Chapter 25: Flashback

At the White House:

David explained, "Come here Scott."

"Yeah?"

"You know Space Station Petya?"

"What about?"

"It's deserted."

"I know what you're getting at. The tax dollars. Two space stations is all we can afford."

"I've been thinking," David added. "Remember the pods or mias? If we can rescue them, we will have enough people to stock both space stations."

"But that mission is nearly impossible. Only G. Garrison knows how to get through those quasars, and the Dorodans got him along with Mike Speed, Stem, Sam Osprey, Bart, and acro." Scott explained reading off a list.

David replied, "I think we ought to call the people in charge."

"Like who?" Scott asked.

"Um, Sheriff Pook of San Fran, S.J. Jerne, Captain Neff, and Edmund Sims, ha ha." David chuckled

"Why are you laughin'?"

"Shi-, I know Edmund by now. He's probably havin' sex about now. I kinda feel sorry him and Pook. They don't get a lot of time to spend with their children. Boy he's gonna be pissed after I call him."

In the Sims cabin on the S.J.C.

The phone rang, "Get that Marilena"

"Oh," she picked up the phone,

"Hello, were in the middle of sex, leave a message at the beep. Beep."

"This is David Majurbi, pick the lam- phone up, Edmund"

Edmund explained, "Awe shi-!"

Come on man, every lam-time I get in the fu--in' but I'm paged. I'm sick o' this shi-! What the fu--! Do you want."

"You're needed down here in D.C., so get your ass outta bed and get 1157 down here, now mister!"

They hung up, "Fu-- you. Son of a gonjalwoyal franyaraya fuar!"

"Just go Edmund." Marikva ordered.

At the council

"What the fu-- are we doin' here!" Edmund yelled.

Scott explained, "Were on a secret mission. Is this place debugged? Okay. Listen Dave and I want you Space Cops to fly through the quasar and rescue our guys.

D.J. replied, "Fu-- you man. I not gettin' my space station fu--ed.

David exclaimed, "If you'd just shut up and listen. We're not usin' your station. We're usin' Perya."

"Thanks a lot," Neff explained

Scott ordered, "I will accompany Edmund, Marikva, Sheriff Pook, Captain Neff, and Willy G. through the quasar. D.J., Commander, David, Billy, Jordan, and Cathleen will stay on Colt."

Pook explained, "Well we can get through the quasar with a minimum of damage, but what about comin' back?" 116

Scott answered, "I have heard from our C.I.A. spies that some Russian spies have stolen the plans to a thinking cap."

"What the heck is that?" Edmund asked.

Scott replied, "It's a head gear that's speeds up your impulse waves."

Pook added, "So it helps you think."

Edmund also added, "Oh, you're quick."

David explained, "He's in a bad mood because I got him out of bed."

Everyone except Edmund (obviously) went, "ooooooooooooooooooooooooooooooh!"

Edmund exclaimed, "Awe, sub mine!"

David realized, "Let's get back on track, he he he he!"

Edmund said, "Come on man!"

"Sorry," David apologized unsincerely. "Alright, Edmund. I want you along with Cathleen and Pook to go there, to Mother Russia."

Edmund explained, "All I want to do just once is have sex. That's all I ask. One minute you're in the bed the next you screwin' around with the Russians. (17)

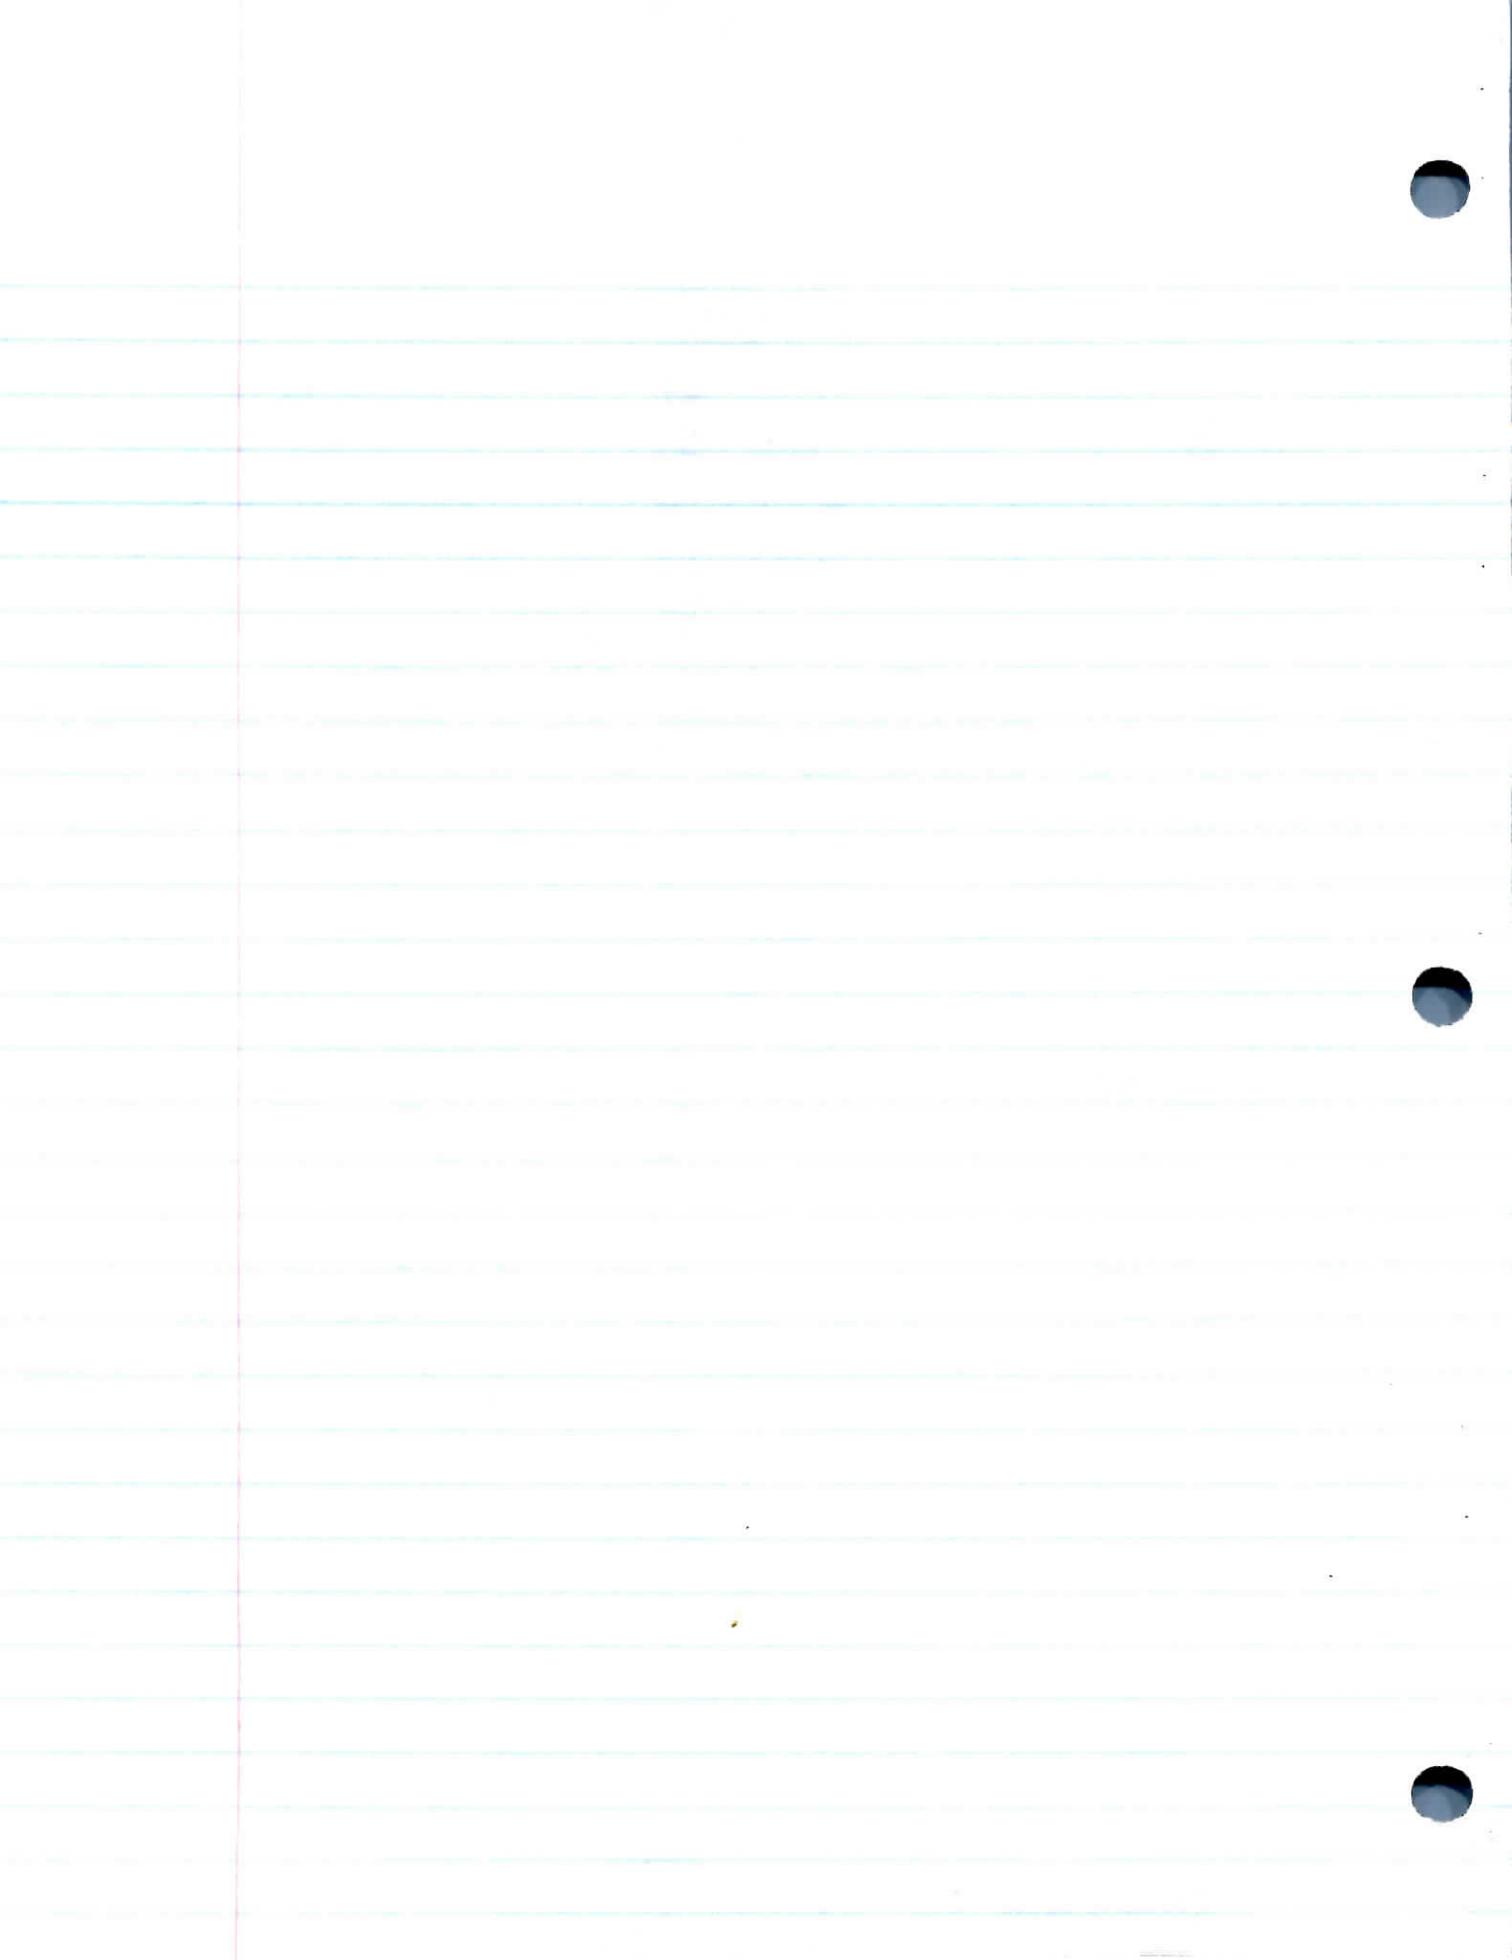

"This is no fair."

As they all left David explained,
"I'll get Cathleen because she can repair shi- like thinking caps."

"Can I go?" Scott asked.

"Sure Scott. If you get caught
I'm not responsible you guys."
David replied.

Edmund said as he left,
"You - you too."

Chapter 26: Capture or be captured

At the S.D.C.:

Pooh, Edmund, Scott, and Cathleen boarded a pod ship.

"Cathleen," Scott asked, "Would you marry me?"

"Two boyfriends? I must have hit the jackpot."

"Who's the other one?"

"Jordan Ripstein. But how could he do this to me." Scott ran to the Cellular pod phone. "Hello, Jordan. How long do you think this charade was going on! You know I like her!"

"So do I!" Jordan exclaimed.

Edmund walked over, "I really think you guys ought to choose between friendship or a broad you've 119 both only known for 3 days."

Surprisingly enough, they chose the girl.

Pook said, "We're landing on the shore. Get your guns," Edmund and Pook covered up the pod with a humongous tablecloth.

They marched through the woods to the secret lab the C.I.A. spies told them about.

"Gosh, there are a lot o patrols," Pook explained.

Cathleen speculated, "Were about 100 yards away from that base."

"You're the boss, Edmund, what do we do?" Scott asked.

Edmund ordered, "Cathleen, use the knobow bombs on the guys to the west. Scott, take out those guys on the east. Pook, use your Betsy rope to tie those guys up. I'm goin' in."

Cathleen replied, "Good luck. There are about 20 guards where you're goin'.

Edmund walked straight along the path. He came up to one guard that was drinking grog. He knocked him unconscious. Some guards started running after him.

He pulled his laser and started blasting away. He got an Uzi out, but that was no good. They had rocket launchers. Edmund got as many with the Uzi as he could. The last Russian jumped out of a tree and kicked Edmund's weapon out of his hand. Edmund easily overcame him with his remaining laser watch.

The four regrouped and walked in cautiously. Someone flicked on the lights. It just happened to be that our heroes got captured.

One of them mumbled something in Russian. Edmund asked, "What did he say?"

Cathleen explained, "We're going to be, strip searched."

Cathleen was first. Edmund could have sworn he heard Ooh lah lah. Scott ran in. He pulled a laser and killed all of the Russians. "Cathleen, get dressed."

Edmund and Pooh ran in the lab, "Awe shucks, the cap is being guarded by a force field. I'll use my deflection shield that's on my laser watch. Use your berry rope. Throw it in and pull out the cap!" [21]

Edmund placed his watch in the beam, Pook hurled his Betsy rope in the hole and pulled it out with the cap in the loop.

Pook explained, "Bees get outta here."

The four uncovered the pod and flew out undetected.

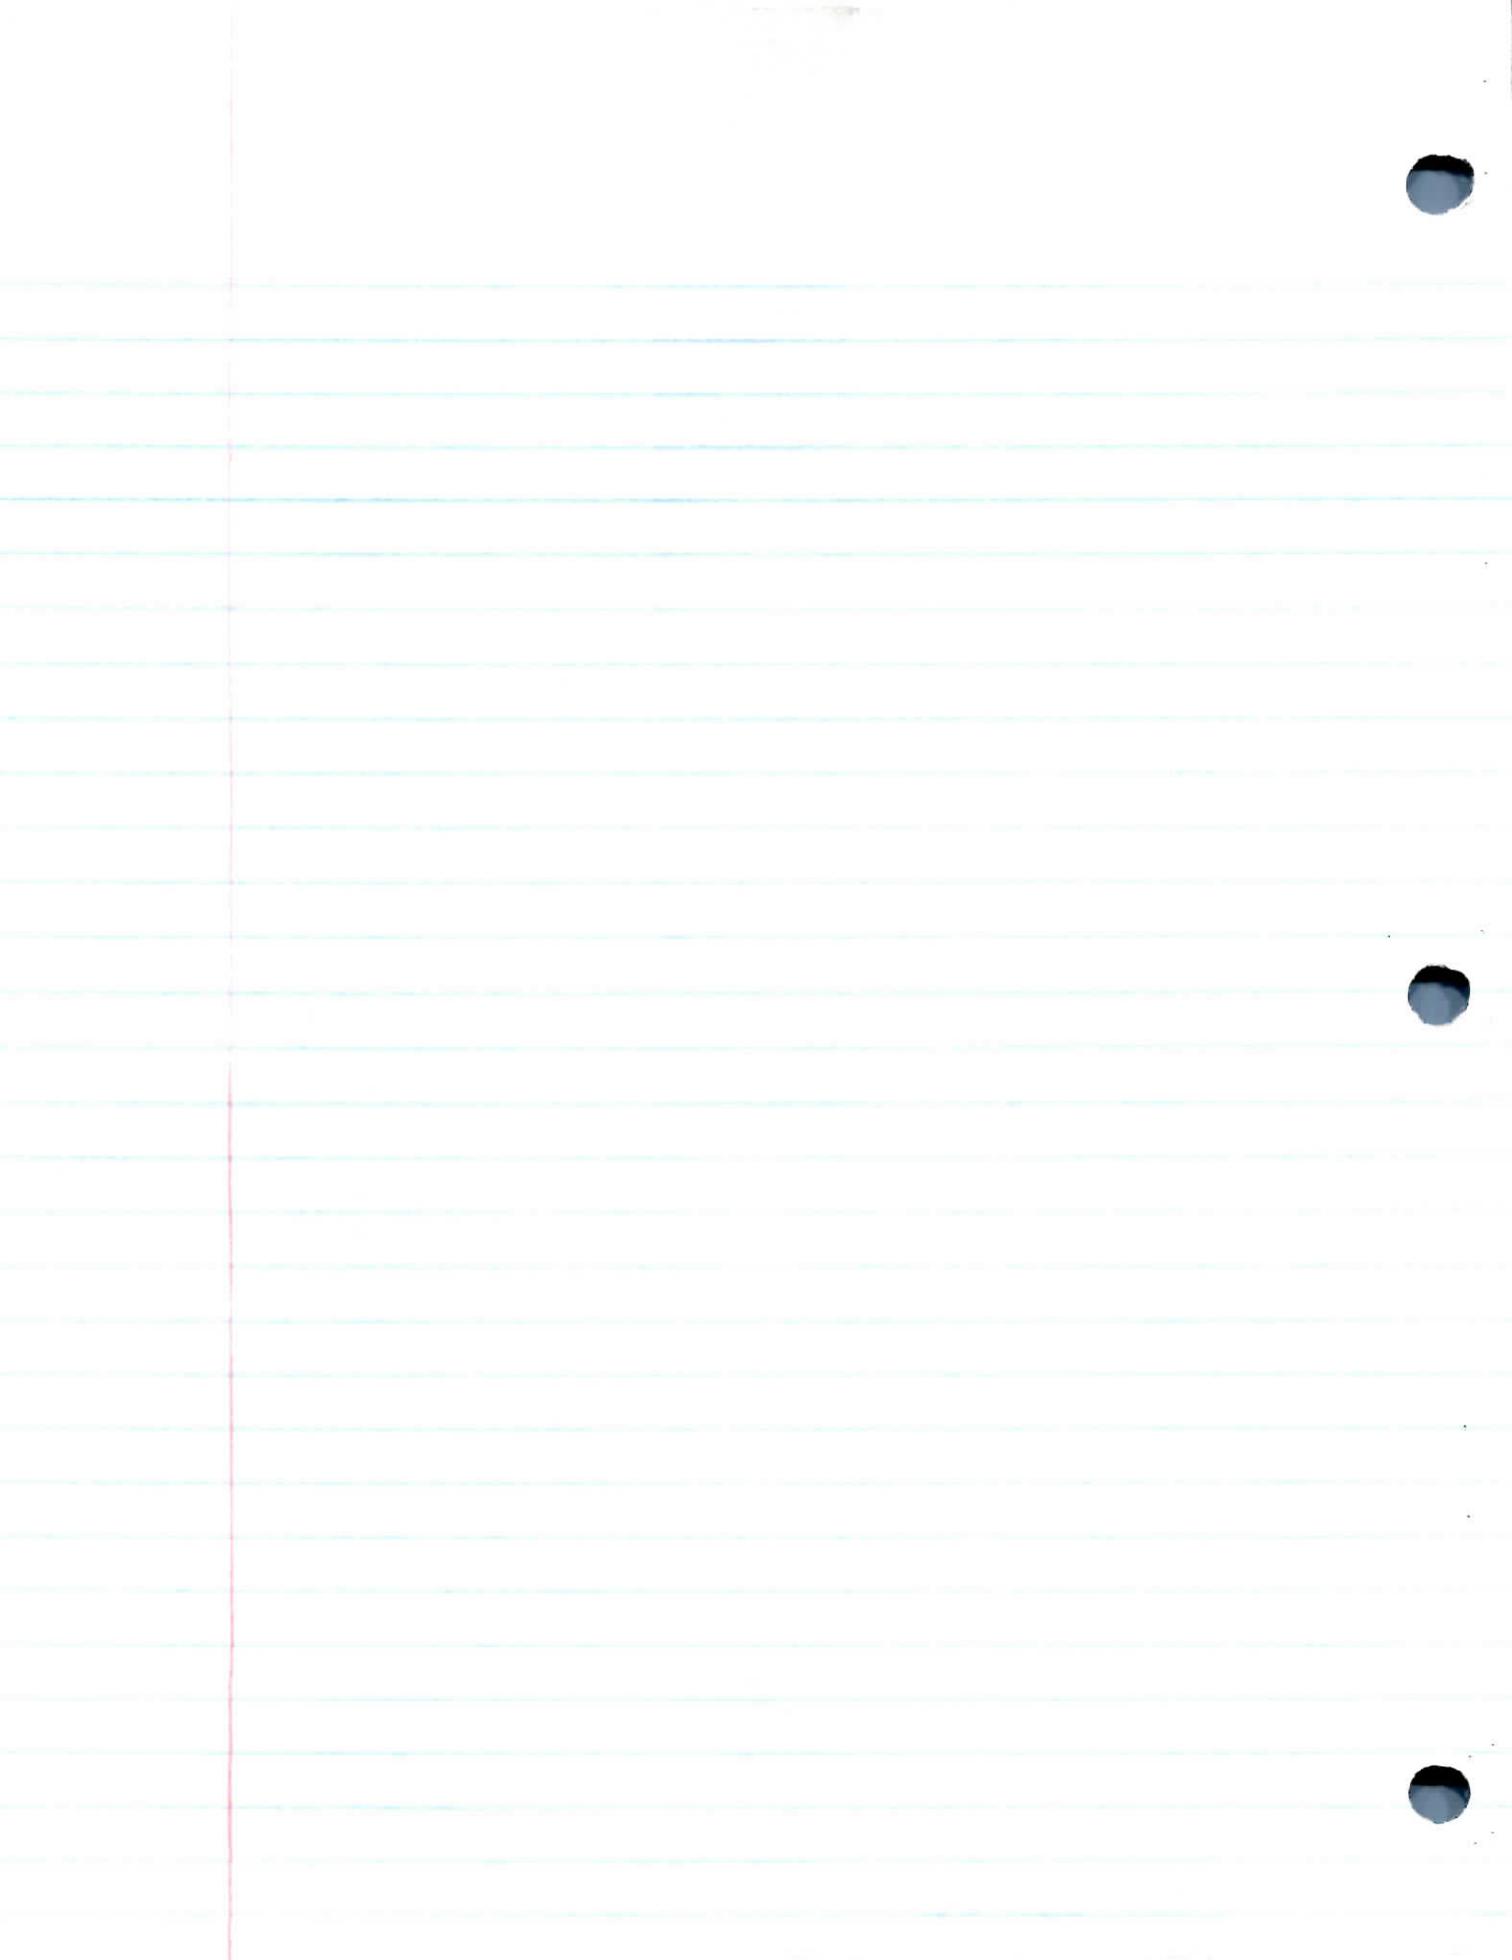

Scott said, "I found something very important. The plans for a new space station was in the file cabinet. The Russians are going to begin construction for a star-wars product that would easily destroy Petya or Colt. Space Station October. It's 13 meters longer and 8 meters wider than any other space station. Seems like I saw this in a movie once.

Our heroes flew back up to Colt so they would get ready to fly up to Dorodor. The planet of the Dorodors was about to be invaded by the space force.

Edmund called in, "Mission accomplished. We have the thinking cap, I was wondering Dave, could I like have a little four web page?"

"No, we have a mission to accomplish," Dave explained.

Edmund said, "Awful fun - you to!"
David snickered.

Chapter 27: Trial of the Thinking Cap

In Cathleen's lab:

Cathleen explained, "I kinda like fixed it. Now we need a gummy pig."

"As Vice-President, I'll try it on."

Scott put the cap on his head and activated it. It twisted Scott with writhing movements. A look of pain showed on his face. The cap blew up on his head. Scott fell back unconscious. The flaming cap was still on his head.

Luckily, they were in the hospital. Pooh and Edmund rushed Scott to the Emergency Room.

It was all over the news. Cathleen had nearly blown up the Vice-President's head; "I am like really sorry."

"You're sorry," Jordan screamed.
"Thick as-bitch, you blew up my best friend's head almost. Dam-you!
Get this slut outta here!"

Two ranger force guards took Cathleen to prison. Jordan ran into Scott's room, "Are you going to make it?"

"I might, ouch."

"My name is Doctor Nails. You will have to leave, he's weak. He can barely talk."

"Oh," Jordan agreed.

Jordan left, "Die!" screamed Glove. His claw appeared on his hand. He didn't have sharp nails.
He had needles. Each labeled. They were marijuana, cyanide, cocaine, and L.S.D.

Scott screamed, "Help!"

Edmund and Jordan ran in with blasters.

Glove transformed back into Dr. Nails, "I'm going to have to sedate you by putting you to sleep."

Scott said, "Stop him, he's, argh."

Edmund explained, "Call us if you need us. Could you like beep down? I got a headache."

After Edmund and Jordan left Dr. Gails mumbled, "These little shits aren't gonna let me bill him. I'll just this incinerated cap back to Haven."

On planet Dorador:

"You must permit me and my Corporation to return Haven." Sam Osprey begged. "I can destroy the Space Force. We were lovin' it before you brought us all here."

Glove returned, "I have what's left of the thinking cap."

"Excellent," Haven explained.

Here Osprey. I will give you back your Corporation men and their weapons. Take this cap. Ah yes, take G. Garrison. Make sure he fixes it. If he doesn't take Acro, here, and bill him."

Osprey took a pod down to San Francisco along with the Corporation and his prisoners, "You guys actually thought I was gonna reform by making me Governor of Furtalia. You were so early mistaken. Ha, ha, ha, ha."

Acro mumbled to Gerry, "Is he gone?"

"Yeah."

"You know somethin'?"

"What?"

"I'm not really acro. My name is Pinky. What I do is raise left arm and then my right hand. I grasp them and pull them down and apart. Then I change into this."

"Can you do that to get us out of here?"

"Nope, my hands are tied."

Chapter 28: The Real Delta Force

At the Hospital:

Edmund and Jordan ran into Scott's room.

Edmund asked, "You alright Scott?"

"Sort o'. I guess I'm gonna be in here for a few days. Please, you must find the thinking cap. Love has it."

Edmund explained, "Bad news. C.I.A. spies explained that the Corporation is back in business. They have the cap along with Jerry Garrison and Acro. I'm going to accompany Pook, Maribra, and Billy. Osprey is back."

"I guess we better get on it," Jordan explained.

At Corporation HQ:

Sam Osprey spoke, "Gerrison, work."
"How could you betray your country?" Gerrison asked.

"Easily." Osprey pulled his gun. Acro went down.

"Acro!" Jerry ran to Acro.

"Ah ah!" Osprey chuckled. "Get back to work."

"Alright, Sam. you! I'll do what you want! Just don't hurt him anymore." Gerrison worked angrily and frantically on the Russian screwed thinking cap. He heard a boom just as he finished. He realized that he was being rescued.

"Gimme that," Osprey ordered "It better work or he's dead."
Osprey placed it on his head, "ah. Here are four of them. Guards, pull out the ujis and blitz them!"

Marileva and Edmund beasted a lot of guards. Pook and Billy tripped and disarmed them with their Betty ropes.

Edmund ordered, "Pook, come with me. You two tie them up."

"Edmund, get out. He's whoring the argh!" Gerrison blurted out as 1291

Osprey shot him.

Edmund asked, "Bill, you know that Kung Chung don't ya? You guys thing just as fast as that cap, right?"

"It's Kung fu and yeah." Billy kicked Osprey's ass. Osprey still had tricks up his sleeve. He shot Billy twice and blasted Edmund's gun out of his hand. Edmund blocked the bullets with his watch. Next he drew his switch blade and plunged it into Osprey's arm.

Pook ran in, "We finally got 'im! Yes. Busted. Pinby, Billy, oh no. Are you alright?"

Edmund said, "Come on Jerry. We're goin' home. I wanted to know if you forgive me for that fiasco in the hospital? I didn't stun you."

"I know. That's all I thought about." he said, "I hoped that you got away."

"Who me, I always get away."

Maileva and Pook helped carry the deputies. Edmund carried the thinking cap and Jerry to the pod.

At the S.S.C.:

"Scott and I want a report. Edmund," David asked.

"We went in to Corporation territory to recover Dr. Garrison, Acro, and the thinking cap. We kicked ass, sir."

"As he was explaining," Scott continued, "We had three injuries. Billy was shot twice, once in the chest and once in his right arm. Dr. Garrison and Acro were each also shot in the chest. They were each thoroughly and severely beaten. They have been stabilized, luckily."

"Excellent, we are ahead of schedule," David explained. "Keep up the good work."

Marileva asked, "Are we going to leave on Space Station Petya soon?"

"I really don't know," Scott answered.

"Awe, Edmund, come with me," David ordered. They walked out.

"What?"

"I'm gonna give you guys a vacation. But, it's only for one week. I want you to have time with your kid. I'm givin' everyone else vacations, too. I think you deserve it."

"Awe shi, thank you a lot!" They shook, and that's the end of this chapter.

Chapter 29: New Food

At Vice-President Gipswords home:

"The thinking cap dropped on the floor in the fight. I better take it to the repair shop."

Scott got in the limo with 3 Secret Service men. They drove to the nearest "Thinking Cap Repair Shop". Alright, it was Unocol '30 (2030).

"Hello?" Scott asked

"Whatcha want?"

"I need you to repair this."

"Oh Mr. V.-President. My name is Ed. This thing will be fixed in a half hour."

"Are you sure it'll be fixed precisely that soon?"

"Yeah man, I promise." said Ed.

It was 30 minutes later:

Ed said, "That was kinda complicated, but I did it."

"Excellent," Scott said. "I guess I can put this receipt in my files. How much would that be?"

"A hundred."

"That seems kinda reasonable. Personally I think this is a shiprice. It's pretty fu-- ed up!
Here's the lam- low! You better not have bullshi-- ed me!"

Scott drove home in a Mercedes.
He dialed on the phone, "Yo, Acro.
Think you and Bill can get a hospital pass and have some good Japanese food."

"What are we havin'?" Billy cut in.

"Hold on," Scott said. "I really ought to try my thinking cap to help me decide what to eat. I try on the cat so I won't blow up my head again." He placed it on the cat and turned it on, "It doesn't seem to be doin' anything. Oh my God! Hello, is cat flambe' okay?"

"Sure," Acro explained, "We'll be a over in two shakes of a cat's tail" 134

¹flambe = food set on fire.

tail."

"Yeah, alright, uh huh." Scott said looking at his cat.

In 5 minutes:

"How'd you get out that fast?" Scott asked.

"We said if they didn't let us, we'd stick a star up their ass." Billy explained.

Scott grinned.

After the meal:

"That was shi-!" Billy said.

"Yeah man, you cooked it too long." Acro explained.

"We threatened people with our shi-, and the food is barb."

"At least the hospital shi is less fu--ed than that funky as-cat like, burnt up, shi-tastin' cat flambe. You overcooked it. We're outta here, see ya." Acro said.

"Chow, La-ta mon." Billy waved.

After they left, Scott explained to himself, "Well what was I sposed to do with that cat. Glad I didn't eat that. I didn't know he smelled that bad. 135"

Maybe that's what happens when you put cologne on a cat or something electrical gets it." "

Chapter 30: The Presidents Court

At Unocod '30

"Hello Ed?" Scott asked

"Yeah? Oh hey man, how was it?"

"It was shi-! You dumb fu--. I'm tabin' you to the highest court in the world with an approximate height of 199,532,911.05982380147 feet above sea level. By the way, here's your court summons. Have a fu--ed up afternoon." Scott walked out.

"Yeah, thanks bud." said

at the court:

A hole bunch of people were there. Jordan, Jerry, David, Ed, Scott, Billy, Acro, the two Secret Service men, the Judge, and the pigs.
2 pigs = cops

One pig walked in, "All rise for the entry of Judge Ebbytū."

Judge ordered, "Sit your ass down. Hurry the fu-- up cause I got a tennis game."

The pig explained, "The people versus Ed. He has been accused of fraud, breaking promises, lying, greasy hands, screwing the Vice-President, over pricing, and for most of all chewing gum in a church. How do you plead?"

"What?" Ed asked.

30 minutes later:

"Pecess, the judge explained. "But stay off the slide or I'll hold ya in contempt of court."

"What an infantile tomcat," Yerrison explained.

5 minutes later:

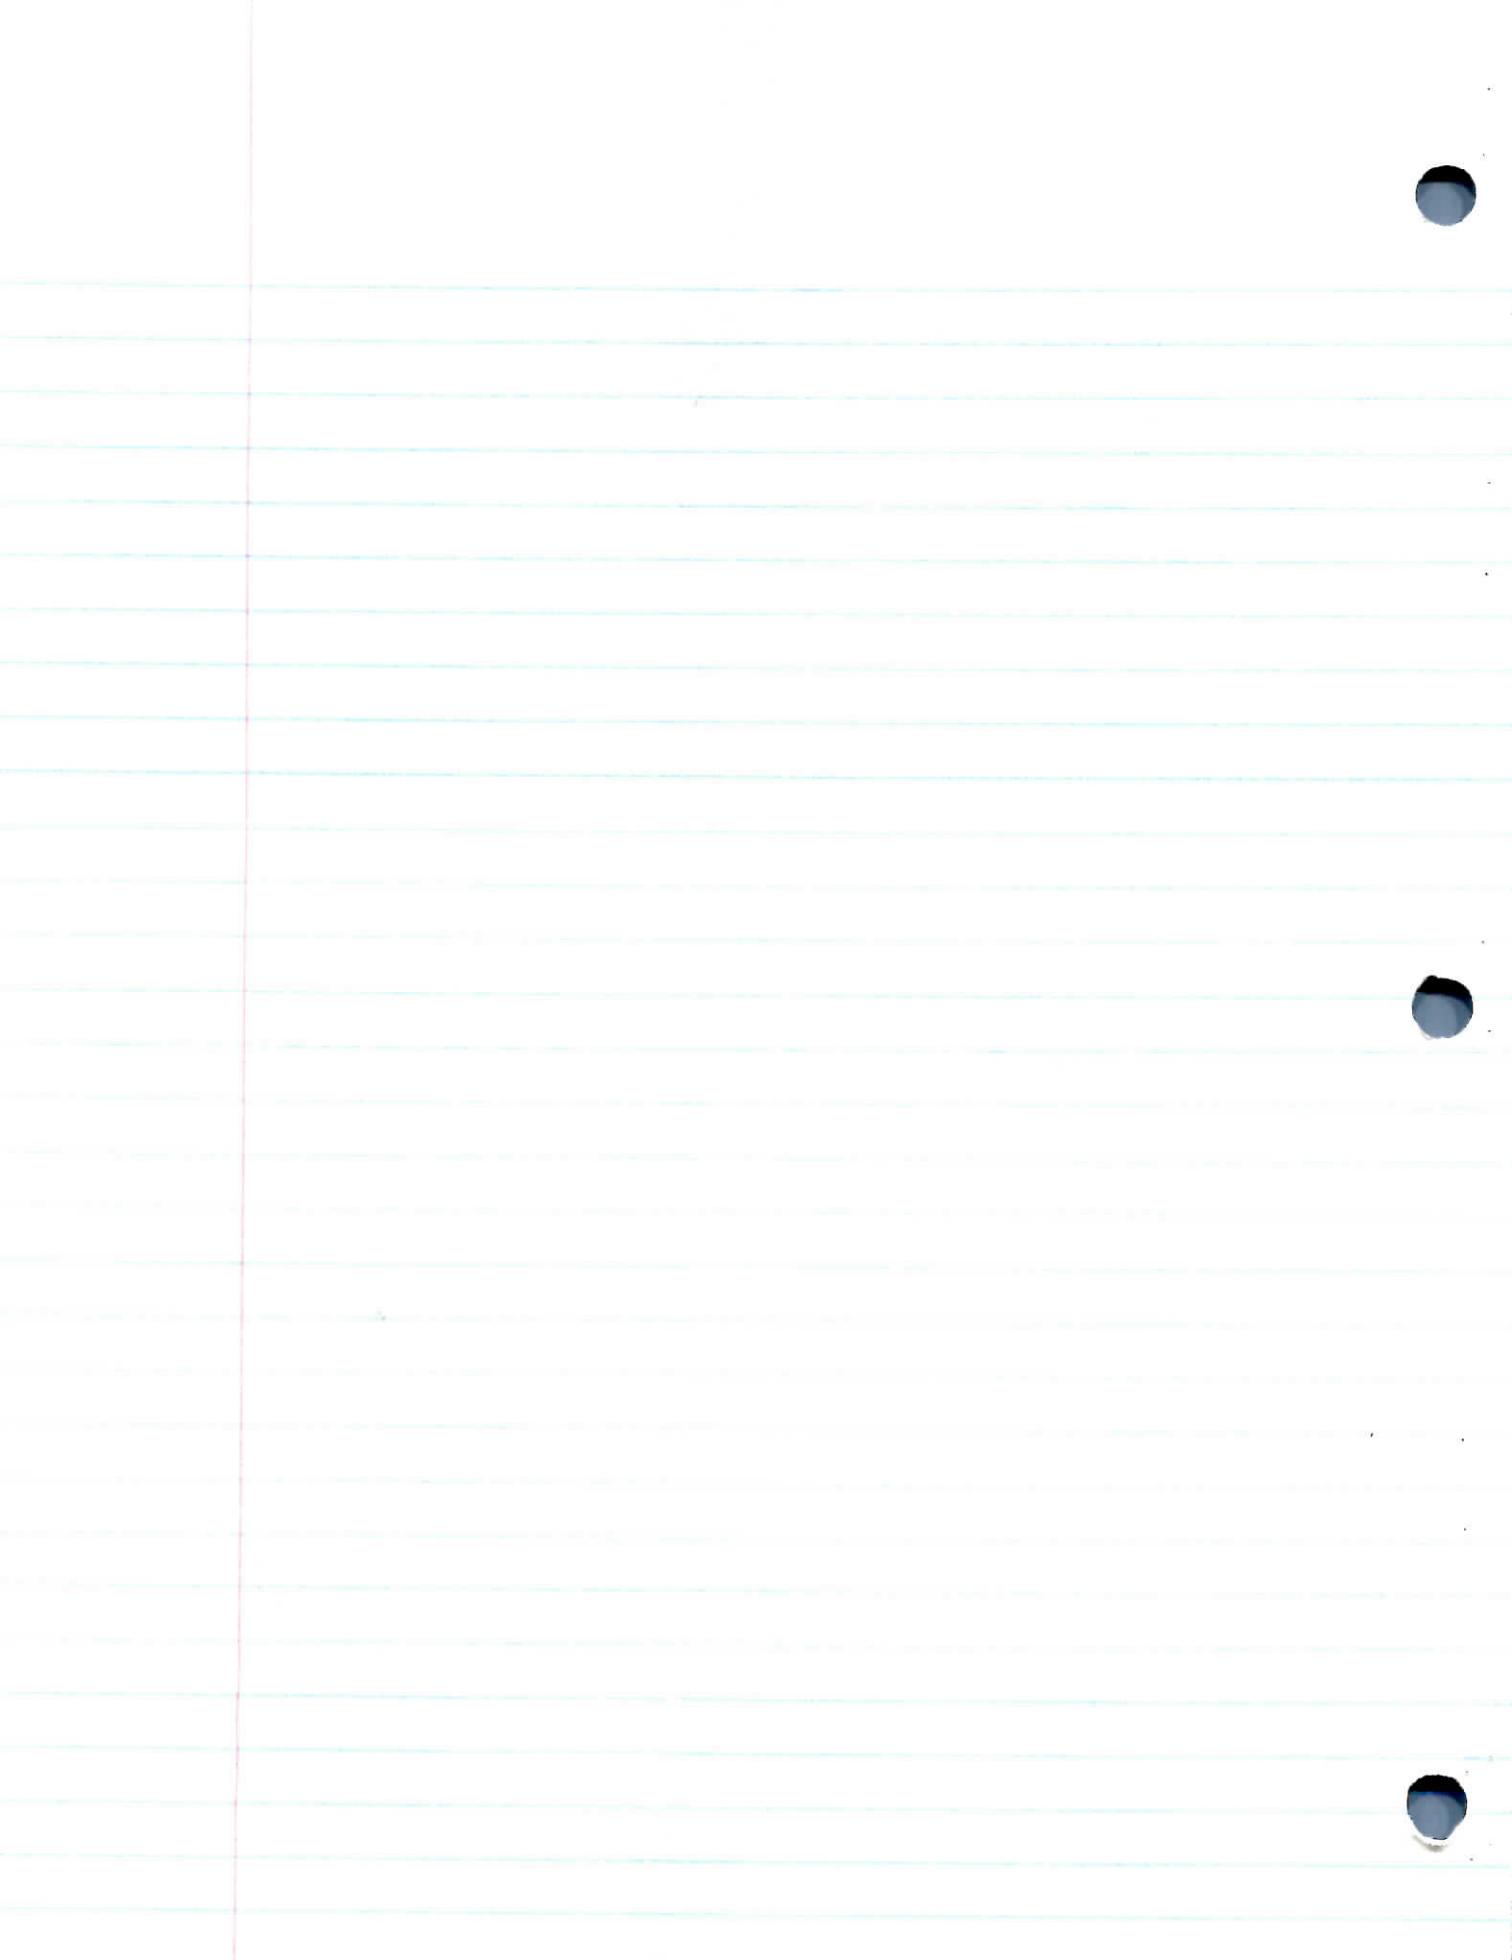

Judge Ebbytū explained, "I find this ass-hole guilty on all charges. Throw the shi-- to Alcatraz. You must pay 1,000 dollars in fines plus $100 dollars for a refund, and Scott?"

"Yes?"

"Find a new repair man." 139

"Okay, I won!"

"Yeah man." Ed said perhaps for the last time.

Chapter 31: Keeping Tabs.

At Scott's house:

"Is anyone there?" Marileva asked.

"Goddon, lemme get the door. Edmund, Marileva, hey. Do I get a bias?"

"Youcher and die. 'Cause I'll fu-- you into next week." Edmund threatened.

"What are you guys driving today?"

Marileva answered, "We drove over in my Ferrari. I heard you won."

"Yeah, that Ed didn't have a chance."

"How's the cap?" Edmund asked.

"Lemme go upstairs and get it."

4:50 Later:

"Shi-, its not there!"

"Come on Edmund, well take the Ferrari."

The three spotted the thief on the road. Scott almost hyperventilated, "That was the only prototype! Call the F.B.I., C.I.A., Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, Shi-, call the Coast Guard too!"

Marilva ordered, "Shut the fu-- up. We almost got 'em."

"Q's turnin' up the alley."

"Dam- it, we know that!" Edmund explained.

The crook climbed up a fireescape. The three went up, but by the time they got to the top he leaped to another building and was starting down the fire escape.

"Maybe this 'll slow 'im down." Marilva pulled the Uzi.

"Shi-!" Edmund exclaimed, "You're dangerous."

Scott ordered, "You guys go back and get the Ferrari. I'll get him."

"Be careful," Marileva said handing him her Uzi.

Scott got to street level. The crook started shooting at Scott when he chased him threw the mall, "Go many civilians. Can't shoot at him!" Scott was almost exhausted. Why wasn't the crook tired yet? They ran into a toy store. The crook sent a remote control airplane after Scott. He dodged it then picked up a baseball and quashed it.

"Aye, who's gonna pay for dis man?" the clerk explained.

"Here's $10," Scott gave it to him when he ran out.

"Thanks homes."

The Ferrari came, "After him!" Scott pointed. There was no escape. The Ferrari and Scott trapped the crook in a Dunkin' Donuts restaurant.

Scott's two secret service men saw something wrong and captured the crook. Edmund interrogated the crook, "1431"

Who the fu-- are you and what the fu-- are you doin' wit' my friend's cop? Talk to me. Wipe that smirky smile off your face!" Edmund punched him. Carg!
"Awe shi--! Fu--, duck, you're made outta metal. It's a freabin Cyborg! Nothing that I punch hurts my fists." Edmund pulled his switch blade. "Maybe this will deactivate you. There. Now will someone get me some o' that bone cream?"

"I'll massage you when we get married."

"Awe fu-- yeah boy!"

"Thanks guys." Scott gratefully spoke.

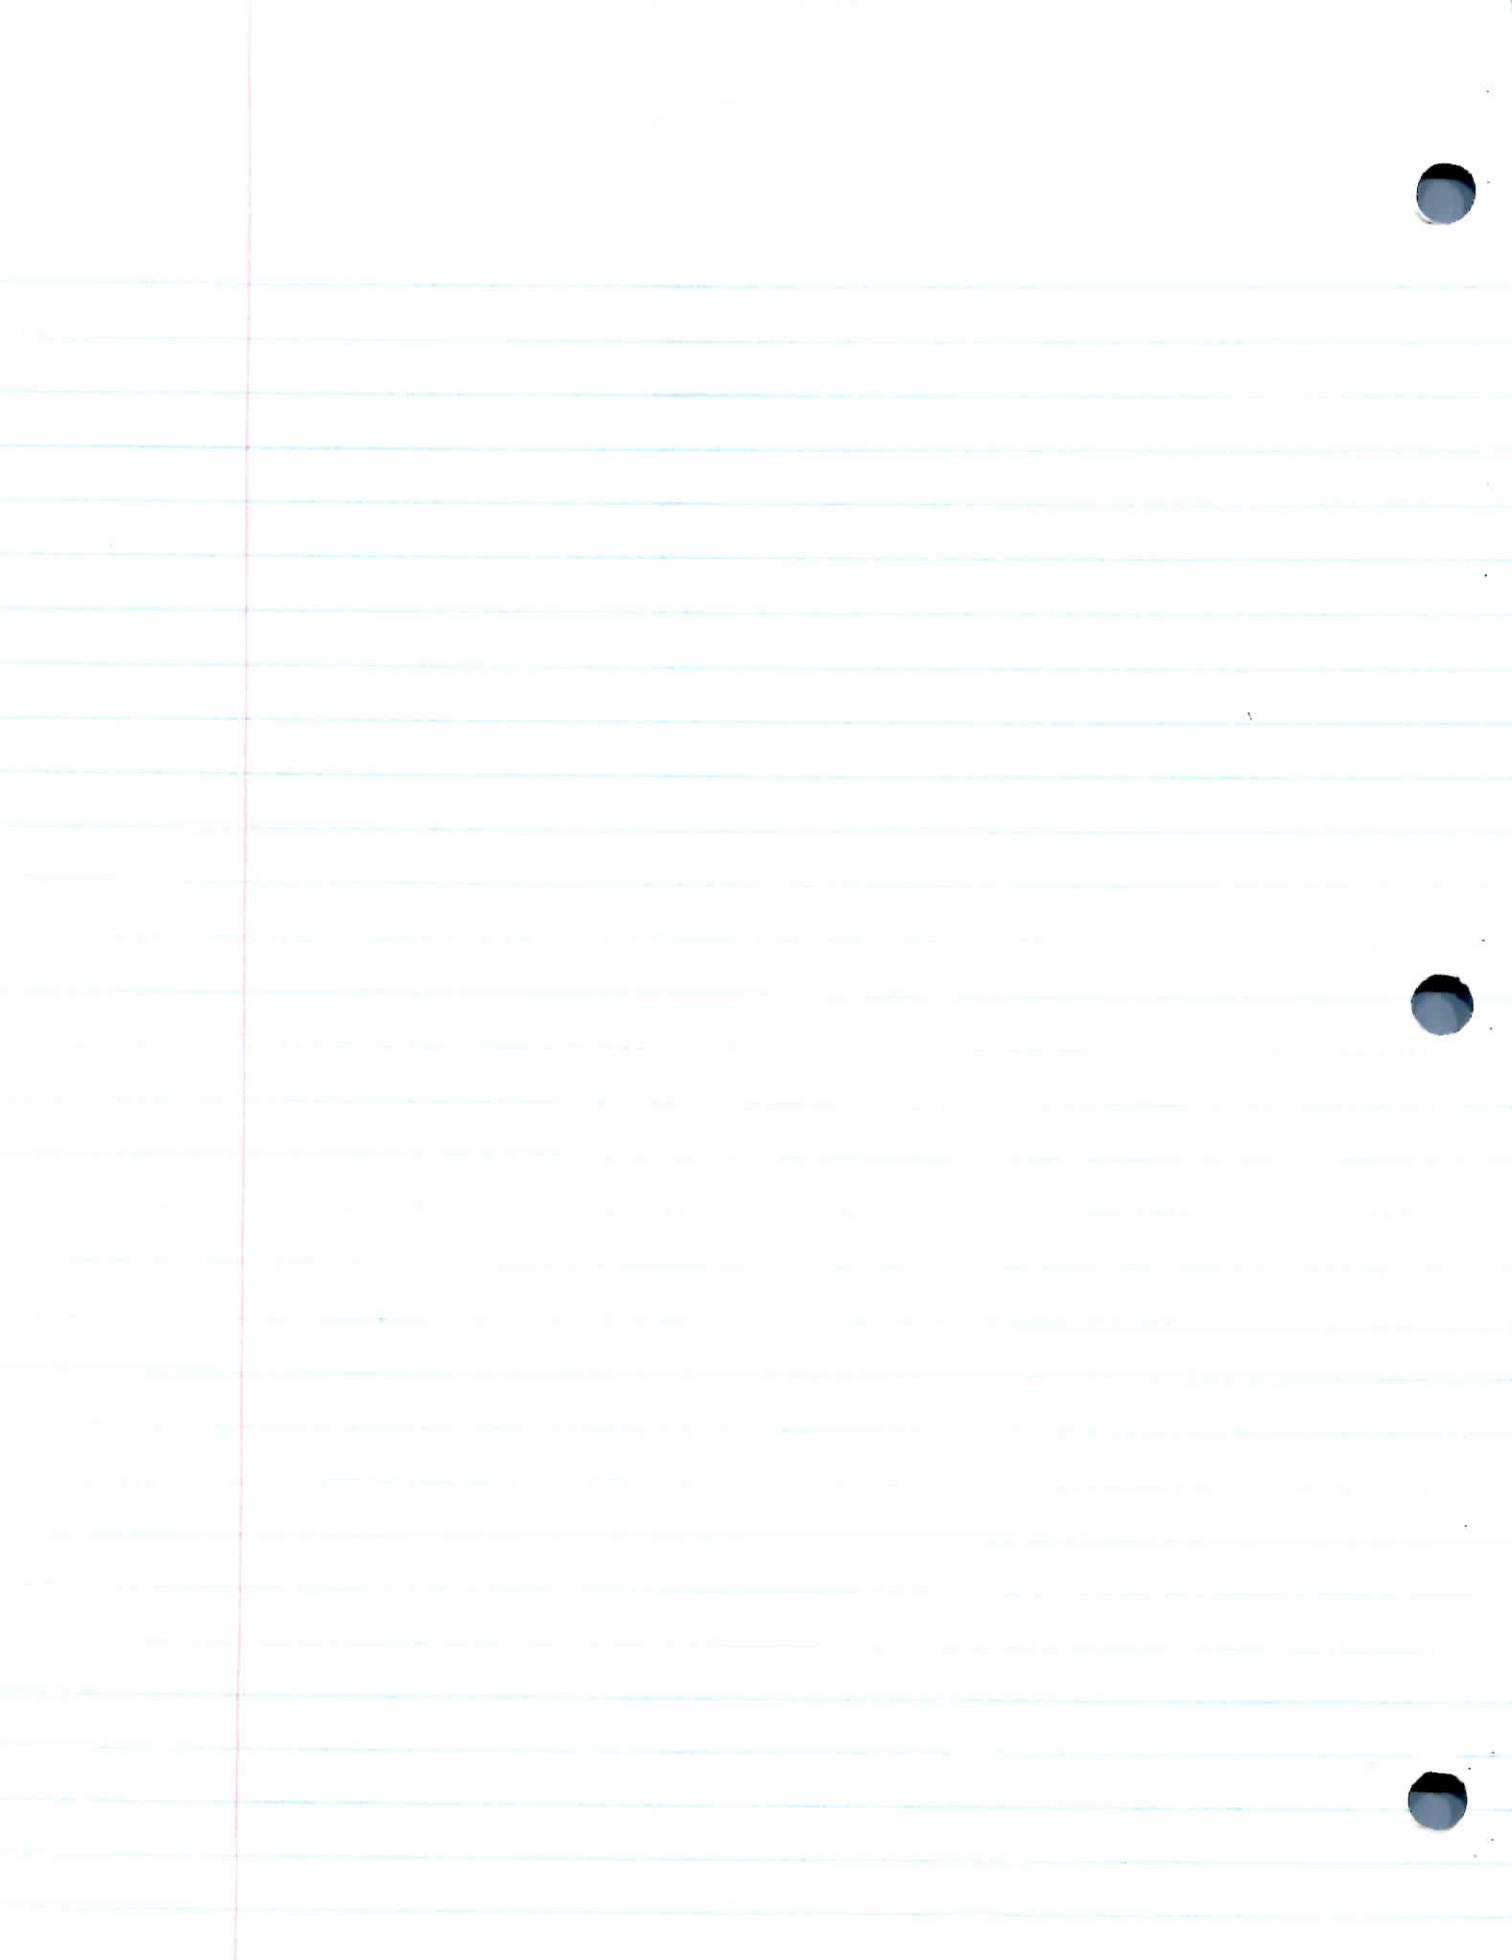

"Aren't you going to introduce us?" Marilena asked.

"Oh, this is Mike Mason, and this is John Doe, my secret service men. Thanks so much guys!"

Edmund explained, "You really ought to keep more tabs on your shi-. Adios. Let's go home Marilena."

Marilena answered, "Alright hubby. I've been waitin' for this night for so fu-- in' 1441 long!"

Chapter 32: The Alcatraz Jail Break

At the White House:

"How could I have been so stupid?" David explained.

"What do you mean?" Scott asked.

"The Dorodans are back. They know the secret of the quasars. You can't use your thinking cap until it gets fixed. Y. Yerrison just barely made it to your hearing."

Suddenly they heard a boom. John Doe ran in, "It's Dorodans, sir. What should we do. They are overpowering our guards.

David ran to the phone, "D.S.C., get Willy, Jordan, Edmund, Maubra, and Sheriff Pook!"

It was too late. The phone line was cut. Scott and David ran to get the thinking cap.

"Ah ah ah!" Glove explained. He shot Scott and punched David half way across the room, "It's Jordan property now."

"Ah ah ah," Marileva walked in.

"Awe shi-!" Glove flew out. The Jordans escaped.

Something was wrong. Where were the Secret Service men. Now the Jordans had more prisoners.

As soon as David and Scott regained consciousness:

"Dave, I'm going to Alcatraz to see Cathleen. See ya."

At Alcatraz:

"Hey Jordan. Who are you here to see?"

"Why Cathleen."

"So am I."

Edmund came in, "Hey guys. David told me to watch you. Where's the cap?"

"I gave it to the repair man. I believe his name is Mr.

hands."

Warden H. explained, "Come with me. She's over here."

Edmund, Jordan, and Scott walked over to the spot where Cathleen's cell was. They walked in.

"Put your hands up," a familiar voice ordered.

Edmund pulled out his laser and started blasting away at Dorodans. Warden H.'s body dematerialized into a cloud and then materialized into Haven, "Weapons useless against us. Do you really think us Dorodans are fools?" Haven raised his hand and a paralyzing ray shot Edmund, Jordan, Scott, Cathleen, and Ed (remember!). "Don't move. Ha, ha, ha. You guys are coming to Dorodor where you will never escape. Oh, Scott, you may be wondering about your cap. It's in good hands. Mr. Hands, or should I say glove. Mr. Osprey, come with me to the ship. You guards bring them."

Edmund knew the beam was wearing off. He elbowed a Dorodan and then punched him in the face. He grabbed the humanoid's gun. Scott and Jordan did the same. Cathleen was too wimpy to get 1481 out of the guards grip. Cathleen and Ed got carried off. Men from the Corporation fired Uzi's at the three.

"Oh, Edmund," Haven called, "If you're wondering about Maileva, Gloves gonna shoot her in the head and rape the bitch in the tub. Ha ha!" The Dorodans and Corporation flew off.

The three went to the three-person space force Earth orbit motor slider that is undetectable:

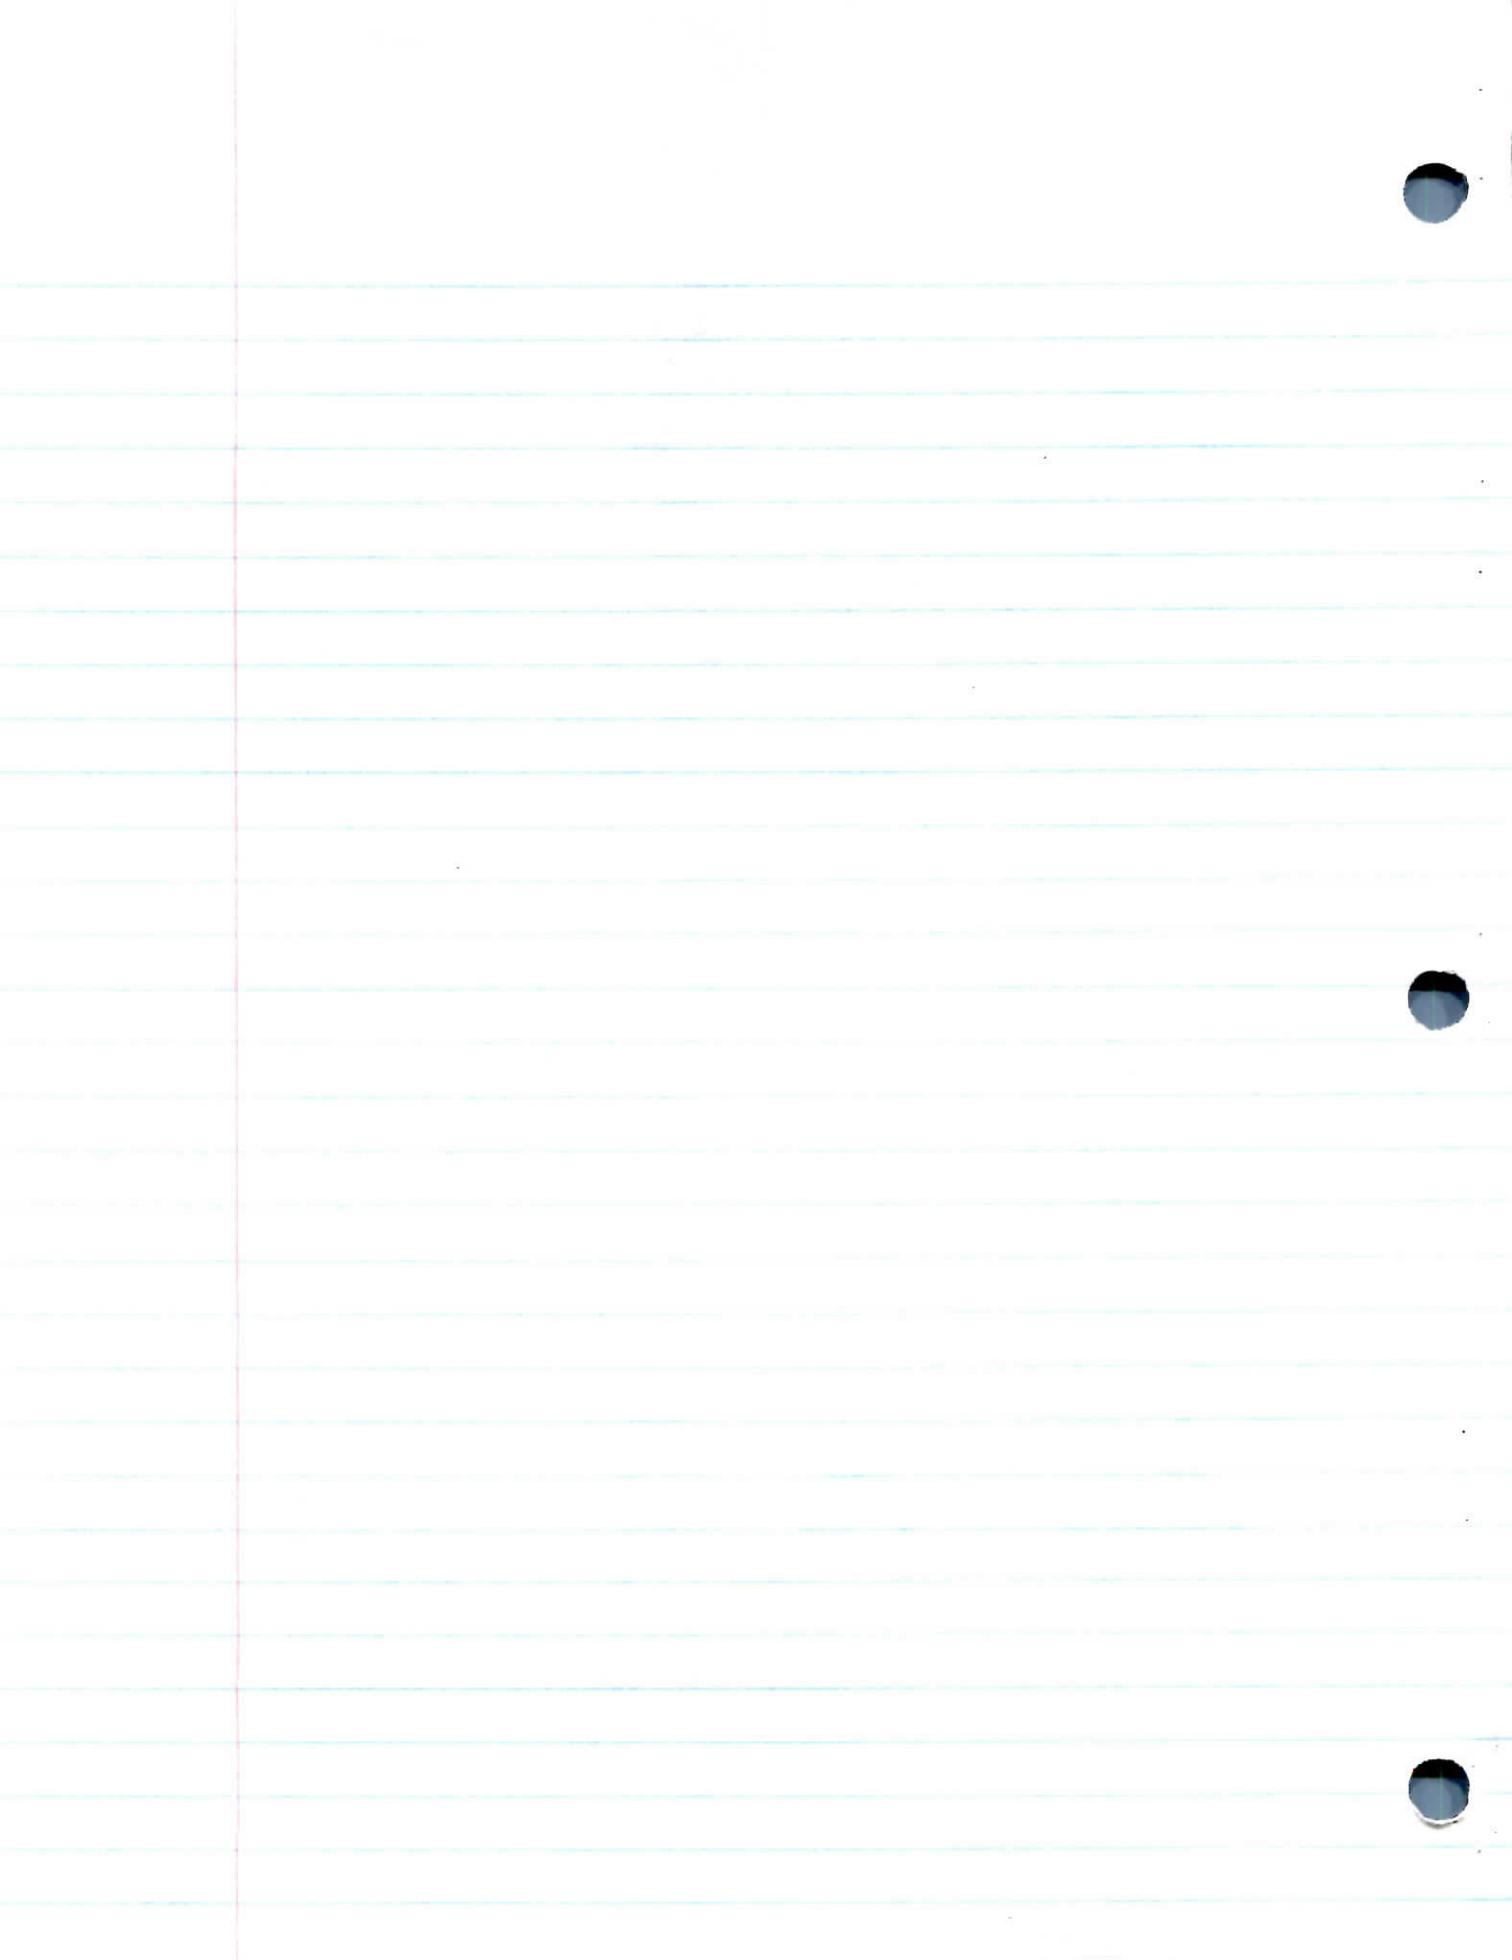

"What about Cathleen?" Scott asked.

"Yeah," Jordan replied.

"Will you just screw her? ^{My} wife is gonna be fu--ed! All you guys can think about is that bitch who got us all into this!

Don't you see the Dorodans sabotaged the cap? They framed her. You guys fell into the mother fu--in trap! Now are you gonna worry about shi- that's already happened or shi- that can and might not be prevented? Now would you please come the fu-- on. You guys screwed your relationship over a broad who's gonna screw you in a few years. You're a bunch of fools.

If any one gets close and screws me around, you better step back or I'll knock your ass the fuck out. Stop bullshitting me and choose friendship or this black and white switch will be up your ass! Now let's screw my wife.

Chapter 33: The Many Rescue Missions Of the Space Force

At Doradan Intelligence on Dorador:

"I want Cathleen, Ed, and you
Mr. Osprey put in the freezer.
Strip them."

"You can't do that, Haven!
You owe, nooooo!" Osprey blurted out.

The three of them were but naked and put in plastic tubes. The room was square.
Other Space Force people were in those tubes. They included Mike Speed, Galt, Mike Mason, John Due, and Sellers. The three new prisoners braced themselves. A light shown in each of their tubes and then a stream of cloudy particles came down. They were immediately frozen. You may be wondering about the Deem. He was tortured day and night.

"Tell me some more of your shi-, Deem." Haven ordered,

"You know David Majewski is the best president we ever had. The space force will defeat you."

"Yeah right, Deem." He slugged Deem, "The Dorodans and Corporation are going out after your friends' personal friends. You have no choice. You will be defeated."

On earth:

Edmund, Scott, and Jordan came to Edmund's house armed with guns. There were a whole lot of cars out there in his drive way.

Edmund ran in, "Marilena! Oh no!"

"I'm sorry Edmund." David pleaded. "She called me as soon as it happened. Glover destroyed the whole upstairs. This place is screwed. Marilena was raped. He beat her and abused her. Her half Dorodan strength was no match for an all Dorodan male. Lm 52"

so sorry."

"Where is she?" Edmund asked

"Edmund, he also got E.J. along with Beary Bear, Pussy Bear, and P.J."

"Where is she?"

"In the kitchen. Pook's coming over. D.J. and Commander are trying to cheer her up. I really don't know about Commander. Billy and Pinby are out searching for Glove. Gerry is coming to help in any way he can."

Jordan and Scott looked at each other and called a truce. They shook.

Edmund ran in teary eyed. So was Marileva. They hugged, "I swear, Marileva, if Billy doesn't take care of his father I'll bill him. Are you majorly hurt?"

"No, they took E.J."

"I know."

"What could I have done? I'm sorry Edmund."

"Don't be. Glove 'will be' sorry. I promise you. Are you going to be alright?"

"Yeah."

"David, we've waited too long. When can we take out those dam - Strodans?"

"As soon as you're all ready.

"I'm ready, now dam - it!"

Edmund ran out in a rage.

Gerry grabbed him by the arm, "listen to me."

Edmund pulled out his switch. Gerry promptly let go.
Edmund continued out and ran to his Porsche. He zoomed off.

"Should I go after him?" Gerry asked.

David explained, "Edmund's right. We have to get the thinking caps back now. Gerry, do you know the way back through quasar?"

"Yeah. It's back through ore that I'm worried about. When will we board Petya?"

"Let's go as soon as possible," Scott added. "Who's coming with me?"

"I am," Maulera said. "Think of it as sweet revenge."

"Fine," Scott explained, "I'm going with Maulera, Edmund, Pook, Billy, Willy, Pinby, and Neff. David, D.J., Commander, Garrison, Jordan. will be on Colt."

When Edmund cooled off:

The space force boarded Petya. Neff ordered, "Willy, Pinky, and Billy, get in dem fighters."

They flew into the quasar and were promptly met by Doradan fighters.

Neff yelled, "Get more fighters out! Edmund, Marileva, go!"

Neff got an intergalactic call from Jerry, "When you're ready to come out I will deionize the quasar. What's all that noise!"

"We're bein' attacked! I'm out. Pook send out the pod ship."

"Yeah." Pook said getting into the pod.

Edmund, Marileva, Pook, Willy, Billy, and Pinky invade Doradan.

Edmund asked, "Do you know where those containment cells are?"

Pinky answered, "Yeah. It's over there. But it's heavily guarded."

Edmund added, "We're gonna need reinforcements. If we send a message out, we'll be spotted. Pinky, tap into the phone lines."

"Got it."

At the Radio Outpost:

Pinby jumped over one soldier and threw a Chinese star at another. The soldiers were no match for him. He got to the control panels and hooked up a scrambler, "S. S. P. Come in. We need help!!!"

"Get him guards!" Graven yelled.

At Space Station Petya:

"Oreff," Scott called, "We got a message. They need reinforcements."

"And so do we! Pipstein, Majewski, help. We're under attack from all sides."

On the planet's surface:

Edmund looked up, "Petya gettin' billed. Let's do this fast and get the fu-- extra here." Edmund ran.

Corporation guards shot Uzi's at him. Edmund used his watch to deflect the bullets. He jumped to the floor and pulled his laser. Edmund got up and ran after his laser was used up on corporation guards. Next he pulled out an Uzi. Wilby 2 pulled out an A.K. 47. Everywhere you looked people were getting blown away. Pooh and Billy disarmed the guards with their Betsy ropes while Marilva blasted them. Jordan flew down as a reinforcement. Billy held off more guards by using Kung fu, "you guys get in their."

In the freezer:

Jordan explained, "Wow, Cathleen has awesome tits!"

"Shut up man." Edmund ordered.

Jordan freed Cathleen. She was weak and blinded from the cold. Edmund freed Gary. Pooh freed Mike Speed. Edmund ran to Marilva, "E.J. isn't here. I got the secret service men. You guys really don't have any pussy. You know that. You are butt naked. Here are your clothes."

Haven walked in with a gun pointed to Deem's head. Glove had E.J., P.J., and Beavy. A Jordan guard had Billy and Pinby. Some more guards walked in.

Haven ordered, "Drop your weapons. Good. Glove you may have 1571 Marilva.

"Don't touch her," Edmund threatened. "You have gotten so many people pinned at you, now you're doomed!" Edmund flicked his switch.

Billy and Pinky back kicked the guard and pulled out their Bersy ropes. They disarmed some guards.

Pook asked, "Where's my wife?"

Glove laughed and took two test tubes. One with Osprey and one with Pussy. He blasted off.

"Don't leave me!" Glove yelled. "No matter. I'll take you Marilva." He slapped her. Pook jumped on Glove's back and started choking him. Billy started using powerful blows against Glove. Marilva slugged him a few times and again dislocating his jaw. She was beating the shiout of him.

"Guys, guys," Edmund explained, "We can't hurt him unless we get Billy's permission."

"Permission granted. No one that evil could be my father. I have already crushed his ribs. Marikva dislocated his face. Pook crushed his lungs. It's your turn, Edmund. Put that concealed weapon down."

"Yeah, ever since you raped my wife, I've gotten 100% crazier." Edmund flicked his switch blade. It was a classic street fight. Glove's claw versus Edmund's black & white switch blade.

The rest of the Space Force overpowered the last of the Corporation guards. Mike used his Dionice to easily overcome the guards. Sellers, Willey's, and Jordan, took out all air patrols within 10 minutes.

Glove punched Edmund to the ground. Edmund tripped him. He started punching to the point saliva spit out. Glove was too weak to fight.

Edmund explained, "This is for all the people you've hurt or killed in your life time. Good by and fu--riders."

"Nooooo! Bye Bi-Bi my son!"

"Awe fu--you!" Billy said.

Edmund ran to a fighter, "We have to get the cops."

"I'm on it," Scott explained.
"Cover me while I go in."
Scott flew into the Dorodan cruiser and blasted Dorodans. He jumped out and met Edmund.
They rescued the cap only to be met by Haven. He materialized in front of them. By the time he almost fully materialized Scott activated the thinking cap. He grabbed Edmund's switch and stabbed Haven before he could retaliate.

The two of them flew to the S. S. P. The Dorodan cruiser chased after the S. S. P.

Captain Neff screamed, "
Captain Jerne, Defuse the quasar.
Get Jerry."

Marileva explained, "We've got to stop that space ship."
She jumped in a fighter.
Scott, Willy, Edmund, and Jordan followed her.

The S. S. C. Defused the quasar with high energy beams.
As soon as all our heroes were in they closed the quasar. The Dorodan Cruiser hit like a nuclear bomb. The quasar was gone.

There would be no more Dorodans. (I hope.)

"We bicché mucho as-!"

Edmund yelled.

Suddenly a gigantic boom went over Space Station Petya. Everyone was out of the way except Jordan. He was blown across the ship until he slammed into a wall.

Edmund ran to him, "Hurry, get him aboard Colt where Gerry is."

"I can help him," Cathleen explained.

"No!" Willy ordered, "You already have a bad rep. Let's get him aboard Colt."

They got Jordan above the D.I.C. Gerry explained, "There's nothing we can do for him. I'm thoroughly pissed. He's in a coma. If we take him off life support he'll die. It's up to you guys, shut it down and cut it off or keep 'er on."

Sellers explained, "So this is the Dorodans' revenge."

At the White House:

David pleaded, "I'm sorry Cathleen. You must go back and serve out your prison term. It's only fair, you too Ed."

"Yeah man." Ed said.

At Scott's house:

Edmund and Mike speedwalked in.

"Hello guys."

"Get to the point," Edmund ordered.

"I want you guys to break in to Alcatraz and free Cathleen."

"Are you crazy? She's the bitch who got us in this shi-." Mike said.

"Well could you at least give her this."

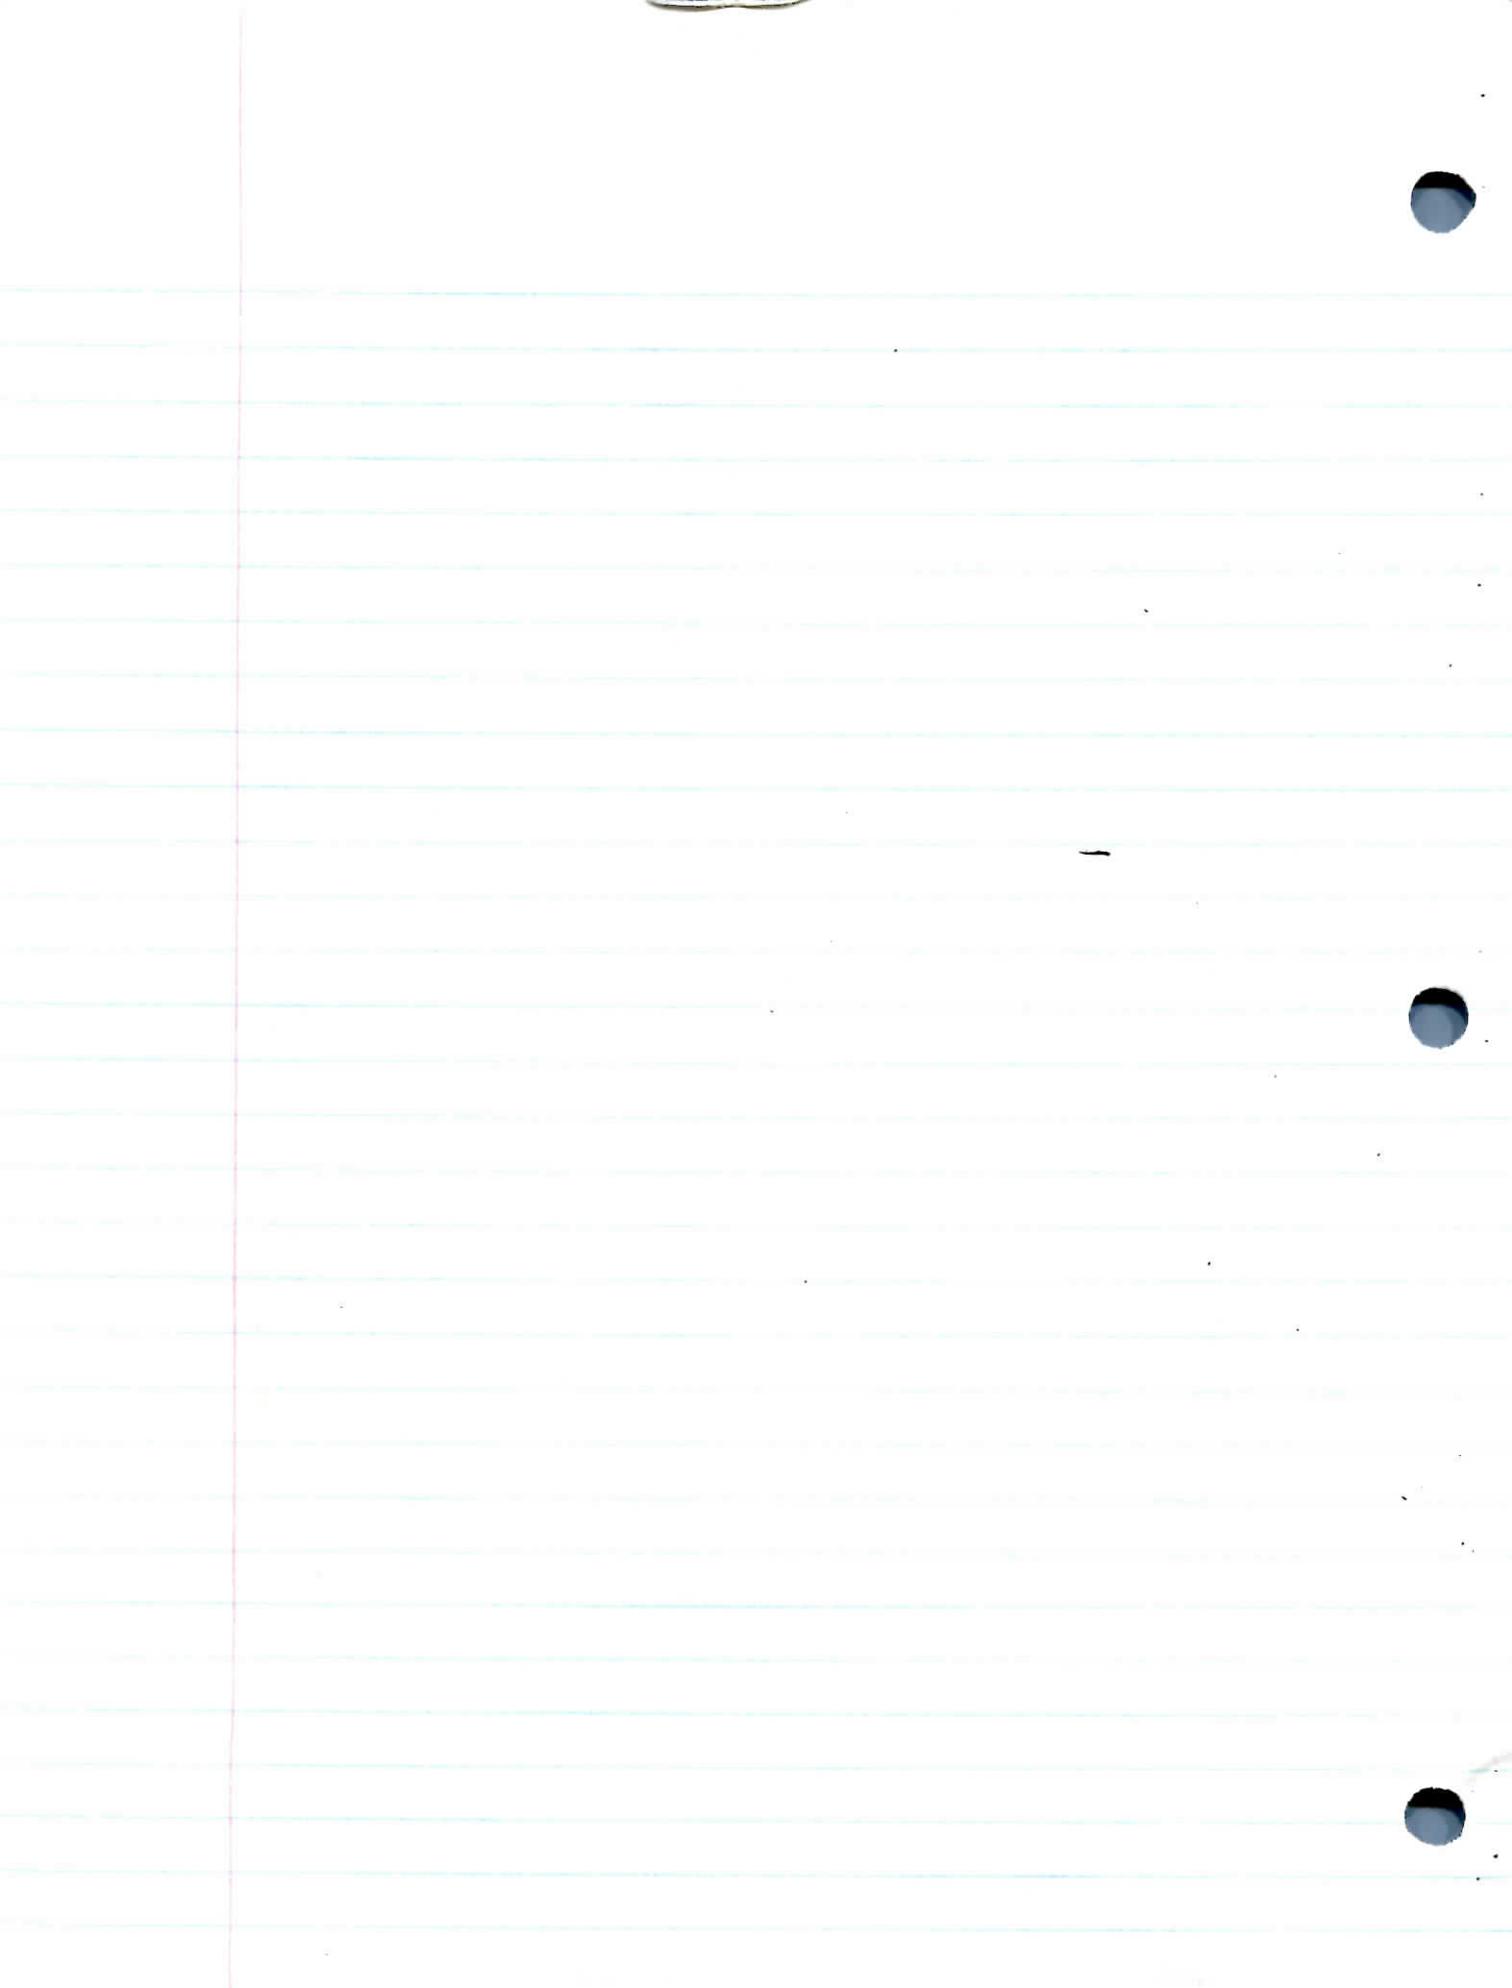

"What is it?" Edmund questioned.
"Man, give it up! I'll give this to her but fu-- it. I'm forgettin' about this. I got a wife and son to look out after."

"Yeah man, a best friend in a coma is more important than a bitch."

"I'm sorry guys. I make up for it. Just give this to her."

"Are fu-- ^{you can't} this!" Mike and [62]

Edmund said in unison carrying the "his" to Cathleen.

Chapter 34: Now What?

Scott Gipsword recovered his thinking cap and kept better tabs. We didn't put it in this book because it would be boring. Alright there was a nuclear bomb attempt and international terrorists tried to steal it.

Edmund, Maribva, and E.J. recovered from the battles. Maribva and Edmund went back to their usual having sex. Alright (again) they cut David's phone line.

Mike Speed went back to counseling disabled kids.

The Deem is still a Jordanian prisoner that is tortured day and night.

Sheriff Pook is pissed off that the Corporation stole his wife. He has sworn revenge with his deputies.

D.J. and Commander fucked each other night. D.J. told me that if you get her alone she'll tear yo dick. I haven't heard from each other since.

Sam Osprey is also a prisoner of the Jordanians.

David S. Majewski has effectively, once again led us through another troubled time. What a president!

Fant, Cathleen (after she did time), Neff, and Pinby were stationed at Space Station Petrya.

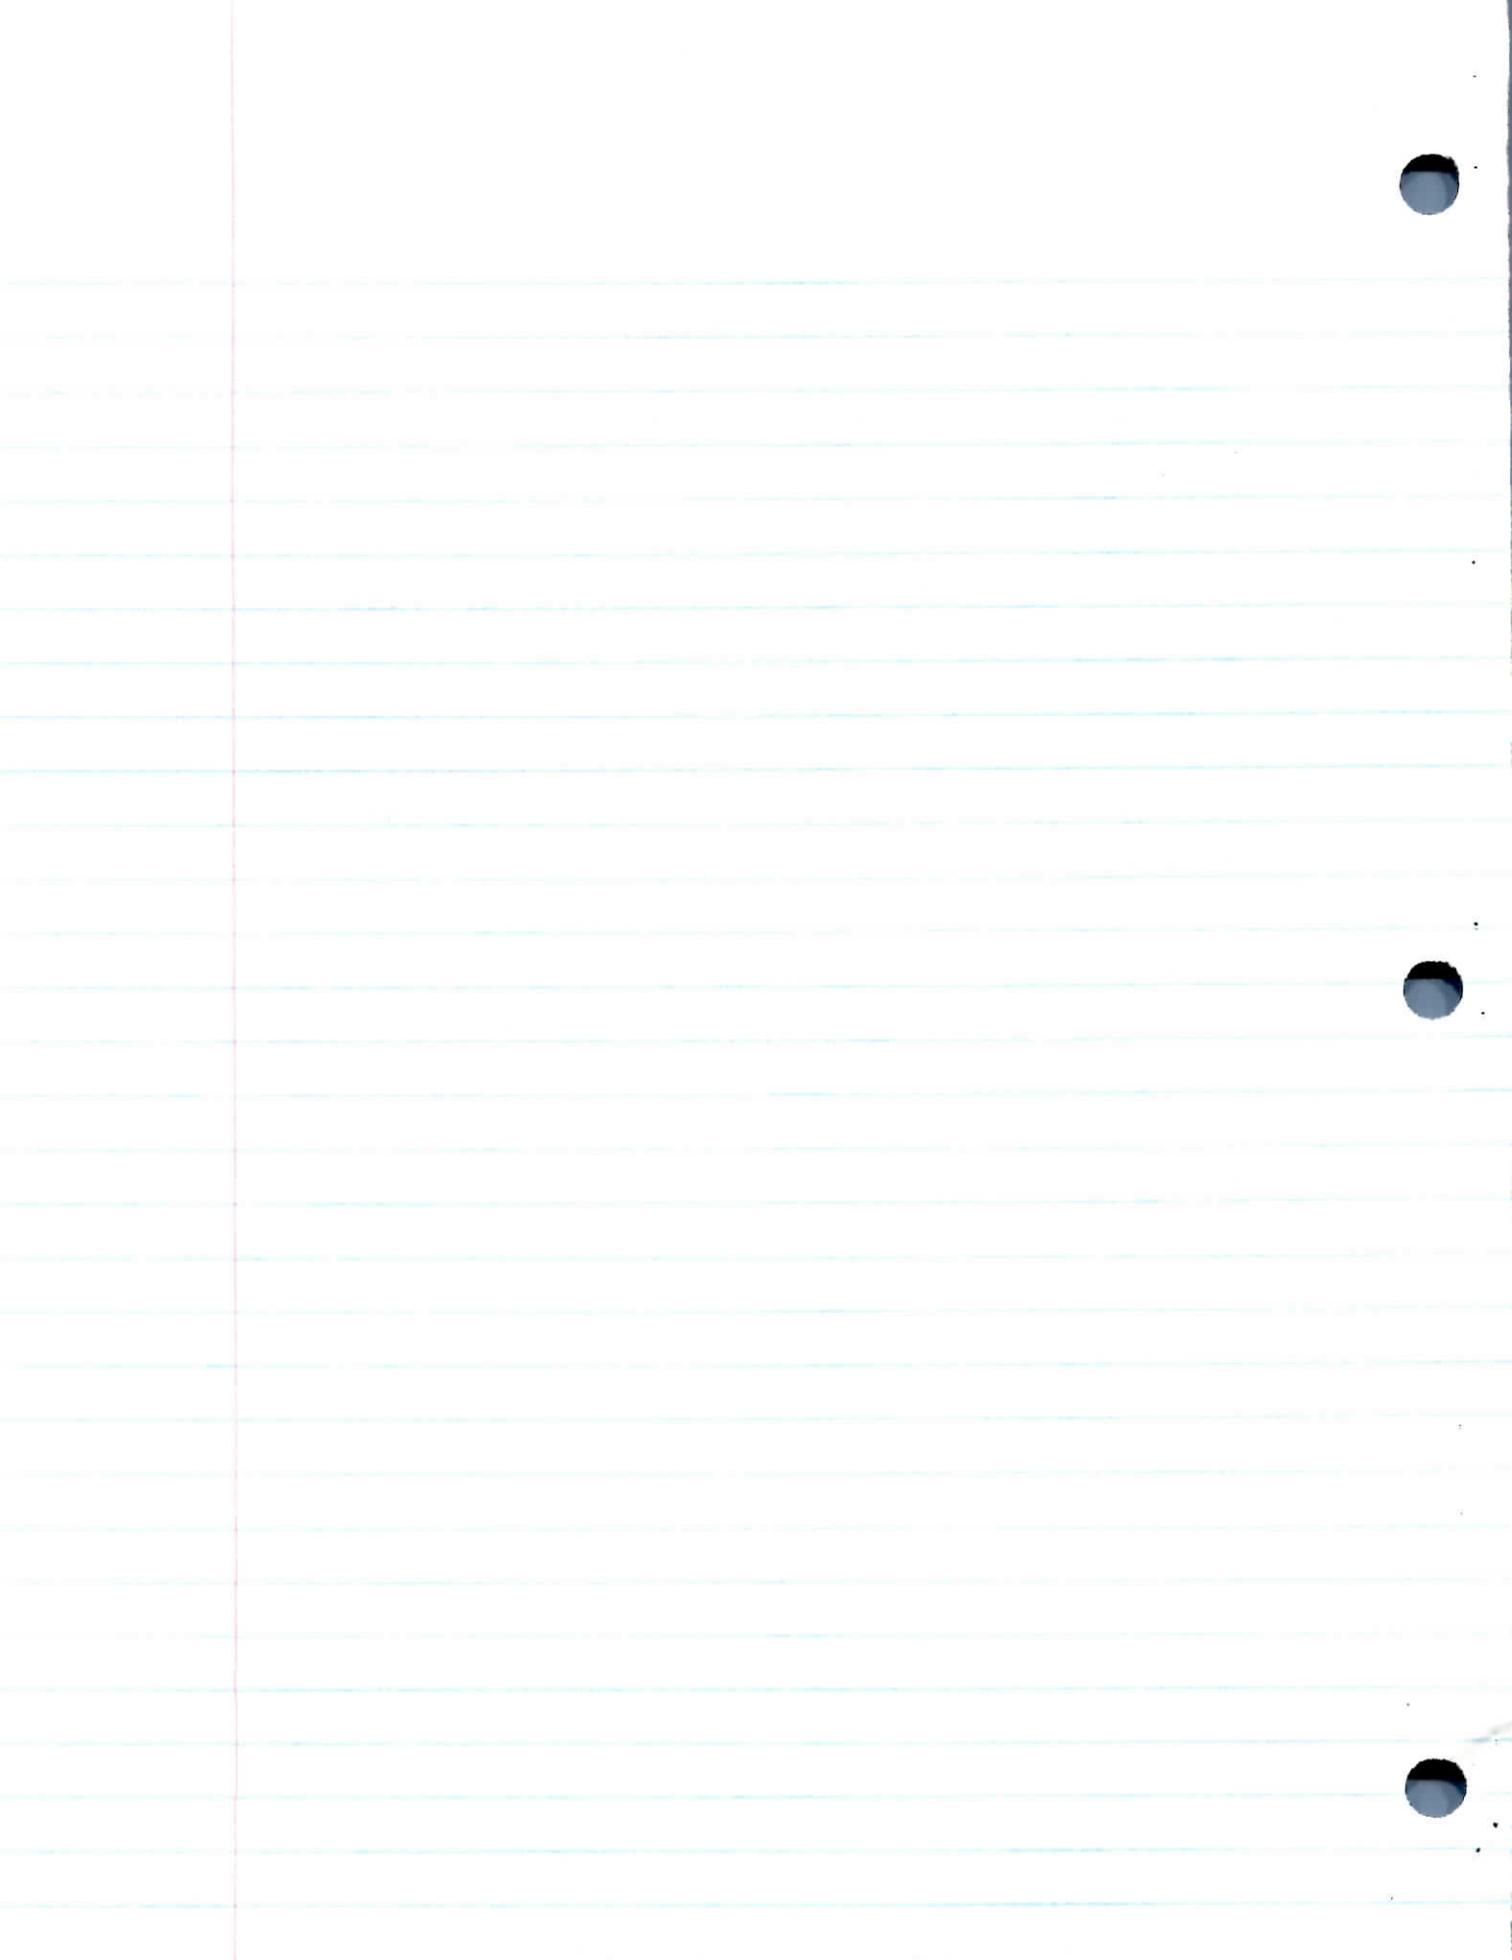

Gerry Garrison, Willy's, Billy, and Sellers were stationed at Space Station Colt.

The Space Force elected to keep Jordan on life support. Will he overcome the coma? I have no apparent idea.

Glove is finally dead!
Doodah!

Mike and John are guarding Scott and his Thinking Cap 25 hours a day.

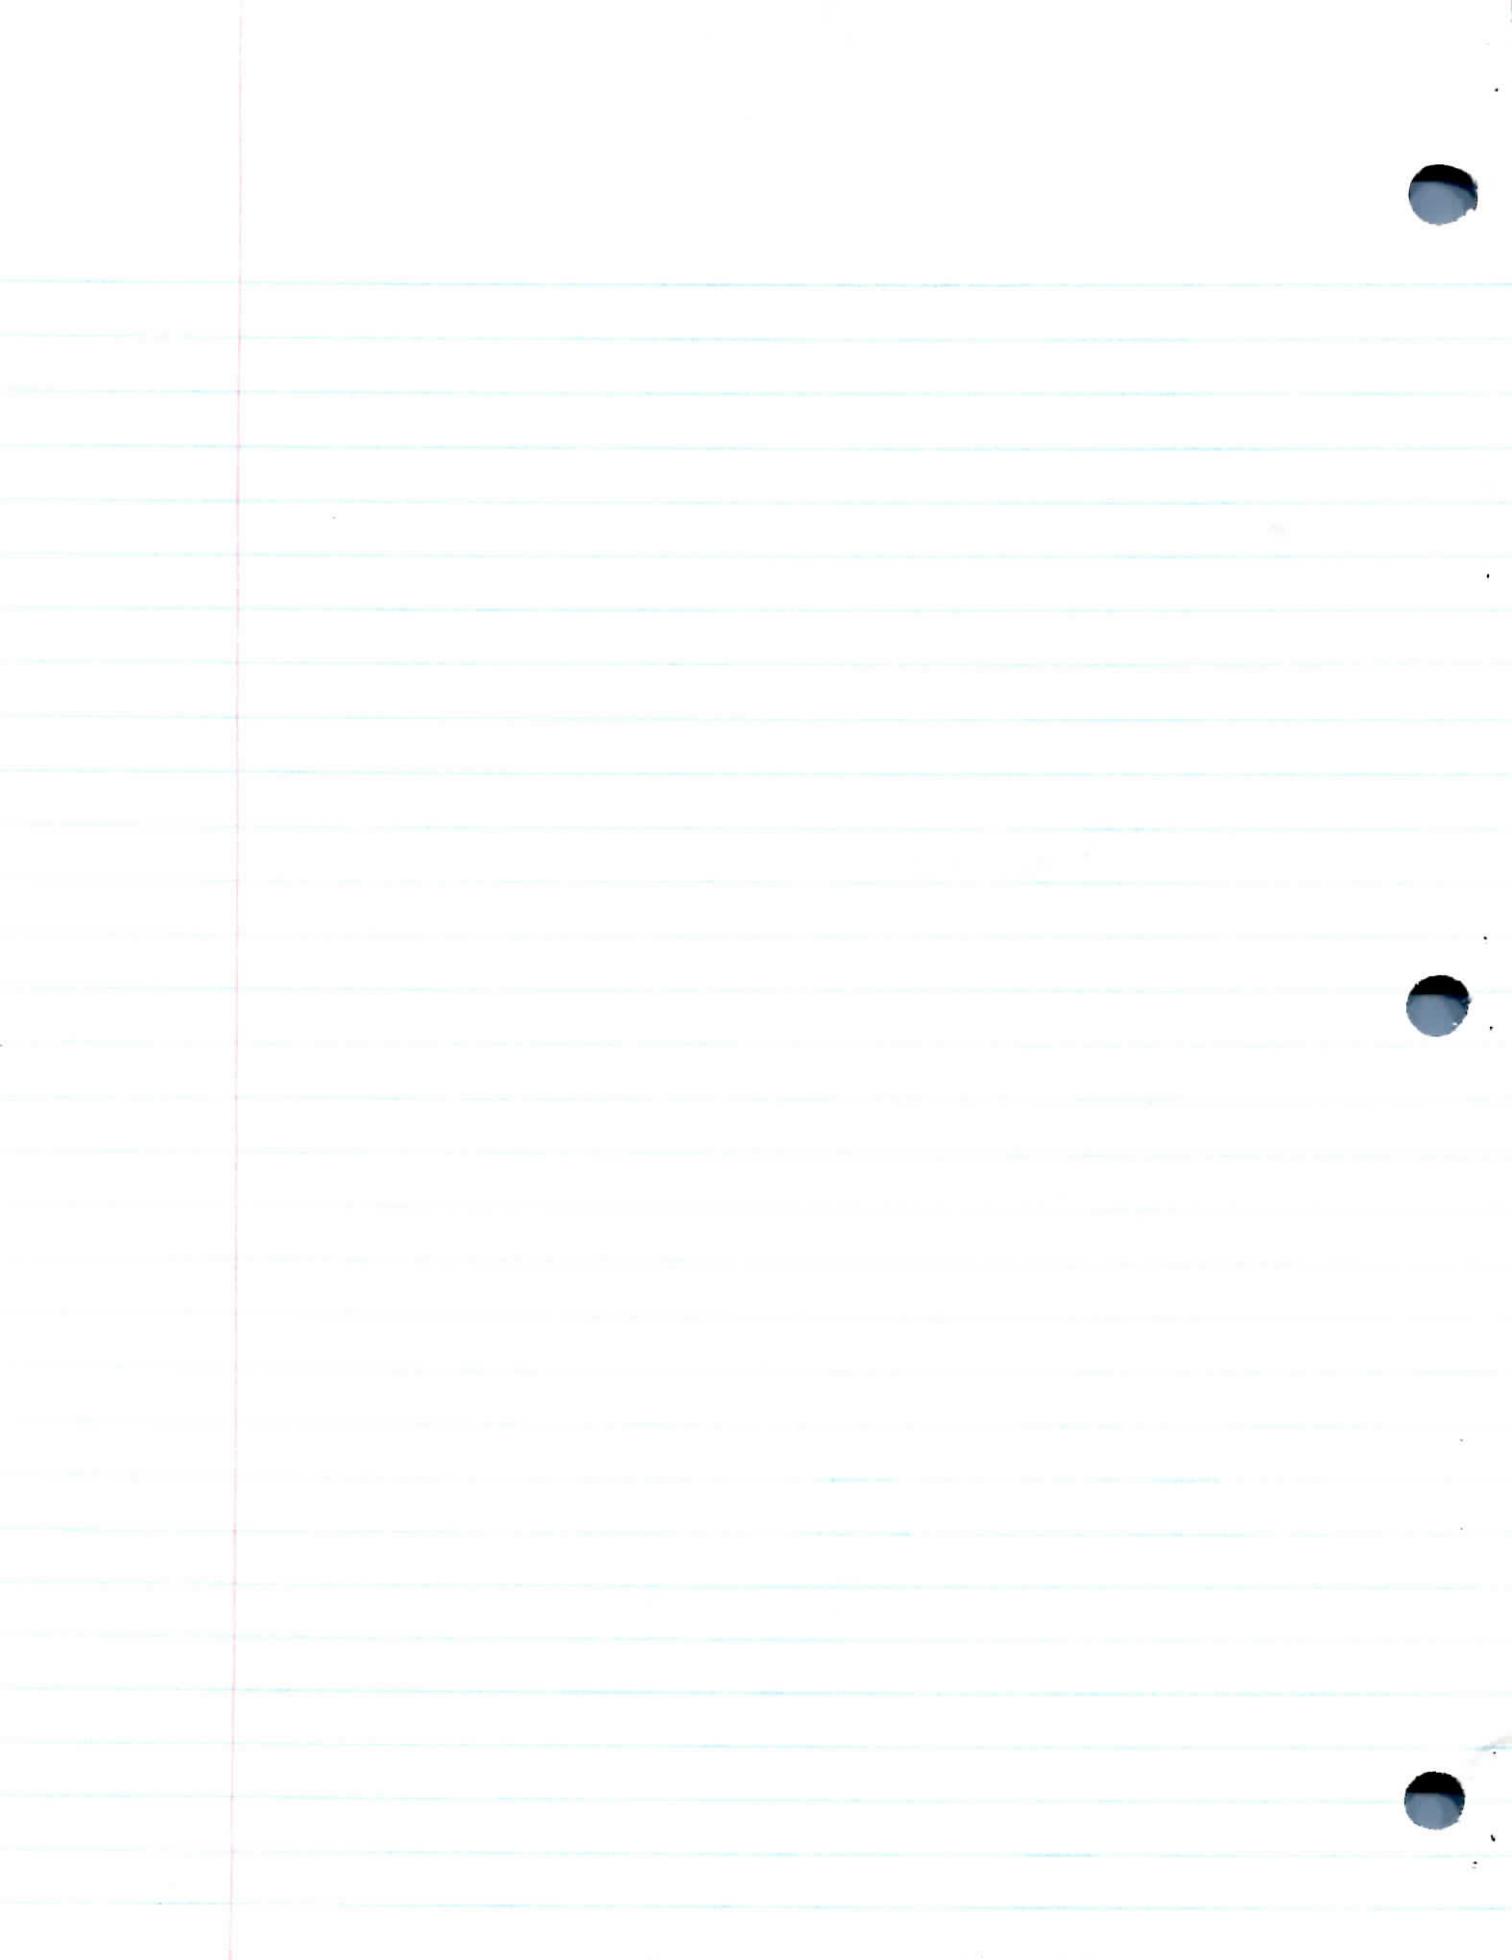

Ed got out of prison to start and become a shoe salesman, "Yeah, cool man."

Edmund triumphs again in this hilarious smart hit made possible by Scott Lipsword, the creator of the Thinking Cap, these two are geniuses.

Edmund took Scott's idea, with the consent and help of Scott, and made it into a book.

This book is so good there just might be another one. Maybe it's going to be from the files of the Thinking Cap II like the es gonna be another Space Vampire II.

Any way, this book is about the Space Force wanting to save the paws or mias that the Herodians capture. Can they succeed with the thinking cap? Read 'er, it's a triumph! It's the "Longest" ta!
