Chapter 43: Back to the Basics

In the Oval Office of the White House in Turtalia...

Inside and seated were Edmund Sims, Marilena Sims, Gerry Garrison, E.J. and M.J. Sims, Captain Jerone, Captain Neff, Cathleen Coobe, David Majewski, Zart, Mike Speed, Mr. Sellers, and Willy G.

President Deen walked in, "Welcome all. It is time for a change. I have new assignments and a request from the families of the deceased. The families of Erica Smith, Matt, Mimka, Jeremy, and Jordan Pipstein wish that you come to a remembrance party. Only the friends of course. It will be held tomorrow in the Garden of War. And now for your assignments. I want Edmund Sims, David Majewski, Sheriff Pook, Deputy Billy, Aero, Willy Z., and Jerry Garrison to be stationed on Earth."

"Woah woah, what the fu-- is this?" Edmund asked.

"Yeah," Marilva stepped in, "We're married with two kids. We can't be separated like that."

"I'm sorry Edmund and Marilva," President Deen explained, "My advisor Scott Gipsword is taking care of most of my affairs, until I am up on things."

David Majewski stood up, "You will all be expected to leave in a week. No later." David sat.

Deen continued, "Well, business has been concluded. Class dismissed."

Everyone walked out. Edmund told E.J., "Take M.J. to the Ferrari. Mommy and I'll be there in a second."

"So what are we gonna do about it?" Marileva asked.

"What can we do Marileva?"

"I have an idea," Marileva explained, "I'll probably ease the pain."

"I like that painkiller baby," Edmund said happily as they walked off to the Ferrari.

In the Sims household...

"Did you put the kids in bed?"

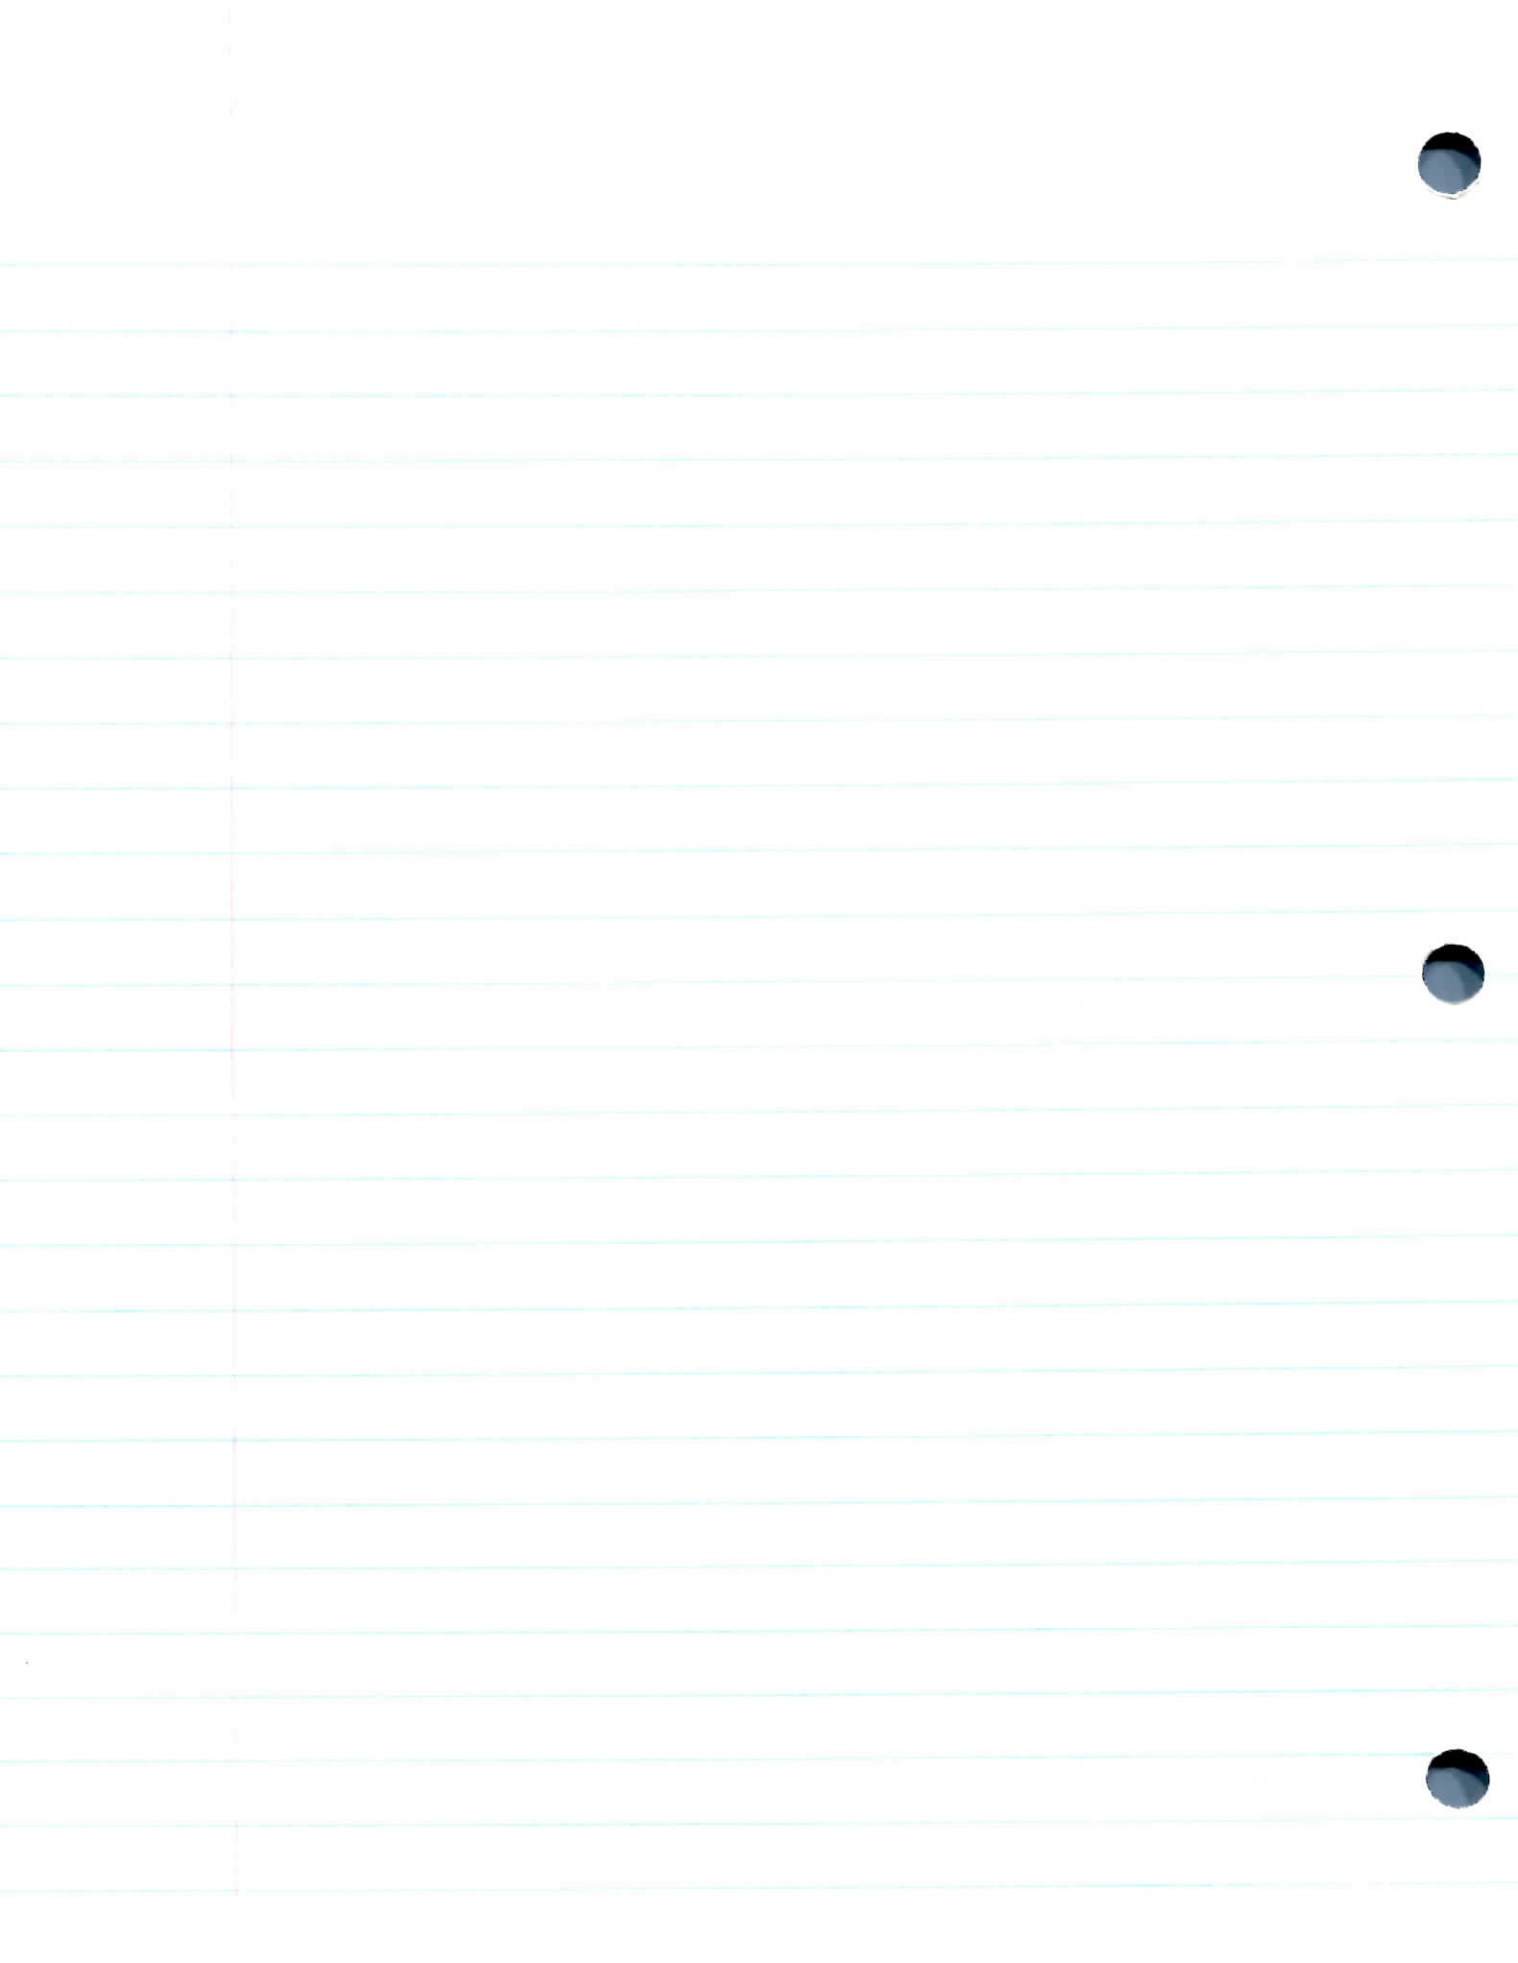

Edmund asked as Marileva walked in.

"Of course," Marileva replied as she laid on the bed.

Edmund unbuttoned her shirt and took off her bra. Edmund got on top of Marileva and they started kissing and rubbing up against each other. Then they f---ed each other all night. Marileva knew that it could be the last they would see of each other.

Edmund would keep custody of the children. Outside they were happy to fu--. Inside they didn't want to be separated. They asked themselves why Scott did this.

Chapter 44: Business Proposition

At Scott Gipsword's house...

"What else are we gonna do to the Sims's?" John Due asked.

"Yeah man," Ed Mason said, "we're with you ALL the way."

"Let me consult my Thinking Cap," Scott said placing the cap on his head. "Ah, it's coming to me. Yes, that's it!"

"What's it?" the Secret Service men asked in unison.

"I'll hire mercenaries. Not the bad ones," Scott explained, "but the ones on our side to destroy Edmund.

Unhappiness does not suit be that 247 well. I want him killed. That'll show both him and that bitc - of his. I'll do this just to defy that fu--in' bitc-. This is just between us three. Deen and David must not become involved. Ah, that's what I want you to do. Kidnap both of them."

"Sure boss," John Sue agreed.

"Easier said than done," Ed Mason replied.

"This'll give me the presidency and a reason for the Mercenaries to get Edmund."

At the White House an hour later...

"So much has changed since I've been gone," Deen explained, "I hope I never have to go away again. Wait a minute? Who are you? What do you want? Ugh...."

At David's mansion...

"You know?" David asked himself, "I have never been in bed with a girl in my life. I'm a mutha fu--in' virgin. Da-m. Woah, who the fu-- are aw, ugh ..."

It was morning and no one was aware of the abductions as of yet. Not until David's maid Lola walked in the room, "Ahh! blood!"

At the White House, the missing president was easily spotted.

At the Sims household...

Marileva and Edmund were still fu--ing. The timer on the television easily turned on the television. Edmund was about to shut it off when they heard the news.

The two stopped kissing. "What the fu-- is gain'on?" Marileva asked.

"This is really fu--ed up," Edmund replied. "Oh well, like my father used to say what's done is done -"

"But we can change this," Marilwa stepped. "I guess your right. We can't do anything about it yet."

Edmund shut off the t.v. They commence the fu--ing.

In the Oval Office of the White House...

"Welcome to office Mr. President," a man said to Scott.

Two people walked in. One was a masculine man with ripped jeans. The other was a woman with only a bra and pants on.

"Ah K.A.Y. and K.D.Y., you made it," Scott said.

"What do you want of our services?" K.A.Y. asked.

"I want you to get rid of a pest."

"What has he done?" G. & G. asked.

"In that split second Scott turned to a computer, "you see, Edmund and his accomplices have a record from here to the moon. David S. Majewski pardoned them. BUT with David gone. The pardon is gone. He had it and took it anywhere he went. It's in his watch. A tiny microchip could send this fu--er Edmund to the chair 10 times over. I want you to make that possible. Tell him."

"But first," Nat ordered, "let's see those crimes that these people have committed." The whole listing in the computer took two hours to read.

"We'll take it from here," Kit said.

"Oh," Scott called, "watch out, Edmund's good, real good."

"We'll need your help though," Nat said.

Scott and Kit walked up to the Sims household. They rang the bell. Kit was dressed regularly.

"Shi-", Marileva said upset.

"Who the fu-- is that?" Edmund asked, "Da-n, now I gotta get the fu--in' door."

"Stay here, I'll get it," Marileva said, "Who is it. We're on vacation."

"It's Scott and uh my uh cousin Kitty," Scott called.

Marileva opened the door, "We're tryin' to get rested up for that funeral thing. What d'ya want Scott?"

"Could you please take care of Kitty?" Scott asked. "I'm onto a big case, you know, the president and vice-president and all."

"For how long?" Marileva asked madly.

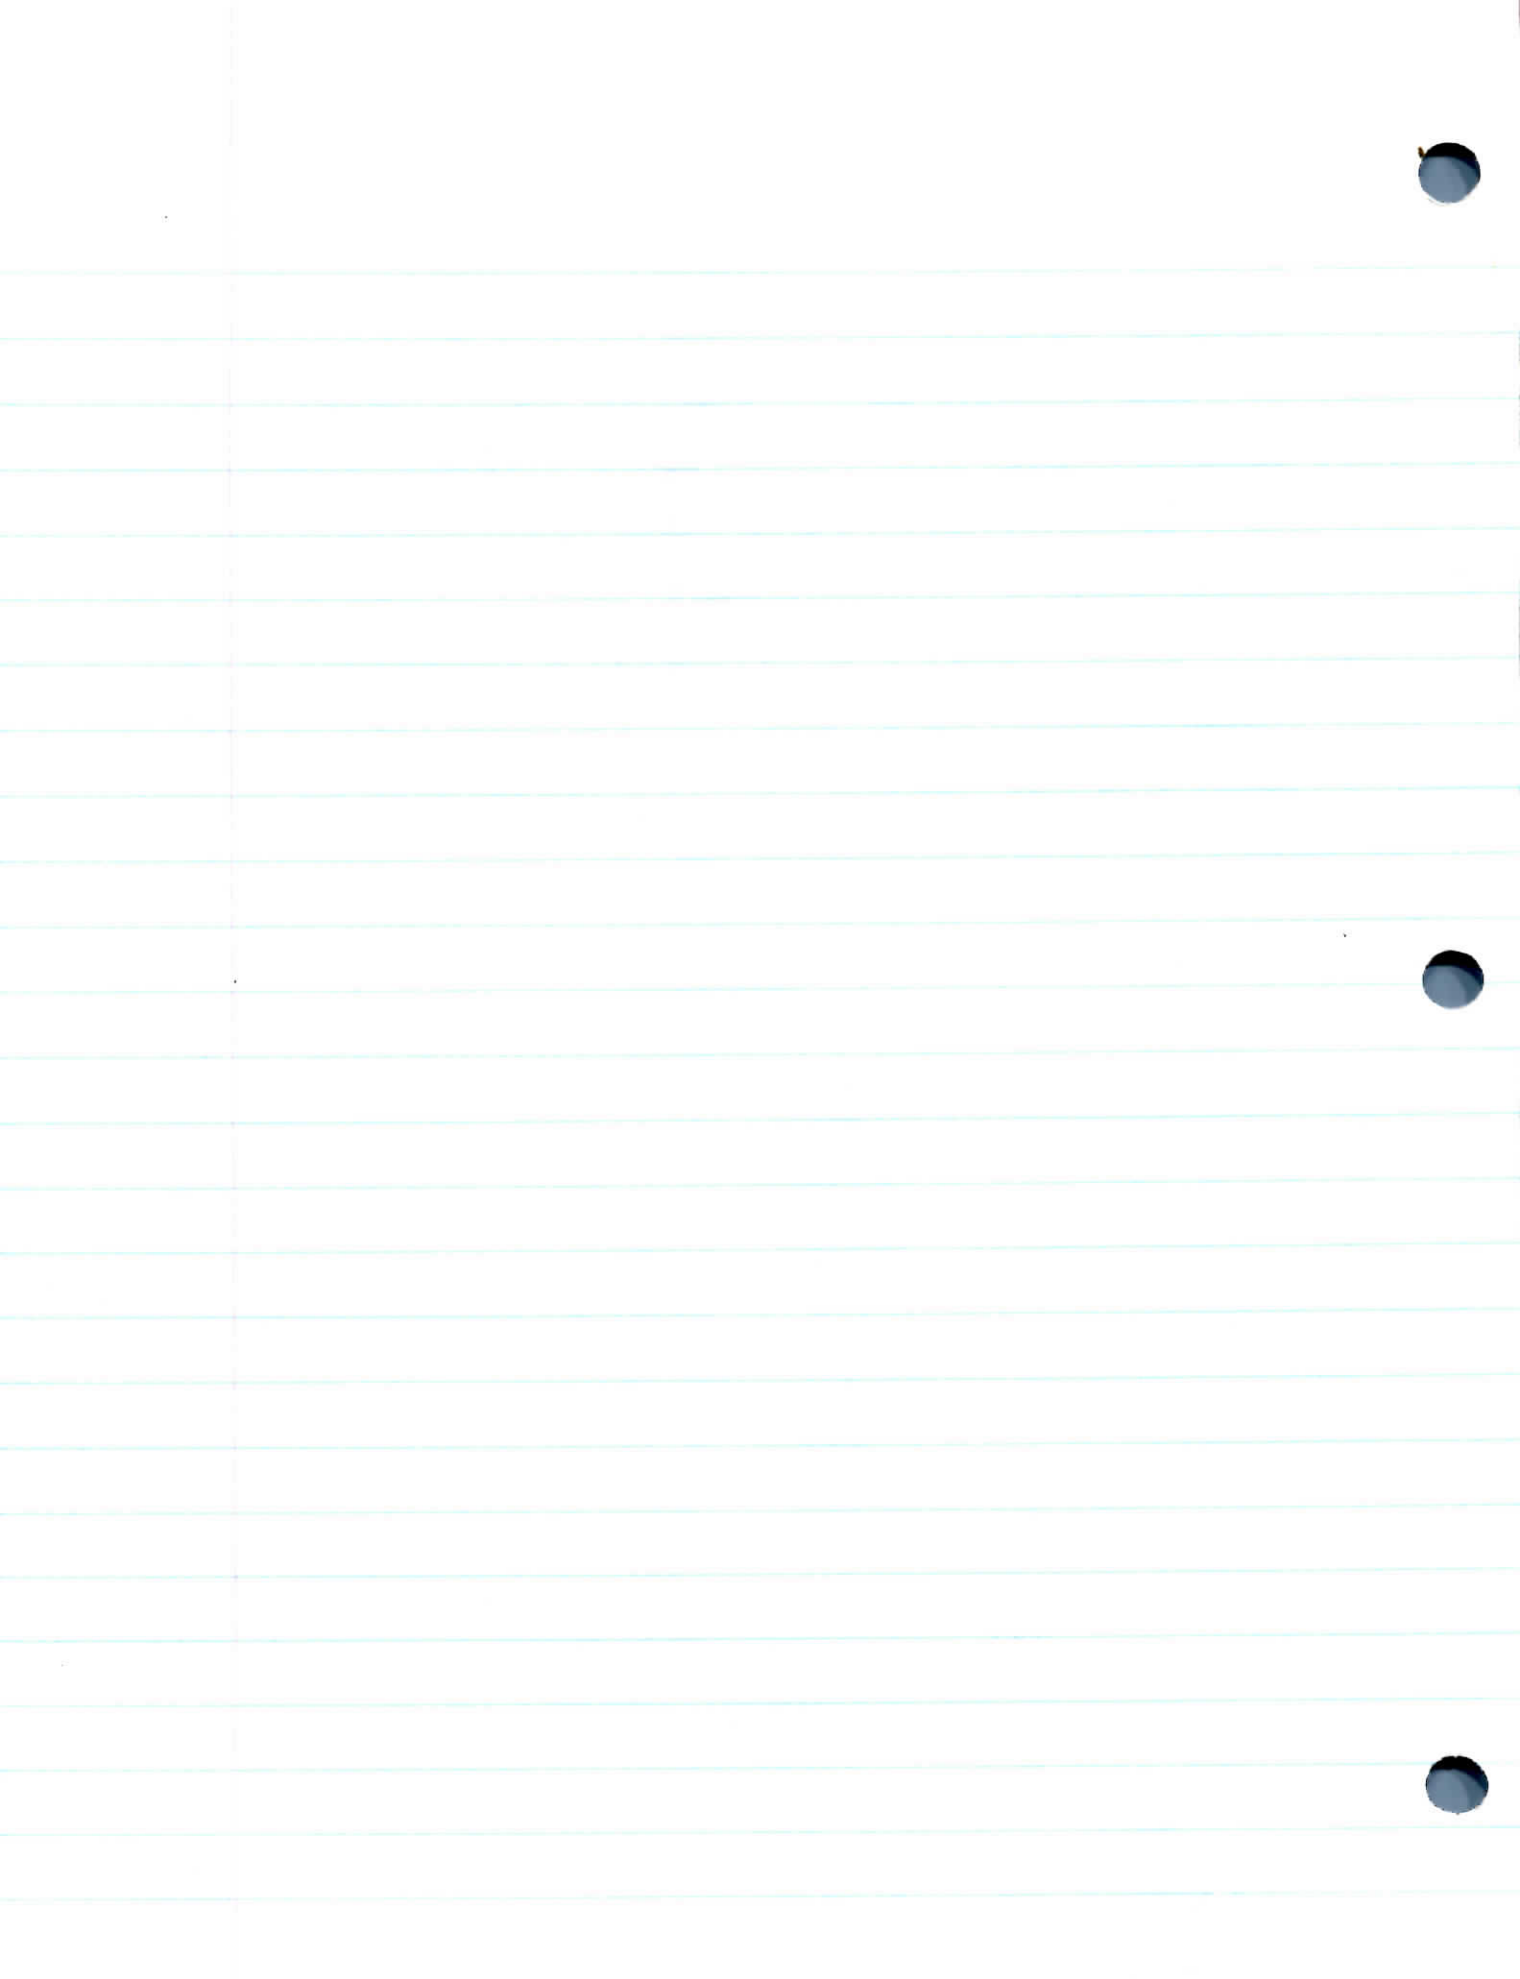

"I'll tell you later," Scott said running to his limo.

"Well I guess you should come in since you have your suit - case," Marilva said yawning.

"Uh - thanks Mrs. Sims," Betty said. "Uh could you drop me off at highschool before you leave for the funeral thing?"

"Sure, why not," Marilva answered. She went in the room and told Edmund.

Chapter 45: Busted

Edmund and Marileva dropped Kitty off at school and went to the remembrance.

Erica Smith's father and mother. The father Johnny Smith stood up. Sheriff Pook, Aero, and Billy Bear were on leave. Erica was Billy's cousin*. Billy knew the whole ordeal. He had lost two people. His father and his cousin. If you were to count Gloves father Claw, then Billy had lost three. If you count Johnny Smith's parents, then that's five. Erica Smith and Edmund Sims were lovers. Erica was before Marileva. Erica was brutally murdered by the Corporation lead by the evil Sam Osprey. It was a tough loss to Edmund. Marikwa helped him over it. Then the story goes. Johnny Smith and Charlene Smith did talking about their daughter. Edmund was really very much like his father. He could hold his feelings in. Marikwa held Edmund's hand as Edmund gazed on sadly. He was really hurting. Anybody would hurt if they had seen their fiancée destroyed by an uni. Johnny and Charlene Smith ended their remembrance.

Jeremy had no family. He was a spy for the rebellion who had dealt with Edmund before the Dorodan Wars. He was killed by Glove, stabbed in the chest. Mr. Sellers took the podium and said a few things about his buddy.

Matt and Mimba were leaders of the Ranger force as well as lovers. They set out to the rebellion. The rebellion was saved but Matt and Mimla were captured by the Dorodans. They were changed into Dorodans. When Haven's plan went wrong Commander shot and killed the two now Dorodans unexpectedly. Captain Jevone said a few things about his departed accomplices.

Jordan Ripstein didn't have much of a career. Jordan had been put in a coma by the force of a closing quasar throwing him against a wall. The next Dorodan attack killed Jordan. The Dorodans totalled the S. S. C. Power and auxiliary power went off. There was an hour worth of air. Since the power went out, Jordan's life support went out. He died a slow death. Cathleen Cooke stood and said a few words.

The remembrance ended. It was 2587 also time for Marileva and Edmund to pick Kitty up from school. They took the B.M.W. this was Marileva's car so they drove.

Back at the remembrance...
After everyone left, Scott Gipsword walked up, "Jordan, Jordan, Jordan, my former best friend. It's best that this end like this. You tried to steal my girl. You paid the price. She's mine. I'm really glad you're dead. It was either you or me. I'm not about to give her up to some obstacled muther fu--a like you. Well--, rest in peace." Scott laughed and gloated as he walked to his limmo.

At the school...
Marileva and Edmund were parked. Edmund saw Kitty coming. Edmund looked at the back 259 seat. He saw three guns that he had left there, "Shi-!"

"What's wrong?" Marileva asked.

"Look in the back," Edmund ordered.

"Push that shi-under the seat," Marileva replied.

Kitty walked up as Edmund finished, "What's you two?"

"Oh nothin' much," Edmund answered.

Marileva next drove to the house to be met at the door by E.J. and M.J.

"What's this Mrs. Dime?" Kitty asked, "You leave a three-year-old home alone?"

"He's no ordinary kid," Marileva answered.

That night...

Edmund went to the kitchen for a late night snack, "What are you doin' up Kitty?" He was astonished as he saw Kitty in uniform." "What the fu-- is goin' on?"

"The name is K.D.Y., Killer Intuition Trooper, and you're under arrest."

"What the fu-- did I do?" Edmund asked.

"You know what you did, and you're gonna pay for it," she pulled a gun as E.J. walked.

"What's goin' on Dad?" E.J. asked.

"Get your mom," Edmund said dodging fire. Edmund was trapped in a corner. Kit aimed the gun for Edmund's head. She fired and Edmund blocked it with his laser watch. Edmund ran into the living room and jumped over the couch. Kit put a few holes into the couch.

Marileva grabbed Kit from behind, "Get the fu-- outta here Edmund." Kit elbowed Marileva and tried to flip her. Marileva held on. They both went down. Kit kicked the gun out of Marileva's hand. Edmund was long gone. Luckily he was dressed.

Kit pointed the gun at Marileva, "You'll pay for that." Suddenly Kit felt a gun in her back. E.J. held Kit at gun point. Kit dropped her gun. Marileva retrieved both guns. Kit explained, "You'll get your orders tomorrow."

"What orders?" Marileva asked. "You'll find out," Kit said walking out the door.

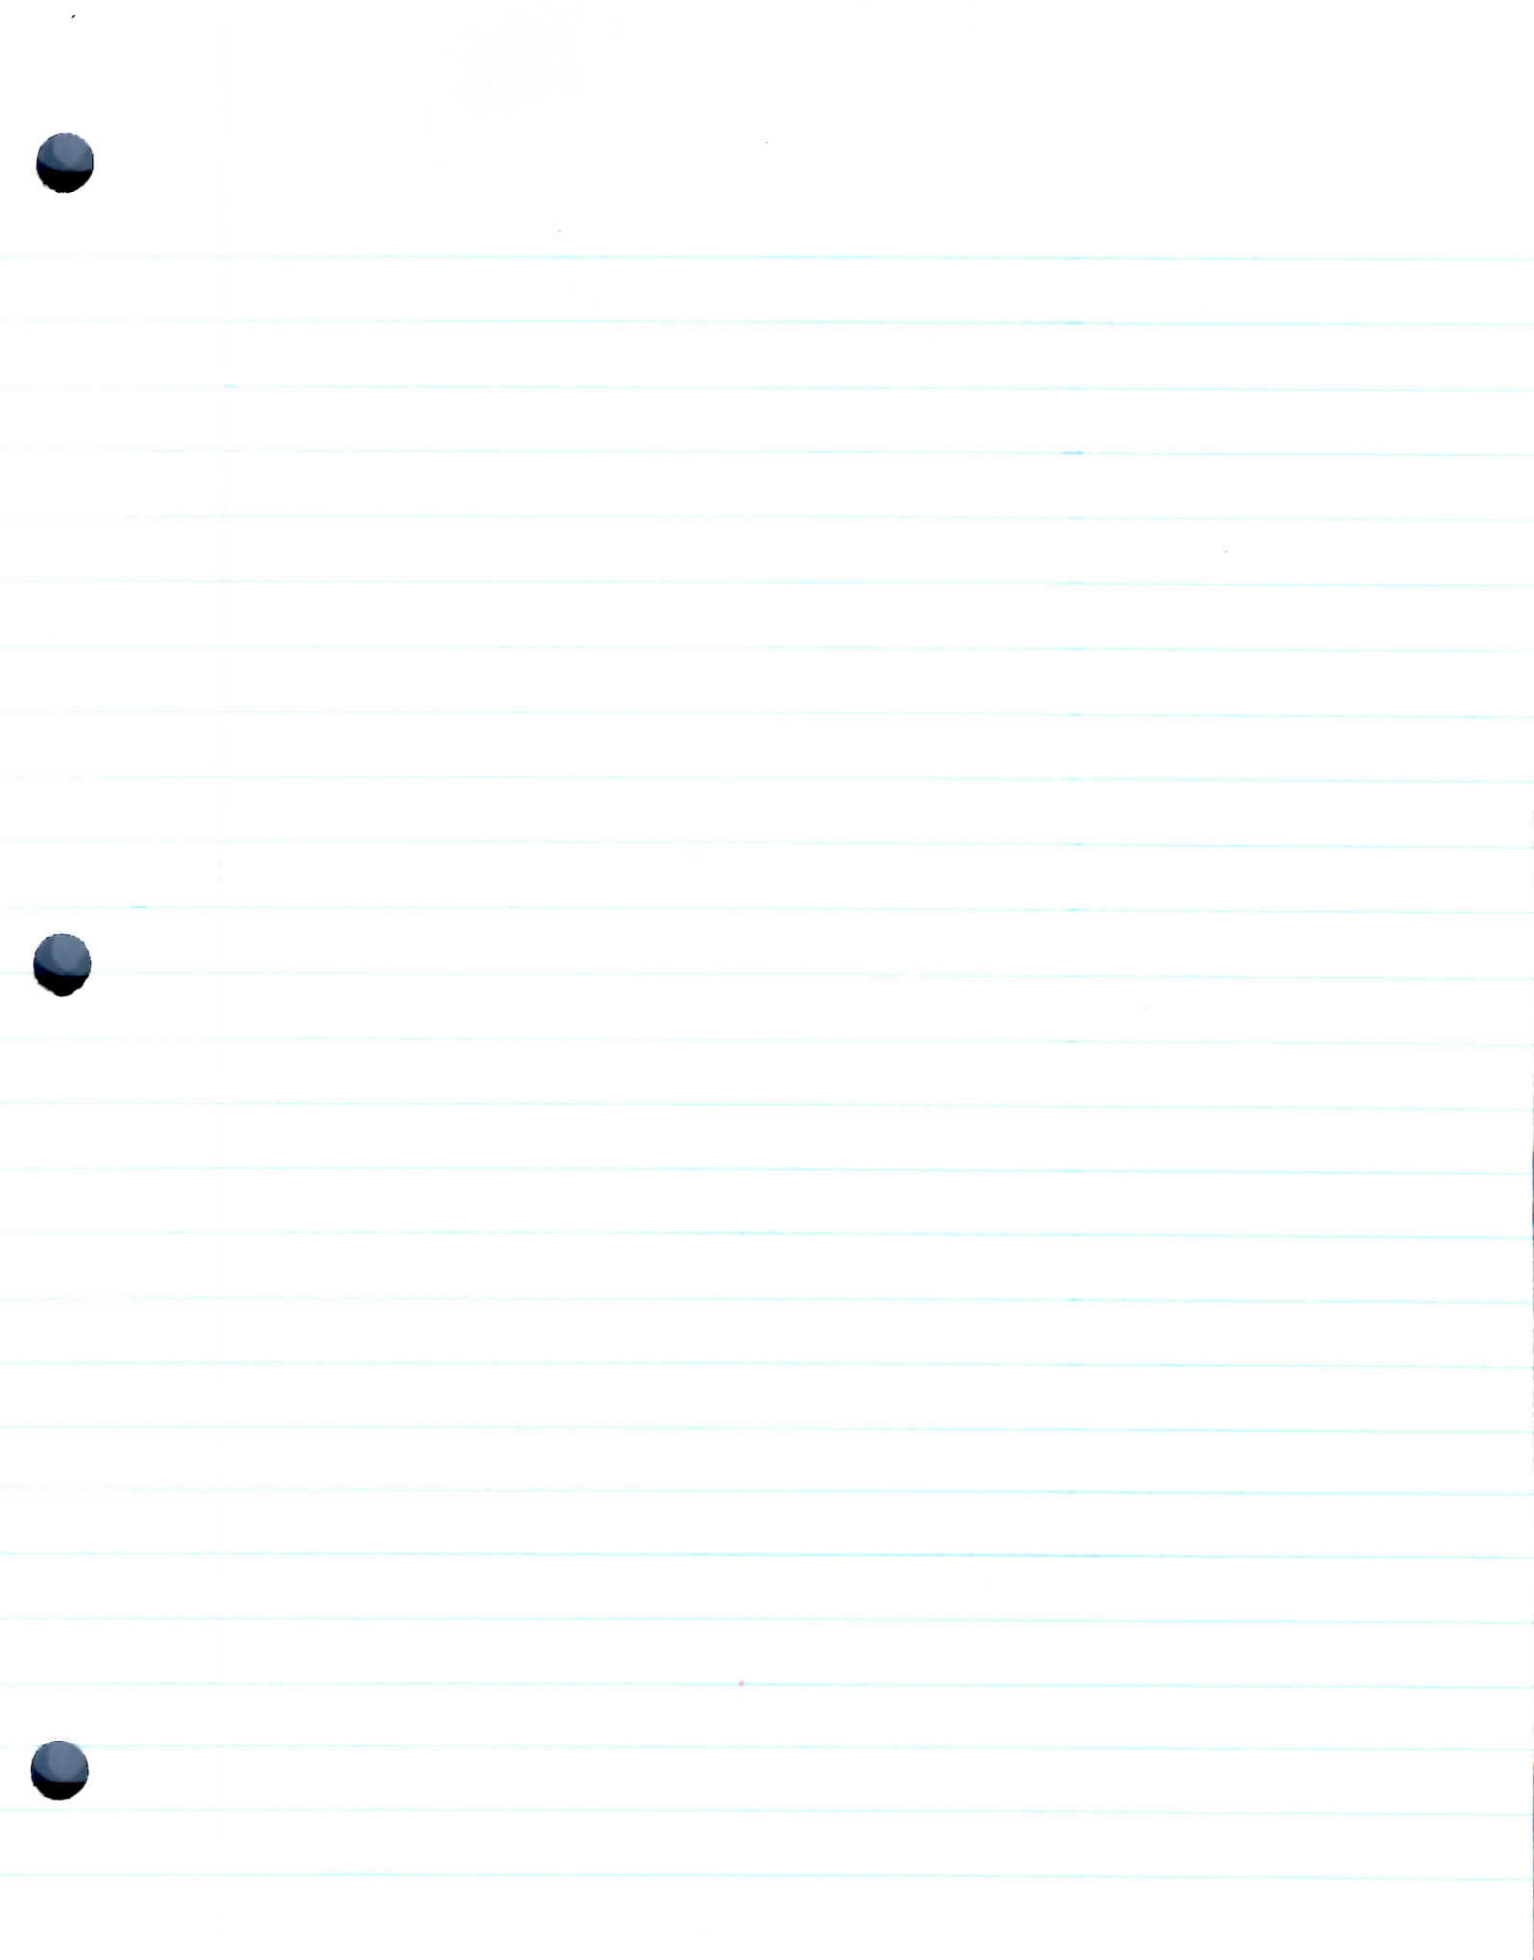

"Thanks E.J.," Marileva said to her son.

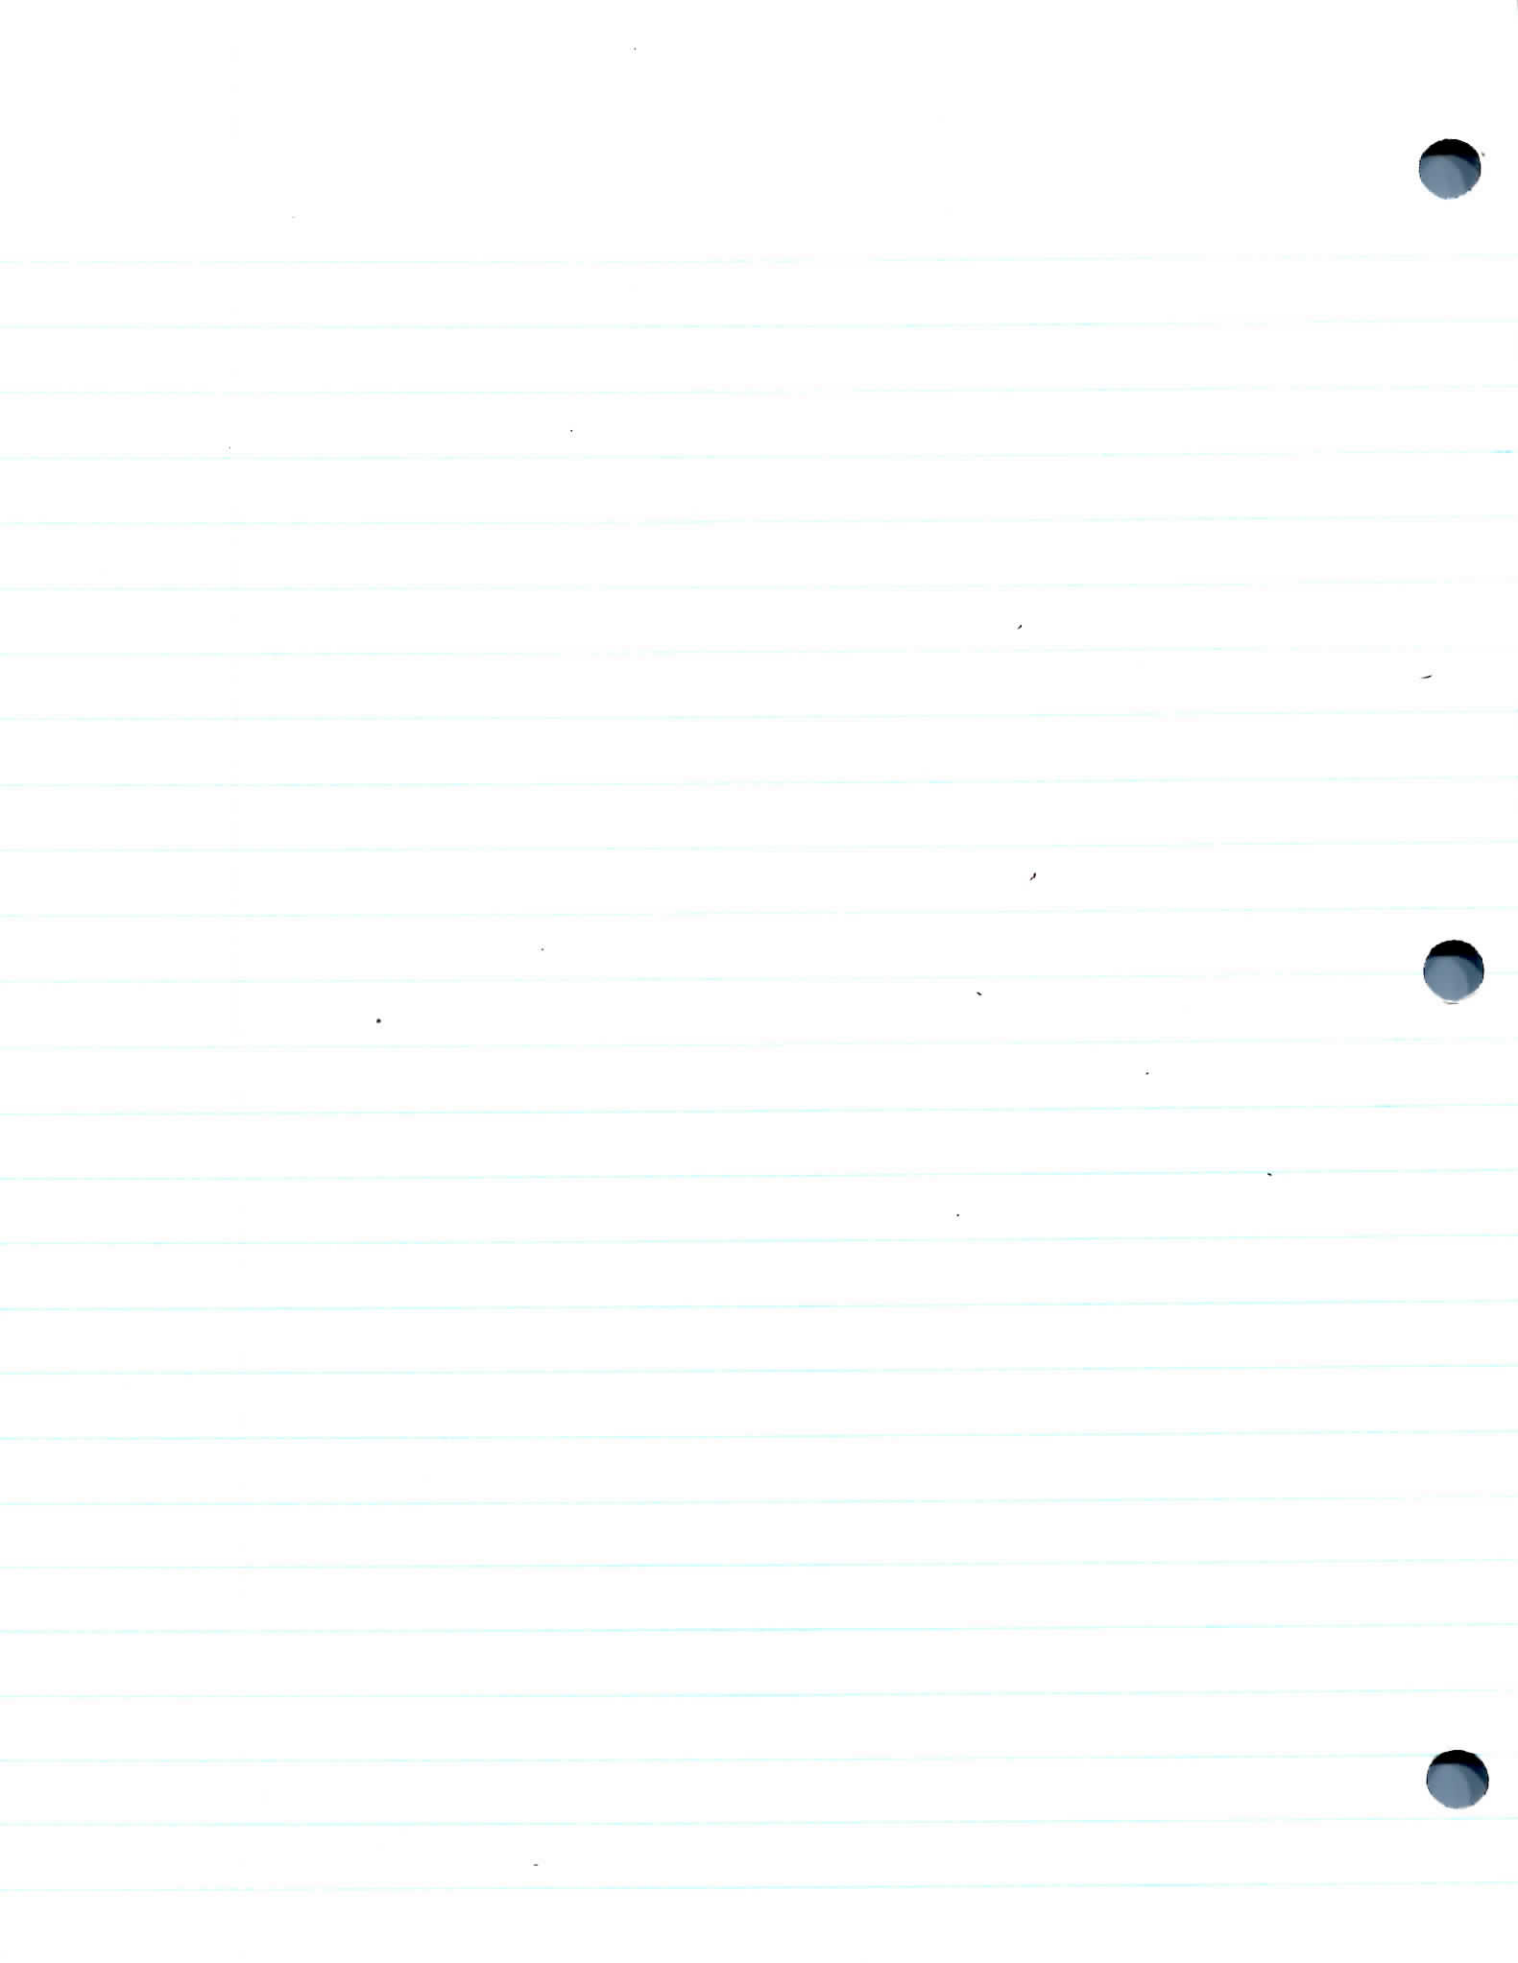

"Sure mom," E.J. replied.

"We've got to get to your father," Marileva explained, "I have a feeling he's in a lot of trouble."

"I hope he's going to be OK, mom," E.J. replied.

"me too E.J.," Marikwa said
holding E.J. "me too."

Chapter 46: The Meeting

In Scott's mansion...

"What's happened to you Scott?"
"What do you mean dove?"
Scott answered, "I've always been this way."

"You're corrupt," Ken told Scott.

"Yeah," Scott replied, "but look at it this way. Who's got the key to the door and the knife to untie you." Scott the gage back in their mouths and walked out.

As soon as Scott arrived at 2641

the Oval Office...

The meeting began. Kat started, "You are all fugitives. Marileva Sims, Mr. Sellers, Mike Speed, Willy Genorio, Cathleen Cooke, G. Ferrison, and Fart are all goin' to the chair."

"How is that?" Willy asked.

"Yeah we were pardoned by I-," Mike stopped. Everyone knew why.

"We're up the mutha fu--in' shi-creek without a got-da-m paddle," Fart said.

"What are we supposed to do?" Cathleen asked.

"Well Kat and I," Kit explained, "along with Mr. Zippword could give you a pardon."

"What's the catch?" G. Ferrison asked.

"Kill Edmund," Scott answered.

"Noo!" Marileva screamed.

"If you don't you'll be in big trouble," Kat said.

"How much?" Fart asked.

"We'll be on your as-es," Kit said. 2651

"Like that fu--in' scares us," Willy said.

"I am advising you to use your tongue wisely before I rip it out," Nat told Willy. Willy flicked him off.

"Who agrees to do it?" Nat asked.

"Fu-- no," Marilva said.

"I've gotta do it. I'm sorry," Mr. Sellers said.

"Me too," Cathleen agreed.

"I can't, he's, it's wrong," Gerry said. Mike nodded ashamed.

"He-- no," Willy agreed.

"He-- yeah," Sart said.

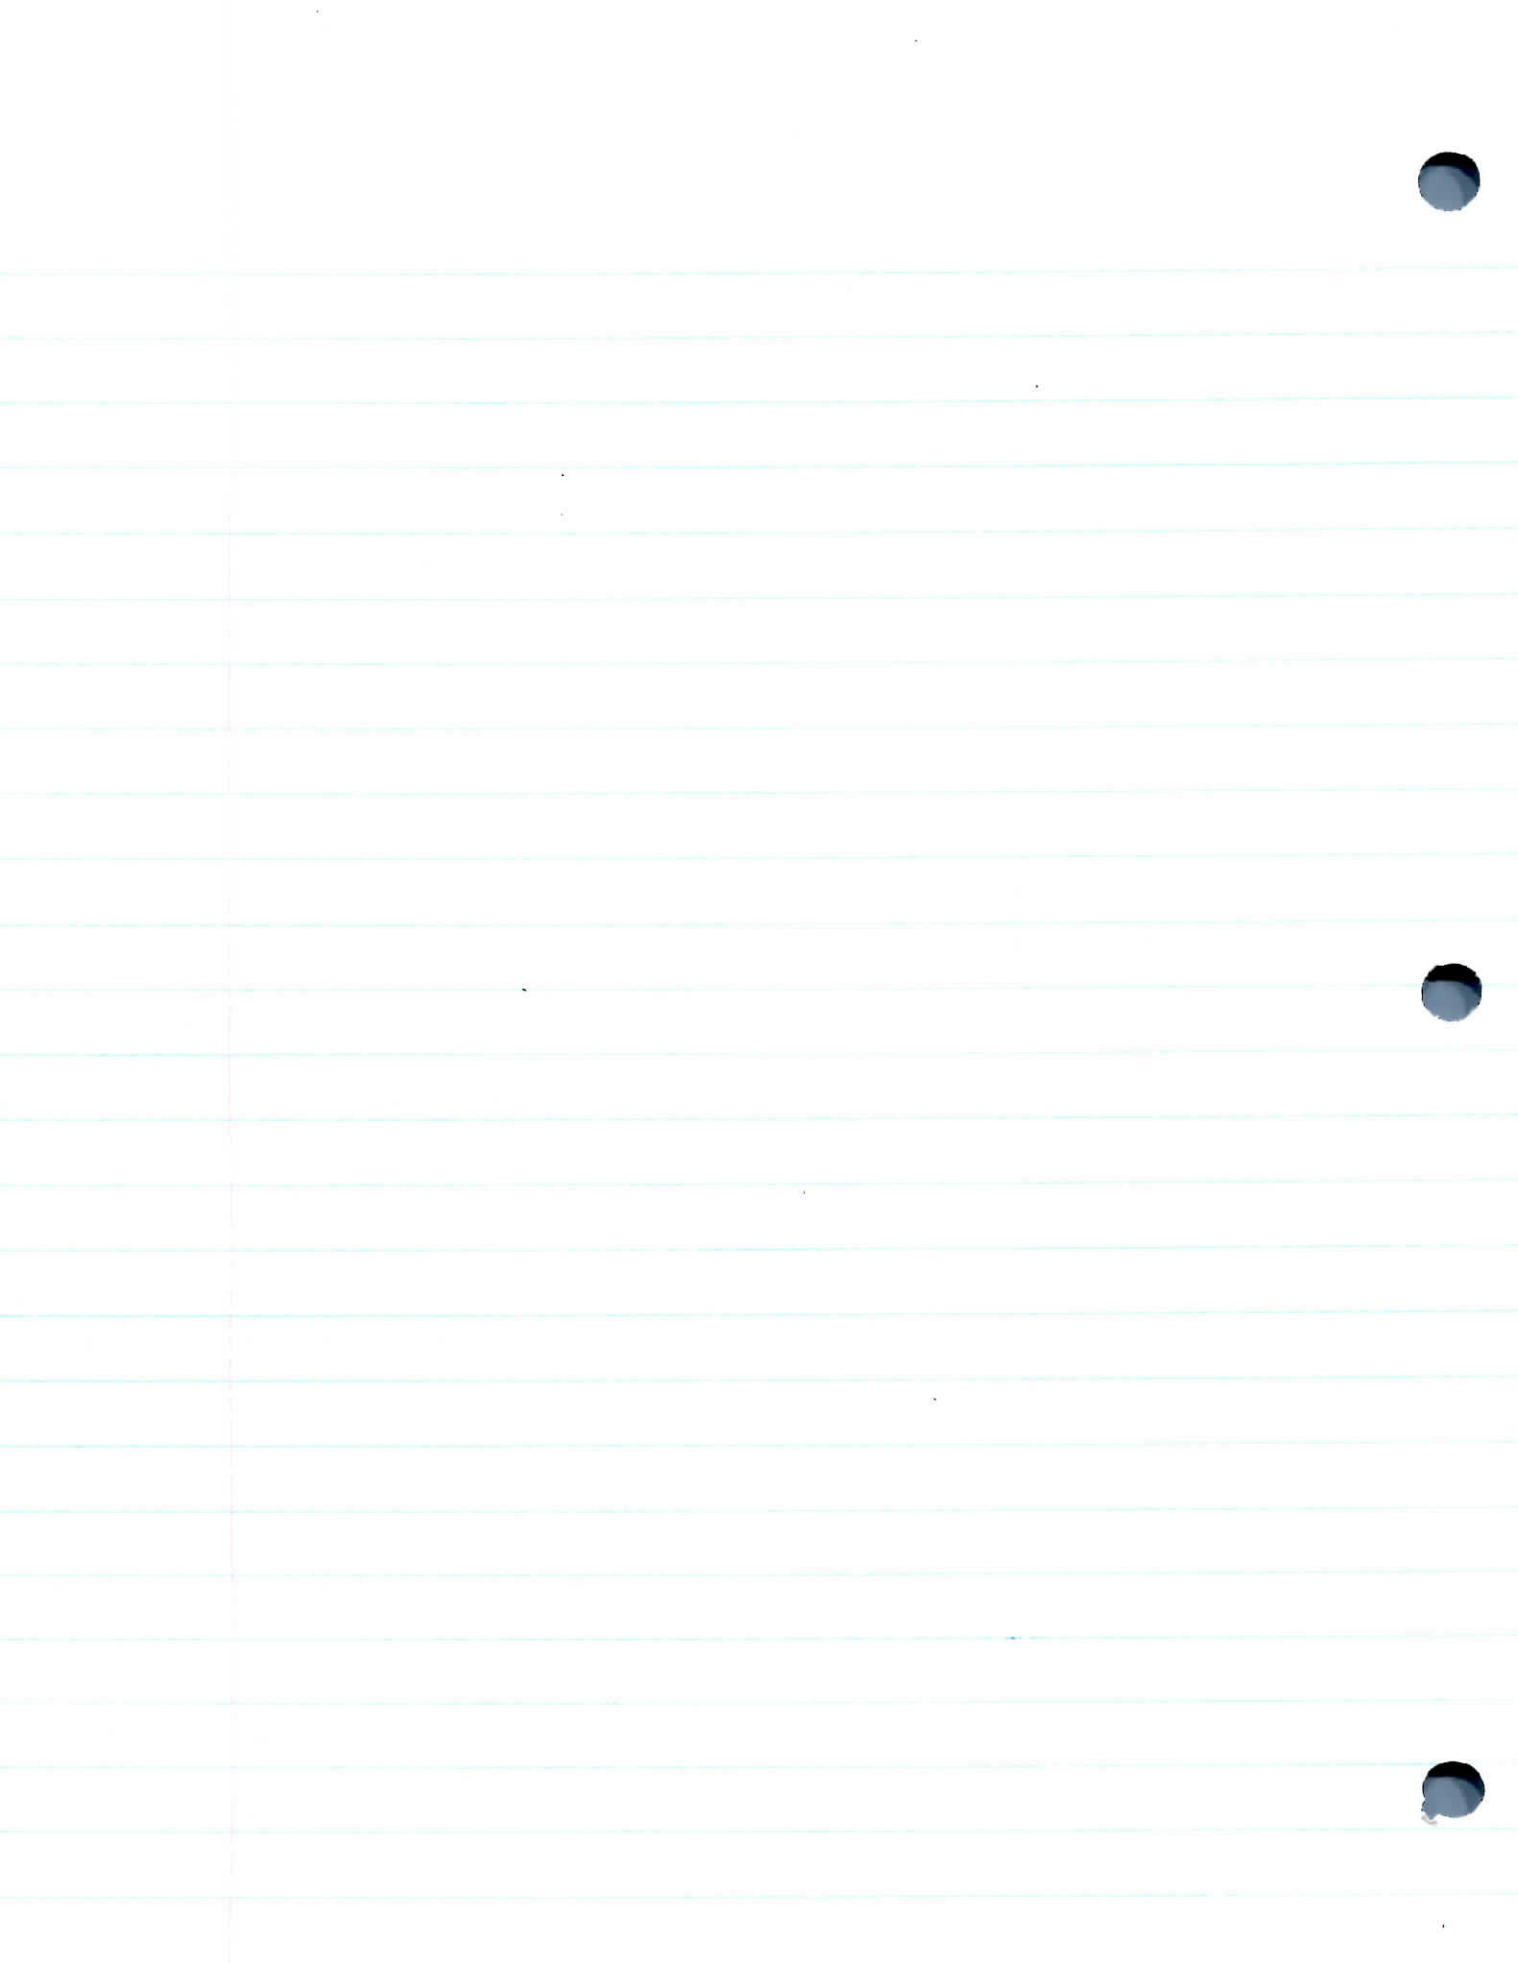

"Then I guess Marilva, Willy, and Gerry go to the chair," Nat replied.

"Not today," Marilva pulled her handgun out of her purse. She stood up. Gerry and Willy ran to her side. They walked out slowly. "This really tells you who your friends are doesn't it. 2066"

Doesn't it!" The three now fugitives ran out.

The cop-outs felt like heels.
"I want that one-!" Git exclaimed. "She's mine."

Chapter 47: Run for Your Life

On a street far away from Edmund's own house the next day...

"I think this is far enough away," Edmund said to himself, "Why are they after me? What did I do."

Suddenly Mike Speed ran up, "Mike, it's so good to see you -"

"I'm sorry Edmund," Mike said.

"For what?" Edmund asked.

"For this," Mike said as he cheap shot in.

"What the fu-- are you doing?" Edmund asked. Mike used his bones (208) to kick Edmund's ass. Edmund new not why Mike was beating him but he new he had to get out of it. Edmund pulled his handgun and hit Mike in the head. Edmund ran up the road about a mile, "I think I lost 'im."

Edmund then saw Mike right in front of him, "You can't outrun me." Edmund punched at Mike but Mike sped out of the way.

"Stand still so I can get a punch in," Edmund called looking for any sight of Mike. Edmund ran to a building. He sat down and grasped his gun. "What is goin' on and why to me?" Edmund suddenly looked down. His weapon was gone.

In front of him stood his predator, "I'm sorry Edmund. I don't want to do this, but as they say, I have no choice. I have too." 269

"Before you kill me Mike," Edmund requested, "tell me why."

"I'm sorry," Mike explained, "I can't tell you why. Good-bye" Mike raise Edmund's gun directly to Edmund's head. A beam shot over Mike, "ah what the fu--?" Mike fell to his knees.

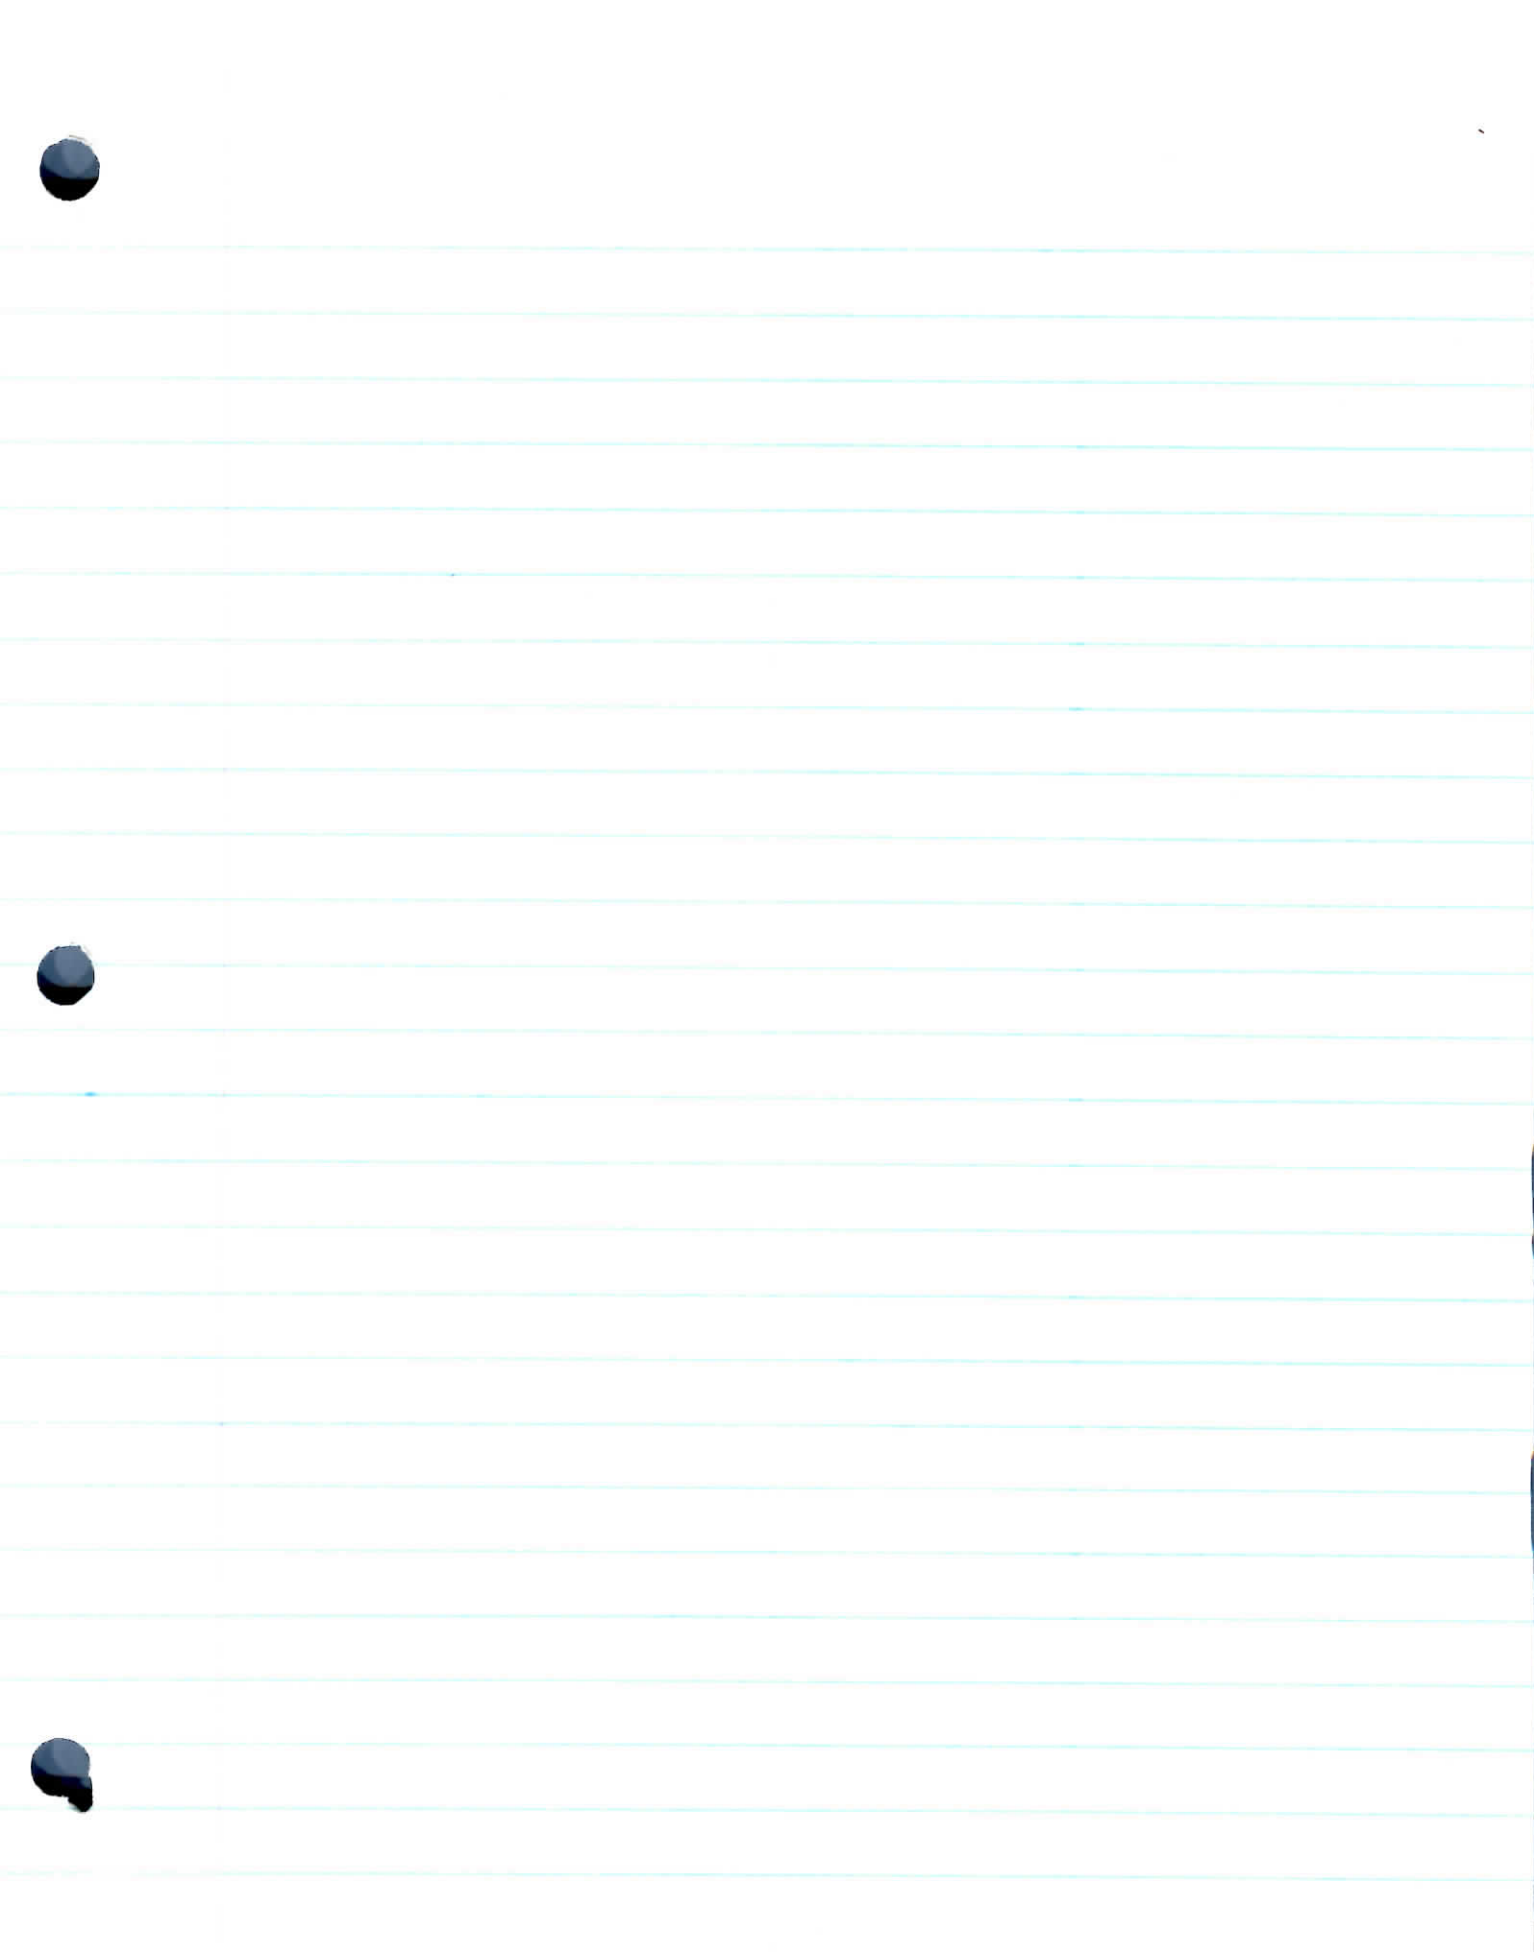

"I deactivated you," a voice said. Mike turned. In that split second that Mike turned, Edmund crashed a left against Mike's face knocking a foot back.

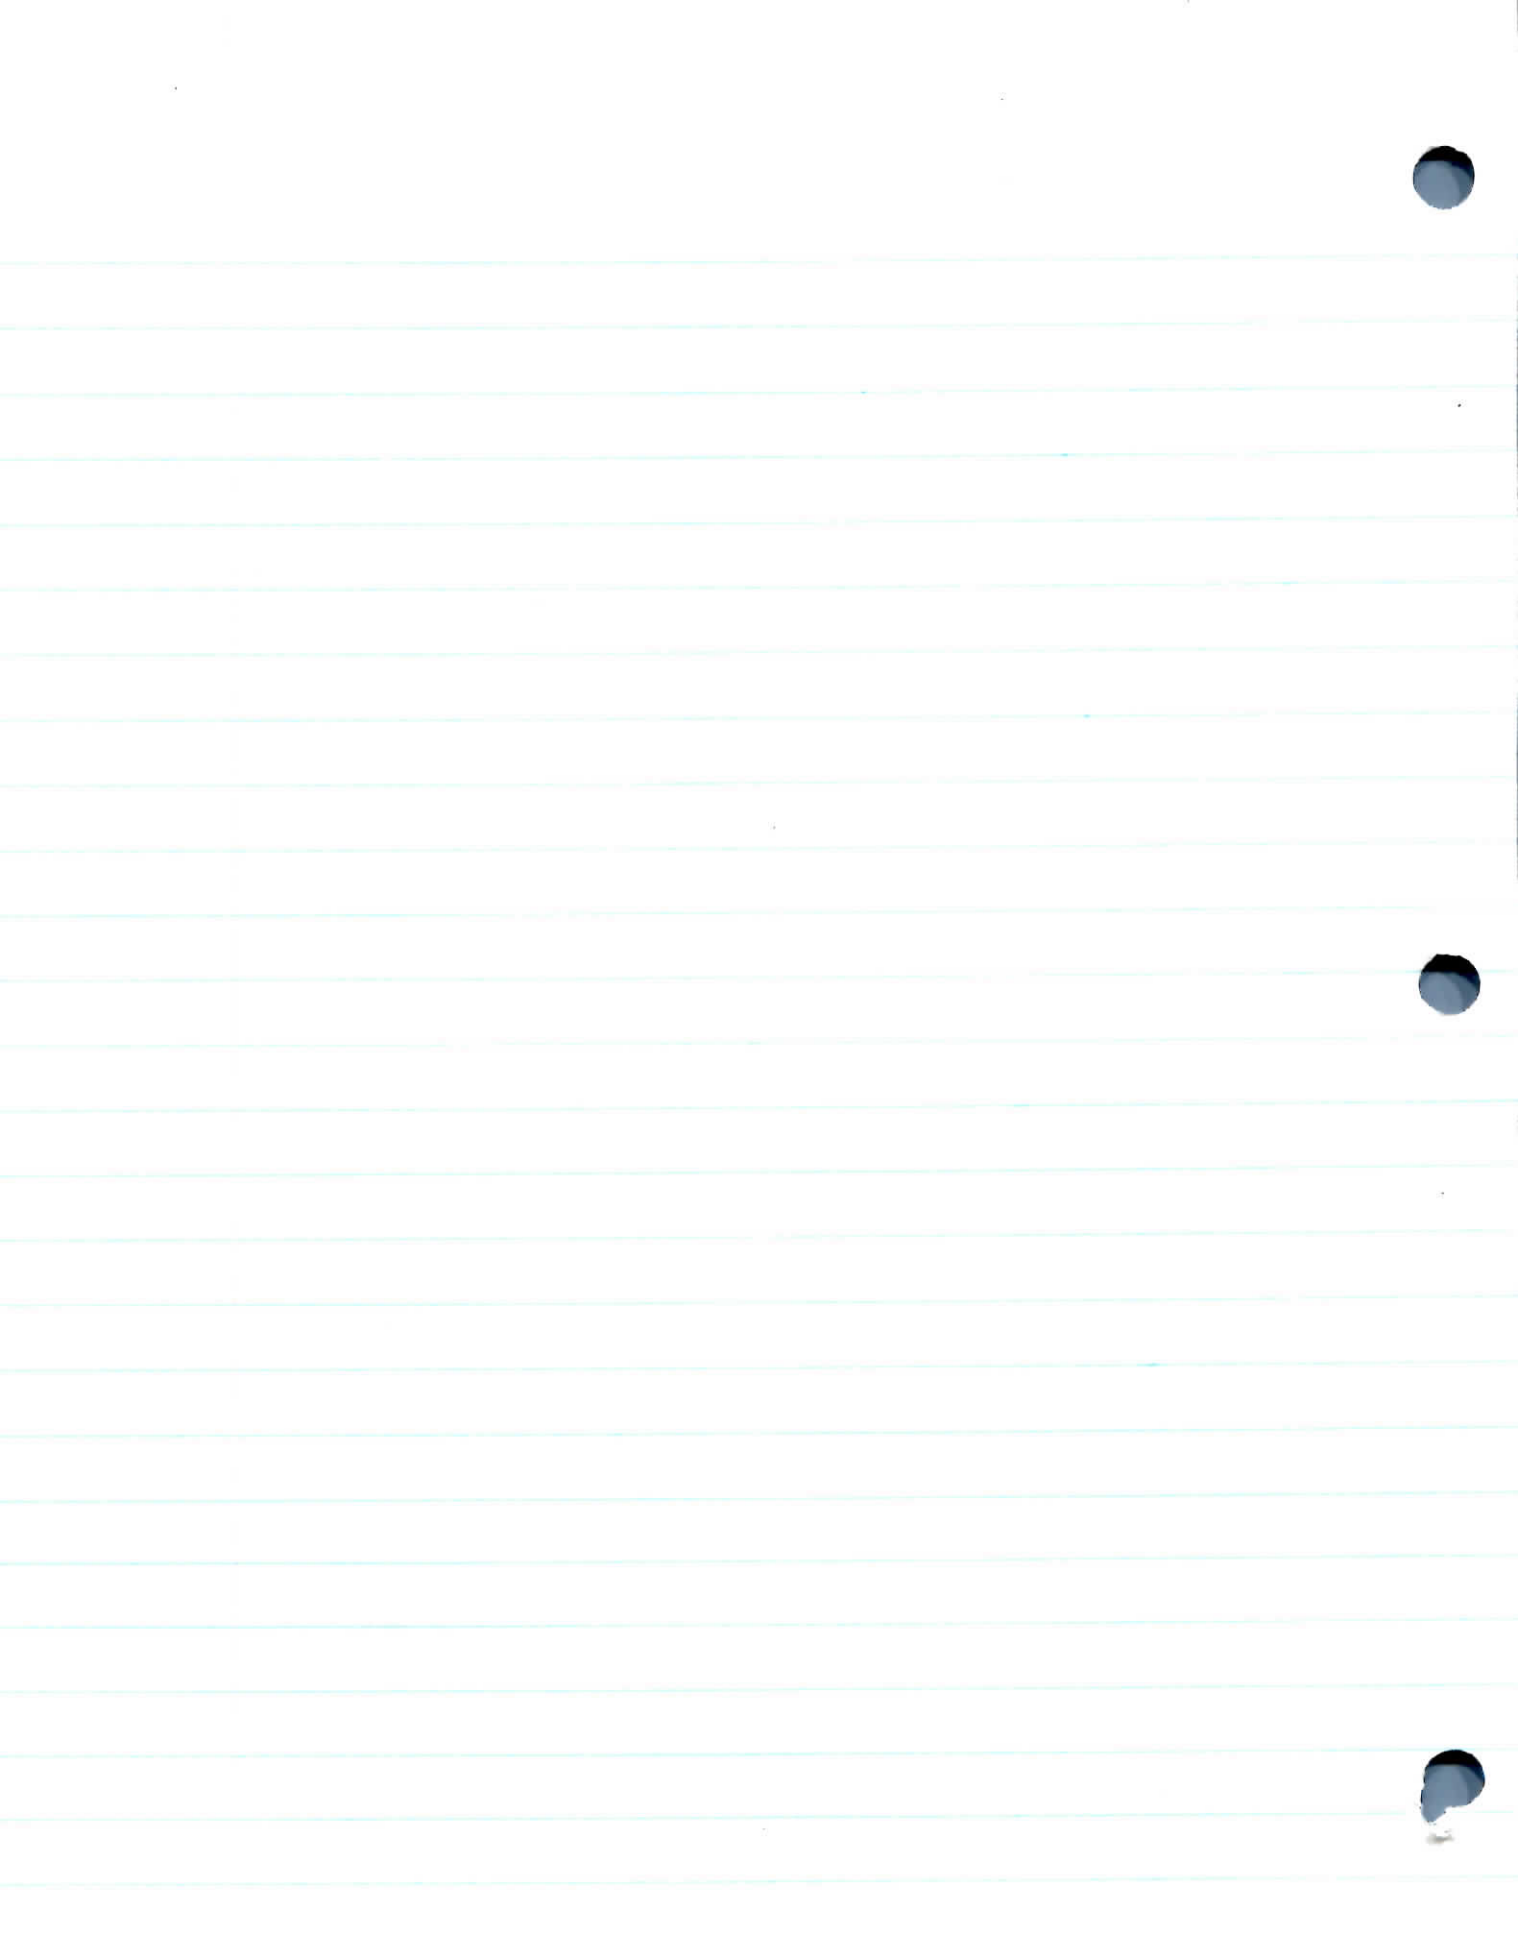

"Sorry Mike," Edmund explained, "I had no choice. Who saved me?"

"I did," Gerry Gerrison walked out. "If you know what's best for you, you'll get the fu-- out of here. Keep running. Maribwa, Wilky and I'll help you when you need it. Get goin'. Ask no questions. I'll see you later."

Edmund ran and Gerry walked (70) away. Another character walked up.

"you fu-- ed up Mike. It's time to pay." Rat picked up Mike with the left arm and beat Mike with the right. Rat carried the bloody Mike away.
Mike Speed had lost his powers

Chapter 48: The Air Brawl

At the Space Force Base...

Edmund walked up exhaustedly to two guards, "A guys, let me in."

"I'm sorry Mr. Sims, one guard started.

"You're under arrest," the other guard said lurching for Edmund. Edmund tripped the guard and put an elbow in the back of the guard's neck knocking him unconscious. The first guard pulled his weapon.

Edmund swung his gun and shot the guard once in each leg. Edmund next cracked a right 270 against the guards face knocking him out, "Guh, fu--in' amateurs!" Suddenly laser fire shot around Edmund's position. Edmund took the first guard's code key and opened the gate to the hangar. Edmund took out a few guards but was soon out of ammo. He boarded a single fighter and took off.

Edmund received a transmission, "You have stolen a Space Force fighter. You are unauthorized for take off. Cease and desist. This is illegal."

Edmund answered, "No shi-, I'll try to bring 'er back in one piece."

The transmission continued, "If you do not return the fighter, we will send someone up to get you."

"Gabe your best fu--in' shot," Edmund said as lasers nearly singed his wings, "Woah, that was 273) close. Who shot those?"

"We did," Mr. Sellers acknowledged.

"Sellers, you too?" Edmund asked.

"Not just him," Gart stepped in.

"But why me?" Edmund asked again.

"Can't tell you that," Mr. Sellers explained, "Sardier now and stay out of trouble. If you don't land, - we'll blow you away."

"Fu-- you," Edmund said as he pulled his ship behind Gart and Mr. Sellers. Edmund fired full blast. Gart went left and Mr. Sellers did the opposite. Gart and Mr. Sellers were now in back of Edmund. Edmund was playing dodge ball with his life. Edmund made his ship fly low to the ground. He was headed straight for a building just before impact would occur, Edmund pulled straight up. Mr. Sellers and Gart 274 stayed on Edmund's tail. Edmund tried to shake Mr. Sellers and fart many times but he couldn't do it. Suddenly fart's ship went up in a blaze of fire.

"What the fu-- happened? fart come in fart," Mr. Sellers was puzzled. Then he looked up. On top of his ship was Willy G. flying upside down. Mr. Sellers was distracted so Edmund flew underneath the enemy ship and got directly in back of the enemy ship. Edmund let a missile fly. Willy G. pulled up and Edmund held his ship back. Mr. Sellers's ship went up in a blaze of fire.

"I know that crazy as-flyin' anywhere," Edmund explained, "Thanks Willy."

"Sure Edmund," Willy said as they both landed in a remote spot in the woods. "Get your as- 2751 to the S. I. C. You gotta get word to Captain Jerne."

"Not yet Willy," Edmund replied, "I've gotta get some answers from Gipsword."

"Well, I gotta go," Willy said.

"Where?" Edmund asked.

"Don't ask questions," Willy ordered. "Get outta here. You don't how much trouble your life is in. We'll help you from time to time."

"Willy, wait," Edmund called. "At least give me a weapon and a lift back to Scott's house."

"It's risky," Willy answered.

"Please man," Edmund explained, "I feel like mashed potatoes."

"Ruhh - alright," Willy agreed. "I'll hide you in the back of my Geo Yacker. Edmund hopped in the back and Willy put a bed sheet over him. They road into town this way.

At the city limits check...

"Gault," a guard said.

"Shi-," Willy said under his breath. "Tat and Rit thought of everything."

"We're looking for these four criminals," the guard held four pictures of Jerry, Marikva, Willy, and Edmund. "Hold it. Wait a fu-- in' minute! You're--"

"I know who I am, but you're gonna be mud if you squeel," Willy said holding a gun to the guard's head. Willy sped off.

The guard took his shotgun and put a hole in the side of Willy's car, "Shi-!!! No one does that to me!" Willy gave Edmund an eye. They shot up all six guards.

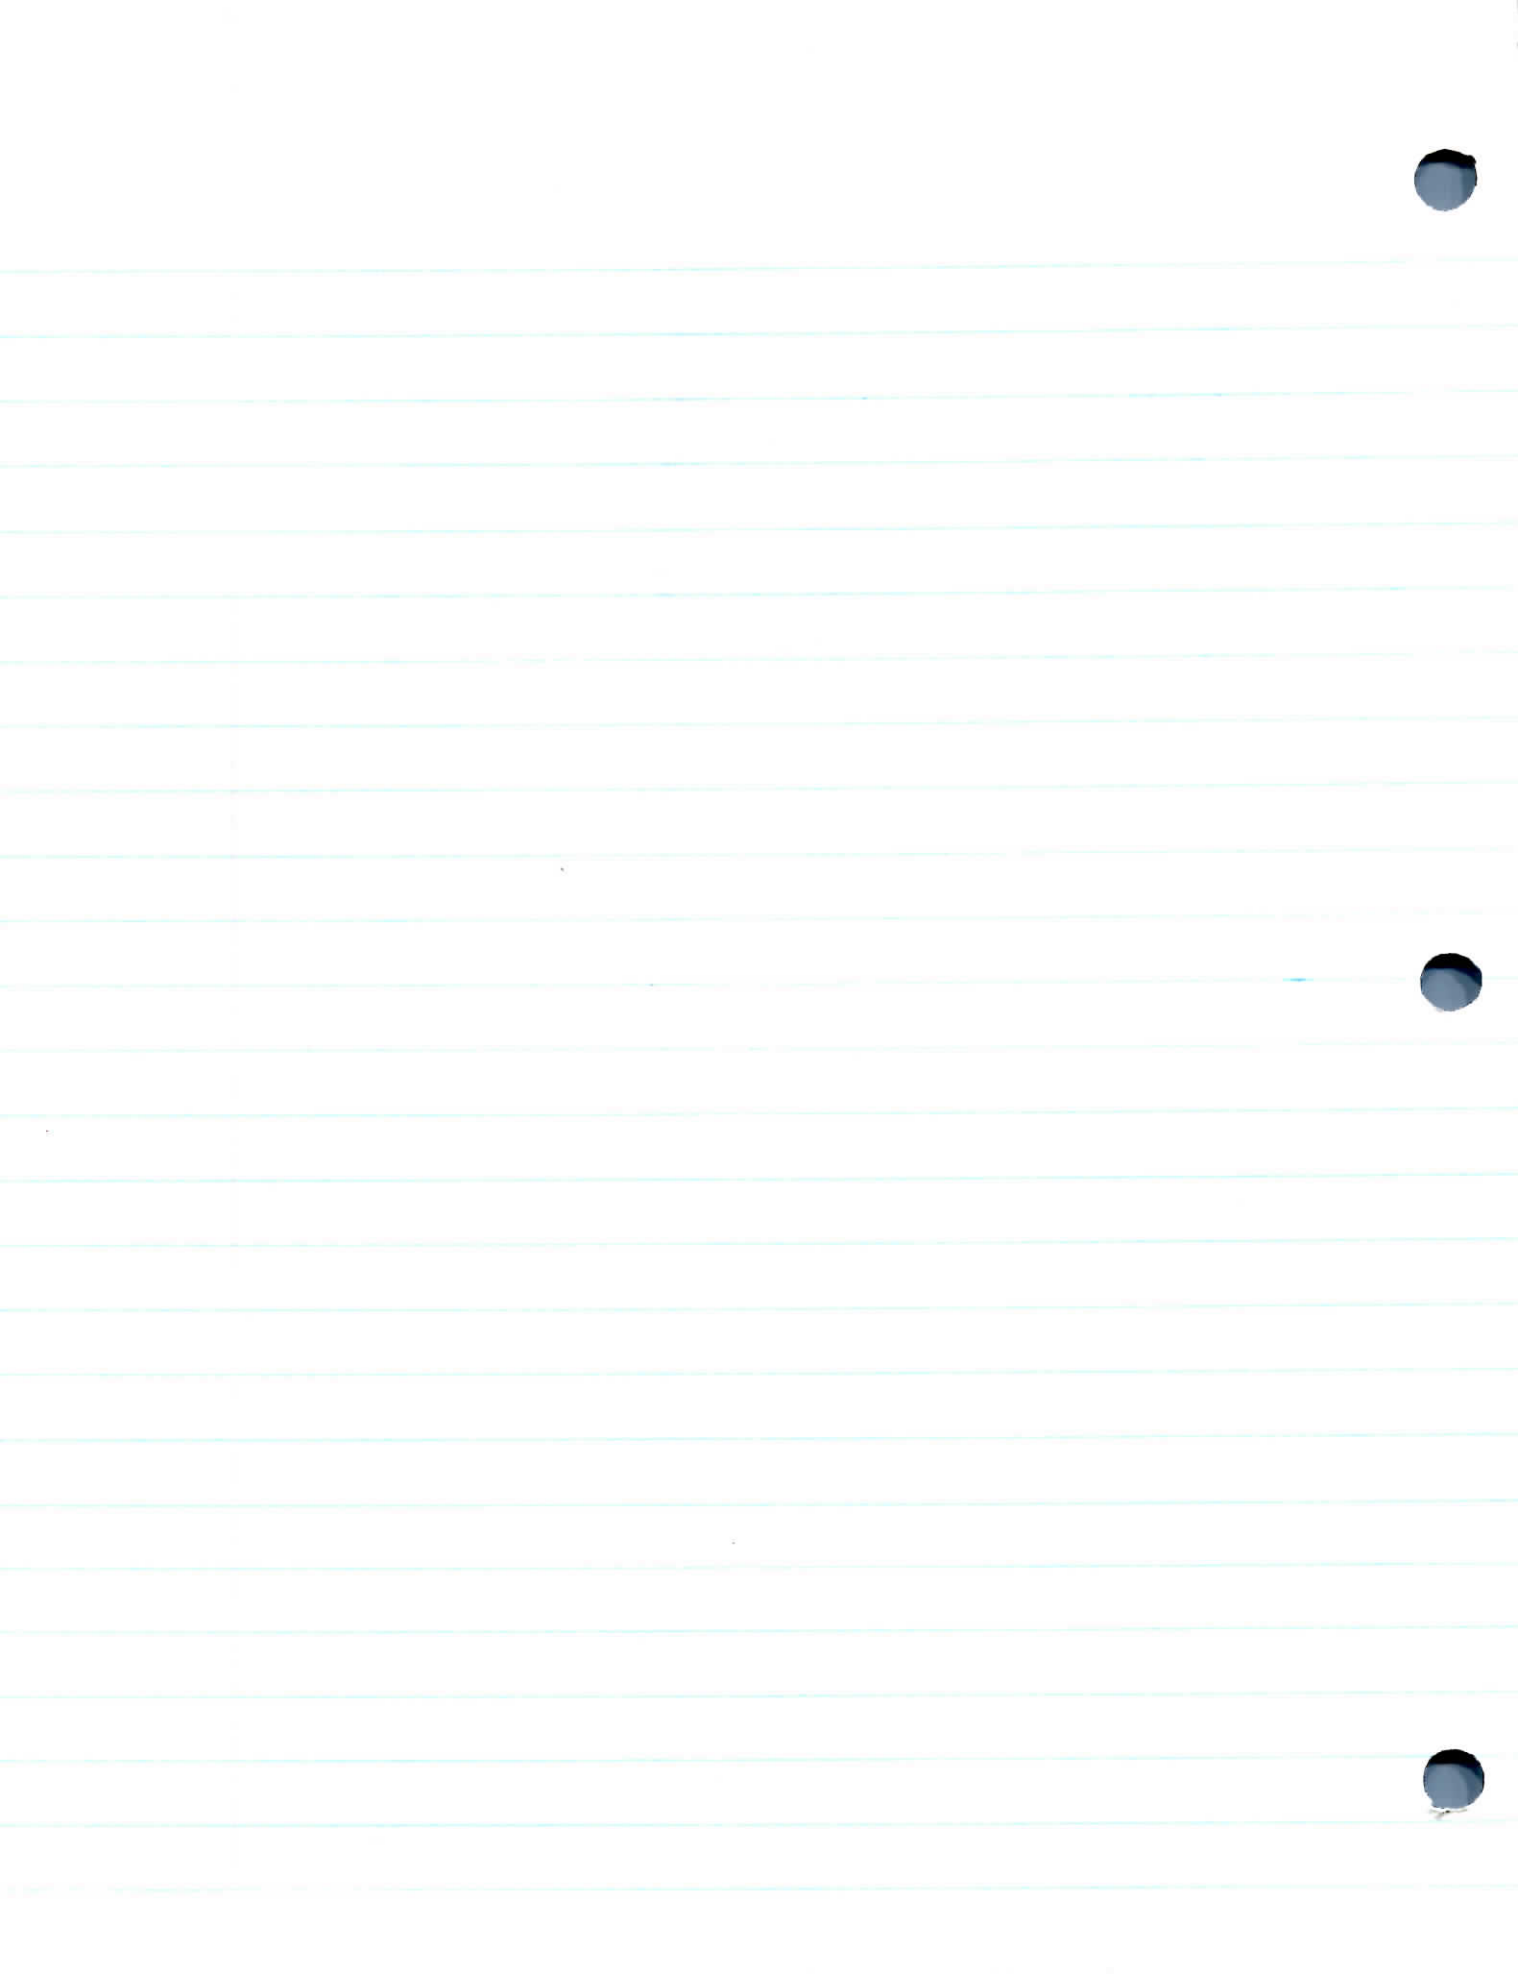

Edmund got out and ran, "Thanks Willy! Thanks a lot!"

Willy nodded as he sped off.

It wasn't over yet. Rit walked over TTT to the crash site and put extra bullets in Fart and Mr. Sellers, "You'll do better next time. I know you will."

It really didn't seem like Fart and Mr. Sellers were going to have a next time.

Chapter 49: Gabe Out the Secret Service Men

At the White House...

Edmund ran up to the front door to be met by gunfire. Edmund dropped to the ground and fired at some more guards. Two guards walked out of the front door. Edmund kicked one in the stomach and slammed his uyi against the back of the guard's neck. The other guard lurched for Edmund but was easily gunned down.

Edmund ran into the White House and hit the deck. Laser blasts blazed right over him. Edmund fired in all directions until his gun clip ran out. The lasers stopped and Edmund reloaded.

Edmund walked up to some storage room, "I better hurry up. More guards are gonna be swarmin' all over this place."

"You're not supposed to enter," Ed Mason explained.

"Who's gonna stop me?" Edmund grinned, "You fu--in' amateur."

"We are," John Due said off in the distance.

Suddenly Edmund felt a seering pain in his left arm. He had been shot. Ed went in back of Edmund. Ed rammed his uzi in Edmund's back. John ran up and kicked the uzi out of Edmund's hand. John put Edmund in a full nelson. Ed put a few punches in Edmund's face and stomach. Edmund spat blood on Ed's suit.

"I'll teach you," Ed told Edmund. 280

as kicked Edmund in the balls.
John and Ed switched. Ed held Edmund in the full nelson.

John walked into the storage room, "100 proof oughta do it."

John came back out. He removed his handkerchief, "This ain't alcohol."

"Woah," Edmund said inquisitively,
"What the fu-- is that?"

"Merely 100 proof acid," John said placing the handkerchief on Edmund's left arm.

"Ahhhh - shiiiiiiiiiii - - -
!" Edmund said in dire pain.
John took Edmund's uzi and rammed it into Edmund's stomach.
John next took the uzi slammed it in a slapping motion against Edmund's face. "I'll buck your fu-fu-- in' a- oww!"

"It seems you need another treatment," Ed said as he put more acid on Edmund's arm.

"Fu-- oww fu--you!"
Edmund said in major pain. "I'll 287

I - I'll g - get you fu - - ers."

"Yeah right," John said dropping Edmund on the ground. Ed and John started kicking Edmund. They would not stop. Edmund was not moving. Ed kicked and suddenly Edmund grabbed his leg. Ed tripped bumping the table with the acid. Some of the acid fell on Ed's face and went in his eyes.

"Awe ow fu - -!" Ed said losing his eyesight.

Edmund punched John and kicked him to the ground. John was on the floor dazed. Edmund took the acid bottle and poured it down Ed's mouth, "How's it taste, huh?"

John got up and ran toward Edmund. Edmund grabbed Dead Ed's gun. John ran fast and hard, "I'll crack your fu - - in' neck." A shot went off. John looked down, "Uh - uh - uh - awe 282"

- awww!!!" Edmund shot John in the penis. Edmund stood up with a handkerchief. John fell to his knees, "no p - please." Edmund put the acid on the handkerchief.

"You fu - - er you wouldn't," John hoped. Edmund walked up to John, "no, hay, it was just a joke. C'mon pal. Awww eeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeeee - - -!"

"That was a joke too, pal," Edmund pushed the lifeless John due to the ground.

Edmund's left arm was out of commission. He had cracked and broken ribs. He had immense bruises and a headache. Edmund put the eye strap around him and flung open the storage room door. Deen and David were bound and gagged. Edmund freed them from there bonds.

"Thank you my good man," Deen told Edmund.

"What the fu - - happened to you?" (283)

David asked.

"It's a long story. Where's Scott?"
Edmund asked.

"I think he's up on the space-station," Den explained.

"He's behind all of it," David said, "he kidnapped us."

"Can you clear my name?" Edmund asked.

"I'm sorry," David explained, "you're up the creek. Scott has the chip that clears you all. You're in trouble."

"We've got nothin' on him," Den said.

"Where are you goin'?" David called.

"Go the S. S. C.!" Edmund called back. "Gipsword, your as-is fu--ed. I'll get you for all of this shi-!"

"Good luck!" Den called to Edmund.

"For who?" David asked.

"Why do you ask?" Den asked.

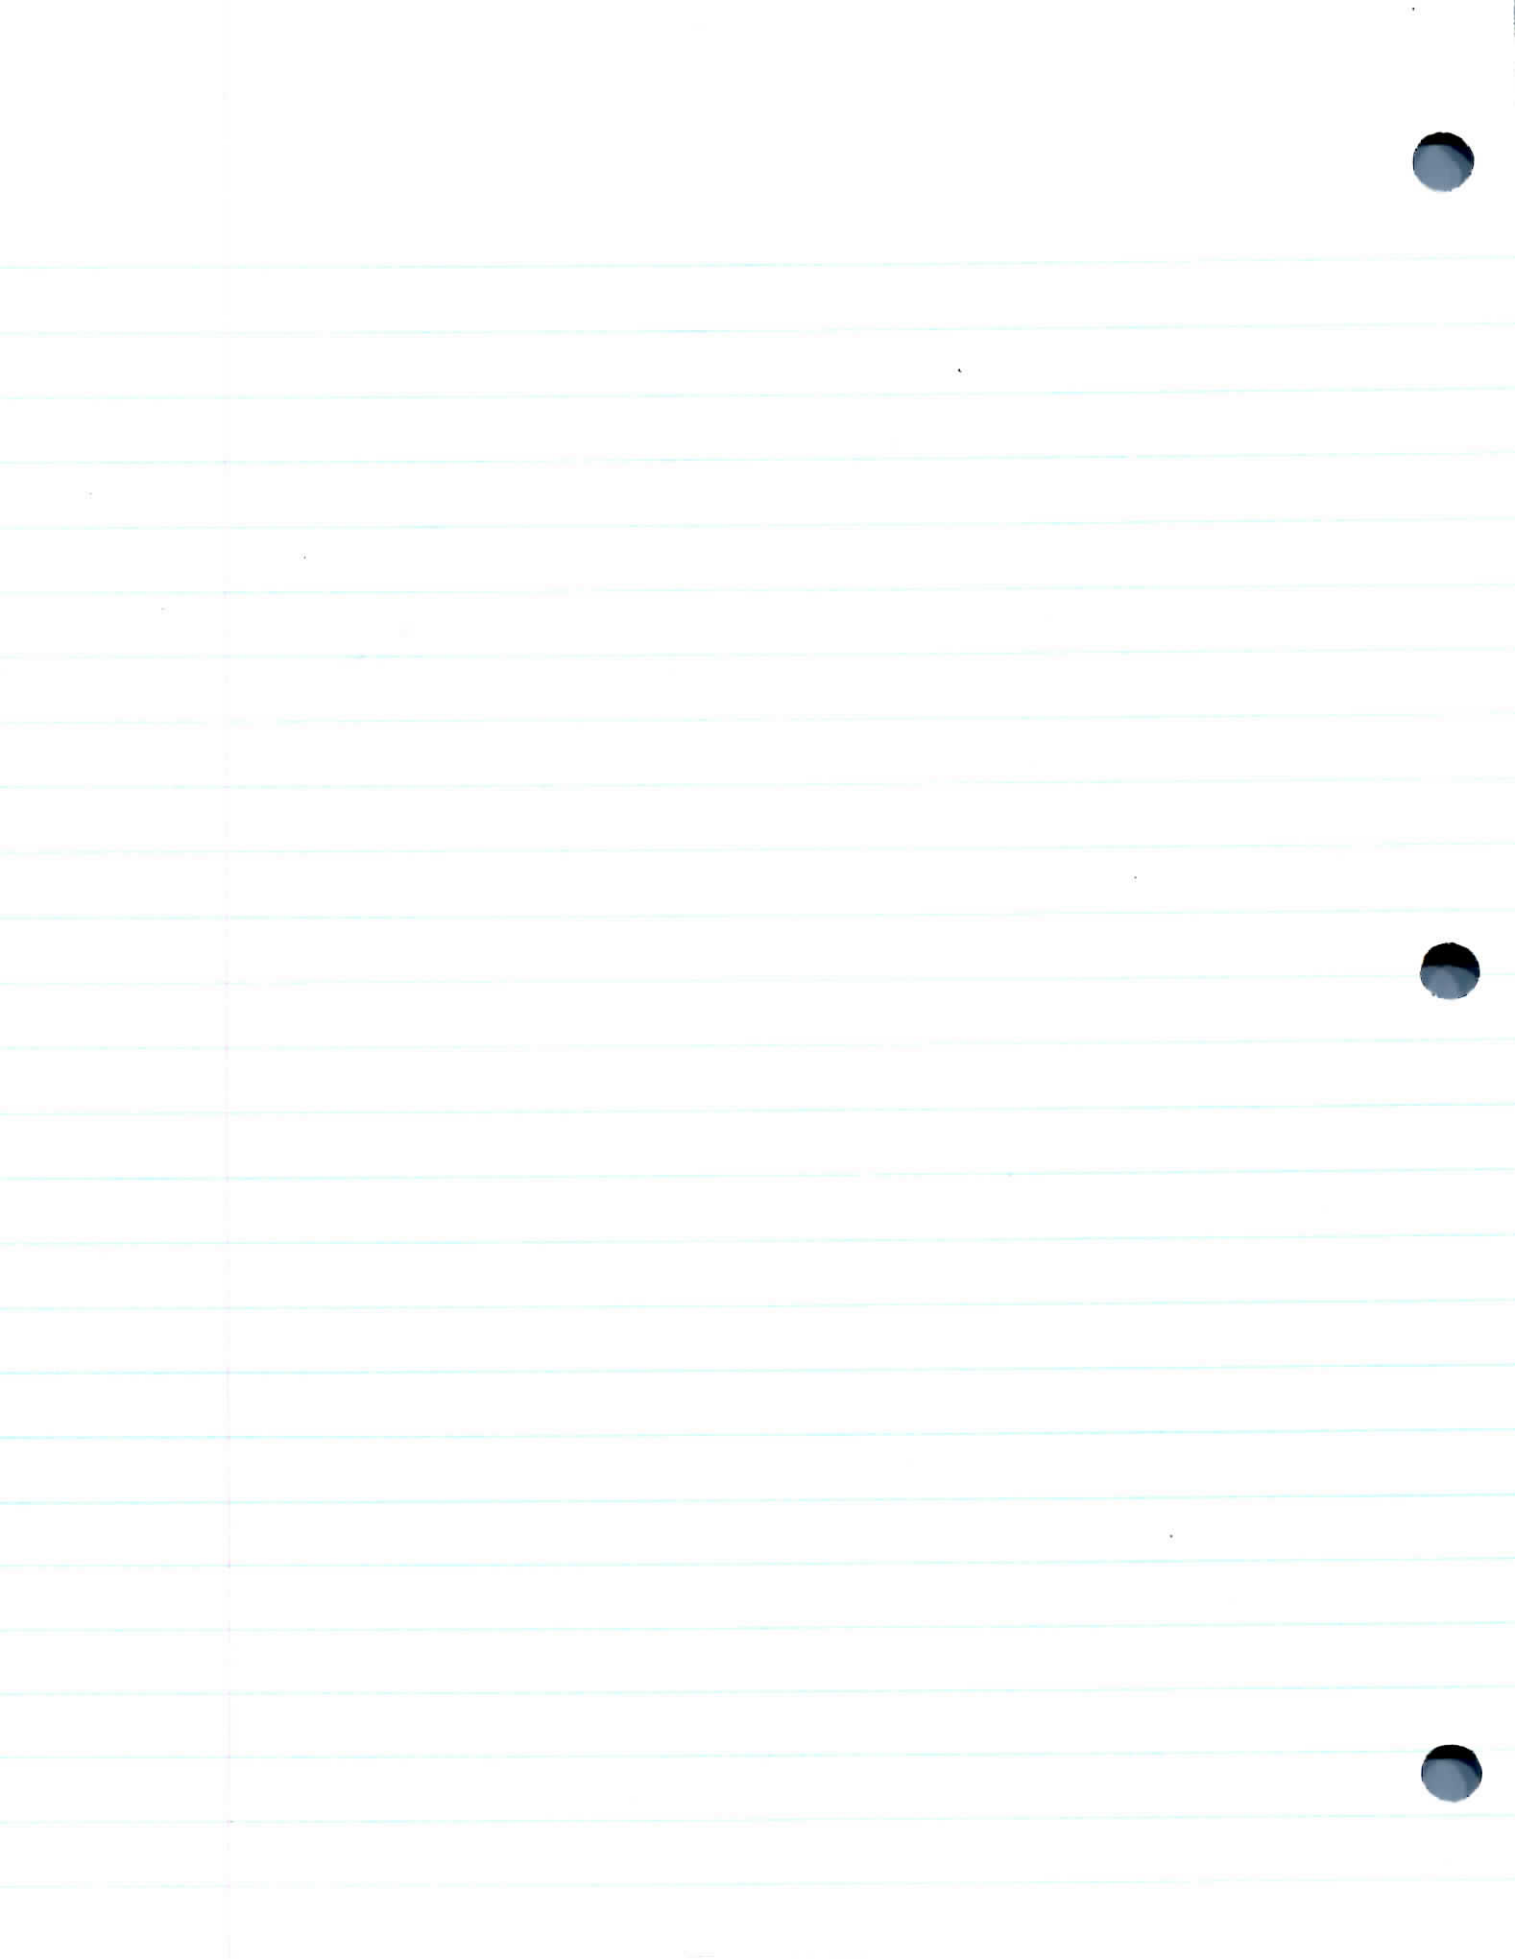

"Whenever Edmund gets that hyped, 284)

Someone gets fu--ed up," David replied.

"I don't believe that," Deen disagreed, "He's just one man."

"Look outside." David pointed.

"No shi!" Deen agreed, "He's an animal."

Chapter 50: The Science Project

On the S.D.P....

Scott walked over to Cathleen Cooke's lab, "Hello Cathleen."

"Hello Pres.," Cathleen waved.

"What are you working on?" Scott asked.

"This drug," Cathleen explained, "It stops the brain waves, blood, air, and anything else flowing. I feel it could be useful against Edmund."

"When will it be ready?"

"Soon soon."

Suddenly Scott's beeper went off, "Where's your phone."

"Over there," Cathleen pointed toward the door.

"Thanks," Scott dialed the numbers, "Hello they have, they were, they have been, they're going to, he has, he is, & am, -shi-!"

"What is it?" Cathleen asked

"Nothin', uh look, I'll see you later," Scott walked out the door at a speedy pace.

On the Earth at the forest.

Edmund got to his ship. He opened the hatch and took out the first aid kit. He was bleeding heavily. Edmund put a bandage on his left arm's wound. His arm was terribly damaged.

Edmund put the kit back in the cockpit. He next climbed in and placed his helmet on his soar head, "Su-- that shi-. Forget this Ja-n helmet. I'll just use the head phone." Edmund took off for the S.S.C. "Your as-is cooked yip-shi-."

At the S. S. C.

"Please clear yourself for entry," Captain Jevre suggested.

"This is Edmund Scine."

"I didn't no you were coming," D. J. told Edmund.

"You mean your not gonna blow me away?" Edmund asked.

"Why, what the fu - - is goin' on?"

Edmund landed in a minute. He hopped out still soar.

"What the fu - - happened?" D. J. asked.

"Yipseword is crumby, Oreb corrupt," Edmund explained.

"These are large accusations," D. J. asked, "do you have proof?"

"What the fu - - D. J. took at me!" Edmund was upset, "Is he aboard?"

"No," D. J. answered. "Oreb at Petya to see Cathleen Cooke."

"Get ahold of Captain Neff."
Edmund ordered.

"O-k," D.J. agreed.

On the S.D.P.

"So you're sayin' Edmund is on a rampage?" Captain Neff asked Scott.

"Exactly," Scott answered, "Gee's put Mike Speed, Gert, and Mr. Sellers in the hospital. Gee's murdered Ed Mason and John Doe, my Secret Service man. Now he's after me."

A panel operator called to Captain Neff, "Captain Jeune is calling sir."

Captain Jeune spoke, "Neff, is Scott Yipsword aboard?"

Scott nodded to Neff, "Yes, he is."

D.J. continued, "We're sending a force over to collect him."

"Why?" Neff asked.

"Sir," the panel operator said, "2891

Our sensors are picking up a ship being ready for takeoff." Neff ended the transmission.

On the D.S.C.

"You can't go Edmund," D.J. said, "I won't let you."

"Da - it D.J.," Edmund explained, "I have to clear my name. No one's gonna stop me."

"Alright," D.J. replied, "If you die, it's your fault."

"Thanks," Edmund said while feeling his left arm. It was completely gone out. His arm was dead.

Edmund ran down to the docking bay. He once again hopped into his fighter. Edmund took off to be met by laser fire. D.J. used the now-operative D.S.C. lasers to take out the lasers on the D.S.P.

Edmund safely landed to have his ship surrounded by guards. Edmund took off inside the ship. This scattered the guards. Edmund re- 290 landed and hopped out. Edmund pulled his laser and wounded the guards. Edmund knew exactly where he was going. He wanted to go to the control center. Edmund lit the half full laser fluid clip and threw it the opposite way. The guards were blocked off.

Edmund looked into a dark room. He felt a pain against the back of his neck. The lights flicked on. Cathleen stood with a needle gun. Edmund stood and Cathleen kicked him down again. Edmund got up and grabbed her arm. She used his force and threw him into the wall. Edmund wanted the needle gun. Cathleen kicked Edmund in the face and then did damage to his chest and stomach, more damage. Edmund stood up again but soon collapsed.

Cathleen had a grin on her face, "You've been a bad boy. It's time to pay for your misdeeds." Edmund was back down. Cathleen broke down, "This won't hurt, it'll kill." She injected the drug into the helpless Edmund's, left arm. "Are you dead."

"Fu-- no!" Edmund used a hard uppercut knocking Cathleen over on her back. The needle gun went flying. The needle gun landed point down into Cathleen's right breast. ALL of the fluid went into her straight for the heart.

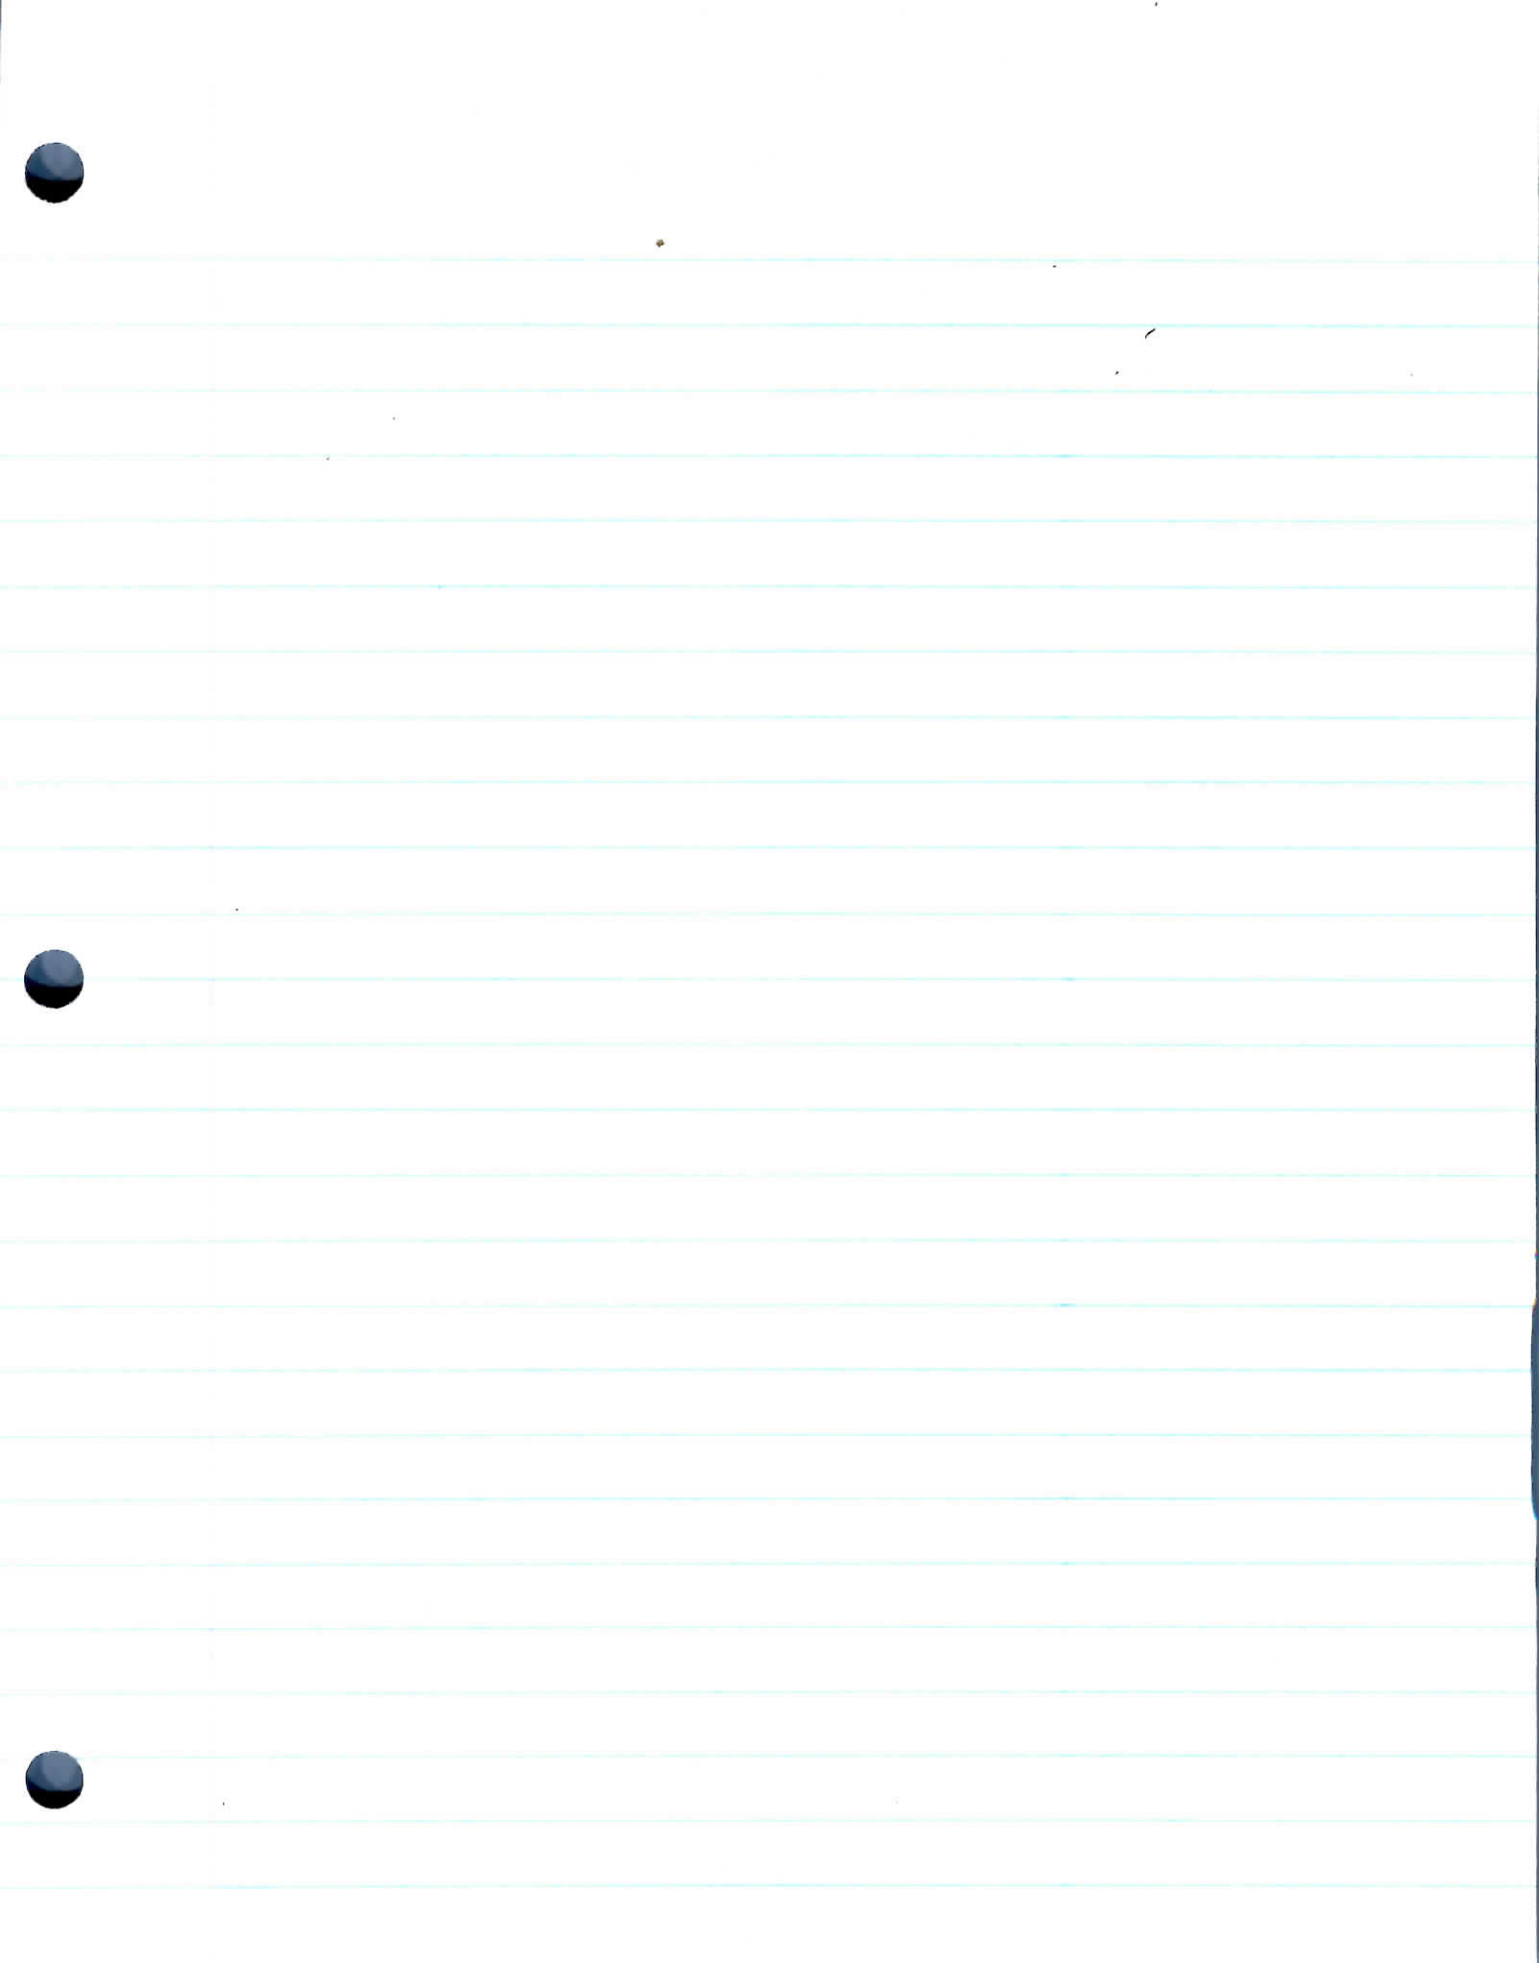

"Tell me Cathy, would there ever be anything between you and Scott?"

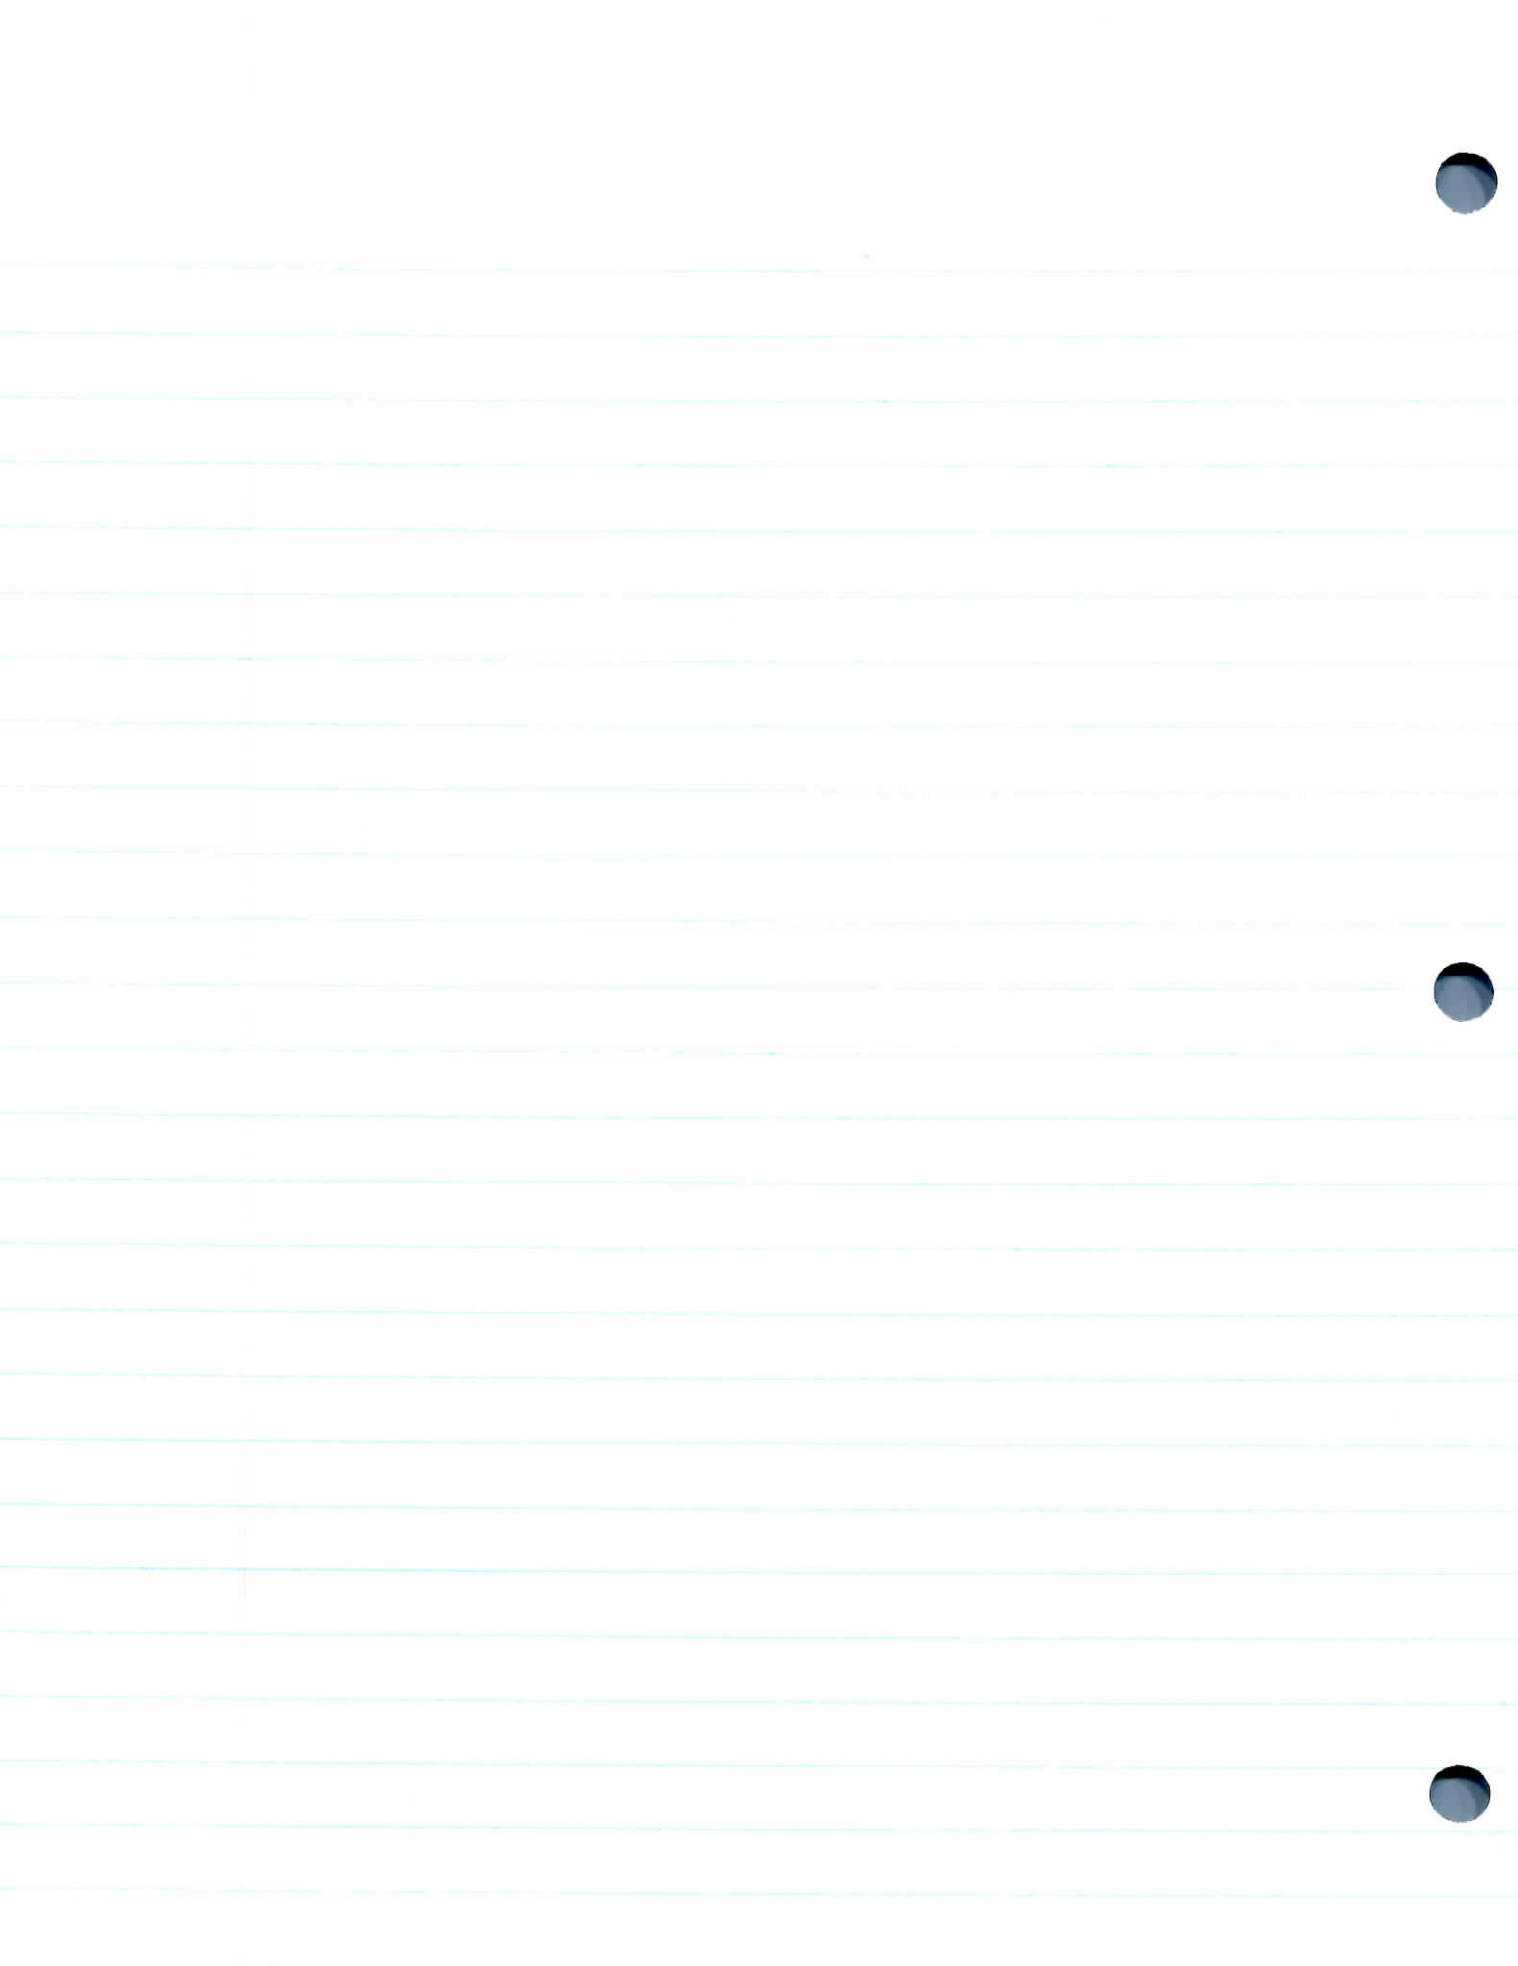

Cathleen said on her death bed, "Fu-- no. Oh-oh a - and E-Edmund, I-I'm so-sorry." Cathleen died.

Scott ran in, "Rooooooooo!" He pulled his laser. Edmund ducked and crawled into a room that was directly on the side of the locking bay. Edmund shot a hole into the wall and ran through.

"Guards!" Scott exclaimed, "Get 292

as-is in here right fu--in' now!
You've done it now. 'I'll get you.'
Edmund flew safely back to the S.B.C. He was almost done.

Chapter 51: The Big Battle

at the S. S. C. ...

Edmund landed. He did not jump out of his ship this time. He fell out.

"Were we too late Marileva?" Willy G. asked.

"Let's find out. At least it's over," G. Yerrison hoped as lasers flew over his head.

"Not yet," Marileva said. Willy G. and G. Yerrison took Edmund away from the action.

Marileva saw Kut, "Well well Kut. I'm ready."

With Edmund...

"Give in prisoners," Kat told the three.

"I'll take him," Willy said as he lurched for Kat. Kat tripped Willy and hit him over the head with his gun. "Shi- that fu--in' hurts."

"It's supposed to," Kat said picking Willy up by the neck. Next, Kat punched Willy a few hundred times in the stomach. Kat stood the unconscious Willy 2. up against a wall. Kat used Willy's face like a punching bag. Kat then kicked Willy in the stomach. Kat used a powerful uppercut on Willy, knocking Willy into the wall, putting a dent in the wall. "You're next Jerrison," Kat pointed, "I kicked his as-."

Edmund drew his gun at the same time Kat pulled his. They blew each others guns out of their hands. Kat was dazed. Edmund got a punch in the face. 2957

"That was luck," Kat said while tripping Edmund.

"That was skill." Edmund said while kicking Kat against the wall. Kat ran to Edmund. Edmund threw him over on his back. Kat flipped up and back kicked Edmund against the wall.

"I grow weary of this," Kat said while pulling his bayooka four shot. Edmund jumped out of the way as Kat put a hole clear through the dented wall. Edmund tripped over Willy while dodging another shot. Jerry Gerrison rolled a laser to Edmund. Kat fired and Edmund disintegrated his shot. Edmund fired again into the barrel of Kat's bayooka. Kat threw it off as it exploded. Next, Kat pulled his knife. He tried to jab it into Edmund's stomach. Edmund grabbed Kat's wrist and swung his body into Kat's. Next Edmund 296 elbowed Kat in the face three times. Edmund flipped Kat on his back, grabbed the knife, and put it to Kat's neck.

"I win," Edmund said helping Kat up. Kat tripped Edmund. Edmund promptly rose and jumped Kat face first into the wall. Kat was knocked out. Edmund collapsed.

"I've gotta get you too the sick boy," Jerry exclaimed, "you guys work to da-m much!"

With Marleva and Kit...

The two women were going around in a circle, "You fu--in' bitch. You fu--in' alien."

"You don't know what you're talking about," Marleva replied, "Why are you doing this?"

Kit pulled her knife. Marleva grabbed Kit's wrist, tripped her and put the knife to her throat. Kit threw Marleva off and grabbed 297 her gun. Kit fired. Marileva raised her hand. The bullets exploded in mid air. Kit knew her weapon was useless. Kit threw the gun to the ground and got her power rifle. She took Marileva by surprise. Kit hit the gun on the back of Marileva. By now, 15 strikes later, Marileva was on hands and knees. Kit kicked Marileva over on her back. Kit was looking to smash Marileva's head. Marileva tripped Kit. This gave Marileva enough time to get up. Marileva picked Kit up. Kit broke out of Marileva's hold. Kit punched and Marileva grabbed her hand. Marileva kicked Kit in the stomach three times. Marileva twisted Kit's arm to her back. Kit put her leg in back of Marileva and forced backwards. Kit tripped Marileva with that technic. Marileva was dazed.

"I'm gonna bill you big-," Kit took the pin out of a grenade and was about to place it on Marileva. Marileva had no time to move. She gazed at the grenade concentrating her powers. The grenade exploded in Kit's now bloody hand.

While Kit was too busy looking at her hand Marileva got up.

Marileva punched Kit in the stomach, "That's for those that were framed." She punched Kit again in the stomach, "That's for Jerry and Willy." Marileva punched Kit in the stomach for the third time, "That's for my kids missing their parents." Marileva punched Kit in the face, "That was for me." Marileva punched Kit for the last time with the hardest punch ever recorded knocking Kit clear across the room, "And that, you fu-- in bite-, that was for my husband. " Marileva shook her hand, "That even hurts a Dorodan's fist. "

Captain Jevone saw all of it, " Shiiiiiii- ! I'm glad I'm on your side. " Marileva smiled.

Chapter 52: The Confession

At the S. S. C. sick bay...

D. J. and Maribou walked over to Edmund's bed. "How are they?"

D. J. asked.

"Not good," Jerry explained, "they're both gonna die before the night is out. Willy took heavy blows to the chest, plus his asthma. He's not breathin'. Luckily we have life support. His spine is gone. I can't fix that. His skull took major blow. He, uh, is just fu--ed up. Life support is the only thing keeping him going."

Edmund has life arm, has had 3017 of sleep, malnutrition, and his body has taken a toll. He is just out of it for good. His body has taken a huge toll, - I - I can't do anything. His vital signs are very low. He too is on life support.

A nurse entered, "Uh three men to see you Captain and Dr. J."

"Thanks nurse," Jerry said as he walked out with D.J.

Uh Mr. President, Mr. V. President, and you Gipsword. Scott, you're under arrest.

"On what charge," Scott said with a grin.

"I'm afraid he's got us," Jerry said.

"Nope," Dean disagreed.

"What do you mean," D.J. asked.

David explained, "Dean and I found the evidence. We went to your home."

"That's not legal without -"

Scott was interrupted.

"a warrant," David grinned, "we found this." David held up the computer chip with the pardons.

Scott was stunned but he didn't show it; "Oh well. yeah I did it and I'm glad. Edmund's gonna die anyway so it didn't phase me. I did what I wanted and succeeded. I've won."

"You realize Scott that you will be, or you could get the chair," Deen said.

In the sick bay...

Marilva sat on Edmund bed, "I've done this before. I hope I can do it again." Marilva grasped Edmund's left arm. Edmund felt a warm healing feeling over the arm. Marilva had fixed his arm. She placed his arm down and lifted Edmund. She gave him a one minute kiss then she fu--ed her 10% Dorodian husband. When she kissed him, his eyes opened. When she fu--ed him, he joined in. By the end Edmund was all healed.

"What about Willy?" Edmund asked.

"I'm not going to fu--him," Marilva answered. "I can fix him up though. Don't go away." She kissed him. Soon after Marilva used her Dorodan healing powers, Willy awoke.

"Thanks, I needed that Marilva," Willy said.

Edmund got out of bed. Marilva grabbed him, "You need to rest." Edmund pulled Marilva to him, chest to chest, "We can do a little resting tonight."

"I like that," Marilva said before they kissed.

"Right now, I have something to do," Edmund said treading out the door.

"Edmund, no!" Marilva said running after her spouse.

"Edmund ????" Deen, David, D.J., and Jerry asked.

"Edmund ?????????? But," Scott said astonished.

"Very Scott," Edmund said as he punched Scott so hard that it dislocated his face. Edmund was about to do more damage when Marileva grabbed him and pulled him toward her.

"Edmund look at me," Marileva ordered, "Forget him."

"But?"

"Fu-- him," Marileva continued, "Fu-- that piece of shi-. It's over."

Edmund hugged Marileva. It was time to slow down. He deserved it after all he'd been through.

They walked past Scott in a corner of the corridor cringing with fear and pain, mostly fear. He must have had a LOT of fear.

Kat and Kit walked up to Deen, David, D.J., and Jerry. The guards carted the untitled, unmasked, low self-asserted, unprided, unfaced Scott Hysivoid to the prison compartment.

"There goes a good couple," Kat
said.

"Yeah, a couple I misjudged," Kit said with an ice pack on her face and a bandaged hand. "I wish I had it that well."

"Well," David stepped up, "this vice-president could use a first lady."

"Are you trying to make a pass at me," Kit said with a clenched fist.

"Well ugh," David felt he was in deep trouble.

"We'll go out, but that's about it," Kit agreed.

"She's been known for being wrong before," Kat said to his sister.

"Kat, - go fu - - yourself," Kit said happily. David and Kit walked off.

"Well, there goes another couple,"

Deen deduced.

"No shi-", Jerry said in envy of the couples.

At the White House in the Oval Office...

Deen explained, "We have added new people to the Garden of War. Cathleen Coobe, John Due, and Ed Mason. Scott Gipswood is permanently behind bars. Gort, Mr. Sellers, and Mike Speed are on life support. It doesn't look good for them. But that is what they get for being selfish and not being companionlike. They made a big mistake. I wouldn't blame you if you never forgave them. If they EVER get out of the hospital, they'll be facing a court martial."

"You don't have to go that far," Marikva replied.

Deen continued, "An update on the assignments states that Kat ^{10/20/2021} ~~10/20/2021~~

Geff, Gerry, and Marileva would be on Colt. Edmund, Willy, Pook, Billy, Acro, Kit, and David will stay on Earth."

"Woah, wait that's going to far."

"But that's what happens in jobs. You knew that would probably happen when you got married."

"FU-- it then," Marileva said in rage, "my family is more important than this shi-- is job."

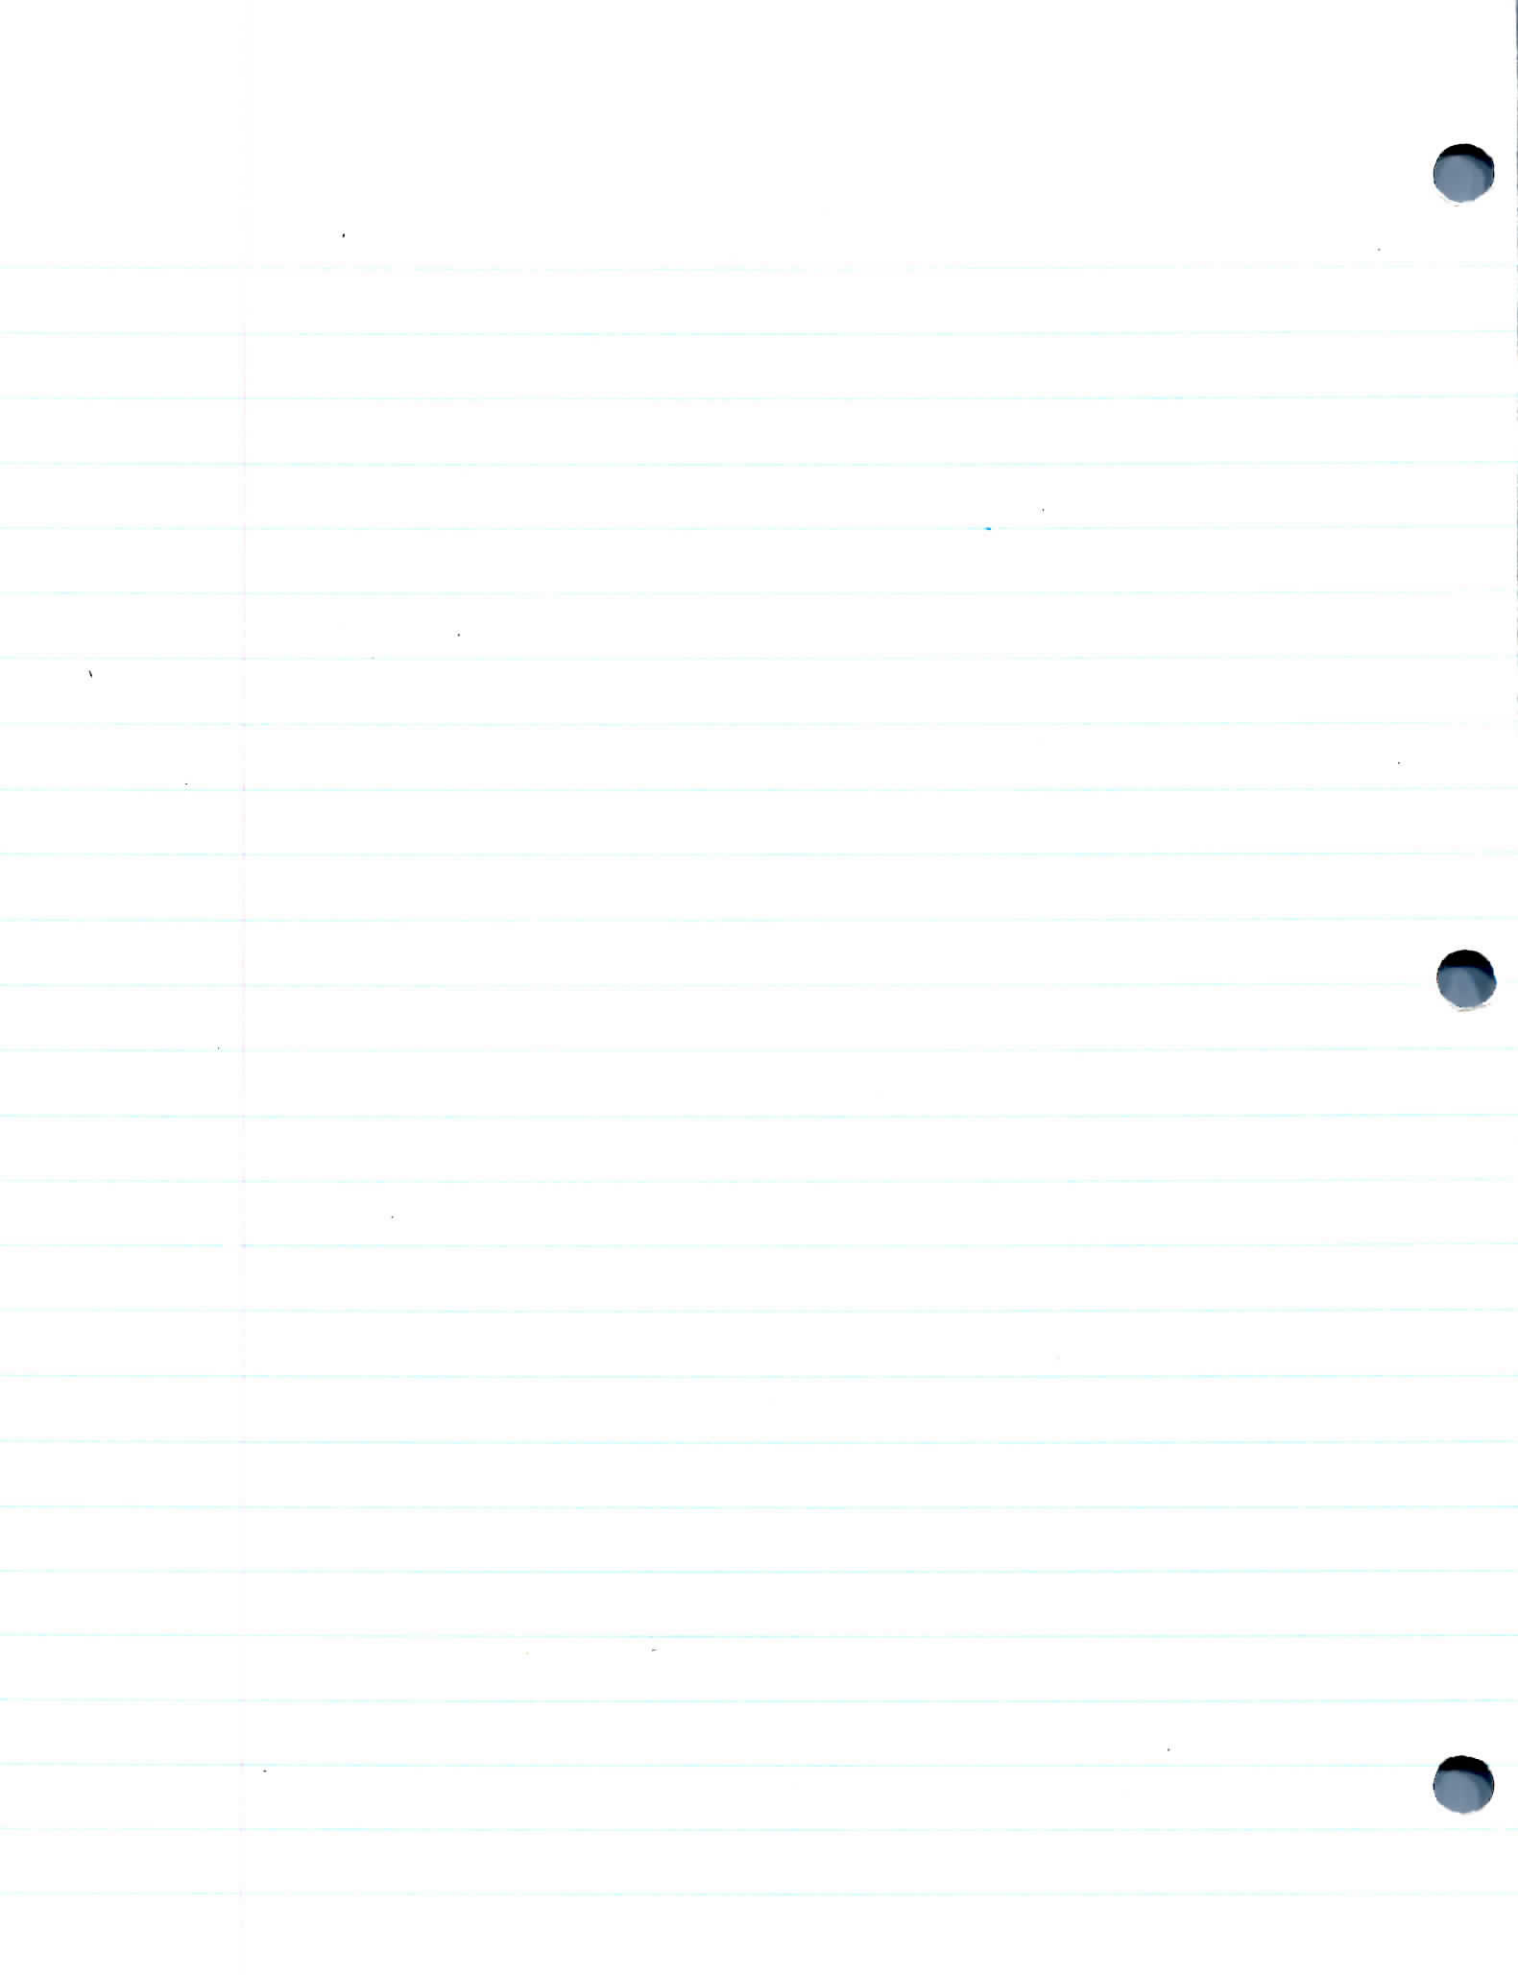

"Fine then," Deen gave in, "You can be on the Space Force."

"It's about fu-- in' time," Edmund added, "we hardly get any time to be together da-m."

Deen finished up, "I hereby congratulate Gerry, Willy, Marileva, and Edmund for ANOTHER good-ugh great job."

All left except for Kit and David. David got on one knee, "Kitty-- 308) w- would y- you m- marry me?"

Kit answered, "Well"

Chapter 53: What's Happened

Edmund Sims, Marileva Sims, E.J. Sims, and M.J. Sims finally got their time together, the time they deserved. Edmund and Marileva got their time too.

Captain D.J. Jerne, Doctor Jerry Garrison, and NOW Captain Neff, resumed repairs of BOTH ships.

Mibe Speed, Gert, and Mr. Sellers remained in the hospital.

Edl. Mason, John Due, and Cathleen Coobe joined Jordan Ripstein. 310

Erica Smith, Matt and Mimla, and Jeremy in the Garden of War.

The people of the United States would not give Scott Gipsword the satisfaction of dying. The rest of his miserable long miserable life will be spent in the S. S. C. jail compartment for his numerous crimes.

Willy Z. and Kit, stayed best friends of Edmund and Marilena. What a great friendship (huh?).

In case you were wondering David Majewski and, Kit (Killer Intuition Grooper), now Kitty married. Vice-President David S.
Majewski and Kitty Majewski,
How nice.

P. S.: David finally had sex and is no longer a virgin.

The fugitives are no longer fugitives.
David Majewski fixed it so they would not ever be in law trouble again.

Chapter 55: Special Thanks Ya:

God (Allah), my family, my "3" friends, the words ricochet, answer, and question, unwack rap music, good things and people (and I know who and what you are), my talent, my life, and things that have a meaningful reason.

Space Station Colt 6: Kat and Kit

This book tells you about what friendship is, what it really is. Edmund portrayed friendship excellently in this long Space Station Colt book. The longest Space Station Colt book in the series to be exact. Once again Edmund has outdone to himself. Personally, I can't wait for the sequel. This book is up there with Edmund's best, C.O.P.S., Space Station Colt 2 and 5, and the Original Space Station Colt.
