Chapter 76: Daughter of the Enemy

In a penthouse of California...

"Maribwa," Edmund said, "we need to talk."

"Bout what honey?" Maribwa asked.

"About that," Edmund explained, "you've changed."

"What do you mean?" Maribwa was confused.

"Ever since we got married, you've been different. What's the matter?"

"Could you excuse me for a second?" Maribwa asked.

"Sure," Edmund sat on the bed.

"What should I do?" Marileva spoke into her two way walk.

A voice came back, "Blank his memory. We cannot have him blow this opportunity."

"Okay, Marileva out," she went back into the other room.

"I've been thinkin', why did you make me forget about Erica?" Edmund asked.

"You know way too much," Marileva said.

"What?" Edmund was confused.

Marileva got on top of Edmund and hugged him, "You need to take a nap."

"No you're the one," a beautiful blond shot the lock off the door and aimed a needle gun at Marileva from ten feet away.

"What the fu-- is goin' on?" Edmund pulled Marileva off the bed and covered her on the floor.

"That's not your wife," the young lady said, "step away."

Marilena turned to Edmund, "Don't leave me Eddy."

Edmund pushed her away. The girl shot the string connected needle directly into the center of Marilena's forehead. Her eyes closed as she fell into Edmund's arms, "What did you do to her."

"I'm not done yet," the beautiful woman said as she flicked a switch. A thick yellow fluid went through the string, into the needle, and into Marilena's brain.

Edmund picked Marilena up and placed her on the bed, "What the fu-- is goin' on?!"

"My name is Angelica," she explained, "the daughter of Haven and Commander."

"You're beautiful," Edmund complimented.

"Thank you," she replied, "Erica and Marilena are on the Crystal Planet, your wife was switched when we invaded your planet and your family was captured. The Dorodans did have the cloning device back then. This Marileva if you'll look in her purse, is a Dorodan clone."

Edmund pulled out an I.D. card that said MI, "You have a legitament statement. I just don't know if I could trust you."

"If you couldn't trust me," Angelica asked, "why'd you give me that plain as day, easy as fu-- shot? When you were going after the Corporation, Erica's clone was blown away. My mother found out about Erica's second clone freeing you guys. My mother killed her too. She also knows about D.I. As soon as she found out, she seduced him. He's completely under her power as you were with Marileva's clone."

"But what did you do to her?" Edmund asked.

"She's under my complete control," Angelica replied. She sat on the bed next to Edmund.

Edmund felt for his 9mm underneath his pillow. "But why are you doing this."

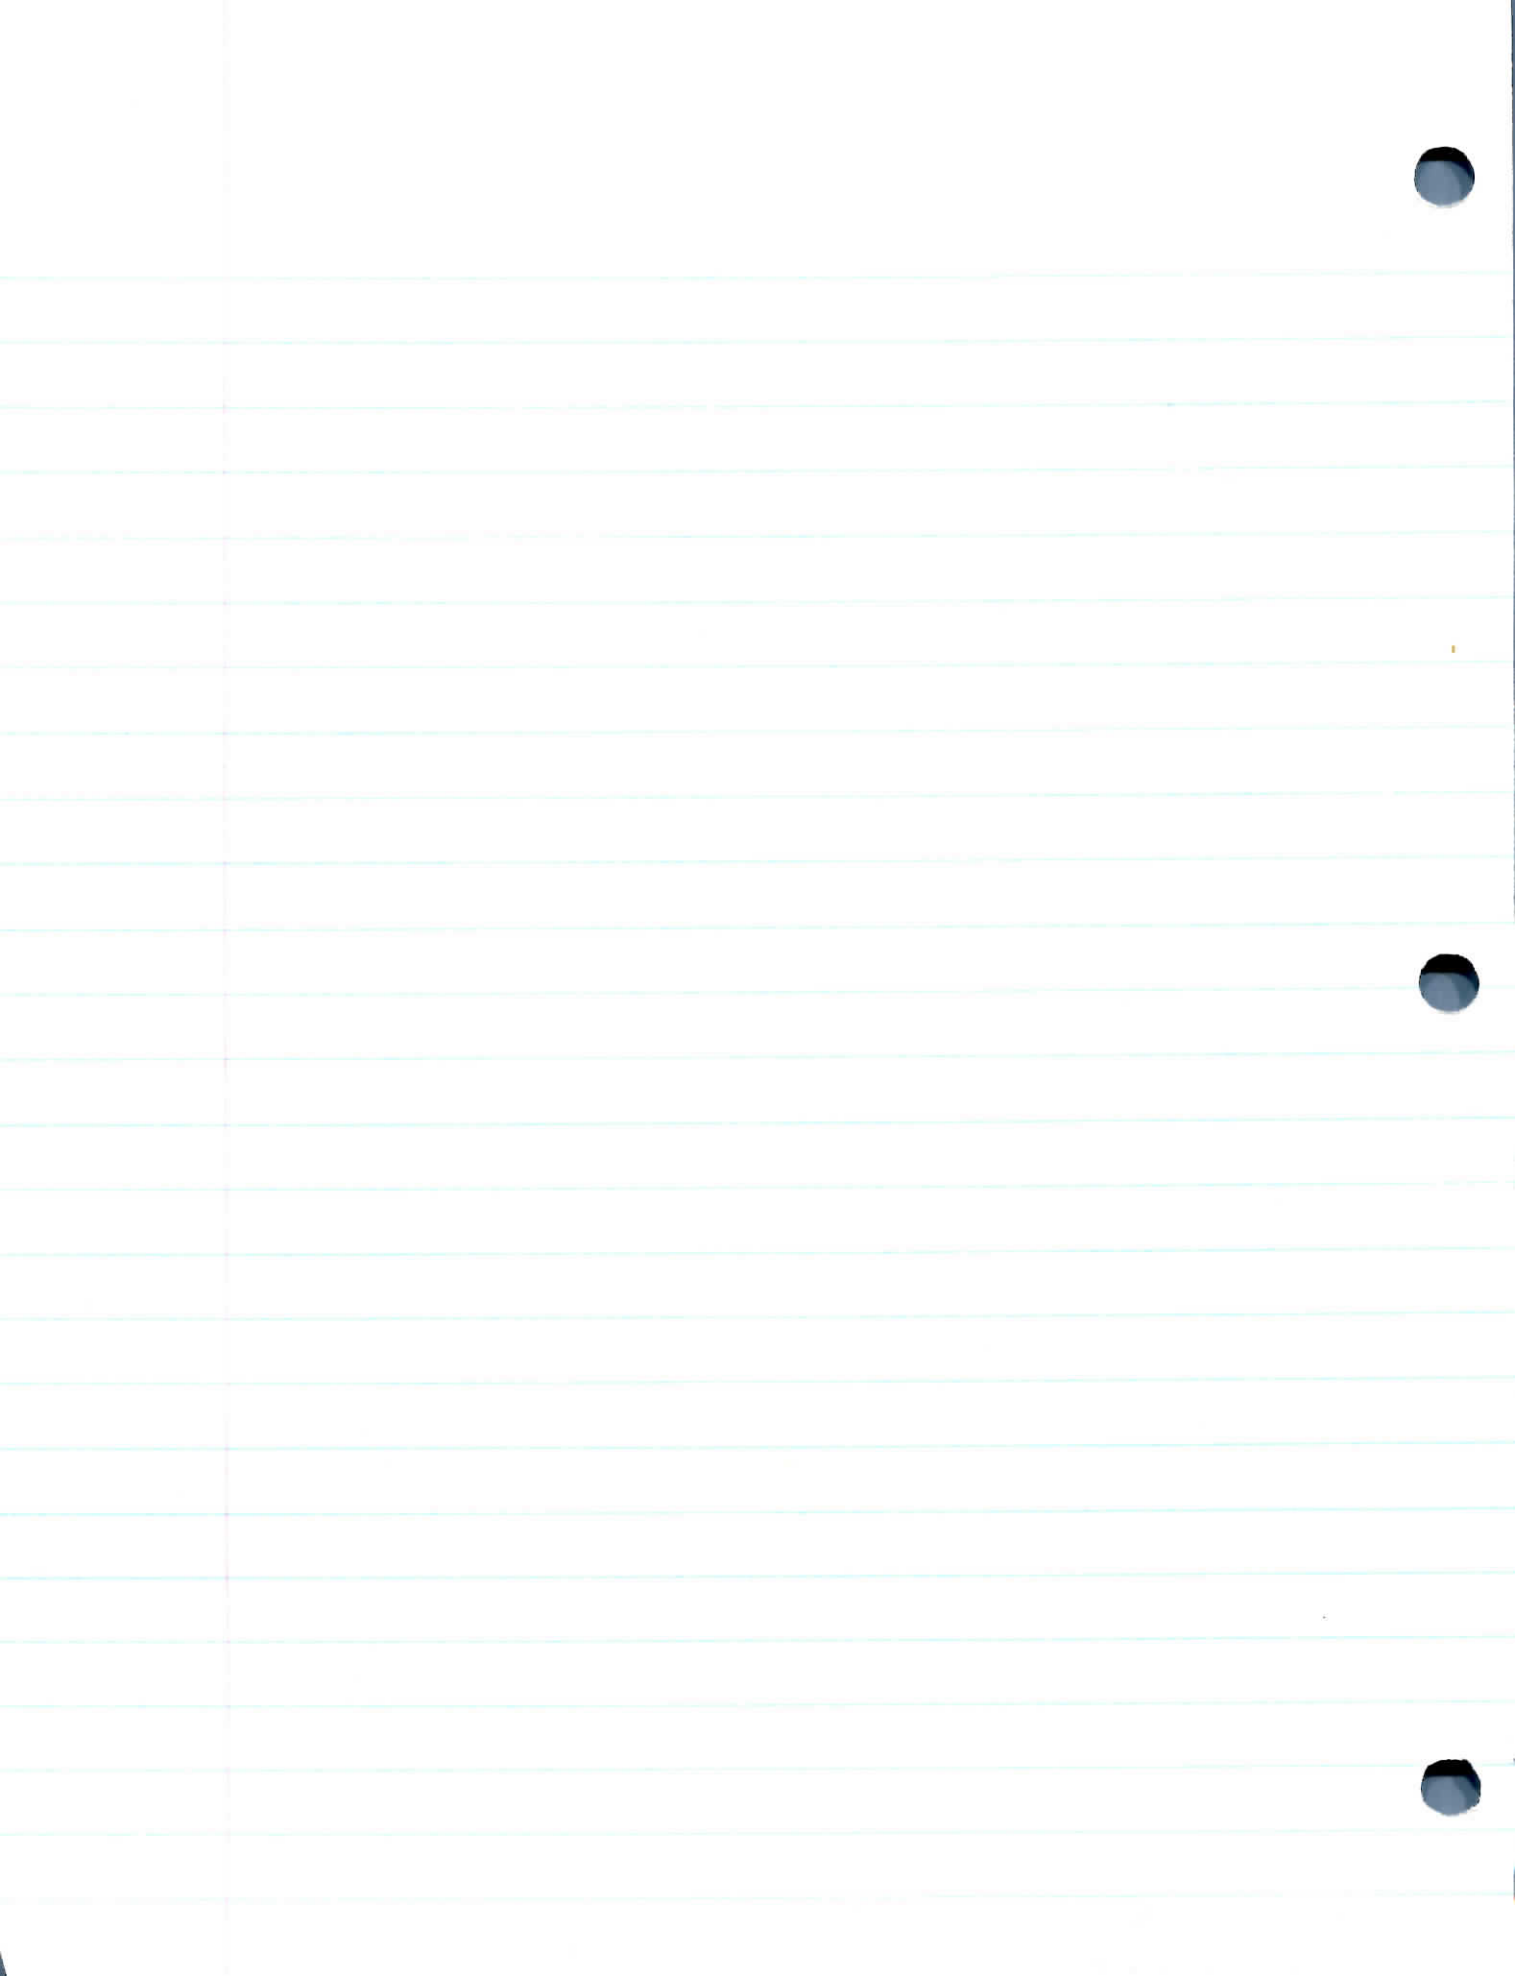

"I have my reasons," Angelica answered.

"Like what?" Edmund asked as he had a total grip on the gun.

"Like this," Angelica pulled a mini bottle out and sprayed a pink, chalky ^{sweet} on Edmund's face. He looked charmed as he dropped the gun and fell into Angelica's lap.

He then sat up and hugged Angelica. "Oh, yeah, fu-- me hard, Mommy."

"Works everytime," Angelica kissed Edmund. She grinned sinisterly

Chapter 77: The Hungry Pelican

"Oh, shi-, I feel wasted," Edmund said.

"Good morning," Angelica replied, "that was some great sex."

"What, you fu--ed me when I was under some spell?!" Edmund asked.

"Yeah, it was great," Angelica answered.

"Like mother, like daughter," Edmund deduced. "If we're gonna rescue our guys, what's the first move?"

"Do you have any connections?" Angelica asked.

"Yeah," Edmund just thought of something, "what about Mauleva's done?"

"I dumped her as - in the river," Angelica replied.

"Keep your mind on our work and off me," Edmund ordered.

"Sure," Angelica kissed Edmund and caressed him all over. "My mother has excellent taste."

"Woah stop," Edmund pushed Angelica away, "this isn't right."

"Maybe so. I'm only helping you out to defy my mother. I don't give a shi - s about the human race. I'm not doing it for you or your two girls. Only for me."

"Well then," Edmund explained, "we should at least get some breakfast."

"You're parvin'," Angelica replied.

"Oh thanks," Edmund said sarcastically.

"Oh Edmund," Angelica kissed him with her seductively colored lips. Edmund looked dippy and then fell out unconscious. "Shi-! I gotta learn to control that. At least I can get dressed."

Five minutes later...

"Wake up," Angelica shook Edmund.

Edmund woke up to see Angelica in a very sexy outfit. She wore tight designer jeans, a blue see through shirt where you could see her black bra, and high heels to top it off. "If I fu--ed Commander and got her pregnant, you Dorodans."

"You strapped?" Angelica asked.

"I got my 9 and my mini uni," Edmund answered. "What do you have?"

"I got my brainducer, my bottle, my 9, and my Ugun," she answered.

"Let me see that," Edmund examined it, "what does it do?" (142)

"It's an energy gun," Angelica explained, "it can do anything. Anything energy can deal with. You got a car?"

"Of course," Edmund replied. As they walked in the parking lot, Edmund still felt his loyalty toward Mameva but the immense Dorodian power of seduction in Angelica was so powerful. Angelica knew it for she like her mother wanted Edmund. She had basically the same desires of her mother.

"You drive a fu--in' Ferrari?!" Angelica was impressed. "My mother has great taste in men."

"The car comes with the job," Edmund replied, "so what's up with Heaven?"

"He's tired of the Dorodians. He wants to defect to the Space Force."

At the Hungry Pelican...

"You can't come in here. Only designated Me--'s Angels can come in. But your bitch- can come in," a tough lookin' biker replied.

"I'm nobody's bitch-," Angelica took out the U gun and shocked the biker. He fell out unconscious.

"Is he dead?" Edmund asked,

"No, just unconscious," Angelica answered.

An even bigger biker came to the door, "What do you want?"

"Get the fu-- outta the way. I'm here to see David Harley," Edmund said.

"You city fu--ers can't get in here unless you got an I.D. card."

"You stupid shi-, I used to be part of the Me--'s Angels. You know Jeremy. He used to be the fu--in' bartender. The Gurtalians against the Corporation."

"I'll have to ask David," the biker replied.

"I'm tired of this shi-," Edmund (444) shot the biker in the legs with his 9mm.

"You shouldn't have done that," David Harley walked up, "he was one of my best men Mr. Sims."

"Oh you remember me," Edmund replied.

"And who's this," David kissed Angelica's hand.

"This is Angelica," Edmund introduced them.

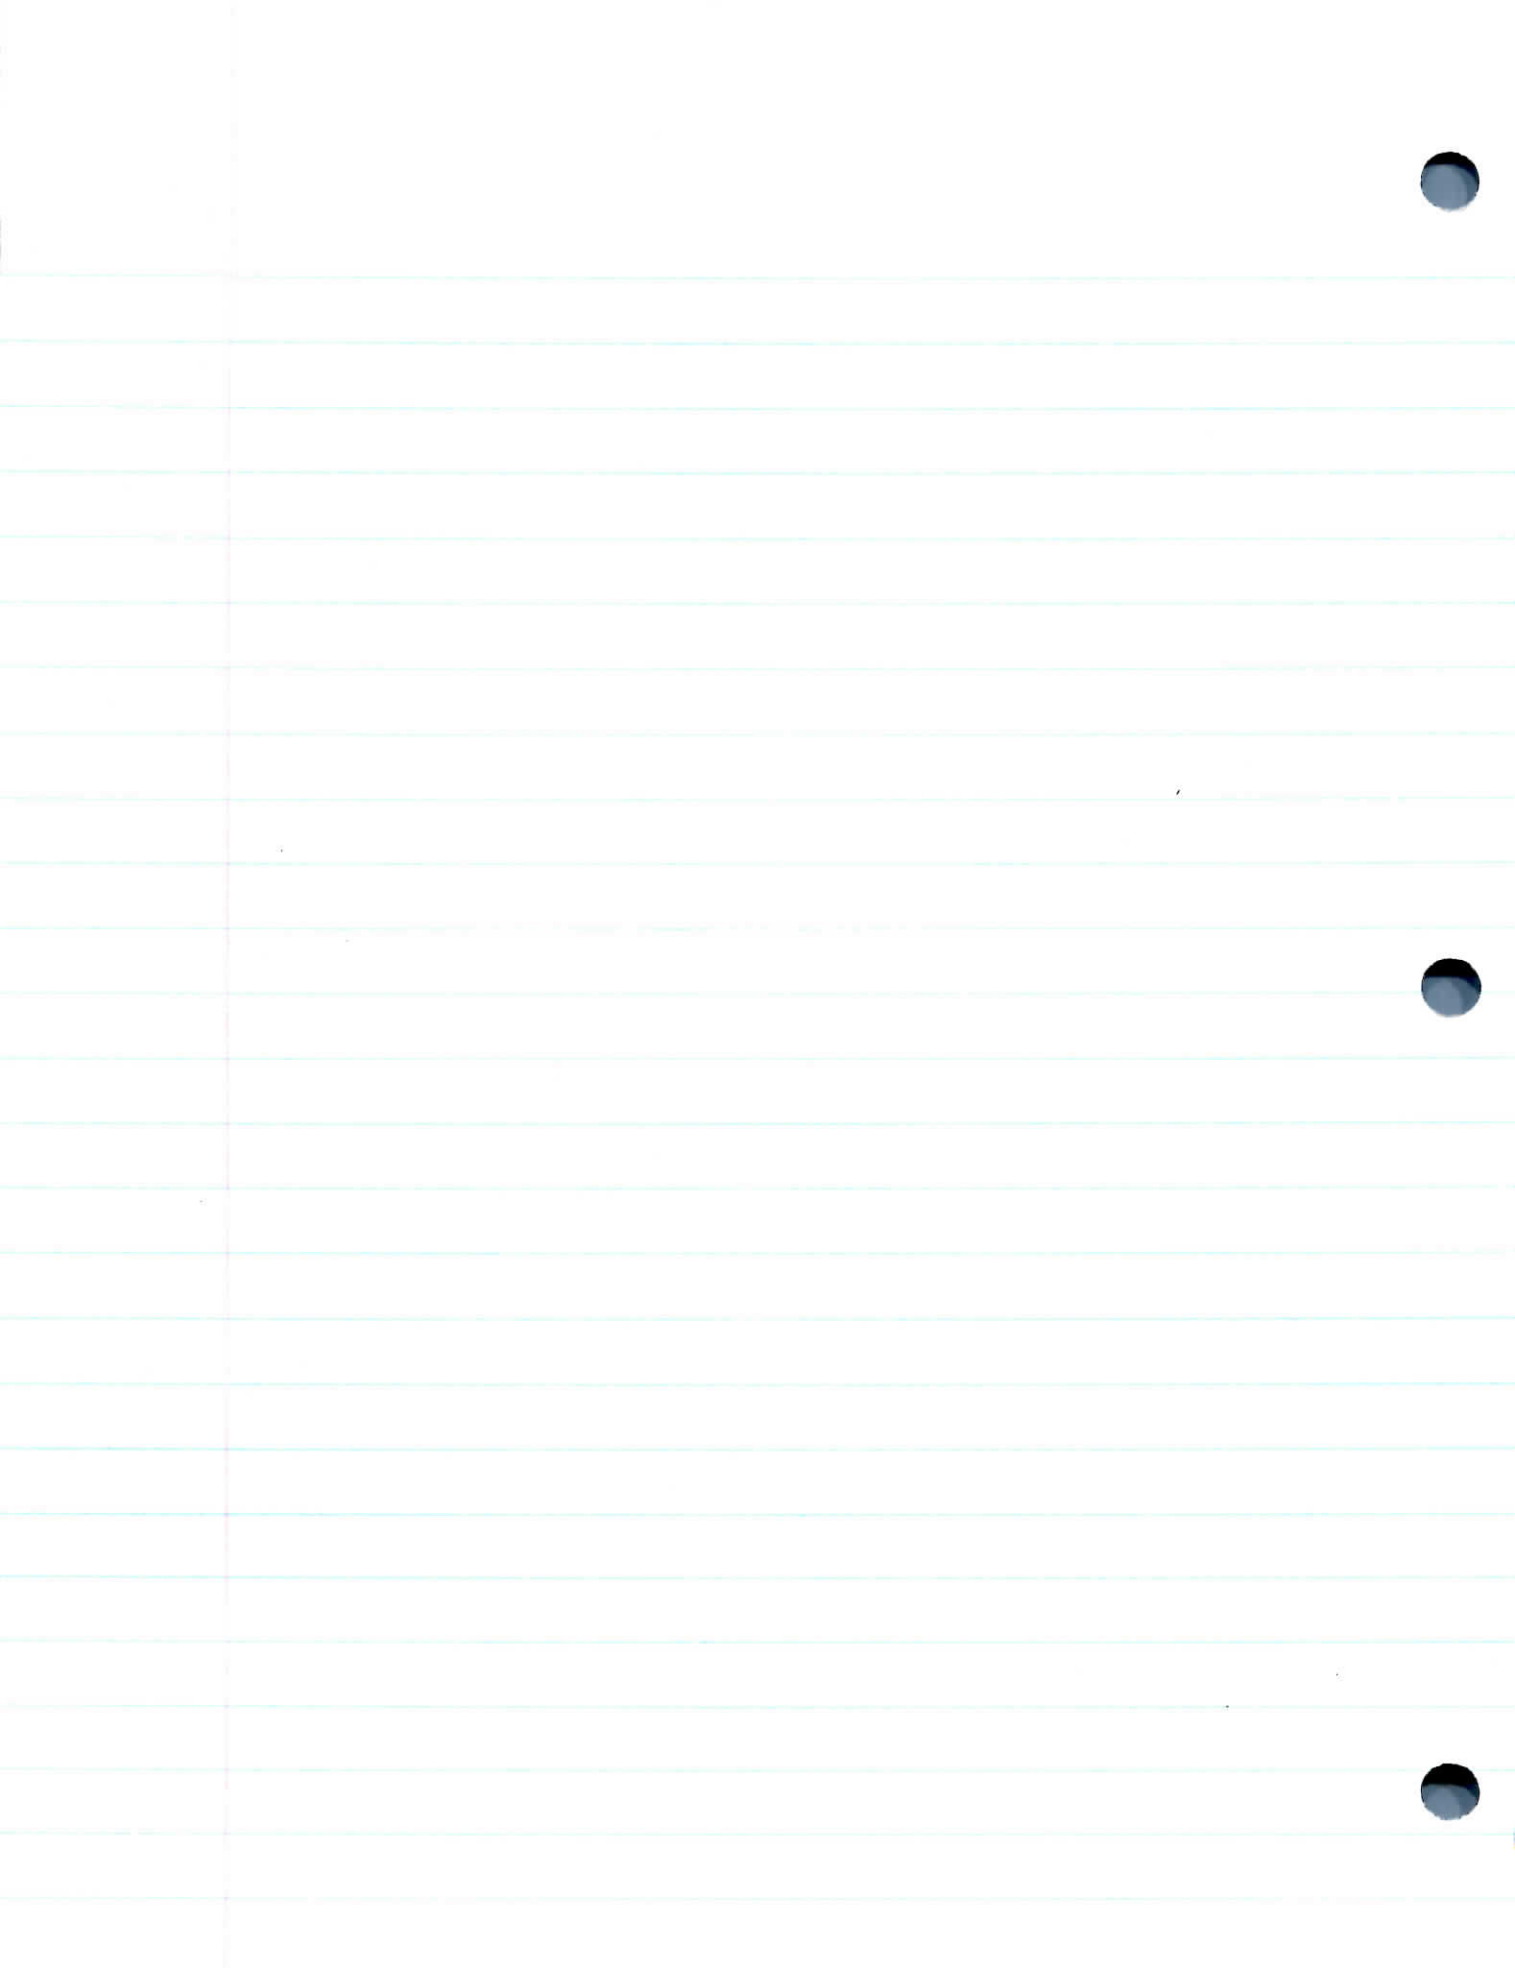

"You must be David Harley," Angelica said, "I've heard much about you."

"What are you doin' back here Sims?" David asked.

"I need you to contact our guys. How's your fight against the Corporation?" Edmund asked.

"Not so good," David explained, "we're gettin' our asses kicked. They seek us out and take us out. Our guys are at the old football field. They set up a base there. Hope you can help us out

"We'll do what we can," Angelica replied.

Chapter 78: Ambush City

The next day...

"I found 'em, Commander," Glove spoke into his two way watch.

"You could say it a little louder Glove," another beautiful lady said. "He won't escape us mother."

"She had better not," Commander transmitted back.

In the penthouse...

"Shi-, they found me," Angelica replied.

"Who?" Edmund asked.

"My sister," she answered.

"How can you tell?" Edmund asked.

"I sense her presence. She's not alone."

"What do we do?" Edmund was majoyly confused.

"I have a plan," Angelica replied, "please forgive me."

"What - ?"

In the lobby of the hotel...

"What room are the Sims's in?" Lieutenant asked,

"I'm not aloud to disclose that information. I could check with them first," the clerk replied.

"That won't be necessary," Glove had needles on his claw. He injected all of them into the clerk chest. The yellowish, thick brainducing fluid went into him.

"Now, what room are they in?" Lieutenant asked.

"Aye what's goin' on," a gaurd ran up. Lieutenant raised her hand in ^(4/18) a wave motion. The guard flew across the room onto a table where a knife pierced his skull. It was instant death.

The two went up to the penthouse to find Edmund with the pink dust on his face. Angelica was right: next to him in a very sexy pink outfit with long pink tassel earrings.

"Hello Lieutenant," Angelica greeted her older sister.

"Hello Ang," Lieutenant stepped up to the bed, "I see you caught Edmund."

"It was very easy," Angelica boasted, "he was easily seduced. No fight."

"Hey baby, wassup," Edmund said under the influence of the pink dust.

"Kill this fu--er!" Glow ordered as Lieutenant held him back.

"No, Ang has him completely under her power."

"How's Haver?" Angelica asked.
"He's deserted the planet," Glove answered, "we're looking for him on Earth."

Back in the lobby...

"What's goin' on here?" Sheriff Pook asked.

"I'll go check upstairs," Billy replied, "I sense a weird presence."

"So that," Pook ordered, "I'll take care of things down here."

In the penthouse...

"I sense a weird presense," Glove replied.

"Well go check it out," Lieutenant ordered.

"Yes m'am," Glove left the room to meet his son, "It's an ambush!"

Angelica got up behind Lieutenant with her U gun and shocked her, "Good night sister. Come on Edmund, get up."

"Yeah, sure," Edmund replied.

"Hello Father," Billy greeted.

"Hello and goodbye son."

Angelica laid Edmund down and put on her hot pink high heels.

The pink dust wore off, "Oh, - what happened?"

"No time to explain now," Angelica helped him to his feet and carried him out.

"How shall we fight?" Glove asked Billy.

"New aged fu--er," Billy pulled his gun and blew off Glove's right hand, the one with the glove."

"Billy?" Edmund called.

"Wassup Edmund?" Billy asked. "What happened to you?" Billy helped Angelica carry Edmund.

Pook saw the three get out of the elevator, "Dave Harley told me you were back in town. Which car."

"Take the Ferrari," Edmund ordered, "I'll drive."

"The drug is just wearin' off, I'm drivin', "Angelica announced.

In the penthouse...

"That bitc-!" Lieutenant stressed the last word. "Glove get up!"

"Fu--you, ah," Glove was in dire pain. "I'll bill that bastard-."

"Fu--him, we're goin' after my sister," Lieutenant replied.

"I refuse to obey that," Glove said in a dangerously scary tone.

Lieutenant put her hand on his forehead, "What are you going to do?"

"To obey your every command mistress," Glove said weakly and in pain.

"That's what I thought Glove."

On the road to the base...

"Osprey, we've spotted Pook down Interstate 23," a Corporation guard replied.

"Excellent follow them," Heaven (152) ordered.

In the football stadium base...

"What's goin' on Edmund?" Pooh asked.

"You're committing Adultery," Billy replied.

"No I'm not, I'm not even married," Edmund told the long complex story.

"You guys must be in some real deep shi -," Billy said.

"Did you get your ear pierced?" Edmund asked.

"Yeah, I did. So what's up?" Billy enquired.

"We'll try to help you guys since this is our turf," Pooh offered.

"Thanks," Angelica replied.

"You have great taste in women," Billy told Edmund.

"I can't help it, she has me," Edmund said.

"I sure do. I love him," Angelica announced.

"Edmund are you sure this is right?" Pook asked, "Marilena and all."

"It's time I come clear with all of you," Angelica explained, "Billy, that woman with Glorv, my sister, she's your mother."

"That means, you're my Aunt," Billy deduced, "Commander's my Grandmother, Flaver and E.J. are my Grandparents?"

"Yes," Angelica answered.

"I'm a fu--in' Dorodian?" Billy asked.

"No," Angelica reexplained, "I don't think you understand. Your real mother is an oriental."

Lieutenant is your step mother. Glorv had you before Lieutenant seduced him and he was crystalized. Billy gave a sigh of relief.

Angelica continued, "I have some useful information for you Pook. The 459 Corporation no longer has the support of the Dorodans. We're completely broken off ties, at least they have. Sam Osprey never forgave the Dorodans for putting him in the freezer. That should make it easier on you to find and take back your family."

"Thank you for the info Angelica. You've gained my respect," Pook thanked her.

"Now Edmund," Angelica told, "it's alright to give yourself to me. Marilva is all up here in my brain. I must admit that before our minds were merged, I was as devious as my mother."

"No way," Edmund hoped, "you're so sweet."

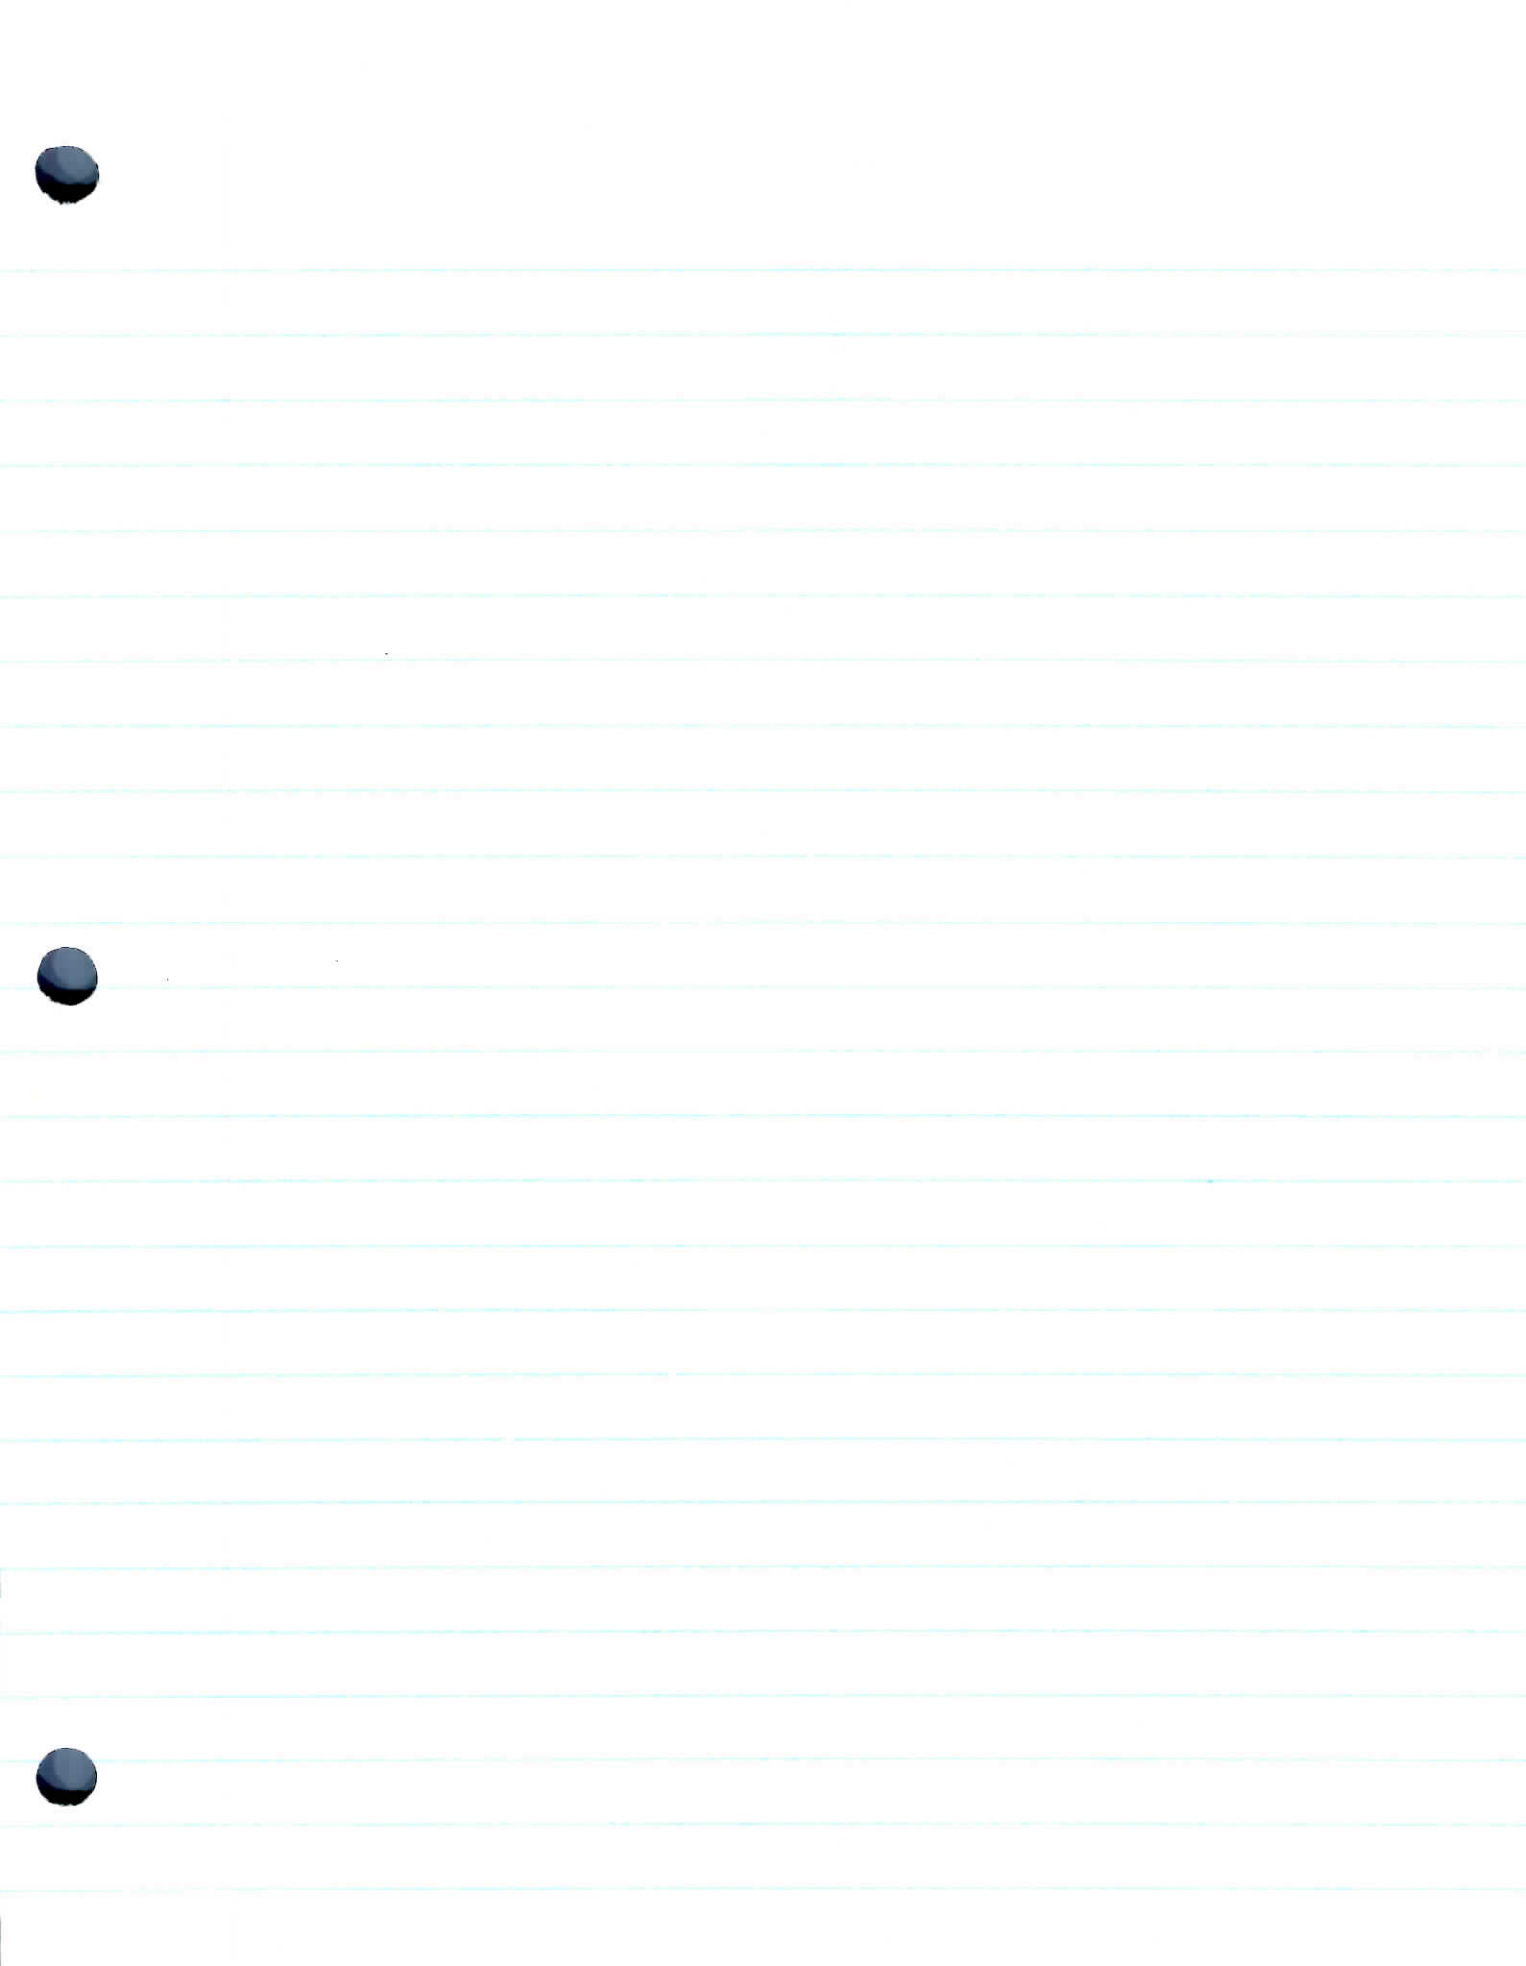

"I didn't use to be. I volunteered to be merged with Marilva's brain. It worked for Erica and Lieutenant. Something went wrong and Marilva's goodness became dominant. You're not committing adultery so just cool ⁴⁵⁵ out."

"You know," Edmund deduced, "you're fiery just like Maribwa used to be."

"Is that a compliment?" Angelica asked. "I'm just falling for you. I can't help it. I really love you."

"I wonder what the kids are gonna say," Edmund replied. "So what's the plan Pooh. It's your turf."

Chapter 79: Take 'Em Out (formerly Shut 'Em Down)

"What happened to the girls' bodies?" Edmund asked.

"They're in the freezer," Angelica answered.

"Since Marilena was with you, that's why you had such a strong hold over me. Her mom is gonna have a fu--in' fit."

At Corporation R.I.2....

Osprey walked into Pussy's cell, "Hello my dear. How are you."

"Just go away," Pussy ordered.

"We're closing in on your husband." 458

"He will soon be dead."

"No," Pussy pleaded, "only you would hide behind helpless family members."

"What are you insinuating bitc-?"

Osprey was getting angry.

"You know what," Pussy said sarcastically.

"You're getting on my fu--in' nerves!"

Osprey was to the breaking point.

"You're already cracked," Pussy kept on, "my husband has you on the verge."

"Enough!" Osprey screamed as he slammed the gun against her face.

"You won't win," Pussy said abused and with tears in her eyes.

"I grow tired of this conversation," Osprey used a hand motion and walked out locking the cell.

"What's the plan?" a soldier with an uzi caught up to Osprey.

"Move in on their base and attack. Be careful, Pook is very tricky when he wants to be," Osprey ordered.

"Should we use all available forces?" the soldier asked.

"Yes, all available," Osprey agreed. 4581

At the football stadium base...

"What are we takin' out first?"

Billy asked Pooh.

"All drug set ups in the area,"

Pooh answered.

"We could split up," Angelica replied.

"That would probably work," Edmund agreed, "you three take out the Corporation R.2. I'll go up with the Re--'s Angels and take out any other outposts for drug sales."

"Okay," Pooh submitted, "try it your way. Let's move out."

At Corporation R.2....

"Some one, well actually two to see you," a soldier told Osprey.

"Send 'em in with two more guards," Osprey ordered.

"Get the fu-- outta the way!"

Glove ordered. As soon as the two Dorodans walked in the guards cocked their weapons and aimed them at the Dorodans.

"What are you doin' here? Yet the fu-- outta here before I have my men blow your as-es away," Osprey threatened.

"We need you," Lieutenant replied.

"We won't help you fu--ers for anything."

"Think again Osprey," Lieutenant explained, "Edmund is back in town. We could help you get both of your enemies. Edmund tried to shut you down. Pooh continued it. I could get Edmund out of your hair, permanently."

"I don't know if we could trust you," Osprey said.

Lieutenant put her ^{first} two fingers of her left hand on the side of her forehead, "You can't trust me, can't you?"

"Yes, I can," Osprey said weakly.

At Pooh's base...

"Let's take the motor glider," Billy suggested. "It's quick and undetectable. Besides, it has three seats."

"See ya Angelica," Edmund hugged her.

"By Edmund, be careful," she kissed him.

Pooh, Angelica, and Billy took off. Edmund got to the phone and called the He--'s Angels, "Yo, is uh Dave Harley there. Ok I'll hold."

"Sims?" Dave got on the phone.

"Let's move out," Edmund suggested, "woah hold on."

"Alright, wassup?" Dave asked.

"Oh, -shi-!" Edmund said.

At the Hungry Pelican

"We've been disconnected," Dave deduced, "load up and move out."

Back at Pooh's base...

"There's no escape Edmund," Lieutenant said as she materialized in front of Edmund. She grinned and Edmund ran. She raised her hand and Edmund froze in position. She walked over to him and touched him.

"What do you want with me?" as if he didn't know.

"You have a major as-price on your head. I'm here to collect," Lieutenant waved her hand in front of Edmund's face. He fell out unconscious into her arms. "Take him to the ship."

"I still say you should kill him," Glove picked the helpless Edmund up and carried him off.

"I want him," Lieutenant replied.

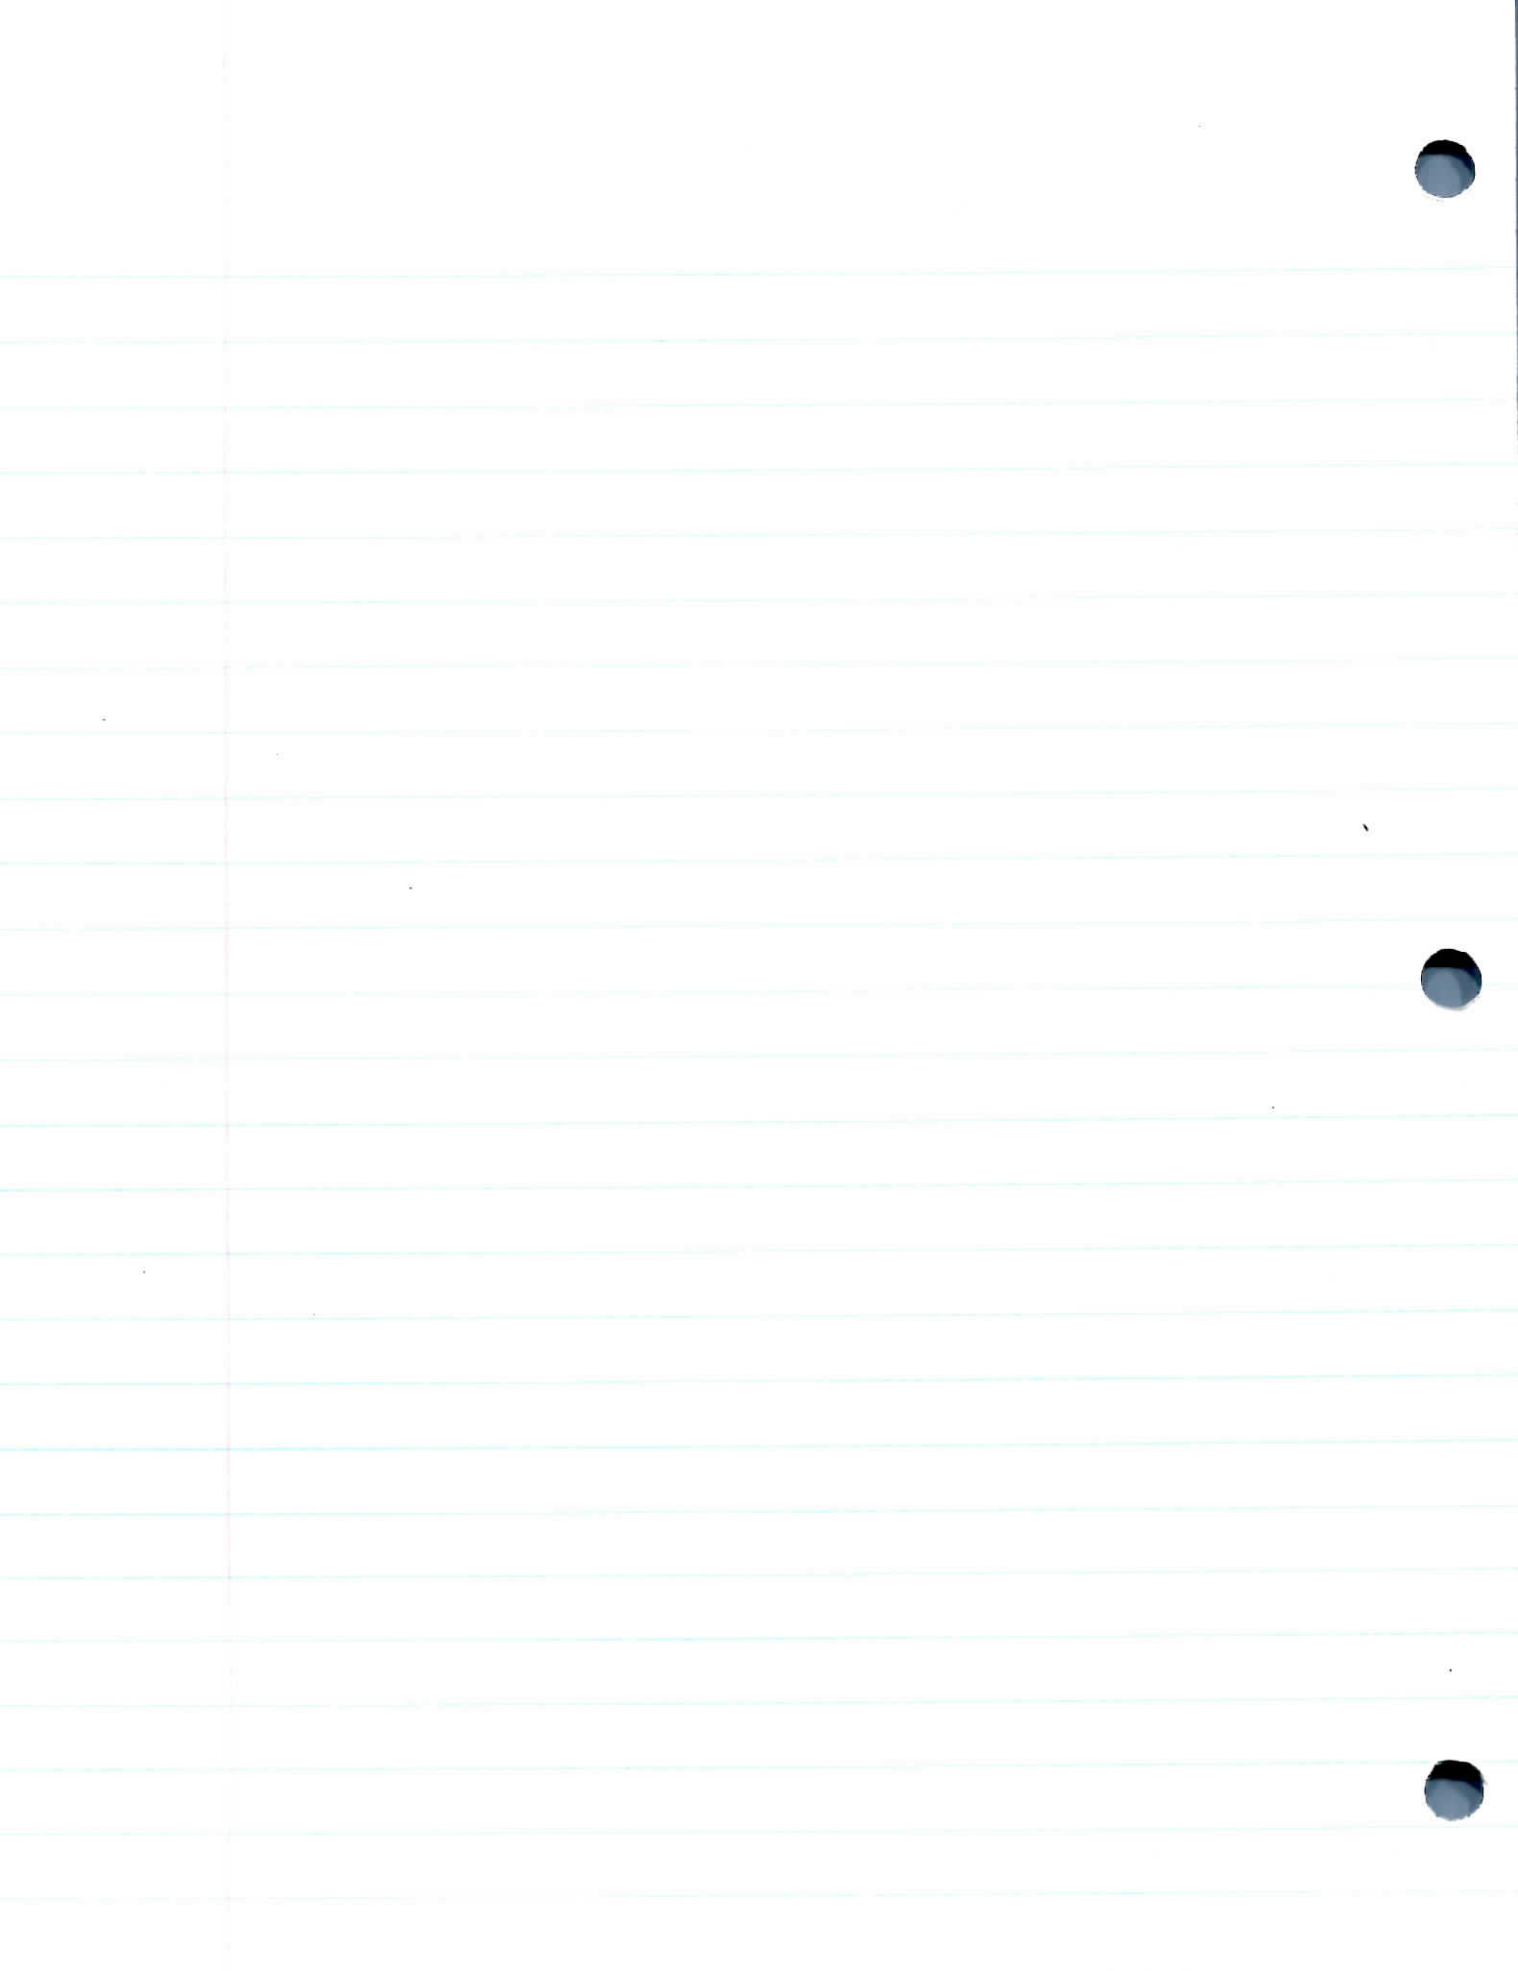

In the motor glider...

"Uh," Angelica moaned, "Edmund's in trouble."

"Are you gonna be alright?" Pooh asked.

"I just hope Edmund will be," Billy replied.

Chapter 80: Beyond Escape (part 1)

Pook gracefully landed the glider 200 yards from Corporation 9x2. Billy cocked his 9mm. Angelica pulled her Ugun. Pook got his Betsy Rope ready.

"I'll get inside and make sure the coast is clear," Angelica dematerialized into a deadly pink cloud. She got inside easily.

"We goin' up?" Billy asked.

Pook nodded as he hooked the ~~lasso~~ to a harpoon hook gun. He pressed the trigger and the harpoon extended and hooked on to the roof, "It's sturdy."

"That's why you're goin' first, right?" Billy asked as he cocked his upi. "I'll take the door."

"Suit yourself," Pooh climbed up the rope.

Billy peeked in the door and saw the guards, "Shi-."

The guards unloaded as Billy did flips to avoid getting shot. He knew they were out of ammo so he unloaded his upi blowing away the two guards.

Pooh crashed through the window into Osprey's office. He heard the cocking of an upi. He saw a gun man out of the corner of his eye. He also smelled a perfume.

A pink cloud engulfed the guard; "What the fu-- are yo-, uh."

Angelica dematerialized and took the guard's upi.

"Thanks Angelica," Pooh let out a sigh of relief.

Billy put his uni strap around his neck and pulled out his swords, "This is way too fu--in' easy."

"Get these documents," Angelica suggested.

"It seems like no one's here," Pook replied.

"That means, they're at the base," Angelica said, "I'll go set up the explosives. 30 minutes enough?"

"There's plenty," Billy agreed. Pook and Billy ran down the corridor. A guard jumped in Billy's way. He kicked the guard with a powerfull round house and then spun his swords around and thrust them into the guard.

"We must be gettin' closer," Pook replied.

"Da-n right," Glove materialized with Pook's son P.J. bleeding lively. A guard with a cocked uni came up behind Pook. Angelica electrocuted him with her U-gun. In the commotion, it gave Billy enough time to get out his nun chuckas. He slapped his father in stomach with one and Glove dropped P.D. into Angelica's hands. Two more guards came up on Pook. He punched one out and almost strangled another with his Betsy, instead he took one guards up and literally cracked it over the guards head. Billy hit Glove over the the head with the nun chuckas and finished him off in a blaze of fury of Ninja maneuvers.

Pook took Billy's 9 mm and shot the lock off of Passy's cell. She ran out and hugged her husband.

"I believe he is yours," Angelica used her powers of healing to fix ⁴⁶⁷¹

P.D. up.

"Thanks you Angelica," Pooh shook her hand.

"Did you guys forget?" Billy pointed at the clock. He picked up his various weapons. They exited in a hurry with two minutes to spare. They saw the massive Corporation HQ go up in flames.

At Pooh's base...

"What the fu-- is goin' on!"

Osprey ran in, "How did you ever talk me into helpin' you fu--ers?"

"What are you bitc-in' about?" Lieutenant asked while carressing the unconscious Edmund.

"My communications to the base have been completely cut off!"

Osprey exclaimed, "My men are getting their as-es kicked by those fu--in' Re--'s Angels. You set me up."

"You should know by now, a man of your stature, that you don't trust anybody. "

"You - ditc - ! my Corporation is basically crushed! " Osprey yelled.

"I would advise you to hold your tongue," Lieutenant suggested.

"You advise me, you advise me?!" You fu--in' bit - uh," Osprey gasped for air and grasped his throat. He was scared and astonished and turning blue.

"Be gone before I seriously fu--you up good," Lieutenant lowered her hand and Osprey got his breath back and left.

"Retreat men!" Osprey ordered as he hopped in a Corporation lead car dodging Re--'s Angels' fire.

Dave Harley finished off two more soldiers, "Cease fire. We kicked major Corporation as-!"

Pook landed the motor glider, "Where's Edmund?"

"I think he's inside," Dave answered. 469

In the Base...

"Where are you takin' me?" Edmund asked.

"Why to the crystal Planet of course," Lieutenant said starting up the shuttle and taking off.

"I know Erica is in you," Edmund replied.

"This is real life, cut the fu--in' bullshi-," Lieutenant ordered.

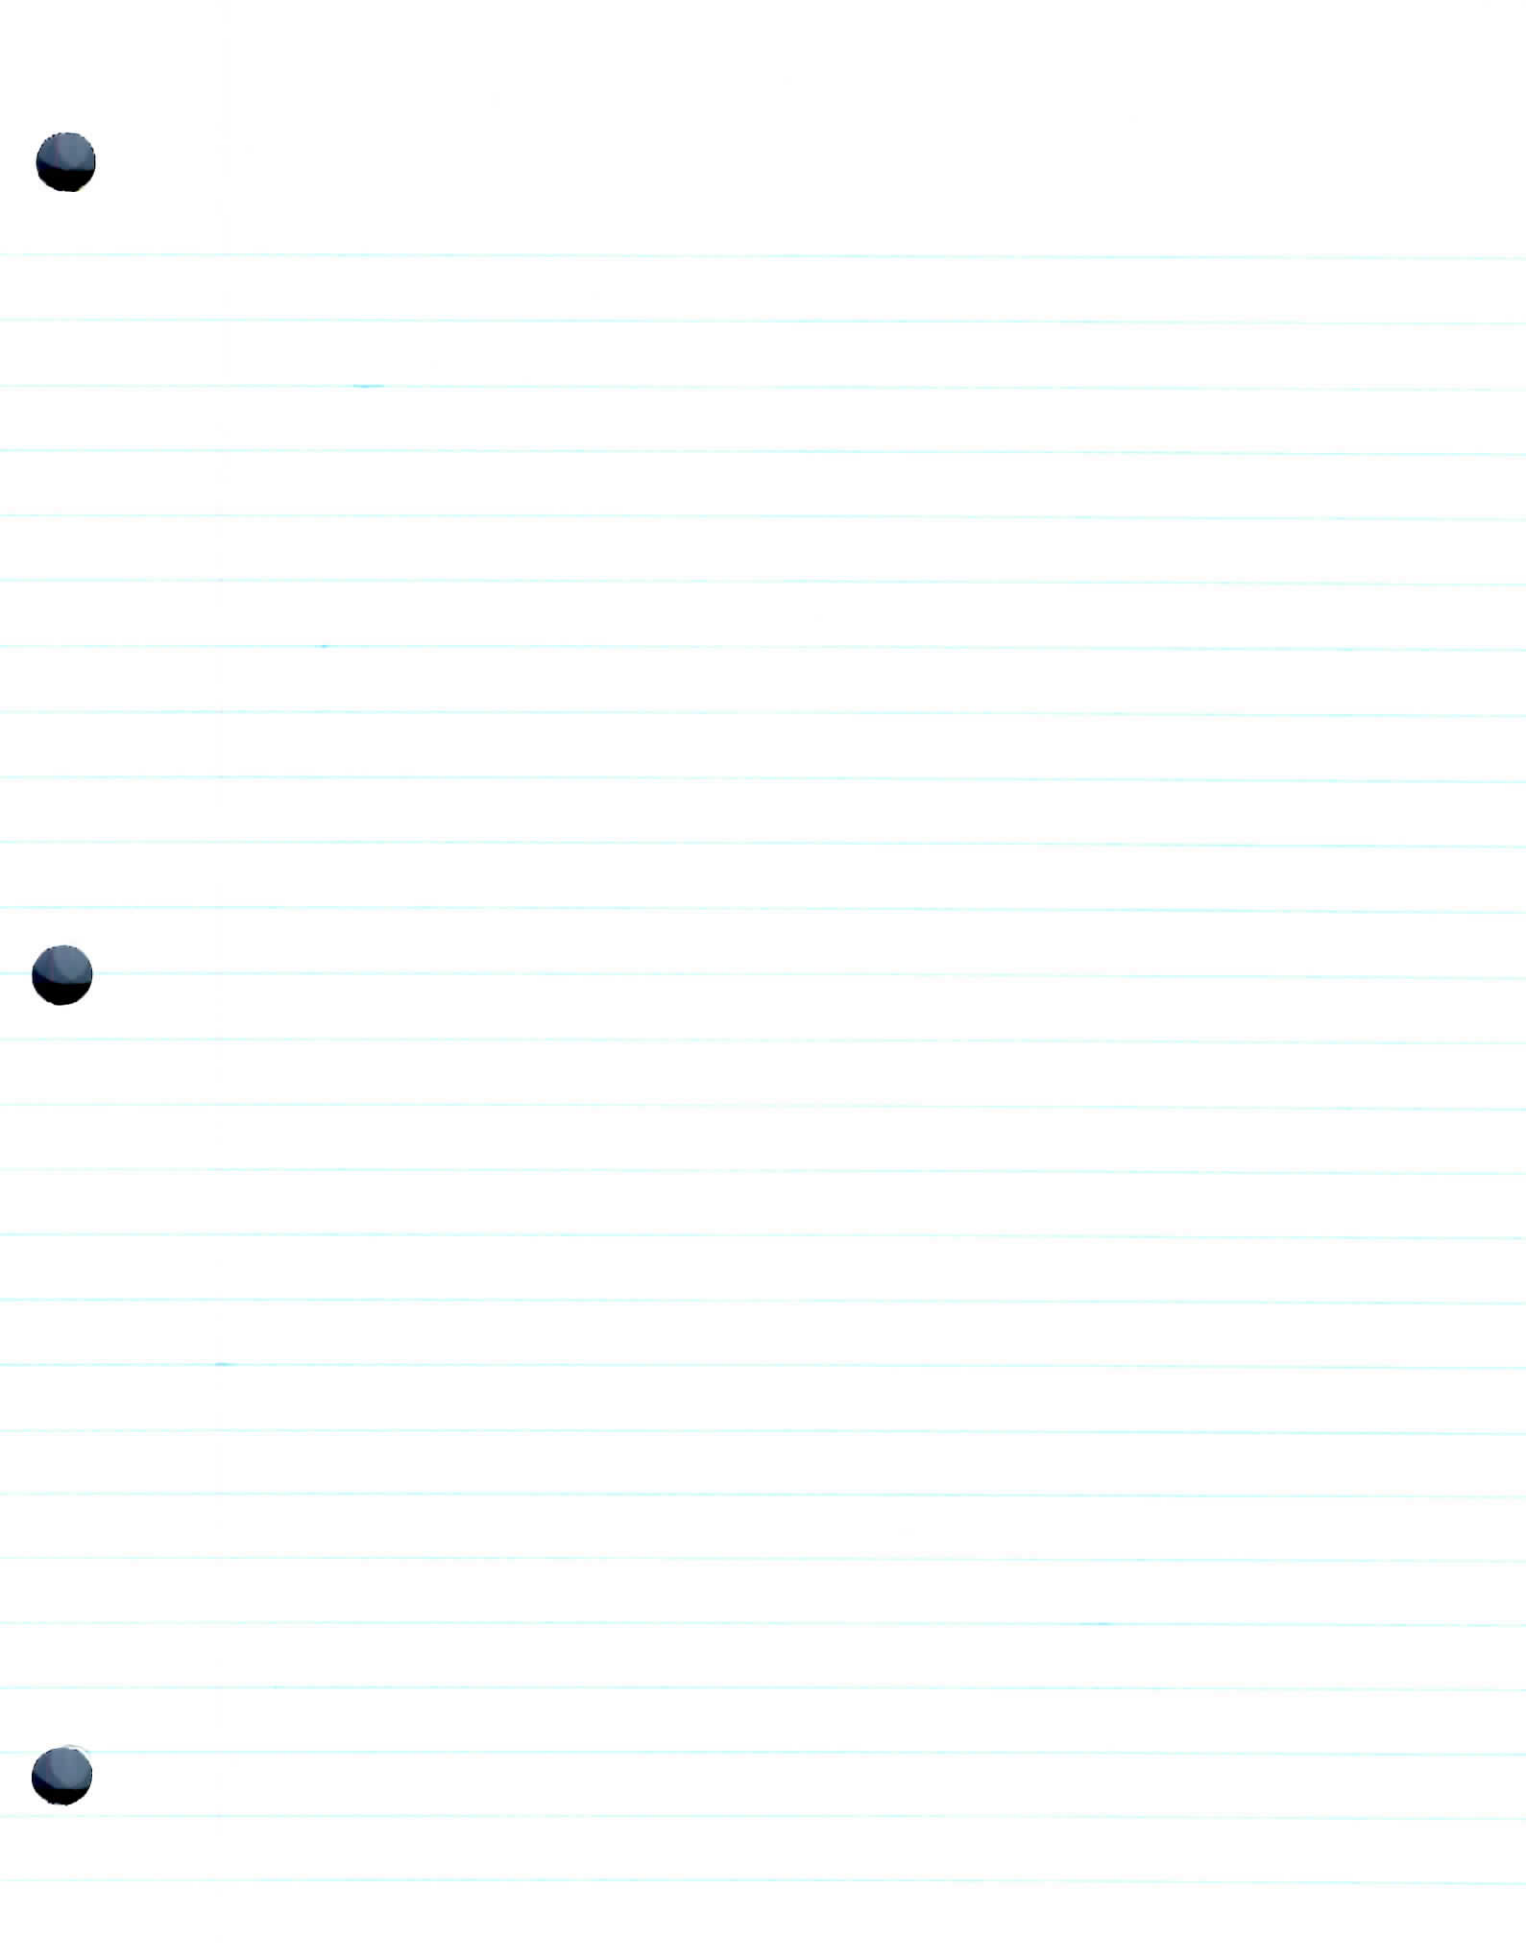

"It was worth a try," Edmund said sneaking up on his captor. She turned and kicked Edmund. Edmund was running for the hatch where he would be home free. Lieutenant took her V-gun and stunned Edmund.

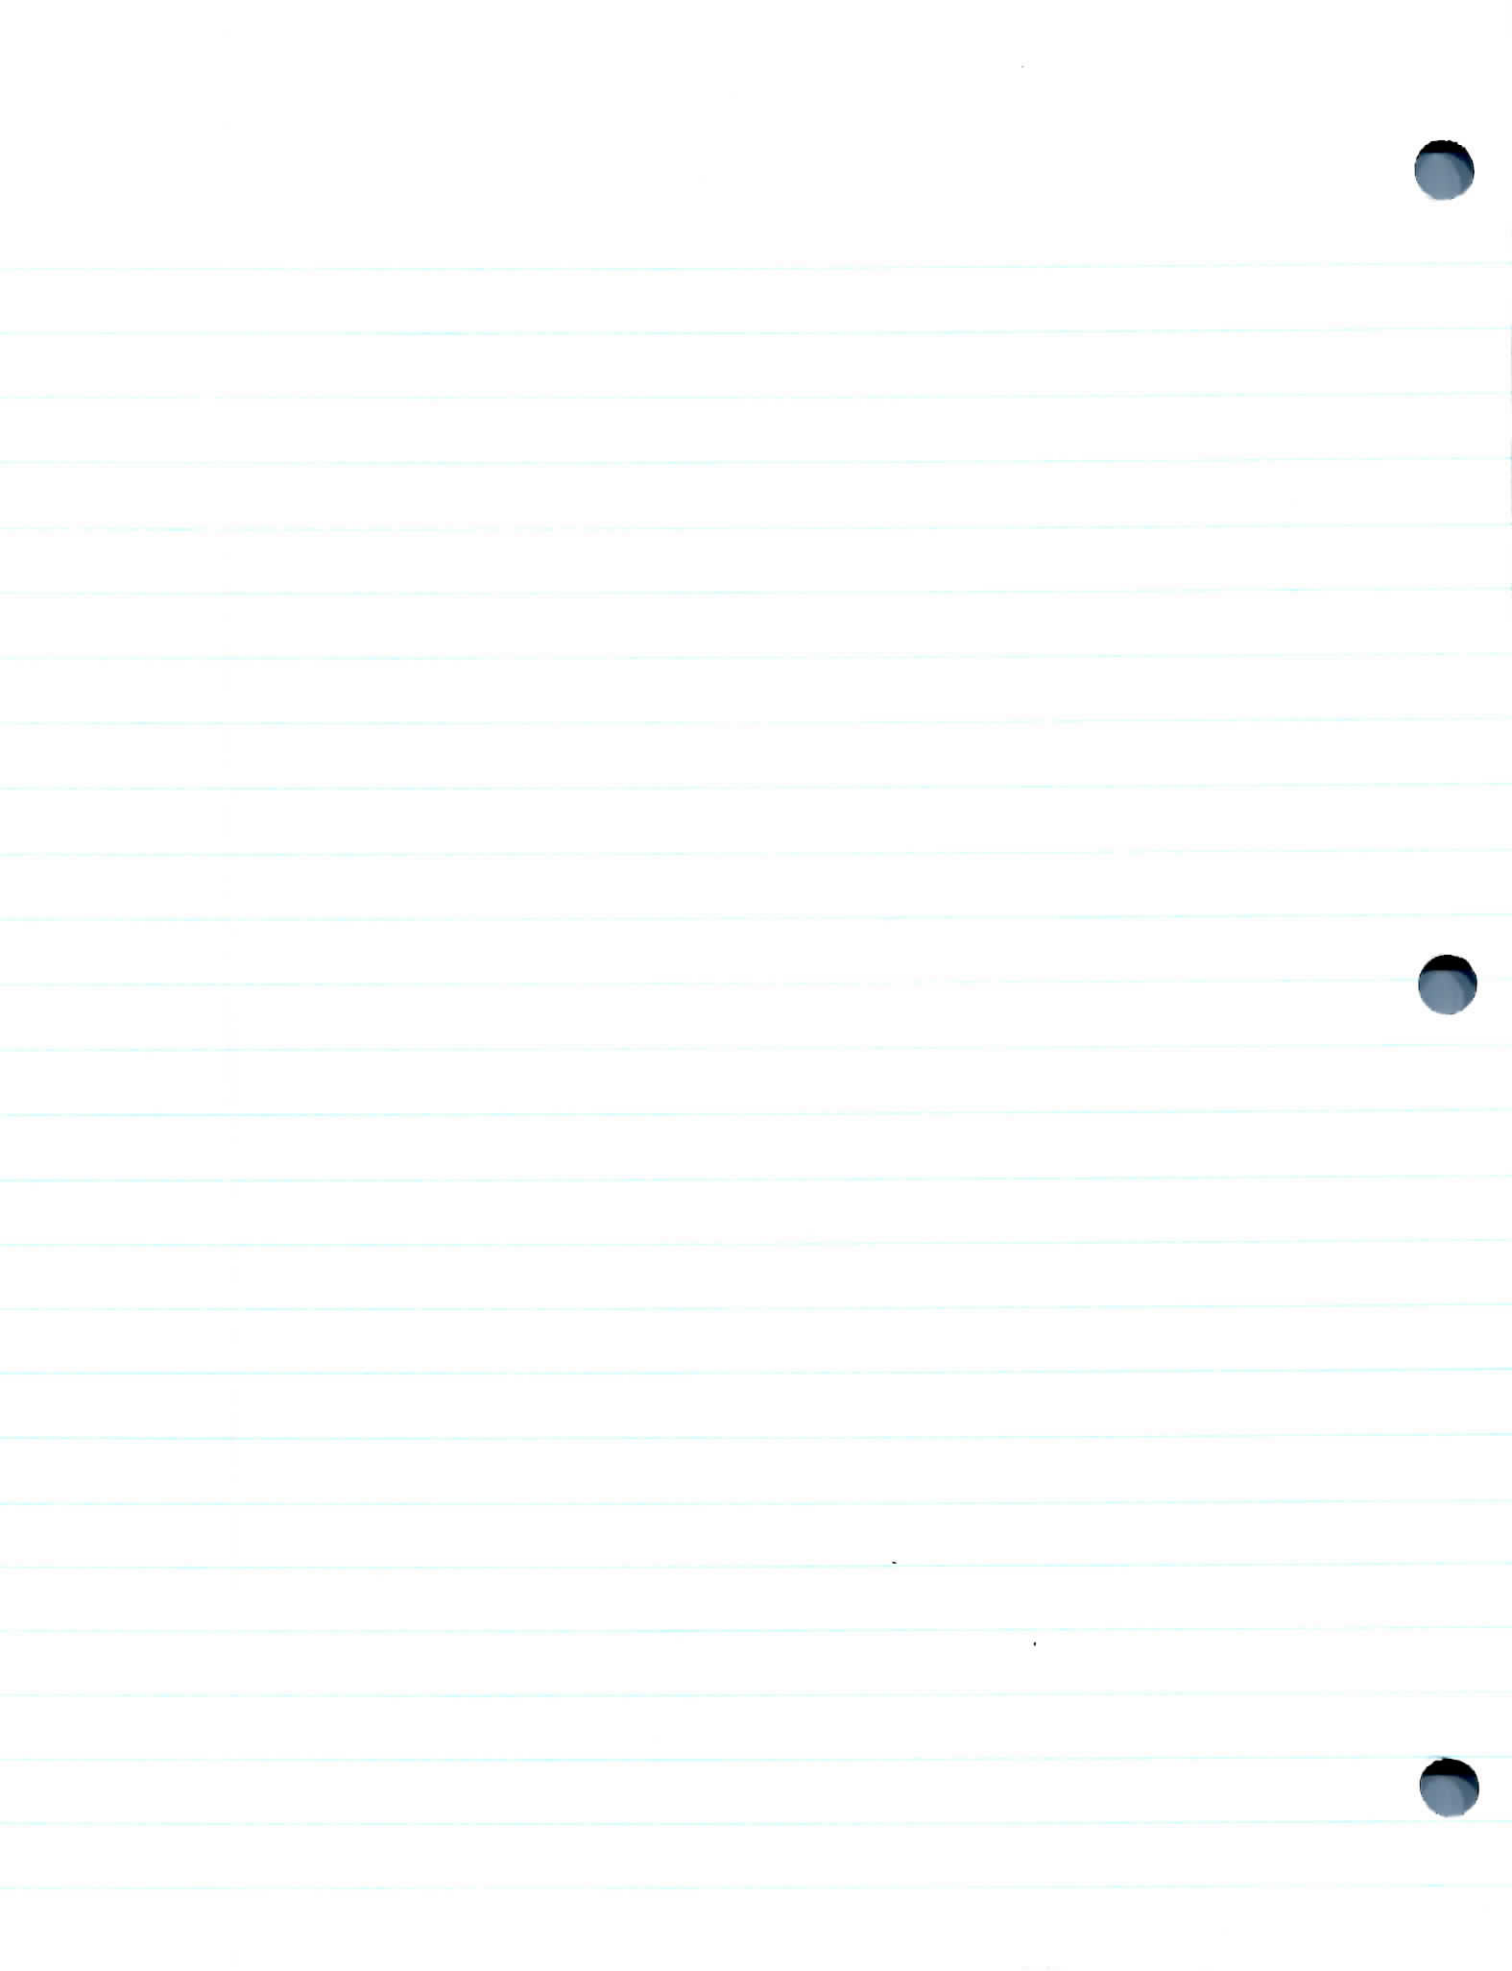

"I didn't want to have to use this, but you wouldn't cooperate," Lieutenant explained, "I wanted my mother to have you but I'll have to use this on you."

"Use what?" Edmund asked still feeling the affects of the stun beam.

Lieutenant pulled Edmund up by his shirt, "You may feel some disorientation as you are placed permanently under Dorian control." She pulled out a crystal collar and snapped it on Edmund's neck. His mind went completely blank. He was basically a yawn, "You obey me now Edmund. You obey Commander now. You will carry out all orders to the fullest, willingly, unquestionably, and lovingly."

The collar disappeared.

Chapter 81: Beyond Escape (Part 2)

"What the fu-- are we gonna do?" Billy was upset.

"We need a fu--in' miracle," Dave agreed.

"I may be able to give you one."

"Father," Angelica replied, "why are you here?"

"I never was the Dorodan leader, it was always your mother. I never really wanted to conquer the human race. It seemed nice at the time, but I got tired of being defeated. I figure our two peoples can live and breed together. (472)

I'm sort of a diplomat. The Doobies don't like it there. h."

"Alright, forget the sermon," Pooh asked, "will you help us or not?"

"You know my mother better than I," Angelica replied, "what will happen to Edmund?"

"He'll probably be crystallized," Haven deduced, "since Edmund is an excellent fighter. They'll probably clone him. Knowing my ex-wife, she'll probably have her kids."

"I've gotta save him," Angelica replied.

"I'll go too," Billy agreed.

"I'll notify Willy Z. and Kitty of the Space Force and tell them the situation," Pooh hugged Pussy.

"My boys and I'll take out the rest of the Corporation," Dave said.

"Do you have any fighters?" FA

Angelica asked.

"Of course," Billy answered.

"Could you hold on for a few, so I can make myself more presentable?" Angelica asked.

"Sure," Billy agreed.

Angelica put on her black and gold, sexy silk and lace outfit. She ended it up with high heels that were golden.

She came back out to say goodbye, "You realize this could really fu-- up, Billy?"

"Yeah, I'm sure I wanna go," Billy agreed.

"By father," Angelica told Haven. The two took off and found the quasar. They flew threw to be greeted by a squadron of fighters. These were Dorodian fighters.

"I think we're in deep deep shi-," Billy deduced.

Commander radioed to the lead fighter, "I want them alive."

10 minutes later...

Angelica and Billy were led into the main chamber of the Dorodan City Main Building.

"Welcome Angelica," Commander greeted.

"Hello mother," Angelica replied.

"Ah, Glove's son," Commander was astonished, "you're too well contained to be his son." Billy kept quiet.

"Did you search them?" Lieutenant asked.

"Not yet," a humanoid stepped up.

"Touch me and I'll kick - your - mother - fu - - in' - as -," Billy threatened. The guard didn't listen. Billy kicked him in the stomach and used his Ninja strength to break his crystal handcuffs. He took out two more Dorodans. Angelica held out her hands. Billy used a powerful karate chop to break her bonds.

"Stop them!" Commander ordered.

"Can you hold 'em off?" Angelica asked Billy as she took out her U-gun.

"I sure hope Acro's teachings are enough," Billy replied.

Angelica ran down the corridor and into the freezer. She saw Erica's and Marileva's bodies.

"Hey you're not supposed to be in here," a guard walked in with his uzi poised.

"I'm Commander's daughter," she put her arm around the guard and put her U-gun close to his stomach.

"Oh I'm sorry - ahh!" Angelica electrocuted him and then kicked him in his penis with her high-heels.

"You should be sorry," Angelica fired at more guards coming in. "Where are you Edmund?"

After a minute of searching, she found Edmund. She typed the code to open his turbo door.

"Is that you Angelica?" Edmund asked.

"Yes-uh, what did I do?" Edmund had stunned her with a U-gun.

"I got her!" Edmund called to some guards. They carried her off.

"Excellent work Edmund," Lieutenant praised, "you will have a great future here."

"Yeah, you'll learn to love it here," D. I. walked up.

"I'm sure I will," Edmund smiled.

Billy had escaped the major Dorodan attack to see Angelica strapped to a chair with Maribwa's body in an identical chair. Billy was tapped on the shoulder. He took the person's arm and flipped him over.

"Dave Majewski?" Billy asked.

"Yeah, you dork," Dave was in 477 pain.

"What are you doin' here?"
Billy thought something was suspicious.

"I was captured remember?"
David asked.

"So are you," Lieutenant hit
Billy over the head with a gun,
"good work, husband."

"Thanks Lieutenant," David had a sinister grin on his face.

Chapter 82: Time for a Miracle (formerly: Seduction)

"Shi-!" Commander exclaimed, "You mean we can't put her brain back."

"Yes ma'am," a humanoid said.
"Get the crystal cage ready," Commander replied, "I want my laughter back."

Outside of Angelica's room...

"Open up," Lieutenant ordered the guards. She brought Edmund in.

"What did you do to him?"
Angelica asked.

"Crystal collar, a permanent crystal collar," Lieutenant boasted.

Angelica thought to herself, "I still have to have some sort of control over him."

"I bet I know what you're thinking," Edmund replied, "it won't work. The collar blocks all brainwaves but Lieutenant's."

Lieutenant kissed Edmund and smiled. Lieutenant had always wanted to beat her younger sister but never succeeded. Angelica was even more sexy than her sister who was in an eloquent dress. All Angelica wore was a ^{leaky} bra, a white shirt, jeans, and white high heels.

There was a knock at the door. "I'll get that," Lieutenant walked to the door.

Angelica used her strength to pull Edmund to the bed. Her long earrings were swinging quickly. She was trying to get Edmund down and Edmund was fighting her.

"Edmund!" Lieutenant was tied up by Pook's Betsy Rope.

"Get Billy," Pook ordered Dante Harley. The Re--'s Angels were actually holding off the Dorodan Armies.

Edmund forced Angelica on the bed, "I don't wanna hurt you Edmund." Edmund held her arms tight. She used her legs to flip him over. Edmund got up and she used a strong right fist to his face. Edmund fell unconscious on the bed.

"I hope this works," Angelica reached in her drawer and pulled out a mini bottle of pink dust.

Edmund was waking up, shaking off the effects of the punch. Angelica sprayed the dust on Edmund's face. He tried to avoid ^{it} but was already dazed. Edmund stopped squirming and let the pink dust take affect. The magical crystal collar reappeared. Angelica removed it. In removing it, Edmund felt a seering pain. After all, his mind was being returned back to him. Edmund pulled Angelica down and fu--ed her.

The Re--'s Angels, Poot and his family, Billy, Edmund, Angelica, and her sister escaped the Dorodan compounds.

"Let me go," Lieutenant struggled with her bonds. Poot's Betsy Rope was made of extremely strong bonds, to hold a powerful Dorodan.

"Ditch that fu--in' bit-," Billy ordered. "Give me a fu--in' cheap shot, and a headache!"

"Here, spray her with this," Angelica suggested.

"No, no, don't, uh," Lieutenant was now horny for Billy. Billy then put the crystal collar on 482

Lieutenant.

"I got Erica's body. The building is fu--in' deserted."

"Why's that?" Edmund asked.

"The S. S. P. is here," Pook answered.

"I guess they all went to bomb shelters underground," Angelica replied.

"Why are bringin' that ho along?" Edmund asked.

"I want my cousin back," Billy replied, "I bet Jerry could figure it out."

"We're one point up on the Dorodans," Dave replied.

"Yavo, with my father," Angelica said.

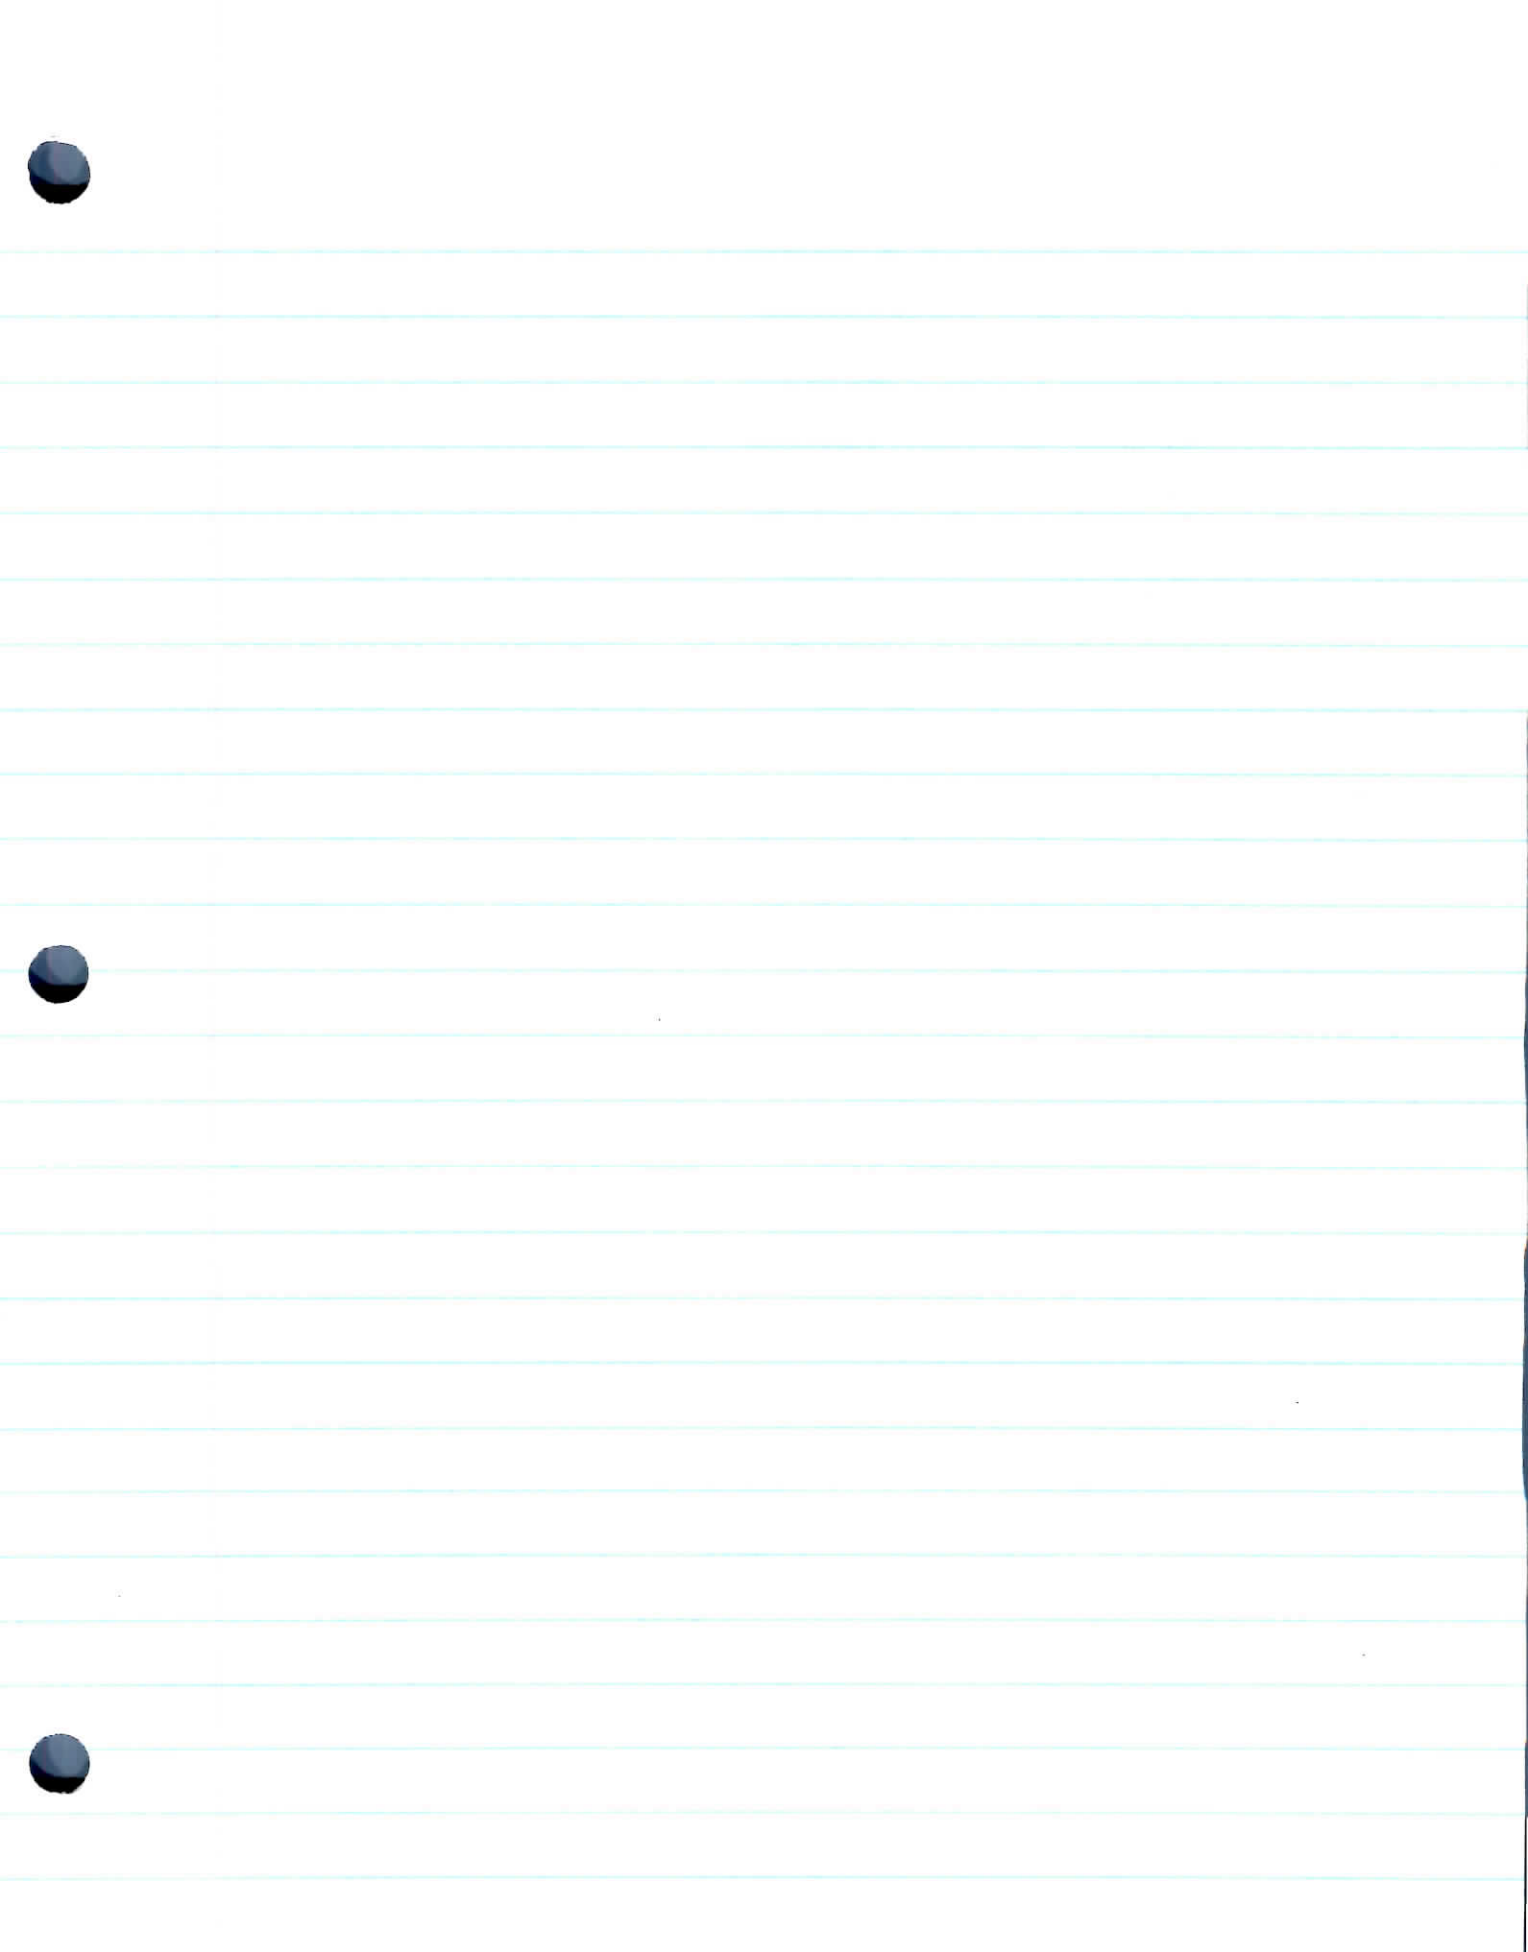

"We're closer to winning this war," Edmund hugged Angelica and walked with her to the S. S. P.

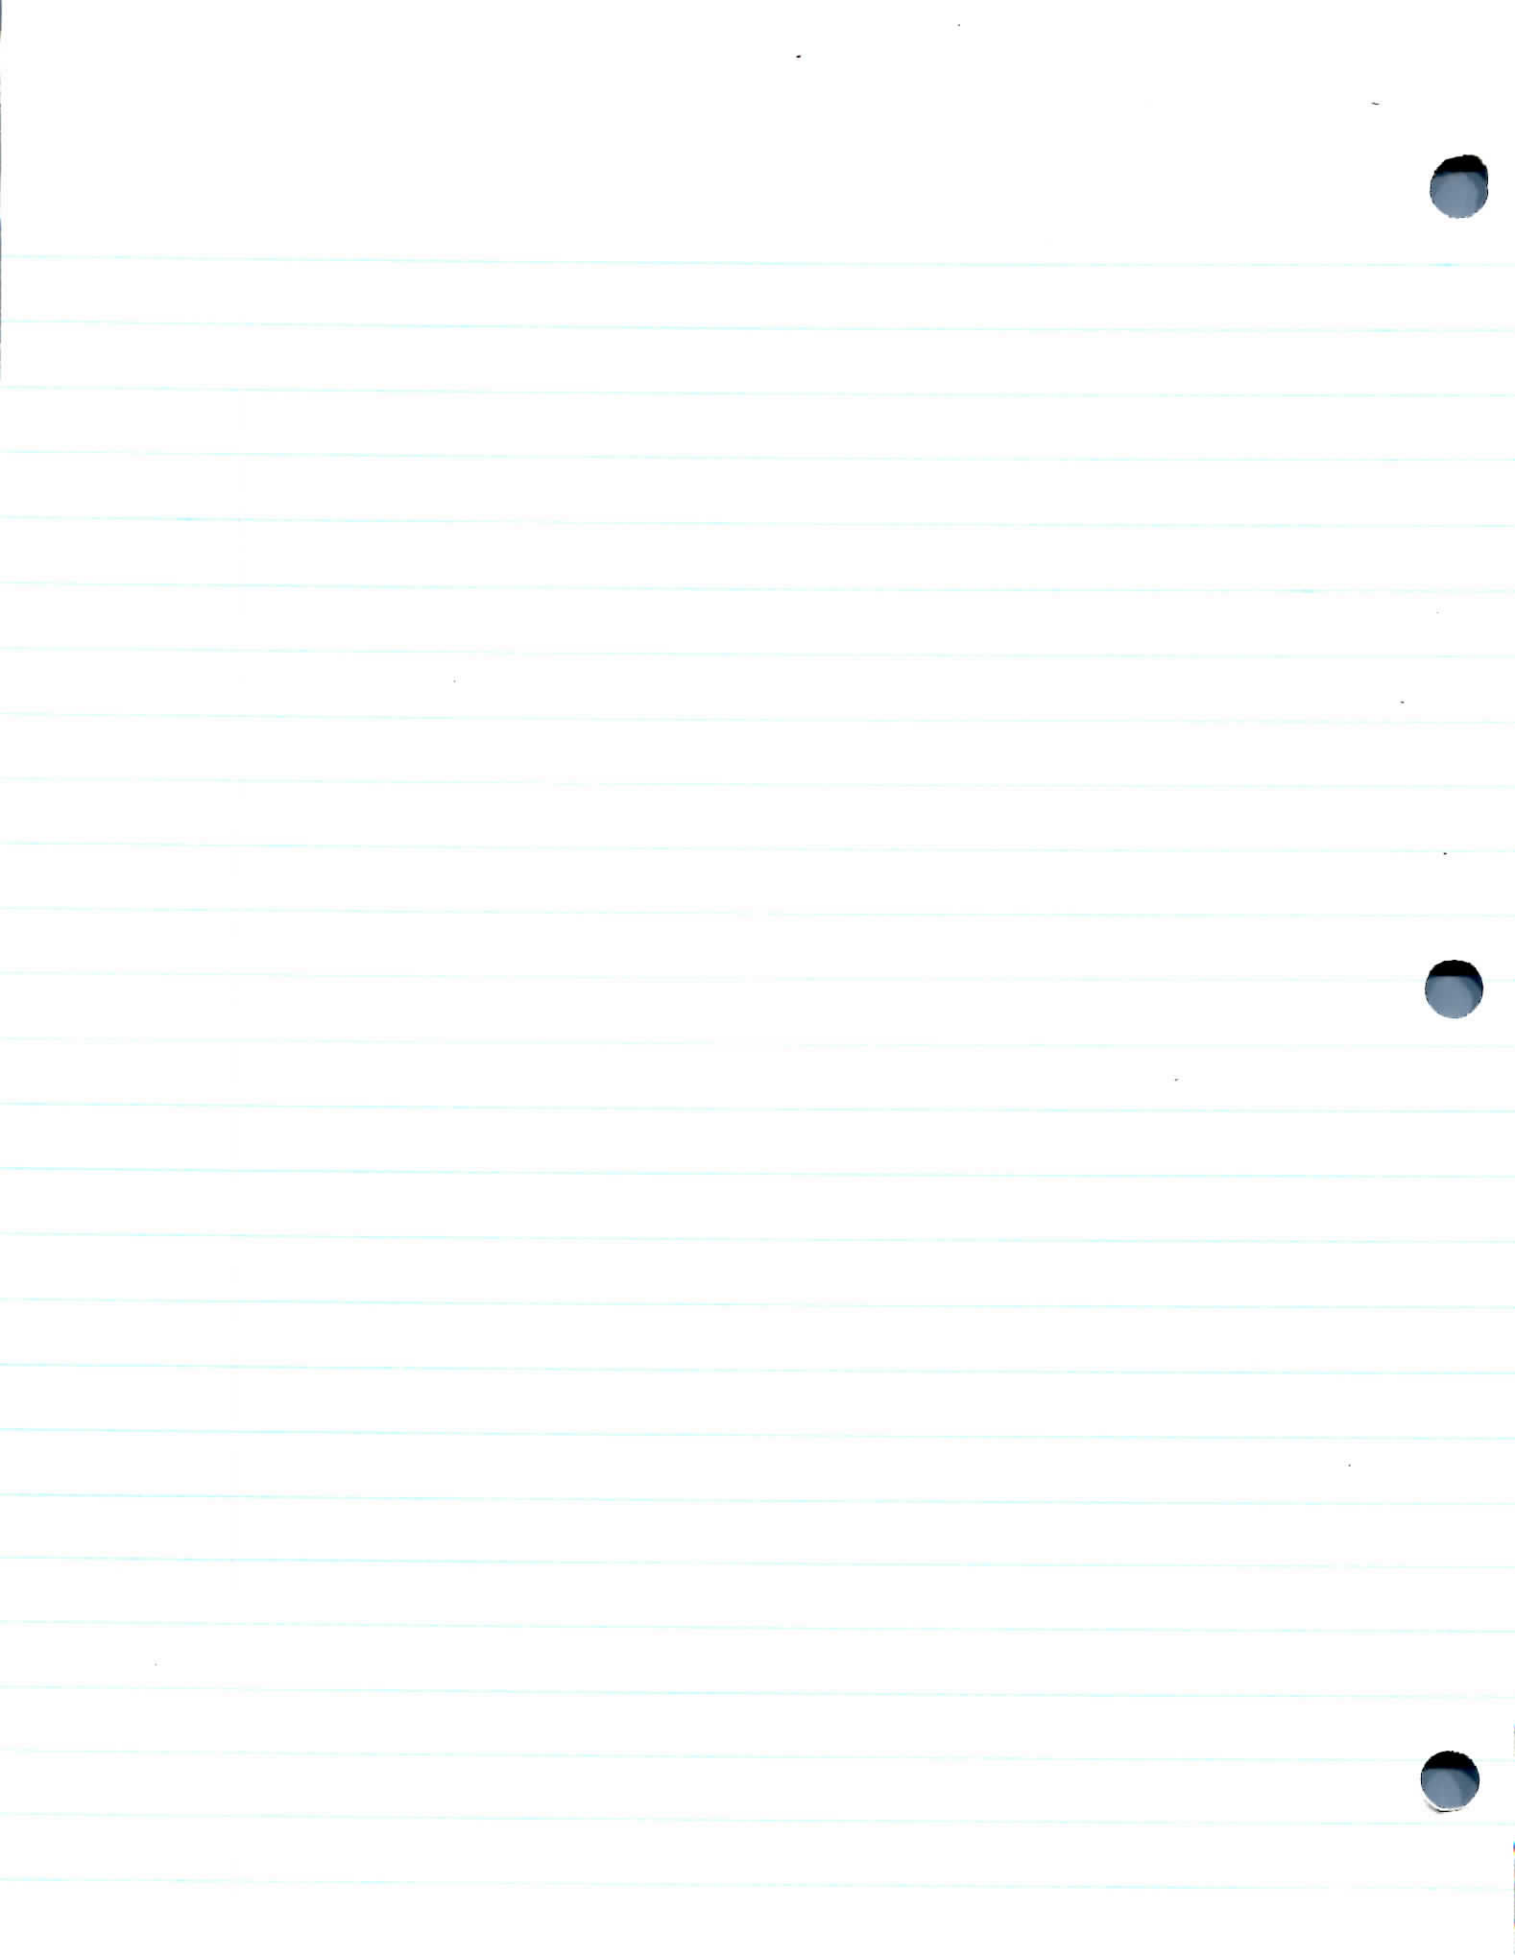

"Great job guys," Captain Jason Neff helped everyone aboard.

"Can me and my boys get like a membership to the Space 483) force?" Dave asked.

"Only - if you give me a membership to the Hungry Pelican," Edmund said.

Chapter 83: The End of the Honeymoon

At the Hungry Pelican...

Dave Harley gave Edmund a Pe--'s Angels jacket, "See ya Dave, it's been cool man."

"I'd say, we kicked a little as -," Dave shook Edmund's hand.

"Bye Angelica," Billy hugged her.

"Bye Billy, it's been nice meeting you all," Angelica was sad to leave.

"Check you later Pool," Edmund hugged his best friend. "Bye Pussy, you to P.D."

"Bye Mr. Sims," P.D. said, "Thanks."

"Sure pal," Edmund got into the 485

Gerrari with Angelica and drove down the long road to Gurtalia.

"Don't celebrate too long Billy," a man on a high cliff peered down, "you have to prove yourself to me, poor grandson, I may bill you as - dead."

"Pooh, I missed you," Pussy replied.

"I missed you too Pussy. Now we can start livin'."

The He--'s Angels rolled off, well actually rumbled off down the road.

Billy went off with Pooh, not knowing what he in store for him.

"Where we goin'?" Angelica asked.

"I figure we go back to the house and see what Willy and Kitty pu--ed up," Edmund replied.

At the house...

Edmund kissed Angelica and carried her, "angy, you're the greatest."

"I know," Angelica replied.

"Marileva is up there isn't she?"

Edmund asked.

"I guess so. Now shut up and fu -- me," Angelica ordered.

Willy and Kitty drove up, "look Kitty, Edmund's home."

"Who's that woman in that car with him?" Kitty asked.

"I didn't think he was that kind of person," Willy replied.

"That's mommy!" E.J. exclaimed as he ran over to the car with M.J.

Edmund opened the door, "that was the ultimate fu -- ! Oh high guys. This is Angelica."

"Hello," she exhaled heavily.

"Don't you have some explaining to do?" Kitty asked.

"Yeah Edmund where's Marileva?" Willy asked.

Angelica and Edmund looked at each other.

"Woah, you fu--ers have some explainin' to do," Edmund turned the tables. "Now come when I called, each time, the phone was busy."

"You weren't doin' heavy duty fu--in' on the couch, let alone the bed?!"

"Uh-shi-," Willy said to himself as he looked at Kitty.

They all explained things to each other before the night was over.

After Willy and Kitty left...

"You're so cute Angel," Edmund compliment, "I can't wait to fu--you to death."

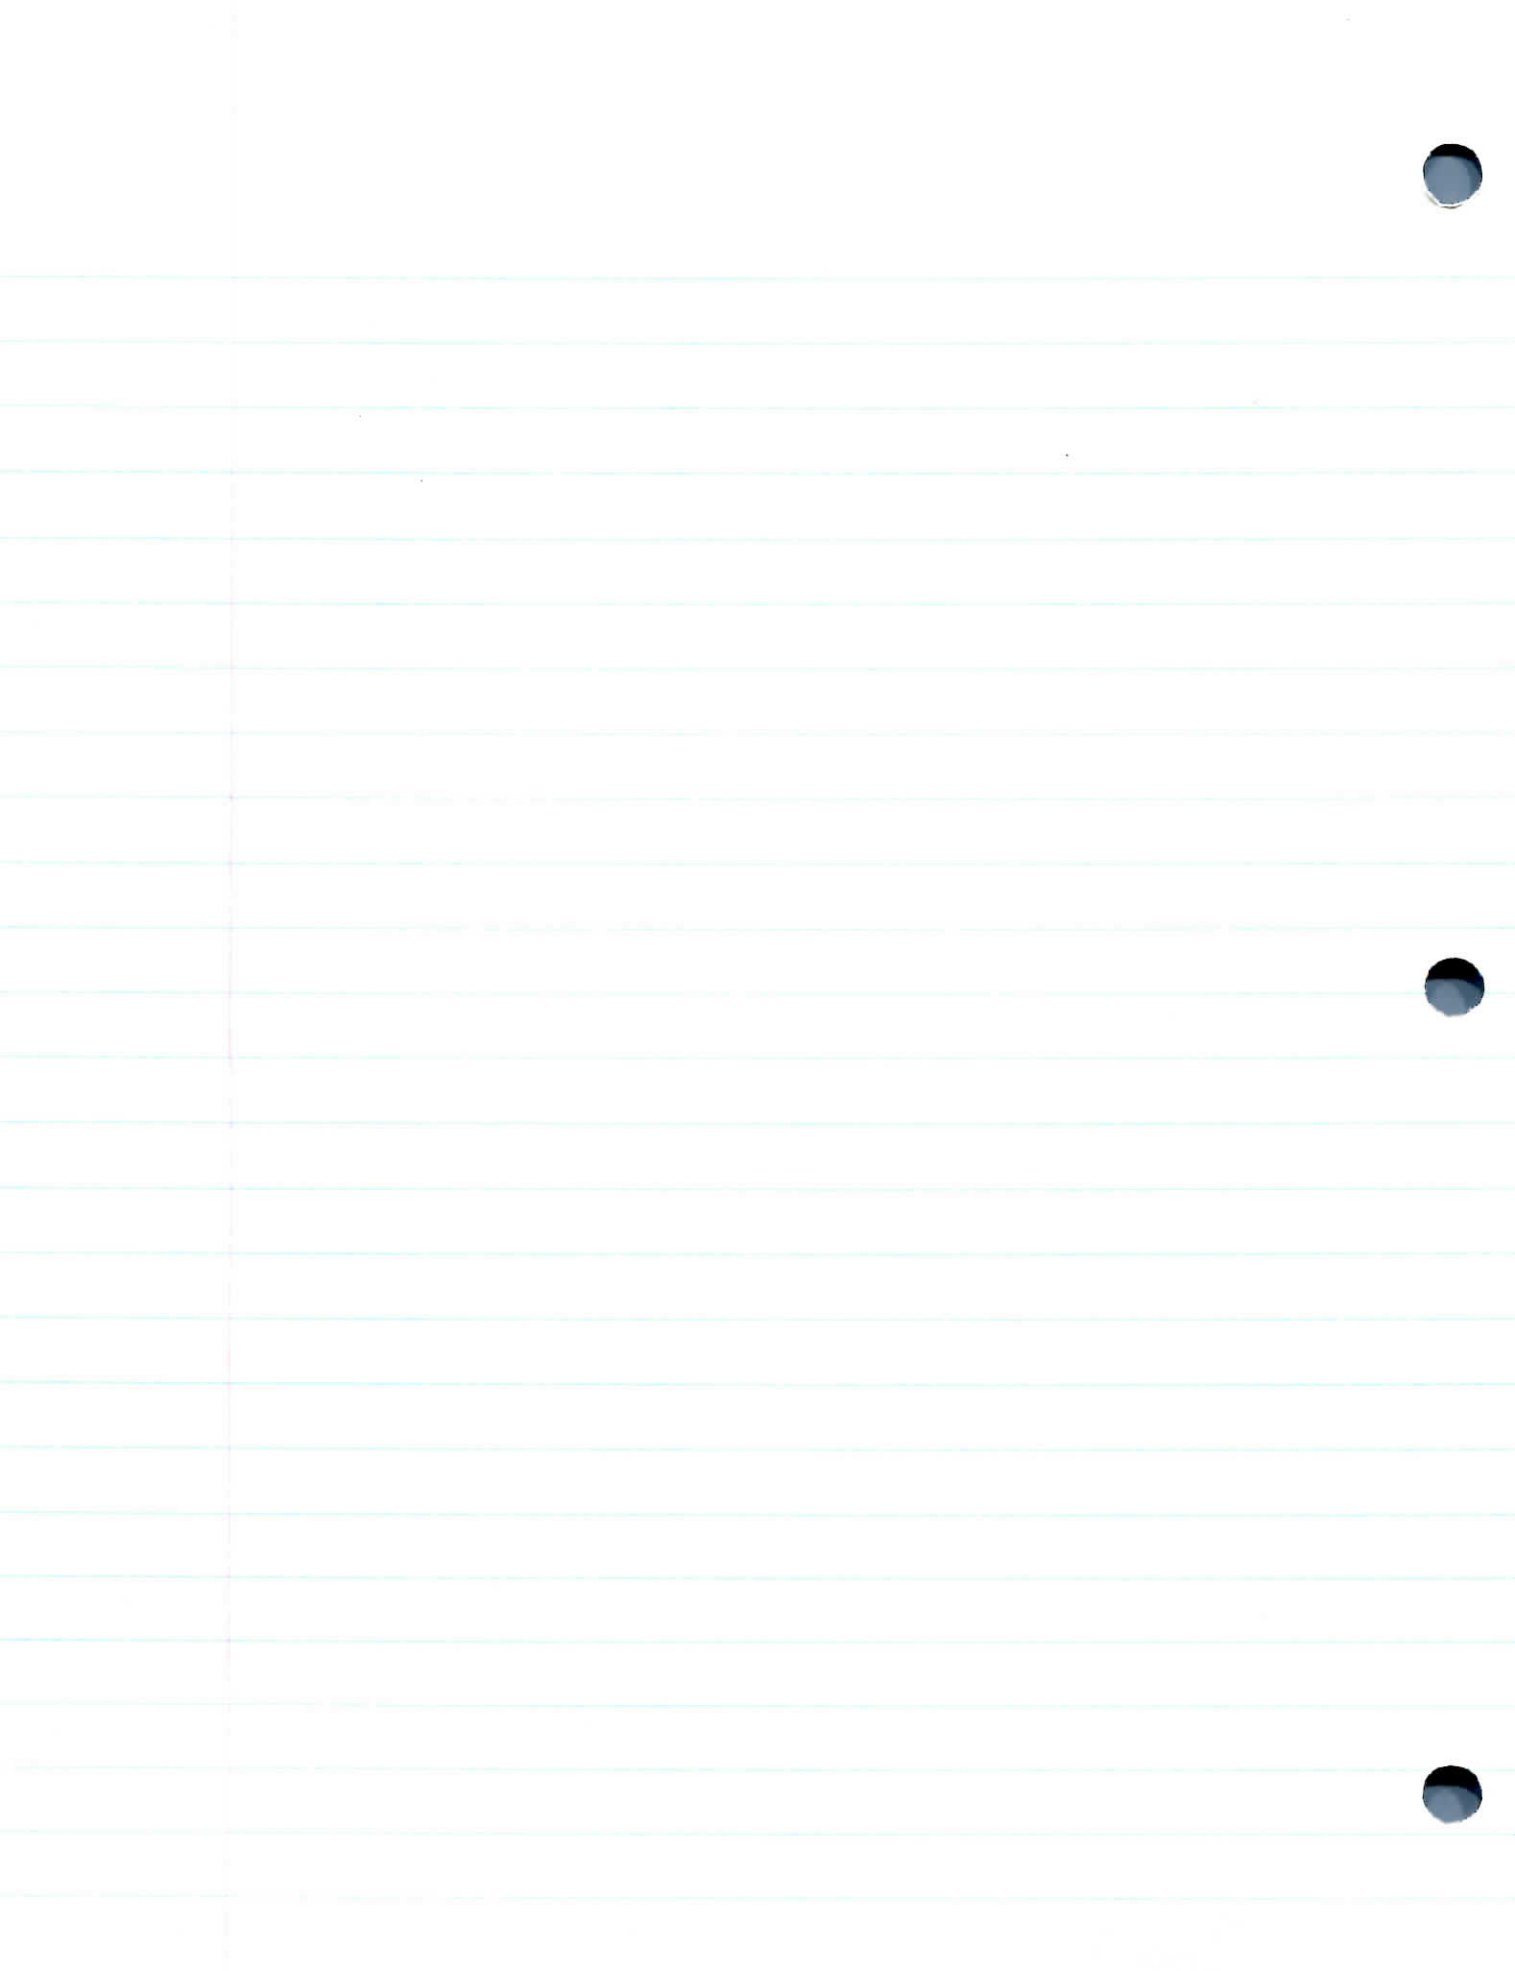

"Edmund, that's nice," Angelica replied, "I think you got me pregnant. Have you been wearing protection?"

"Have I ever?" Edmund answered. 488

"If I'm pregnant, I'll kick your ass-," Angelica stated.

"I love the fierceness in you," Edmund
replied.

They kissed and took a butt naked shower together.

Space Station Cbl + 8: The Gnoymoon

Edmund gets his true feelings out and shows loyalty to his late wife and his friends.

Very well thought out. :

Can't wait for the sequel.

This book is another of Edmund's best works. It doesn't hold out. It's explicit as fu -- (he-he).
