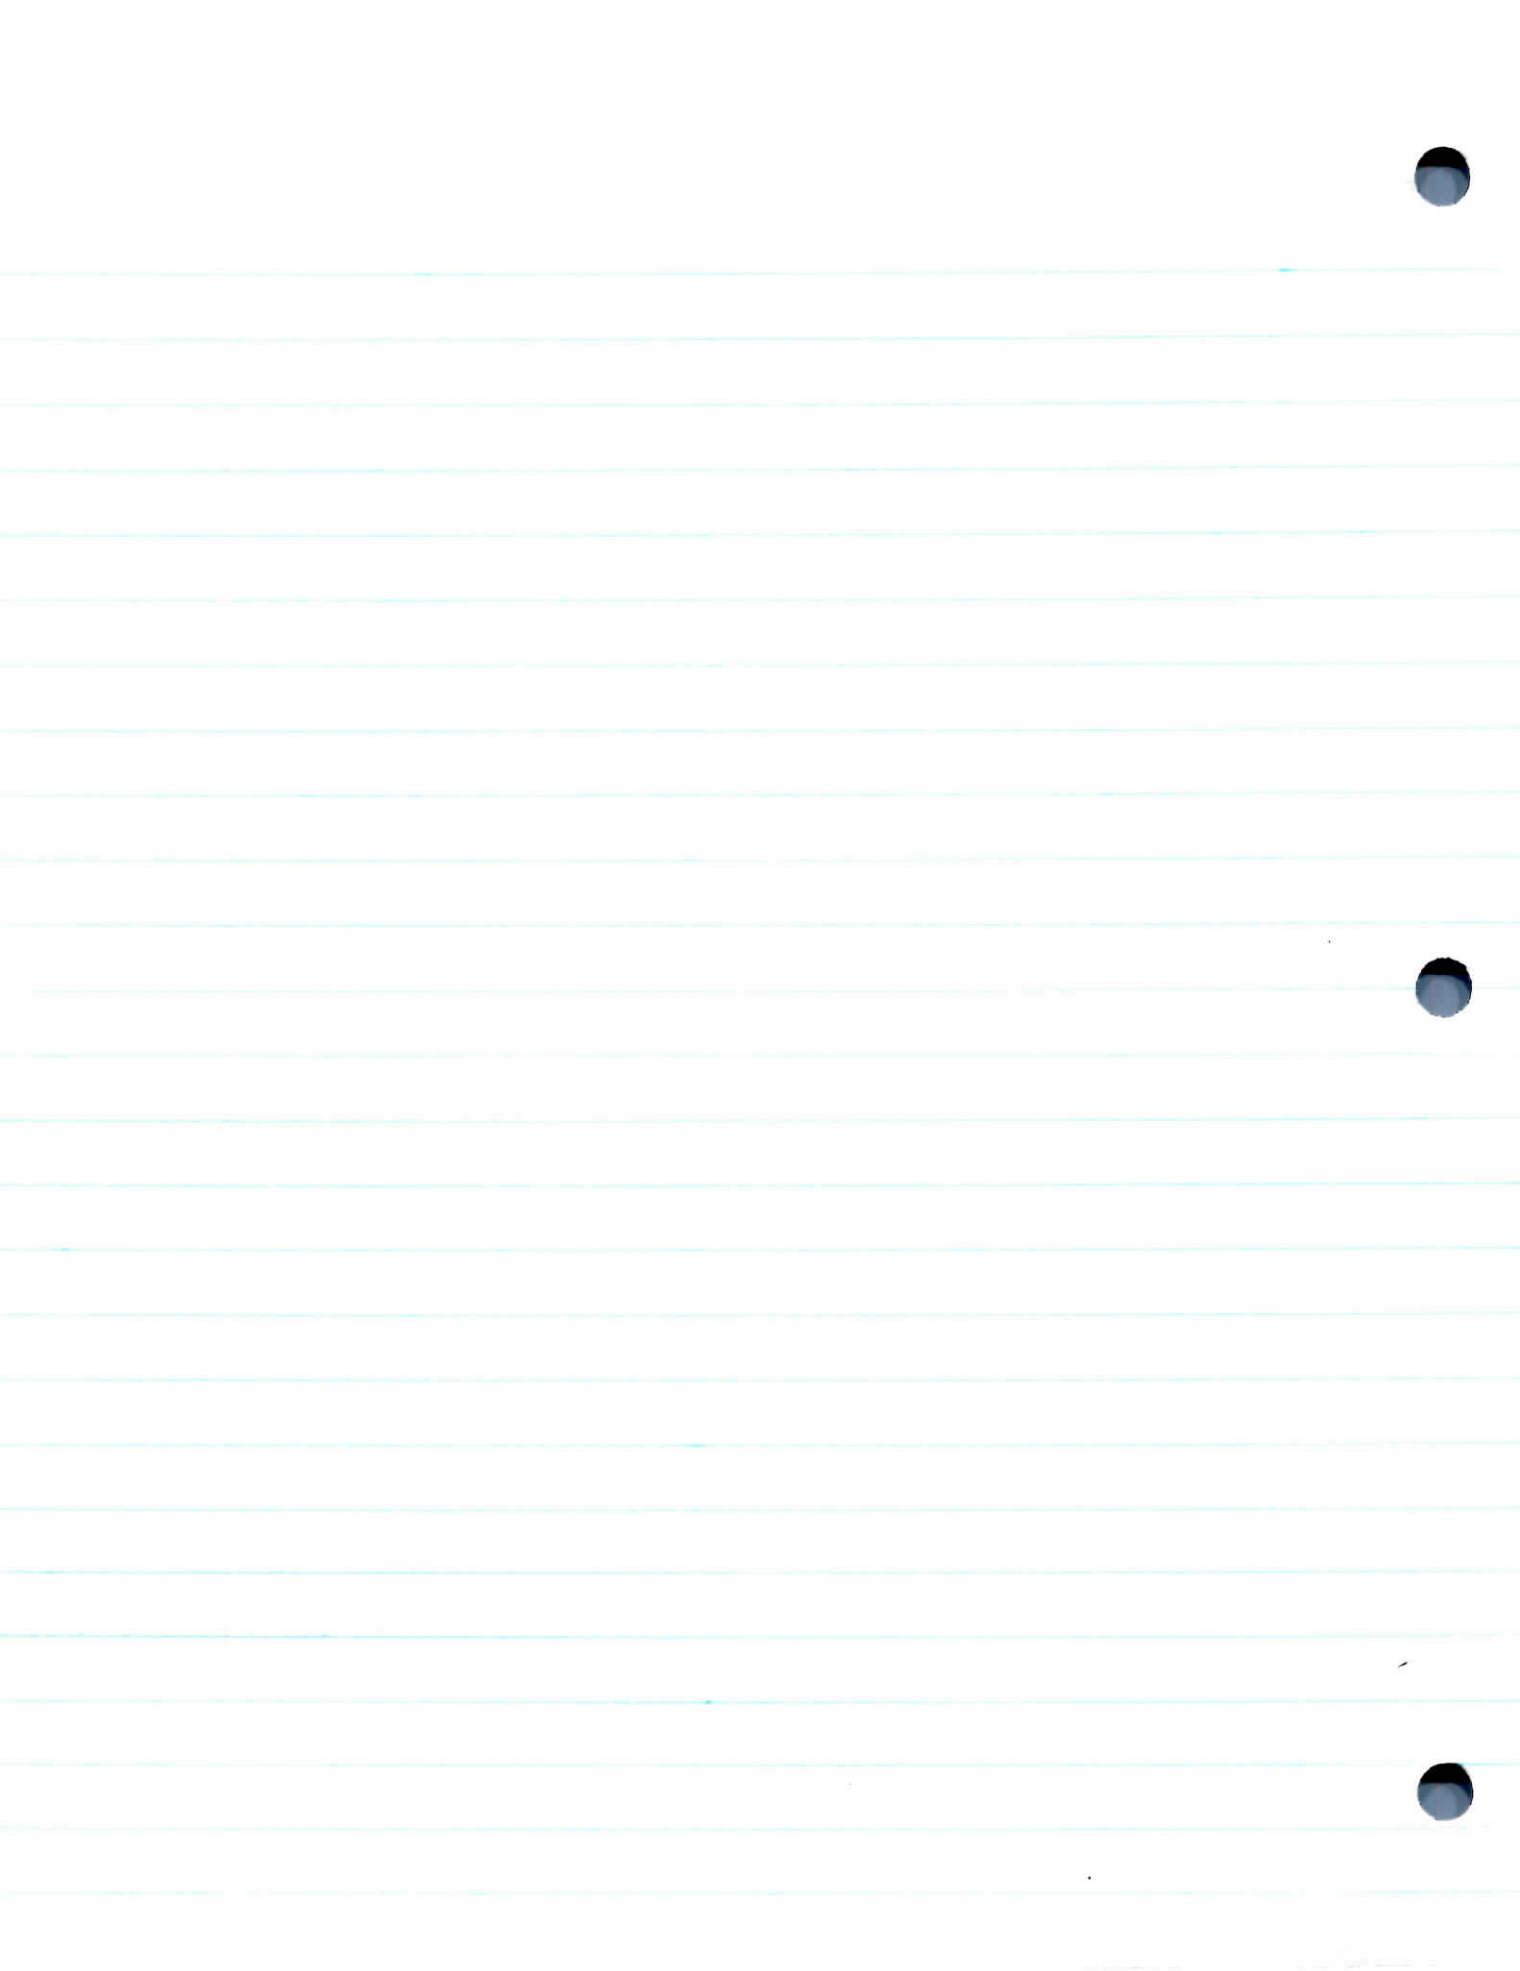

Ciba sat down to a monitor. She put her hands on it and interfaced. An orb surrounded her and the console. All the men snapped out.

Cibas spell.

"We need to be completely armed for battle," Claw told a pirate, "I have a feeling we're in for a big one. Are all those space force prisoners in the tubes?"

"Yes sir," a pirate said firmly.

"Excellent," Claw smiled from ear to ear.

Chapter 114: Aggression in More Ways Than One

"How was it Edmund?" Angelica asked.

"How long do Dorodans have breast milk?" Edmund replied.

"Forever," Angelica put her brow back on and retied her shirt in the front.

"I'm addicted," Edmund was a milbaholic.

"I know," Angelica said, "most who drink it are that way. We always save it for the spouse and never give it to the children. They grow up way too fast and don't want them to get hooked on it."

"Woah!" Arison was excited, "You ever fu--a Dorodan?"

"Yeah," Cestron and Edmund said at the same time.

"Let's move out," Ricardo said.

Sheriff Pook, Pussy Bear, P.J., Billy Bear, Erica Smith, Matt, Minla, and John Smith waved goodbye to the rest.

"Anybody home?" David Stanley knocked on the door.

"A dove," Pook shook his hand.

"So you're reinstated," Dave asked.

"Well we wouldn't say that," Pussy hugged Dave. He was partly responsible for her rescue.

"Where's Jeremy?" Billy asked.

"He's layin' low at the Hungry Pelican," Dave explained, "we've got more ammo and men and pickups down there. He's workin' the bar again."

"This your first mission?"
Arison asked Sonya.

"Why yes, it is," Sonya announced.

"Quit droolin' over her," Estson replied.

"Fu-- off, so Sonya, we were made for each other," Arison continued.

"You should be worried about your daughter," Estson told Edmund and Angelica.

"Why?" Angelica asked.

"Arison's a freak," East said,
"once he gets a girl under the covers, there's no turnin' back."

"Just like now, huh?" Charlene asked.

"We're here," E.J. announced.

"Stop the bus," Johnny held a gun to the bus driver's head.

"You can't get away wit' kidnappin' a bus," the driver said.

"We just did," Jim punched the driver in the face with his 703 super strength.

"Hault," a Pirate with a shot gun walked up.

"Sir, we need your help," Commander came out of the bus.

"Aye, you look like one of -," Commander put the palm of her hand on the Pirates forehead.

"I'm what?" Commander asked firmly.

"You're my master," the Pirate said under Commander's complete control, "what do you wish of me?"

"Call all of your friends over here," she ordered.

"Yes master, aye guys! We've got a problem!" the Pirate saw a crimson circle on his shirt over his heart. He fell out dead.

"Help me with this a--hole," Grease Monkey put him in the bus.

"Speed Strong is back!" Monkey said. He used his super speed to take all of the Pirates weapons. 2011

"So's Grease Monkey!" Jim held one end of a rope. Sped Strong took the other. He ran around and around tying all of the pirates together.

Fart and Arison blew the sitting ducks away.

"We need the shuttle," E.J. pointed.

"Way ahead of you," Astron ran toward it.

"A what the fu - - ?!" the Pirate said before Edmund shot him in the head. E.J. and Angelica dumped him out.

"All aboard!!" Ricardo picked up some more weapons.

Gitson got to the controls and piloted it into the Atlantic Ocean. They boarded the S.S.C. It was a smaller version for it had three compartments, cockpit, living, and engineering.

"I finally made it to C.," Ricardo said, "but why under 7051

Yutson and Arison took the piloting console Charlene took the communications console.

"Oh, are you serious?"

Beavy was astonished.

"Wait for me," Johnny followed him down there.

"We're gonna need an air force," Astron replied.

Johnny came back, "This ship is awesome."

"I'm air force," Arison said.

"One too," Edmund agreed.

"Count me in, all the way," Willy fingered his gun.

"I'll take the a-force," Cestron agreed.

"Infiltration," Fart replied.

"Infiltration," Johnny agreed.

"I change my mind," Edmund said, "infiltration."

"Infiltration," Angelica held his hand.

"Okay, we'll be takin' off now," C. Ricardo sat in his Captain's chair.

"Those thrusters fired up Gibson?" D.J. asked.

"I'll need a little help," Gibson radioed back. Johnny ran down immediately.

"Alright Mr. Beave," C. Ricardo ordered, "punch it."

"We're at full power," D.J. announced.

"I'm picking up a transmission," Charlene said, "the fu--in' bus driver snitched."

"Why wouldn't he?" Grease Monkey radioed as he relieved Johnny of engineering duty.

The thrusters fired up and the water started bubbling. A roaring sound occurred as the S.S.C. shot out of the ocean like a cannonball. It entered space on the opposite side of the planet as the S.S.A. The S.S.A. was closing in.

On the S.S.A. ....

"I've spotted the S.S.C. Claw," Ciba replied.

"Excellent, how many are aboard?" Claw asked.

"Over half of your enemies," Ciba continued, "my sensors tell me that it has no hyper speed and is completely unarmed."

"Good ol' Mike Mason," Claw, "a tragic loss. But all for the best. I will destroy ALL of my enemies. Have Pirates ready at 7081 the Locking bay. Send out patrols."

"move, c'mon, let's go," P.I.

On the S.I.C.

"Cestron, Arson, Fart, Edmund, Angelica, Commander, Sonya, Willy, Johnny, Sped Strong, go!" E.J. cleared them for take off.

"There out," E.J. announced.

"Gitsen," C. Ricardo radioed,
"we're gonna need weapons hyper speed."

"I'm workin' on it!" Gitsen exclaimed.

"We need it, they're closin' in," C. Ricardo was sweating,
"Shields up Mr. Beave."

"We're receiving a transmission from the Atlantis," Charlene announced.

"On screen," Ricardo saw his adversary, "Claw." He stood up and walked closer to the 7091 screen.

"I don't even want you to surrender. I want you to die," Claw turned off the screen, "Fire!"

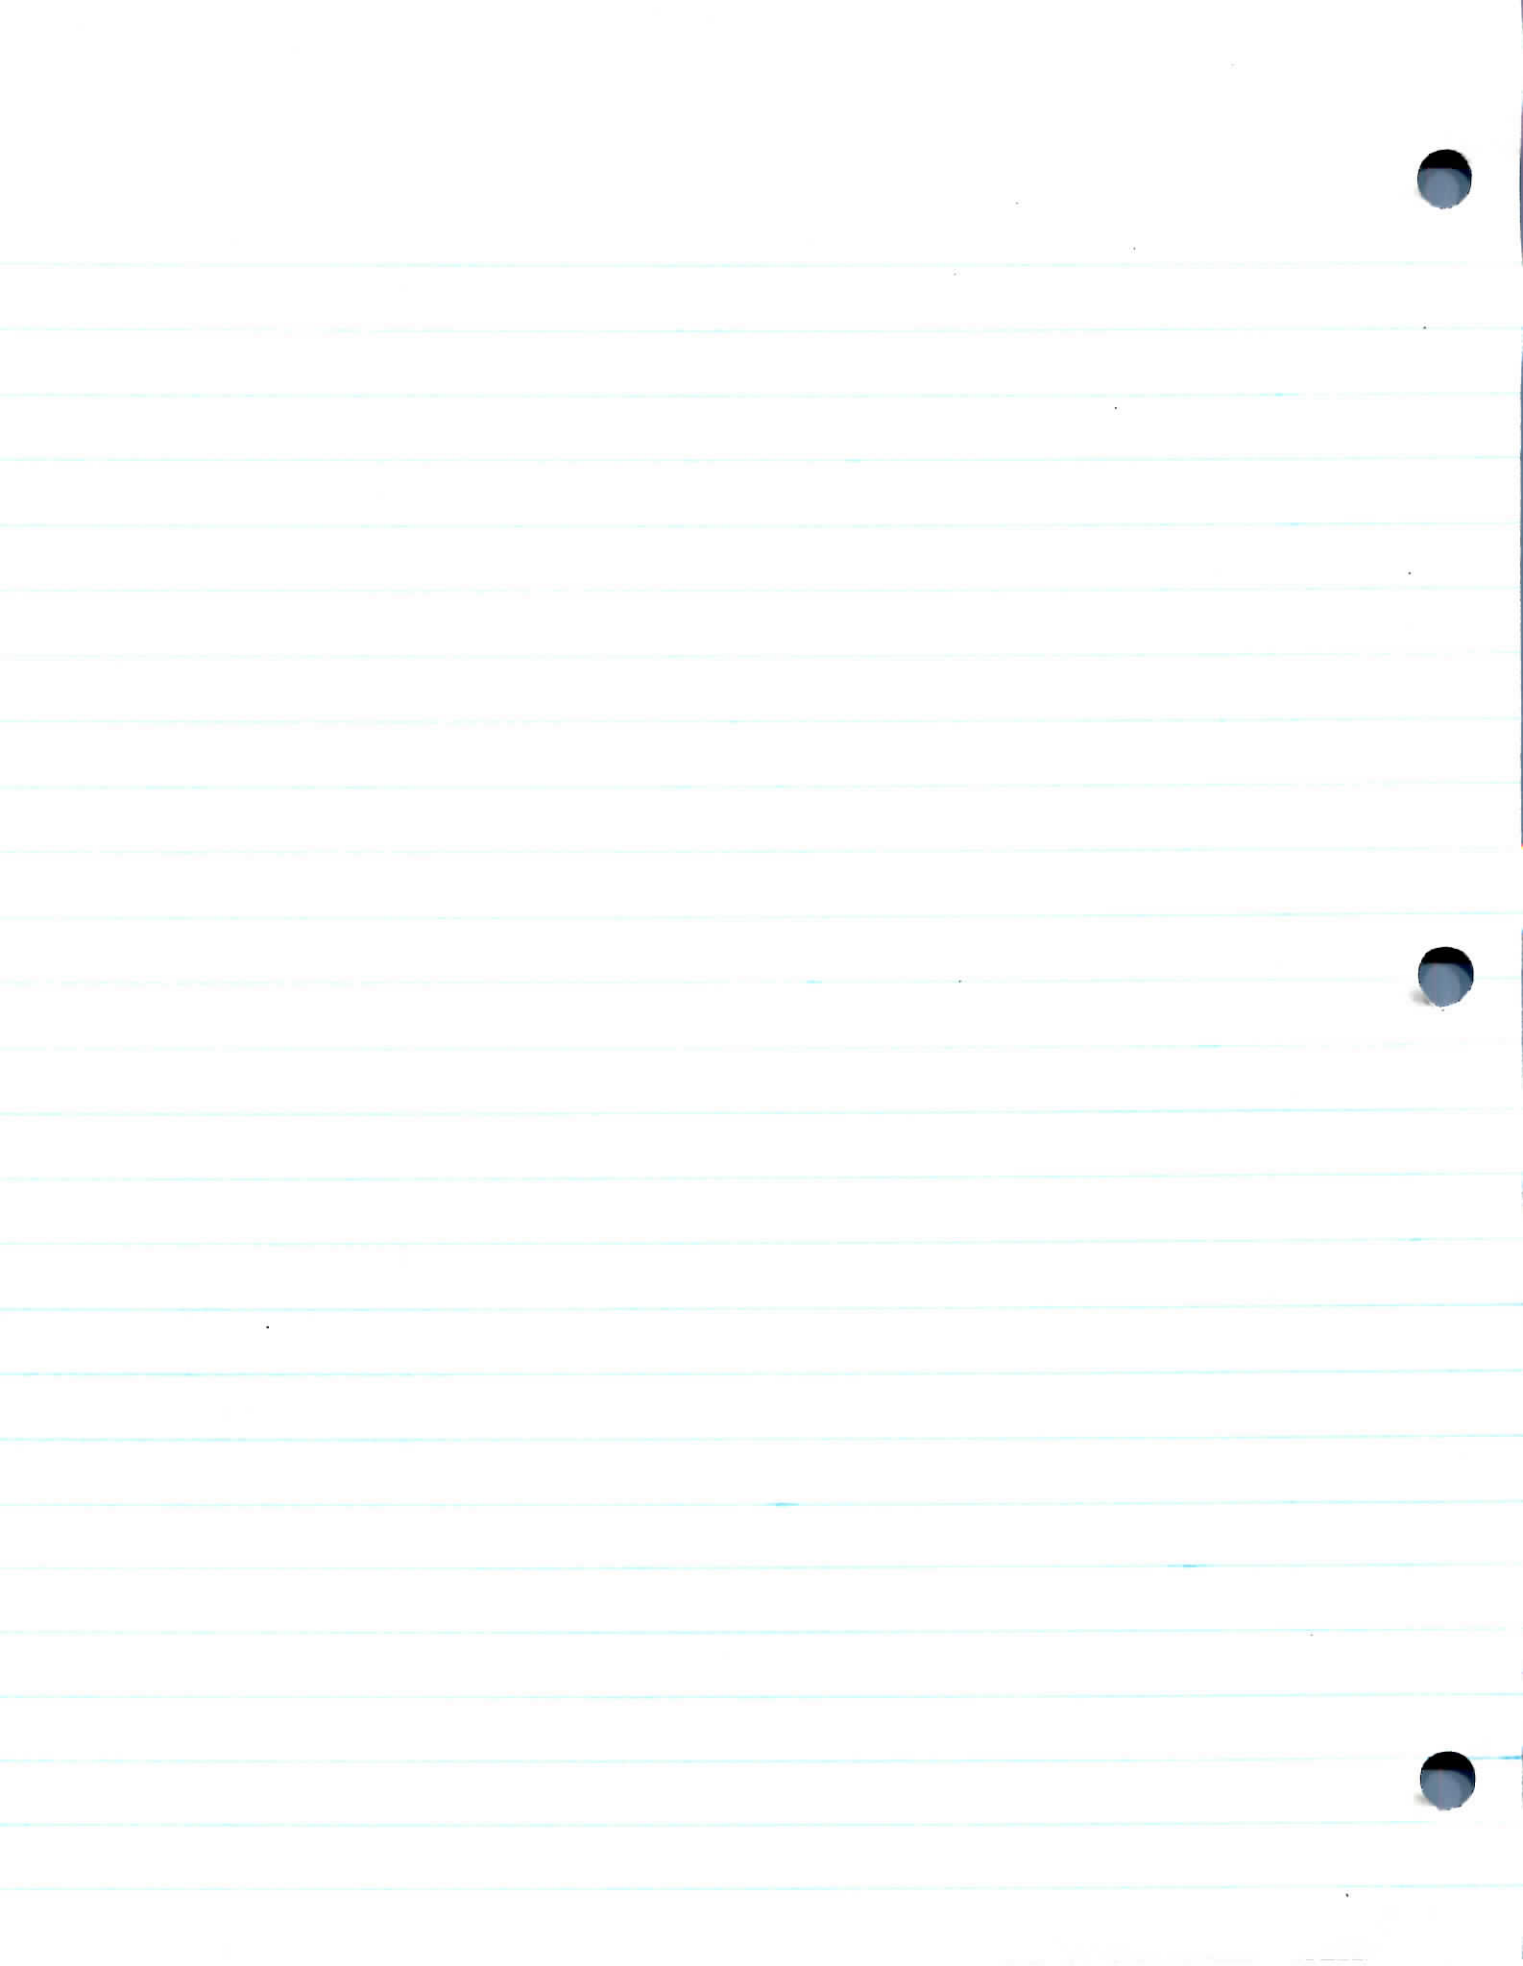

The S.S.A. fired lasers at the docking bay of the S.S.C.

"We're hit sir," D.J. replied.
"No shi-," C. Ricardo ordered, "evasive action Mr. Beaver."

"Shi-," Edmund deduced, "we won't be able to land."

"Claw will have patrols waiting for us to land on Earth," Commander explained.

Chapter 115: A Dog Fight with Two Pit Bulls

"Claw knew exactly where to hit us!" C. Ricardo pounded his fists.

"Hit them in the thrusters!" Claw ordered. The S.S.A. did just that.

"Uh C. Ricardo, you can forget about hyperspeed," Grease monkey replied.

"Shi-!!" C. Ricardo was shakin' up.

"Can you guys hold 'em off?" Lester asked.

"Sure," Willy unloaded his lasers taking out a string of Pirates.

"We've got it all under control," Johnny ran two pirates into the S.S.A.

"What the fu-- was that?" Claw asked.

"We were kamabazied by our own," P.I. said.

"Close off the docking bays."

"Bu-," P.I. was cut off.

"Now!" Claw said firmly, "they were loyal to their grave."

Edmund, Cestron, Commander, Duxon, Angelica, Willy, and Sonya got aboard before the doors shut.

After <sup>waited</sup> Sped Strong and Johnny finished off the Pirates they did damage to the S.S.A shields.

"Blow those fu--ers away!" Claw ordered.

"We've been boarded Claw," Ciba announced.

"Split up!" Cestron ordered.

"I don't think so," Pirates come out and fired.

"I do!" Willy unloaded his ug's into the Pirates. They were all splattered up against the walls.

On the S.S.C....

"C. Ricardo," E.J. radioed, "I cleared a spot for the three ships.

Charlene called Johnny and Sped Strong, "Get back now before you get your as-es coobed!"

Sped Strong and Johnny made it in okay but Zart's ship was annihilated. Zart escaped though and flew back with his jet pack.

On the S.B.A.

"Take the tubes to our Earth base," Claw was bawing doubts, "I'll be back."

"Take the tubes!" Arison announced. Sonya took her laser and shot open M.J.'s tube. Claw grabbed her before she could do anymore. He went to slit her throat but Arison shot his mechanical hand with the claw on it. Sonya elbowed him and flipped him off.

"Ciba!" Claw screamed. Willy jumped on him and started beating him up with knees, elbows, punches, and spit.

Ciba walked in and all the men froze. Claw threw Willy (literally) off of him.

"Ha, fooled you as-!" Cestron unloaded his eye.

Ciba dematerialized.

Claw got up but Commander 711 tripped him, "Where the fu-- are you goin'?"

"He's goin' outta here," Ciba but he had on Commander's shoulder. A surge went through Commander and she fell out unconscious.

"You can't stop the most powerful Dorsian," Claw held his right wrist.

"You all need a map," Ciba fired an electrical beam from her hand. Willy was hit and fell unconscious.

Angelica raised hands and blocked Ciba's beam from Edmund. Arison picked Willy up.

"Commander!" Cestron threw the gun to her.

Claw wrestled it away from Commander because she was weak. He aimed it at her head. Sonya materialized behind Ciba and turned her so she hit 715

Claw.

"Come on Grandma," Sonya helped Commander up.

Ciba punched Sonya. Sonya could almost reach an ugi. Commander kicked Ciba in the side.

"You're so far aren't you?" Commander asked.

"Would you guess?" Ciba replied.

"Cause you always leave yourself open for attack," Commander said as Sonya blew Ciba away.

"Where the fu-- is Claw?" Willy awoke after Angelica revived him.

"Get those mutha-uh," Willy shot the Pirate in the left eye. Arson finished him off by firing his ugi and disconnecting his head.

"Destroy them!" Claw screamed. The S.S.A. fired full blast at the the S.D.C.

"A Claw!" Willy aimed a shot gun at his enemy, "Go R.D.G." He cocked and fired. Claw's head splattered up against the screen.

"Greene!" this time they were surrounded.

On the S.D.C....

"Isn't there some sort of code to activate -?" Grease Monkey was cut off.

"That's right!!!!" Gibson reacted to C. Ricardo, "Type this mother fu--er."

"Alright, what is it?" Charlene asked.

On the S.D.A....

"You should know by now, you can't win," Claw and Ciba walked in with Glove.

"We figured out how to work the cloning device," Glove smiled. (17)

Willy fingered his trigger. He pulled his 9mm up and shot Claw in both legs and Glove in the head.

"Blow those fu--ers away!" Claw ordered.

"2 - 50, 49, 48, ...,)" the computer announced.

"What the fu--?!" Claw was scared, "Blow the fu--?!"

"Get the fu-- outta here!!" Cestron ordered.

"Oh Claw," Arison tossed a grenade to him, "Here's a present from all the people you've taken from us."

"Ciba!" Claw ordered as Ciba jumped on the grenade. When it blew up Ciba was splattered across the room. Claw got a mouthful. He even swallowed some.

"Where's Edmund and where are the fu--in' tubes?" Angelica asked.

"I had some reprogramming (7/8)

So, I reprogrammed their shuttle to go to the S.S.C. But I did get Claw's Earth base. The Ranger Force is takin' care of 'em now," Edmund explained as he kissed Angelica on the forehead.

"Get to the shuttles!" Willy ordered.

"Take 'em," Angelica handed her to him. Willy got away.

"What the fu-- is up?" Arison asked.

"We need another way out," Arison said. Pirates surrounded them.

"Kill these as-holes!!!" P.I. ordered.

Angelica, Sonja, and Commander held their boyfriends. They all dematerialized.

"What the fu--?" P.I. asked.

On the S.S.C. . . .

"Our sensors show that they're aboard," D. J. announced.

"We have hyperspeed," Gison said calmly as he shook Grease Monkey's hand.

"You better be right D. J.," C. Ricardo threatened, "Mr. Beave, engage. I've always wanted to say that."

The D. J. C. shot through the stars at its highest speed ever.

The D. S. A. exploded.

Chapter 116: Not the Last Chapter

Many things had changed. The Space Force cleared their names. Acro, Sart Jr., Jason Neff, Mr. Sellers, Mike Speed, and Gerry Garrison were in the hospital, all in comas.

President Deen and Scott Gipsword will remain in office. Deen's father, Deem, was slain by Claw because he would not listen. None of this would have happened if he had listened.

Willy G. and K. J. G. were back together again. T. A. G. and Blawry all hung around.

Sonya and Arson are now going steady.

Cestron and Commander and Angelica and Edmund All got married at the same wedding. It was the biggest wedding ever.

"You sure do drink a lot of milk Dad," E.J. replied.

"Milk does a body good son," Edmund and Angelica both smiled at each other.

"You're tellin' me," Cestron said as they made out at the table.

"We'll put up the dishes," Commander agreed.

"That's our cue to leave," M.J. said.

"She catches on quick," E.J. replied.

The spac'force had complexely disparted...

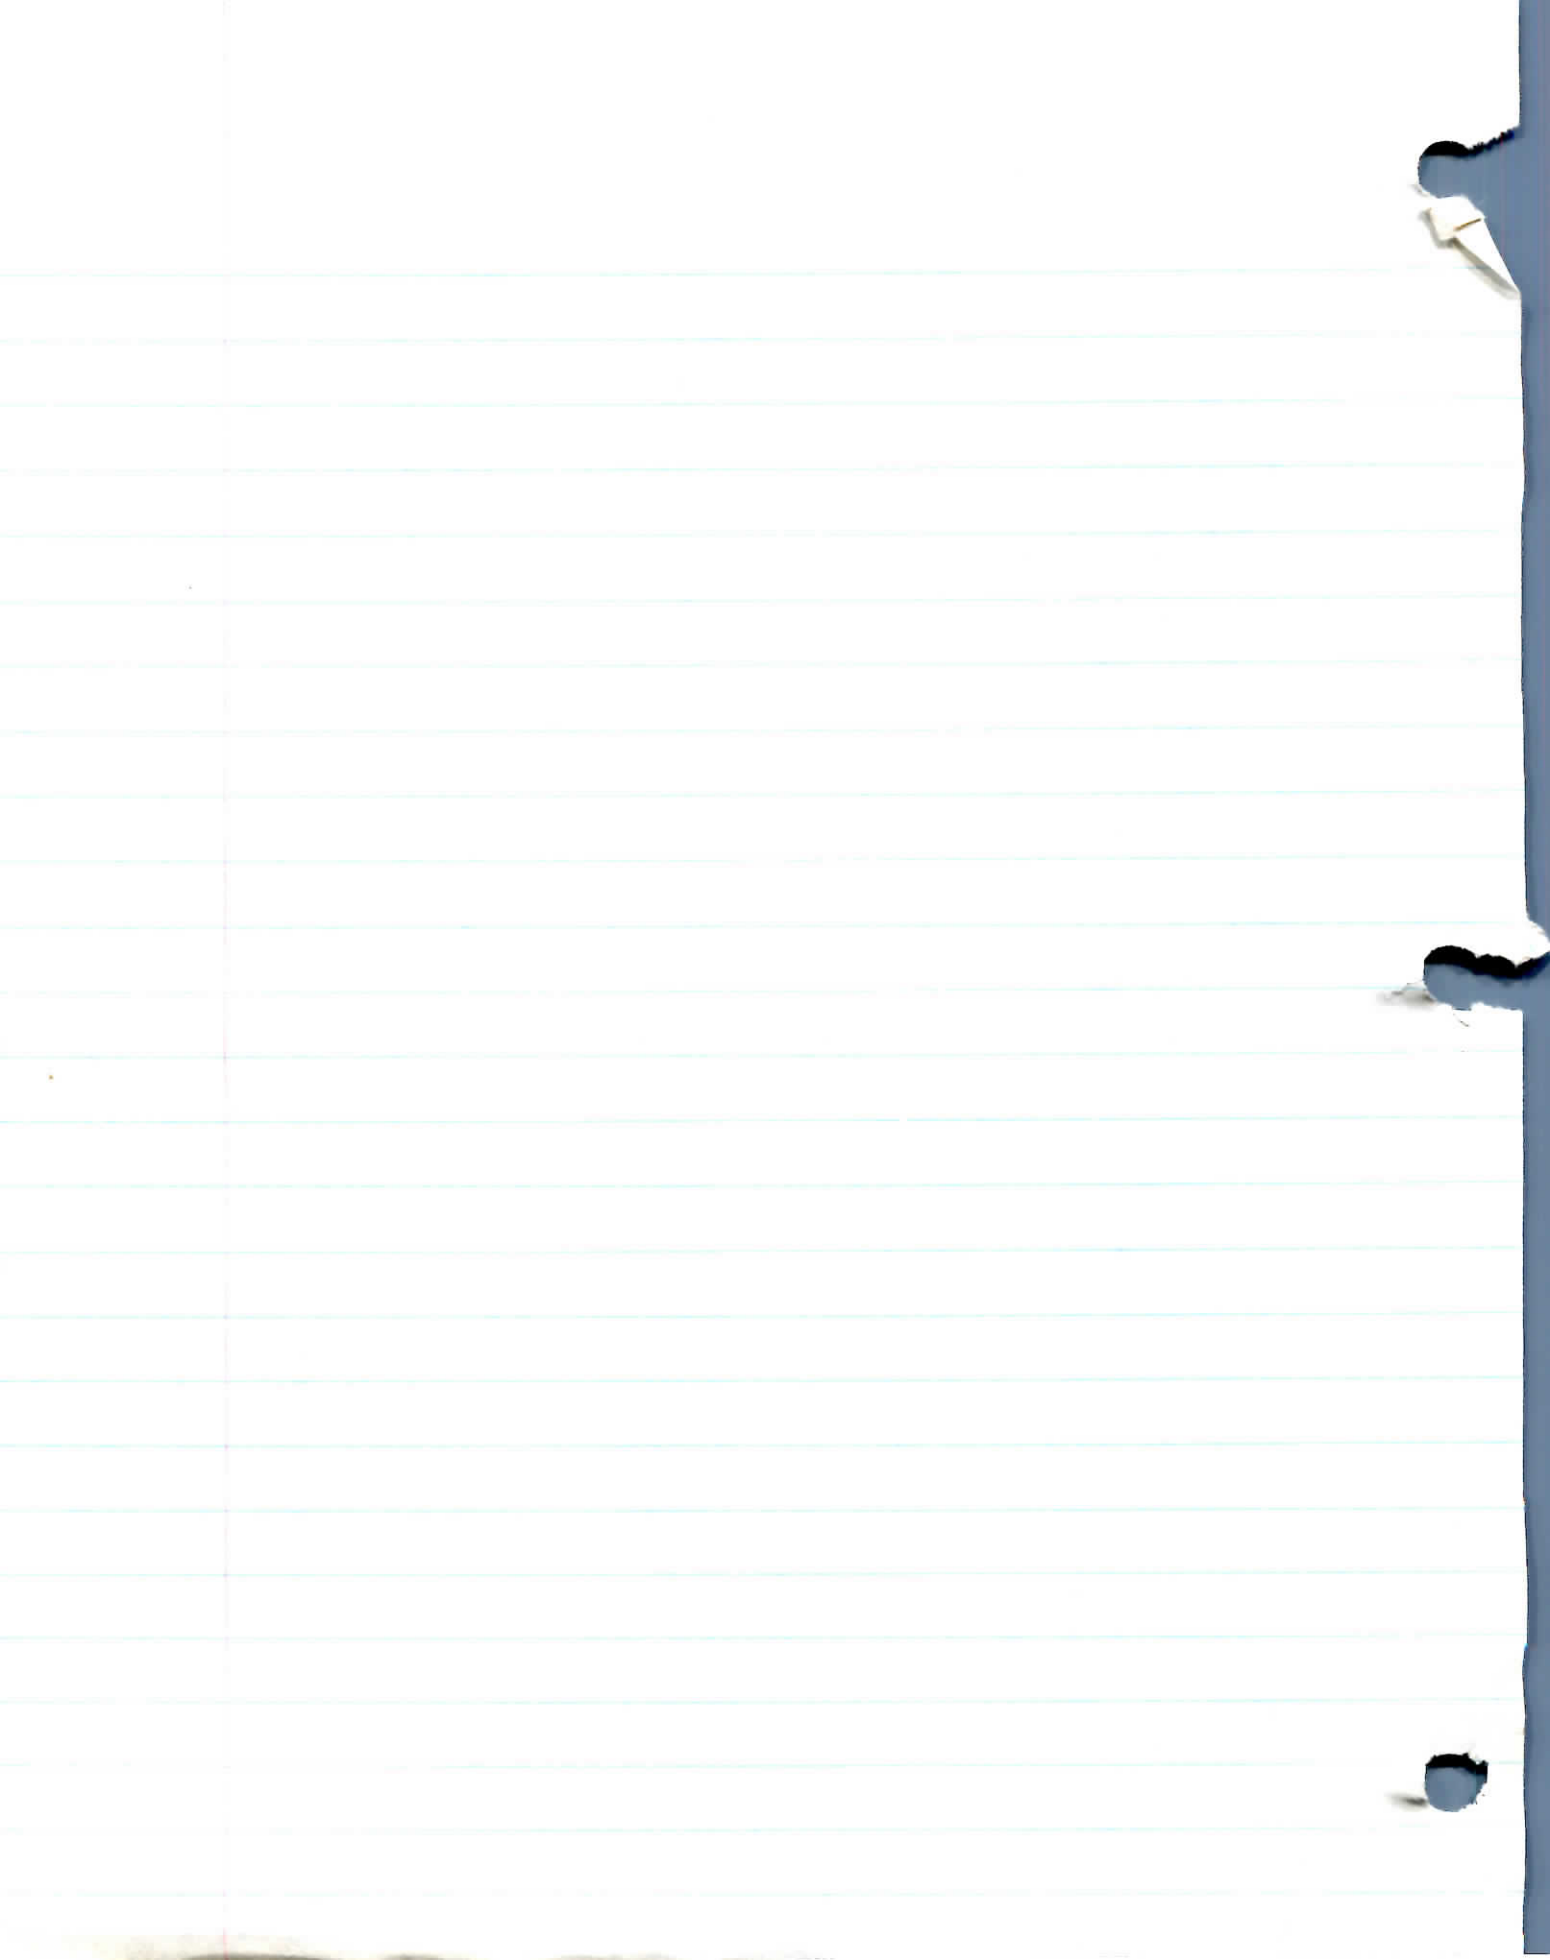

"You're beautiful, smart, great, awesome, powerful, and all mine," Edmund told Angelica, "but why me?"

"I love you Edmund," Angelica replied, "I wanna spend the rest of my life with you."

They kissed.

"When I fu-- you," Edmund said, "it gets better each time."

"It should, do you know what we've fu--in' been through?" Angelica asked.
