	A Semi-Complete List of Books from The Space Station Colt Series	81
	Special Thanks	82

This book is once again dedicated to my family, the almighty, all choose your own Adventure inventors and books, almost all rap and jazy groups, almost all book writers, almost all sports and T.V. stars, almost all cartoon stars, my "really" friends, my associates, and all of my teddybears (every single one of them). So I must proudly say this book is dedicated to almost everyone (you know what I mean (f!!!cb)).

Cast of Characters

Edmund Sims: The star of the book and the writer.

Mike Speed: Fastest sprinter in the world.

The Deem: The 60th President of the 56 United States.

G. Garrison: Smartest man in the world.

Willey G: Ace pilot for the Space Force.

Acro: Master of Kung Fu.

Fart: Formerly a gross perverted person, now the 2nd smartest man in the world (only to G. Garrison).

Glove: The villain of the story with a claw like Freddy Krueger (but it's more handsome).

A. J. Jevne: Captain of the Space Force and the main person to have kept Space Station Colt running (with all the bugs).

Sam Osprey: Former head of the Corporation. (42)

Now he is Leader of the state of Yurtalia
(the capital of the US.).

David Majewski: Vice President of the 56
United States.

Sellers: A sharp shooter pilot for the Space Force.

Haven: Leader of the Dorodans.

Commander: Haven's evil right hand woman.

Marileva: Edmund's sexy wife. She is a tough female agent and mother.
She does not have one irregular biol feature.

Jeremy: He is second in command of the Ranger Force.

Jordan Ripstein: Recruit for the Space Force.

Billy (the Deputy) Bear: Another Kung Fu master.

Scott Lipsword: David's appointee.

Chapter 9: Edmund's Journal

It has been 3 years since fought the Herodians. I am 18 years old. I've been stationed on Space Station for a few months now. I really haven't had any time to write in my journal. I'll start with the spacestation. We have changed the S.S.C. 204122124720 to the S.S.C. 20448265722. Our captain D.J. Jevne has been blowin' his gosh darn brains out tryin' to keep of sh<sup>it</sup> going. This faggin' contraption has so many bugs. Our power hasn't gone out in 3 months. Enough about this. Let's talk about the homies.

Mike Speed is a pilot at the spacestation and a counselor for handicapped children on earth. He is 497 stationed on earth. We haven't seen each other in a few months.

The Deem is going through his third term as president. He has 5 terms to go before anyone else can take over. I must admit he's done an excellent job of keeping this Godforsaken planet together.

G. Gervison is still the smartest person in the world. He is also stationed on earth. He is a professor.

Auro is another person stationed on earth. He is pursuing his roots by becoming the ultimate Kung Fu warrior with his friend Billy "the Deepity" Bear.

Fart is stationed here on the space station with me. He has received a diploma and cleaned up his act.

D. J. Jevic is the captain of the space station. He has the big job of keeping this heap of junk together.

Sam Osprey is stationed on the earth and is now leader of Zurtalia. He has put his evil knowledge together and has used it for good. The few survivors of the Corporation are now agents in the Ranger force.

David Majewski is Vice President of the United States. In five years he'll probably be the president. He's got my vote. (15)

Mr. Sellers is a fighter pilot for the Space Force. Obviously, he is stationed up here.

Awe, Marileva, my wife. She is so hot. My half alien, half human, more human wife had a son. We named him E.J. (Edmund junior). She's been so good to me. Ever since the Corporation murdered Erica Smith, I've been bewildered. Marileva comforted me. Later on we started to fall in love. Then we went on this space mission to destroy the Dorodan fighters. Someone sabotaged the ship so we couldn't enter the space station. Marileva's engine got shot (1 of them). She only had 1 left. A tractor beam pulled her in. Haven injected her with a needle that contained a potent drug which in turn knocked her out. I flew in undetected. I met Haven. He told that men if turned into Dorodans would be perfect mature soldiers. The women were good for breeding more fetuses. First I cussed him out. Then I shot a laser at him. It ricocheted off him because he was a crystal person (humans call 'em Dorodans) and hit me. I mean I was in pain. I found a weapons depot, luckily. There Haven was, between me and Marileva. She was in a crystal cage where Dorodans turn humans into Dorodans. & 107 bounced the shot off of a wall and broke the cage open freeing my girl. She was excessively horny. She was like ready for some pussy. Or should I say she was ready for sex. Z. Garrison revived her on the space station. He told me she was pregnant with my son. It was like, wow! Ever since then she's been so beautiful. She's exactly like me, except she's female, luckily. She doesn't have one wrinkle. She has baby soft skin. And those tits, wowee! She's up at the space station for a three week pass. We've had sex every night now. We're pros at it now. It's like totally rad. I can't wait to freak 'er tonight. I want to rip that bra off and put my head between her boobies. I want to suck 'em and kiss 'em. I know this sounds sick, but it's awesome!

I forgot about Jeremy. He made it to second in command of the Ranger Force.

Well, it's off to my lady. It's freakin' time! This is Edmund ending a journal entry for 2-23-44.

Chapter 10: The Confrontation

Down on earth:

One person on the Ranger Force exclaimed, "Mr. Osprey, there is an unidentified flying object over the earth. It will land in approximately 5.1 minutes. I request permission to get the Ranger Force on the job."

"Don't Marileva at the space station?" Osprey asked.

"Yes sir," the man said.

"Call her down. It's urgent."

"Are you sure that's right, sir. She's up with her husband. Besides, she's in another galaxy. It will be too long before she can get here."

"That's an order! Call her down get the rest of the Ranger Force here."

As the message is sent:

A man explained, "Is this the time residence?"

"Who the fag is this? I'm in the middle of having sex." Edmund answered.

"It's alright. What do you want." Marileva asked.

"We need you Marileva. A U.F.O. has landed. We need assistance."

"Are you getting the rest of the force together? Tell the president, and try to keep this quiet. I'll be right there. I'm gonna take one of the fighters."

"A hold on a minute! We were in the middle of doin' it!" Edmund exclaimed.

"Gotta go. See ya hubby."

"Awe shit!"

Back at the White House:

"Dream," a man screamed, "the Martians are coming! Hide the President and the vice President!"

A person stepped out of the pod in burnt up space clothes. He had a claw, "I am the blow. Where is your superior, as in Dream or Majewski."

"He's not here."

"Don't f-ck with me I am you. I know he's here. Aghrr!" Blow 491 said as he plunged his glove into a guard. "I'll kill you all!"

"Hold up Glove, Glove??! You're dead!!!"
Jeremy explained. "Rangers, get arghhh!!!!"
these were Jeremy's last words.

"Who's next?" Glove asked.

"I am!"

"It's you," Glove answered.

Marileva. Die!!!!!"

Marileva pulled her laser and shot him, "Not today Glove."

"Enough of this puny game. It's your president I want." Glove flew into the White House.

"Rangers come on. We've got to flush him out!" Marileva explained. "How could this happen? Glove must have hijacked a spaceship. We need reinforcements."

"Easier said than done, Marileva," Edmund Lima explained. "The cavalry has arrived! Edmund also brought along D.J. Jevre, Fart, and Mr. Sellers." "What's the situation?" Edmund asked as he jumped out of the fighter.

Marileva answered, "Pie's got the pres and the vice-pres. We need a plan. Pie's already murdered Jeremy. Pie might murder David or Deem."

"I'll sneak around the back.
Marileva, come with me. D.J., you Sellers and fast take to the roof. The rest of you guys surround the front. Make sure he can't get out," Edmund explained.

Edmund and Marileva entered the back.

"Freeze, Glove!" Marileva ordered.

"I think not. Drop your weapons or the one gets it!"

"You win, Glove," Edmund explained.

Suddenly he pulled his weapon and fired. He hit Glove dead on. Glove left the president and vice-president. He went after Edmund. Marileva jumped in his way. Glove picked her up and hurled her to the wall. Luckily her alien strength kept her conscious.
Edmund pulled out his blaster again but Glove grabbed it and crushed it. Next he hurled Edmund against the wall. He was now half conscious.

Glove plunged his claw into Edmund.

"Edmund!" Marileva exclaimed.

Glove grabbed the president and ran out to the pod. He easily overpowered the Ranger Force flew off into the pod.

"Is he dead?" David Majewski asked.

Marileva ran over to him. She put 511 her two fingers on his neck, "He's just barely alive. Thank God. If he dies, I'll get you! Get him to emergency, quick!"

At the hospital:

G. Gerrison explained to Marilena, "He'll be alright, but he can't do any more strenuous exercise. He can't do anything until he comes out of his coma."

"Oh my God," Marilena said.

She walked out of hospital to meet D.J., Sellers, Zart, and David, "He's in a coma. Jerry Gerrison doesn't know when he'll come out." She thought to herself, "Maybe if I could use my alien powers to penetrate his mind, I might be able to revive him. I better talk it over with G. Gerrison. It's worth a try and I haven't really been able to test out my powers."

Chapter 11: Revival

Back at the stolen space pod

"I order you, Mr. President, to give me the code for taking control of the space station. With this information I will be able to take over the station and free my assailants."

"What assailants, Glave?"

"Why our old friends Commander and Haven. If you do not tell me, I will do the something I did to that pest, Edmund. But it will happen to you and the rest of the Space Force. Your country will be defenseless. Now, tell me!"

"Never."

"So be it. I will suck it out of you with my brain drain machine."
"Please, nooooo!"

Back at the hospital:

Marileva explained, "Jerry, I think I can bring Edmund out of his coma."

"How's that?"

"I can use my special powers to penetrate his mind. The world needs a leader. Please. When he wakes up in a few months, if he does, it might be too late. Please, do it for E.J. He needs a father."

"I guess it's worth a try. Go ahead."

Marileva walked into Edmund's room. She grasped one of his hands. She closed her eyes and used her mind. Can you understand me Edmund? Edmund, can you hear me?

Marileva?

Yes, how do you feel?

O.K. I guess. Where are you?

I'm in your mind. I'm trying to bring you out of your coma. Concentrate.

Soon after a minute of concentrating Edmund opened his eyes, "It's you. I thought I'd never see you again."

"Try not to talk," Marileva explained. "You need your rest. Glove is still out there. We've got guards watching you 24 hours a day. Now go to sleep."

"But," Edmund said as Marileva kissed him. "Aghh." Marileva used her knockout kiss to put Edmund asleep.

She walked out of the room, "Mission 511" accomplished."

"You did it?!" Jerry answered.

"Yep," she answered.

Back at the pod:

"I won't take your brain yet. I have the information I need. Your friends are all down at earth and the space station is basically unguarded."

A man at the space station replied, "Alien spaceship, please identify yourselves."

Glove grabbed the control panel, "I am the Glove and you are my prisoners." He landed the pod in the docking bay.

Soldiers armed with guns surrounded the pod. One soldier explained, "Come the f-ck outta there smart ass."

"How dare you talk to me," Glove jumped out. He raised his claw. Dart pellets shot out of his hand and killed a few people. He stabbed the rest, "The space station is now mine, all mine!" He flew the space station at hyperspeed. When he came to a stop.

Glove stopped at some kind of icy universe. It seemed to be an icy grave. A grave or some kind of resting place. A resting place of Donodans! "By using the stations heat rays I will be able to melt the ice cages to free the rest of the 551

Dorodans. Awe there."

All of the ice cages melted. The Dorodans were back. Along with them was their evil leader Haven, "Glove, you have freed us. And you have even taken over the complete spacestation. What is our status?"

"I have already murdered everyone on the the spacestation, most of the Ranger Force are dead, and I have murdered Edmund and Jeremy."

"Excellent work, Glove. Now to earth. We will destroy the U.S. and no one will be able to stop us."

Chapter 12: Role call

Back in Yurtalia:

David Majewski explained, "I have gathered you all together because of a great tragedy. We need agents. Glove has annihilated everyone on the space station. That is why we need our best agents. These people who I call out were available.

Mike Speed is here on earth and is ready for work. J. Garrison is also positioned here on earth. Zart is available. Acro is somewhere, D. J. Jerne is here at the council along with Mr. Osprey, Sellers, Marilva and myself.

I have appointed Scott Zipsword as vice President. Since the Deem is sort of absent I must take the office of President.

The only problem is, how can we call everyone? Are there any suggestions?"

"I have an idea," Scott explained. "We can split the team apart. I heard Airo is some where in Japan. Marileva, you and Sellers take a plane there. The rest of us can track down Mike, and Jerry. Well, get to work. While you're doing that I think the rest of you should come with me. We're gonna see Edmund."

At the hospital:

"How are you doing, Edmund?" Marileva asked.

"I feel just fine now that you're here."

"I brought some friends."

"Scott!, Dave, D.J., Osprey, Jerry! Scott, man I haven't seen you since high-school. How's your thinking cap?"

"Just fine, since I finally got it fixed. It got me my job as Vice-President."

"You know each other?" Marileva asked.

"Yeah." D.J. answered. "We go way back. David knows him and so does Jerry and Scott. We all went to the same high school and jr. high."

Suddenly a man ran in, "There's a space station hovering over the
"From the files of the Thinking Cap."

continent. Mr. Osprey, the rest of the Ranger Force is waiting to escort you."

"Well let's go then. You guys stay here. I'll deal with this Marilera, aren't you supposed to be in Japan?"

"I had to stop by here to see what's happenin'."

"What's goin' on? Is there somethin' goin' on that I should know about?"

"Don't worry, Edmund," David explained.

They all left the room, "Dam-it! Come back. Shiii-!"

At the sight of the Dorodans:

Osprey arrived. The Ranger Force was easily annihilated. The only one left was Osprey. The Dorodans now had two captives.

"Excellent work, Glove. You say Edmund is in the hospital. He must be a very strong person to resist one of your claw jams. We must kill him once and for all! You must not fail me twice Glove. My plan must be perfect. Commander, I want you to hit on St. J. Jerve. The rest of you come with me. Our spy at the hospital bugged Edmund's room. We're going to take out the Space Force 591 one by one.

At 12:32 at the hospital:

"I'm bustin' outta this joint. Those mutha fu--in' Dorodans must think I'm a gosh dam- jack as-. No one bugs my room. Luckily, I have a blaster. As I always say, don't leave home without one."

"Where do you think you goin' Jerry?" asked. "Argh shi-!"

"I didn't shoot him. Dorodans, they're after me!" Edmund ran down the halls to stairwells. Dorodans were all over the place. By the time Edmund got to street level the Dorodans surrounded him. "Awe fu--. We meet again, Glove. I remember you. I remember you well. You're the one who tried to play Freddy on my as-. That wasn't easy to get over. And I don't think that I didn't try. Now I'm pissed!" He spread the streets with lasers annihilating every Dorodan except glove. "It's your turn, Glove."

"You are so early mistaken, Ed."

"Don't call me that."

"Ed."

"I warned you as-hob!" 60

Edmund pulled out an eye and shot Blaze full of holes. He wasn't even tickled, "Son of a bit --!" Edmund exclaimed.
"I'm gettin' the fu -- outta here!"

At D. J. Jerné's house:

"Who's there," D. J. asked.

"Me."

"Me who?"

"Open the dam-door!"

"Alright, just chill."

A beautiful woman walked in, "Commander,
I thought you were dead. We blew up your spacestation!"

"Well, let's just say, I came back." She pulled out a laser. "Get on the bed. I have some info for you."

"But why are you telling me?"

"Shut up, and listen. Haven has gone crazy. He's murdered everyone, well he had Blaze do it. He's taken out everyone on your spacestation. I don't think he's out for fetuses anymore. When you Space Cops destroyed our spacestation the Crystal Cages were all destroyed. So were the plans. He is out for human annihilation. He's going to capture all of you cops and put you in the freezer. It's a suspended animation tank where butt
-naked humans are stored. Haven sent me 67 here to get you. But, you're kinda cute. So get your clothes off or you're comin' with me!"

They had sex all the rest of the night. It seemed that the Space Cops had a spy. An evil person that turned good because of the circumstances. If there were no humans to stop him he would want more and more.

Back with Edmund:

He ran all the way to the stadium. It had to be at least 8 miles. I would blame him if a dude with a sharp claw is chasing you. Suddenly out of the black comes a spaceship. It beat Edmund to the stadium. A beam trashed the glass roof and picked a man up. He fought valiantly but the beam seemed to spark him up. He seemed to be deactivated

"Dam-! They got Mike!"

"And I have you!"

"Glove!"

"Arg!" Glove explained as Edmund blasted him.

"I've got to get to Jordan's house!"

In China

Marileva explained, "Scott, come with me"

me, Sellers, check over there."

"arhhhhhh!"

"Sellers!" Scott exclaimed.

A beam carried Sellers and another person away. It was Acro! Someone ran by, "maileva, it's me, Billy."

"What happened," maileva asked.

"They were Dordans. Acro and me tried to fight them off. They got him."

At Jordan's house:

Willy explained, "Jordan, man you are so silly. You locked the boys in the bathroom."

Jordan explained, "Sorry. He, he! We still gotta get the door open."

Edmund pulled out the uzi, "Knock-knock."

Jordan yelled, "Punk! I still have ten payments on this house. What are you doin' here anyway?"

"Glove's after me."

Willy questioned, "You mean that guy with the claw?"

"Yeah. He's gonna bill everyone. You still got that pod ship?"

"Yeah, why?" Jordan asked.

"We're goin' to China."

Jordan asked, "Where's David?"

"Peb with Marileva, there they are!
Marileva!"

"You're supposed to be in the hospital! What are you doin' here?"

"The Porolans." Willy answered

"Yeah, I know." Scott replied.

"We can't do anything on foot. We have to get aboard the space station." said David.

Marileva asked, "Where's D.J.?"

"When I last called him he was fu--in' a girl."

"Yeah, thanks Jordan. We really needed to know about that." Willy answered.

Chapter 13: A Dark Secret

At the D.S.C.

"Haven, Commander is not back yet. Do you suppose they captured her?"
Glove asked.

"No, she's not stupid. She must be an informer to the Crystal People. As of now she must be annihilated, at once!"

Back at D.J.'s house:

David heard a knock at the door,
"Hurry, get dressed!"

"It might be Haven. Get a blaster!"

Jordan explained, "Open up, David!"

He opened the door. Edmund screamed, "Commander!" Marilena, Edmund, David, Billy, Scott, and Willy pulled their weapons.

Jordan asked, "Why does everyone have a gun?"

Willy explained, "She's a Jordan. I saw her when I was captured. She's one bad dudette!"

"Hold on," D.J. explained. "She's one of us." D.J. explained everything (except for having sex).

"Alright, Commander, but don't pull anything." Marileva explained.

David asked, "Can you get us aboard the S.S.C.?"

"I suppose."

Scott answered, "We should leave a small force here. Marileva, you and Bill get aboard. Take commander. The lesser the people, the lesser the detectiveness."

"Did you forget something?" Edmund asked

"Oh I'm sorry," Marileva kissed him and he fell in a chair unconscious.

Willy asked, "What are the rest of us gonna do?"

Jordan explained, "I think were going back to Japan to investigate Acros disappearance."

On the pod going to the S.S.C.:

Commander explained, "We should land in a few seconds."

"Woa! This is great. I'm in a ship with two hot women."

"Billy," Marileva asked.

"Yeah."

"Shut the fu-- up!"

"Marileva, Billy, were here."

They all landed on a pad in the S.D.C. Dorodans surrounded it.

Harven explained, "Please identify yourselves."

Marileva explained, "Get your blasters. Commander, open the hatch."

"Billy you're going to need your blaster."

They stepped out. They jumped down and fired at a bunch of Dorodans.

"Drop your weapons," a familiar voice explained. I told you that you would need your weapons."

Marileva said, "You shut! I knew we shouldn't have trusted you."

"It's too late, Marileva." Harven added, "It's time to see your father Billy."

"But, he's been dead."

"And as for you Marileva, 671

I'll see you in my quarters. Come Billy.

They walked through a series of halls. Another well known voice sounded, "Hello, son. Did you miss me?"
Maileva screamed, "Holy sh-t! noo!"

Chapter 14: No, you can't have him!

Marileva explained, "Glove, how? It's impossible."

Glove answered, "See the family resemblance."

"But father, why?"

"When you were young Haven took me and transformed me into this. Now I'm more powerful than anyone. My kung-fu powers have been increased. Now you will become just like me, your father. It is your destiny."

"Didn't I hear this in a movie once?" Marileva asked.

"No, father. You murdered my friend and almost killed another."

Haven explained, "You have no 69 choice. Put him in the pod, we're going to planet Dorador. And as for you Marileva. Where is she? Find her!"

Marileva ran to the docking bay. She hotwired some planes. After this she got in one fighter and flew out, "I'll be back, Billy." The other ships followed her. "Edmund, can you read me?"

"Yeah, what's up?"

"They got Billy."

"We can get 'em out."

"Edmund?"

"Yeah?"

"Glove's his father."

"Holy crap!"

"I got us some fighters."

"Good, I'll tell the others."

Marileva, "Don't worry, I'm out."

Back on earth:

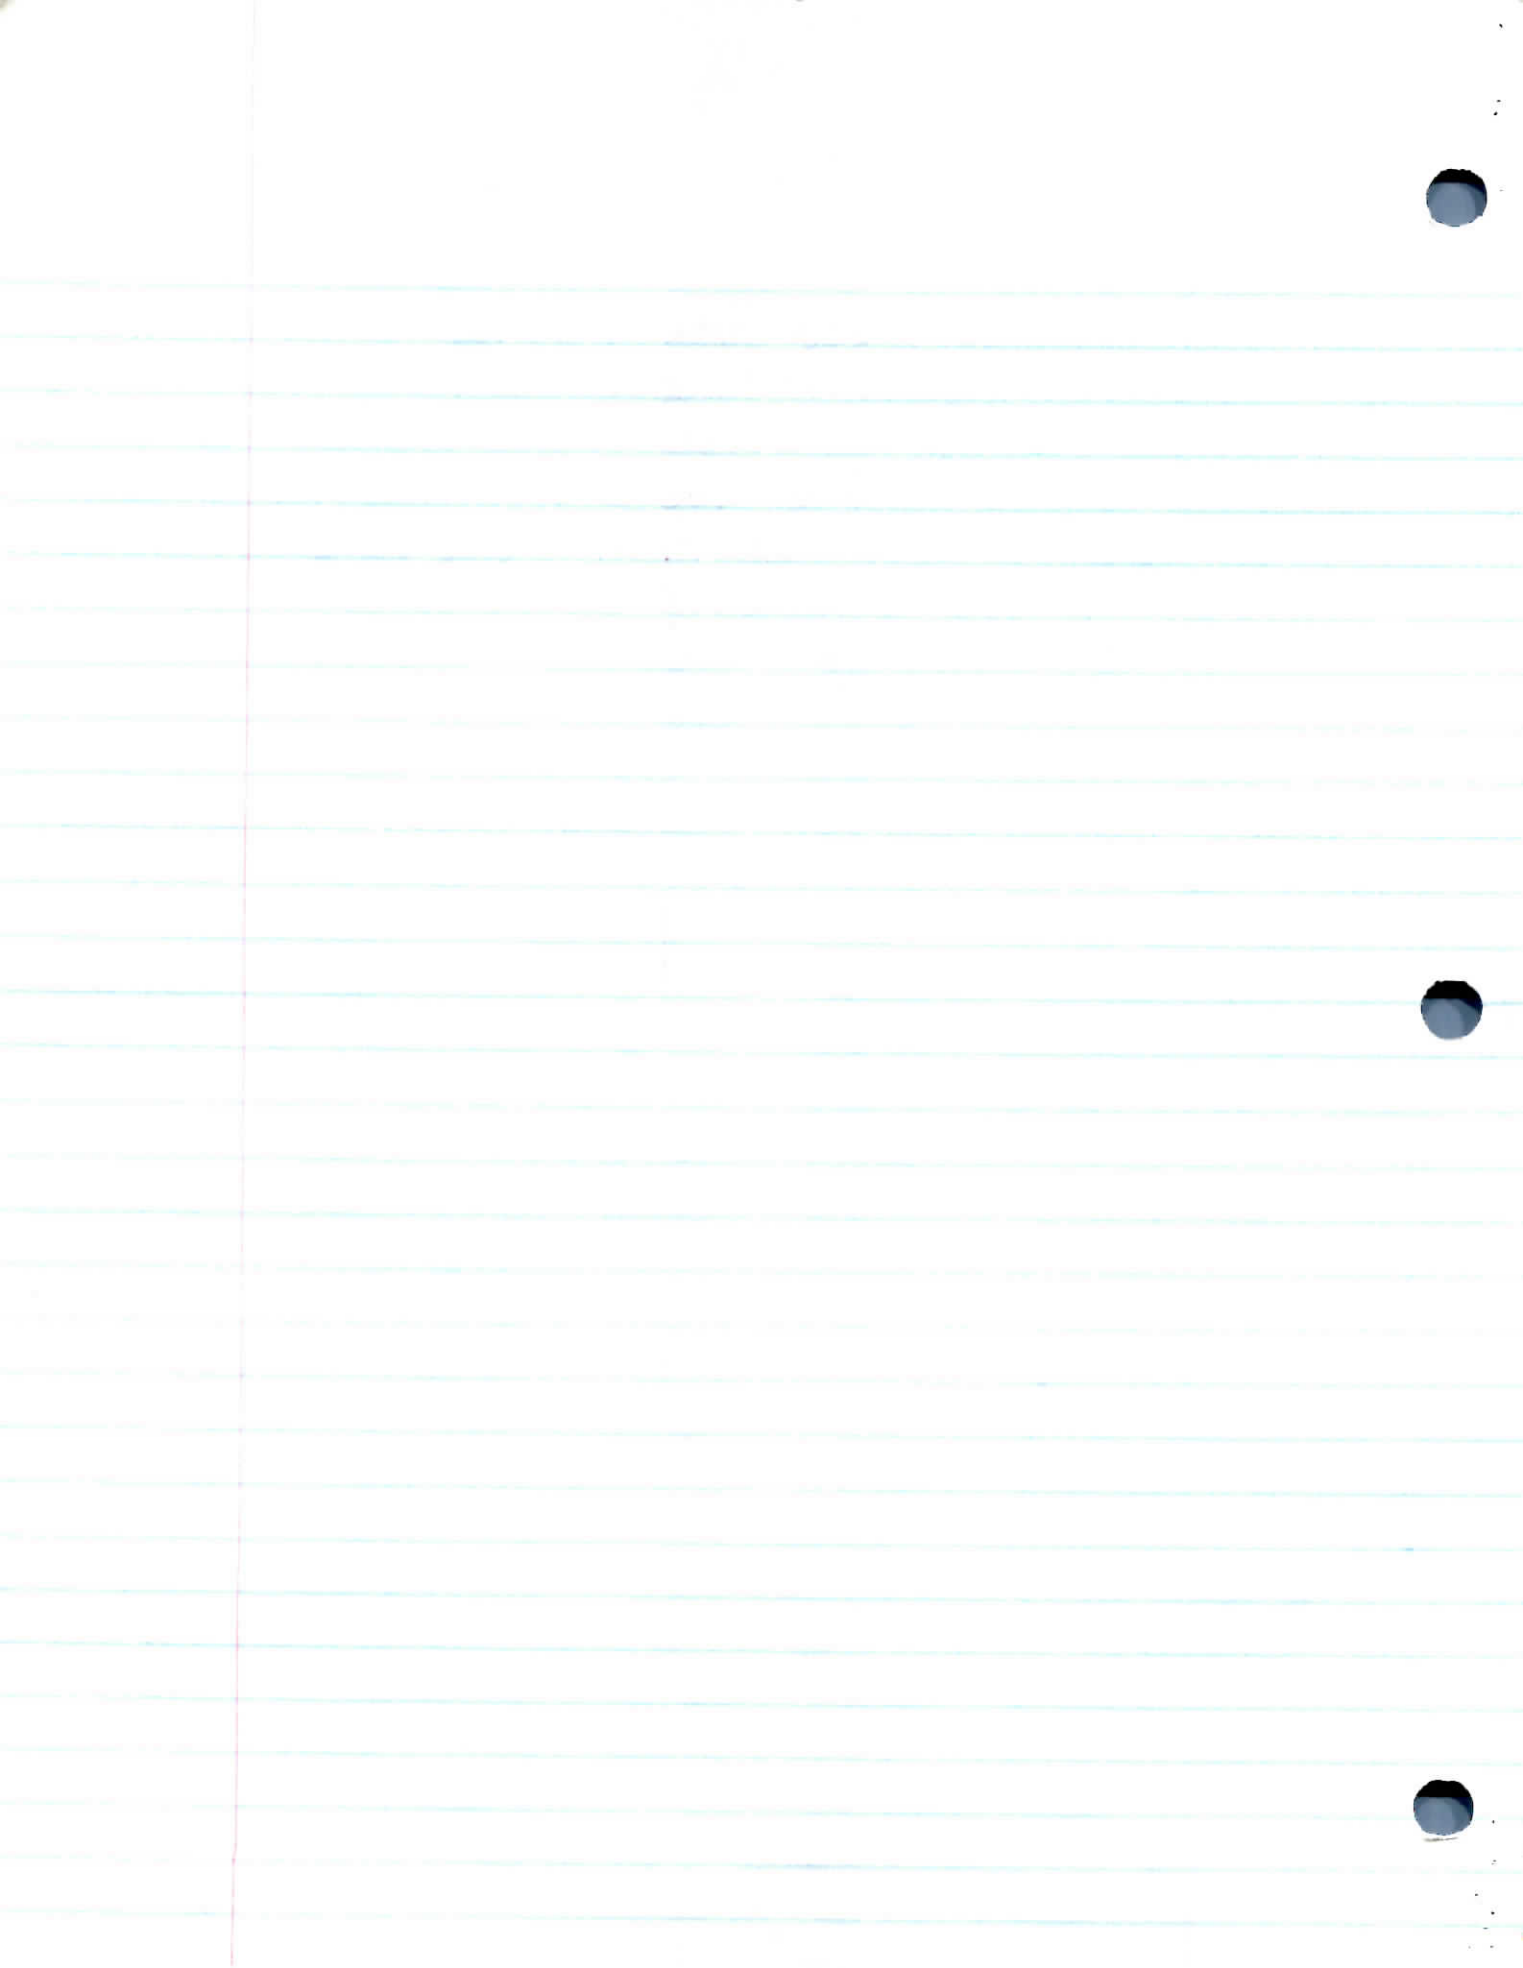

"Gurps, they got Bill."

Commander tricked you as A.J. Marileva has some fighters.
Scott, D.J., Wiley, Jordan, and Dave, we're goin' after a space station.

Back at the D.I.C.:

Praven announced, "Get some planes out! I want her!"

Marilena flew the planes to earth.
Luckily there were enough that everyone was able to have their own fighter. They were led by phrases like, "let's kick some ass!"
"hey, we want some pussa!" and "
let's do this for Billy & the others".

Chapter 15: The Final Battle?

At the S.S.C.:

Haven yelled, "Battle stations! They mustn't get aboard."

Edmund ordered, "D.J., David, Scott, and Marileva, lets get aboard. Willy and Jordan, take care of those fighters."

"Thanks a lot," Jordan explained.

"Yeah." Willy complied.

The force got aboard easily. Jordan and Willy destroyed all of the enemy fighters in less than 3 minutes.

"Freeze you guys." Commander explained. She pointed her gun at D.J. "It was fun while it lasted."

"How could you?"

"Horodane aren't stupid. Only 21 a dumb fu-- would have sex with a human." She pointed and shot David Majewski. He fell to the ground.

Edmund ran to him, "You alright."

"Sure, igh huh. It tingles like I enorex."

"I know, I was shot once."

"That did it, bite!" Marileva fired and shot Commander down. D.J. ran to her.

"You know, D.J.!" Commander explained. "I'm not really Dorodan. I was like Marileva except I'm completely a Dorodan. Help me."

"Why should we trust that hoe?" Scott asked. "She tricked us once. Forget her."

"I'm stayin' with her," D.J. explained.

"Edmund, we have to save Bill. Scott, stay with Dave. Come on Edmund!"

They took out the guards easily. It's time for Raven, "You can't touch us. We're headed for Dorodan. If you shoot me, you'll never make it through the quasar. Drop your weapons. I warn you."

Edmund explained confidently, "Awe, fu-- you! Let's sick this guy's as--!"

Jordan and Willy ran in, "It's true!"

Edmund and Marileva turned. A person dressed in black jumped down. It was Billy. He easily took Jordan and Will down. Edmund pulled his blaster.

Marileva screamed, "Edmund, noo!!" It was too late. He fired. Billy was back to normal.

"Marileva, when you fired you destroyed commanders mind control thing. Haven was aware that she was falling in love with B.J. So he put it on her. It's the same with Bill." Everyone took a sigh of relief.

Suddenly Glove jumped down. "Die!" Luckily Billy was determined to destroy his evil father. It was a humongous clash. Father vs. son. Glove had the upperhand. He's bigger and stronger. He had Bill on the floor. Glove's claw of death was 2 inches above Bill. Marileva grabbed his hand. Edmund 7/1 jumped in back of him. Willy and Jordan jumped and tripped Glove over Edmund.

The ship was almost through the quasar. If it were to go through it wouldn't come back until you would find another quasar, you would no where to look for one in another universe.

Glove was unconscious. Haven was trying to escape. Edmund and Bill were after him. The other part of the space force was in the cockpit.

D.J. explained, "If we can eject the part of the craft Haven and Glove are on, we might be able to get out of the pull of the quasar."

"But, Edmund and Bill are in the compartment," Willy explained.

D.J. replied, "Marilena and the rest of you have to go. Since I'm bringing Commander there is no extra ship. I'll stay."

Jordan explained, "Good luck, David."

They all flew out. The only ones on the ship were D.J. Jones, Edmund, Billy, Glove, and Haven. Edmund 751 and Billy caught up with Haven. Glove was in back of them. Billy took on Glove once again. Edmund took Haven, "What were ya gonna do to my wife?"

"You really wanna know?"

"Yeah."

"I was gonna rape the bitch!"

"If there's one thing that pisses me off, it's people that fu- with my women. Another is when they call them names. I'm gonna kick your as-!" Edmund almost murdered him with a series of blows. Haven was weak. His crystalline powers were failing.

"Glove, help me." Glove turned. Billy used a powerful 360 jump kick to dislocate his jaw.

Edmund replied, "You knocked him flat on his as-! Haven, now, you touch my wife, I touch you. You shouldn't fu- with a Sims."

A.J. ran in, "Hurry get to the last 2 ships!"

"What about you?" Billy asked.

"Don't worry! Go!"

Edmund and Billy ran for the ships. They flew out. The jets of 76 the S. S. C. turned on. Something popped out. It was a compartment that flew into the quasar. It contained Love and Heaven! D. J. did it! The Space Station Cole was safe.

D. J. explained, "Did you think I was let a million-dollar space station go down the drain? Think of the tax payers."

Chapter 16: Play, let's have some sex!

At the S. S. C.:

"Marileva, did you put E. J. to bed?"

"Yes Edmund."

"Come on! It's time."

"I don't think I can keep doin' this. Ugh, ugh, yes! yes! yes!! yes!!!
!!!!!!!"

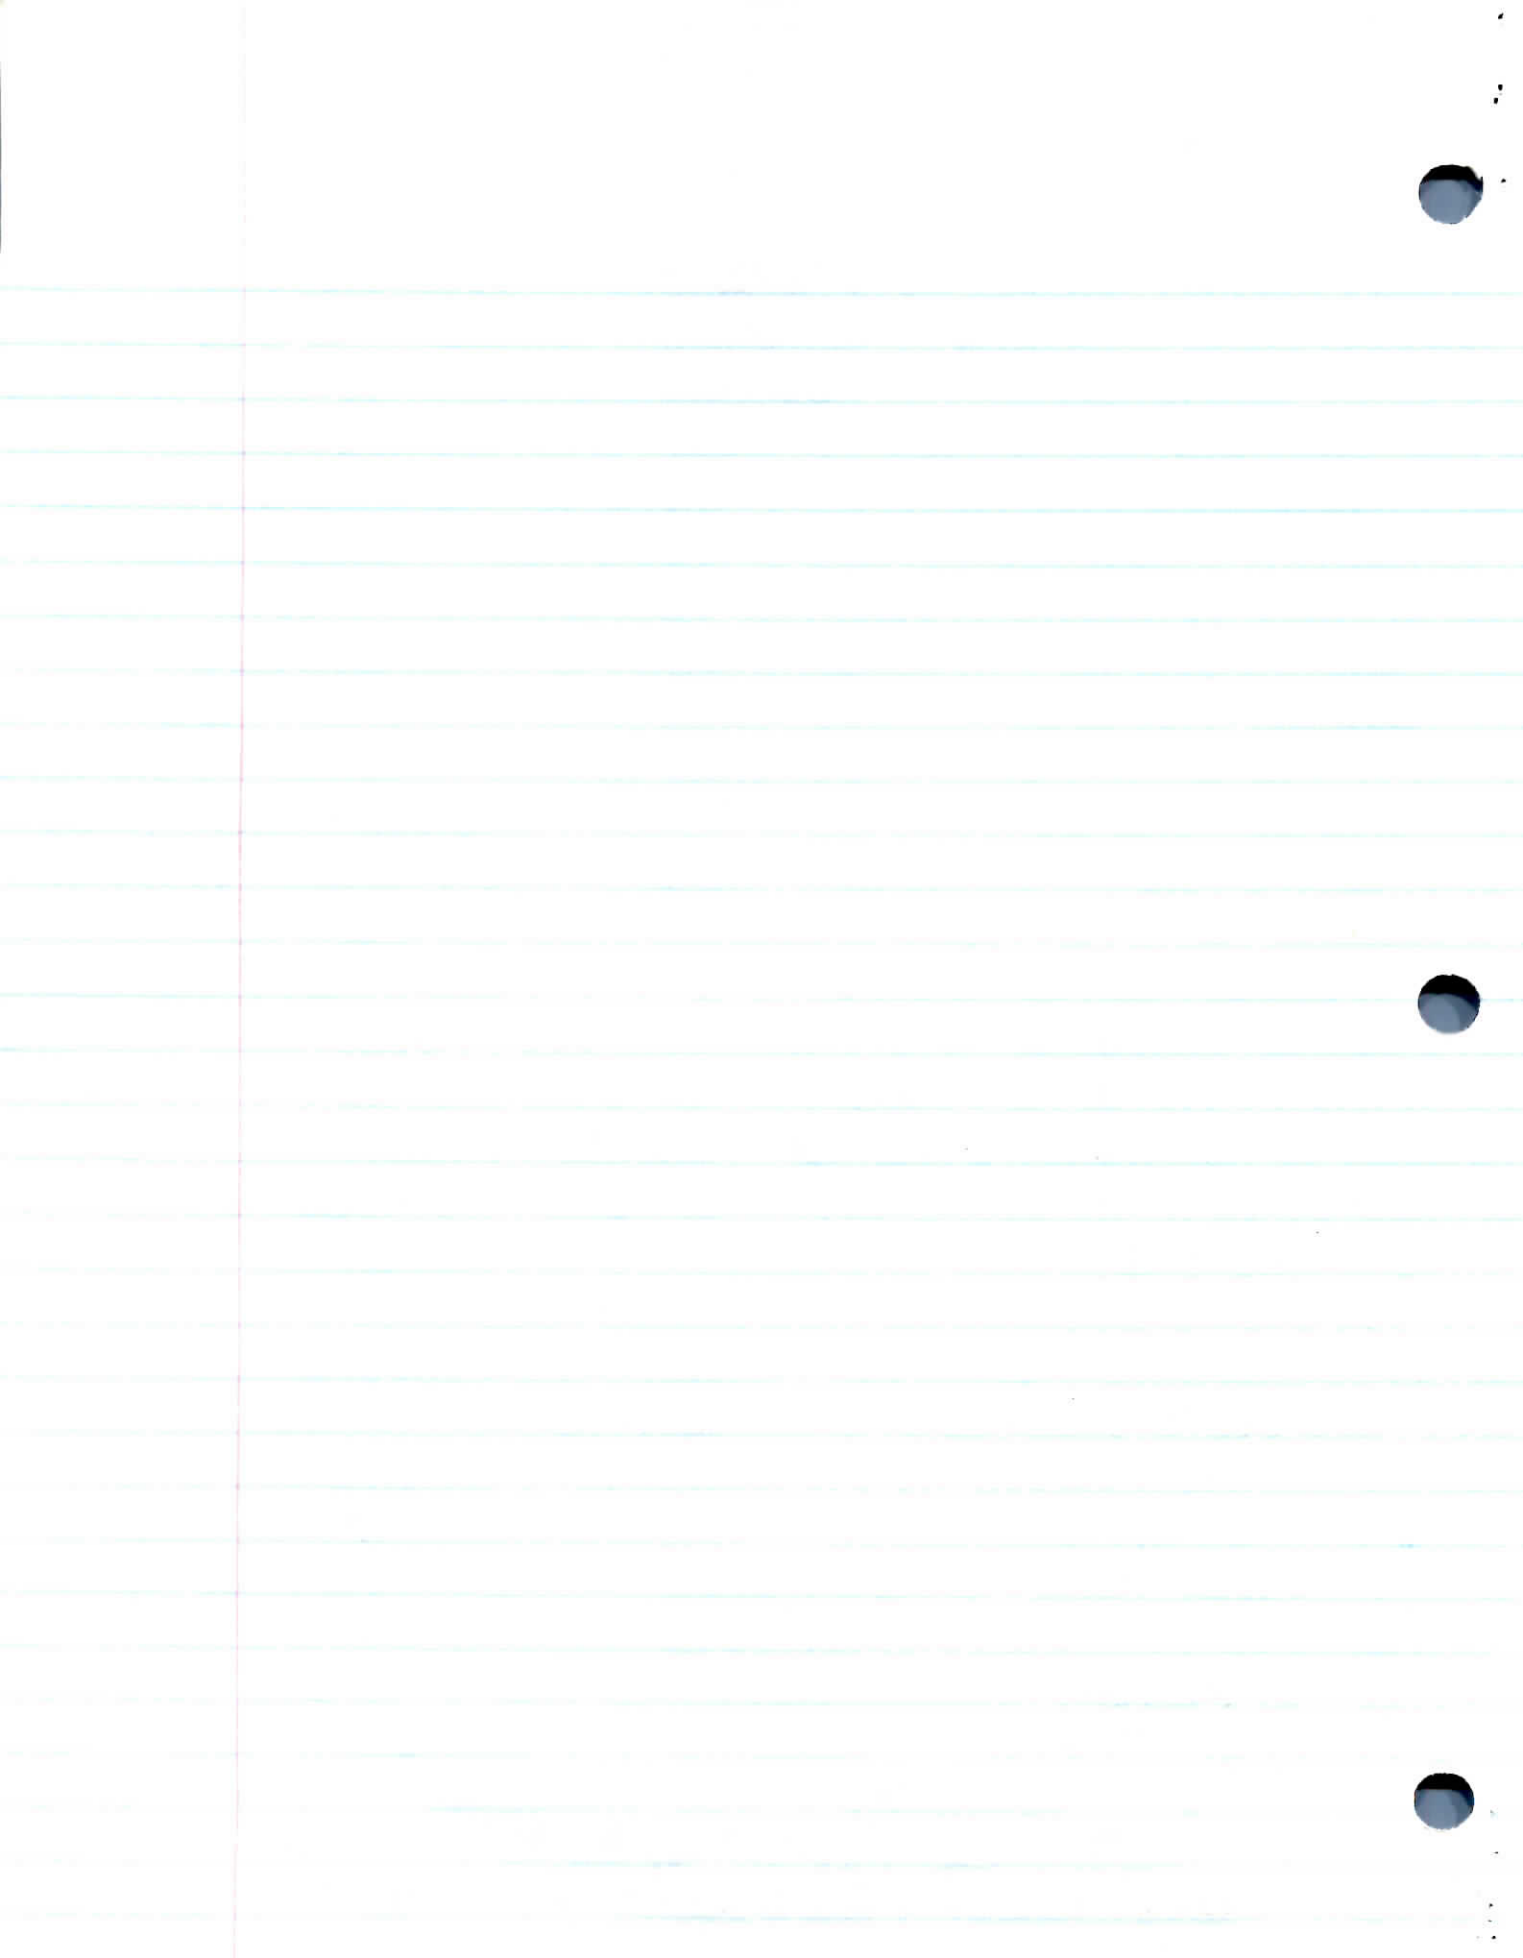

At D. J.'s place in the S. S. C.:

"Owweeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee ee!"

Thanks again!

Chapter 17: What Now?

You might have guessed that Edmund and Marilva were up at the S.D.C. with E.J. When he's in bed, his parents do it. My advice to you is don't be - with Edmund's wife.

Mike Speed, Keem, G. Garrison, Acro, Sam Osprey, and Sellers are missing in actions or even prisoners of war. By now they are probably on the dying planet of Darodan. They are probably through the crater, also. They might be saved, they might not.

Willy G and Jordan Ripstein have been inducted, formally, into the 791

Space Force as air fighter pilots
by D. J. Jevne.

D. J. Jevne married Commander but they don't have children, yet. (luckily).

Who cares about Glove and Plaven. Just bidding. The muha fu...ers are somewhere in a quasar.

David Majewski has been sworn in as the undisputed 61st president of the 56 "Reunited States.

Jeremy was buried in the Grave of Heroes in Surtalia (the new capital of the 56 "Reunited States.

Billy (the Deputy) Bear has gone back to Japan to learn how to use his talent. (Bruce Lee's idol).

Scott Gipsword has been sworn in as the undisputed vice-president of the 56 "Reunited States.
He's lucky he had that thinking cap to get through this he... of a job.

Space Station Colt 2: The Revenge of McGloove

Can our heroes stop Glove from his slaughtering and killing spree? Edmund's books just keep getting bigger and better. It's thoroughly pornographic and it's humorous also.

Some sequels are worse than the first book but this one is better than Space Station Colt 1. Edmund is brilliant in this sequel.

Open the book and find out about all of these comments.

Reasons for rating: 1. pornographic, violence.
