Dedications

This boob is dedicated to almost everyone. (son of a bic!)
Last time I did this, I got all confused.

Cast of characters

Edmund Sims: The star of the book and the writer.

Marilena Sims: Edmund's sexy wife and a tough female agent.

Laurie: A girl determined to defeat the Space Vampire.

Space Vampire: The villain (Duh!).

Sheriff Pook: A good guy.

Pussy Bear: Pook's wife

Wilby 7: ace pilot

Jordan Ripstein: another ace pilot.

H.J. Jevne: Captain of the Space Zone,

David Majewski: Undisputed 61st president of the 56 Reunited States.

Commander: H.J.'s sassy wife.

Jason Neff: Captain of Space Station Perma.

Scott Gipsword: Undisputed 61st Vice President of the 56
Reunited States.

Cathleen Coobe: An agent on the S.S.P. and a doctor.

Chapter 18: Angle of Attack

On Space Station Petija:

"This is Jason Greff of the S.S.P. Come in S.S.C."

"Hello, this is David Jerne. Call me 'me S.S.'"

"Hello D.J. We were not able to locate your lost agents. They must have been gone so far outta this solar system."

"Yeah. How's tricks?"

A voice on the S.S.P. sounded.
"Sir, we have an alien intruder on board."

"I'll get back to you, Jerne."

"Oh, call if you need assistance."

"Sure. I'm out."

Neff heard a growl, "Get outta my cabin!" He pulled his laser. He fired. It had no effect on the man. Neff ran out of the room. All through the ship were shriveled up people that looked like prunes. There was no escape. Neff looked into the tall man's red eyes. He was paralyzed.

At the S.D.C.

"I'm worried," D.J. explained. "Neff was supposed to report back to me." He walked to the ship com. "Edmund, Marilera, Jordan, and Willy, come down in uniform. It's urgent."

In the Sims cabin:

"This is no faggin' fair." Edmund yelled. "Everytime we get in bed we're paged."

"I hope it's not Dorodans!" Marilera explained.

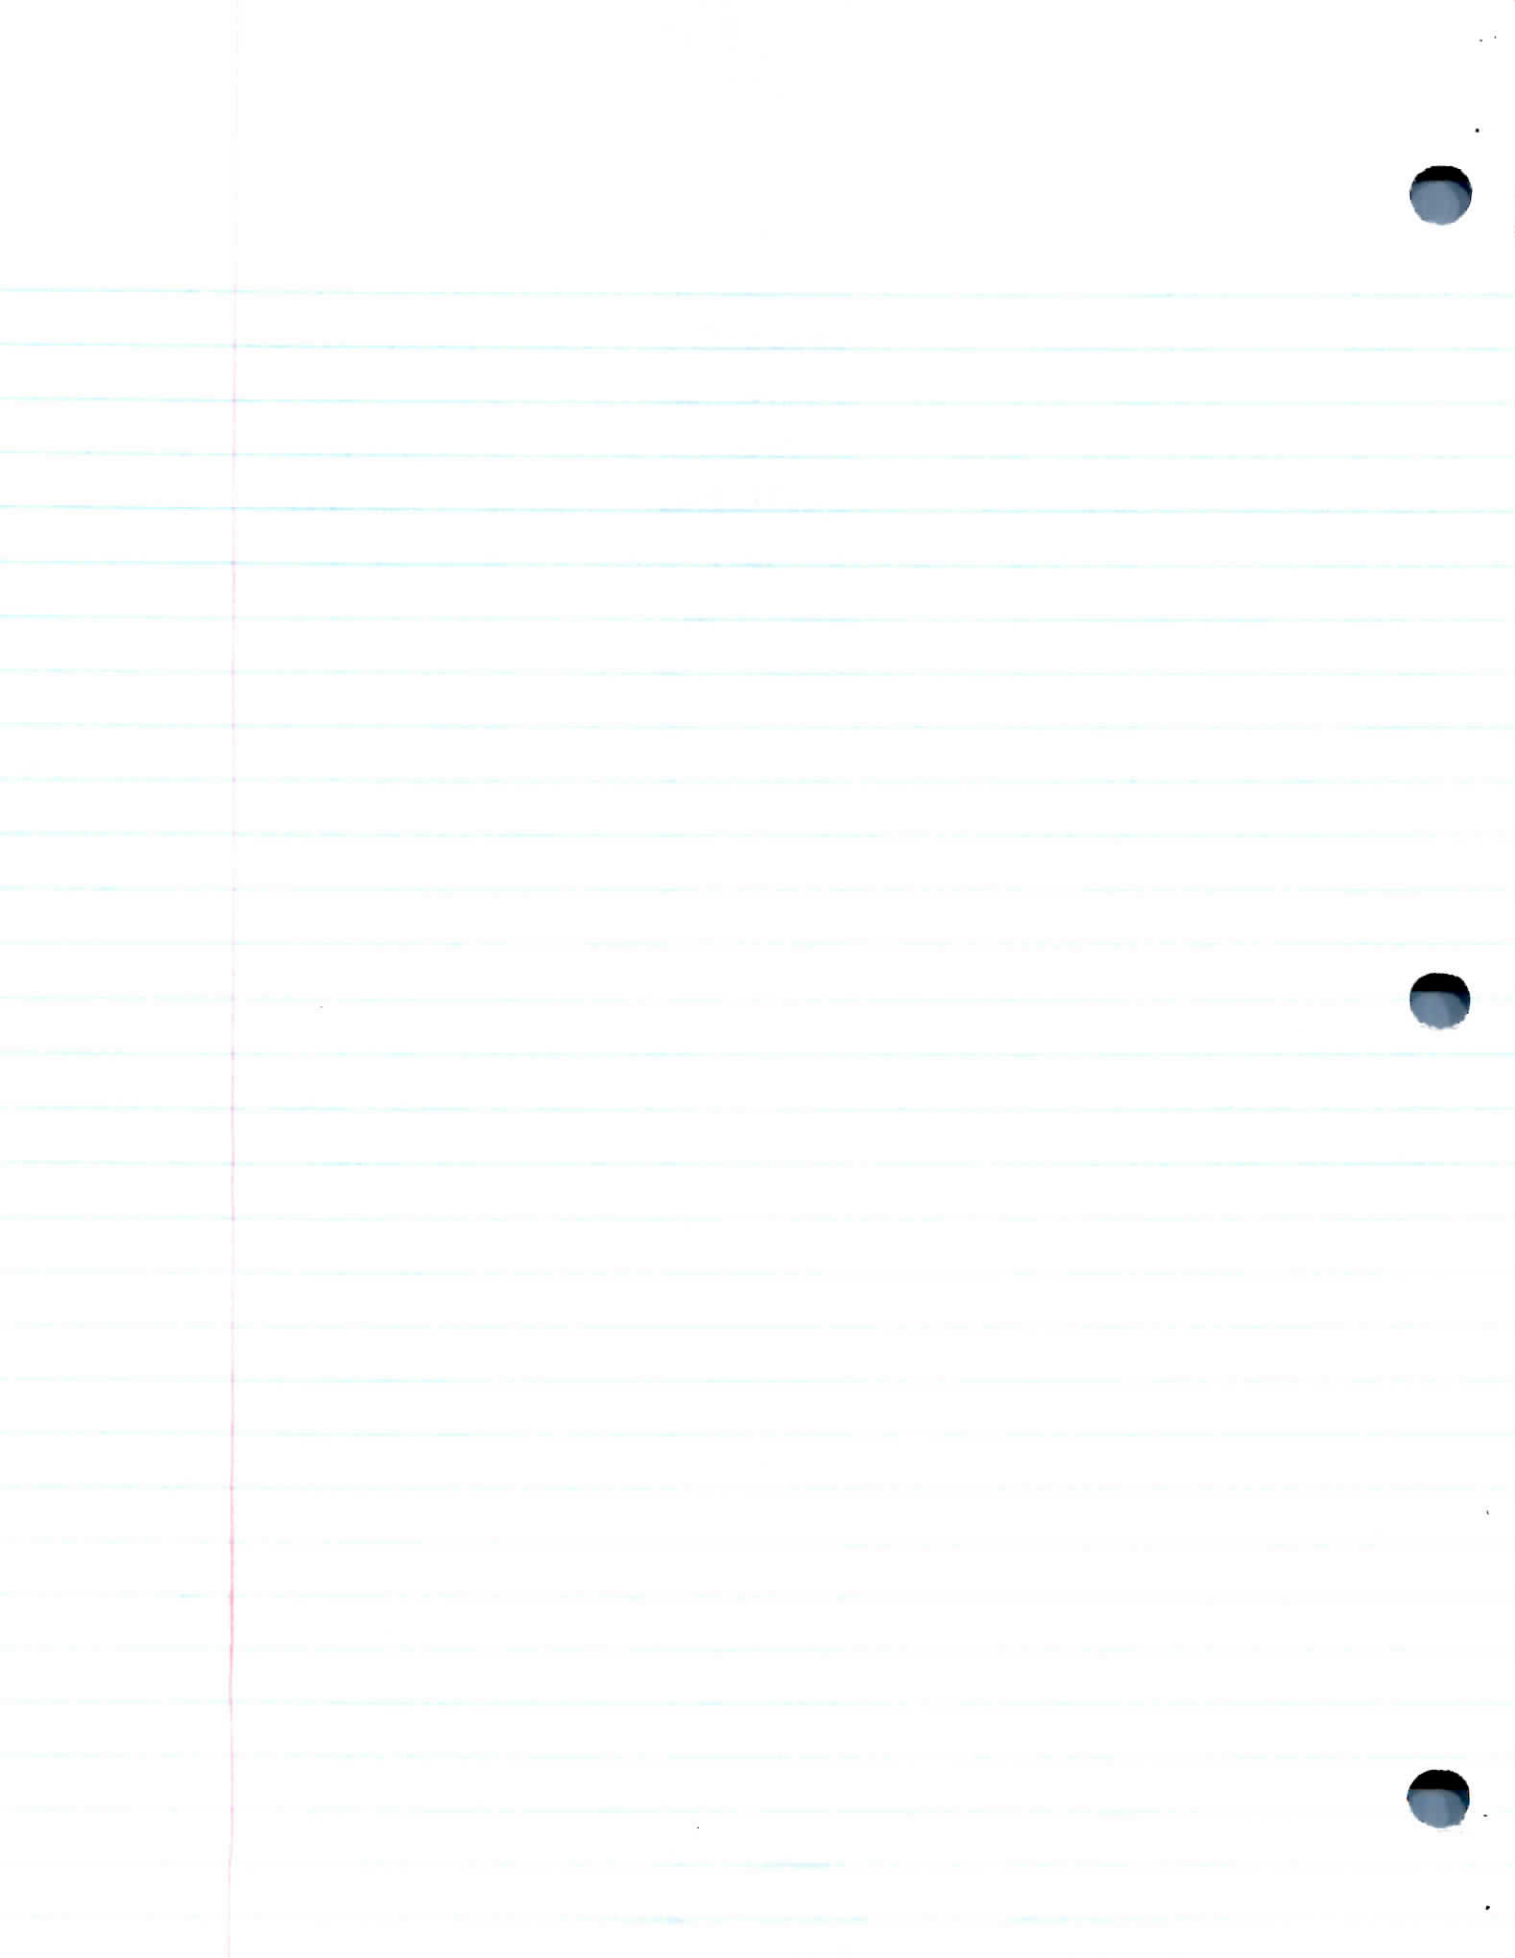

The four pages met each other on the way to the bridge.

D.J. ordered, "I want you guys to fly fighters down to Space Station Petya. The last I heard them, there was an alien intruder. I know this is short notice since you guys just fought the Dorodans a few weeks ago."

Jordan mumbled, "Yeah, right." They boarded their fighters to fly to the S.I.P.

Chapter 19: The First Prey

In space:

Edmund ordered, "Wing formation guys. Jordan, cover the back."

"Sure."

They landed within 5 minutes.

"Willy, you and Jordan, go that way. Come with me Marileva."

Willy explained, "Holy cow! Those bodies are decomposed and yucky."

"You're right Will, that's sick. I wonder what hit this place."

Back with Marileva and Edmund

"Help," a voice called. It was Oeff. "Thank God." He pulled his weapon and stunned Edmund.

"What did you do to him?"
Marilena asked as she drew her weapon.

Someone ran up behind her in the dark and grabbed her. It was the tall guy, "I am the Space Vampire. You can't get out of my grasp. Your puny Dorian strength is no match for a vampire's strength." His teeth plunged into her neck.

"No, no, ugh."

Neff explained, "Now you are a vampire like me."

The Space Vampire replied, "You will soon feel the urge for food. Here it is on the floor. You may have him. You are now one with the clan of the Space Vampire."

"Yes," she explained.

Marilena picked Edmund up and put him in a chair.

"Marilena," Edmund said still in pain, "What happened to your baby blue eyes?" He gazed in Marilena's red eyes. "I can't move."

Neff ordered, "Do it! Argh!"

Marilena turned, "We must <sup>89</sup>

blee, master."

"I agree."

Edmund still in pain asked, "Oh man, I feel woozy. How'd you guys find me?"

Willy explained, "meet Cathleen and Laurie."

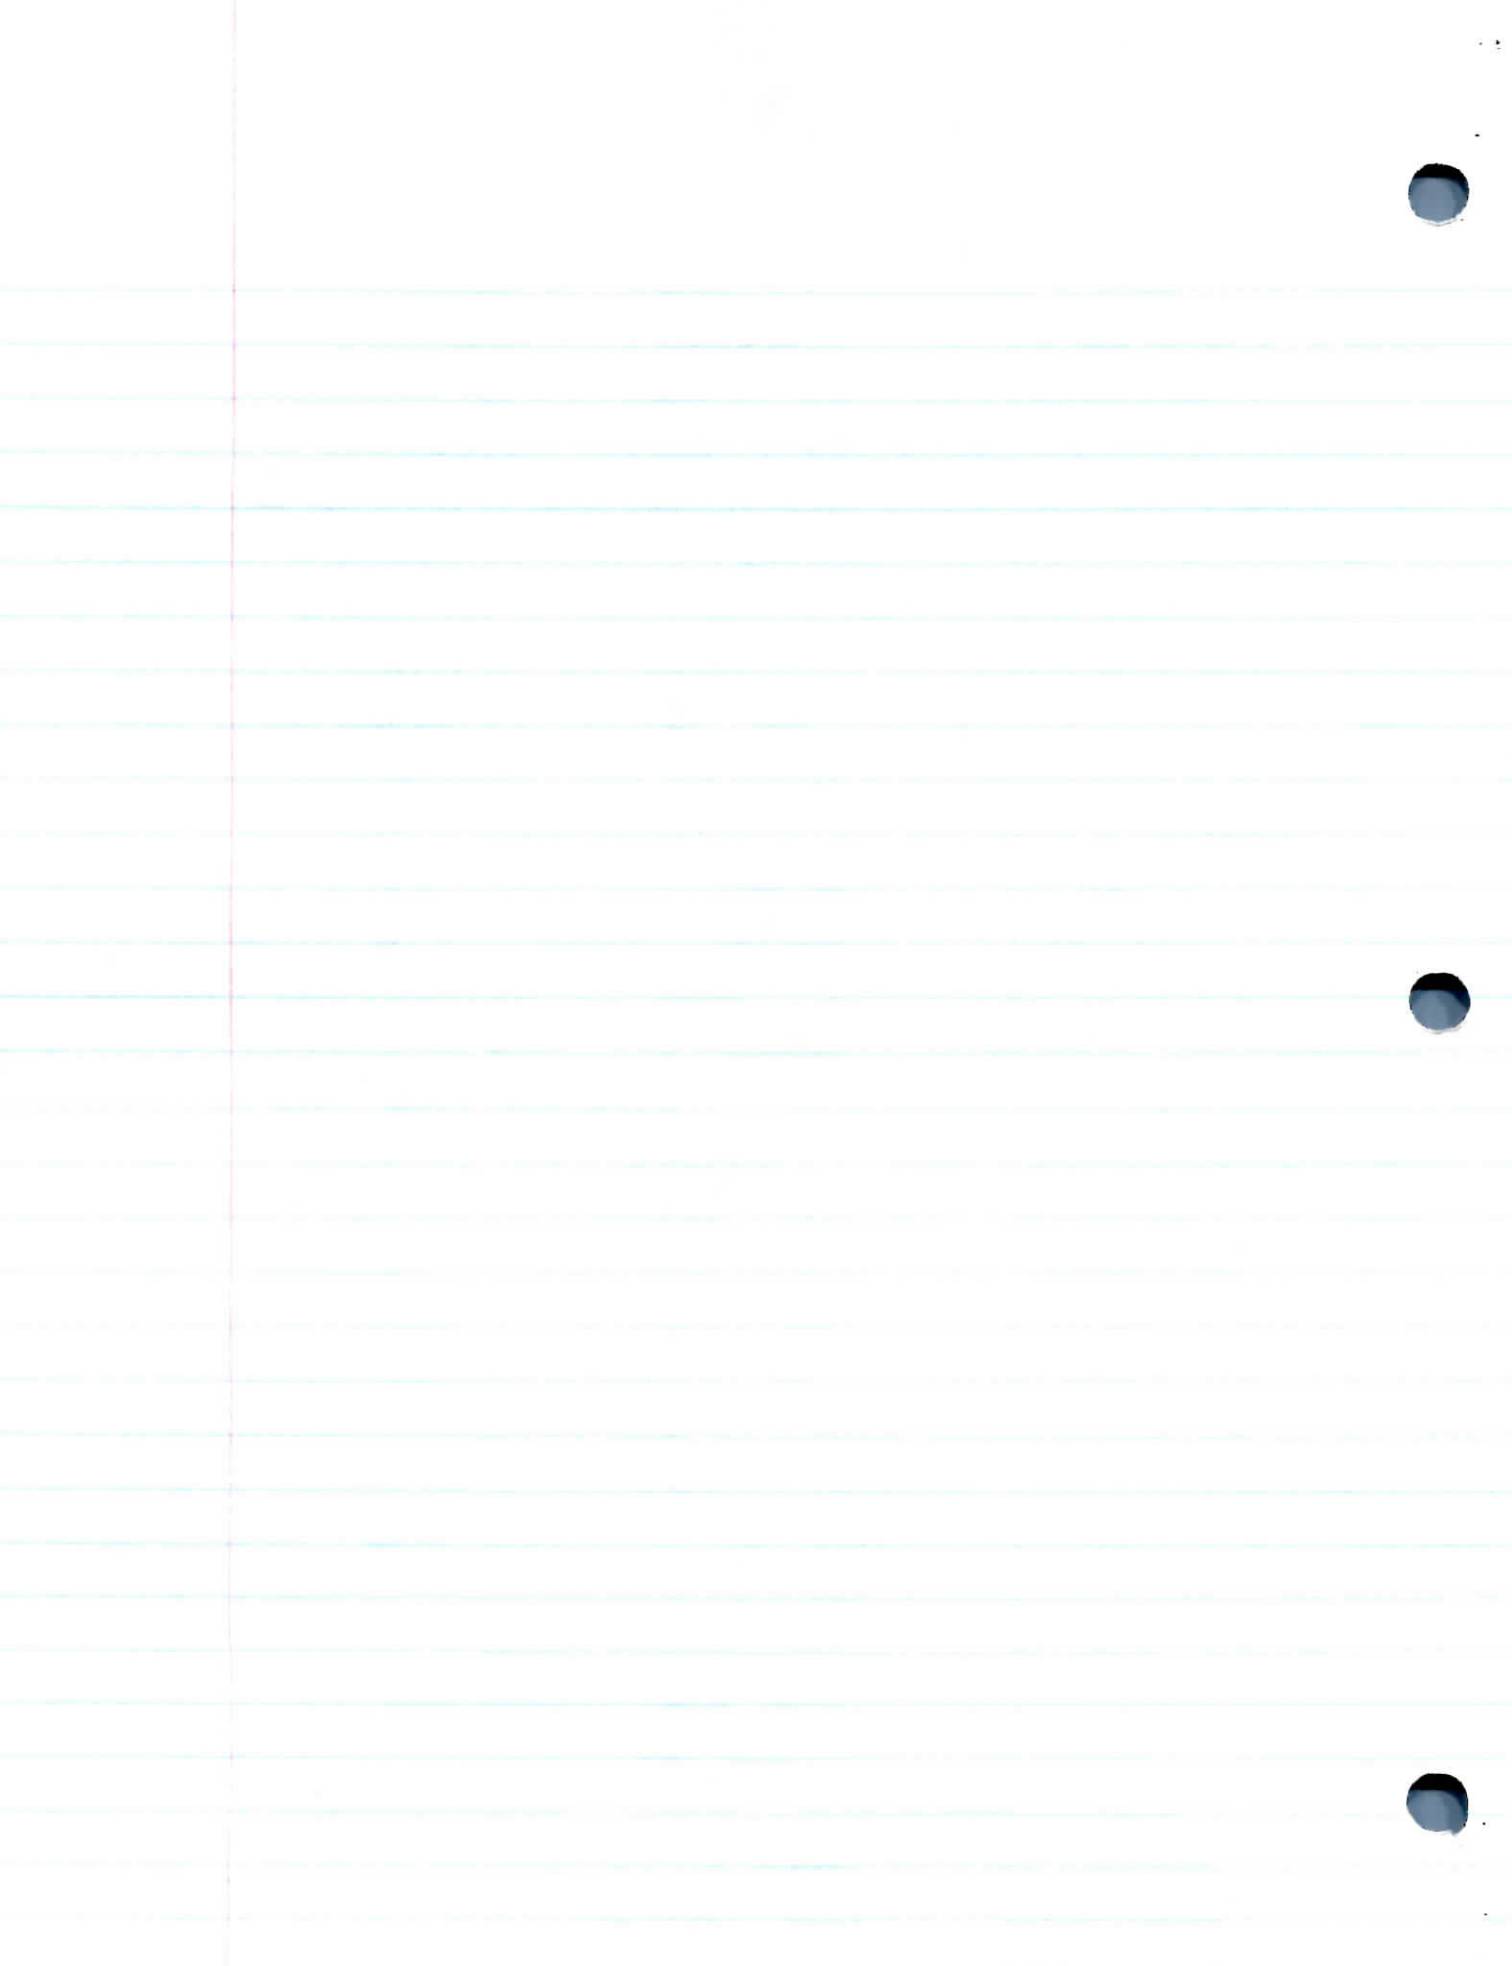

"Thanks. They got her. I saw it. I couldn't help her. I was stunned. What of the others?"

Jordan answered, "There decomposed."

Willy explained, "We have to get back. What about Neff?"

Laurie explained, "There's nothing we can do. I'm not gonna wait for him to wake up."

The fire flew back to the S.S.C. with the bad news.

Chapter 20: I Want the Truth!

On the S.I.C.

David Majewski ordered, "I want some answers dam-it, and want them now."

D.J. explained, "We lost marilou. She's one of them."

Scott asked, "one of what?"

Edmund answered, "We think she's a vampire."

David yelled, "I want a positive answer. 100% sure!"

"I think I can answer," Laurie explained. "I'm Laurie. I had to have been a vampire. It killed my parents."

Cathleen added, "How else would it describe the shriveled, decomposed bodies that are bloodless?" 977

D. J. asked, "then how come Maileva isn't dead?"

Cathleen replied, "Well for 1 thing they, Space Vampires, have a certain control over the opposite sex. That explains why when you gazed into her eyes, Edmund, you couldn't move. The 2nd reason why is that they can only change the opposite sex into vampires.

I've been doing research on this clan of being ever since we passed the planet of Abba. It seems that they suck here of our human blood out and sticks have theirs in.

Since you males are probably prey for the vampires I will try to create a drug that if taken will turn your eyes red and have your teeth grow. We at the space station will bring you out, or we will be able to bring you out if you wear these Ironman laser watches."

Jordan walked over to Edmund, "Edmund, wait up."

"Yeah, what's goin' down?"

"I think I got shot by 92)

Cupid once in the breast and twice in the ass."

"Who are you in love with?"

"I kinda like Cathleen. She's smart and pretty."

"Ass 'er out."

"Out where, to the solar disco.
Besides these times are tough."

"Don't worry about me. We'll get Marileva back, I hope."

On the bridge:

"This is D. J. Jevne of Space Station Colt. California Bell, could you patch me in to Sheriff Pook.
Thank you." He cubbed the phone and mumbled, "I hate that bitc-Yo Pook, we got trouble up here."

"What kind?" Pook asked

"Vampires. I'll debrief you on the way up here. Be in uniform.
The pod is on its way."

Pook explained, "Horodans, the Corporation, Freddy Krueger
twin, and now vampires! Pussy get in uniform, we're goin' to the space station."

"This is not fair. We never spend time with the kids. I guess duty calls."

Could the two of them possibly know what they're getting into?

At the S.S.P.:

"Tell me the truth, Marilena. Who was that person, and who were those others."

"The one who I was about to kill was Edmund. He's my husband. He's one of the best Space Cops around. He despises when he gets blasted. When Neff blasted him, that was the second time he got blasted. Those others mean nothing."

"Tell me more about when Edmund gets blasted."

"The only thing more to that is he will be in pain for a very long time."

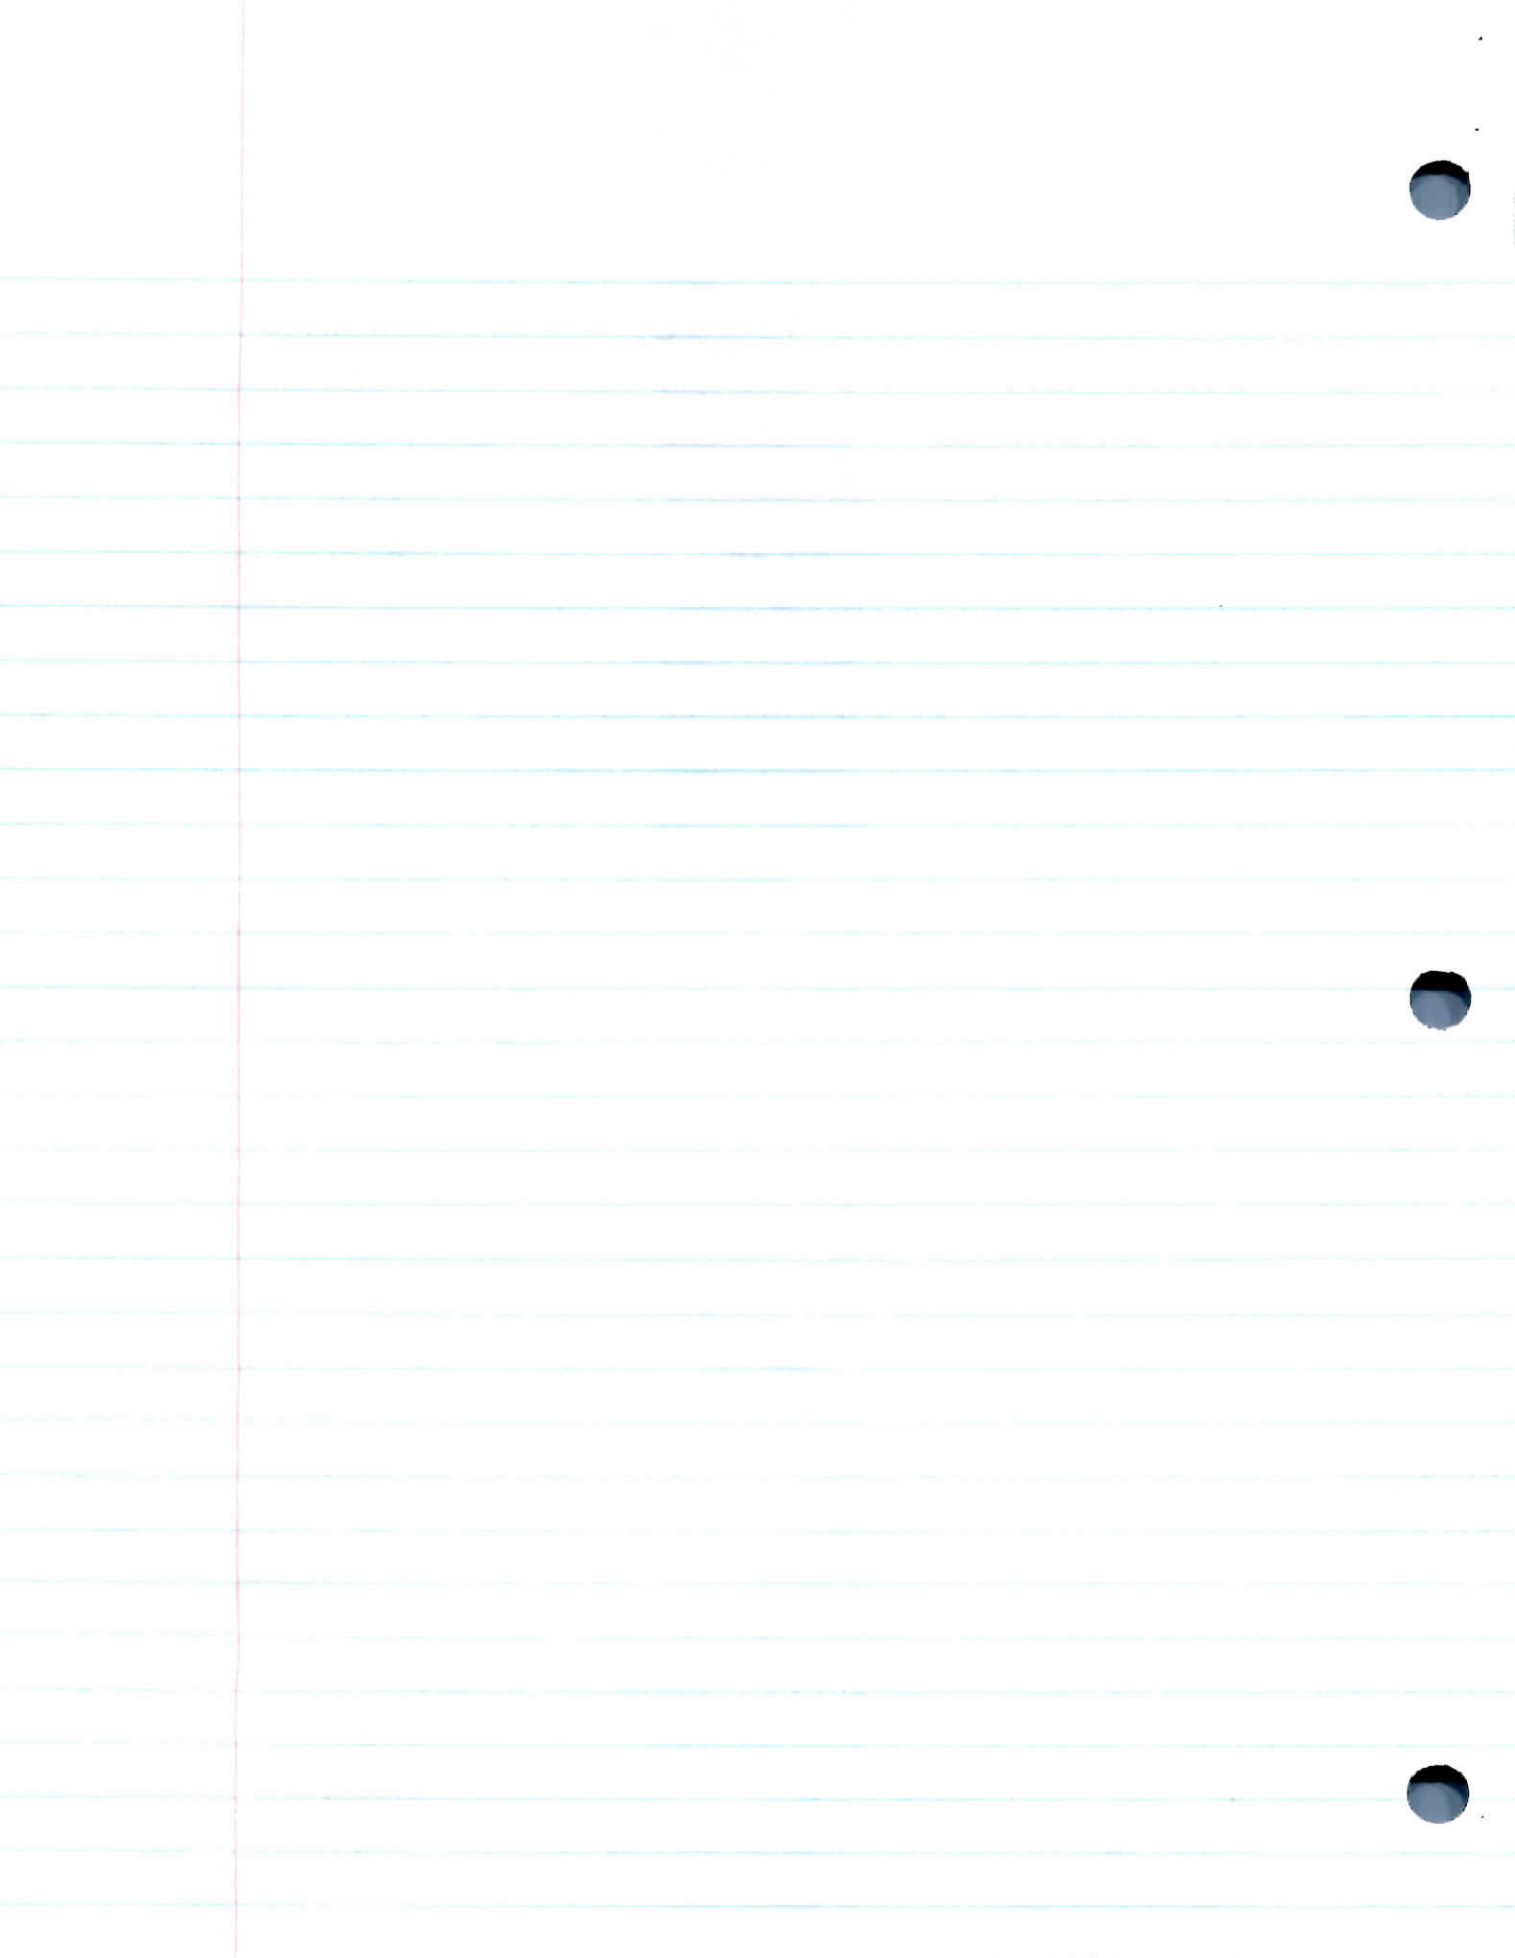

"Wouldn't it be nice if you and your husband could be together? The Space Vampire can needs minions like that. Do not kill him. Seduce him as only you females can. My plan can not fail."

Neff spoke, "Others plotted against the Space Force and have 791 failed. What makes you think you can succeed?"

"You dare question me?"
the Space Vampire looked at Reff and blasted him half way across the room. "Never talk back to a superior."

Chapter 21: 2nd Prey

At the docking bay:

Willy ran over, "Come on Pooh. Get in a fighter."

Edmund asked, "Pooh, are you ready?"

"Yeah"

Edmund ordered, "Lavie, Pooh, Willy, D. J., and Scott, are you guys ready? V formation, let's go."

Down on the big:

Pussy greeted, "Hello Commander. How are you?"

"I'm fine. Just fine now that Marilena is gone. I'll never forgive that bitch - for shooting me."

"That's not nice."

"Fu - you!"

At Cathleen's lab:

"Oxi, Cathleen."

"What are you doing here?"

"I wanted to know if _____

If _____"

"If what?"

"I can't seem to get it out."

"Come sit down next to me.

Maybe I can help you get it out."

"Could you go —, go — ..."

"And bite your neck!"

"No!!!!"

"Do you have the courage
now?"

"Yeah, would you go out with me?"

"Excellent work Cathleen,"

Marileva explained. "Captain Neff and the Space Vampire are taking care of Pussy and Commander.

At the docking bay:

Edmund yelled, "Shi-, lam-, fu-, the faggin' Petya was deserted!"

Laurie said worriedly, "What if they come here?"

"Oh no," Edmund explained, "Pooh and St. J., find your wives, Scott, Laurie, come on, we have to find 97)

the president!"

She five ran down the corridor. Somehow Laurie got grabbed on the way. It was Scott and Edmund alone.

Scott ran into Cathleen's corridor, "Noooo!!"

Edmund was alone. He heard a familiar voice, "Hello Edmund."
"Marileva."

She was dressed in an awesome black dress. She had high heeled shoes and her finger nails had black nail polish, "Join us Edmund."

"No. Did you know you're in violation of section 1d. It states that there are no civilian clothes while you're on duty!"

"Fu-- you! Come here." She raised her hands and electric beams shot out.

Edmund pulled his weapon but he was too late. He was on the floor in pain. Marileva kept blasting him. Edmund remembered his watch that had a deflection plate on it. He deflected the beams. Marileva noticed it. She came closer and knelt down to Edmund, "Oh man that perfume. What 981 is that? I'm getting wussy, can't think."

Edmund realized Cathleen never made the antidote and that he was doomed.

Marileva's teeth were bared.

David Majewski ran in with a weapon, Marileva turned. Luckily for her the Space Vampire jumped down. She turned back to Edmund.

Edmund explained, "Can't move."
He was looking in her eyes again, "
Between those eyes and that perfume I think I'd just rather become a vampire. What the heck."

"Excellent." She bit him. Now
there was one person left, David Majewski. Marileva helped Edmund up. "How do you feel?"

"Great."

The Space Vampire was beating up David.

Marileva added, "Why shouldn't we just make him a vampire like us?"

"Good idea. Do it Marileva."

David pulled out some Garlic salad dressing. The Space Vampire and Marileva jumped back, "Edmund are you still human?"

"Yeah, get me some bactine I am -
it. I have two holes in my neck." 99

"Yep, you're still human. We have to set a course for the sun. Besides how did you get out of that?"

"It's called a force field that my watch supplied."

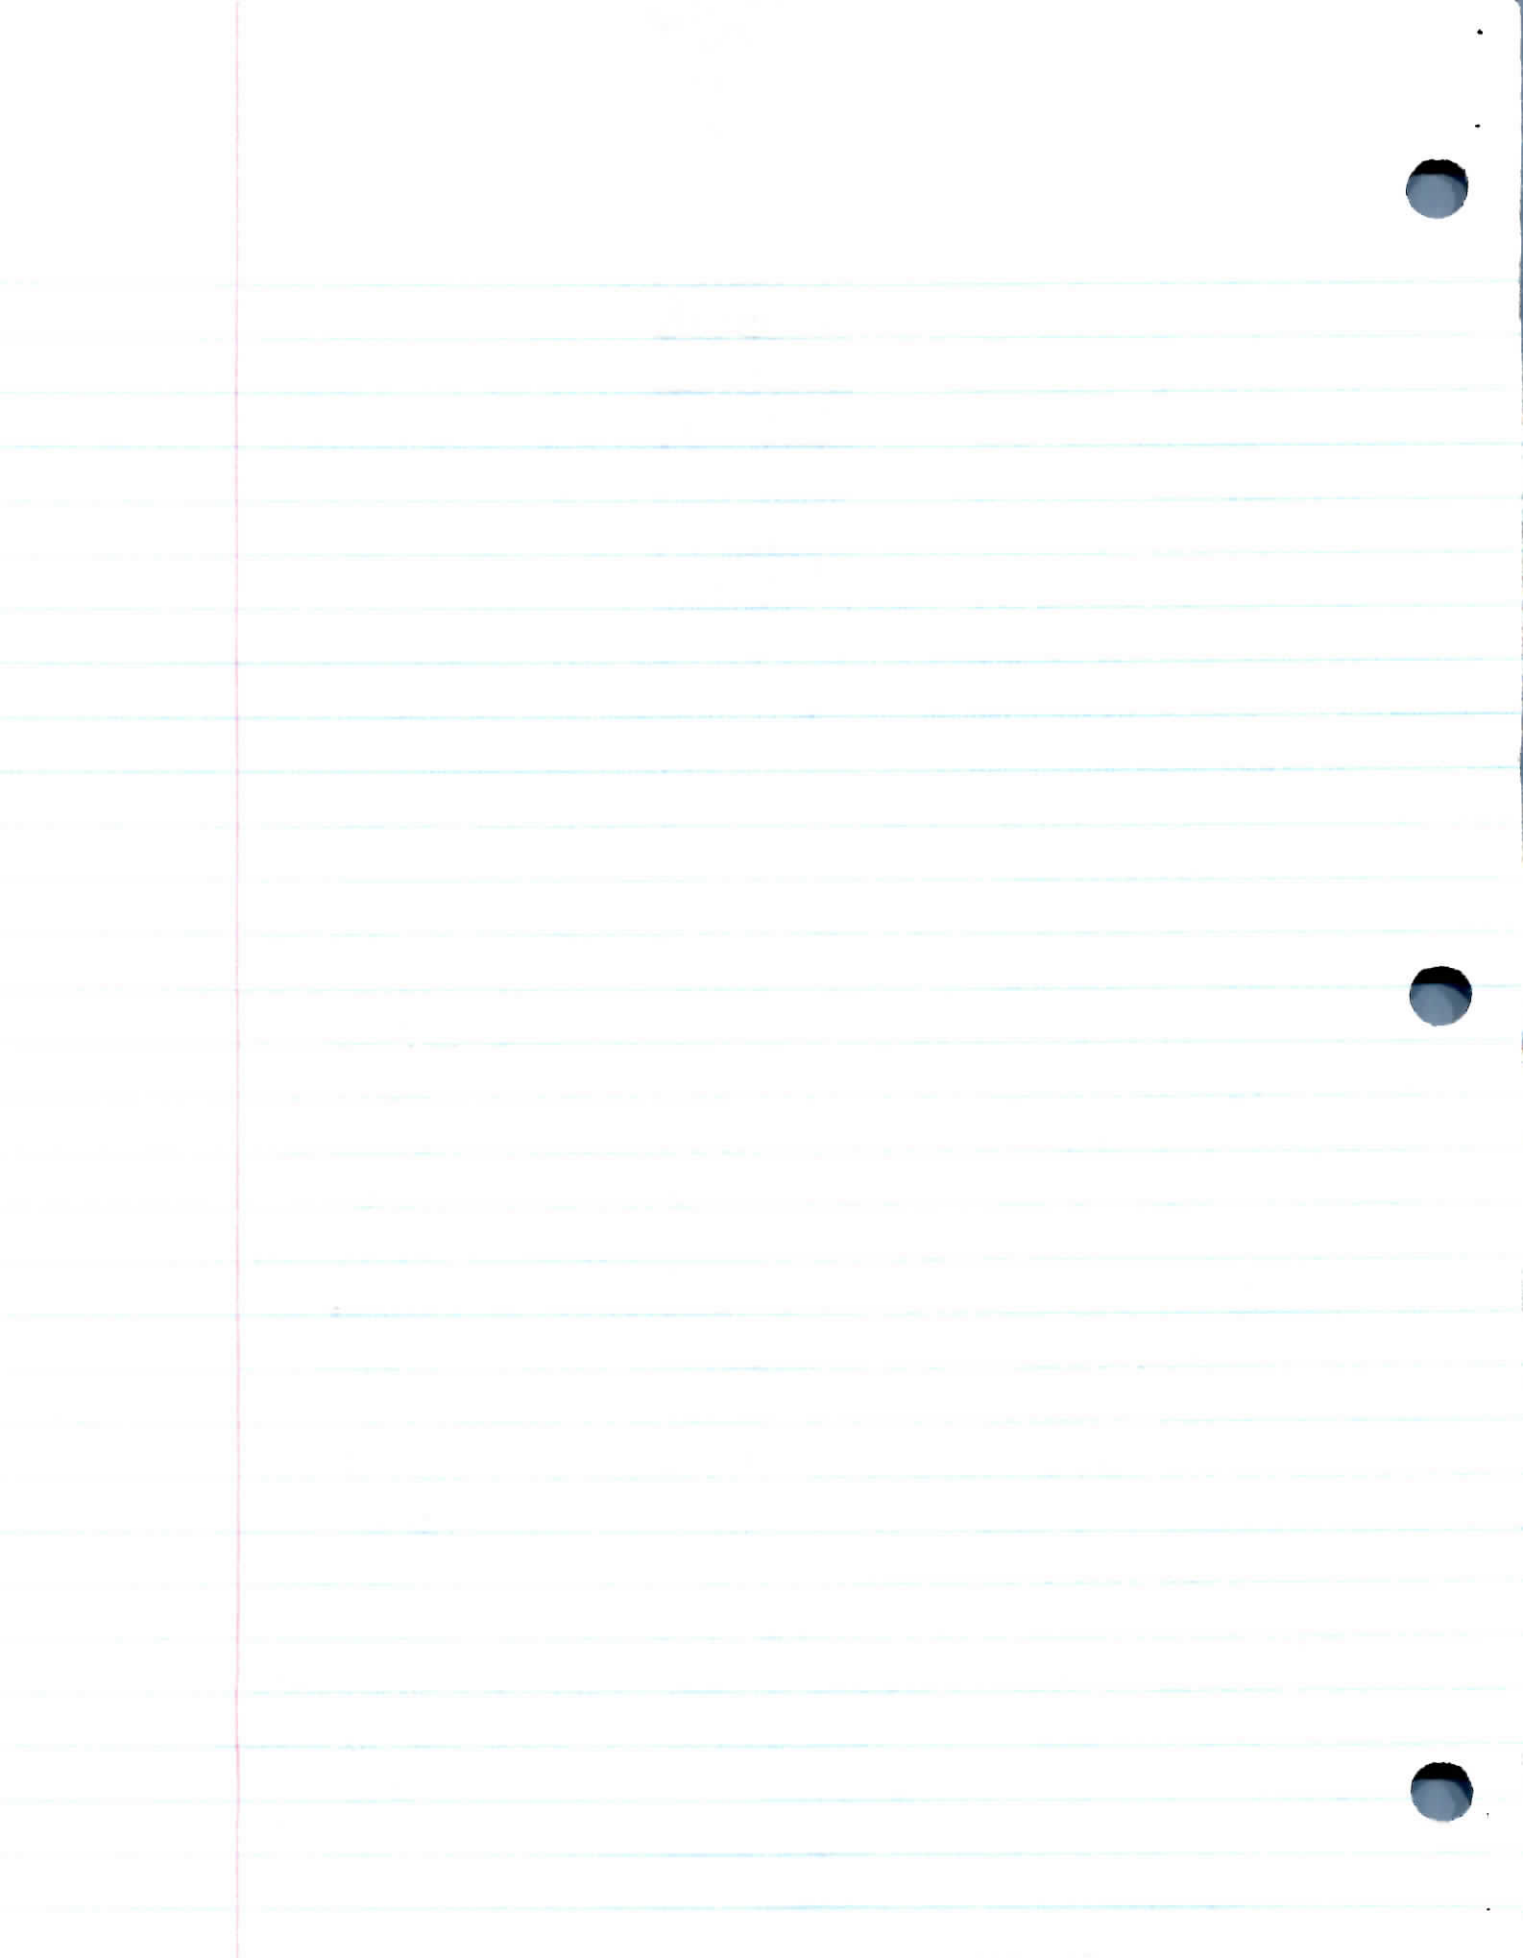

Marileva raised her hands and started beating David and Edmund, "Die!!!"

Edmund explained, "Please, Marileva, remember the wedding. It's me. Can't you see he's using you to get his way." Edmund used his watch to block off the beams. He walked up to Marileva and kissed her. They fell back since the ship was entering the sun's atmosphere.

David explained, "That's it. Only something more powerful than evil can beat something that evil."

The space vampire had no chance. He shriveled up and decomposed.

Marileva's eyes turned back to their regular baby blue color. Everything was back to normal.

Chapter 22: Unsolved Mysteries

Willy's asked, "Where's everyone?"

David explained "I have no idea."
Scott walked in, "You ever wonder how Jason Neff was turned into a vampire? The Space Vampire was a male. I have it all figured out. He killed everyone on board the S.S.P. right. Who did our guys find? Cathleen and Laurie. We know Laurie isn't a vampire. The Space Vampire killed her. Cathleen must have turned Neff into a vampire. The S.V. caught Marilva and turned her into a vampire. When we flew in the fighters the vampires came here and turned everyone into a mutha fu--in vampire. Why did that guy kill Laurie? She was alive 5 minutes ago. But he was dead 10 minutes ago!"

Willy explained, "He must not be dead!"

David explained, "Here take a laser watch and some garlic, salad dressing."

The vampire must be after someone.

Edmund was talking to Marilena, "How are you?"

"Better. Edmund?"

"Yeah?"

"I have a bad feeling."

"You're right to have one!"

Laurie explained.

David ran in, "She, he, she, it is the Space Vampire!"

Willy yelled, "She was all the time!"

Laurie transformed into the Space Vampire. He raised his hands and laser beams shot out. He was blasting away at Edmund and Marilena. They fell down. David, Willy, and Scott blasted him with laser watches.

"Shi-, they don't work against them!" Willy screamed.

The Space Vampire beat the shi- outta David. Scott threw the Garlic on the Space Vampire. Edmund was almost unconscious when he looked at Marileva. She was unconscious or in a coma. "You shouldn't have, argh!" Edmund mustered up enough energy to use his deflection watch. The beams deflected and blew off one of the Space Vampires arms. Edmund got to Marileva before he was too weak to move.

The Space Vampire almost killed Willy and Scott. Pook and Pussy ran in. Pook grabbed his Betsy Rope. He hurled it and tripped the Space Vampire. Jordan ran over to him and tied him up with metal chains. Cathleen had a needle and sucked all of the Space Vampires blood up into a plastic bag. Edmund grabbed a knife and thrust it through the vampires head.

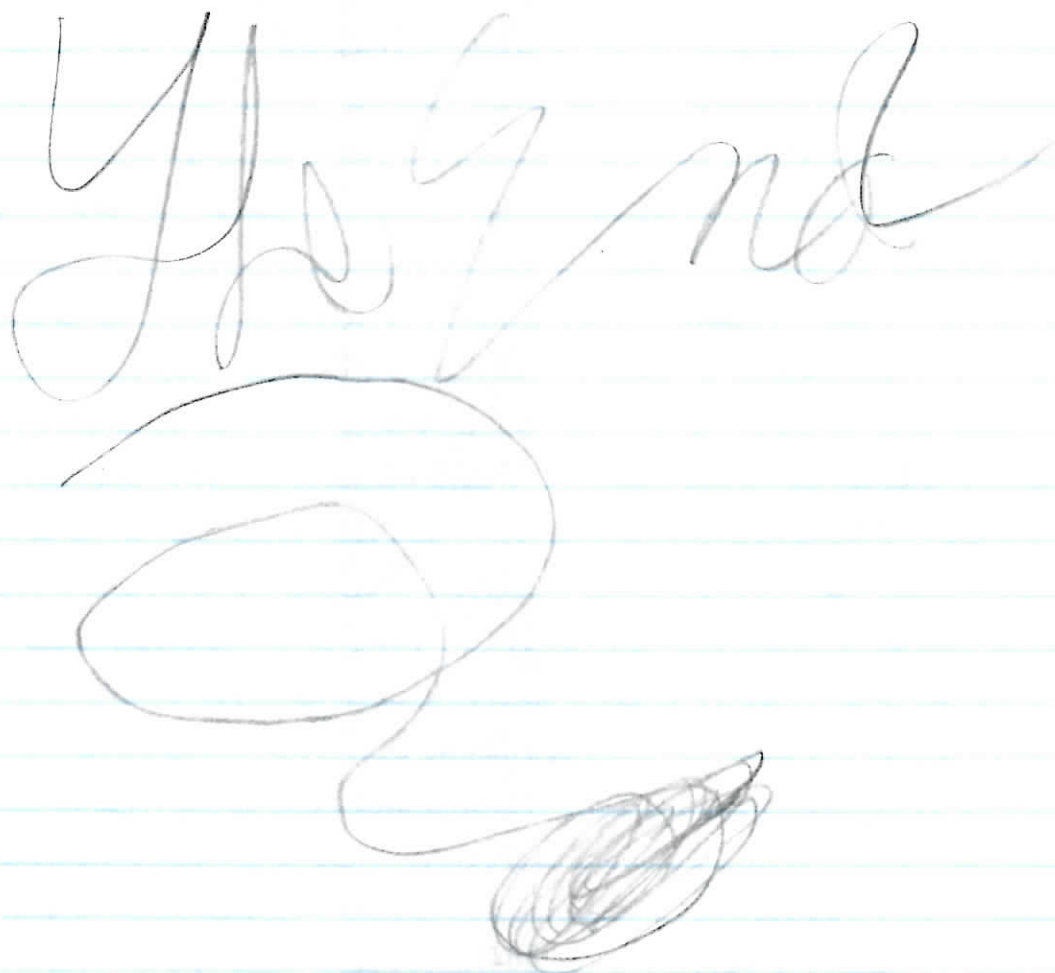

Pussy explained, "Throw him in the sun." Edmund picked him up with Jordan and Pook's help. They hurled him into the sun and Cathleen with the help of Pussy threw his blood in after the decomposed space vampire.

Once again the space force triumphed. But is this vampire finally gone? I have no apparent idea.

The end

Chapter 23: Going Steady

Edmund picked up Marileva and carried her to their cabin

"Edmund?"

"Yeah?"

"Do you like my dress?"

"Man, you are hot. It's a shame that all the girls that were vampires have the same dress."

"Ah, Edmund let's do it."

"That perfume, Marileva, is awe."

"Sory. Let's do it."

"Yeah boyzzzzzzzz!"

In D.J.'s cabin

"Awe D.J. you're so masculine aweeeee!"

In Sheriff Pook's cabin:

"I'm glad we're finally alone Pook."

"Definitely, are you any good at this doing it?"

"I don't know. I only did it with Edmund, no offense."

In Jordan's Cabin:

"Let's go steady Cathleen."

"Are you sure?"

"Yeah, Edmund told me."

"Oh Shiiiiiiiiiiiiiiii-!!!"

We Pick

Up

Thankya for the 3rd

time

At Pook's cabin:

Pussy explained, "That was fun."

"Yeah."

Chapter 24: What's Happenin' Now?

Edmund and Marileva are definitely sex fiends. They do it in anything, even a black dress.

Sheriff Pook and Pussy get tips from Edmund and Marileva on how to do it. They are getting better.

The Space Vampire has a permanent sun tan. (he he!)

Willy's, David, and Scott are in the hospital having their broken bones treated (by Cathleen).

Jordan and Cathleen have Started goin' steady. They thought it was a little premature to get married. They want to check each other out physically (Yeah boy!).

D.J. and Commander are starting to become the second place people in having or doing it behind Edmund and Maribvas

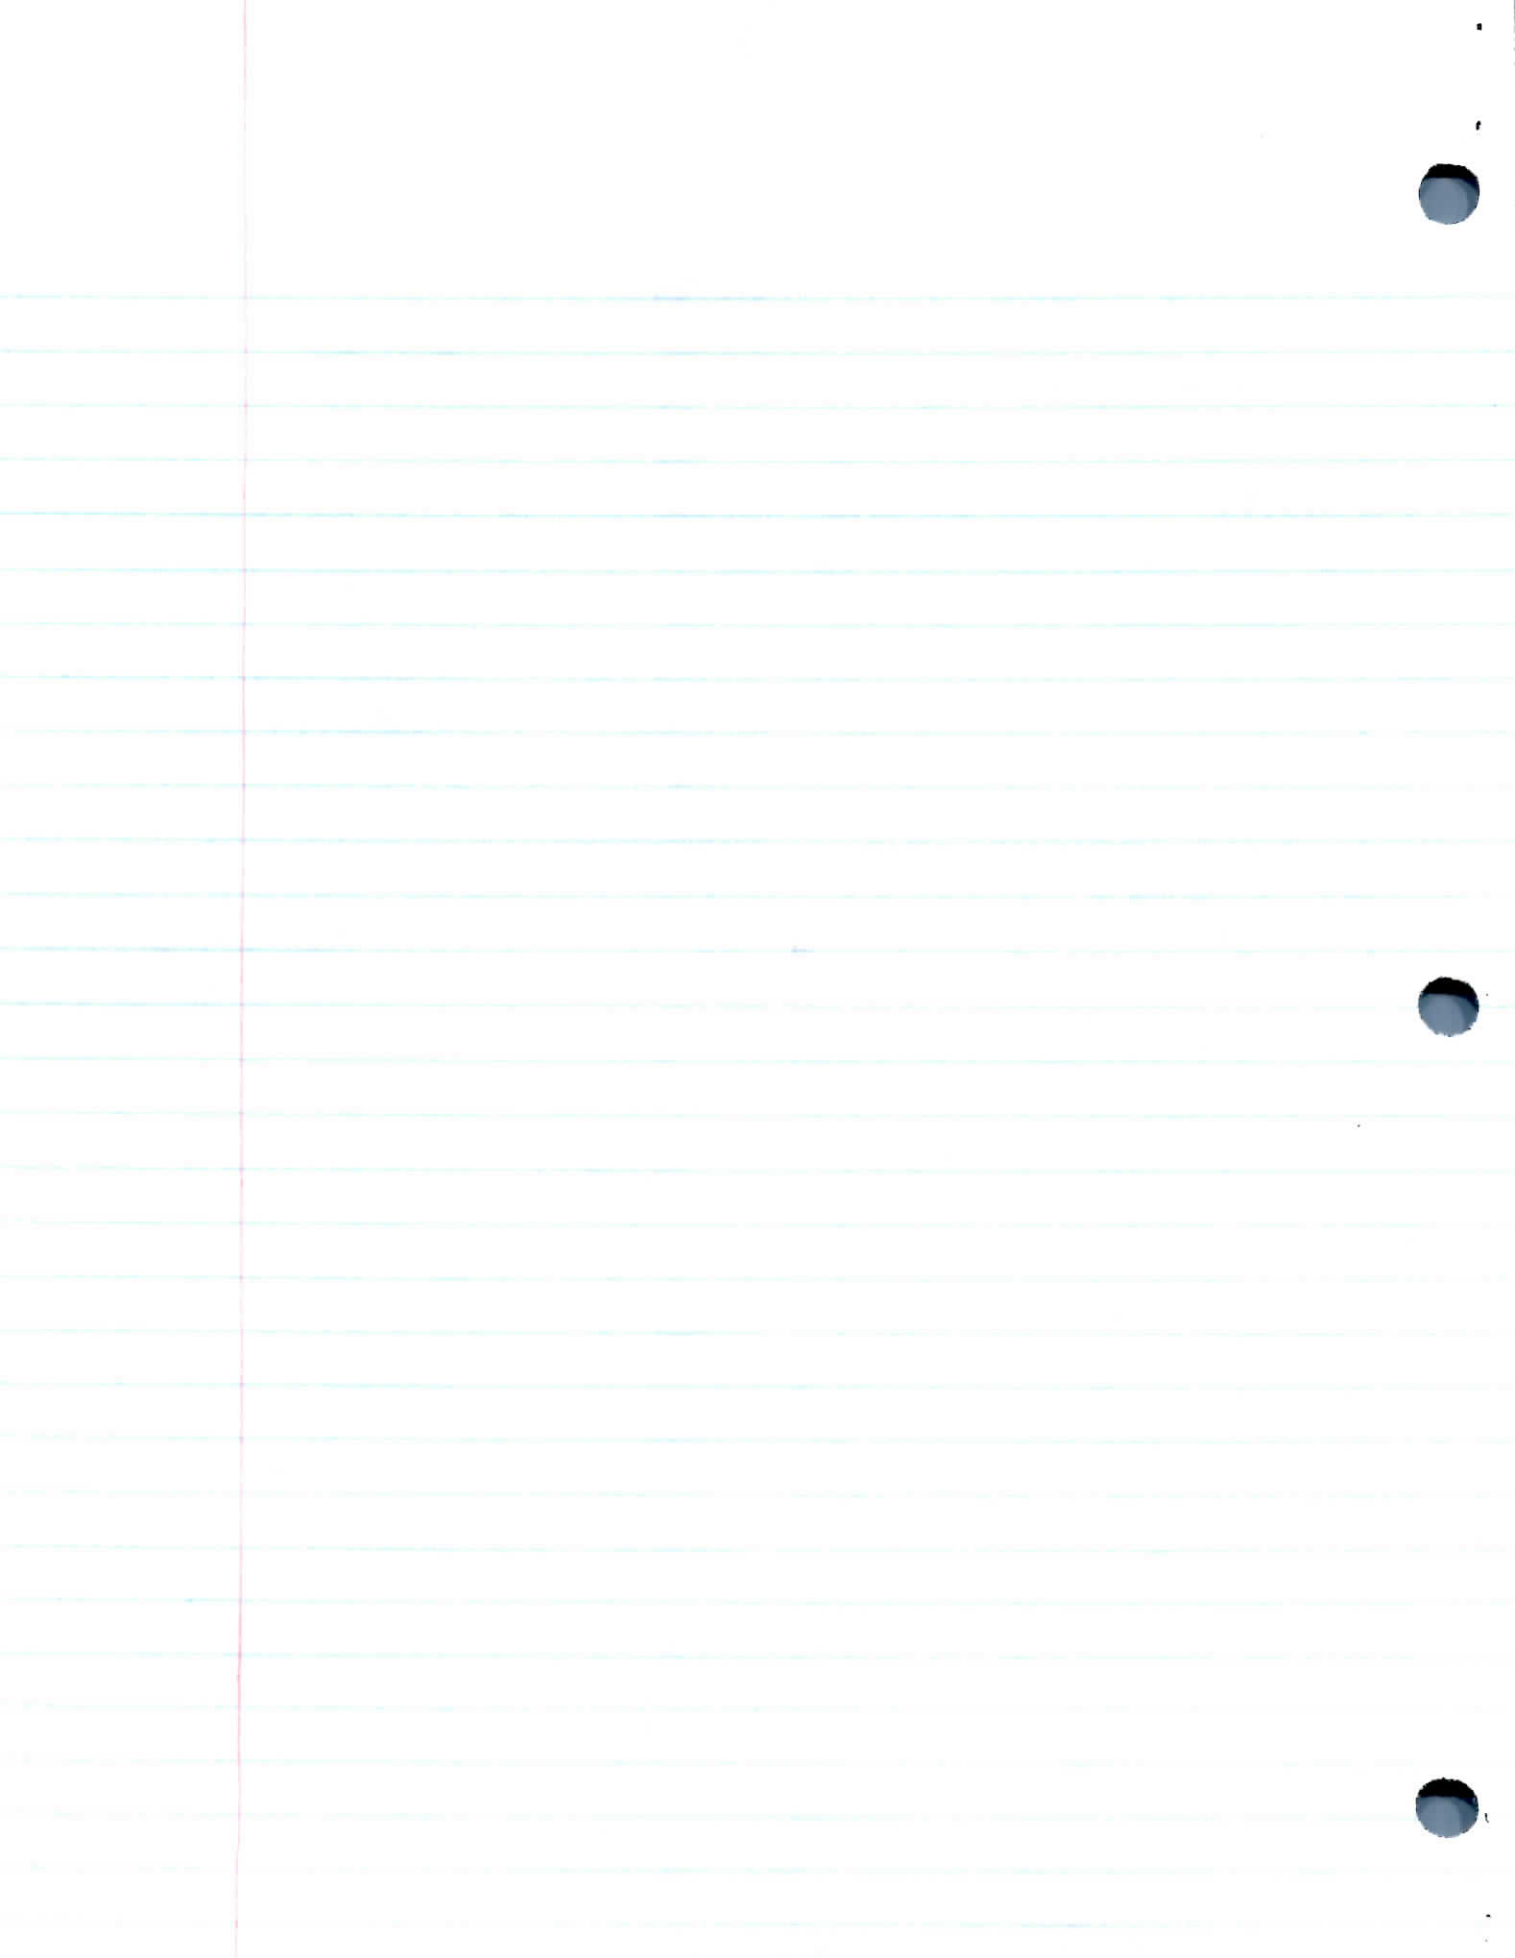

Jason Neff is captain of a deserted Space Station Petya.
