Chapter 35: Family ties

At the space station hangar...

Edmund, Marileva, E.J., Willy Z., P.J. Sellers, and Z. Garrison walked to the docking pad where the shuttle plane landed. Inside was Gant, Acro, and Mike Speed. Everyone was excited for this little reunion.

"So bad Poot and Belly couldn't be here?" Marileva asked.

"Yeah Marileva," Edmund replied. E.J. and Commander walked up. E.J. suggested, "I want to see All of you in my office in five minutes, no later."

"Ah shi -, that probably means trouble," Gant said.

They all walked toward Dr. J.'s office when Marileva started grasping her stomach. She suddenly stopped.

"What's wrong?" Willy G asked. Marileva fell into Edmund's arms. Edmund gently laid her on the floor.

G. Garrison held a gadget over Marileva's stomach, "Edmund, she's pregnant."

"What the fu - - ?" Edmund said as he fainted, "No shi -."

G. Garrison ordered, "Yell Dr. J. and Commander that we'll be a little late."

"You got it," Acro agreed.

In the science compartment...

G. Garrison walked over to Edmund who sat on a bench, "She's pregnant alright. This is really hard to explain. She should have hundreds of 177) children quickly because of her Dorodanian side but her more human side holds her back. E.J. has Dorodan powers but this one may not. The Dorodans main plan was to reproduce but with your human sperm and her half and half egg, both human sides hold back the Dorodan that wants to reproduce. This generously divides the powers of a Dorodan. So what I'm saying is that it would've happened whether you fu--ed her or not. I've gotta go deliver her child. You may come if you like. She's conscious."

Edmund and Z. Gerrison walked into the delivery room. Edmund held Marileva's hand. Under Z. Gerrison's excellent know how, the baby was out in no time

"It's a girl," Z. Gerrison said. Edmund and Marileva were in tears, "You guys won't have any more kids that you have to have unless you get her pregnant again." 178

G. Garrison took the baby and cut the Umbilical Cord. He then washed off the baby. He next rapped her in a blanket and let Marileva hold her.

"What will we name her?" Edmund asked.

"I kinda figured on M. J. after her mommy," Marileva said.

"Sounds good to me," Edmund replied.

"I'll go get the papers and the birth certificate," G. Garrison said.

In D. J.'s office...

E. J. said to Mike Speed, "I hope my mom is alright."

"Don't worry E. J.," Mike explained, "your mom is in the hands of a pro."

P. J. walked over to E. J., "Do you know what happened E. J.?"

"No P. J.," E. J. explained. "I think we're too young to know."

Edmund walked in with Marileva holding her daughter. Edmund said, "It's a girl."

"Congratulations man," Willy said shaking Edmund's hand.

Commander nodded and Marileva nodded back. After all Commander never liked Marileva because Marileva did not have Commander's respect. Now Marileva supposedly does but she could care less.

"Alright, let's get to business," J.J. said, "We've worked our asses off in the past few weeks. I think it's time for a little leave of absence. All of you can leave the S.D.C. on a two week vacation."

"That's fu--in' it?" Gart asked.

"I'll make it one week if you don't get the fu--outta here now," Commander said.

Everyone left but G. Garrison and Gart. G. Garrison explained, "I've got work to do still. I'll catch you guys later."

"Yeah," Fax said, "and I have a lot of catching up to do with Gerrison, my pal."

"Alright guys," Willy said, "you miss all of the fun."

At the shuttle bay Edmund guided Marileva on because she was still weak. E. J. and P. J. got on, on their own. Everyone boarded and the doors closed.

"Next stop," Mike said, "Earth and Yurtalia."

At the Space Force Base...

Sellers cleared them into the base. Willy ran to his Geo Tracker. Mike and Sellers and Aero came with. Edmund opened up the Gerari. P. J. and E. J. got in the back and Edmund opened the door for Marileva. He helped her in like a gentleman.

Willy drove up, "Where we goin?"
Marileva rolled down the window, "Go to my house. We'll meet you" there." Marileva rolled the window up and Edmund motored off toward his home. Willy followed.

At the house once everyone got settled...

M. J. was placed in her crib and P. J. and E. J. went off to the playroom to play. Edmund brought out some refreshments. They were little mini sandwiches.

"Do you know much about your family?" Willy asked Acro.

Acro answered, "All I know is that my father was some sort of ninja. I think his name was Ninyon. What about you Willy?"

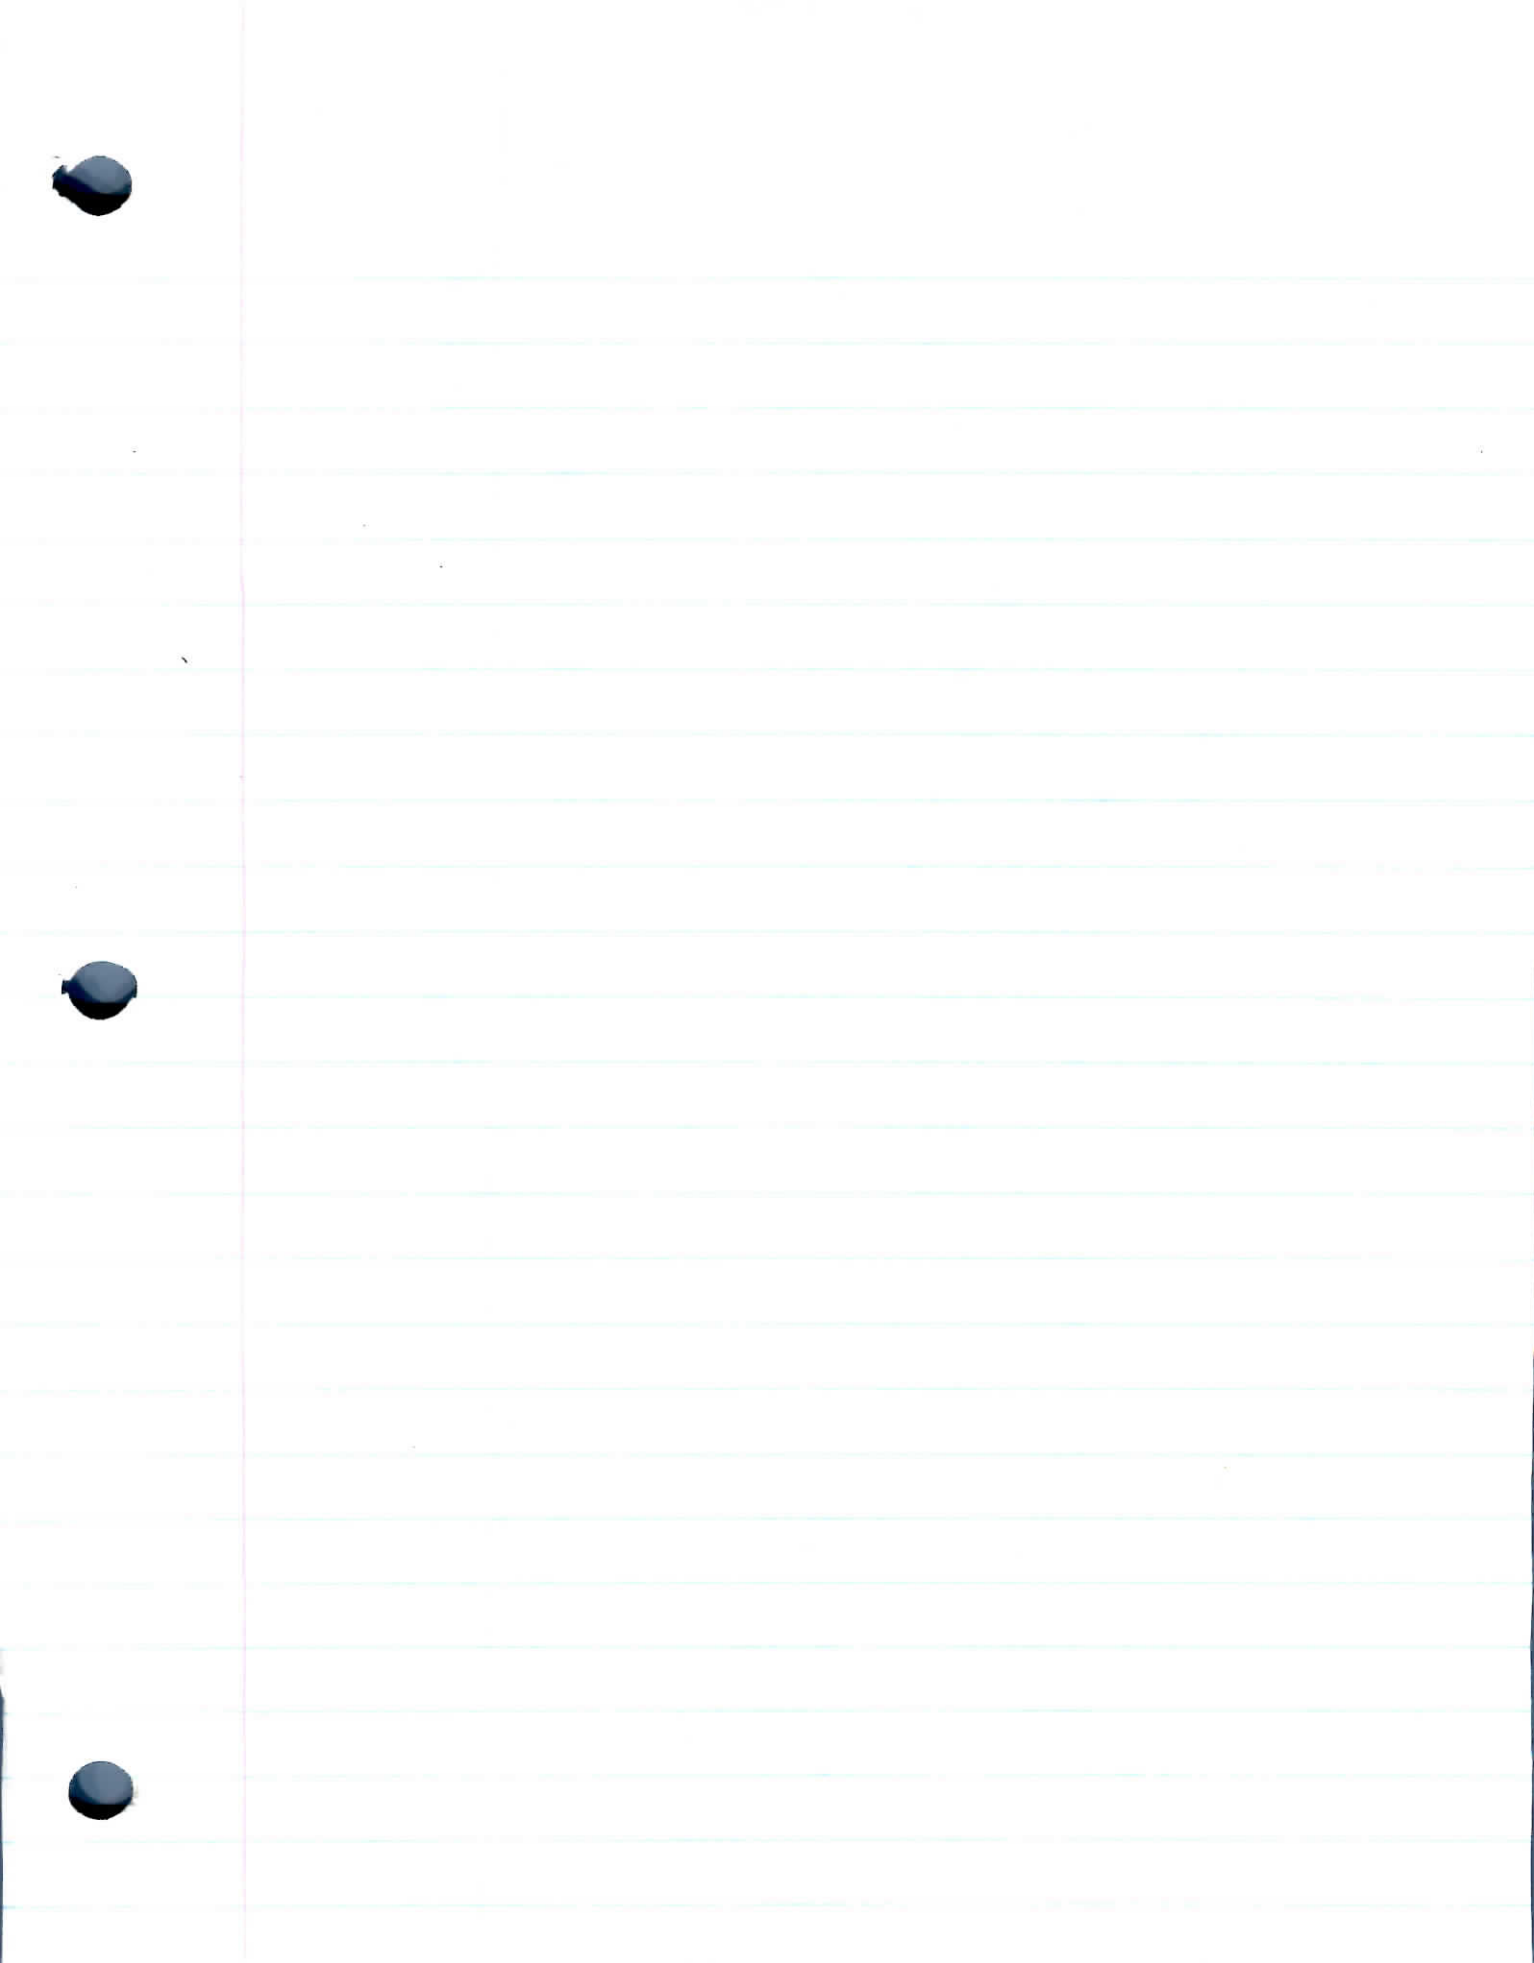

"I knew my parents well," Willy replied, "I don't wish to really talk about it. What about you Edmund?"

"Well, my father's name was Cestron. I was told he was crazy. I don't know really. Billy Bear's cousin Erica Smith had a father 1821 who had some memoirs about all of our parents. I think it concerned the original S.D.C.*. All I know is I'm really proud of my father."

They all went on talking basically all night until it was time to turn in. Edmund and Marileva were glad to be in their own bed again. You know what that meant.

Willy's dropped everyone else off at their homes.

Chapter 36: The Invasion 2

On Space Station Colt...

D.J. and Commander walked over to a panel. The panelist explained, "We have one large bogie approaching at highspeeds. It contains smaller bogies. What are your orders?"

"Shields up," D.J. ordered.

"It's began," Commander whispered.

"What Commander?" D.J. asked.

"I didn't say anything," Commander answered.

D.J. continued, "Ok, put shields at minimum, well up 'em when we see violent behavior."

On Earth...

"The phone rang. Marileva walked over and picked it up, "Hello."

"Hello Marileva?"

"Yes this her, who is this?"

"This is Sellers. I got some tickets to this concert. Would you and Edmund want to come?"

"Well, Edmund and I have nothing else planned. Could you save the tickets just in case?"

"Sure Marileva. Bye."

"Bye." Marileva asked Edmund and he agreed. They got a babysitter.

"Are you sure about this Marileva?" Edmund asked.

"We used Mrs. Cutical many times for E.J. It'll be fine with M.J."

"Yeah you're right," Edmund said, "Besides E.J. and P.J. 'll take care of her. With E.J.'s powers an' all."

"Be good E.J.," Marileva ordered as she kissed him on the cheek.

"See ya P.J.," Edmund said as he patted him on the head. "Protect your sister if something happens."

The two parents took Maribwa's Mercedes.

Mrs. Cutical walked in, "We're gonna have a lot of fun together."
Mrs. Cutical said it with a grin.

On the S.S.C. ...

The bogie sped up and fired everything it had on the S.S.C. Some how Commander knew it would happen so she braced her self for it. S.S. was not that prepared. He was trapped in a ring of fire, "Help me honey!"

"You--you S.S.," Commander replied as she pulled her weapon.

"B-but we're married," S.S. said.

"Consider it a divorce," she said as she shot him. "I want someone else. That's why I haven't had your children." The space-station was out of order. It was heavily damaged. Commander took off the rest of what was left of the shields.

Commander took a fighter plane to the bogie. It turned out to be a Doredan mothership, "Welcome back Haven."

"Thankyou Commander," Haven said, "Phase 1 is complete. Put phase 2 into affect."

At the Sims household...

Mrs. Cutical talked to P.J. and E.J., "Your father and I go way back."

"Yeah, how far?" E.J. asked.

"I did this to him once,"

Mrs. Cutical underwent a transformation. She was the Glove.

"Awe shi-!" P.J. exclaimed, "Oops excuse me." Glove picked P.J. up and was about to plunge his claw into him when E.J. used his powers. He froze Glove in 1871 mid-thrust, E.J. pulled P.J. down.

"How'd you do that?" P.J. asked.

"Hard to explain," E.J. replied, "Now we gotta get to my sister before Glove unfreezes."

They ran up the stairs in terror.

"Go to her room," E.J. ordered.

"Where you goin'?" P.J. asked.

E.J. came back with two lasers. P.J. was stunned, "My dad gave it to me."

They were in the room guarding M.J. Glove came upstairs, "Your powers have matured. Like that half and half bit - called your mom. Both your parents beat me, but you fa-- in ' kids won't."

"My mom isn't a bit-," E.J. cocked his gun and fired. Glove dodged the fire. While the confusion was going on, P.J. carried M.J. out of the window to be met by a female.

"Where are you going?" Commander 1881 asked. She raised her and palm up. The baby flew into her hand. She swung her other hand. Her powers made P.J. fly against wall knocking him unconscious. "I'll give you to Sam Osprey and the Corporation along with your mother Pussy Bear."

At the concert...

"This is pretty good huh?" Mike Speed asked.

"What's wrong with Sellers?" Acro asked.

"Yeah he's been stoned the whole concert," Edmund said.

"Let's find out," Marilva said as she put her first two fingers on the side of his neck. "He's under Dorodan control. I don't know how. We got rid of all Dorodans. Some things wrong guys."

"Is there a way you can get to E.J. to find out what's goin' on?" Edmund asked.

"I could use my telepathy," Marikva replied as she put her first three fingers of both hands on the sides of her forehead. She spoke in her mind, "Can you hear me E.J.? Please be there my son.
Please hear me."

At the house...

"Gdn!" E.J. exclaimed. With the telepathy, E.J. was thrown off guard. Glove crushed E.J.'s laser and crashed the claw against
E.J.'s back neck.

At the concert...

"E.J.?" Marikva asked. She spoke aloud, "He's gone. I can feel his low vital signs Edmund. Something's wrong."

"We gotta get home," Edmund replied.

"Loob!" Willy exclaimed. Willy pointed toward Dorodanian fighters flying down. The fighters obliterated the singers as they landed near the stage. People were panicking.

Acro asked, "Can you snap Sellers out of this trance. We need all the help we can get."

"Alright," Marilena said as she waved her hand over Sellers's face.

Sellers snapped out of it, "What happened. Where are we?"

"What can you remember?" Edmund asked.

"I can only remember coming home last night," Sellers replied.

"It's typical of Commander to do this," Marilena said.

"How could you tell?" Willy⁴ asked.

"She's done it to D. J. before. She used D. J. to get her high position," Marilena explained.

"What's goin' on up there?" Mike asked as he looked up.

"Shi-!" Y. Garrison exclaimed.

"What's wrong?" Gert asked.

"We've lost Jordan Pipstein," Y. Garrison ordered, "Get D.J. down here."

Gert called on the P.A. system, "Garrison, D.J. has low vital signs and is unconscious with an almost fatal laser wound. He needs immediate attention."

"Yeah him and everyone else," Gert said. He got to the cockpit section. No one was aboard. The Dorodians took everyone prisoner.

"What the fu- happened?" Gert asked. "We can't help the Earth. It's unguarded. Completely. We can't help em, down there."

"I guess I'm acting Captain," Garrison said. "We need to get word to the S.P. Petya's the Earth's only help. It's our only hope. I just hope the radios are still workin'."

At the concert...

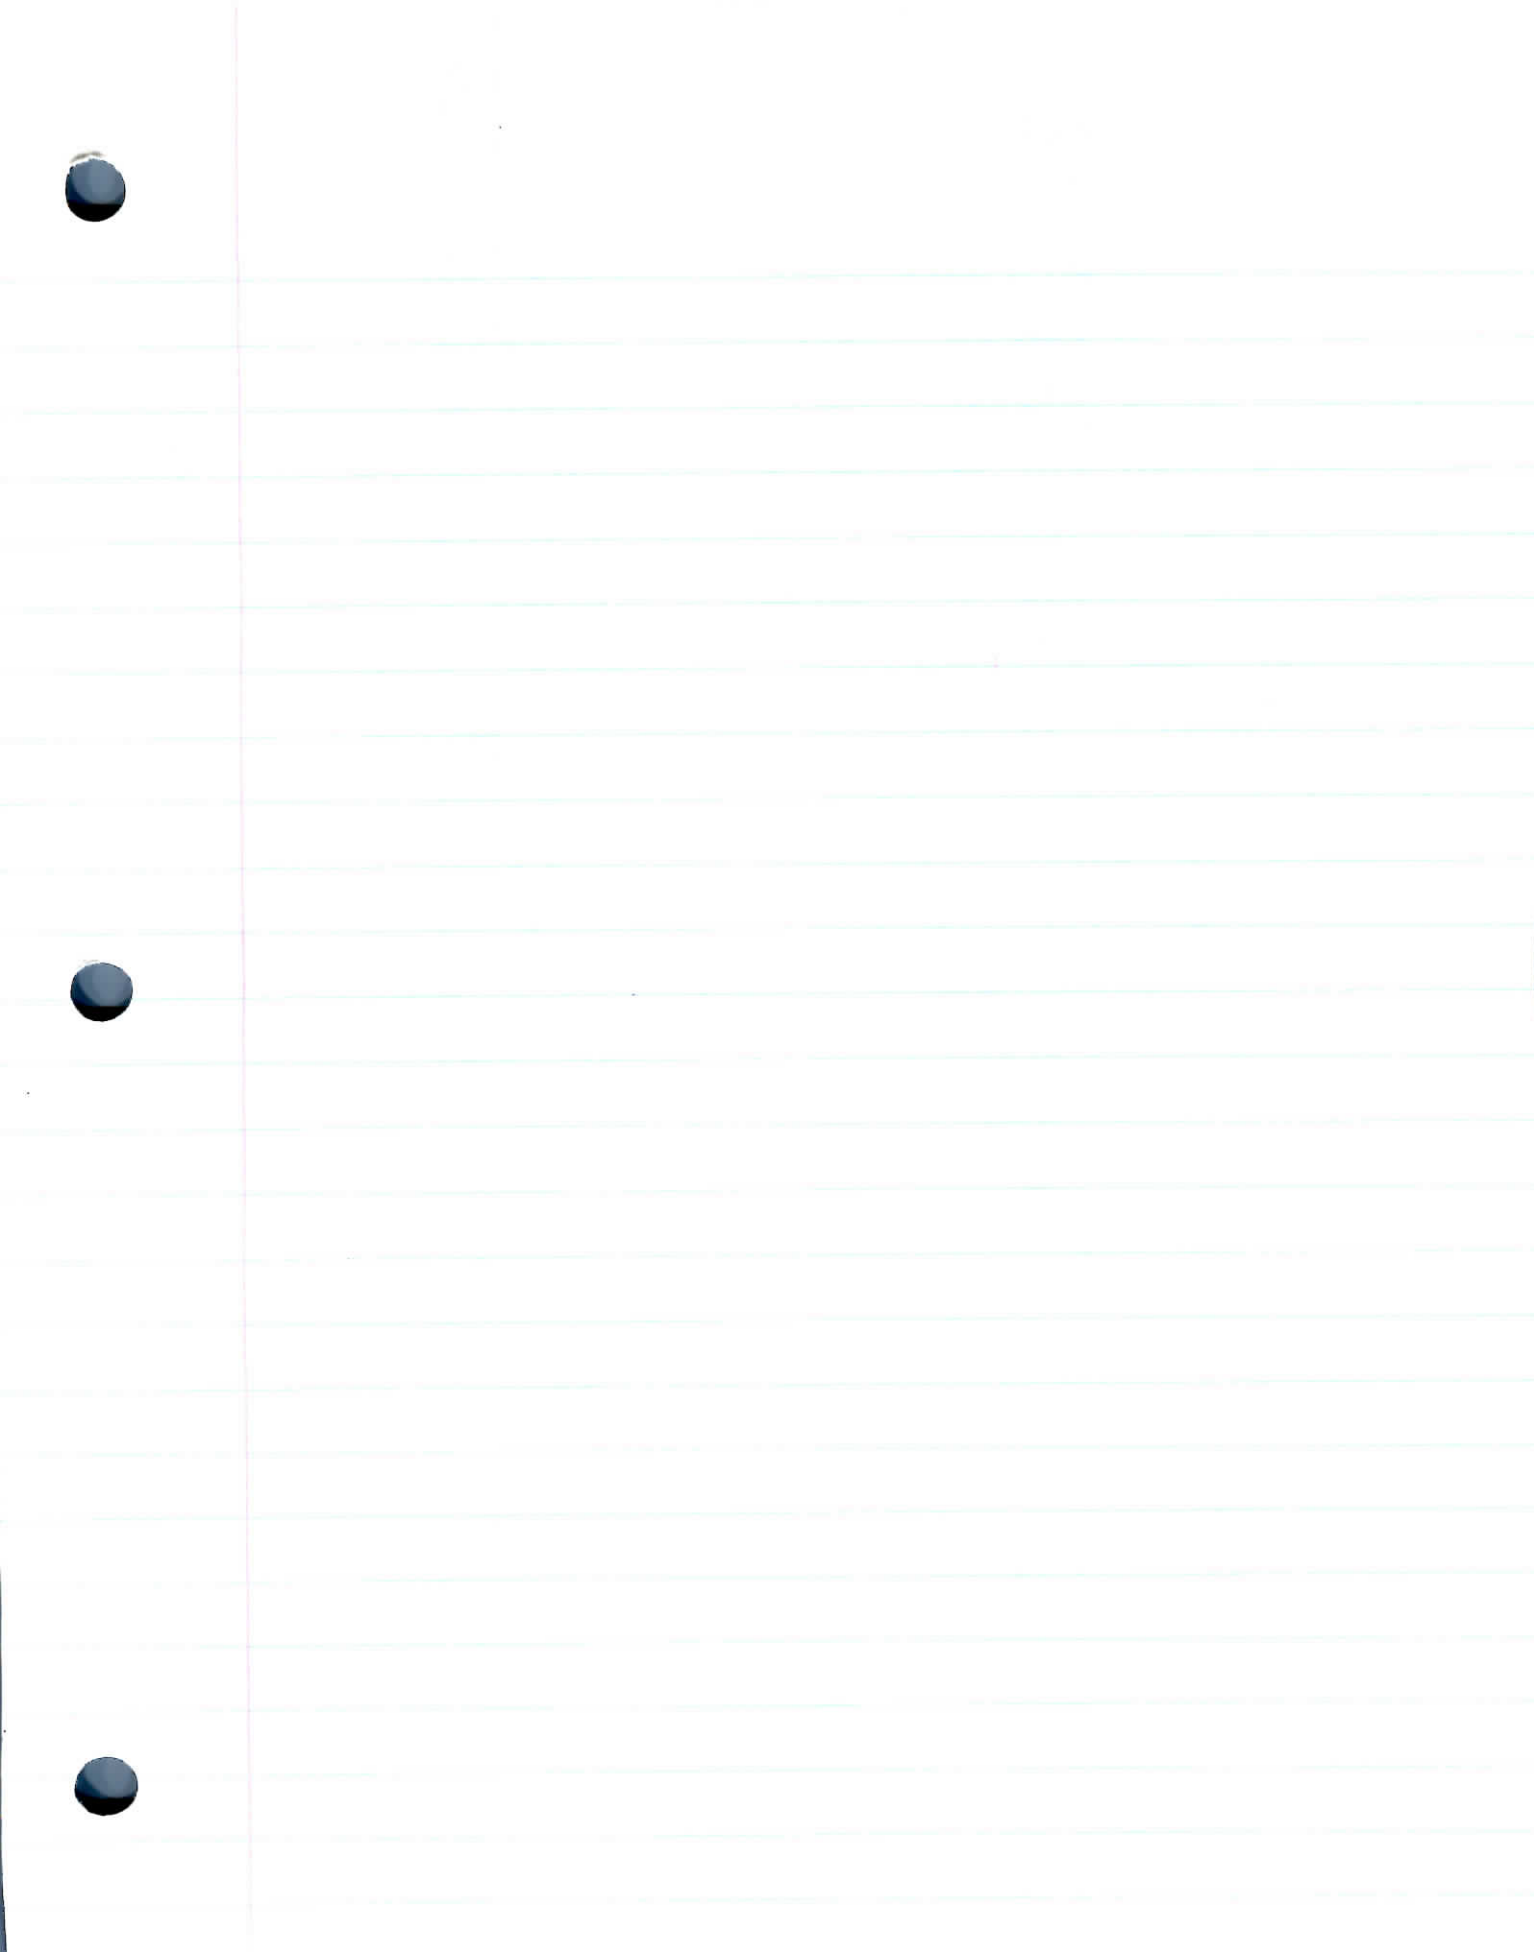

Graven walked out of one fighter, "Your world is now under martial law of the Dorodane. Any resistance is futile. Phase 3 is goin' well. Stand up and walk to the planes. If you resist, you will be shot." Graven grinned.

"What does he mean by phase 3?" Willy asked.

"What are we gonna do?" Acro asked.

"We can't be caught," Sellers replied.

"I don't know," Edmund said looking at Marilova, "All I know is that we're fu--ed."

Chapter 37: The Attacks

At the concert...

Guards filled the isles. Marilwa asked, "Is everybody strapped?"

"Yeah, I-," Edmund was cutoff.

Mike said, "Don't leave home without it, you never know when you'll need it."

The planes filled up with unfortunate people. Mike used his power to disarm the guards in his isle. The vigilantes ran frantically but stealthily toward the way out.

"Get them!" Haven yelled.

Planes set out firing toward the vigilantes. They took out a few of the fighters as they ran to the cars. Mike stayed behind the cars covering them. Edmund drove the Mercedes with skill.

"Clip," Marileva suggested. Edmund took one out of the glove compartment and gave it to Marileva. She fired and dodged fire. They made it back to the Sims household. Mike, Sellers, and Willy stayed outside.

Edmund and Marileva ran in to see P.J. and E.J. unconscious, bound, and gagged. Commander held M.J. in her arms, "What beautiful children you have."

"Put her down!" Marileva said as she lurched for Commander. Two Jordan guards grabbed her. Marileva threw them both off.

"Hold her down," Commander ordered. Five guards held her down. Commander took a needle with a a potent drug and injected half of the solution into Marilena's arm. She fell unconscious. All this time Dorodan guards had grabbed Edmund. They easily held a human.

"What are you gonna do to her?" Edmund asked.

"Well," Commander said, "I don't want her any more. We will not put her back in the Crystal Cage."

"But - we destroyed them," Edmund said.

"Not all of them," Commander explained. "I won't even put her in the tubes. She be a prisoner while we make her daughter a Dorodan like her son."

"Su-- you bite-," Edmund replied.

"You'll think differently once we make YOU a Dorodan and you become MY mate," Commander said.

"No no shi-, you can't d-do!" Edmund said as Commander injected him with the rest of the drug. He instantly fell unconscious. P.J. was placed in a plane for San Francisco. Edmund, Marileva, and their children were all placed in a shuttle for the Dorodan mother ship.

Commander held the baby. She liked M. J., "Glove, you may have Marileva. I get Edmund. Maybe we should make Marileva one of us."

"I'd like that," Glove said as he left with Commander and the rest of the guards.

Outside of the house...

"It's been too long," Sellers said.

"Let's go in," Mike said opening the door.

"Gw--, shi-! We let those Dorodans slip right past us!" Willy exclaimed.

On the shuttle...

Commander used the communicator, "Haven, phase 4 has been completed."

"Great Commander. When you get to the mothership. Make the baby and those fu--in' parents into Jorodane."

"Yes Haven," Commander said as she looked at M. J.

Marileva woke up. She said to herself, "Edmund will need strength to fight the Crystal Cage effect."

Edmund awoke, "What the fu-- hit me?"

"Lie still," Marileva ordered.

"What are you doing?" Edmund asked.

"They'll get you first so I'm going to give you my Jorodanian powers," Marileva gave Edmund a large kiss. They both went unconscious. They awoke in a minute.

"I feel weird," Edmund said.

"You'll be strong now against the 1981 effects of the Crystal Cage. "

"What if I can't fight it?" Edmund asked.

"When I've lost you forever," Marileva replied. "I'll try to get you out. Good luck Edmund. "

"Thanks Marileva," Edmund said.

Guards came in for Edmund. They pushed him in the Crystal Cage and turned it on. Edmund fought the affects. Marileva was placed in the cage next to Edmund's. Commander placed M.J. in another cage. Edmund used what was left of his power to break the cage open. He was weak when he got out. Edmund overpowered the unsuspecting guards. He took a gun and blasted Marileva's cage open and then M.J.'s cage. Marileva fell in Edmund's hands. She fought the effects so hard that she was weakly near death. Edmund put her on her feet, grabbed her and kissed her giving back her Jordanian powers.

Marileva was back to her 50/50 self.

"Gross!" Commander exclaimed. "I wanted Edmund."

"He's mine bitc-!" Marileva replied as she picked Commander in her stomach. Marileva then punched Commander in the face knocking her out.

"Shi-!" Edmund said astonished. Marileva picked up M.J.

"Thank God they didn't turn that cage on yet," Marileva said.

Glove ran in. "I'll take him," Edmund agreed. Glove knocked Edmund across the room. He was kicking Edmund's ass. Suddenly Marileva took control of Edmund's mind and body. She made Edmund turn the tables against Glove.

Marileva said, "We're tired of you" fu--in around with you!" Edmund beat the shi-out of Glove.

Marilera gave Edmund back control of his body. Marilera then pushed Glove in a Crystal Cage, "That's for tryin' to rape me, kidnapping my children, putting my husband in the hospital, trying to kill us, making passes at me, brugging Billy, and making everyone's life miserable." She turned on the Cage at full power frying Glove leaving only a more burnt and scratched Glove.

"We've gotta get E.J." Edmund said.

"Commander'll tell us," Marilera
replied.

"Well what are you waiting for?"
Edmund asked.

"It can only be done by the opposite sex," Marilera answered.

"But I'm - I'm human," Edmund replied.

"No you're not," Marilera said.

to the astonished Edmund, "you're part Dorodan."

"But - but how?" Edmund asked.

"It's sexually transmitted," Marileva explained, "You really couldn't avoid it. It happens to all interplanetary married people."

"Oh, ok," Edmund replied.

"Just concentrated and still have to obey," Marileva helped.

Edmund put both hands on Commanders forehead, "I'm inside her mind. Tell me where E.J. is. You can - not resist me. I've always wanted to say that."

Commander told, "He's in my office as a prisoner."

"Thanks ho," Edmund said breaking mind contact. Marileva and Edmund put on Dorodan uniforms from the unconscious guards. They ran past a large mile long room filled with tubes. The tubes contained townspeople in 2021 stasis. Marileva and Edmund got E.J.

"Let me have a gun Dad," E.J. pleaded.

"Alright son," Edmund agreed, "Be careful, you're only 3 years old. Where's P.J.?"

"I overheard them. They said the Corporation has him now," E.J. answered.

"We better tell Pook and Billy," Marileva suggested. "We shouldn't go home empty handed. We should at least rescue Deen." The four went down the long corridor and freed Deen, "So bad we couldn't free all of them. We wouldn't get out of here."

"M-Marileva Dike, E-Edmund Sims, who are those children?" Deen asked.

"It's Marileva Sims, Marileva corrected, "and these are our kids."

E.J. covered their backs.

Edmund helped the Deen to the docking bay. Marileva held M.J.

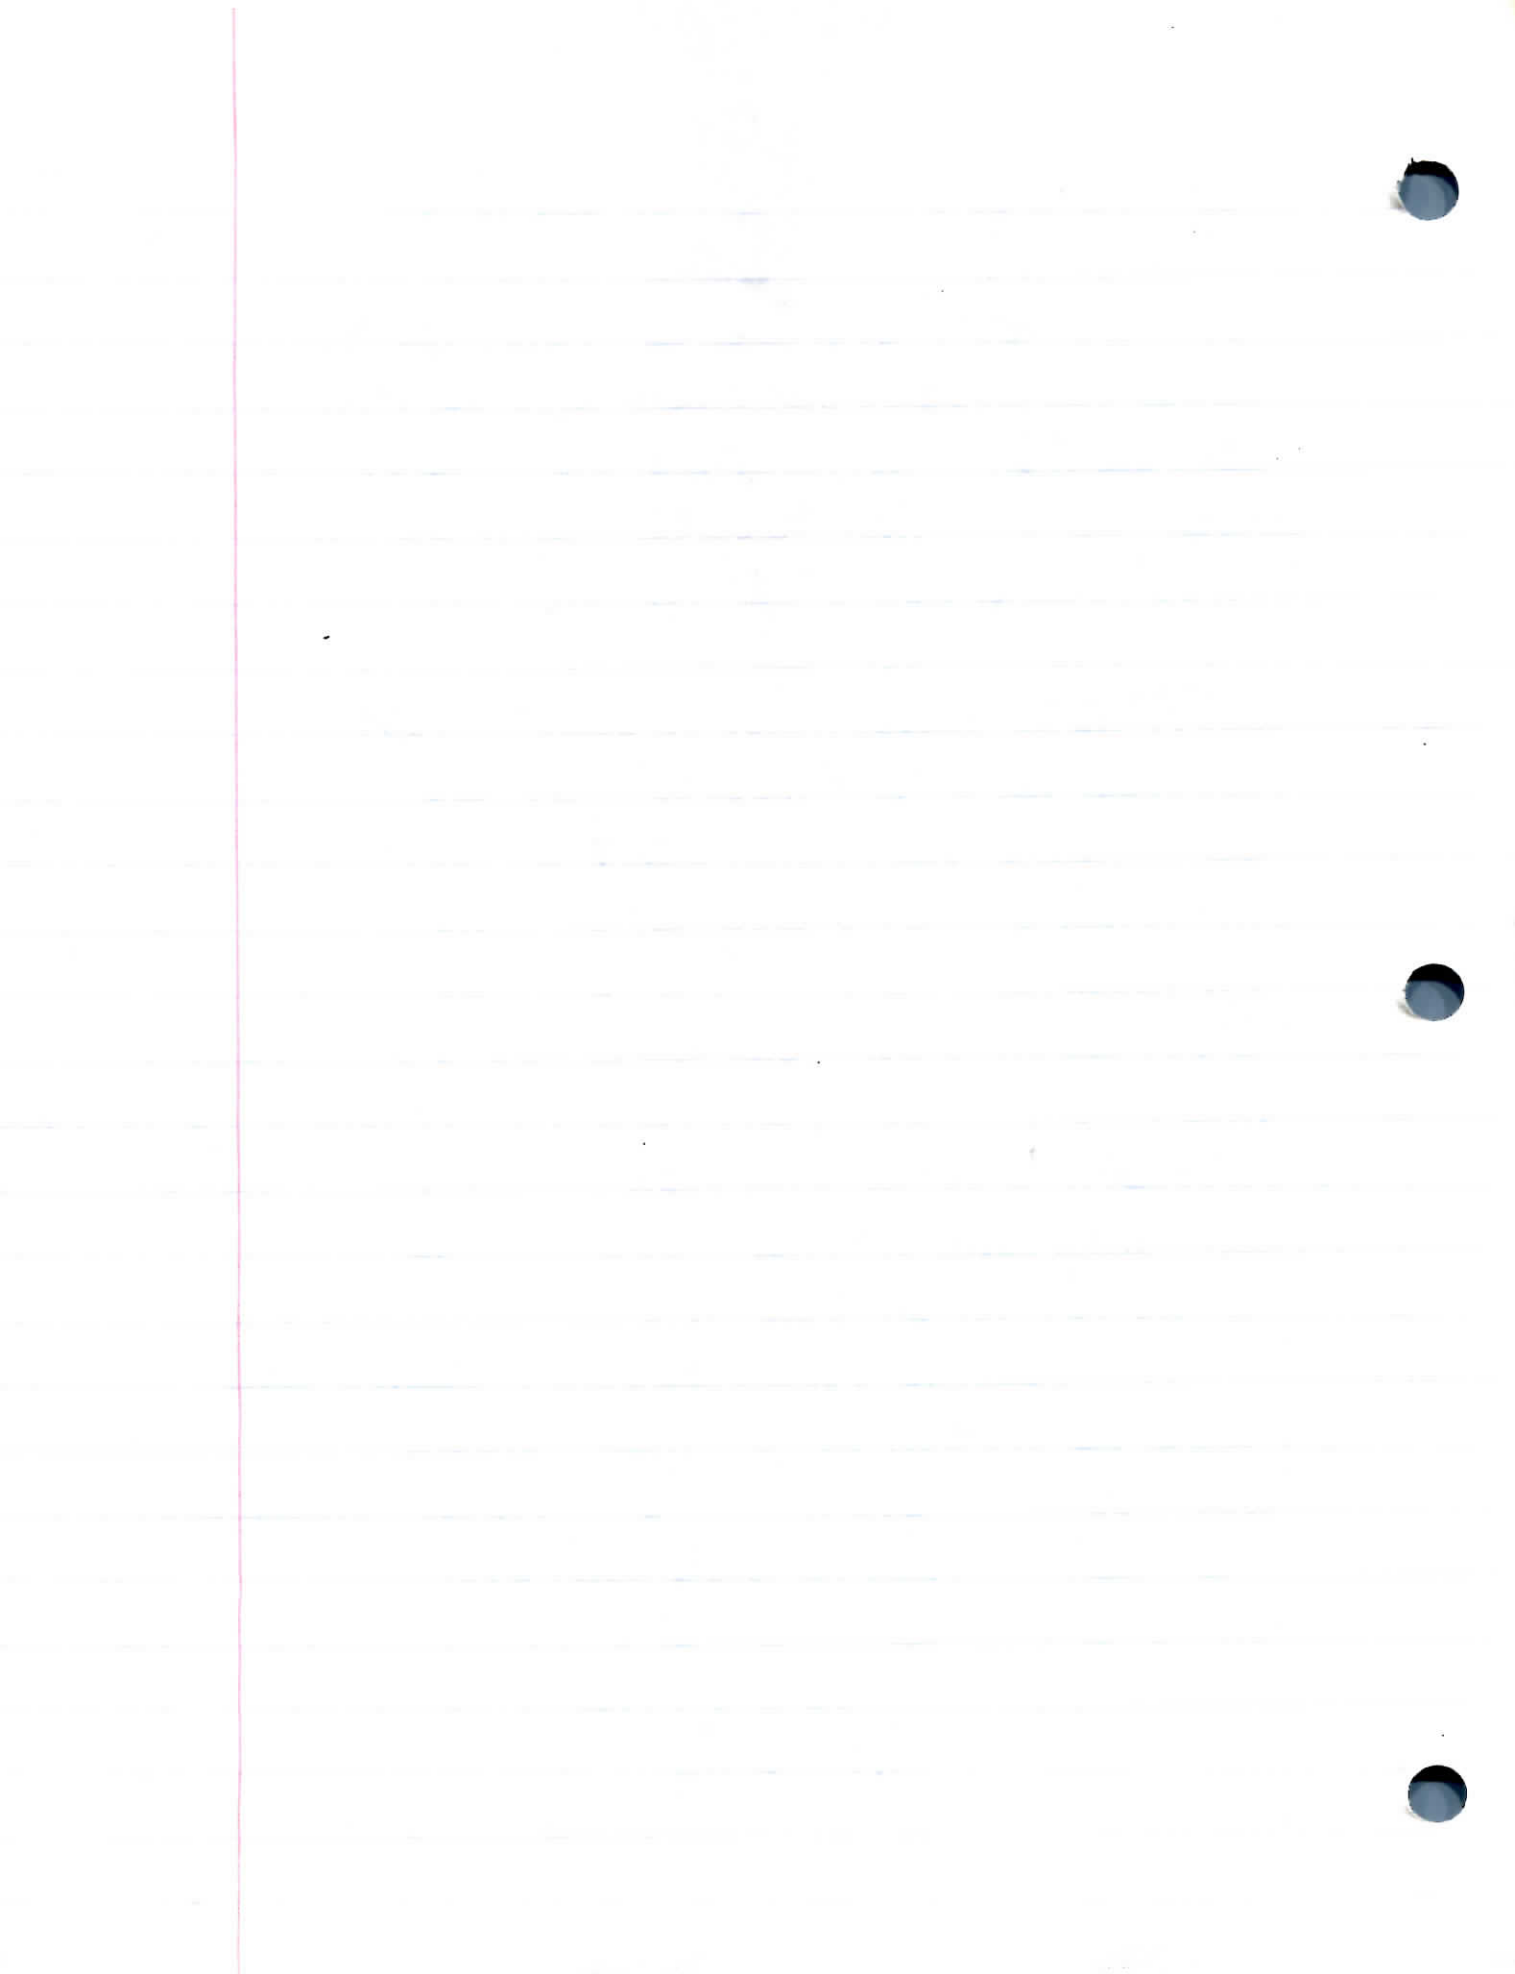

It wasn't that easy though.
Lucibly E. J. was covering their backs. He took out the Dorodms like a pro. The vigilantes got to a shuttle and flew home.

In the communications room...
"I'm sorry Haven," Commander apologized. "Phase 4 has failed."
"I am very disappointed Commander."

"I'm sorry Haven, I'll do better."

"You had better do better
Commander, - for your sake. This plan was perfect."

"Marubwa you bitc -!" Commander said as she pounded on the panel.

Chapter 38: Cheap Talk

In Washington D.C. ...

The shuttle landed on the White House lawn, Edmund and Marilena removed the Dorodan uniforms.

Edmund ran out of the shuttle and into the White House, "We've got Deen. We saved him!" It was all on the news.

At David Majewski's rest place...

"Alright Edmund," David said happily, "you did it. I knew you could."

At Scott Gipsword's rest place...

"Fu--!" Scott said UNhappily, "How could you do this shi- to me? Da-m 2051 you. And fu-- that bitc- of yours. He'll get even with you fu--er."

Scott was now out of office at Secretary of State. Dave immediately took his dimms to the White House. He hopped out and shook Edmund and Marileva's hands, "Who's the baby."

"That's our child, M. J. Sims," Marileva answered.

David walked over to Deen, "What has happened while I've been gone Dave?"

"It's a long story sir. But is good to have you back."

Edmund told David and Deen the situation, "Someone has cutoff the army supply. We're alone and our people are being captured rapidly."

Suddenly a helicopter landed. Inside was Willy's, Mike Speed, and Sellers.

"I think we've figured it out," Sellers explained, "Phase 1 was to take out the D.S.C."

"I suppose D. J. or Jerry are trying to get word to the S.S.P.," Willy cut in.

Sellers continued, "Phase 2 is to probably take out the Sims family. Phase 3 is to capture all humans and Phase 4 is to change the Sims family into all Dorodans. I see the 4th one failed."

"What's the plan?" Mike asked.
Someone in high office cut off the Army. But what I want to know is why."

"We're all alone," Marileva replied. "We should do it all on our own. We should at least stall the Dorodans until Perya comes."

Willy explained, "If we can talk to them, that may work. We have to all be in though."

Sellers, Marileva, Edmund, Mike, and even E. J. agreed.

Marileva told David, "Notify Sheriff Pook of San Francisco the Corporation and Sam Osprey have captured his son."

"You got it Marileva, and congrats," David said.

"Thanks," Marileva replied. They all boarded the helicopter to fly back to the Space Force base. Once again Sellers cleared them in. Sellers, Marileva, Edmund, M.J., and E.J. emerged from the copter first.

"A man," Edmund called from a soldier from the Ranger Force.

The man came over and saluted, "Yes, what do you need?"

"We need the whole Ranger Force," Marileva said. She used to be in charge of the Ranger Force.

"Sure Marileva," the soldier said. "But why?"

"Haven't you guys kept up with the news?" Sellers asked.

"Yeah but this guy said that the Ranger Force has been disbanded," the soldier said.

"What the fu-- is goin' on?" Edmund asked. "Listen, you're um, not dispanced. We're in a world crisis. We need the Ranger force. So get off your as-es and give us a mutka fu-- in' hand. Let's go. We don't have time to argue."

"Besides," Marileva added, "there could be a promotion in it."

"Sure, I'll get goin'!" the soldier said, "Let's get a move on!!"

The vigilantes loaded up but they still wondered what happened to the S.D.C....

Gerrison and Gart were distraught, "We're runing out of air. We only have a day left and we've no word from the Petya. Shi-! We've lost Jordan. D.J. is fading fast. This spacestation is beyond repair. Our air is running out. We're the only conscious people on this ship. The Dorodans are taking over the Earth."

Gart made light of the topic, "Beyond that, we're doin' great huh."

Gerry looked at Gart with an angry eye, "Now what would my father, Gison Gervison, do? We would try to get the spacestation working. I know every inch of this place. But what do I fix first. We need the life support systems first. I hope I can do this."

"Yeah me too," Gart said.

"You're helping Gart," Gerry replied.

At the concert place...

"Marileva handed E.J. the baby," "I'm gonna have to go in with Edmund. Here's two lasers. I know you can protect her. Your powers and mine are very advanced so if I can use them, you can." Marileva kissed E.J. on the head. She walked over to Edmund.

"Ready?" Edmund asked.

Marileva took a deep breath, "It 2101 you are." The two walked all the way down to the front row. Mike Speed ran to the third row without being seen. He was there to cover Edmund and Marileva. Sellers and the Ranger force surrounded the arena. Willy Z. covered the door with E.J. and M.J.

"Haven," Edmund called, "come out you stupid shi-."

"Why Edmund and Marileva," Haven said, "why are you here alone?"

"What are you talking about?" Marileva asked.

"Your informer cut off all armed forces," Haven explained, "Why don't you just give up? You can not overpower us."

"Yeah but we can outsmart you," Marileva replied.

"Your mouth'll get you in trouble you slut," Commander said as she came out.

"That bic-," Edmund said to himself.

Haven explained, "You won't win this time. Your whole armies are now Dorodan soldiers. Have of your world is in storage above in our ship.

"We saw," Marikva said.

"Why don't you just leave?" Edmund asked.

"Why," Haven explained, "our race is dying out. We need your people. And if we get your people they wouldn't mind if took there world."

"You fu--in' shanks," Marikva said, "Why can't you ever stop. We always beat you. You should know by now that it's not worth it."

"It's very worth it," Commander replied, "It's worth it to see you fu--in' bimes suffer. Attack!"

Dorodan guards came out. Edmund pushed Marikva out of the way and landed on her.

"Owim," Marikva explained, "I like it!"

that position."

"Yeah," Edmund replied, "but not now." They binned their weapons and fired over the seats. Mike Speed ran at full speed tripping the Drodans. This gave Edmund and Marileva enough time to escape. Commander and Haven ran toward the back of the stage. Marileva fired at a light on top of the stage. It fell on Commander but Haven dematerialized into some toxic gas.

"I want Edmund," Haven said to himself. The gas flew toward Edmund. Edmund fired but it only stunned Haven. He kept coming.

Marileva told Edmund, "Hold your breath!" The gas engulfed Edmund. Commander got off from under the light. She aimed for Marileva. Willy flung open the door avoiding Drodan fire. E.J. fired and hit Commander dead in the middle of the chest. Willy tried 2131 to pull Edmund from the gas. Raven reformed. He slapped Willy and then picked him up and threw him out the door. E.J. was stunned to see Willy flying out. Marileva ran to Edmund. She extended her arm and fired a beam out of her hand.

Raven easily took the beam, "Your powers are strong but not strong enough to beat me." Just then E.J. did the same thing that Marileva did. Raven derezzed.

Willy ran in taking out some more dorodans. Willy helped Marileva carry Edmund out of the arena.

Mike came out to meet Sellers, "Where's the Ranger Force?"

Sellers answered, "They were all captured by some gas. I escaped."

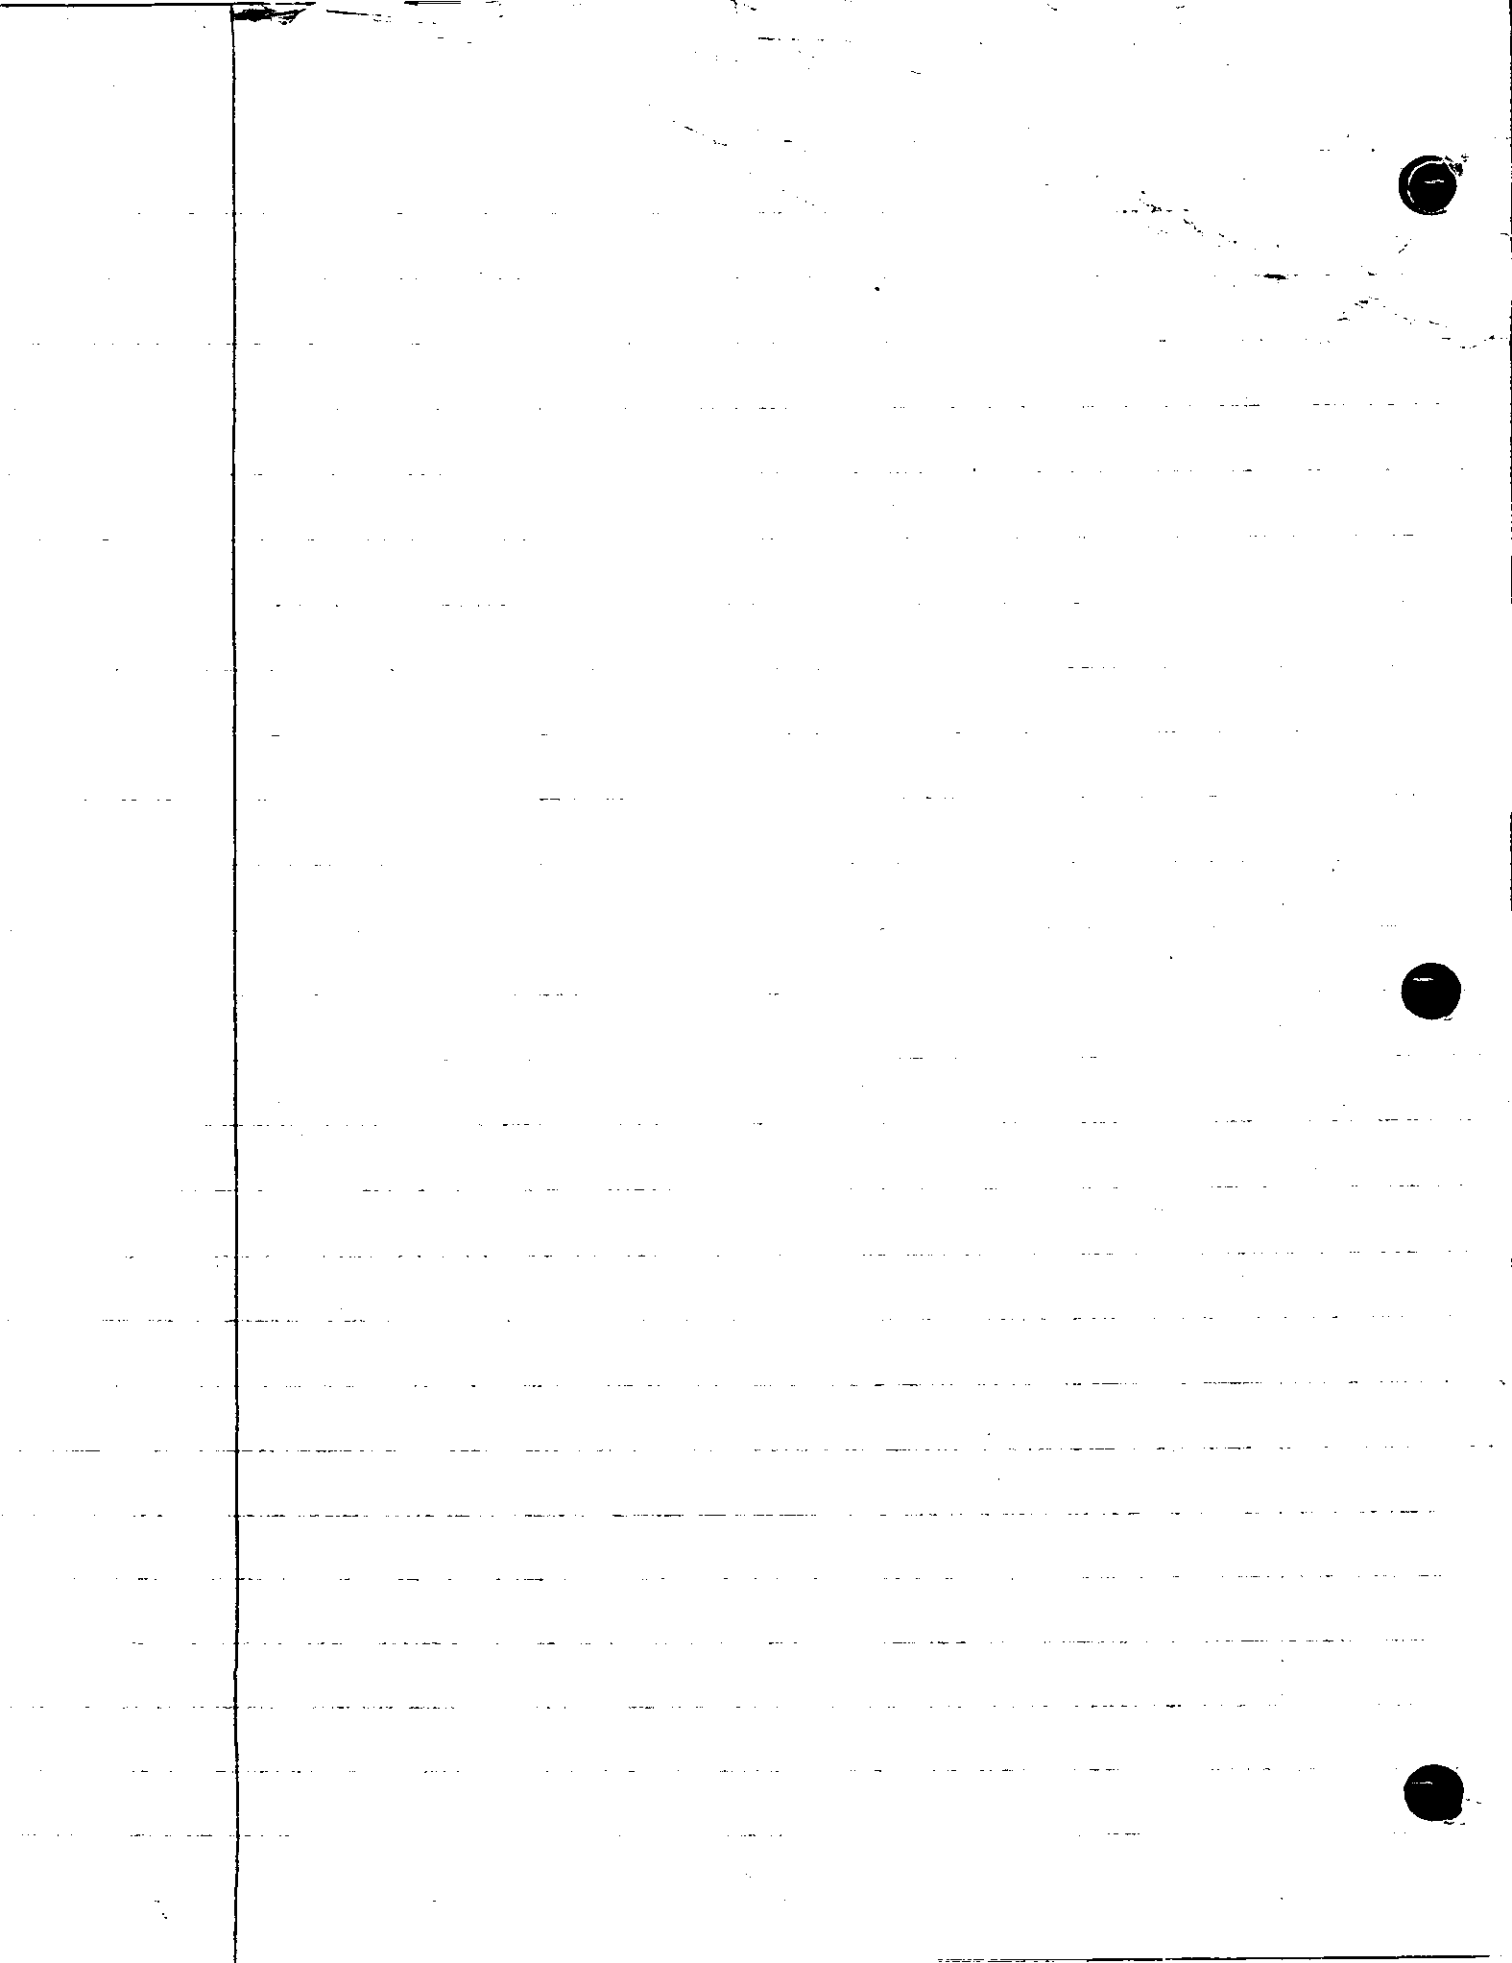

"Come on Edmund," Marileva ordered, "Come on, wake up! Get up Ja--it!" E.J. walked over with M.J. E.J. and Marileva joined hands. They put their free hands on Edmund's chest. Their hands lit up. Suddenly Edmund started breathing again. He started coughing. It then stopped.

"Welcome back Dad," E.J. said.

"Oh Edmund, I thought you were gone," Marileva said relieved.

"Thanks for saving me E.J. and Marileva," Edmund said as he hugged Marileva.

Chapter 39: Plans of Attack

On the S.S.C.

"Gimme the wrench Fart," Jerry ordered, "One more turn, there. Life support is working. Now let's work on the weapons."

"That's smart Jerry," Fart said.

"That's why I'm doing all of the fu--in' work," Jerry said upser

"Sorry Jerry."

"I'm sorry Fart. You see I'm just so worried about the Earth. If we can get the lasers working we can take out that ship and those Dorodans."

At the Genovis household...

"Willy," Mike said, "your house looks nice."

"Thanks," Willy replied, "I try to keep it this way."

"Alright," Sellers stopped all talking, "Let's get to business. I've had a rebellion before so I know what to expect. Most of us could die and most of us could live. We could try a frontal assault. Petya should be coming home around today. We could attack and pray they come in time, or we could have a force lead the Dorians away for an even smaller force to destroy the mother ship up there. Who's gonna destroy the mother ship?"

"I'll go," Willy agreed.

"I'm goin'," Sellers stepped in.

"Alright, I'll do it," Mike gave in.

"Ok," Edmund continued, "So Marileva, E. J., and me will divert $\overline{217}$ the Dorodans attention."

"Turn on the tube," Mike ordered.

Willy walked over and turned it on, "It seems the Pres is on every channel."

"That's fine," Sellers said. "Turn it up."

"Fu--," Marileva said upset, "How are we supposed to attack with all those people in there. The Dorodans are cunning"

"Yeah," Edmund stepped in, "but why is President Deen there?"

"We're gonna have to be extra careful tomorrow," Sellers replied.

On Space Station Colt...

"Fart?" Jerry asked.

"Yeah Jerry."

"Did you turn off the power?"

"Yeah Jerry."

Jerry went to the laser fluid converter. As expected he was electrocuted and thrown across the 2181 room, "You didn't turn the power off fu--er!"

"Well at least I turned it down," Gant replied.

The next day on Earth...

Edmund, Marilva, E.J., and M.J. entered the arena like ordinary people going to see the President. Everyone was seated. The President Den and Vice President Majewski were rolled out on a platform. They were bound and gagged on a pole. The crowd was frenzied out.

Haven walked out with Commander AND Hove. Edmund said to Marilva, "I thought we killed that mutha fu--a."

"We must, I-I really don't know how they did it," Marilva said surprised.

Dorodan guards walked out. "Let's make our move," Edmund said. "Protect M.J., E.J."

"We're outta here," Marilva said 2/19

she got up and cocked her gun. She fired freeing the president and the vice-president. Guards ran after the former prisoners. Edmund cut them off by starting the stage on fire.

Outside of the arena...

"That's our cue," Mike Speed said. They all cocked their weapons and went toward the back of the arena where they found the shuttles. There were about 20 soldiers. Mike used his speed to take the Dorodans' weapons. Sellers and Willy stunned the guards. The guards were unconscious. The three vigilantes undressed and put on the Dorodan uniforms.

Mike and Sellers jumped the bodies in a shuttle. The shuttle pilot asked, "Aye, what's gain' on her. Uh-!" Sellers blasted the guard and jumped him in the back with the others. Mike quickly 2207 put the Dorodans in the storage tubes.

Willy rewired a Dorodan fighter.

Willy flew over the arena taking out some Dorodans. Edmund and Marileva started to charge when they saw....

Chapter 40: The Rebellion

The mothership came down and started firing on the crowd. It was humongous. It was the size of Gurtalia. The crowd was being obliterated. E.J. ran with M.J. Edmund and Marileva ran to the stage.

"I'm gonna kick your fu--in' as - Marileva," Commander said.

"Just try it Commander," Marileva told Commander.

Commander would not get the chance. While dodging the mothership's fire, Willy took some shots at the stage. Commander turned leaving her - ३३३ self wide open for Marileva's wrath. Marileva punched Commander in the stomach. She then cracked a right against Commander's face. Commander flew 2 feet before crashing threw to the bottom of the stage.

Marileva ordered, "Don't EVER fu-- with my children."

Edmund said astonished, "Shi-!"

Glove snuck up on Edmund. Edmund used Glove's speed against him by flipping Glove over. Edmund was ten feet away from Glove. Glove got up. Edmund recocked his gun and fired. Glove kept coming and Edmund kept shooting.

Plaven came up on E.J. Marileva ran to E.J.'s side. Plaven raised his hand. A crimson circle went over Marileva, E.J., and M.J.'s heart. They all fell to the ground, "In minutes, they will be dead."

Edmund took his Uzi and cracked it over Glove's brain. His head splatted. Haven put the remains in a beaker and approached Edmund, "I've killed your wife and children now it's your turn." Haven raised his hand. Edmund felt pain over his heart.

Suddenly a laser beam came down from space and hit the mother ship dead on.

On the S.S.C. ...

"Alright!" Gart said hugging Jerry, "We did it oh shi-! fu-- yeah."

Jerry simply said, "Gart please. I knew it would work all along."

"Jerry, - fu-- you."

Jerry got back to the controls and kept firing at the mother ship.

On Earth...

Raven exclaimed, "Retreat!" He left Edmund Edmund was alright. Raven picked up Commander and boarded the mothership with what was left of the Dorodans.

"I'll destroy that space station," Raven said with vengeance in his voice. The mother ship turned toward the D. & C. and armed the lasers at full power.

Suddenly coming up hard and fast was Space Station Petrya. It fired on the unsuspecting mothership.

On the D. & C.

"What took you so fu--in' long?" Gerry asked

On the D. & P.

Captain Neff answered, "Broken fuel line. It's very serious. We could've blown up."

Gerry and Hart said in unison, "225"

"Fu-- YOU!!"

"What did I say?" Neff asked.

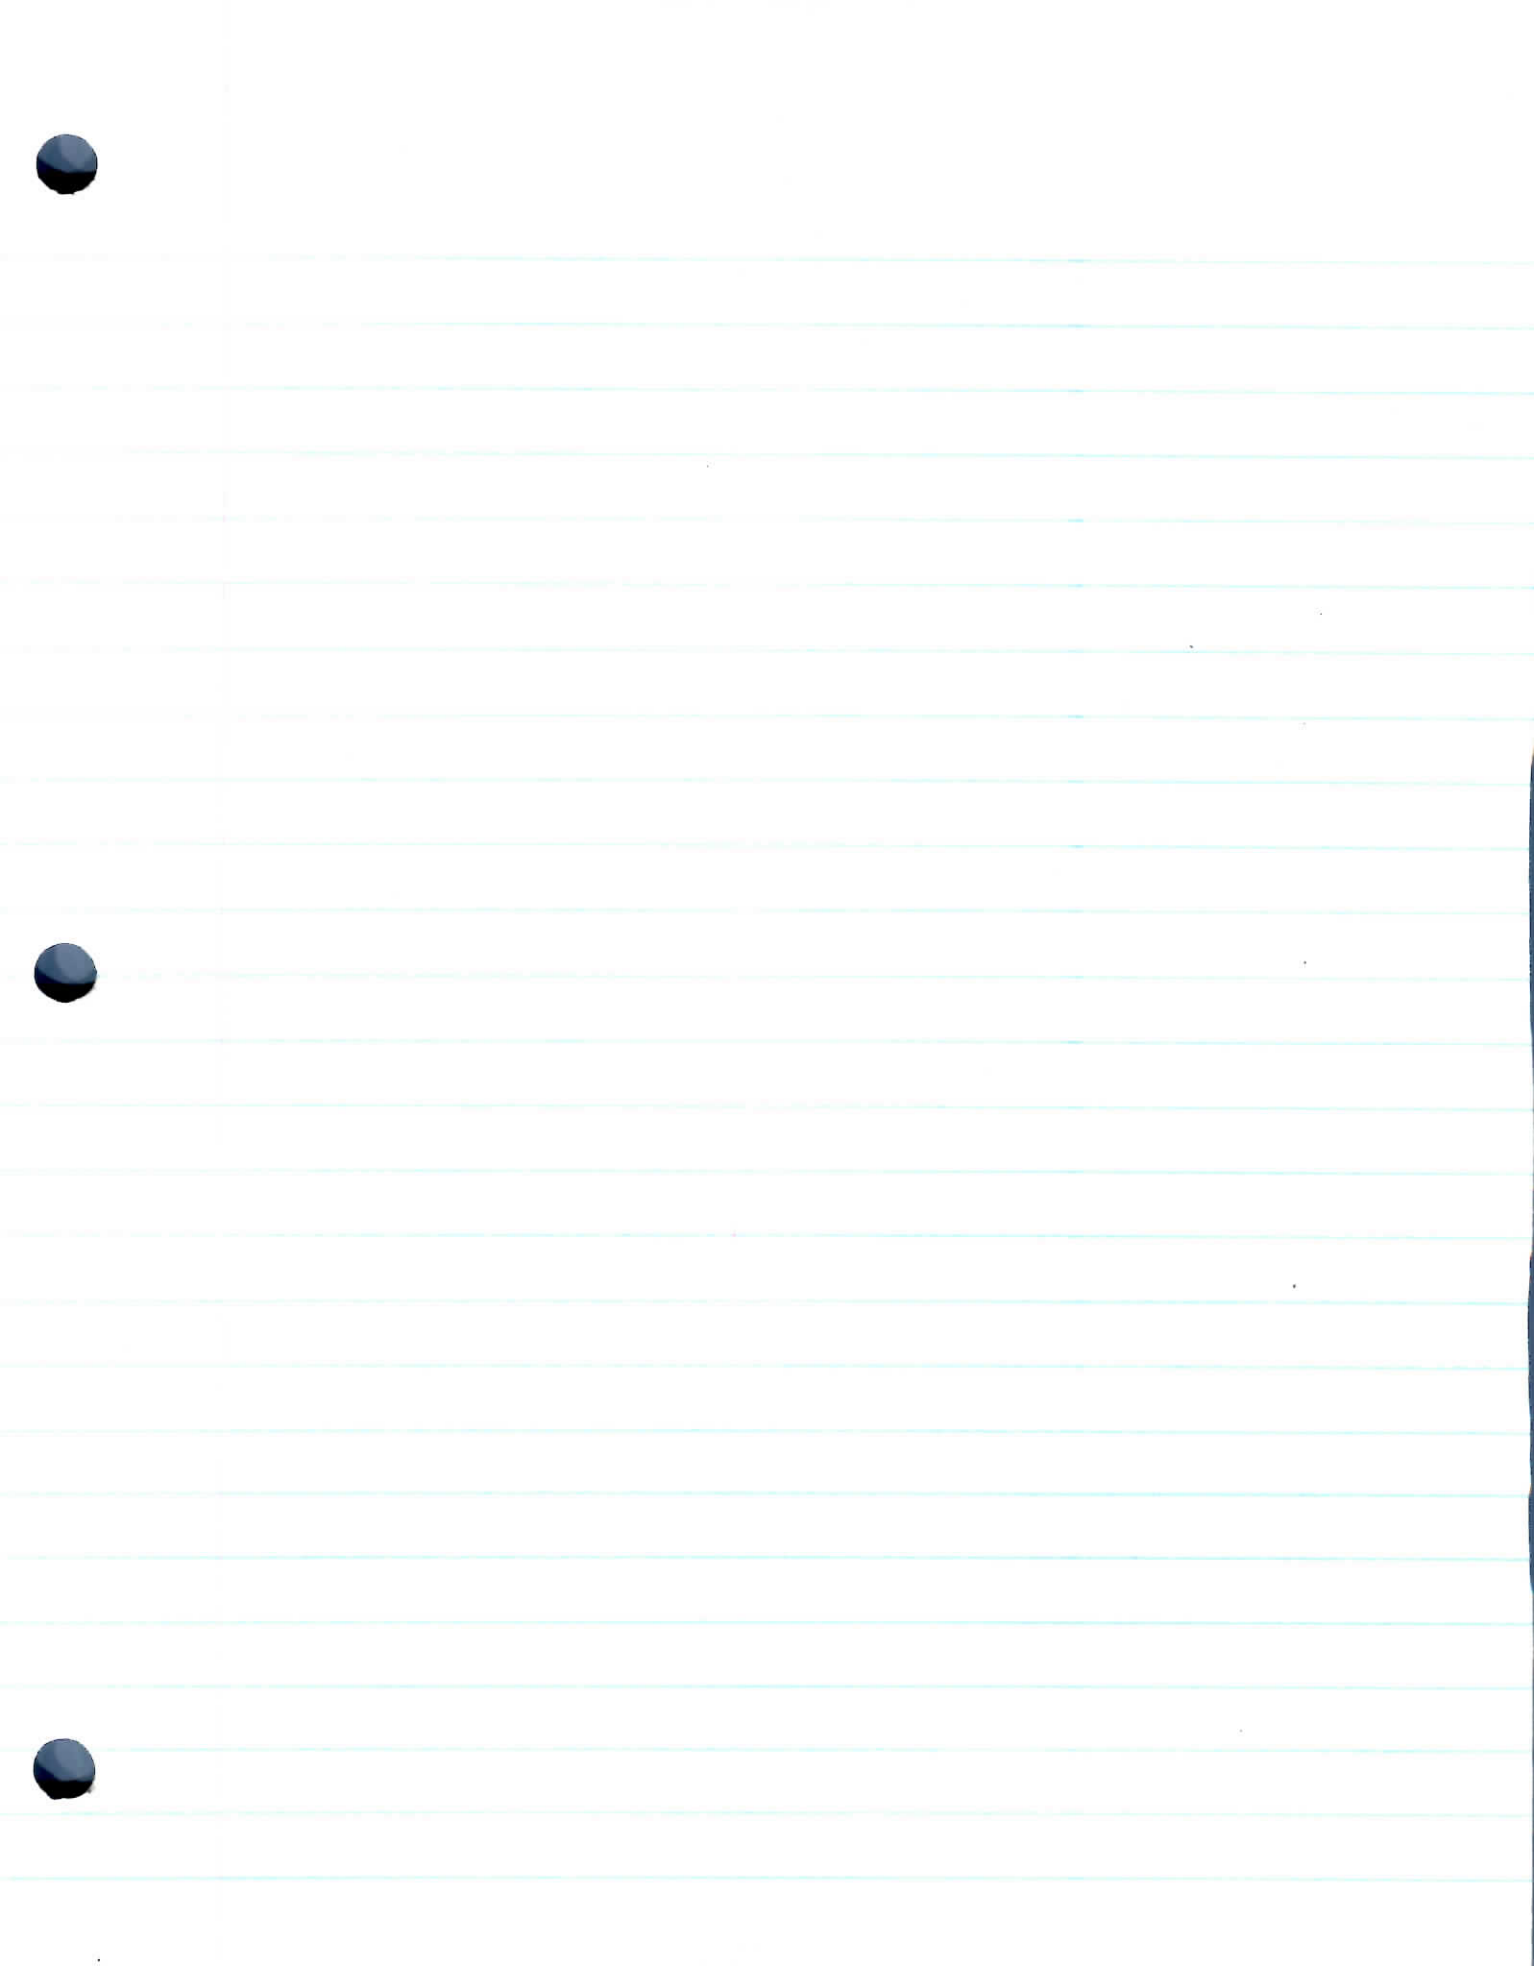

The mothership drifted out about a lightyear and blew up. The explosion was so large that the people on Earth could see it. The people did not know who blew up.

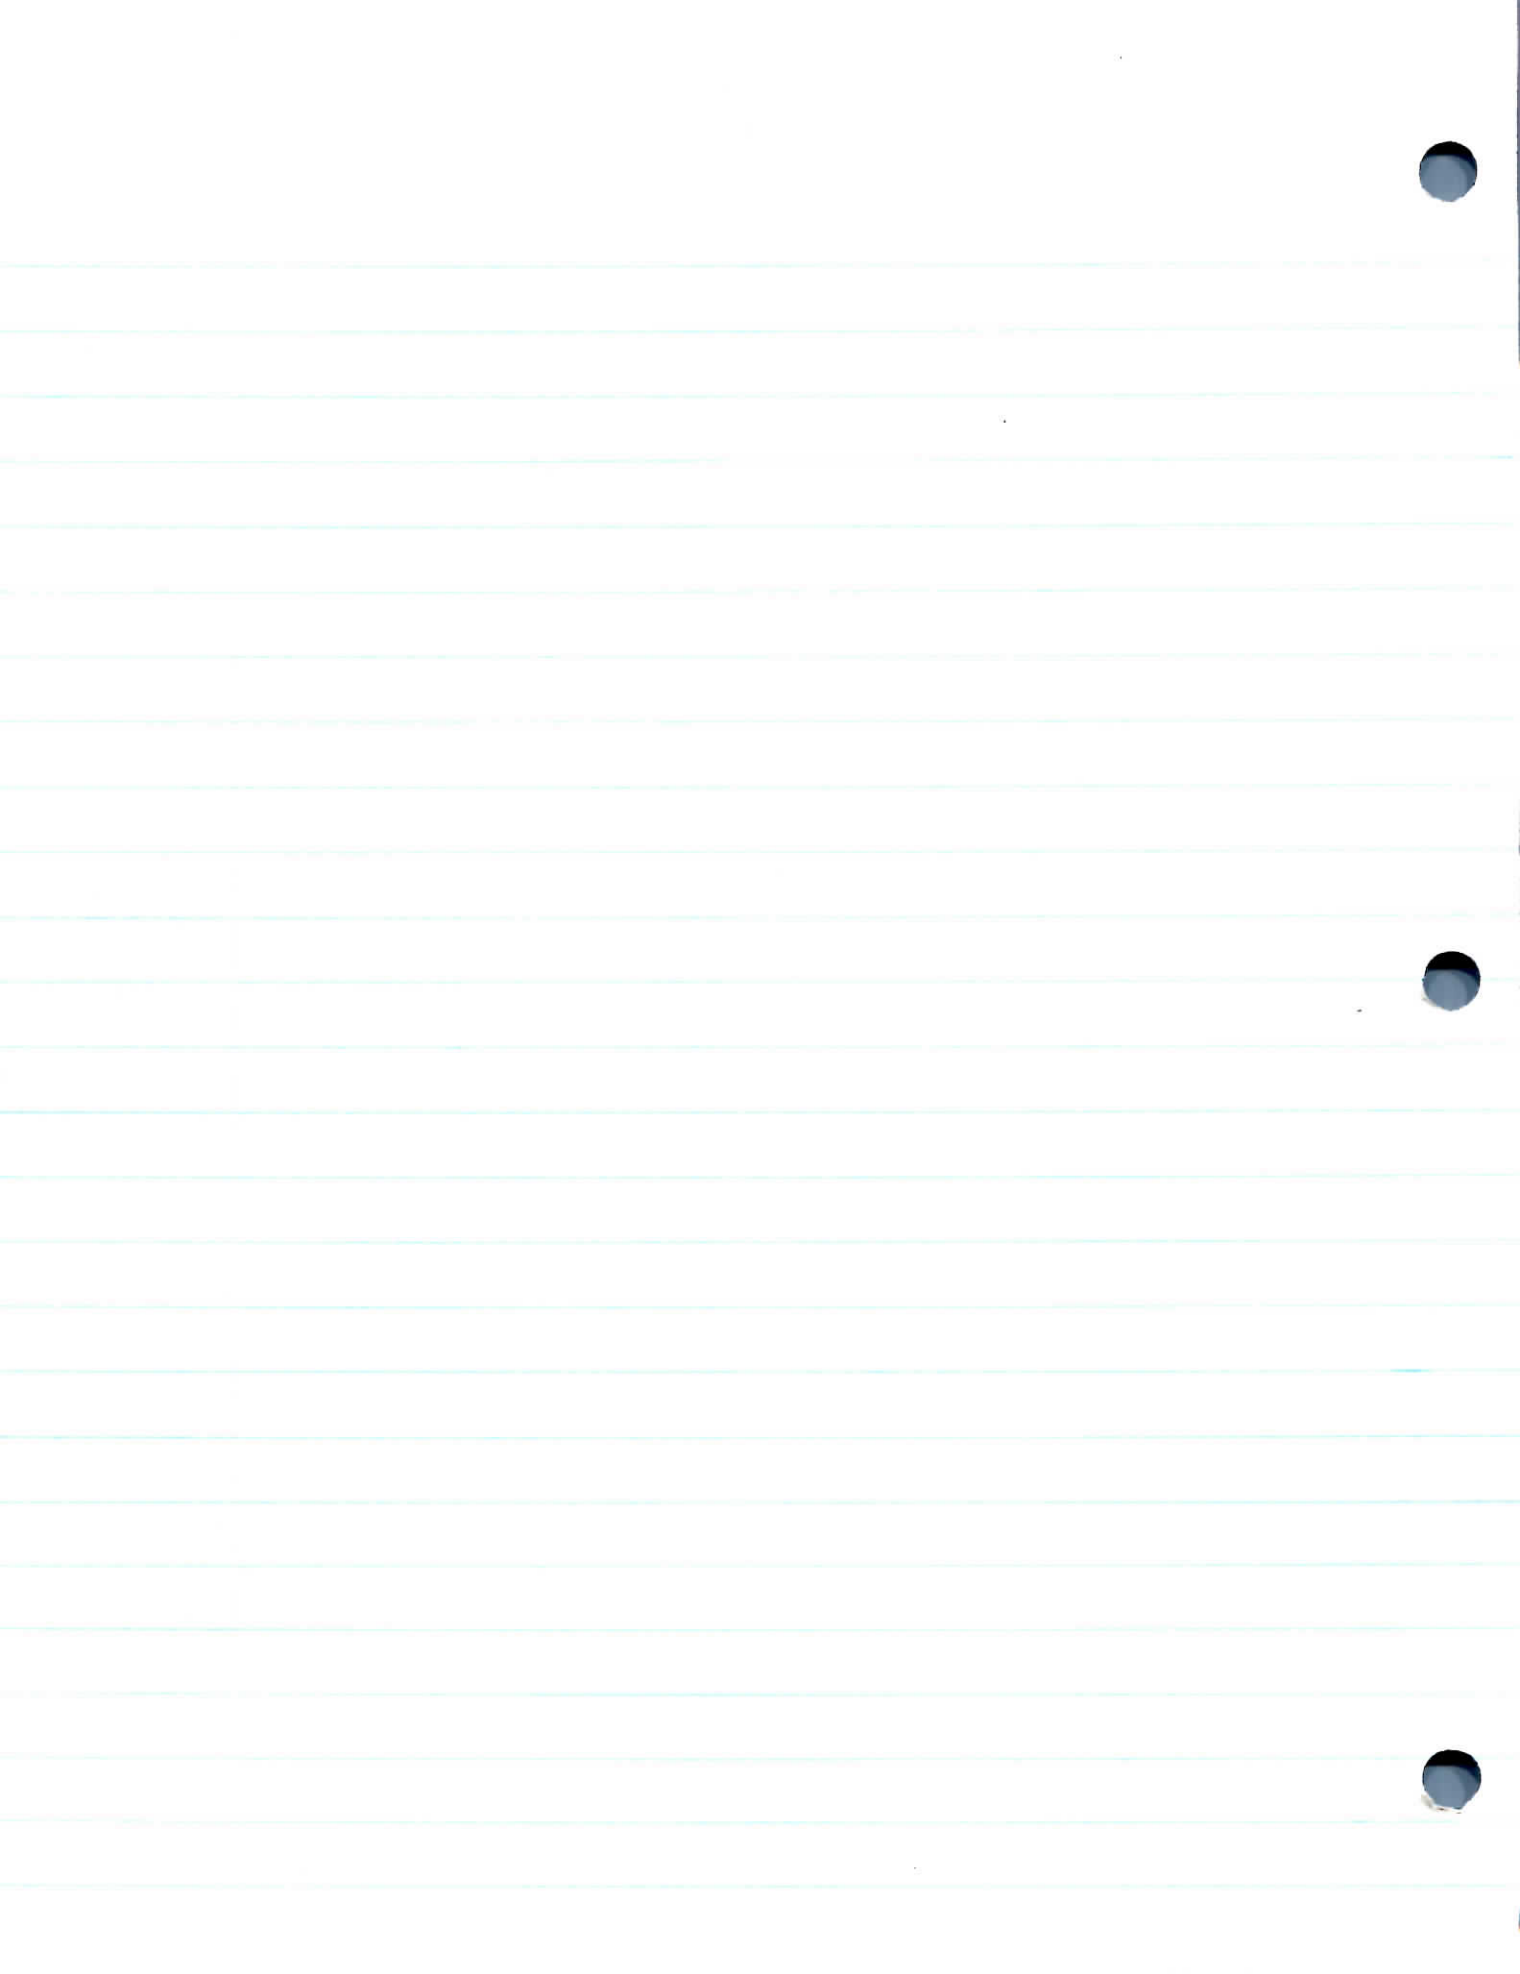

Mike, Willy, Sellers, and Edmund took out the rest of the Dorodans.

Edmund ran to his family, "Marileva, E. J., M. J., what happened? First Erica, now you. Fu-- , - moo! Shi - ! Haven, why? Dá-m!" Edmund had tears running down his face. A crowd formed around the area with Willy, Sellers, and Mike in the front. Edmund laid his head on Marileva's breast. He felt her pulse. It was close to stopping. Edmund thought to himself about what Marileva said. She said he was part Dorodan. Edmund pulled Marileva up and gave her a big 226 kiss. A red orb circled both of them and then engulfed both of them. Marikva's eyes opened. The two joined hands and the orb soon engulfed E.J. and M.J. The kids' eyes opened. The orb stopped. E.J. put his sister in his arms because he was glad to see her again. Marikva and Edmund held each other. The crowd clapped and applauded. The Space Force had once again defeated the Doodans. Dave and Dan joined the crowd. They too did some fighting.

Chapter 41: more settling down

On the S.S.C. . . .

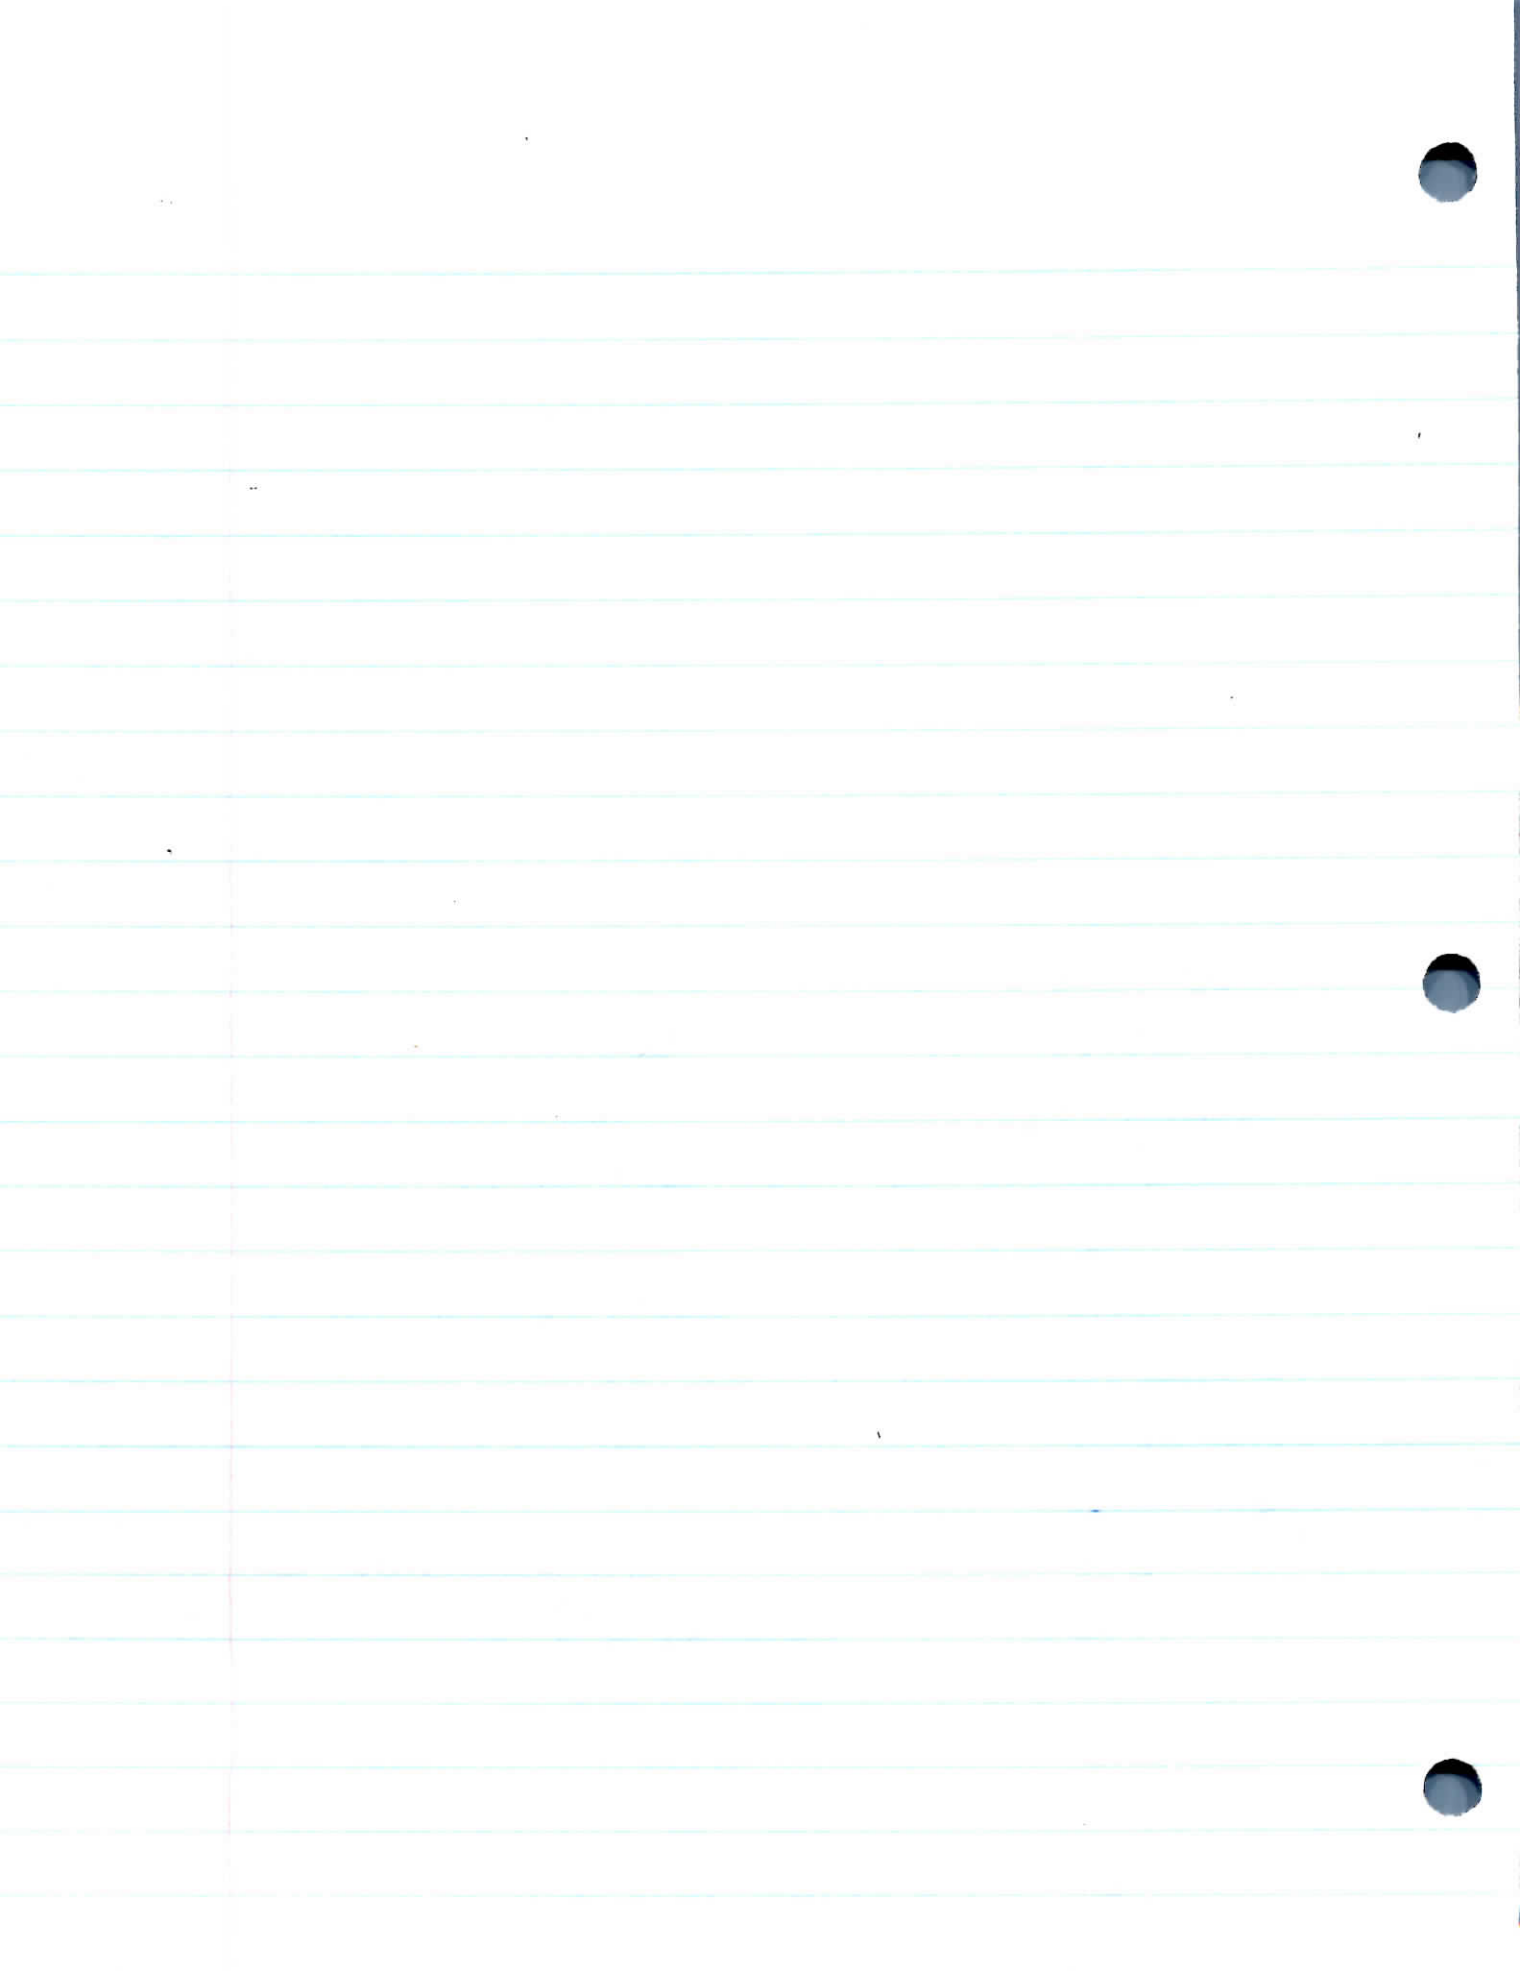

"What the fu-- happened here while I was out?" D.J. asked.

"Well D.J.," Garrison said, "shihappens."

"Well Jerry," Gert said, "It seems you'll never have a vacation you need to fix this place up better than this."

"Gert," Jerry ordered, "get the fu-- out of here!"

The Space Force did it again. They defeated the Dowdians in an almost impossible mission.

Chapter 42: What's Goin' On

The Space Force has another casualty to add to the list. Erica Smith, Matt, Mimla, Jeremy, and now Jordan Ripstein who died in a surprise attack. They rest in the Garden of War.

Edmund and Marileva had more goodtimes in that bed. E.J. is learning rapidly how to use his powers. M.J. has no powers. She is human but shows a promising future.

The D.S.P. will be staying in Earth's orbit while it's crew helps 229

Gerry Garrison fix the S. I. C.

Mike Speed went back to his counseling job for disabled kids.

Willy Genovis enjoys his vacation since he picked up a girl.

Scott Gipsword vows revenge against Edmund and Marilena. He may get it, but then again he may not.

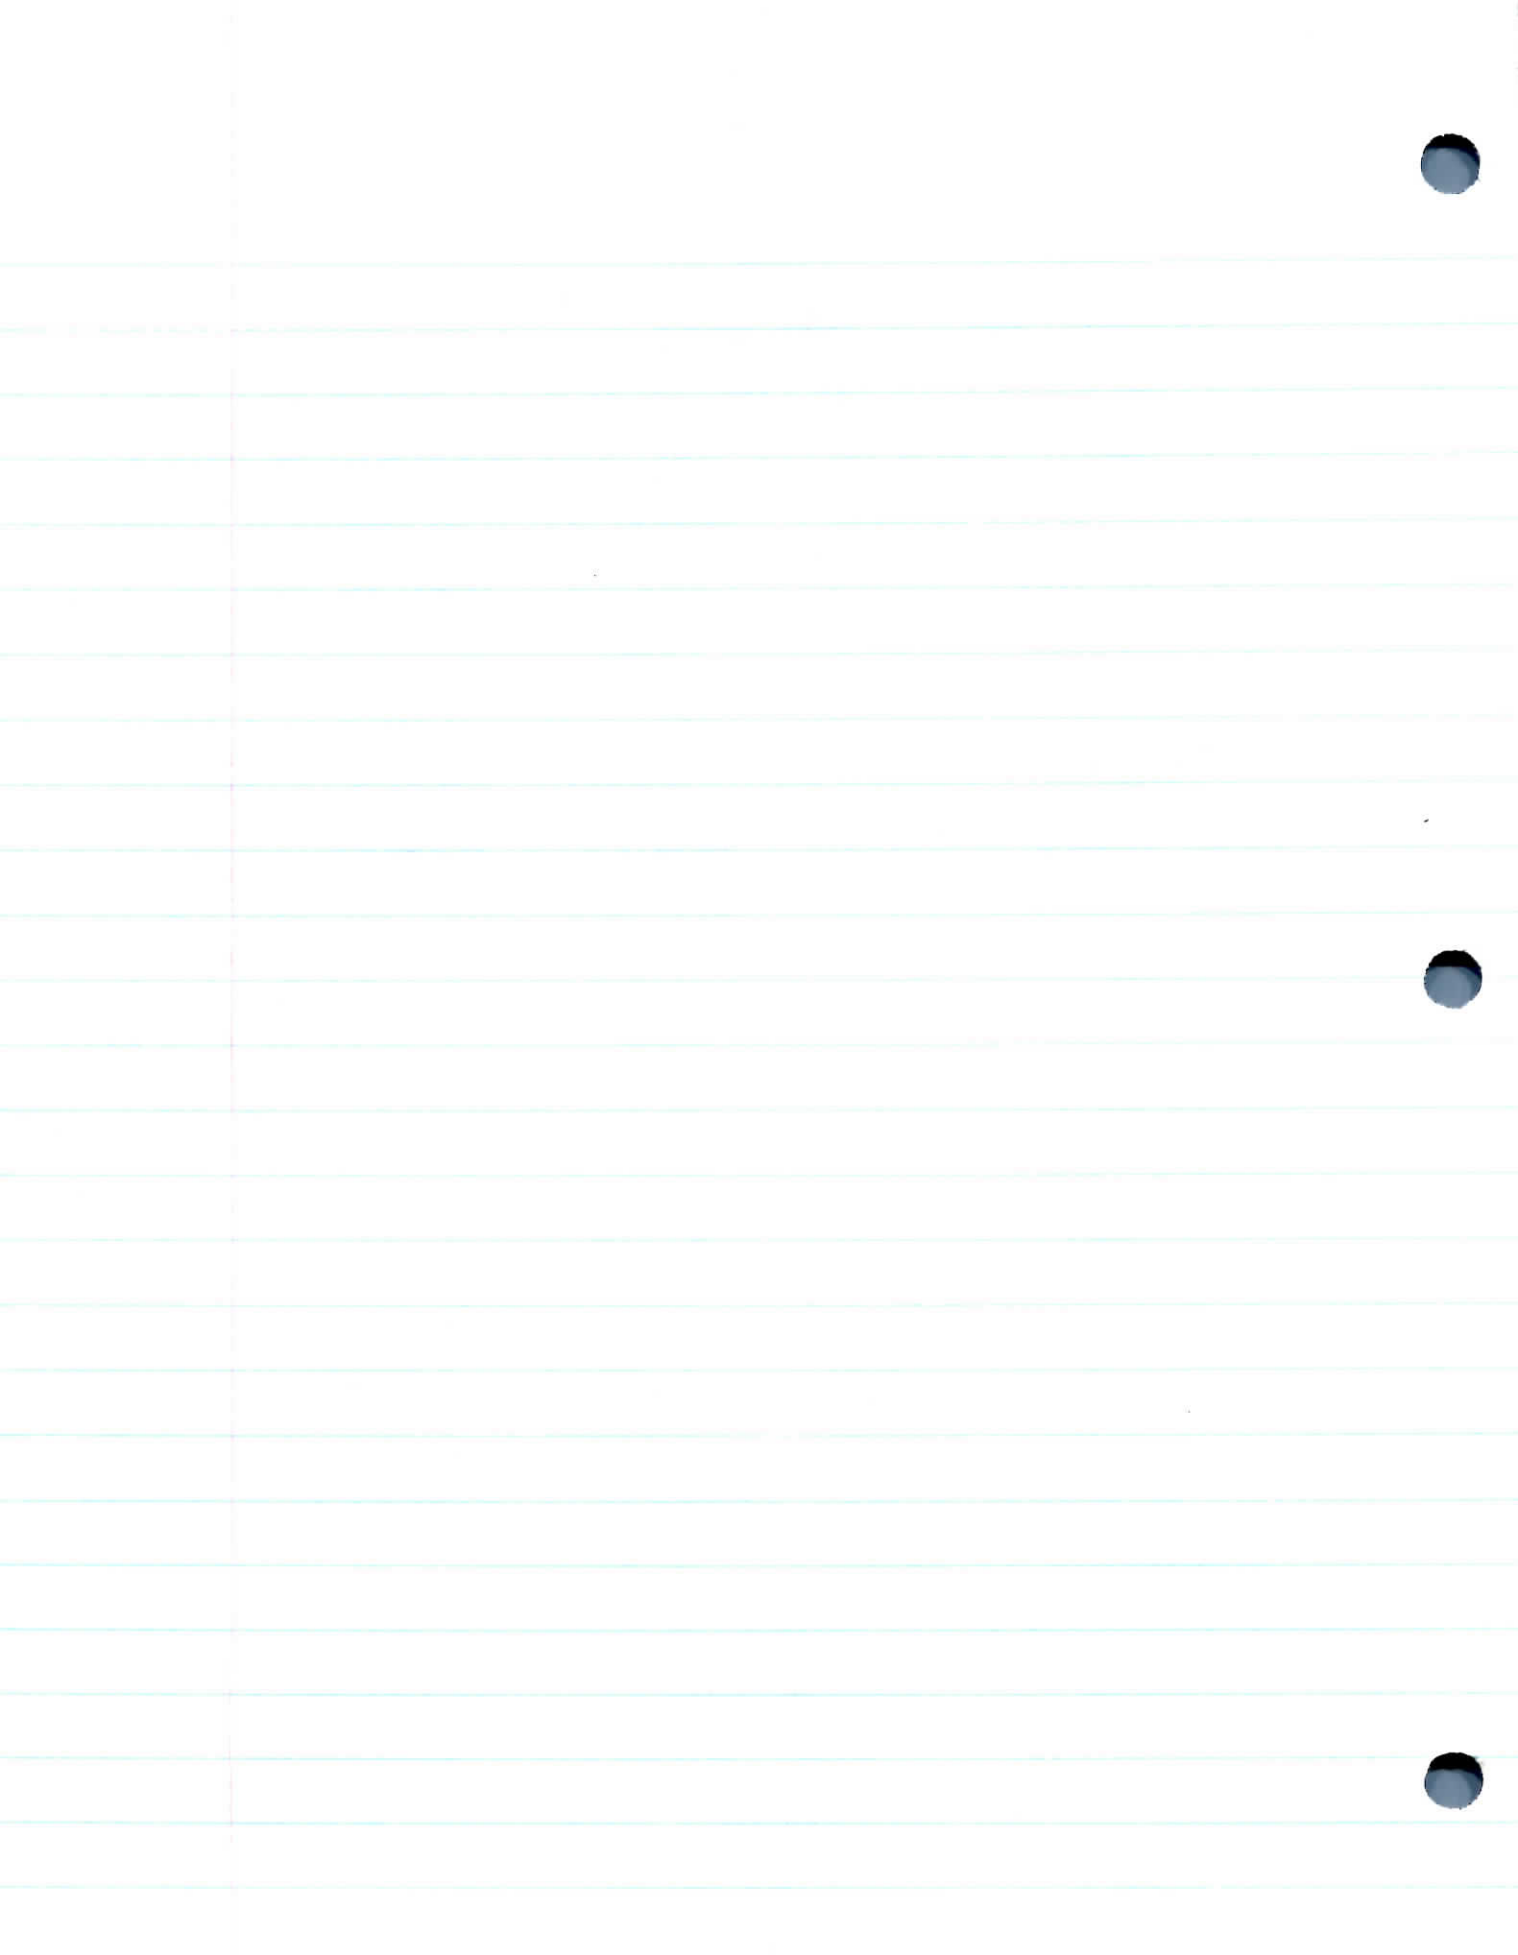

Deen regained office status and David Majewski was moved down to vice-president.

Sellers went into the recruiting business since the Ranger Force is gone for good.

Gart decided to come down to Earth bother someone else and/or make someone else's life miserable. 230

Acro slipped out of the book.
He was called to duty for Sheriff Pook with Deputy Bear.
Dave Mayewski sent Acro with the word of P.D. being captured by the Corporation.

Haven, Commander, and Glove are gone for good. (I hope.)

Space Station Colt 5: The Invasion

This book gives you more of those characters as well as more of what you want. It is well thought out and leads you directly into part 5. Edmund Alexander Sims does it again.

This is the longest Space Station Colt and the best like Parts 1-2. It is well worth more than what would be paid for it.

This book is great because it gets into the family life of Edmund and Marileva.
